THE MONEY SITUATION.

[From the Chicago Inter Ocean.]

The prevailing remarkable condition of the money market is causing great uneasiness to bankers on the subject of profits. The condition is especially severe in New York City and with the banks doing a large business with country institutions, but it is also felt seriously in Chicago, and the trouble extends more or less to all the banks.

The primary cause of the small earnings of the banks at present is the lack of demand for money throughout the country. This has caused deposits to pile up in the banks to record-breaking totals. The country banks have been unable to employ their funds in the usual channels of business and have transferred them to the banks in Chicago and other business centers, because the banks in the large cities pay 3 per cent interest on other banks' deposits Faced with a lack of demand for money at home, the Chicago banks and those of similar cities have forwarded the money, in turn, to the New York banks, getting 3 per cent interest from the New York institutions. In New York the greater part of the money is being loaned at 1 per cent on call and around 3 per cent on time.

Naturally, this sort of business is not profitable to the banks It is said that few of the New York institutions doing an extensive country business are earning their dividends at present. A number of Chicago banks did not show their dividends earned in between the last two calls for statements. Practically all of the local banks are making greatly reduced earnings over a year ago. A number of the Chicago institutions have been putting into effect small economies and cutting the costly privileges to customers. The present quarter is likely to prove one of the most unprofitable in the recent history of American banking, and the outlook is for greatly reduced earnings for the whole year.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Light rains in Southern Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. There is a rain at North Platte, and there are light rains in Ohio Valley. It is clear and mild in the Northwest Temperature generally seasonable. Warming up Map is a favorable one.

Indications are for mostly fair weather and no decided change in temperatures. River at St. Louis nearly stationary

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The Toronto Stock Exchange has listed the Securities of the Mackay Companies—common stock $34,853,000, preferred $29,338,000.

The Philadelphia Electric Company has issued a call of $2 50 a share, payable in two installments of $1 25 each, payable June 1 and Dec. 1.

Business failures in the United States and Canada for the past week were 218, against 253 the previous week and 216 for the corresponding week last year

The Montezuma Lead Company's semi-annual guaranteed dividend on the preferred stock, due May 15, will be mailed on May 14 to stockholders of record May 7.

An Italian official crop bulletin, covering the period April 1 to 10, says that the weather was favorable and crop conditions improved. Corn was being planted.

A member of the Pillsbury Company, who was in Chicago, Thursday, was quoted as saying: "The Northwest has more Wheat than last year and there is less demand for Flour."

Bank Clearings of the leading financial centers of the United States for the past week aggregated $1,809,789,836, a decrease of 14 4 per cent compared with the corresponding week last year.

It is rumored in New York that the General Electric Company will shortly announce the issue of $5,000,000 new stock, issuable at par, each holder having the right to subscribe to 10 per cent of his present holdings.

The directors of the American Radiator Company have declared the regular quarterly dividend on the preferred stock of 1¾ per cent, payable May 14. The transfer books will be closed from May 9 to May 14 inclusive.

A St. Louis party, who is considered a well posted trader, wired Friday: "St. Louis will get 5,000,000 bu of new Wheat in July, compared with 2,500,000 bu last year" He bases his predictions on the fact that the bottom lands which last year were flooded have so far this year escaped.

A Live Stock man, speaking of conditions in Texas, said Cattle men are discouraged, owing to the very dry spell in the northern part of the State. They have been unable to sell their aged Steers to Northern dealers, which is crowding the range, working a hardship on the ranchmen, especially the ones having young Cattle.

The Michigan Copper Mining Company reports for the year ended Dec. 31, 1903: Receipts of $34,532 from the sale of 275,078 lbs of Copper and of $253,715 on account of assessments received, a total of $288,247. The expenditures aggregated $305,333, leaving a deficit of $16,986. Deducting this from the balance on hand on Dec. 31, 1902, of $60,932, leaves a balance on hand on Dec. 31, 1903, of $43,946.

An amended bill of complaint, making the Northern Pacific Railway Company a party defendant, was filed in the United States Court at Trenton, N J, Wednesday, in the suit brought by E H. Harriman, Winslow S Pierce and others to restrain the proposed plan of distribution. Judge Kirkpatrick fixed the first Monday in June for the Northern Pacific Company to make answer thereto.

The New York News Bureau says: "We can state authoritatively that there is absolutely no truth in the rumors that have been in circulation that the Atchison Railway is about to issue short time notes. We are informed that there is no such intention on the part of the company; that it has ample funds for all purposes for at least one year to come, and that it has cash on hand amounting to from $12,000,000 to $13,000,000."

Dornbush of April 19 says: "On the 15th inst., twenty-one steamers were at Odessa against nineteen the week before Of the former four are loading for London, one Liverpool, four Hull, five Rotterdam, four Hamburg and one each Marseilles and Antwerp. At Nikolaeff, eleven steamers are in port, of which seven are loading for the Continent. Business is blocked by trouble arising from the German-Dutch contract, which shippers will not accept."

Dornbusch of April 20 says: "The first fortnight of April has been in every respect most favorable for agriculture. The fine days have permitted the active pushing of all field work and have given an extraordinary fillip to vegetation. Wheat has materially improved, even in the districts which had been most severely visited by bad weather. The seeding of Corn has begun everywhere, and seeding of Beetroot, Hemp and Flax is nearing completion Meadow lands promise to yield satisfactory grazing in a very short time."

Marine interests at Chicago are firmly of the belief that another day or two will find practically all boats securely tied up, and that they will remain so until the fight between the marine unions and the Lake and Lumber Carriers' Associations, which control fully 90 per cent of the tonnage on the lakes, has been amicably adjusted. Efforts to settle with the Masters' and Pilots' Association, and their obstinate stand against making concessions coupled with the fact that vessel owners almost unanimously favor a late opening on account of the shrinkage in lake commerce this season, make it look as though there will be a long fight. Opinion that the boats may not get started before June is freely expressed.

The present status of the Steel bond conversion is that the underwriting syndicate of which J. P. Morgan & Co. are the managers owes the United States Steel Corporation $9,000,000 The corporation holds $12,000,000 of the second mortgage bonds, which it must turn over to the syndicate when the latter pays the cash. The underwriting syndicate is ready to pay the $9,000,000 cash as soon as notified to do so by the Steel corporation. As interest on the $12,000,000 of bonds held by the corporation does not begin until the bonds are turned over, the latter saves 5 per cent interest on $12,000,000 meantime The call for the $9,000,000 will terminate the syndicate's connection with the Steel corporation. It can then wind up the bond conversion transaction when it pleases.

An Eastern authority says that the Crucible Steel Company will lose heavily in the transaction whereby the United States Steel Corporation is to acquire the Clairton Steel Company. Crucible's total loss will probably exceed $4,000 000. This will be partly offset by the $1,000,000 Steel bonds it is to receive. On the other hand, the Steel corporation takes over from Crucible at cost the Coal and Iron ore mines of Clairton and the St. Clair Terminal Railroad. The mortgage on the Coal properties amounts to $1 100,000 The bonds of the Terminal Road aggregate $1 000,000 The Iron ore mines are mortgaged for $2,000,000 These will be taken care of, it is said, by the operation of the properties. Should the properties at any time fail to return sufficient for the interest the Steel corporation would have it to pay.

The Pacific Steel Company, which was recently incorporated at San Diego, Cal, with a capital of $100,000,000, and which has purchased extensive Iron deposits at the mouth of the Balzas River, Mexico, has also acquired from the Southern Republic large Iron deposits near the Pacific Coast, in the State of Michoacan, which were discovered several years ago. It is asserted that the company has options on other Iron lands on the Pacific Coast, and that the deals will be closed within a short time The purpose of the company is to erect big smelters and Steel plants on their Mexican properties, with a view to supplying Iron and Steel for the Panama Canal and also to the trade generally in Central and South American countries. Cleveland men are largely concerned in the Pacific Steel Company, whose Eastern representative is the Union Trust Company of Pittsburg.

CROPS IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

[From Broomhall's Corn Trade News, April 19.]

United Kingdom—With fine spring-like weather, crop prospects in the United Kingdom are naturally improving. We have had occasional showers and a temperature high enough to keep vegetation moving, but not to make it unduly forward, and as a result the winter crops make a better showing and the spring seedings are coming up nicely in the early fields. Spring Grain is now nearly all in the ground, but farmers have still plenty of sowing work before them with other crops and it is much to be hoped that April will finish as it has commenced—plenty of sunshine with occasional light rains. Although the outlook for our Wheat crop is decidedly better than it was, the reports are very far indeed from being enthusiastic, as to the prospects for next harvest. The most optimistic seem inclined to think that we get an average yield if the season turn out favorable from now onwards. It is much to be hoped that this will be the case, and that the very short acreage may also give over average quality to make up for lack of quantity, for even making a liberal allowance for spring seeding we still expect this season's Wheat area to be the smallest on record.

Russia—Reports as to the crops are varied, and speaking generally there is no lack of complaints. The weather is now too dry for the crops. It is confirmed that holders in the interior still have fair to good quantities of Grain on hand. The shipping movement is moderate.

Roumania—Braila advices say that vegetation is making good progress. Some showers have fallen and the spring crops are coming up in places, but more rain is wanted, especially within a radius of 56 miles of Braila. Supplies continue to come forward in moderate quantities only, and this naturally prevents any substantial increas in the exports.

Bulgaria—Prospects for winter crops are good, and seeding of the early spring crops has been finished under favorable conditions.

India—We hear of no complaints, and the harvest should now be well advanced even in the latest districts. Shipments last week were rather smaller, but much heavier than in corresponding week of last year.

Australasia—We have no fresh news from this quarter. Farmers should now be busy with the seeding of the new crop and there is little doubt the land has plenty of moisture to start germination.

Argentina—The gathering of the Corn crop is making satisfactory progress. Receipts of Wheat last week were smaller; shipments were also reduced moderately, and we should not be surprised to see further reductions in the near future, especially as the new Corn crop is now beginning to move and some of the tonnage will be wanted for this crop from May onwards. Our agent at Buenos Ayres reckons that there still remains about 40,000,000 bu Wheat to be shipped, which will make the total for the season 80,000,000 bu. This would be a record quantity, but only slightly over the previous best, and well below the early forecasts.

France—The weather continues seasonable and very favorable for the crops. The only complaints come from the South, where the rainfall has been deficient, but the Southern districts are not important Wheat growers. Generally speaking, the condition of the standing Wheat crop could not be better, people are already looking forward to a good harvest, and Wheat in distant positions is quoted at a substantial discount. Supplies to provincial markets keep light, but there is a general belief that growers hold good quantities, which millers will be able to obtain later on advantageous terms.

Italy—The weather recently has been favorable and crop conditions have improved.

Germany—The weather turned spring-like last week and crop reports show a satisfactory condition. Indications continue to point to smaller supplies of native Wheat.

North Africa—Some fears are expressed that the recent heavy rains may have damaged the crops, but it is seldom "the coast" is troubled with damage of this class

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Weather conditions are fine and were so Sunday. There is no moisture in the Corn and Oats territory and not much in the Northwest.

Indications are the Western storm will advance slowly, causing rain in Mississippi Valley, Tuesday night. Fair in this section for next 36 hours. Temperature changes slight. Observer at Sault Ste Marie reports nothing but rotten ice in straits and navigation can be resumed at once.

Every bakery in the three cities is affected, with the exception of the Hebrew bakeries. The daily output of bread in Boston is from 300 000 to 350,000 loaves, and this supply will be practically shut off."

E J Smiley, Secretary of the Kansas Grain Dealers' Association, who sent out some alarming estimates of the crop prospects prior to the recent rains, says that on the west line of Harper County to Sumner Sedgwick, Harvey and Reno, some of the banner Wheat counties of the State, the crop is in first-class condition, promising a larger yield than that of last year.

The Mark Lane Express of April 18 says: "The week has favored farm work and has also improved the appearance of the growing Wheat. What with sowings of the last of the Barley and Pulse, with the full tide of sowings of Oats and small seeds, farmers have been too busy to think much of the markets. Rye is decidedly stronger than a fortnight ago, so that as green food it will not be the failure feared in March. The meadows look more green and less gray than they did at Easter, while Clover, Sanfoin and Lucerne have all felt the stimulus of April suns and showers. The high temperature has been a boon to vegetation and the Fruit trees are beginning to show their blossoms."

It is said that there is nothing specially new in the plans of the Republic Iron and Steel Company to issue bonds. For several months the management has had under consideration the matter of issuing some $5,000,000 bonds to wipe out its floating indebtedness, which is said to be about $4,000,000, and to provide money to open its Coal and Coke fields. In view of the present condition of the securities markets, it is doubted that these bonds will be brought out for some little time. It is understood that they will be a first mortgage bond. The business of the company is reported as very good in view of the rather general dullness in the Iron and Steel industries. The Republic company has all three of its furnaces at Thomas, Ala., in operation for the first time in several months, and the daily output is over 700 tons. A rumor exists to the effect that the company may relight the fires in its rolling mill in Birmingham soon. This plant has been idle seven months.

The stock of Flax Seed at Duluth on April 30 was 8,001,520 bu, compared with 7,894,933 bu the previous week—an increase of 106,596 bu. Stock last year, 4 035,825 bu.

Stocks in New York developed strength and Railway shares scored good advances. Steel was the weak feature and lost ⅜@¾. Copper broke ½. Money 1¼ to 1½ per cent

The receipts of Wheat at Liverpool during the past three days were 328 000 bu, of which 16 000 were American. Receipts of Corn 224 000 bu, of which 104,000 bu were American

Local Securities were fairly handled with a good advance in Box Board preferred of ⅜. Pneumatic Tool 3½, and Carbon common 1. The only important decline was 1½ in Radiator common.

Broomhall Cables "Wheat weak on private cables from America. Later, prices recovered on small offerings and good cargo demand. Corn reflecting American decline Opened lower on further May liquidation"

Cotton in New York was weak most of the day, but was rallied by steadiness in Liverpool and small receipts. The weather crop bulletin said cool weather was unfavorable for germination. The market closed 1@5 points lower.

The proposed amendment to the rules of the Chicago Board of Trade to advance the commission for selling car lots of Wheat from ½c to 1c was adopted Monday. The amendment making the Clearing House the repository for margin certificates instead of the Secretary's office was also adopted

Bradstreet's report of the available supply for the past week shows the following changes:

	1904, bu.	1903, bu.
Wheat east of Rockies	Dec 928,000	Dec. 3.510,000
Europe and afloat	Inc. 2,000,000	Dec. 1,600,000
Total	Inc. 1,072,000	Dec 5,110,000
Corn	Dec. 1,367,000	Dec. 1,050,000
Oats	Dec. 857,000	Dec. 253,000

"Early guesses" on the Missouri crop report to be issued to-morrow are 84 for Winter Wheat, compared with 81 last month, 86 last April, and 53 at harvest last year. The acreage is about the same as last year, and if 53 per cent produced 22,000,000 bu in 1903, 84 per cent would produce about 35,000,000 bu this year. Based on the usual averages, the yield this year would approximate 42,000,000 bu, or 14,000,000 bu less than in 1902, when the yield was 20 bu per acre.

Broomhall's weekly foreign crop summary says: United Kingdom—Weather been favorable since last report; condition Wheat crop on the whole is fair. France, Germany, Italy, Spain, and North Africa—Weather past week been favorable, condition of growing crop is good. Hungary, Bulgaria, Turkey—Although present condition of Wheat is good, yet rain is needed to insure continuance of present favorable outlook. Roumania—Rains needed generally, in some parts of country crops suffering from lack of moisture. Russia—Our advices state rain wanted in some districts, but reports vary and situation on the whole is uncertain. India—Expects shipments to the extent of about 1,600,000 bu this week, but afterward they may perhaps be smaller, as importers are not buying much Indian Wheat, despite the very low prices.

WEATHER BUREAU REPORT.

The following is an abstract of the weekly weather report issued at Washington to-day

With practically no rain in the Spring Wheat region, seeding has been vigorously pushed, except in the Red River Valley, where the ground requires a week of dry weather. Seeding is nearly finished in Central and Southern Minnesota and South Dakota. Good stands reported from Oregon and Washington In Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri, Winter Wheat has advanced favorably, except where damaged by floods in the last-named State In Illinois Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Maryland, Virginias and North Carolina an improvement is indicated, but in Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania much will be plowed up, and the outlook in Michigan is poor. Wheat is now heading in Southern Kansas The crop has advanced favorably on the Pacific Coast. The outlook is exceptionally fine in Washington

Corn—With the exception of Kansas, Southern Missouri and Arkansas, planting has progressed slowly, but preparations for this work throughout the belt have been extensive, and with good weather the coming week planting will be vigorously pushed in Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois and Indiana. In the East Gulf States and Tennessee, Corn has suffered from drouth and low temperature, but outlook is more favorable in the Central and West Gulf States, where it has received final cultivation.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Demand moderate and market rather quiet. Local stocks are now reported 20,250 brls.

WINTER WHEAT—Was in fair milling demand and feeling firm. Scarcely any Wheat coming and not enough to make more than nominal quotations. No. 2 Red in store nominally $1 00@1 02, and fresh arrivals free on board quotable at $1 00@1 05. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals free on board quotably 98c@$1 03. No. 1 Hard sold to the extent of one car at $1 00. No 2 Hard sold to the extent of 104,000 bu at May price, and fresh receipts quotably 89@91c free on board. No. 3 Hard fresh receipts free on board quotably 83@89c.

SPRING WHEAT Met with a fair milling demand, and the market about 1c lower No 1 Northern in store nominally 87¾@89c and fresh arrivals free on board quotably 92@94c No 2 Northern fresh receipts quotably 88@92c. No. 3 Spring ranged at 87@92c for ordinary to choice. No. 4 Spring sold at 8@86c for fair to good and ranged at 62@84c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—A good trade, but chiefly local and on the professional order. Sentiment leaned to the "bear" or selling side early, but later on the demand improved. Closing prices, however, showed the May up ⅛c, July up ⅜@¼c, while the September lost ¼c. The ideal weather conditions and easier cables started the market easy, and the decline was helped along by the heavy selling of a prominent local elevator concern "Long" property came out in large quantities, and the situation for a time was decidedly weak. Liverpool quoted spot California and Kansas unchanged, while No. 1 Northern was off ½d, and La Plata 1d lower Futures were ⅜@½d lower Receipts there the past three days, 328 000 bu and only 16,000 bu from America. London ⅜@¾d lower Paris ¼@½c higher and Antwerp unchanged. London reported cargoes off coast firm, and bids 3d higher than yesterday The map showed a continuation of favorable conditions for the crop and farm work—good rains reported in Kansas, light rains in S Dakota, and trace in Ohio Valley. Showers are possible in Western South Dakota and fair weather in North Dakota and Minnesota. Showers for Kansas and Nebraska. Minneapolis wired "Weather conditions in the Northwest continue very favorable for seeding, and unless hindered by rains a good share will be completed by Saturday night" Minneapolis also wired early "None of the mills buying any cash Wheat this morning." At the decline heavy commission house buying, credited to the principal early seller, caught floor traders "short," and in covering, prices were advanced Stocks here in all positions were reported at 4,630,000 bu, compared with 4,589,000 bu a week ago and 8,036,000 bu one year ago Contract stocks decreased 34 570 bu and now include 908 952 bu, against 3,042,793 bu same date in 1903 Bradstreet's increased 1,072,000 bu, against 5,110 000 bu decrease last year Stocks at Minneapolis, Duluth and in Northwest country elevators were reported as 1 219,000 bu larger than in 1903 and 4,845,000 bu smaller than in 1902. St Louis reported sales of 75,000 bu to mills and Flour shipments at Minneapolis yesterday were 102,000 brls Primary receipts were 113,000 bu smaller than last year Kansas City and St. Louis received 92,000 bu, last year, 155,000 bu, shipments, 112,000 bu Minneapolis stocks show 400,000 bu decrease the past three days Northwest cars 65 under those of 1903 Exports were small and 13 boat loads were accepted at the seaboard Missouri State report expected to show condition of 84, against 81 last month and 86 in 1903 Sale of 104,000 bu No 1 Hard was reported here at May price. Receipts at Duluth 12 cars, and at Minneapolis 49 cars, a total of 61 cars, against 151 yesterday, 86 cars a week ago, and 128 cars last year Local receipts included 32 cars Winter 10 cars Spring, no mixed, a total of 42 cars, against 62 cars last year. Included in above were no cars of contract grade. There were also 8 cars and no bu from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow were not reported. Withdrawals to-day were 3,300 bu. Receipts at Western points were 218,057 bu, against 331,072 last year At Eastern points 9,690 bu, against 442 349 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 304,713 bu, against 508,521 bu last year, and from Eastern points 4,123 bu, against 49,063 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 13,682 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 75,692 bu

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Good trade and closing shade higher for nearby and shade lower for deferred futures.

DECEMBER—Sold at 79⅛@79¾c. Opened with sales at 79¼c and 79⅛c; sold to 79⅜c, to 79¼c, to 79¾c, and closed at 79½c.

CORN—The trade was larger and market more animated, the feeling manifested being quite unsettled, with the close ⅛c lower for May, unchanged for July and September off 1-16c Sentiment at the start was weak and "bear" interests quite aggressive on the selling side. July broke to 47¼@47⅜c, the fine weather, lake situation and increasing receipts being the dominating factors. At the decline "shorts" accepted liberal quantities, and Wheat rallying, the market displayed a stronger tone. Receipts were 324 cars, and 32 cars were contract, compared with 318 cars and 38 cars respectively a year ago. There were 19 cars contract switched from private to public elevators Liverpool quoted spot unchanged and futures ¼@⅜c lower. Receipts there past three days 224,000 bu, with 104,000 bu from America. Corn planting is progressing slowly outside Kansas, Southern Missouri and Arkansas, but preparation is extensive and will be vigorously pushed with good weather. The Lake Carriers Association declared an absolute suspension of lake navigation until the controversy with the masters is ended, but the meeting at Cleveland Thursday may bring about a settlement. Stocks here in all positions were reported 8,925,000 bu, compared with 9,054,000 bu one week ago, and 3,427,000 bu one year ago. Contract supplies decreased 200,900 bu, and now include 4,621,904 bu, against 1,826,808 bu same date in 1903. Bradstreet's decreased 1,367,000 bu, against 1,050,000 bu decrease same week in 1903. Western receipts 470,000 bu; last year, 435,000 bu. Shipments 276,060 bu and 555,000 bu respectively Local arrivals 225,000 bu; shipments 127,000 bu Exports 66,000 bu; last year 93,100 bu. Missouri report expected to show condition 75 per cent, against 72 last year. Southwestern markets were steady Cash sales here 75,000 bu and 5 boat loads at the seaboard. Car lots in fair demand with prices about ¼c lower. No. 2 closed at 47½c No. 2 Yellow sold at 51c, and closed at 51c. No 3 closed at 47¼c No. 3 Yellow closed at 49¼c No 4 at 45@45½c.

Corn by sample—Demand was fair and offerings moderate. Feeling easy and prices unchanged to ½c lower, but closed firm Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 30@40c. No. 4 at 44@49c. No 3 at 46½@49c. No. 3 Yellow at 49½@50c. No. 2 at 47¼@49¼c. No. 2 Yellow at 52c No 3 White at 46½@47¾c No 2 White at 47¾@48½c. Billed through: No Grade at 36c. No. 4 at 46@46½c. No. 3 Yellow at 48@48½c. No. 3 White at 45½c.

DECEMBER—Sold at 43⅝@44¼c. Opened at 44⅜c and sold at 43⅝c, to 44¼c, and closed at 44¼c asked

OATS—Were unsettled, with prices off ⅜@⅝c early, followed by advance of ½@1⅛c, and closed ½c higher on May at almost the top, and ¼c lower for other months. The decline was in sympathy with other Grains, and on fine weather. The reaction was with Wheat and Corn. Traders sold early and bought later The Illinois crop bulletin said germination was slow, seeding about finished and the crop generally in good condition. May was hard to buy, and shipping houses took it Some houses who had made good sales for lake and rail shipment, are sending Oats East all rail owing to the lake tie up Cash demand was not so good Sales 46,000 bu Arrivals 100 cars, and 6 cars Standard were withdrawn from private elevators Withdrawals from public houses 163,425 bu. THE HOP SITUATION.

[New York Producers' Price Current, April 30.]

The market continues in about the same dull rut that has characterized the trade ever since the middle of January. Brewers are all complaining of slow sales and show no disposition to operate, while there is little incentive for trading between dealers. The only business we have heard of on the local market was the sale of 160 bales last Saturday of medium to prime Oregons. The only encouraging feature in the situation is the comparatively moderate remaining stocks, and this fact keeps holders of fine grades steady in their views, as they claim all will be wanted sooner or later, and they are in hopes that with the advent of warm weather and increased consumption of Beer that brewers will be compelled to operate, as the latter generally have allowed their stocks of Hops to run down quite low. In this State growers have at last been enabled to get in their yards and report the roots to have wintered very well. Weather conditions on the coast continue favorable and work in the yards is progressing nicely. Advices from Germany report splendid growing weather and prospects favorable, but nothing doing in 1903 Hops. English advices continue to report quiet markets. Liverpool cable quotes Oregons £5 15s@£6 1os.

FREIGHTS AT SAN FRANCISCO.

[From the Commercial News, April 28.]

The Grain freight market is dull with the feeling a little firmer in view of the decline in the price of Wheat and Barley and the improved crop prospects, but rates remain nominally the same in the absence of new business. A small vessel has been offered this week for Grain at 17s 6d, but shippers refused to give over 16s 3d, the rate of the last fixture. There is no inclination at all to transact any business for new crop loading and rates remain about as before, 22s 6d to 23s. In the north shippers are not desirous to charter ahead, as they express the opinion that tonnage will be plentiful when the time to load comes on; the last fixtures reported for the new season were at 26s 3d and 27s 6d and the present rates are nominally the same. The French bark Marguerite Dollfus, which arrived on the Sound recently having lost two good charters to arrive, is reported to have been offering at 19s on the Sound for prompt loading.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET.

BOSTON, April 29.—The Commercial Bulletin says: "The market is dull aside from the purchases by the American Woolen Company, which have included about 1,500,000 lbs Montana, 2,000,000 lbs staple Oregon, and 4,000 bales of New Zealand crossbreds. The sales were made at low prices, staple Oregon selling at 13c in the grease, or 48c scoured, and crossbreds at 31c in the grease, or 45@46c clean. Foreign markets are firm and tending higher. The new clip in the West is selling at full prices. The shipments of Wool from Boston to date from Dec 31, 1903, are 74,641,317 lbs, against 82,105,843 lbs at the same date last year. The receipts to date are 61,710,655 lbs, against 67,949,437 lbs for the same period last year."

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

There is a very favorable condition this morning. There are heavy rains in Southern Kansas; it is raining at Oklahoma, and there are good rains through Texas. There are light showery in Manitoba; practically no rain in the Dakotas and Minnesota, and higher temperatures everywhere. There are light showers in the Ohio Valley. It is the most favorable situation all around—clear and warm in the Spring Wheat area; showers in the Southwest drouth field, and clear and warm in the important Corn and Oats States.

Indications are the fair weather will continue in this district, while the unsettled, rainy condition will gradually extend eastward over the Ohio and possibly Middle Mississippi Valley. No change in temperatures indicated.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The Wabash net earnings for March are $316,785, a decrease of $243,395.

The packing at Milwaukee since March 1 is estimated at 84,251 Hogs, against 77,684 for the corresponding time in 1903.

The average weight of the Sheep received at Chicago during April was 88 lbs, compared with 87 lbs in March, 87 lbs in April, 1903, and 90 lbs in April, 1902.

The Union Stock Yards at Chicago have received 101,792 cars of Live Stock in the past four months, compared with 97,410 cars for the corresponding time in 1903.

The Diamond Match Company will probably appeal from the decision of Judge Morris of Duluth, who decided that the Union Match Company was not infringing the patents of the former.

East bound shipments of the past week are as shown in the following table:

	Flour, brls.	Grain, bu.	Prov. tons.
Past week	86,022	1,468,000	24,996
Previous week	123,187	1,448,000	27,557
Last year	51,565	1,159,000	21,235

Average weight of Live Stock at Chicago for months mentioned follows:

	Apr., 1904.	Mar., 1904.	Apr., 1903.	Apr., 1902.	Apr., 1901.
Hogs	208	206	222	214	226
Cattle	1,033	1,068	1,020	940	1,041
Sheep	88	87	87	90	90

An Indianapolis, Ind., dispatch says: "Forty acres of Live Stock sheds and pens are burning at the Union Stock Yards and it is believed that they will be totally destroyed. There is no immediate danger of the fire spreading to the manufacturing and packing plants. The loss is estimated at $200,000."

Imports of Specie at New York last week were $40,768 Gold and $9,807 Silver. Total, $56,575, against $76,311 the previous week and $279,409 in the same period last year. Exports of Specie from this port to all countries for last week $488,413 Silver and $12,675,220 Gold, a total of $13,163,663, against $1,033,391 Gold and Silver in same week last year.

People close to the Lackawanna management have information that the road earned 6 per cent on the stock in March alone, and that its earnings now are so large that it could double the stock and pay 10 per cent on the capitalization. Many propositions have been considered in regard to a readjustment, or "cutting a Melon," as the street phrases it.

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago for the past week was $4 90, being the lowest week since the first week of last February, 15c lower than the previous week, and 55c lower than the high week of last March. The average price the corresponding week a year ago was $6 95; two years ago, $7 01; three years ago, $5 93; four years ago, $5 50, and five years ago, $3 90.

The Governing Committee of the New York Stock Exchange has approved recommendations by the committee on stock list for the following securities: Of the Citizens' Central National Bank of New York, $1,000,000 additional capital amount, making the total amount listed to date $2,550,000. Of the Long Island Railroad Company, $10,000,000 guaranteed 4 per cent refunding mortgage coupon bonds of 1949.

Corn Trade News of April 23 says: "Our Hamburg correspondent reports that very fine weather has prevailed all the week, and vegetation is making good progress. The little winter crop damage in some parts is counterbalanced by good condition elsewhere. The market is dull and declining for River Plate Wheat and Barley; Rye, however, maintains its value on account of scarcity, and Corn meets a fair demand at the decline."

Official announcement of a dividend of 1½ per cent and ¼ extra on Northern Pacific stock is made for the current quarter. About Feb. 1 a dividend of 1½ per cent for the quarter was declared. This makes 3¼ per cent for the last half of the present fiscal year, and makes the distribution on Northern Pacific stock for the quarter the same as it is expected will be declared on Great Northern stock. "The dividends will be paid on May 2 to those holders who are legally entitled to receive them," says the official announcement.

Announcement was made, Friday, of the dissolution of the Erie voting trust next Monday. A circular is to be issued giving the official statement. It was announced that out of 6,000 stockholders only 1,560 consented to the further extension of the voting trust, and inasmuch as it has been understood from the beginning of the discussion that J. P. Morgan and those associated with him were desirous of continuing their control of the property through the trustees the vote is evidently a defeat for these interests.

The Tennessee Central Railroad Company has arranged to float first and second mortgage bonds to the amount of nearly $11,000,000. The present bonds are to be called in and canceled, and the holders have agreed to take the new issue in their place. The new issue of the first mortgage bonds will be at the rate of $12,500 per mile. It is believed that the sale of these bonds will realize over $3,000,000, and thus wipe out the floating debt of over $1,000,000, and end the receivership. The Mississippi Valley Trust Company of St. Louis is made trustee.

With regard to the fact that a number of the yards of the American Shipbuilding Company are about to close down because of the shrinkage in business, an official of that company said: "Conditions are nothing more than we are prepared to confront. When the dividend was passed on the common stock last fall it was simply the action of a conservative management, who foresaw a dull summer in the shipbuilding industry. Business is by no means permanently depressed, and there is reason for believing that after the election the industry will thrive again."

Disbursements by industrial corporations for dividends in May will be the smallest for that month in a series of years. The total, based on returns thus far, is only $14,991,357, against $21,025,697 in 1903 and $18,793,981 in May, 1902. This change in the May dividend situation is easily explained. Last year the United States Steel Corporation paid a quarterly dividend of $8,930,496, but this year the disbursement will be reduced to $4,054,919 in consequence of the conversion of preferred stock into bonds. Other companies will disburse dividends on a reduced percentage, and several which paid last year will be missing from the list.

The Times of Argentina, March 28, says: "After having fruitlessly waited for the anticipated boom consequent on the war in the East, holders have come to the conclusion that it is preferable to follow the ordinary course of the home and consuming markets by bringing prices down to the shipping parity. The result has been an active business which will, doubtless, continue until North American quotations show a slight advance, that being the signal for holders to demand double the advance established in the States. The reports connected with the coming Corn crop continue to be unfavorable, much Corn having been lost."

The Chicago Inter Ocean says: "The rumor of a reorganization of the American Can Company is again circulating about the financial district. Owing to the desirability of such a step the rumor finds many believers, but the same arguments that are made for it could be made to apply to nearly every company whose stock is traded in on the Chicago Exchange. One man who attended the annual meeting of the American Can stockholders this week is known to have told his friends that he received assurances at the time that the company would be reorganized within a short time, and that there would also be important changes in the management."

Dornbusch's Buda Pesth correspondent, writing under date of April 16, says of Flour: "Business was still small during the past week and difficult to negotiate; neither the home market nor exporters took any appreciable quantities from the market. Bohemia made bids for fair lines early in the week, but at limits so low that, notwithstanding the greatest desire of the millers to meet the buyers, the business had to be declined. Deliveries are anything but satisfactory; at the same time, new business has now been so long in abeyance that it seems reasonable to look for an early revival of buying operations. Feedingstuffs are quiet, with moderate transactions."

Gold engagements in New York to-day for export to Paris to-morrow were $1,750,000.

Consols in London closed at 89¾ for money and 89 15-16 for the account, a decline of 3-16 to ⅛.

Ten packers purchased 16,700 Hogs to-day; shippers, 6,000; left over, 5,000. Market closed steady.

Reported that 152,000 bu Wheat, 64,000 bu Corn and 70,000 bu Oats were taken at the seaboard to-day for export.

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Tuesday, was $4 71, against $4 70 Monday, $5 00 a week ago, and $6 89 a year ago.

A Topeka, Kan., man, who has covered the greater part of the Wheat belt in that State, says the crop is looking fine.

Deliveries on May contracts to-day were 80,000 bu Corn, 10,000 bu Oats, 10,000 bu Rye, 1,000 brls Mess Pork, and 200,000 lbs Short Rib Sides.

Japanese Gold to the amount of $4,275,000 was deposited to-day in the San Francisco Sub-Treasury for payment in New York by telegraphic transfer.

The formal act of turning over the Panama Canal to the United States Government was performed at Panama with much ceremony at 7 A. M. May 4.

The stock of Flax Seed in interior elevators of the Northwest on May 1 estimated at 233,000 bu, compared with 471,000 bu on April 1 and 204,000 bu on May 1, 1903.

With an area six per cent less than in 1903, and a condition of 81, the outlook for Wheat in Missouri favors a crop of about 38,850,000 bu, compared with 22,194,000 bu in 1903, and 56,266,000 bu in 1902.

Local Securities were traded in moderately and prices moved irregularly. Biscuit and Can preferred were advanced slightly. Pneumatic Tool was weak and 2½ lower, and Quaker Oats preferred lost 1 point.

The Agricultural Department wires: "The May report on May 10 at 4 P. M. will include acreage and condition of Winter Wheat, condition of winter Rye, meadow mowing lands, spring pastures and spring plowing."

Cotton in New York averaged higher. Liverpool advanced, and the "short" interest was more active on the buying side. Weather reports were "bearish". July was the most active. Closing prices were 7@19 points higher.

A branch of the State Grain Inspection Department will be established at Sleepy Eye, Minn., this summer, on account of the large amount of Grain handled by the mill there, which intends to increase its capacity to 5,500 brls shortly.

A dispatch from Boston says: "General demand for Wool quiet, except that local dealers have moved 3 000,000 lbs of domestic Wool, principally Montana, and over 1,000,000 lbs of foreign cross breds at low prices. Fleece Wools quiet and firm."

Stocks in New York were favorably affected by fine crop weather West and an improvement in London. There was more buying to cover by the "short" interest and a higher range, but with few exceptions net gains were small. Money 1½ per cent.

A Kansas City man says: "Kansas may raise 75,000,000 bu Wheat, but if we were able to take care of 650,000,000 bu on the last crop without much export demand, we will not be troubled with all the Wheat we can raise in this country under present conditions."

A message from Kansas City, Tuesday, said: "Rain is falling all over Western Kansas to-day. The Government report for May will show Kansas Wheat condition about the same as that at harvest last year, 86, an improvement of 8 points over April percentage."

State Commissioner of Agriculture of Tennessee, W. W. Ogilvie, says that indications point to a much better Wheat yield this year than last. With favorable weather conditions he thinks it safe to estimate that the yield in Tennessee will be not less than 75 per cent of the average for five years past and it may run as high as 90 per cent.

Minneapolis wired, Tuesday: "Weather in the Northwest perfect for seeding. Central and Southern Minnesota and South Dakota Wheat about all seeded. Northern Minnesota and North Dakota will be about all seeded this week if the present weather continues. There will be an increased Wheat acreage, but it is hard to estimate how much at present."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS

FLOUR—The market is reported quiet, with prices steady.

WINTER WHEAT—Ruled steady. There were 45,000 bu of No. 2 Red taken in store by a miller, but otherwise trade was very light. The demand, generally speaking, was rather slack but holders were not pushing sales. No. 2 Red in store quotably $1 02 and fresh arrivals free on board nominally about $1 04@1 05. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals quotably $1 00@1 04. No. 2 Hard fresh arrivals quotably 89@92c. No. 3 Hard sold at 81@90c.

SPRING WHEAT—A lot of 100 000 bu of No 1 Northern was reported for shipment; aside from this the demand was light and the market was quiet. No change in prices. No. 1 Northern in store quotably 88⅝@90c, and fresh arrivals free on board quotably 92@95c. No. 2 Northern fresh receipts quotably 90@93c. No. 3 Spring sold at 85c, and ranged at 85@92c. No. 4 Spring quotably 62@86c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—Only a moderate speculative business was transacted, the market ruling rather quiet at times. Sentiment was divided, but the close showed May ¼c higher, while July gained a fraction and September unchanged. Market started out rather firm on local buying, the fear of a "bullish" showing in the State reports of Missouri and Ohio being factors. Adverse reports from Michigan and Indiana, too, helped sustain the market, as did the strength in Corn. The strength at Minneapolis, too, was likewise a feature, as also the reported strong position of cash Wheat in that market. As the session advanced commission houses sold fair quantities and prices receded slightly, but later on again rallied. The map showed generally higher temperatures, with good general rains in Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Nebraska and scattered showers in both Ohio and Indiana. Showers were indicated for North and South Dakota, Nebraska and also Kansas. Minneapolis wired: "Seeding practically finished in southwestern Minnesota and South Dakota. Work progressing in Red River Valley; seeding will be completed there about the 20th." Winnipeg wired: "Weather fine, seeding being rushed." Another Minneapolis message read: "Country millers are in the market here again. Liberal buyers of cash Wheat for shipment. Sales reported for 90,000 bu." Duluth reported the sale of 10,000 bu to a seaboard miller to go out all rail. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ¼d lower and futures ⅛d higher. London came ⅛@¼d lower. Paris declined ½@1c. Antwerp unchanged. Primary receipts were 74,000 bu under last year. Kansas City and St. Louis received 45,000 bu; last year, 103,000 bu; shipments, 135,000 bu. Exports were small and nineteen boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Minneapolis wired stocks had decreased 375,000 bu so far this week. The Missouri State report made the condition 81 per cent and area 6 per cent less than harvested in 1903, which would indicate a crop of 38,850,000 bu against 22,000,000 bu last year. Minneapolis reported the sale of 50,000 bu No. 3 Wheat to go to country mills. St. Louis also reported 45,000 bu No. 2 Red to go to millers, with prospects of more before the day was over. It was rumored that the Tennessee State report showed 75 per cent, against 78 one month ago. Cash sales here included 145,000 bu, of which 45,000 bu was said to be No. 2 Red and the price $1 02. Receipts at Duluth 8 cars and at Minneapolis 74 cars, a total of 82 cars, against 61 cars yesterday, 63 cars a week ago, and 79 cars last year. Local receipts included 2 cars Winter 11 cars Spring, 3 cars mixed, a total of 16 cars, against 40 cars last year. Included in above were no cars of contract grade. There was also 1 car and no bu from unlicensed elevators. Estimated receipts for to-morrow not reported. Withdrawals to-day were 21,950 bu. Receipts at Western points were 204,417 bu, against 277,656 bu last year; at Eastern points 17,100 bu, against 382 827 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 243,804 bu, against 432,465 bu last year, and from Eastern points 9,006 bu, against 369,755 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 26 080 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 126,366 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Moderate trade and market steady.

MAY—Sold at 88⅝@89¾c. Opened at 88⅞c; sold at 89c to 88⅝c, to 89¾c, to 89½c, to 89¾c, to 89¼c, and closed at 89¼c.

JULY—Old Style—Sold at 85¼@85⅝c and at 86¼c. Opened with sales at 85½c to 85½@85⅝c; sold to 85¾c, to 85⅝c, to 85¾@85⅞c, to 85¼@85⅝c, to 86⅛c, to 85¾c, to 86¼c, to 86c, to 86⅛c, to 85⅝c, to 85¾@85⅞c, and closed at 85¾@85⅞c.

JULY—New Style—Sold at 84⅛@85c. Opened with sales at 84⅜c, to 84¼c; sold to 84½c, to 84½@84⅝c, to 84⅛c, to 84⅞c, to 85c, to 84⅝c, to 84⅞@85c, to 84½c, to 84⅝c, to 84½@84⅝c, and closed at 84½@84⅝c.

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 79½@80⅛c. Opened with sales at 79⅝c to 79¾@79⅞c; sold to 79¾c, to 79½c, to 80c, to 79⅞c, to 80⅛c, to 79⅝c, to 79¾c and closed at 79¾c sellers.

DECEMBER—Sold at 79½@80c. Opened at 79½c and closed at 79⅝c.

CORN—A very fair trade and market most of the session displayed quite a firm undertone, the close showing the May ⅜c higher, while July gained ⅛c and September ¼c. Small receipts and reports of a better cash demand induced the "short" interest to cover, the buying being much of the same character as yesterday, with Provision interests leading. Outside markets were all stronger and cables rather firm. Yesterday's principal sellers were again arrayed on the "bear" side. Liverpool quoted spot unchanged and futures ⅛@¼d better. Foreign bids were said to equal ½c over May. Arrivals were 103 cars, with only 9 cars contract, against 231 cars one year ago, when 12 cars were up to the speculative standard. There were 38 cars contract switched from private to public elevators. There were rains in Kansas and Western Nebraska, but the Corn belt generally has clear and warm weather, with showers predicted in certain sections. A charter for 100,000 bushels was made to-day at 2c to Buffalo. The Iowa crop bulletin stated good progress had been made with plowing and preparing for Corn, and that a very large area was in readiness for planters. It was rumored that because of excessive rains not over 10 per cent of the Corn crop had been planted in Missouri. Kankakee, Illinois, wired that Corn was rotting in the cribs. Western receipts were 385,000 bu, against 444,000 bu last year. Shipments 254,000 bu and 314,000 bu respectively. Local arrivals 51,000 bu and shipments 119,000 bu. Exports, 73,000 bu; last year, 326 000 bu. Out of regular elevators 51,300 bu and 8 boat loads taken at the seaboard. Shippers reported a good demand, but scarcity of boats and lake tie up prevented any extensive transactions. Sales, however, were reported for about 250,000 bu. Car lots were in good request and prices ½@1½c higher. Offerings were moderate. No. 2 sold at 48c and closed at 47¾@48¼c. No. 2 Yellow closed at 51½@52c. No. 3 sold at 47⅝c and closed at 47½@48c. No. 3 Yellow sold at 49½@50c and closed at 49½@50c. No. 4 sold at 46@46½c. No Grade sold at 39@42c.

Corn by sample—Demand was good and feeling was firm. Prices anywhere from ½@1½c higher. Offerings fair. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 30@40c. No. 4 at 45@49c. No. 3 at 47½@49c. No. 3 Yellow at 50@51c. No. 2 at 48@50c. No. 2 Yellow at 51½@52c. No. 3 White at 47½@48½c. No. 2 White at 48½@48¾c. Billed through: No Grade at 40c. No. 4 at 44¼@47½c. No. 3 Yellow at 49@49½c. No. 3 White at 47c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Fairly active and stronger and closed ⅛c lower to ⅜c higher.

MAY—Sold at 45¾@46½c. Opened at 45⅝c, and sold to 46⅜c, to 46¼c, to 46⅜c, to 46¼c to 46½c, to 46⅛c, and closed at 46⅛c bid.

JULY—Sold at 47⅝@47¾c and 48½c. Opened at 47⅞c, to 47⅝@47¾c, and sold at 48c, to 47⅝@47¾c, to 48¼c, to 48@48⅛c, to 48¼c, to 48c, to 48½c, to 48¼c, to 48⅜@48½c, to 48c, to 48¼c, and closed 48⅛@48¼c asked.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 47⅝@48¼c. Opened at 47¾c to 47⅝c and sold at 47⅞@48c, to 47¾c, to 48c, to 47¾c, to 48⅛c, to 48c, to 48¼c, to 47⅞c, to 47⅞@48⅛c, to 48c, and closed at 48c bid.

DECEMBER—Sold at 43⅞@44⅛c. Opened at 44c to 44⅛c and sold at 43⅞c and closed at 43⅞c.

OATS—Were easy at the start on the rather "bearish" weather and crop bulletins. Prices receded ⅛@¼c, advanced ½@⅞c, May leading, and closed at net gains of ⅜c on May and July and unchanged for September. The strength and advance in the near futures was on buying by cash houses. Sales 250,000 bu, mostly Standard, to local consumers, cereal interests and shippers. On the advance there was good realizing and prices receded ¼@⅜c from the top. Receipts for 183,000 bu Standard were cancelled. Withdrawals were 62,3?5 bu and 7 cars Standard were taken from private elevators. Arrivals were 29 cars and 50 cars are expected to-morrow. Seaboard clearances were 22,300 bu. Car lots were ½c higher. Standard in store sold at ¼@½c over May and closed at 40⅞@41⅛c as to location.

Oats by sample were stronger and ½c higher, with a moderate demand and small supply. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 at 37½c. No. 4 White at 37½@41½c. No. 3 at 39¾c. No. 3 White at 40@43c. Standard at 41½@43c. No. 2 at 40¼@40¾c. Billed through: No. 3 White at 42c. Standard at 42@42¾c. At the river: No. 4 White at 36@39c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were weak early and higher at close.

MAY—Moderate trading. Sold at 40@40⅞c. Opened at 40c, sold to 40⅞c, to 40⅝c at close.

JULY—Active. Sold at 38⅜@39¼c. Opened at 38⅜c to 38½c, sold to 39¼c, to 38⅞c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Active. Sold at 30⅜@30⅞c. Opened at 30½c to 30⅝c, sold to 30⅞c, to 30⅞c, to 30⅝c at close.

RYE—Quiet and steady. Only a light trade and no new features to note. Only one car received. There were seven cars withdrawn from private warehouse. No export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store nominally 68¾c, and car lots fresh arrivals free on board about 70c. No. 3 sold at 68c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet and steady. May sold at 69¾c and that the closing. July 64½c bid—no trade.

BARLEY—Only an occasional car appeared on the regular market. Such cars ranged from Screenings to good malting and were salable at former prices. The spot market was practically inactive for lack of supply. Since yesterday a number of round lots to arrive have been taken and supply of these is practically exhausted. For good malting firmness prevailed and lower grades steady. Only 11 cars inspected in and 5,700 bu taken out. Screenings were quotable at 28@38c for poor to choice. Barley—low grade feed or mixing at 32@37c, outside good weight. Malting, low grade, 38@42c; fair to good sound, 45@48c; good color, 50@55c, and fancy nominally above.

SEEDS—An easy feeling in Timothy prevailed, which was best shown in easier quotations for futures, especially for new crop delivery. No other changes were noted, and aside from the Timothy on sale the offerings were exceedingly small.

Timothy—An easy feeling was apparent. A fair quantity of cash Seed was offered, some very nice quality, but mostly fair to common. There remained some demand, though buyers were not anxious. Prices for cash Timothy not materially changed, though futures weakened. May nominally 2½c lower and September offered at 5c decline. September offered at $3 22½ and $3 10 was the only bid. Contract spot or May delivery nominally $2 90. Country lots, fair to good, quotable at $2 55@2 70, choice nominally $2 75@2 80, rough Seed $2 40@2 45 and country lots on the whole range $2 25@3 00 for poor to fancy—outside fine, unhulled.

Flax—Advices from the Northwest indicated an advance in prices, then followed by a reaction, still there was an average improvement. It had no influence here where values were unchanged and for the most part nominal and there was nothing on the market to trade in, except a car of No. 1 Northwestern which sold at $1 08½. No. 1 was nominal at $1 01 and Rejected nominal at 90c @$1 00, outside for choice Northwestern. May delivery nominally about $1 01. July delivery offered at $1 04 and September nominally about $1 16. Local movement 7 cars or 5,282 bu received; none taken out. Minneapolis got 7 cars and Duluth 2 cars.

Clover—A few lots of cash Clover were offered and sold over a range of $7 00@9 00 for common to fair quality. General market quiet and nothing new noted. Contract spot Seed remains nominal at $10 75. Country lots, common to choice, $7 75@10 00, fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $7 00@8 25; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 50.

Other Seeds—Were inactive and nominally unchanged. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark, at $1 15@1 65. Common Millet $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 40. Siberian, 85c@$1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat easy; good quality, $1 30.

HOG PRODUCTS—A fairly good speculative trade was reported in Hog Products, and the undertone to the market was stronger in a general way. Offerings were not so free, while a good miscellaneous demand prevailed, partially credited to packers and "shorts." Hogs were in fairly good supply, and prices averaged slightly higher. Receipts at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 76 900, compared with 68,700 one year ago. Foreign markets were quiet, and prices ruled 6d lower on Hams and Cumberland Sides. Domestic markets were quiet, and prices without material change. Receipts of Products quite large—of Lard and Meats about 51 cars. Shipments were moderate—of Lard and Meats about 115 cars. Outside speculative orders were not very large, and the local trade was fairly active. Under the influence of a stronger Hog market, there was rather a good demand at the opening, and prices ruled slightly higher, and the competition for the offerings later, tended to a stronger feeling, and a further improvement. Toward the close, the feeling was easier, with some liquidation, and prices declined moderately, and closed steady. Bulk of the trading was in July contracts. Demand on shipping account was light, and there was no particular pressure to sell. Sales were small, and prices ruled comparatively steady.

Mess Pork—A fairly good trade was reported in Mess Pork, and the market was stronger in a general way. Offerings were not very large, and the demand was fairly active. July delivery met with most favor. Market opened rather firm, and prices ruled 5@10c higher, which was followed by a further improvement of 20@32½c. Toward the close, the feeling was not quite so strong, and prices settled back 17½@20c, and the market closed comparatively steady. Shipping demand was light, and offerings were moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $11 60@11 65.

MAY—Inactive. Closed nominally at $11 60.

JULY—Offerings were moderate, and the demand was quite active. Sales were made at $11 72½@12 05. Opened at $11 72½ to $11 80, sold to $11 85, to $11 80, to $11 90, to $11 87½, to $11 95, to $11 00, to $12 05, to $11 82½, to $11 82½@11 85, to $11 82½, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Called for moderately, and the offerings were rather light. Sales were made at $11 95@12 22½. Opened at $12 22½, sold to $12 05, to $12 02½, and closed quiet.

Lard—Trade was fairly active in the Lard market, and the feeling was stronger in a general way. Offerings were not very free, and the demand was fairly active. "Shorts" bought moderately. Foreign advices were unchanged. Market opened rather firm and prices were steady at the closing prices of Tuesday. Later, the feeling was stronger and prices rallied 12½@15c on the whole range. Toward the close, the feeling was not so strong, and prices receded 5@7½c, and the market closed rather steady. Trading chiefly in July and September contracts. Inquiry on shipping account was moderate and offerings were only fair. Cash lots were quotable at $6 55@6 57½. Loose lots in fair request, with moderate offerings. Prices steady at about 55c discount on July figures. Leaf Lard in moderate request and offerings were fair. Prices were quotably steady at $6 00. Neutral was in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $7 12½@7 25 for No. 1, and $6 87½@7 00 for No. 2.

MAY—Demand was light and offerings were small. A few trades made at $6 50@6 57½, and closed steady at $6 55.

JULY—Offerings were moderate, and the demand was fairly active. Sales were made at $6 62½@6 77½. Opened at $6 62½ to $6 65, sold to $6 67½, to $6 72½, to $6 70, to $6 77½, to $6 70 and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Demand was moderate, and offerings were fair. Sales were made $6 77½@6 87½. Opened at $6 80, sold to $6 77½@6 80, to $6 87½, to $6 85, and closed quiet.

Short Rib Sides—Trade was quite active in the market for Short Rib Sides, and the feeling was stronger. Offerings were not very large, and the demand was quite active especially on local account. Market opened steady at about the closing figures of Tuesday, and a stronger feeling was developed, accompanied by an advance of 10@12½c on the whole range. Toward the close the market was not so strong, and prices settled back 5@7½c, and the market closed steady. Shipping demand was light, and offerings were moderate. Cash lots quotable at $6 12½@6 25 according to weight.

MAY—Rather quiet, with scattering trades at $6 20@6 25, and closed steady at $6 25.

JULY—In rather good request, and offerings were fair. Sales were made at $6 45@6 57½. Opened at $6 45, sold to $6 52½, to $6 50, to $6 55@6 57½, to $6 47½@6 50, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Demand was fairly active, and offerings were moderate. Sales were made at $6 60@6 70. Opened at $6 60, sold to $6 70, to $6 62½@6 65, to $6 65, to $6 62½@6 65, and closed steady.

Other Meats—Trade was limited, and the feeling rather steady. Offerings were not very large, and the inquiry was not very urgent. Exporters bought sparingly, and the home trade was rather light. Green Meats in limited supply, with moderate inquiry, and prices unchanged. Pickled Meats in moderate demand and prices ruled steady. Dry Salted Meats were in rather light demand with moderate offerings, and prices favored sellers. Smoked Meats called for in limited quantities, and prices ruled steady. Closing prices ranged as follows:

GREEN Hams, av 10@12 lbs, 9¼@9⅜c; 12@14 lbs, 9⅛@9¼c; 14@16 lbs, 9@9⅛c; 18@20 lbs, 9½@9⅝c; Skinned Hams, 10⅜@10½c; Shoulders, 6¼@6⅜c; Picnic Hams, 6¼@6⅜c, Bellies, 9@10c. Important Notice.

In March, 1884, when it was alleged that certain market circulars compiled for the use and benefit of members of the Chicago Board of Trade, were being furnished daily to alleged "bucket shops," the following resolution was passed by the Board of Directors:

Resolved, That the President of this Board notify the above mentioned firms that such action on their part is detrimental to the interests of this Board, and that they are requested to discontinue sale of said circulars to such "bucket shops."

Speculative trading in Flax Seed is on a limited scale.

∴

California will probably have a good crop of Barley this year.

∴

You can tell more about the yield of Wheat sixty days hence.

∴

Some of the weather prophets have a few more "guesses" coming.

∴

Receipts of Corn are gradually increasing, and the grading is improving.

∴

Outlook favors an increased area of Cotton in the principal Southern States.

∴

The areas of Oats and Barley in the Northwest will probably be quite large.

∴

The exports of Flour and Wheat are unusually light—the smallest in many years.

∴

General calculations are that the area of Oats will not vary much from that of 1903.

∴

Late seasons in the Northwest generally have resulted in good yields of small Grain.

∴

Farmers appear to be willing to sell Cattle, Hogs and Sheep quite freely at current prices.

∴

The supplies of the speculative articles of Hog Products are liberal for the season of the year.

∴

Trade in Grass Seeds during the past month was only fair, and the changes in prices were slight.

∴

The spring season is backward, and seeding is about two weeks late in most sections of the country.

∴

The Department of Commerce and Labor is investigating the operations of the alleged "Beef Trust."

∴

Farmers are cautioned by experts at the agricultural colleges to be careful in selecting their seed Corn.

∴

There will probably be a slight increase in the working forces of the Department of Agriculture after July 1.

∴

The speculative individuals who have endeavored to follow the larger operators have had a hard time of it.

∴

Outlook for the crops on the Pacific Coast are promising, and the yield of small Grains will probably be large.

∴

Millers at interior points have rather good supplies of Flour on hand, and are not very anxious to purchase Wheat.

∴

Lake navigation will open late, and the labor disputes may check shipping of Grain temporarily by the water route.

∴

European crop advices are rather favorable, excepting in the United Kingdom and some portions of Russia and Roumania.

∴

Shippers have purchased Hogs freely in this market during the past two months, mainly on orders from the Eastern markets.

∴

Some of the elevator firms who are rather free speculators in Grain, claim they are only making storage rates for empty bins.

∴

The "boom" in the foreign Provision markets was of short duration. After the filling of a few orders, the demand collapsed.

∴

The Chicago Board of Trade is endeavoring to make the inspection of Grain in this market more satisfactory to all parties interested.

∴

The Minneapolis millers encouraged the building of the "Soo" Railway, and patronized it liberally to the neglect of competing lines. The latter, as a means of protection to their business, encouraged the building of large Flour mills in the interior, and these are competing for the Wheat crop of the Northwest, and the consumption of Wheat by them is almost equal that of the large mills at the terminal points.

∴

Products are considerably out of line, and there is no money at present in slaughtering Hogs.

∴

Some of the commercial publications in the Northwest are advocating seeding less area of Flax Seed than heretofore, as prices are not profitable.

∴

Buyers either do not want Rye at all, or else they want it very badly, as was illustrated in the market last Thursday, when prices for May delivery advanced 4c bid over the price of the previous day.

∴

Farmers in the Winter Wheat districts where the outlook for the crop is doubtful will probably delay plowing up the fields as late as possible—until they are satisfied that the crop will be a failure—and then seed the area to Corn.

∴

The stock of No. 1 Northern in store is about 651,000 bu, and a year ago 1,768,000 bu. Very little Wheat of this grade is being received, and it would not require much demand from millers to establish a good premium for it; in fact, it now shows ¼@¾c premium.

∴

No. 2 Red Winter Wheat has been held from 10c to 15c premium over May prices. The stock in store is small, about 257,000 bu, and dealers believe the present stock will become exhausted before new Wheat will be available for milling. A year ago the stock was 1,275,000 bu.

∴

The alleged "Coal Trust" appears to have complete control of the Anthracite Coal situation. Consumers who are able to do so are enabled to lay in their winter's supply ahead at current prices, while those who are unable to do so are compelled to pay the regularly established advance per month. Possibly the depreciation in the quality of the Coal may offset the advance in price.

The Guggenheim Exploration Company has closed a deal for 60 per cent of the Veiardena Mining and Smelting Company's properties in Mexico, paying $3,000,000 in cash and guaranteeing to expend $1,500,000 more in improvements and development.

BREADSTUFFS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

[From the Portland Commercial Review, April 28.]

Wheat—There is nothing to report of any consequence that has transpired during the past week in Wheat markets here. Buyer are as scarce as sellers, and what sales are made are all of very small lots. There is no demand from the exporter or miller, all having plenty of Wheat. It looks as if the export trade for the season is about over, with one vessel chartered on Puget Sound and one on the way here from California due in a short time, which will probably close the export season. A report was telegraphed from Puget Sound one day last week that there was fully 4,000,000 bu of Wheat in the State of Washington. This report is misleading. What motive the sender had is hard to say. There is not 2,000,000 bu of Wheat left in that State. Present prices are above an export basis by many cents, and exporters do not care to buy. The foreign demand is slow, and no inquiry for over Wheat is reported by the trade, with no demand from millers; as their trade is slow, the possibility of a larger carryover this year than last year is very promising. We quote club Wheat 82c per bu; bluestem, 85c, and valley, 84c. This quality of Wheat is very scarce, and millers are having trouble in securing any even at this price.

Spring seeding in Eastern Oregon and Washington is about completed, and in other portions it is being rushed to completion as rapidly as men and teams can do the work. The weather since April 1 has been ideal for spring work, and the recent heavy rains, followed by warm weather, have given the Grain a start which almost insures a big yield. Fall-sown Grain never looked better at this time of year. There was positively no damage by cold weather during the winter, and the Winter Wheat, of which there is a big acreage, stands well on the ground, is several inches high, of excellent color and making rapid growth. The high price which Wheat has commanded for the past eight months, with prospects for continued high prices, will result in the unusually large acreage of Wheat this year. Farmers are putting in every available acre and will continue to sow Grain until quite late in the season in order that all the land possible may be put into crop. There is an unusual amount of moisture in the ground, and, with the heaviest snow known in years in the mountains, rain in June is assured, and farmers say that prospects for a big yield and good prices were never better.

That the farmers have every hope of a big crop and a prosperous season is evidenced by the big acreage of Grain being planted and the many implements purchased for this year.

Flour—The Flour market is very dull. In fact, those in the trade say that they have not witnessed such a depression for many years as we are now having. The same will continue until a large part of the stocks held at Oriental ports are worked off. In fact, there is no demand whatever from the Orient and sales are very few either asking for prices or offering to buy at reduced figures. Very few of the mills are in operation at the present time. Most of them have plenty of Flour on hand to supply their trade for some months to come. The shipments to Central or South America are also small and to California are only fair. There is no demand from the United Kingdom. No sales have been received for some time. A great many mill men say the dullness is only temporary, and in the next thirty days there will be a decided revival in business, to the Orient especially. One of the chief causes in the present situation is that considerable Flour was consigned by many of the small mills who had no established trade and were all eager to place their product in that country and unknown brands have considerable difficulty is being disposed of.

This causes a weakening in well-known brands and supply is far in excess of the demand abroad. We quote export brands from $3 50 to $3 60 per bri. Patents range in price from $4 25 to $4 50 per bri, according to quality and brands.

INCREASES OF POPULATION.

The seventh bulletin which Mr. S. N. D. North, as director of the bureau of the census, has sent out contains estimates of population of the larger cities of the United States in the years 1901, 1902 and 1903. The plan adopted for arriving at these results is to take the census returns of the year 1900 and add for each year one-tenth of the census increase as was found by enumeration to have taken place during the decade between 1890 and 1900. Mr. North points out that, by applying this method to seventy-eight different cities and taking the census population of 1880 and 1890 as a basis, and comparing the results reached with the actual tabulations of the year 1900, it is found that the result arrived at by the estimate is a close approximation of the result obtained by the canvassers employed by the census bureau. In other words, the progress in population of the United States is so nearly uniform that in the aggregate a forecast of results can be made with a fair degree of accuracy.

Mr. North has thus together no good and honest a statistician to conceal from himself, or from the public, the fact that these averages hold better in the aggregate than they do in individual cases. The basis of calculation taken is somewhat like that adopted by the actuaries of life insurance companies in preparing their tables of mortality. They know that the average chances of life determine the fact that of 10,000 persons of 30 years of age a certain number will die in the coming ten years, though it is, of course, impossible to affirm which of the 10,000 will thus be stricken down. The individual results arrived at in the census are probably nearer than could be obtained by a life insurance actuary; but Mr. North in his report adds as a caution: "Undoubtedly in a number of individual cases the estimates contained in the present bulletin will ultimately be proved to be wide of the truth."

SHIPMENTS OF TEXAS RANGE CATTLE.

[From the Denver Stockman.]

Shipments of Texas range Cattle to Montana and other States North for feeding will be less this year than during any recent season. Low prices in the big markets is the reason given for the decline in the business. Is is claimed that when prices are low buyers hesitate, while when they go up there is an increase in the business. Railroads are in the best position to gauge the Stock business. On the spring movement of range Steers Northward the Colorado and Southern officials are in the best position to compare the business of each year with that of previous years. While we have had calls for a large number of cars in several cases," said an official of that road to-day, "we can say positively now that the shipments will be disappointingly light during the spring. We have made a rather thorough canvass of the State and find that the buyers are exceedingly inactive for this time of the year. Last year we handled 4,100 carloads of Texas Cattle to the Northern range. Most of them went to Montana, but Colorado got some. But we will not do it this year. While there is no means of saying definitely how much business will be we know certain, that the drop will be enormous."

Fire, Sunday, at Moline, Ill., destroyed the Dimmock, Gould & Co. saw mill. Loss, $175,000; insurance, $30,000.

St. Petersburg advices of April 18 say: "During past se'nnight the weather has continued rather cold for the season, with the temperature invariably below the main. In the whole Southern region the temperature continued very low. In the Central and Northeastern governments the snow cover remained intact, while in the Southern and Western provinces all traces have disappeared. The precipitation of moisture has been very copious, in the South in the form of snow, and in the North snow—alternating with rain. In general, spring is three weeks behindhand, and agricultural work, except in the extreme Southern latitudes, has scarcely begun."

DRESSED BEEF IS LOW.

[From the National Provisioner.]

Beef at wholesale has been unusually low all over the country during the past two weeks. One of the big Western concerns sold in the New York City market nearly 1,700,000 lbs of Beef at $6 @6.65 per 100 lbs, or around 6 3/8c per lb by the carcass. That is the average price received for the quantity of Meat from the butchers. It was not a special, but the average price for the week and was sold in the competitive market, it is safe to assume that the general carcass Beef market in New York City averaged around the same figure. In fact, there other Beef houses did not get any more for their output. City dressed Beef as it is to the cast, brought a bit more money. The Kosher support of that trade enables its slaughterers to realize a higher average price

MANGE IN CATTLE.

[From the Drovers' Journal.]

During the past year cases of mange in the Northwest have been afflicted with mange and the disease has spread so alarmingly that the Government officials have taken radical steps to eradicate it. Mange is not a disease to be feared as to the value of Cattle, but it gives the animals a bad scurvy appearance, and so millit ers against his salability The Government order decrees that all Cattle affected with mange shall be placed once if intended for slaughter and twice if intended for stockers In the territory where mange is prevalent this will entail a large extra expense to shippers, but will probably be the wisest thing to do, as they will likely have to sell at a discount on the market if not dipped The best way to get rid of this trouble is to stamp it out before it gets too far along

CROP PROSPECTS IN TEXAS.

[From the Modern Miller.]

During the past week the weather has been ideal, and the prospects for the Wheat crop are improving, and where Rust and mildera a short time since put a low estimate on the amount of Wheat that Texas would produce this season, the figures are being revised It is now stated the crop this season will be nearly equal that of last season. In spite of the fact that the Panhandle will have a short crop as other parts of the State will produce enough to compensate for the loss in that belt In the central belt crop conditions would be hard to improve upon, and nearly all talk of field pests in the Grain has died out.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

There are heavy rains in Western Nebraska and Eastern Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. There is clear weather in Minnesota and Dakotas. There are a few light showers in the Ohio Valley. It is decidedly warmer everywhere The map shows past rains needed and clear weather just where needed

Plowing for Corn was retarded by lack of moisture, but rains fell the first of the week, but under favorable conditions the latter part, the work was resumed and material progress made. Indications are favorable that the most planting will be done during the ensuing week."

Texas Oil production is con-iderably less than it was a few weeks or months ago, and is being constantly reduced According to one estimate, which seems to come from the best sources, the daily production of the principal fields are as follows: Spindle Top (Beaumont), 8,000 bris; Sour Lake, 12,000 bris; Batson, 10,000 bris. The new Oil field of Big Hill, situated about 125 miles southwest of the other three fields mentioned above, is as yet an unknown factor. It will probably be some time before the pipelines can be constructed sufficiently to make it a recognized factor.

It is expected that the Illinois Tunnel Company's, Chicago, freight delivery system will be in operation by September. The company expects to have 150 electric locomotives and 3,000 cars then in operation. Contracts have been made for the delivery of Coal and the removal of ashes from some of the large office buildings, and many of the largest Chicago business firms have made application to be connected with the new system. It is estimated that the company will handle 30,000 tons of freight daily inside of a year, and experts estimate that this business should return the company $6,000,000 net per annum. The management estimates its net earnings within a year from the beginning of operations at between $3,500,000 and $4,000,000 per annum.

Judge Gray handed down an opinion in the United States Court of Appeals at Philadelphia, Monday, remanding the case of the Western Union Telegraph Company vs. the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to the Circuit Court for further proceedings. The litigation, which involves the right of way of the telegraph company along the lines of the Pennsylvania Railroad, has been before the United States courts in this district a number of times, and the courts have always sustained the position of the railroad. The decision however, reverses that of Circuit Court on a demurrer raised by the telegraph company, and the case is sent back to the lower court on the demurrer for further proceedings.

The Canadian Improvement Company, which is financing the reorganization of the Consolidated Lake Superior Company, has been granted an extension of its option, which would have expired last night, under date of the 1st inst. All the New York people interested in the bridge loan have consented to the extension, and the Philadelphia banks will do the same An attorney for the reorganization committee said that a call for the new bonds will be declared operative probably this week and that those stockholders who have not yet paid their assessment under the new plan will be given two weeks to do so.

Chairman Gary of the United States Steel Corporation made the formal announcement, Tuesday, of the purchase from the Crucible Steel Company of the Clairton, Pa., Steel Company property. The properties will be paid for by guarantees of the United States Steel Corporation of securities heretofore issued by the Clairton Company, aggregating less than $8,000,000, and the holders of the bonds of the United States Steel Corporation 10-60 year 5 per cent sinking fund Gold bonds of the par value of $1,020,000. The properties are acquired free and clear of all floating liability or indebtedness. A contract has been made with the Crucible Steel Company whereby the latter will receive coke from the Clairton plant. The trustees of the United States Steel Corporation for a term of ten years about 1,0 0 0 tons of Steel per annum, and about 80,000 tons of pig iron per annum, on a sliding scale of prices.

The Chicago News Bureau printed the following, Friday: "The report that the American Can Company may soon reorganize is being freely discussed among brokers and others interested in it. While there is nothing authentic as to when the plan will be taken up or what its scope will include, there are those in certain influential circles here who claim the project has been under way for some time, considered by the controlling interests in the company. It is said that the company's immense capitalization of $80,000,000, nearly all outstanding, has been the only thing that saved the holders of the trust being taken into the United States Steel Corporation some time ago. It may be recalled in this connection that two or three years ago Charles R. Flint, a prominent financier of this trust, made a thorough examination of the property, with a view to a purchase for his company, but it is said we deal was dropped on account of excessive capitalization and poor physical condition of plants. Since then the company has expended millions of dollars for improvements, and the mill capacity has been increased to build 1,0 0 tons placed on a remunerative basis, as shown by the recent annual statement of earnings."

Pending negotiations for the merger of the Southern Iron company, the Republic Iron and Steel Company is not expected to attempt to float an issue of bonds. The company has no bonded indebtedness, but its floating debt is said to exceed $1,000,000, and it is upon the basis of this debt which has started the recent story of a proposed bond issue. Should the proposed merger plan wheredy it is proposed to consolidate under one management the Republic Iron and Steel Company, the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company and the Sloss-Sheffield Steel Company be not carried out, it is practically certain that the Republic Iron and Steel Company will want to take care of its floating debt through an issue of bonds. The company has important and valuable raw material supplies and is one of the leading factors in district near Birmingham. It also has a flue supply of Lake Superior Ores. If through the merger proposition it should practically retire from the Southern field. Its ores are mainly centralize in the Northern territory, and for that purpose will need additional capital. It, however, it must continue to compete in the southern field with its rivals, the Tennessee Coal and Iron and Sloss-Sheffield, it must expend large sums of money in the development of its Ore fields, its Coal supplies and in the extension of its plants for the manufacture of finished products. For that purpose it will need a larger sum than could possibly be profitably raised in any way other than through a bond issue.

A man prominent in the heavy machinery trade says: "It is doubtless true that the friendly relations between the General Electric and Westinghouse companies and the Allis-Chalmers Company for heavy electrical machinery business As individual corporations the Allis and Chalmers companies were a great success, and their names stood for the highest type of machinery, principally in the mining world. The South African gold and coal fields to the leading mining camps of the United States. When these companies formed a combination with three other companies, with capital of $60,000,0 0, the theory of the plan was to amalgamate, as the field was too profitable to be ignored by the big General Electric and Westinghouse companies, who were already very naturally rivals in connection with their heavy electrical machinery. In other words, the Allis-Chalmers combination ran up against a stone wall in the General Electric and Westinghouse companies' field. This was but one thing for them to do—enter the electrical field. They have stripped for the fray, passing all dividends and husbanding their resources, and have formed alliance with the strongest companies which will undoubtedly secure them considerable new business On the other hand, the General Electric and Westinghouse companies have also both been through fire and water, and are now financially in an impregnable position. These two companies are now working together, dividing the field between them, and naturally very naturally resist the entrance of the Allis-Chalmers Company in the field. That company, however, is splendidly equipped to manufacture electrical machinery of the heaviest type, and with Edwin F. Adams, as the head of the company, assisted in financial negotiations by James Stillman, William A. Read and Co., and others, it will not be long before it is manufacturing and by William J Chalmers. Edwin Reynolds, W. W. Allis, H. W. Hoyt, and P. W. Gates, the General Electric-Westinghouse people have men to fight worthy of their steel. This is a fight of millions, and as the Allis-Chalmers people have everything to gain they will prove hard competitors, and will cut considerably into the General Electric and Westinghouse profits, for these big companies will have to meet any Allis-Chalmers bids for business."

Reported that 64,000 bu Wheat and 24,000 bu Corn were taken at the seaboard to day for export.

Ten packers purchased 16,300 Hogs to-day; shippers, 5,000; left over, 4,500. Market closed easy.

Stocks of Hog Products at Chicago estimated at 53,000 brls Mess Pork, 76,000 tcs Lard, and 22,000,000 lbs Short Rib Sides.

The average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Wednesday, was $4 72, against $4 71 Tuesday, $4 94 a week ago, and $6 80 a year ago.

The Flour Exchange of Chicago was incorporated at Springfield, Ill., Wednesday. It proposes to advance the best interests of the Flour trade.

Deliveries on May contracts to-day were 30,000 bu Wheat, 30,000 bu Corn, 80,000 bu Oats, 250 brls Mess Pork, 250 tcs Lard, and 100,000 lbs Short Rib Sides.

In Local Securities the feature was the buying of Biscuit common, which caught the market bare of offerings, and advanced prices 1½. Other shares were slow with little change.

A Minneapolis wire, Wednesday, said: "Seeding in Central Minnesota finished, also South Dakota. The Red River Valley will be all seeded inside ten days. Think the whole will average fully two weeks late."

Cotton in New York was weaker on liquidating sales of new crop months. Demand from spot interests was moderate. Receipts keep under last year's. Prices moved irregularly and closed 4@13 points higher.

It is said that members of the United States Steel preferred stock conversion syndicate may also receive notice of a call for $9,000,000 cash on which the corporation would deliver $12,000,000 bonds to the syndicate.

At the annual meeting of the Mexican Central Railroad Company, limited, in New York, Wednesday, a report to the stockholders showed that as a result of the year's operation the company failed to earn the fixed charges and taxes by about $500,000 in Gold.

The shipments of Flax Seed from India from April 1 to date amounted to 1,240,000 bu (Calcutta 568,000 bu and Bombay 672,000 bu), against 1,376,000 bu last season (Calcutta 848,000 bu and Bombay 528,000 bu), and 2,048,000 bu in 1902 (Calcutta 1,252,000 bu and Bombay 696,000 bu).

London says: "The Japanese loan for $50,000,000 will be brought out next week. Of this amount $35,000,000 will be taken here and $15,000,000 at New York. The proceeds of the loan taken in the United States will be allowed to remain in New York to pay for supplies purchased in America."

It is announced that the Boston and Maine, the New York Central and Michigan Central Railroads have within the past week placed orders for about 75,000 tons of Steel rails with the United States Steel Corporation and the Lackawanna Steel Company. The price was maintained at the pool rate of $28 a ton.

According to Broomhall's Corn Trade News the largest quantity of Flour and Wheat on passage to Europe was 55,400,000 bu the latter part of May, 1895. The largest quantity afloat for Great Britain was 36,576,000 bu the last of March, 1902, and the largest to the Continent was 35,072,000 bu the first week in June, 1898.

The Erie Railroad Company has applied to the New York Stock Exchange to list $47,892,400 4 per cent non-cumulative first preferred stock, $16,000,000 4 per cent non-cumulative second preferred and $112,378,900 common stock. The application is made in consequence of the Exchange of Stock for voting trust certificates.

The Cincinnati Price Current reports the packing of the West for the week at 165,000 Hogs, compared with 145,000 for the week previous and 370,000 for the corresponding week in 1903. Aggregate packing since March 1 reported at 3,515,000 Hogs, compared with 3,190,000 for the corresponding time last year—an increase of 325,000 Hogs.

The Cincinnati Price Current in its weekly crop summary says: "It has been a favorable week for growth, and planting has made rapid progress. Winter Wheat condition has been maintained, and is now fractionally better than a month ago. There is preparation for a large acreage of Corn and planting is progressing favorably. All interior Grain movements light."

Stocks in New York were irregular, although the general list showed moderate strength. Realty and Copper were the strong Stocks. Western Railway shares turned weak and with few exceptions declined. Steel preferred advanced slightly, but Bonds weakened on the announcement that the syndicate members will receive a large installment. Money 1¼ per cent.

The directors and officials of the Northern Securities Company are said to be devoting a great deal of thought to a plan for protecting the stockholders as to dividends for the current quarter. The plan under consideration is reported to be to get a strong financial institution to announce that it would bid for assignments of this dividend. The idea is to have an institution pay the dividend to the stockholders and be reimbursed by the Northern Securities Company or its subsidiary companies later on, when the present litigation should have been cleared up. It is said that substantial progress is being made with respect to such a plan and that one of the strongest banks in New York is likely to assist the company in carrying it out. It is pretty clearly stated that the Northern Securities stockholders will receive their dividend for the present quarter and that the only inconvenience they will experience in the matter is a little delay. It is also intimated that the present plan calls for assignments of the dividend at a fractionally higher rate than the 1⅛ per cent quarterly that has been paid for several periods.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS

FLOUR—The market ruled very dull, the demand showing no improvement. Prices barely steady.

WINTER WHEAT—Was firm and for the soft variety prices shade higher, but the Hard Winter did not sympathize with the advance in the speculative market. Soft Wheat in good demand and other varieties in fair request. No. 2 Red in store quotably $1 00@1 02 and fresh arrivals free on board sold at $1 02@1 06. No 3 Red fresh arrivals quotably 98c@$1 04 with a sale of a choice car at $1 04. No. 2 Hard fresh arrivals sold at 91c. No. 3 Hard fresh arrivals sold at 87@89c and No. 4 Hard at 84@87c.

SPRING WHEAT—There was no demand on milling or shipping account and the market ruled quiet and without special change. The market did not respond to the advance in the speculative market. No. 1 Northern in store ranged at 89½@90½c and fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 93@96c. No 2 Northern fresh receipts nominally 90@94c. No. 3 Spring sold at 90c and quotable at 85@92c for ordinary to choice. No. 4 Spring sold at 65@74c and ranged at 63@80c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—A liberal trade, almost exclusively local and professional, with the feeling rather nervous most of the session. Undertone was, however, rather firm, with the close ⅛c higher for May, while July gained ¾@⅞c and the September ½@⅝c. Operators in many instances were timid and nervous, owing to the attitude of certain "bull" interests in the old July, and many covered. Cables were a little higher, the cash situation said to be strong and the Illinois crop bulletin construed as "bullish." Illinois Department of Agriculture claimed 13 per cent of the area seeded last fall was destroyed by winter killing or floods or failed to germinate. Primary receipts were 91,000 bu less than a year ago. Kansas City and St Louis received 39,000 bu, against 110,000 bu last year, and shipments 103,000 bu. The map showed higher temperatures, with the rains in the Northwest not heavy enough to interfere with seeding operations. Conditions in Kansas and Nebraska were favorable. Predictions are for showers and thunderstorms in Illinois, Indiana and Missouri; showers to-day, fair Friday for Dakotas, Kansas, Nebraska. Fargo wired: "Sun shining; no rain West, wont delay seeding half a day. Duluth wired. "Clearing in Red River Valley, rains did not amount to much." Minneapolis wired "Small Grain nearly all in except in Red River Valley. The Price Current reported a favorable week for growth and seeding has made rapid progress. Winter Wheat condition fractionally better than a month ago. The Northwestern Miller summary was "bearish." It was said the mills at Minneapolis were shut down for three or four days, and that some of the mills in Kansas would do the same. Semi-official reports on Russian crops stated the weather was generally favorable, drouth being local in extent. Winter crops growing well—spring seeding partly finished under favorable conditions, there being sufficient rains. Liverpool spot unchanged, futures steady to ⅛d higher. London came ⅛@¼d lower, and quoted cargoes on passage very dull. Paris was ¾c lower and Antwerp unchanged. Clearings were again most meagre and but 8 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Minneapolis stocks so far this week were reported reduced 350,000 bu. Flour output the past week 345,000 brls, against 483,000 brls same week in 1903. Primary receipts July 1 to May 2 aggregate 218,107 000 bu, against 234,402,000 bu in 1902 03, and 218,773,000 bu in 1901 02. Argentine shipments this week are estimated at 3,200,000 bu. The late selling of new September was credited to the Northwest. St. Louis wired all but 250,000 bu of the contract stock there had been sold, and the present price was $1 03. Private crop reports from Oklahoma were quite "bullish." Duluth reported a full cargo taken for shipment. Receipts at Duluth 5 cars and at Minneapolis 81 cars, a total of 86 cars, against 82 cars yesterday, 65 cars a week ago, and 89 cars last year. Local receipts included 22 cars Winter, 2 cars Spring, no cars mixed, a total of 24 cars, against 34 cars last year. Included in above were no cars of contract grade. There was also 1 car and no bu from unlicensed elevators. Estimated receipts for to-morrow are 20 cars. Withdrawals to-day were 45,250 bu. Receipts at Western points were 155 134 bu, against 245,723 bu last year; at Eastern points 3,440 bu, against 409,2.2 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 205 669 bu, against 709,332 bu last year, and from Eastern points 800 bu, against 265,885 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 13,990 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 62,755 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Good trade and prices higher.

SEPTEMBER—Old Style—Sold at 81⅛@81⅝c. Opened at 81⅜c; sold to 81½c, to 81⅛c, to 81⅝c, to 81⅜c, to 81½@81⅝c, and closed at 81½@81⅝c.

SEPTEMBER—New Style. Sold at 79¾ and 80⅜@80½c. Opened with sales at 79¾c to 79⅞c, sold to 80c, to 79⅞c, to 80¼c, to 79¾c, to 80¼c, to 80⅛c, to 80⅜@80½c, to 80¼@80⅜c to 80⅜@80½c to 80c, to 80¼@80⅜c, and closed at 80¼@80⅜c.

DECEMBER—Sold at 79¾@80⅛c, and closed at 80@80⅛c.

CORN—A fair trade, but largely local, with the undertone again firm, the close showing the May ¾c higher, while July gained ⅜c and the September ¼c. Commission houses were moderate buyers and there was good demand from "shorts," while early offerings were comparatively light. There was too much rain West, receipts were small, Wheat higher, and the cash situation was reported as stronger. Receipts were 212 cars with 27 cars contract, against 182 cars last year when 4 cars were up to the speculative standard. There were 20 cars contract switched from private to public elevators. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ½d higher, and futures unchanged to ⅛d better. Argentine shipments were estimated at 400,000 bu. The Price Current stated that preparation has been made for a large area in Corn this spring. Western receipts, 275,000 bu, were 89,000 bu smaller than a year ago, and the shipments, 344 000 bu, were 81,000 bu larger than same time last year. Local arrivals were 135 000 bu and shipments 190,000 bu. Withdrawn from store 185,850 bu and exports only 9,000 bu, against 460,000 bu same day in 1903. Southwestern markets were all stronger. Showers and thunderstorms were predicted for Illinois, Indiana and Missouri. Shipping inquiry fair and sales 35,100 bu. At the seaboard 3 boat loads were accepted. Car lots were in good request and prices higher. Offerings were moderate. No. 2 closed about 49@50c. No. 2 Yellow closed at 52@54c. No. 3 sold at 48½c and closed at 48@48½c. No. 3 Yellow closed at 51@51½c. No. 4 sold at 46@46½c.

Corn by sample—Demand fair and market a little unsettled. Prices generally steady to 1c higher. Offerings moderate. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 30@42c. No. 4 at 44½@50½c. No 3 at 48@51c. No. 3 Yellow at 51½@52c. No. 2 at 49@51c. No 2 Yellow at 53½c. No 3 White at 48@48¼c. No. 2 White at 49@49½c. Billed through: No Grade at 30@43c. No. 4 at 49@47¾c. No. 3 at 46¾@47½c. No 3 Yellow at 49@50½c. No. 2 Yellow at 52c. No. 3 White at 46½@47c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Fairly active and stronger, closing ¼@¾c higher.

MAY—Sold at 46½@47c. Opened at 46½c, sold to 47c, to 46⅞c, to 47c, to 46¾c, to 46⅞c, and closed at 46⅞c.

JULY—Sold at 48⅛c and 48¾@48⅞c. Opened at 48⅛c to 48¼c, sold at 48⅜c, to 48⅛@48¼c, to 48½@48⅝c, to 48⅜c, to 48¾@48⅞c, to 48½c, to 48⅜c, to 48¼@48⅜c, to 48½@48⅝c, and closed at 48½@48⅝c asked.

AUGUST—Sold at 48⅛c and 48⅜c and closed 48⅛c.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 47⅞@48½c. Opened at 47⅞c to 48c and sold at 48¼@48⅜c, to 48¼c, to 48⅜c, to 48⅛c, to 48¼c, to 48⅜c, to 48½c to 48⅜c, to 48¼c, to 48@48⅛c, to 48¼c, and closed at 48¼c asked.

DECEMBER—Sold at 43⅞@44¼c. Opened at 43⅞c and sold at 44¼c, to 44⅛c and closed at 44⅛c asked.

MAY 1905—First sales were made at 44c, later sold at 44¼c, to 44c, and closed at 44c.

OATS—Were firm, with May up the most. They advanced 1⅛c over yesterday's close, and finished ⅝c higher. July advanced ⅝c but closed only ⅛c better, and September after ¼c range was unchanged at the close. Strength in other Grains and liberal local buying, combined with small receipts, was the feature. On the advance liberal selling for profits caused a recession. Receipts were 63 cars, with 75 cars estimated for tomorrow. There were 4 cars Standard out of private elevators. Withdrawals 64,200 bu, and cancellations 65,053 bu Standard. Country stocks in Illinois are said to be small. Crop advices were "bearish." Cash sales were 125,000 bu, and seaboard clearances 24,943 bu. Car lots to go to store were 1c higher. No. 4 sold at 38½c. Standard in store closed about 41⅛@41½c as to location.

Oats by sample were steady to 1c higher and strong. Offerings light. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 at 39½c. No. 4 White at 38½@43c. No. 3 White at 41⅞@44c. Standard at 43@44c. No 2 at 40½. Billed through: No. 4 White at 40½@42c. No. 3 at 40¼c. No. 3 White at 42½@43¼c. Standard at 43½@44c. No. 2 at 40c. At the river No 4 White at 37½@40½c. No. 3 White at 40@42c. No 2 at 38¾c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were active and averaged higher.

MAY. Sold at 40⅞@41¾c, shipping houses buying. Opened at 40⅞c to 41⅛c, sold to 41¾c, to 41¼c at close.

JULY—Active. Sold at 38⅞@39½c. Opened at 38⅞c to 39c, sold to 39½c, to 38⅞c, closed at 38⅞@39c.

SEPTEMBER—Moderate trading. Sold at 30⅝@30⅞c. Opened at 30⅝c to 30¾c, sold to 30⅞c, to 30⅝c at close.

RYE—Was dull. There was some little demand and ¼@½c higher prices bid, in sympathy with the advance in Wheat, but offerings limited and no business done. Interest is lacking in the market. The receipts were small only one car. There were no withdrawals from store here and no export clearances from the seaboard. No 2 in store nominally 70c and fresh arrivals about 70c. No. 3 fresh arrivals quotably 63@67c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet and firmer. May 76c bid and July 65c bid.

BARLEY—The market was very quiet on account of small offerings. For good to fancy malting Barley there was a fair demand, while the lower grades were slow. Sales to arrive were reported at 65,000 bu. To-day's postings showed 15 cars. Screenings were quotable at 28@48c for poor to choice. Barley—low grade feed or mixing at 32@37c outside good weight. Malting, low grade, 38@42c, fair to good sound, 45@48c, good color, 50@58c, and fancy 58@60c.

SEEDS—All markets were dull and unchanged, except Timothy which was 2½c lower for contract.

Timothy—The market was dull and nominally 2½c lower for contract. Offerings of cash Seed were only fair, and futures were neglected. September delivery was offered at $3 12½ and $3 05 was the only bid. Contract spot or May delivery was nominally $2 87½. Country lots, fair to good, quotable at $2 55@2 70, choice nominally $2 75@2 80, rough Seed $2 10@2 45 and country lots on the whole range $2 25@3 00 for poor to fancy—outside fine, unhulled.

Flax—Was nominally unchanged and very quiet. There were no sales reported of either cash or future deliveries. Local receipts were 5 cars or 4 2·0 bu; taken out there was 14 cars or 11,480 bu. Minneapolis got 5 cars and Duluth 18 cars. No. 1 Northwestern $1 08½ nominal. No 1 was nominal at $1 01 and Rejected nominal at 98c@$1 00, outside for choice Northwestern. May delivery nominally about $1 01. July delivery nominally $1 04 and September nominally about $1 06.

Clover—None offered and values were nominally unchanged. Contract spot Seed remains about $10 75. Country lots, common to choice, $7 75@10 00; fancy above, mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $7 00@8 25; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 50.

Other Seeds—The sale of a small lot of Siberian Millet was the only feature of interest in this market. The tone of the market was steady and values were called unchanged. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark, at $1 15@1 65. Common Millet, $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 40. Siberian, 85c@$1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat easy, good quality, $1 50.

HOG PRODUCTS—Only a moderate trade was reported in the market for Hog Products, and the under tone to the market was stronger. Hogs were in lighter supply than generally anticipated, and sold at higher prices, while the Grain markets were stronger—these were the main factors governing the trade. Outside orders were moderate, and local trading was fair. Offerings of all kinds were not very large, while a fair miscellaneous demand prevailed. Prices ruled higher on all the leading speculative articles early, but gradually receded toward the close, and the market closed rather steady. Trading chiefly in the July contracts. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 62,000, compared with 62 800 one year ago. Returns of the packing of the West for the week compared with the corresponding week in 1903 exhibited an increase of 115,000 Hogs. Foreign markets were quiet and steady at unchanged prices. Domestic markets were steady. Receipts of Products were fair—of Lard and Meats about 18 cars. Shipments were moderate—of Lard and Meats about 128 cars. Inquiry on shipping account was limited, and offerings were moderate. Sales were small, and prices without material change.

Mess Pork—A fair business was reported in the market for Mess Pork, and the feeling was stronger in a general way. Offerings were moderate, and the demand was fair. Trading chiefly in July contracts. Market opened rather firm and prices ruled 5c higher, which was followed by a further improvement of 10@12½c. Toward the close, the feeling was not so strong, and prices settled back 10@12½c, and the market closed steady. Shipping demand was light and offerings were small. Cash lots were quotable at $11 65@11 70.

MAY. Quiet, with small sales at $11 65@11 72½, and closed at $11 65.

JULY. In rather good demand and offerings were moderate. Sales were made at $11 87½@12 00. Opened at $11 87½, sold to $11 95 to $11 92½ to $11 97½, to $11 95, to $12 00, to $11 95 to $11 97½, to $11 87½, to $11 90, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER. Demand was moderate, and offerings were light. Sales were made at $12 05@12 17½. Opened at $12 05, sold to $12 17½, to $12 05, to $12 07½, and closed steady.

Lard—Only a moderate business was transacted in the Lard market and the feeling was stronger. Offerings were rather light and the inquiry was only fair. Foreign advices were unchanged. The market opened rather firm and prices were 2½c higher, which was followed by a further improvement of 2½@5c. Toward the close the feeling was not so strong and prices settled back 5@7½c and the market closed steady. Trading was chiefly in July contracts. The inquiry on shipping account was moderate and offerings were only fair. Cash lots were quotable at $6 57½@6 60. Loose lots in fair request, with moderate offerings. Prices steady at about 55c discount on July figures. Leaf Lard in good request and offerings were fair. Prices were quotably steady at $6 00. Neutral was in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $7 12½@7 25 for No. 1, and $6 87½@7 00 for No. 2.

MAY—Offerings were small and the demand was light. Sales were made at $6 57½@6 60, and closed steady at $6 57½.

JULY—In rather good demand with moderate offerings. Sales were made at $6 70@6 77½. Opened at $6 72½, sold to $6 75, to $6 72½, to $6 77½ to $6 70, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER. Quiet and steady, with small sales at $6 85.

Short Rib Sides—A fair trade was reported in the market for Short Rib Sides, and the undertone to the market was stronger. Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderately active. Trading largely local, with July delivery most in favor. Market opened rather steady and prices were about 2½c higher, which was followed by a further improvement of 5@7½c. Later, the market was not so strong, and prices settled back 5@7½c, and closed comparatively steady. Shipping demand was light and offerings were moderate. Cash lots quotable at $6 12½@6 25, according to weight.

MAY. Quiet and quotable at $6 30.

JULY—In rather good demand with fair offerings. Sales were made at $6 50@6 57½. Opened at $6 50 to $6 50@6 52½, sold to $6 57½, to $6 60@6 52½, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Demand light and offerings were moderate. Sales were made at $6 65@6 70. Opened at $6 65, sold to $6 70, to $6 65@6 67½, and closed steady.

Other Meats—Trade was limited, and the feeling rather steady. Offerings were not very large, and the inquiry was not very urgent. Exporters bought sparingly, and the home trade was rather light. Green Meats in limited supply, with moderate inquiry, and prices unchanged. Pickled Meats in moderate demand and prices ruled steady. Dry Salted Meats were in rather light demand with moderate offerings, and prices favored sellers. Smoked Meats called for in limited quantities, and prices ruled steady. Closing prices ranged as follows:

THE WORLD'S GRAIN TRADE.

[From Brad-street's.]

Broomhall's Corn Trade Year Book for 1904 brings this authority's compilation of the world's Grain statistics, the most thorough and exhaustive thing of its kind published, down to the spring of the present year, taking up the record of the production where the last issue of the Year Book left off, in 1902. In addition to the usual statistics of world's crops, prices and imports and exports and consumption of all the leading cereals, this book contains numerous charts showing in graphic form fluctuations in prices over a period of years, full particulars as to ocean freights and railroad rates on Grain in all the leading countries, and a careful analysis of the conditions affecting the future production of the various cereal series. The position of agriculture and industry in any part of the world can be ascertained at a glance by reference to this publication.

Americans will naturally be interested in the reiteration by Mr Broomhall of the prediction that the United States will cease to be the premier Grain exporting country, her place being threatened by Russia and Argentina. Linked with this prediction, however, is the acknowledgement that America, owing to the growth of its own population, is less dependent than ever upon a foreign outlet. Illustrative of this is the fact stated that, whereas ten years ago the United Kingdom relied upon the United States for 76 per cent of its Grain supplies, it now takes only 40 per cent of our Wheat alone. To put it in another way, the United States ten years ago sent 70 per cent of her Wheat and Flour and twenty years ago 80 to 90 per cent, whereas in 1903 she sent only 30 per cent. Touching this latter view of Mr Broomhall's, and while admitting that the growth of our own population may in time divert us permanently out of distinction of being the largest Grain Wheat and Flour exporter, it should not be forgotten that high prices at home, and, what is more important, scarcity of much really exportable surplus of both Wheat and Corn during the past two years, have militated seriously against our export trade in cereals. Given another good crop year like, say, 1901, in Wheat, our export trade will show a remarkable, even if in the long run only a temporary, spurt. It is possible, too, that with good quality Corn in quantity here, a great trade to this may be built up such as was shown in the years previous to the great Corn crop failure of 1901.

Touching the outlook for Wheat, it might be noted that Mr. Broomhall takes the view that with great present record-breaking world's crops there is no fear of scarcity, but he wisely points out that it is not so much the statistical position of the trade as it is the commercial position that requires study, because that is likely to regulate future prices for this cereal, and he argues that the failure of one important crop—whether it be the Australian, French or Indian—during a summer might bring about an upheaval in Wheat prices similar to that just experienced in Cotton.

THE TREASURY AND THE BANKS.

[From the Wall Street Journal, May 2.]

The secretary has made a call upon the depository banks which will amount to some $12,000,000, the amount to be paid by May 10. This is natural in view of the fact that the treasury working balance will be reduced very much by the time the Panama Canal payment whereas the banks still hold over $15,000,000 of Government money. The secretary has been well advised in taking this action at this time. There has been no time in years when a Government call on its deposits could be so easily met as at present. Up to within a few months the demand for money has been very active and the depository banks have had profitable employment for the Government money in their possession. At present the condition of the money market is well illustrated by the low rates for call rates for call and time loans in this city, and by the fact that, despite these low rates, New York banks continue to gain cash from other sources. The depositary banks could not, if they exercised call of $30,00,000 or $40,000,000 without the smallest trouble, and this money would be very much better in the treasury vaults than in the depository banks, under present conditions. Government deposits have, for years, steadily grown, so that the banks have become accustomed to regard them as practically permanent and to adjust their position. If for no other purpose than to make it clear that they are sometimes likely to be drawn upon, a call at this time is a good thing. Furthermore, it may easily happen that some form of assistance from the treasury may be desirable during the period of crop movement, and in order that the treasury may be able to render assistance to the banks, it must have some cash in its vaults. In its present condition it could do nothing for anybody. While it is unlikely that there will be any great pressure on the money market in the fall, unless either business or speculation increase materially, anything may happen in a presidential year, and it is well to be always ready for emergency.

NORTHWESTERN WHEAT CONSUMPTION

[From the Northwestern Miller, May 4.]

The attached table shows the output of Flour and approximate consumption of Wheat at Minneapolis and Duluth together with that of 39 "outside mills" with a daily capacity of 30,190 brls, from sept. 1, 1903, to April 23, 1904:

THE FLOUR PRODUCTION.

MINNEAPOLIS, May 4.—The Northwestern Miller reports the weekly Flour output at milling centers for two weeks, with comparisons, as follows:

	Apr. 28.	Apr. 21.	May 2, 1903.

Toledo	18,000	15,500	19,000

*Minnesota, Dakota and Iowa mills outside of Minneapolis and Duluth.

†Flour made by mills outside of St. Louis, but controlled in that city.

The Minneapolis Flour output last week increased 53,500 brls. This week it will probably not be much over one-half that quantity—possibly 100,000 brls. For the same week in 1903 the Flour output was 368,180 brls. With the Flour market extremely dull there is little incentive to run, and the current week the mills will probably not get to much over one-third time.

While the Flour market is generally considered about as dull as it could very well be, somewhat more Flour seems to be moving than a month ago was previously the case. Most of the sales were made Friday and Saturday, the ic advance in Wheat seeming to stir up domestic buyers to take a little Flour. The export demand, however, still was the inquiry for prices of Flour by large men in the trade, while heretofore they have shown solid indifference. However, the easier Wheat market is not in favor of a material Flour business, as aged them and the market is about as unfavorable as ever. Nevertheless, with the heavy curtailment in production, with consumption going steadily on, a healthier condition certainly ought to be attained before many more weeks elapse.

Minneapolis millers are seemingly as far away from doing an export business at heretofore. Foreigners appear "bearish" in their views, and with large stocks in the United Kingdom, they hardly deign to make bids. To such a 5,000-brl lot of Patent is now offered to Europe.

Prices of Patent have not been changed by most mills during the week. By most mills during the week. In its present condition it could do nothing for anybody. While it is unlikely that there will be any great pressure on the money market in the fall, unless either business or speculation increase materially, anything may happen in a presidential year, and it is well to be always ready for emergency.

WHEAT AT PRIMARY MARKETS.

The following table shows the receipts of Wheat at Winter and Spring Grain markets for forty-four weeks, from June 30 to May 2, with comparisons, as compiled by the Cincinnati Price Current:

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

Vice Chancellor Stevenson, at Jersey City, has signed a decree dissolving the Asphalt Company of America.

The Lake Shore Road will spend $1,500,000 building third and fourth tracks this summer, divided between the Eastern, Western and Toledo divisions.

A dividend of 2 per cent has been declared on the Indianapolis Street Railway stock, payable July 1, as registered June 25. Books close on the latter date.

Sprudel, Ill., wires: "Corn acreage through this section will be very large. There is a great deal of old Corn in farmers' hands that will soon be for sale."

The Niles-Bement-Pond Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent on its preferred stock, payable May 14. Books close May 7 and reopen May 16.

The Pratt and Whitney Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent on its preferred stock, payable May 14. Books close May 7 and reopen May 16.

"In twenty-five years," says an Omaha man, "report from the northern part of Iowa have not been as favorable at this time of the year. Conditions are simply perfect."

From Russia and the Danube the exports of Wheat and Seed from Aug. 1 to April 16 have amounted to 4,462,000 bu, against 4,460 000 bu in the previous year, and 4,221,000 bu in 1901-2.

It is reported that the Mexican Central Railroad has made a loan of ten millions, $1,000,000 for six months at 5 per cent, with a commission of ¼ per cent, making the loan cost 5½ per cent.

A Minneapolis dispatch says: "On account of a small order book the Pillsbury conducts all of the Flour mills in Minneapolis closed, Wednesday, until trade increases to warrant resumption of business."

People's Gas Company quarterly earnings for April were the largest for that month in its history, and the total for the first four months of the year is said to show a heavy increase over the corresponding period in 1903.

South Side Elevated Railway, Chicago, traffic for April, a cold month, is considered satisfactory. The daily average traffic was 91,500 passengers, compared with 87,540 during last year, a gain of 3,947 per day, or 4.51 per cent

The executive committee of the British Cotton Growing Association, Wednesday, decided to apply for a supplemental charter. The new capitalization will be $50 000, in shares of $5 each. No profits will be divided during the first seven years.

According to a dispatch from Baltimore, the directors of the Gorsuch American Cereal and Quaker Oats shares are expected. It is now the company's dullest season, but business has fallen off no more with the advent of spring this year than formerly.

A New York dispatch says: "The selling of the Coal stocks, Tuesday, was based on statements President Roosevelt had instructed Attorney General Knox to take an investigation of the anthracite inquiry ordered by the Inter-State Commerce Commission. The inquiry will be resumed in New York May 24."

The Reserve Ore Association, which for a number of years past has fixed the selling price of Lake Superior ores, has practically ceased to exist. The members of the Association met at Cleveland, Ohio, and announced that it had been found impossible to reach an agreement, and as a result the Association was dissolved.

There is no credence placed by Texas Oil men in the recently published statement that the Standard Oil Company will build an Oil pipe line from the Texas Oil fields to New York, etc. The Texas Oil fields are adjacent to Galveston, and the Oil can be shipped more satisfactorily and more cheaply by the tank steamers than by such a pipe line as proposed.

"Conditions are much more favorable than at the corresponding date last year for the cereal crops and all kinds of Fruit except Peaches," says J. R. Sage, of the Iowa crop bureau. "The season is from two to three weeks earlier and the general growth of vegetation, but the general outlook has not been more encouraging at the first of May within the past five years."

The Price Current dispatch, Tuesday, said: "Officials of the American Can Company say that the story from Chicago to the effect that the American Can Company is to be reorganized and its capitalization increased without foundation. The management has, since the organization of the company, been actively at work in concentrating its plants and reducing its operating expenses."

The most marked feature of the General Electric report is the reduced profit on increased sales. The sales for the year aggregated $41,699,617, an increase of $5,014,019 for the year, while profits were $7,662,276, showing a decrease of $82,387. The largest portion of the decrease in profits is explained by the larger sums written off and by the loss in miscellaneous income from sales of securities, from royalties and from interest and dividends on securities owned.

Beerbohm of April 22 says: "There is still much doubt about the real surplus of Wheat in argentina this year. Our own opinion is, however, ago was a crop of 128,000,000 bu and a surplus of 92,000 000 bu, against 76,000,000 bu exported last season. Some other recent estimates have, however, placed the surplus at only 60,000,000 bu, and that but, on the other hand, cables received this week from the principal railway company report that 60 per cent of the crop had still to come forward. As in previous years, however, probably the real surplus will not be known until the end of June, by which time, as a rule, 50 to 90 per cent of the exportable has been exported."

Beerbohm, of April 22, says: "Our Odessa correspondent reports warmer weather more favorable for the crops, which, however, were in poor condition in many parts, and badly in want of rain. In a general way it may be said that the spring season is very late in Russia this year, and sowings are in consequence in arrear. Supplies of Wheat from the interior to the seaboard are increasing, and a semi-official report recently issued states that in those districts which supply the export trade, viz., in the Southwest, including the Azof, stocks in farmers' hands are larger and more extensive than last year, but there was a tendency to hold back the Grain, owing to the poor condition of the growing crops. Exports, however, continue on a liberal scale, and stocks in the ports are kept at a moderate point."

Beerbohm of April 22 says of Flax Seed: "There has been a fair amount of business passing during the week, principally in Indian Seed. Near Plata has ruled weak, and cargoes afloat have been offered at less money, but anything not shipped has been steadily held, and the prices obtainable for same are fully up to last week's level. Plate cargoes are distinctly easier: a steamer afloat is reported to have sold at 27s 9d, and two large sailers afloat at 28s. A large proportion of the shipments from the Argentine, reported during the past few weeks for orders, has been diverted to the Continent, thus causing a fair decrease in the quantity afloat for the United Kingdom, and also an increase in the Continental quantity. Included in the quantity exported during the week ended March 30 was a steamer for Riga with 58,000 bu."

The Chicago Inter-Ocean says: "Crop reports from Western Kansas, Western Nebraska, and Oklahoma are coming very much better. A message from Kansas City says: 'Oakley, Kan., which is the big railroad town in Western Kansas on the Union Pacific road, claims that fully 80 per cent of a crop is promised. A Stockton, Kan., mitter, who claimed not over 25 per cent of a crop when he was here last week, now says 70 per cent may have fallen over the entire drouth stricken area, and some fields which were supposed to have been dead are coming out in good shape. Texas and Oklahoma will turn their soft Wheat eastward as early as possible this year to secure the fancy prices paid, as they are much over an average crop. Even in Central and Eastern Kansas claim a full crop, and, barring damage, a yield of 85,000,000 bu is possible, and it is not impossible for Kansas to give us 100,000,000 bu Cutting with favorable weather will begin in Oklahoma the first week in June."

Broomhall cables: "Liverpool Wheat opened ¼d higher, influenced by the "bullish" Illinois bulletin. Later months steadied ⅛d and a firm undertone developed as a result of the report in question and a better spot demand for cargoes. Corn opened unchanged, but advanced on buying by "shorts" and on fair spot demand."

Bradstreet's reports the exports of Wheat and Flour from the United States and Canada for the past week at 1,192,000 bu, against 1,010,000 bu for the previous week, and 3,200,000 bu for the corresponding week last year. Exports from July 1 reported at 122,906,000 bu, compared with 189,892,000 bu for the corresponding time in 1902-3.

The Modern Miller says: "Replies to numerous inquiries regarding changes in condition of Winter Wheat crop during April show considerable decline in Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Texas, Oklahoma and Indian Territory. Improvement is noted in Illinois, Missouri, Tennessee, Kentucky and Kansas, especially in Central Kansas and central and eastern sections of the State. Conditions in western part of Kansas are poor. In Indiana, Michigan, Ohio and Oklahoma a large part has been abandoned. But the loss elsewhere in this respect is small. All States report practically no Wheat held by farmers except in Kansas, and reserves there are unusually small."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS

FLOUR—The market ruled very quiet and prices on the week show a decline of 10c, with the exception of soft Winters.

WINTER WHEAT—Was steady to firm. A fair milling demand existed and the market was not affected to any extent by the advance in the speculative market except for No. 2 Red. Choice Wheat of all grades was taken fairly well and Hard Wheat sold at about former figures. No. 2 Red in store quotably $1 02@1 04 and free on board at $1 06@1 08. No. 3 Red nominally 98c@$1 04. No. 2 Hard fresh receipts quotably free on board at 90@93c. No. 3 Hard fresh arrivals free on board sold at 85@90c, and No. 4 Hard at 80@82c

SPRING WHEAT—Was firm. A moderate demand existed and fresh arrivals of choice Wheat would sell readily, but none arriving. No. 1 Northern was quotably 1½c higher and other grades unchanged. No. 1 Northern in store ranged at 90@91½c, and fresh arrivals free on board nominally 93@96c. No. 2 Northern fresh receipts 90@91c. No. 3 Spring nominally 86@93c for ordinary to choice fresh receipts free on board. No. 4 Spring nominally 62@86c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—There was a fair trade and firm tone prevalent, but considering the "bullish" tenor of the news, the market made rather a poor response. Closing prices showed the May 1⅝c higher, while July gained ⅞c and September ¾@⅞c. The start was steadier, the weather Northwest not being of the best, and St. Louis displayed a much stronger tone. Cables were firm, receipts small, and there was no local selling pressure, sentiment leaning to the "bull" side. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ½d higher, and futures ¼@⅜c higher. Receipts there the past three days were 216,000 bu, of which 32,000 bu cam from America. London futures were ¾@⅞c higher. Paris was unchanged to ¼c higher, and Antwerp unchanged. Argentine shipped 3,232,000 bu, making 50,552,000 bu since January 1, against 32,402,000 bu one year ago Broomhall cables that beneficial rains were reported in Roumania. Map was not so favorable; temperatures were some lower in the Northwest and there was too much moisture. There were heavy rains in Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri and Texas. Indications are for scattered showers in the Upper Mississippi and Lower Missouri valleys and Western Lake Region, continued mild temperatures Fair and warmer for the Dakotas. The Modern Miller was "bullish" and the Orange Judd Farmer made the condition May 1, 74 5 per cent, against 80 1 April 1, or the lowest since 1888. The Ohio State report made the condition only 53 per cent, against 67 per cent on April 1, and 84 last July. Kentucky State report 60 per cent, against 59 last month, and 75 last July Primary receipts were 66,000 bu less than a year ago. Kansas City and St. Louis received 32,000 bu, against 84,000 bu last year, and shipments were 96,000 bu. The light contract stocks were something of a factor being estimated at only 650,000 bu Clearings were small and total for the week 1,921,000 bu, compared with 3,230,000 bu same week in 1903. Minneapolis stocks show 375,000 bu decrease on the week. Minneapolis mills are expected to start up next Monday. Receipts at Duluth 4 cars and at Minneapolis 47 cars, a total of 51 cars, against 86 cars yesterday, 71 cars a week ago, and 81 cars last year. Local receipts included 20 cars Winter, 3 cars Spring, no cars mixed, a total of 23 cars, against 34 cars last year. Included in above were 2 cars of contract grade. There was also 4 cars and no bu from unlicensed elevators Estimated receipts for to-morrow not reported Withdrawals to-day were 122,600 bu. Receipts at Western points were 142,124 bu, against 207,836 bu last year; at Eastern points 3,829 bu, against 5.6,525 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 169,610 bu, against 145,972 bu last year, and from Eastern points 12,570 bu, against 326,197 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 32,962 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 161,309 bu.

DECEMBER—Sold at 80⅛@81c and closed at about 80¾c.

CORN—Only a moderate speculative trade, though the market started out fairly active. As the session advanced the interest waned The close shows May ⅜c lower, while July lost ¼@⅜c and September ¼c. There was a good miscellaneous demand at the opening, chiefly from "shorts," the map showing too much rain and reports were in circulation that the lake strike was about to be settled to-day. Several of the large sellers were credited with buying through brokers, but the advance found considerable Corn for sale and prices settled back again Receipts were 211 cars, with 22 cars contract, and 28 cars switched from private to public elevators. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ¼d higher and futures ¼@⅜d better. Receipts there the past three days 168 000 bu, of which 104,000 bu came from America Private messages from Cleveland stated the prospect for a settlement of the strike of masters was much improved, and that an understanding was quite probable to-day. Argentine shipments were moderate at 350,000 bu, and total since Jan. 1 aggregate 11,388,000 bu, against 3,392,000 bu one year ago Showers were indicated for the Upper Mississippi and Lower Missouri Valleys and the Western Lake region. Clearings were 108,000 bu, and total for the week 523,000 bu, against 1,632 000 bu one year ago. Nearly 150,000 bu was taken from regular elevators here for shipment, and 3 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Southwestern markets were steady. Western receipts 408,000 bu; last year 378,000 bu. Shipments, 245,000 bu and 329,000 bu respectively. Local arrivals 238,000 bu and shipments 126,000 bu Cash sales here 50,000 bu. Decline in Provisions was against the price some what. Car lots in good demand, and prices quite steady. No. 2 sold at 48⅝c, and closed at 48¼@48½c No. 2 Yellow closed at 52½@53½c. No. 3 sold at 48½@48⅝c and closed at 48¼c. No 3 White at 49c. No. 3 Yellow sold at 51½c and closed at 51@52c No. 4 sold at 46½@48½c. No. Grade sold at 42½c.

Corn by sample—Was a good demand and prices steady, with the exception of No Grade, which was in large supply. Quality very poor and prices several cents lower. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 28@37c. No. 4 at 45@49c. No 3 at 48@50c. No. 3 Yellow at 50½@52½c. No. 2 at 48@52c. No. 2 Yellow at 53@55c. No. 3 White at 48@49½c No 2 White at 50c. Billed through: No Grade at 31@39c. No. 4 at 44@48½c. No. 3 at 47@47¼c. No. 3 Yellow at 50c. No. 3 White at 47@47½c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Moderately active and firm early, but weakened badly and closed unchanged to ¼@⅜c lower.

MAY—Sold at 47@47⅝c Opened at 47c to 47¼c, and sold at 47⅛c, to 47⅝c, to 47⅜c, to 47½c, to 47¼c, to 47⅜c, to 47⅛c, and closed at 47⅛c asked.

JULY—Sold at 48⅛@48¼c and 48⅞c. Opened at 48⅝c to 48¾@48⅞c, sold to 48½@48⅝c, to 48⅝c, at 48½c, to 48⅞c, to 48⅝c, to 48¾c, to 48½c, to 48⅝@48¾c, to 48⅛@48¼c, to 48⅜c, to 48¼c, and closed at 48¼c bid

OATS—Were advanced ¼@½c with Wheat and Corn and on reports of good rains over the Oats States. Local traders loaded up, but later sold out and prices receded ⅜@½c and closed at about the bottom, with net losses of ⅛@¼c. Trading throughout was moderate. On the advance, there was good realizing by recent buyers. Cash demand for round lots was moderate. The lake strike was said to be in a fair way of settlement. Sales for shipment were 65,000 bu. Withdrawals were 76,500 bu, and cancellations of Standard 47,024 bu The week will show a large decrease in stocks. Arrivals were 68 cars with a moderate run to-morrow. Seaboard clearances 17,732 bu. Car lots to go to store were steady. No. 3 White sold at 43¼c. Standard in store closed about 41⅛@41½c as to location.

Oats by sample were in better demand, with supply small and market steady, despite the break in futures. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 at 39@39½c. No 4 White at 38½@42½c. No. 3 at 40c No. 3 White at 42¾@44c Standard at 41c No 2 at 40¾@41c Billed through: No. 3 at 39½c. No. 3 White at 42½@43½c Standard at 42½@44c. At the river: No 4 White at 39@40c.

PORK PACKING AND PROVISIONS.

[From the Cincinnati Price Current. May 5.]

A further enlargement in the marketing of Hogs is apparent from the records of the past week. Total Western packing 485,000, compared with 440,000 for the preceding week, and 355,000 two weeks ago. For corresponding time last year the number was 370,000, and two years ago 300,000. From March 1 the total is 3,515,000, against 3,190,000 a year ago—an increase of 325,000. The offerings are mostly of good quality. Prices range as noted, prominent markets on an average showing about 5c per 100 lbs compared with $4.91 a week ago, $5.00 two weeks ago, $5.75 a year ago, $5.85 two years ago, and $5.70 three years ago.

The speculative Provision market has been only fairly active the past week, with an easy tone prevailing. There was but little in the way of change in the situation to influence values. The foreign markets present features-as and the domestic trade was quiet, with some lowering of quotations in a general way. Exporters continue practically out of the market. The export clearances of Product were moderate, but show a gain as compared with the preceding week and a decided increase over the corresponding week last year.

Stocks of Cut Meats at centers making monthly returns show the comparisons as to totals, in pounds, according to "Cincinnati Price Current" compilations, as follows:

	May 1, 1904.	Apr. 1, 1904.	May 1, 1903.
Chicago	44,913,000	182,23,000	109,265,000
Kansas City	45,318,000	14,011,000	36,565,000

Total, lbs	267,779,000	290,297,000	233,321,000

This indicates a decrease of 2,500,000 lbs in the total, compared with a month ago, while the stocks were increased 34,500,000 lbs last year for the corresponding date. The total stocks May 1 were 52,000,000 lbs more than a year ago and 23,000,000 lbs more than two years ago. The total stocks of Lard at the five centers named in the foregoing table on May 1 were 125,000 lbs, compared with 126,000 lbs a month ago and 43,000 a year ago.

GRAIN TRADE AND CROPS.

[From the Cincinnati Price Current. May 5.]

The past week has been very favorable for crop growth and farm work and much progress was made. The lateness of the season, however, is quite generally commented upon, and correspondence of this week being more hopeful than that of last week. Liberal rains in the western parts of Nebraska, Kansas and Oklahoma have been beneficial. Advices by a few reports from parts of Indiana show a slight improvement lately most reports indicate a very small crop, many reporting the prospect less than half a full crop. Considerable areas of Wheat land in these two States are being put to Oats and Corn. Outside of these two States, with limited exceptions, the tendency lately has been for improvement. Considering the situation with a month ago, there has been a material deterioration east of the Mississippi River north of the Ohio, but an improvement in Tennessee. In the Wheat belt west of the Mississippi River, and on the Pacific Coast, and allowing for the amount of variation and the importance of the different sections, the condition as a whole is about the same or fractionally better than a month ago.

Late advices from the Spring Wheat States show favorable progress in seeding, and although there was a late start the Wheat area will be larger than last year, probably to the extent of 10 per cent.

The Oats crop is now practically all seeded and making favorable progress. Much of the early seeded Oats did not start well owing to wet and cold weather, and some replanting was done, but under the influence of more favorable weather the crop lately has been showing some better. The acreage is not much, if any, above an average. All indications point to a large acreage of Corn, and the work of planting and preparation of the soil has been pushed rapidly under favorable conditions.

Interior movement of Wheat is small, even for this time of year, and the movement of other Grains is light to moderate

WHEAT IN THE SOUTHWEST.

[Kansas City Cor. of the Northwestern Miller.]

Nothing but good news is to be heard here regarding the condition of the growing Wheat in Kansas in every part of the State the greatest improvement in condition is noted. Wheat is prospering splendidly in the southern and central parts of the State and in the western division, where the lack of rainfall did the greatest harm, the situation has been greatly helped by the rains and succeeding bright days. Present weather is just what the Wheat needs, and now two feet high splendidly rooted, and with a head or two in formation.

Oklahoma conditions are better, especially in the northern part of the Territory. All reports indicate that the crop farther south will be short.

SPRING WHEAT SEEDING.

[From the Northwestern Miller.]

Ideal have been crop conditions in the Northwest during the week. With bright, cool weather, moisture in wet localities has been rapidly dissipated, and seeding has made great headway. In Southern Minnesota seeding has in the main been completed, while in South Dakota it is well along toward that point. Even in North Dakota and Northern Minnesota the soil has dried out to a wonderful extent, and outside of the Red River Valley the work is now under full headway, and will be pretty well finished by another week. In the Red River Valley seeding is proceeding on high ground, while low ground is still too wet.

At some points in Southern Minnesota and South Dakota the Wheat is out of the ground and in most promising state. With the ground in perfect condition and containing plenty of moisture, good weather cannot fail to make its growth very rapid. Though the season is some three weeks late, compared with last year, the take-the view that with Wheat planted by May 10, and favorable weather, there is ground for expecting a full crop of Wheat in the Northwest. A considerable increase in the acreage over last year is now considered probable.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The Cincinnati Price Current submits the following comparisons of stocks of Lard on May 1 for the years mentioned, held in Chicago and New York, and reported by European markets and afloat, with totals, represented in tierces:

	Chicago.	N. York.	Europe, etc.	Total.

Another story is circulating about alleged negotiations for a settlement between Heinze and the Amalgamated. In support of the report is the statement that there is less friction now between the parties than formerly, and there have been many conferences. It is believed much will depend on the report that H. H. Thayer, now manager, will make to H. H. Rogers.

The Reading system for March shows a surplus after charges of $478,929; decrease, $369,735. From July 1 to March 31 surplus $3,163,381; increase, $1,230,227. It is the opinion that the Reading company will have by the end of the year sufficient to pay the 4 per cent dividend on all the preferred stock and leave a balance large enough to pay about 2½ per cent on the common stock.

The Ohio Supreme Court, Tuesday, decided the Russell inheritance law, passed at the last session of the Legislature, to be constitutional. The law provides that all estates of $20,000 or more pay a tax. On all estates of more than that amount 2 per cent is levied by the State Auditors, and it is estimated the law will bring the State additional revenue of approximately $3,000,000 annually.

"Hog prices should soon break for another low point," said a Chicago Hog buyer, Thursday. "The time of year is at hand when receipts should gradually increase, and the heavy Hogs that prices will break of their own weight." Values are now relatively much higher than the trade in Hogs and Provisions warrants, and the most skilled buyers are indifferent buyers for that reason.

It is officially stated that the published report that the Erie Railroad Company had delivered $2,500,000 4 per cent convertible bonds to the syndicate which underwrote the $10,000,000 of 4½ bills issue authorized one year ago, does not represent a recent transaction. These bonds were delivered some months ago, and they were issued in part to reimburse the company for expenditures made for equipment and other improvements.

It is said that the reorganization plan for the Chicago Union Traction Company is understood to have been modified by Blair & Co. and Speyer & Co., involves the conversion of the preferred stock into 4 per cent or 4½ per cent debentures, on an estimate of conditions in the money market for it, which would make the preferred worth between 65 and 70. It is also said that the reorganization plan includes a new common stock to be issued in exchange for the present stock on a squeeze out water to the extent represented by an exchange of twenty shares of new stock for 100 shares of old.

The Directors of the Shelby Iron Company held a meeting, Thursday, and decided that it would not be good business policy under present conditions to declare a dividend at this time. The Shelby Iron Company has for a number of years paid dividends at irregular rates, depending entirely on the profits of the company. It has paid on an average for the last five years 13½ per cent annually. An official of the company said after the meeting that the company had ample funds on hand to pay the dividend, but as the market was slow and the outlook not such a good one, the amount of Iron on hand for which there was comparatively little sale the directors thought it would be better policy to hold off for a while.

Fall River, Mass., dispatch says: "Reports from many of the corporations which have been shutting down their Cotton mills two days each week indicate that the curtailment of the past month has been largely in excess of the actual results. Some of the manufacturers favor a complete shut-down of all the mills here unless relief is shortly forthcoming from purchasers The situation is now showing a more hopeful aspect. A shut-down will not be ordered, however, until the present plan has been tried out further. Advices from other mill centers indicate a slow demand for goods, and that the curtailment movement is extending. The number of employes in New England already affected is estimated at 40,000."

"Pig Iron prices for the third quarter of the year, and possibly for the month of June, will practically be determined by the developments of the next few weeks," said a United States Steel official Wednesday. "Conditions vary in the different sections. In the Central West and Bessemer districts prices are weak, with a possibility that they will go lower before the end of the year. Furnaces in the Northern section, where the furnaces compete most vigorously with the Iron from the Southern districts, have not materially changed by the recent decrease in the freight rate on Southern Iron north of the Ohio River. It is expected that Bessemer Pig Iron will be shaded to $13 00 per ton for the third quarter and for June, unless demand grows rapidly larger. The situation is not entirely reassuring, but consumption is still practically equivalent to production."

The agreement between the holders of the preferred and common stock of the Houston Oil Company of Texas and the protective committee has been completed. It provides in brief for the deposit of the stocks of the company with the Manhattan Trust Company of New York and the Old Colony Trust Company of Boston The committee is authorized to formulate a plan and publish it and if the stock is not withdrawn within thirty days the depositors will be considered as having assented to it. Dissenting stockholders may withdraw their stock on payment of 50c per share if they are preferred holders, and of 25c per share if holders of common. The committee is given full power to transfer deposited stock to their own names, and to exercise any and all rights of the original holders. The committee is also authorized to use expenditures to a total not exceeding 5c a share on the preferred and 2c a share on the common. The committee assumes no liability on account of failure to carry out the reorganization.

A writer in the Paper Mill says: "What is the matter with the United Box Board and Paper Company? The producing capacity of its mills is great. Their quantity of output daily is greater. The prices demanded for the production are higher than they ever were. The consumption of the production is increasing, understand, I am not criticising the action of the officers of the United Box Board and Paper Company or the Paper Products Company, which I find must sell the same things; nor am I condemning them for the steps they have taken; but on the other hand, I rather commend them for their action, if they can fill the places of these high-priced goods, together with their at lower prices, for the reason that the stockholders and investors will reap the benefits of this economical action on the part of the officers of the paper companies. It shows conclusively that the organization is running its plants, or is trying to, at least, on an economical basis."

Wisconsin	78.2	85 0	92 0

The condition in the remaining Southern States is rather good, while in California it is very favorable, and in Washington and Oregon the outlook at present indicates a full crop on a moderately increased acreage

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS

WINTER WHEAT—A fair demand existed on milling account for choice soft and Hard Winter and feeling rather firm, but poor Wheat was dull and in the case of No. 4 Hard about 1@2c lower. Most of the offerings to-day consisted of No 4 Hard. No. 2 Red in store nominally $1 02@1 04 and fresh arrivals free on board nominally $1 02@1 06. No. 3 Red fresh receipts free on board quotably 98c@$1 04 No 2 Hard fresh receipts free on board quotably 90@93c No. 3 Hard fresh receipts free on board sold at 86@90c. No. 4 Hard weak and sold at 79@86c.

SPRING WHEAT Was steady for choice Wheat, for which there was a fair milling demand. Poor Wheat ruled dull. No 1 Northern in store quotably 9 ⅝@91½c, and fresh arrivals free on board quotably 94@98c No 2 Northern fresh arrivals nominally 88@95c No 3 Spring fresh receipts sold at 88@92c, and ranged at 86@94c for ordinary to very choice hard variety. A sale of No 4 Spring was made at 83c and ranged at 63@86c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—The trade was only moderate, with undertone comparatively firm early, but later in the session prices receded, and the close was about ¼@⅜c lower. There was too much rain in the Northwest, which was regarded as unfavorable, and receipts were small On the other hand, cables did not respond fully to our advance yesterday, and the Argentine, Australia and India shipments this week suggest 6,100 000 bu, and Broomhall estimates the total as 11,600,000 bu, with an additional increase on ocean passage. Liverpool was steady on spot and futures only ⅛@¼d better. London steady to ⅜d higher, with cargoes on passage held 3d better. Paris was up ½@¾c. Berlin ⅜c, while Buda Pesth declined ½c. Map showed rain in Minnesota and light rains in Dakotas; also in Missouri and Central Illinois. Temperatures West and Southwest higher. Showers and cooler indicated for Kansas, Nebraska, Minnesota, South Dakota and Iowa. Fair, cooler North Dakota. Thunderstorms for Illinois, Indiana and Michigan. Broomhall cables that latest Russian advices indicate that moderate crops are probable. Blanchard, N. D, wired: "No seeding yet; heavy rains all night. Looks like Valley would get left this year." Minneapolis wired: "Rained at Grand Forks, Fargo, Comstock, Casselton, Hillsboro and Fergus Falls all night: still raining at most of these places." Primary receipts this week reported at 1,138,000 bu; last week 1,157,000 bu, year ago 1,952 000 bu. Local weekly receipts 168,000 bu: shipments 130,600 bu. Northwestern receipts 531 cars; last week 517 cars; year ago 823 cars. English farmers' deliveries 381,000 bu at 92¾c; last week 292,000 bu at 84¾c and 464,600 bu last year at 83¼c. DAILY TRADE BULLETIN reported stock of Breadstuffs afloat for Europe and in store there and in Argentina 89 808,000 bu, against 86 114,000 bu April 1 and 60,238,000 bu May 1, 1903. Arrivals in the United Kingdom last week 4,400,000 bu; previous week 3,600 000 bu; year ago 3 103,100 bu. DAILY TRADE BULLETIN crop report (details elsewhere) was construed as "bullish." Receipts at Duluth 8 cars and at Minneapolis 92 cars, a total of 100 cars, against 51 cars yesterday, 90 cars a week ago, and 124 cars last year. Local receipts included 15 cars Winter, 8 cars Spring, 2 cars mixed, a total of 25 cars, against 54 cars last year. Included in the above was 1 car of contract grade. There was also 2 cars and no bu from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for Monday are 25 cars. Withdrawals to-day were 231,300 bu. Receipts at Western points were 170,023 bu, against 237,231 bu last year; at Eastern points 2,900 bu, against 378,184 bu last year Shipments from Western points were 359,116 bu, against 414,355 bu last year, and from Eastern points 40,000 bu, against 711,611 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 35,229 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 194,530 bu.

RYE Nothing of consequence doing and market comparatively steady. Demand light and offerings also limited Buyers and sellers apart. Only two cars received No withdrawals from store here and no clearances from the seaboard. Cash offerings, especially fresh arrivals, very light. No. 2 in store nominally 70c and fresh arrivals nominally 71@73c. No. 3 fresh receipts nominally 62@69c for poor to choice.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—May 70c bid. July 65c bid most of the day and at the close 67c bid. No trading.

BARLEY There were moderate offerings of Screenings, and a few cars of good malting Barley. General supply small Screenings were salable and steady when good, but dull when common Of lower grades of Barley there was hardly any offerings and no special demand, but fair to good malting Barley in fair request and quotably steady Fourteen cars were inspected in Prices in no particular materially changed and quotable over a range as follows: Screenings at 27@38c for poor to choice. Barley—low grade feed or mixing at 32@37c, outside good weight Malting, low grade, 38@42c; fair to good sound, 45@48c; good color, 50@56c and fancy possibly above.

SEEDS—Nothing was done aside from the sale of a couple of cars of cash Timothy. For all lines values were quoted as unchanged. Since the above Seed was the only kind offered, all of the rest were inactive

Timothy—Ruled very quiet. A couple of cars of rough Seed was all that appeared on sale; they brought $2 35@2 45 Better grades quotably steady and would sell. Futures were entirely neglected and nominal. Country lots of fair to good Seed were quotable at $2 50@2 60, choice nominally $2 75@2 80, fancy $2 90, rough Seed $2 35@2 45 and country lots on the whole range $2 25@3 00 for poor to fancy—outside fine, unhulled. Contract spot or May delivery nominally $2 90. September was said to be about $3 15

Flax—An entire absence of offerings made it impossible to do any business The market was unchanged from late quotations. Little Flax moving Two cars or 1,700 bu received here and none taken out Minneapolis got 4 cars and Duluth 6 cars. There were nominal quotations of $1 08½ for No. 1 Northwestern, $1 01 for No 1 and 96c@$1 00 for Rejected, outside for choice Northwestern. May delivery was nominally $1 01. July quotable at $1 01 and September at $1 06.

Clover Was inactive because there was none for sale Quotably steady and unchanged, with a range of prices as follows: Contract spot Seed nominally $10 75. Country lots, common to choice, $7 75@10 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $7 00@8 25, poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW

MONEY AND STOCKS.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY EVENING, May 6, 1904.

The money market is slow and rates are easy. Loans are being made as low as 4 per cent, but most of them are at 4½ to 5 per cent. The general demand is not sufficient to take up all the surplus money the banks have to loan, and with low rates the banks are earning less money than at any time in several years. This is true not only of Chicago but throughout the West and Northwest. Many country banks are sending their money to Chicago and New York, where they get 2 to 3 per cent, as they have not enough demand for it at home to keep it employed. In New York the banks are paying higher rates on deposits than they can get by loaning the money, which makes business unprofitable. Rates in New York were 1 to 1½ per cent on the Stock Exchange. Sixty-day bills on Stock Exchange collateral containing not more than 30 per cent of Industrial securities were 2 to 2½ per cent. Ninety-day money loaned at 2½ to 3 per cent, six months at 3 to 3½ per cent and loans running a year brought 4 per cent and mercantile paper paid 4 to 4½ per cent. Gold continues to be shipped from New York to Paris in liberal quantities, but this movement will soon cease, as there is not to be over $10,000,000 sent out, and the exchange market is weakening.

New York exchange was firm at 25@30c premium per $1,000, and closed at 2?c premium.

Foreign exchange was easier. Shippers' 60-day documentary sterling bills ranged at 4.84⅝@4.84¾, and closed at about the inside.

Cotton in New York was not traded in to any great extent and showed the lack of public interest. The spinning demand is lighter both in America and England and has a depressing effect on values, partly offsetting the influence of smaller arrivals in the interior and at ports. Manufacturers claim that they are not getting orders for goods and are not inclined to buy, despite the strong statistical situation. Crop news from the South was rather unfavorable, the unseasonably cold weather prevailing. But the effect of this was offset by the New York Journal of Commerce's estimate of an increase of 10 per cent in acreage. This is rather under expectations, but is a heavy gain. All indications are that the acreage will be the largest known. Prices moved within a decidedly small range, and closed at losses of 4@10 points on deferred months and a gain of 10 points on May.

Local Securities averaged lower for the greater part of the week with the exception of Biscuit, Can and Box Board preferred, which were offered sparingly and advanced, and Biscuit common made a good gain. The weak spots were Pneumatic Tool, Elevated securities and Quaker Oats, material losses being recorded. The bond market showed strength with moderate activity.

Stocks in New York were influenced to some extent by the Gold exports, the indifference of the public to the buying side, and by liberal selling by holders on all rallies. The railroad and industrial situation is not such as to make buyers enthusiastic, and although Wall Street has an idea that a good part of the probable reduction in earnings has already been discounted by declines in prices, the situation is not of a character as to warrant heavy investment buying. Many traders with idle funds look at securities more closely and are buying bonds, which is reflected by an increased trading. Crop reports from parts of the West were more encouraging and a report given of the business conditions existing there given out by Harriman who is back from an extended tour to the Pacific Coast, brought in liberal covering by the "short" interest. Money is easy and under ordinary conditions would be an important factor in starting a "bull" movement, but for the time being the leaders are disposed to let the market drift. Closing prices on the active list showed more declines than advances as compared with a week ago. Total sales on the New York Stock Exchange for the week were 1,184,000 shares, compared with 1,068,000 shares the previous week and 2,121,000 shares last year.

Business with mercantile houses is not showing the snap that it has in past years with any line. This is due to recent unseasonable weather and to a general desire on the part of buyers to run on the hand-to-mouth policy and not take unnecessary risks. Possibly the fact that it is a Presidential year has something to do with this course. The uncertainty about the crop is also having a curtailing effect upon purchases. Merchants who bought goods early in the season have not had the trade for them they expected, and a good many lines of dry goods bought for spring distribution will have to be carried over into the fall before there will be a chance to sell them. There has been a decline of ⅛c in prices of print cloths from the top figures, and they are 3½c. Strikes in the shoe factories here have curtailed the buying of leather and business with tanners is slow. Iron and Steel interests are getting a fair number of orders. Northern furnace men are sold up to the end of this quarter, although production is heavy. There has been a shading of prices to get round lots owing to close competition from sellers. The buying of finished material was largely in bars, structural shapes and rails, and prices well maintained. Light and heavy hardware was taken moderately and a steadiness in values noted. Anthracite Coal advanced 10c a ton, and it is difficult to get receipts from the East in sufficient volume to fill orders as the tie up on the lakes prevents the movement that way. Bituminous Coals are weak. Lumber and building materials were moved more freely owing to improved weather. In other lines there was a fair business.

COMMERCIAL.

A fair business was reported in commercial circles on the Chicago Board of Trade the past week. Local speculators were quite prominent in the daily transactions, but outside orders, while fairly numerous, were generally for moderate quantities. Investors as a rule preferred contracts in July and September, but the more forward deliveries are gradually coming more in favor and trades in Corn for May, 1905, were recorded this week, the first on the new crop. In a general way sentiment leaned a little more to the buying side of the leading cereals. Climatic and crop conditions were the principal dominating and potent influences. The forthcoming Government report is awaited with no little interest and will no doubt form a basis for future transactions. The proposed amendment to the rules of the Chicago Board of Trade to advance the commission for selling car lots of Wheat from ⅛c to 1c was adopted Monday. The amendment making the Clearing House the repository for margin certificates instead of the Secretary's office was also adopted.

Foreign crop news was in the main favorable the past week. The condition of Wheat in the United Kingdom is fair and in Spain, France, Germany and North Africa the outlook for the growing crops is good. Conditions are satisfactory in Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey, but more rain would be welcomed. More rain also needed in Roumania, the crops suffering in some parts of the country. Moisture is also needed in some districts of Russia and outlook is generally looked upon as uncertain.

Weather conditions in this country the past week were quite favorable for the growing crops and farm work. Seeding in Manitoba and the Northwest was vigorously pushed, the ground being in excellent condition outside the Red River Valley. Seeding, unless hindered by rain, is expected to be completed by the 7th inst. Good stands are reported in Washington and Oregon. In Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri Winter Wheat has advanced favorably. In Illinois, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee and Maryland an improvement is indicated, but in Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania much will be plowed up, and the outlook in Michigan is poor. Corn planting made great headway this week, preparations for such work having been quite extensive. This work is well out of the way in Kansas and Southern Missouri. In some sections of the South the crop has been injured from drouth and unseasonable temperature, but in the Central and West Gulf States Corn has received final cultivation. Oats seeding is about over except in the Northern districts. While there is some complaint of slow germination, the crop is generally in good condition and promising.

The movement of Grains from the farmers and interior elevators continues small, and naturally so at this season of the year, when farmers are busy in the fields, and no material increase in the arrivals may be expected at terminal points until spring work is completed. In the Northwest the movement of Grain and Flax Seed was small, and stocks held in interior elevators of that section reported 1,281,000 bu on May 1, as against 2,781,000 bu April 1, and 8?8,000 bu May 1, 1903. Though the West and Central West, coarse Grains as well as Wheat were marketed sparingly. In the Southwest the movement of Wheat was much smaller than a year ago, while the shipments from accumulating centers continue quite liberal. The movement of Grain Eastward is gradually enlarging, a greater percentage going out all rail owing to the late opening of navigation. The action of the Lake Carriers Association in declaring an absolute suspension of lake navigation until the controversy with the masters was settled, discouraged shippers and tended to curtail transactions in cash Grain. Several charters, however, were made for Corn at 2c to Buffalo. The export movement shows no improvement and clearances of Flour and Wheat as well as Corn are most limited. Acceptances from abroad were small and insignificant. According to the official weekly supply of Grain in the United States and Canada, compiled by the Secretary of the Chicago Board of Trade, there were decreases in the supplies of Wheat, Corn, Oats, Rye, and Barley. Bradstreet's exhibited a liberal increase in the stocks of Wheat, compared with a heavy reduction for the corresponding week in 1903. Corn and Oats showed fair decreases, as was the case for the corresponding period one year ago.

The leading speculative markets on 'Change displayed fair activity the past week, but the trade was in the main local and largely professional. Sentiment was, as usual, considerably divided, and price changes rather frequent within the moderate ranges established. Wheat was nervous and somewhat erratic, the attitude of certain prominent local interests with "bull" views tending to create a feeling of unrest among "shorts." The cash situation and adverse crop news from the Winter Wheat belt were among the "bull" factors, while the improved weather conditions in the Northwest, unsatisfactory condition of the Flour market and generally "bearish" statistics on the other hand tended to prevent any substantial appreciation in values. Corn displayed rather a firm undertone, as also Oats. The May deliveries landed in strong hands and the cash situation is on the mend. With the settlement of the strike on the lakes, prices are expected to improve. Rye and Barley were quiet and the trade in Seeds light. Hog Products were moderately active and the undertone stronger. A fair miscellaneous demand existed partially credited to "shorts." Deliveries on May contracts were fairly liberal, but were readily accepted. The aggregate stocks of all kinds of Meats on hand at Chicago May 1 were reported 144,013,259 lbs, against 152,323,899 lbs April 1 and 105,996,740 lbs May 1, 1903. Stocks of "contract" Mess Pork are 33,644 brls more than a year ago, and Lard 55,634 tcs more, and Meats 34,016,529 lbs more. The world's stock of Lard is about 4,000 tcs larger than on April 1. Packing of the West for the week exhibited an increase of 115,000 Hogs compared with the returns for the corresponding week in 1903. The aggregate for the season to date is now reported at 3,515,000 Hogs, compared with 3,190,000 for the corresponding week last year.

The trade in cash Grain was rather more brisk the past week, all descriptions being in more general demand, while the offerings were moderate. Wheat was in limited supply and in good request. Several round lots were taken for Eastern account, and the car lots as received sold readily. Corn, too, was wanted and sold more freely, the yellow still commanding a liberal premium. Shipping operations were on a more extensive scale, and this was also the case with Oats. Rye and Barley were dull and Seeds slow. Hay was in fair demand, especially Prairie, which was firm. Hog Products were in limited request, still there was no particular pressure on the part of holders to sell. Sales were small, and prices comparatively steady and without important change. Cattle were marketed in fair numbers and prices well maintained. Receipts of Sheep moderate and prices well supported.

FREIGHTS—Eastbound business was increased by the lake tie-up, requiring Grain intended for lake and rail shipment to go all-rail. Rates from the West advance June 1, and will be 12c on Wheat and 11c on Corn from Missouri River to Chicago. The new tariff is as follow:

To—	From Chicago Domestic.	From Chicago Export.	From Miss. River. Domestic	From Miss. River. Export.
Boston............	19½	13½	21½	16
New York.........	17½	13½	19½	16
Philadelphia . ..	15½	12½	17½	15
Baltimore	14½	11	16½	14½
Newport News...	14½	11	16½	14½

Flour rates are to be 17½c domestic and 15c for export. Provisions are 30c per 100 lbs, Chicago to New York.

Rail rates at and east of Buffalo to New York are 4c per bu on Wheat, 3¾c on Corn, 3½c on Barley and 3c on Oats.

Ocean rates on Grain are meeting with very little demand. Rates on Grain are ½@¾d per bu from New York and ½d from Boston. Through rate on Wheat from Chicago to Liverpool is 10.4c per bu and Corn 10¼c. Flour 19c per 100 lbs and Provisions 35½c per 100 lbs.

A settlement of the lake trouble is pending and is said to have been practically arranged for. Agents ask 2c on Corn and a little business is under way.

FLOUR—This market has undergone no material change during the week, certainly showing no improvement. At the late advances buyers are holding out, influenced by the weakness in the Wheat market. The sections of Indiana and Ohio that have been taking Flour from Chicago for some time are out of the market for the moment, but it is known that their stocks are small, and that they will be forced to make purchases in the near future. The seaboard and New England are buying very little Flour, taking hold only in a way to fill in odd lots. There is no export demand at all, and bids from the other side are generally below the cost of manufacture. Prices remain unchanged. The city trade is dull. Northwestern and southwestern interior millers are offering no Flour to speak of. City mills are running only on partial time, not caring to pile up Flour at the present condition of the Wheat market. Local stocks on May 1 were reported at 29,250 brls, as compared with 41,000 brls on April 1, and 29,500 brls on May 1, 1903, and 103,600 brls May 1, 1902. Stocks in Liverpool on May 1 were reported at 97,000 brls, as compared with 107,000 brls on April 1, and 100,000 brls on May 1, 1903. Dornbusch's Buda Pesth correspondent, writing under date of April 16, says of Flour: "Business was still small during the past week and difficult to negotiate; neither the home market nor exporters took any appreciable quantities from the market. Bohemia made bids for fair lines early in the week, but at limits so low that, notwithstanding the greatest desire of the millers to meet the buyers, the business had to be declined. Deliveries are anything but satisfactory; at the same time, new business has now been so long in abeyance that it seems reasonable to look for an early revival of buying operations. Feedingstuffs are quiet, with moderate transactions." The market closed with 10c gain for all grades with the exception of soft Winter Wheat Flour. The week closed easy at the following prices:

MILLSTUFFS—Nothing of consequence was done in Millstuffs during the past week, but a firm feeling existed. Most of the Millstuffs have been finding local markets, and there were no receipts. A good demand existed, and Bran would have met with quick sale. Bran in bulk salable at $18 00 per ton and in sacks, sacks included, at $19 00.

WINTER WHEAT—A fair demand has existed during the past week and the market ruled rather firm for soft, but eased off about 1@2c for Hard Wheat, but improved and closed steadier and rather firmer. Only a few cars of fresh receipts were offered on the market and these were taken by the usual buyers—millers and shippers. The in store lots of Wheat have been held very firmly and generally above the views of buyers, and in the case of No. 2 Red practically off of the market. No regular market quotation could be given for No. 2 Red, but anywhere from 10c to 15c over May prices, while No. 2 Hard in store was quotably the same as May, and some round lots were sold. There are only 257,000 bu No. 2 Red remaining in the public elevators here, against 1,?70,000 bu in store one year ago. With so light a stock in store and virtually none of this grade coming, holders expect to realize a greater premium, believing that the Wheat will be wanted by millers very badly before new Wheat arrives that will be suitable for grinding. However, the high premiums asked for No. 2 Red has driven some of the millers to using Hard Winter. The receipts for the week aggregated 93 cars against 47 cars the previous week. There were withdrawn from public elevators 7,250 bu, and from private warehouse 85 cars. For No. 2 Red in store prices were almost entirely nominal at $1 03@1 04, with a sale of 4,000 bu on Wednesday to a local miller at $1 02. Fresh receipts free on board were quotable at $1 00@1 06, with sales at $1 02@1 06 and 1,000 bu brought $1 08. No. 3 Red fresh receipts were quotably 98c@$1 04, depending on quality. A car of No. 1 Hard fresh receipts free on board sold at $1 00. No. 2 Hard in store was quotably about the same as May and fresh arrivals free on board sold at 90@90½c and ranged at 89@93c, depending on quality. No. 3 Hard fresh receipts sold at 83@88c for common to good and choice at 90@91c. No. 4 Hard sold at 81@83c. No. 4 White sold at 92c.

SPRING WHEAT—A moderate business was transacted during the week and a steady feeling existed. There has been some milling demand—nothing urgent, and an occasional round lot sold for shipment. No doubt the high prices asked for Winter Wheat has turned millers to using more Spring Wheat. The few cars received from day to day were taken up readily. The receipts have been small and scarcely enough Wheat arriving to make a market for fresh arrivals. The receipts for the week aggregated 33 cars, against 18 cars the previous week. There were withdrawn from public elevators 207,200 bu, and 39 cars from private warehouses. No. 1 Northern in store ruled the same as May to ½c over and ranged at 87¾@91½c, and fresh arrivals free on board at 92@96c. No. 2 Northern fresh receipts quotable at 83@91c. No. 3 Spring sold at 85@92c for ordinary to choice. No. 4 Spring sold at 75@86c for fair to choice, and ranged nominally as low as 62c for poor.

REGULAR WHEAT—A fair business was transacted under this head the past week, and the market was subject to frequent changes within rather moderate limits. All things considered, the situation was quite firm, and closing prices show the May 2c better than a week ago, while old July gained 1⅝c. New July closed 1⅜@1½c higher, and new September ⅝c higher. Sentiment at the start leaned toward the "bear" side of the market, and the selling was quite pronounced. The ideal weather—clear and warm in Manitoba and the Northwest, and showery and mild through the Winter Wheat belt, together with the generally "bearish" statistics presented—tended to discourage "longs" in many instances, and liquidation followed. The report that the mills in the Northwest would close down, owing to the unsatisfactory condition of the Flour market, was also a discouraging feature. The declining tendency of the English markets, and "bearish" private views as forwarded from the other side likewise had a weakening influence on values. Old July declined to 84½c, new July to 80⅜, and new September to 79⅛c before the break was checked. The following messages were a fair sample of the many received the opening days: Everything from Minneapolis and Winnipeg was optimistic. One message from Minneapolis reads: "Weather perfect; seeding in full progress everywhere." Another: "Fine weather; a few days more and Spring Wheat will be practically seeded. It goes into the ground in first-class condition. The delay is not serious in any respect with usual spring weather." Omaha wired: "If we get much of this kind of weather we will be taking in new Wheat by July 4. Another message stated Wheat never looked better in Nebraska this time of the year. Receipts are beginning to pick up a little at country station." Winnipeg wired: "Weather conditions perfect. Seeding general in Manitoba and territory. The ground could not be in better shape. Ten days of favorable weather will finish the Wheat, and the acreage will be the largest on record." The following is an extract of the weekly weather report and was looked upon as "bearish." With practically no rain in the Spring Wheat region, seeding has been vigorously pushed, except in the Red River Valley, where the ground requires a week of dry weather. Seeding is nearly finished in Central and Southern Minnesota and South Dakota. Good stands reported from Oregon and Washington. In Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri, Winter Wheat has advanced favorably, except where damaged by floods in the last-named State. In Illinois, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Maryland, Virginias and North Carolina an improvement is indicated, but in Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania much will be plowed up, and the outlook in Michigan is poor. Wheat is now heading in Southern Kansas. The crop has advanced favorably on the Pacific Coast. The outlook is exceptionally fine in Washington. World's shipments were reported as expected at 10,480,000 bu; previous week, 10,544,000 bu; year ago, 9,248,000 bu. Quantity on ocean passage increased 1,928,000 bu, to 50,838,000 bu, or 17,248,000 bu larger than one year ago, and about the high record. According to Broomhall's Corn Trade News the largest quantity of Flour and Wheat on passage to Europe was 55,400,000 bu the latter part of May, 1895. The largest quantity afloat for Great Britain was 36,576,000 bu the last of March, 1902, and the largest to the Continent was 35,072,000 bu the first week in June, 1898. The visible supply statement exhibited a decrease of 833,000 bu, against 2,109,000 bu decrease in 1903. Total is now 30,357,000 bu; last year, 33,456,000 bu; two years ago, 38,5?8,000 bu. Local public stocks decreased 37,000 bu, to 2,051,000 bu, compared with 5,501,000 bu one year ago. Stocks here in all positions were reported at 4,639,000 bu, compared with 4,550,000 bu a week ago and 8,036,000 bu one year ago. Contract stocks decreased 34,570 bu and now include 908,9?2 bu, against 3,042,703 bu same date in 1903. Bradstreet's increased 1,072,000 bu, against 5,110,000 bu decrease last year, and this showing added greatly to the "bearish" sentiment. Stocks at Minneapolis, Duluth and in Northwest country elevators were reported as 1,219,000 bu larger than in 1903 and 4,845,000 bu smaller than in 1902. Stocks of Wheat in interior elevators of the Northwest are reported at 1,284,000 bu on May 1, compared with 2,781,000 bu one month ago, and 8?8,000 bu one year ago. Broomhall's weekly foreign crop summary noted improvement in the outlook abroad as follows: United Kingdom—Weather been favorable since last report; condition Wheat crop on the whole is fair. France, Germany, Italy, Spain, and North Africa—Weather past week been favorable, condition of growing crop is good. Hungary, Bulgaria, Turkey—Although present condition of Wheat is good, yet rain is needed to insure continuance of present favorable outlook. Roumania—Rains needed generally, in some parts of country crops suffering from lack of moisture. Russia—Our advices state rain wanted in some districts, but reports vary and situation on the whole is uncertain. Around 84½c for old July prominent professionals and influential "bull" leaders purchased with considerable freedom, and the market assumed a stronger tone. The light movement in all directions, improved demand for cash Wheat in this and other leading markets, and the continued adverse crop reports from Indiana, Ohio and Michigan all acted as "bull" influences, and brought about the change in sentiment. The Orange Judd Farmer and Modern Miller reports were construed as exceedingly "bullish." Primary receipts fell considerably behind those of last year, and the total movement between July 1 and May 2 aggregates 208,107,000 bu, against 231,402,000 bu in 1902-3, and 218,773,000 bu in 1901-2. The Missouri State report made the condition of Winter Wheat May 1 81 per cent, and area 6 per cent less than harvest in 1903, which would indicate a yield of 38,850,000 bu, as against 22,000,000 bu in 1903. May rallied to 91⅝c, old July 87⅞c, new July to 86⅝c, and new September to 81⅜@81½c. Indifferent foreign demand and limited exports, however, were against prices. Clearances for the week were 1,921,000 bu, and the total since July aggregate 122,906,000 bu, compared with 185,892,000 bu in 1902-03. Argentine shipments on the contrary were liberal at 3,232,000 bu, and since January 1 foot up 50,552,000 bu, as against 32,402,000 bu in 1903. The Times of Argentina, on March 28, summed up situation as follows: "After having fruitlessly waited for the anticipated boom consequent on the war in the East, holders have come to the conclusion that it is preferable to follow the ordinary course of the home and consuming markets by bringing prices down to the shipping parity. The result has been an active business which will, doubtless, continue until North American quotations show a slight advance, that being the signal for holders to demand double the advance established in the States. The following table exhibits the exports of Breadstuffs from the following countries from July 1, 1903, to April 30, 1904, compared with the corresponding period in 1902-3:

CORN—The Corn market attracted considerable attention the past week and sentiment while greatly divided leaned a little more to the "bull" side. Closing prices show the May ⅛c higher than last Friday, while the July lost ⅛c and September little changed. "Shorts" were more inclined to cover outstanding contracts the opening days, several large lines being provided for, the buying being led by Provision interests. The selling was mainly by the recent "bear" leaders, but the offerings were readily absorbed. On the bulge May touched 47⅝c, July 48⅞c and September 48⅝c. The cash situation was less discouraging to the "bull" element, foreign bids being more in accord with the views of local holders, and but for the tie-up on the lakes would have been more of a potent factor. Notwithstanding the position taken by the Lake Carriers' Association of an absolute suspension of lake navigation until the controversy with the masters is settled, several round lots of cash were worked with the East and charters made for the same on a basis of 2c to Buffalo. Cleveland advices Friday said strike was settled. The more moderate local movement and small percentage of the same grading contract, too, was one of the "bull" helps. Foreign markets were comparatively firm and sales for direct export were affected this week, the first in some time. Another feature which tended to impart a strong undertone was the fact that the 3,000,000 bu delivered out on May contracts landed in strong hands. At the advance and around 48⅝c for July "bear" leaders became more aggressive in the operations and "long" property was liquidated by many of the smaller holders, resulting in a reaction to 48⅛@48¼c, the September selling to 48@48⅛c. The fine weather the past week was one of the "bear" influences, and rapid progress was made with planting. The weekly weather crop bulletin, issued Tuesday said that with the exception of Kansas, Southern Missouri and Arkansas, planting has progressed slowly, but preparations for this work throughout the belt have been extensive, and with good weather the coming week planting will be vigorously pushed in Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois and Indiana. In the East Gulf States and Tennessee Corn has suffered from drouth and low temperature, but outlook is more favorable in the Central and West Gulf States, where it has received final cultivation. The Illinois State report said plowing for Corn was retarded on account of heavy rains the first part of the week, but under favorable conditions the latter part, the work was resumed and material progress made. Unless untoward conditions arise much planting will be done during the ensuing week. The Iowa weekly bulletin claimed a large area was in readiness for planting. The statistics as presented had but little effect on values. The visible decreased 1,056,000 bu, against 1,275,000 bu decrease same week in 1903. Total is now 7,830,000 bu, against 6,469,000 bu in 1903 and 6,243,000 bu in 1902. Local public stocks increased 197,000 bu, to 5,358,000 bu, compared with 2,218,000 bu the same week last year. Stocks here in all positions were reported at 8,925,000 bu, compared with 9,054,000 bu one week ago, and 3,427,000 bu one year ago. Contract supplies were decreased 200,000 bu, and now include 4,621,201 bu, against 1,828,808 bu same date in 1903. Bradstreet's decreased 1,367,000 bu, against 1,050,000 bu decrease same week in 1903. World's shipments, 2,276,000 bu, against 1,907,000 bu previous week and 3,861,000 bu in 1903. Quantity on ocean passage increased 87,000 bu to 6,420,000 bu, against 8,316,000 bu one year ago. Receipts this week were 1,162 cars, against 1,144 cars last week and 1,321 cars one year ago. The movement through the West was only moderate and will probably be light until planting is out of the way. Exports, too, were moderate and bookings on the Atlantic coast small. Clearances for the week were 523,000 bu and the total since July 1 foots up 49,465,000 bu, as compared with 56,915,000 bu for the same period in 1902-03. The Times of Argentina, March 28, said: "The reports connected with the coming Corn crop continue to be unfavorable, much Corn having been lost." Shipments from there this week were 350,000 bu, making the aggregate since Jan. 1 11,388,000 bu, against 3,393,000 bu in 1903. The demand for car lots was quite brisk all the week and the offerings fair. Yellow Corn was in active request and the high premium lately ruling over mixed are still maintained. Low grades were weak.

OATS—The trade was large, the market erratic and the average higher. There was selling on the bulges for profits by some of the largest "longs" who bought on the declines. May and July were the strongest and some traders who bought these months sold September, which prevented it advancing in proportion to the other deliveries. A large cash demand was a factor in strengthening May and it ranged between 39¼@41¼c, and closed at 41c, a net gain of ⅝c. July was the speculative favorite and ranged between 38@39½c and closed at 38¾c, a net loss of ⅛c. September closed at 30½@30⅝c, a loss of ⅛c. Deliveries on May contracts at the opening of the month were 1,500,000 bu, being mainly by one elevator interest and were taken by one large speculator who makes a specialty of Oats. Shippers also picked up a good many and those who had Oats sold for all lake and rail shipment East were obliged to send them all rail to meet demands of buyers. Crop reports were more favorable as were to be expected with good weather. The Government weekly crop bulletin said: "Oats seeding is nearly finished in the northern part of the Central Valley and is well advanced in the lake region. In Iowa the stands are better than was expected, and while some complaints of slow germination are reported from Illinois the general outlook in that State and in parts of Nebraska and Kansas is promising. A considerable part of poor Wheat in Pennsylvania will be sown to Oats." Arrivals for the week were 176 cars, compared with 238 cars the previous week and 8?4 cars last year. Cancellation of warehouse receipts for Standard for shipment were liberal, being more than the previous week. Withdrawals from store for shipment East and South were larger and stocks are expected to show a good reduction for the week. Export clearances were 16?,833 bu, compared with 12? ??? bu the previous week and 121,917 bu last year. Local stocks in public houses were reduced 537,000 bu. Standard and are 2,248,000 bu all but about 100,000 bu being Standard. Stocks in public and private elevators decreased 291,000 bu and were 4,037,000 bu. In the visible supply there was a decrease of 837,000 bu, and supplies were 9,109,000 bu, against 8,236,000 bu last year.

RYE—The extreme figures reached near the close of last week were not maintained and prices recede d about 1@2½c, but recovered somewhat and closed steadier. Trade has been light and nothing of special interest was brought to light. There has been nothing to create activity in the market. The demand has been of a limited character from all sources and the offerings have also been light. There has been no pressure to sell, and yet it has been easy to buy round lots at the close. Spring buyings was transacted and there has been only a limited inquiry from millers and other manufacturing industries. The receipts for the week were aggregate 15 cars, against 15 cars the previous week. There were no withdrawals from public elevators and 15 car loads and 3,360 bu taken from private warehouses. Export clearances from the seaboard were none. Visible supply decreased 7,000 bu and was reported at 1,030,000 bu, against 1,043,000 bu the previous week and 1,149,000 bu one year ago. The local stock in store was 355,000 bu and a year ago was 445,000 bu. No. 2 in store was quotable at 69¾@70c. No. 3 fresh arrivals free on board about 70 @71c. No. 3 fresh receipts sold at 69@69½c and No. 4 at 66c. The current deliveries of No. 2 for the month was quiet. May sold at 71c to 69¾c, to 71c at the close. July opened at 66c bid and sold at 64½c, and closed at 65c bid.

BARLEY—The offerings on the cash market were very small the past week. A part of the moderate arrivals were placed on to arrive sales. Cash offerings were mainly of low grade to fair quality, occasional cars of good, and they sold on a choice sale of Screenings. All grades were salable. There was a steady to firm market for all but some of the poorer cars. Maltsters wanted good Barley. There continued almost daily withdrawals from store, and several good sized lots to arrive Barley were taken. It was said that these sales exhausted most of the lots held back. For such lots there was a firm market. Cash sales involved about 190,000 bu and were over a range of 53@56½c. Stocks while still larger than a year ago, are on the decrease. There was 344,000 bu reduction in the visible supply, with 2,614,000 bu in sight, against 1,242,000 bu a year ago, and local stock after 69,893 bu decrease was 180,049 bu; a year ago there was none in regular houses. Prices did not change much and no central change for car lots, though the round lots to arrive did perhaps do a little better. Receipts during the week were 78 cars, compared with 102 cars a week ago and 31 cars two weeks ago. Output was 65,128 bu; a week ago it was 43,800 bu and two weeks ago 10,700 bu. New York reported exports of 4,572 bu. There was a range of prices for car lots as follows: Screenings largely at 47@53c for poor to choice; the outside was a little above the top price of week ago. Barley—low grade feed or milking ranged at 37@43c; outside good would be Maltbar, low grade, 48@52c; fair to good sound, 45@ 46c; good color, 50@53c, and fancy nominally above.

SEEDS—About the only quotable change the past week was in contract spot and new crop delivery of Timothy, and here there was but a few of prices established. Country lots at the same time about held their own, while in Flax, Clover and the rest there was no essential change. Talso remained for Timothy to furnish most of the business done, other lines being for the most part practically inactive.

Timothy—In the cash market no essential change developed the past week, but prices at the same time were weaker and touched a lower range of prices. There was nothing important in the way of trading. In futures very little was done, a little May delivery sold early and that was about all. While offerings were very tame the demand was less and values exhibit 7½@10c decline. April delivery or contract spot opened at $2 95 nominal; with the advent of May there came a sale at $2 92½; then a nominal decline to $2 87½ followed and the market closed quiet at $2 90. September started at $3 30 bid and $3 35 asked, but buyers withdrew while the offerings continued and at declining prices until finally there were sellers at $3 22½ and $3 25 became the best bid. Arrivals increased slightly over a week ago and offerings were moderate. Output was rather small, especially when compared with a year ago. Cash demand was moderate. It was sufficient so that the offerings were taken. Export of the week was easy, for common Seed especially, at the same time prices reflected no essential change. During the week values were usually over a range as follows: Choice to fancy, fair to good, spot, at $2 85@2 90, choice nominally $3 75@3 80, rough Seed $2 40@3 45 and country lots on the whole range $2 20@3 00 for poor to fancy—outside line limited. Movement for the week with comparisons was as follows:

Receipts the past week, lbs.	659,200
The previous week	551,840
Two weeks ago	1,338,042
Same time last year	866,040
Shipments the past week, lbs.	1,117,300
The previous week	491,200
Two weeks ago	1,253,977
Same time last year	1,253,977

Flax—There continued a very quiet market. It also was without any material disturbance in prices. Changes occurring in the Northwest had no particular effect here. Very little Flax was delivered on May contracts; there has been no interest in this delivery. Arrivals were very small. There were no offerings to speak of from the seasonal car. Early a little May delivery was sold but subsequently nothing was done in any future September delivery declined 2c, but a-kde from that there was no change. There was a sale of 60,000 bu further increase to the already liberal supply. No change in local stock, but Duluth gained 596,000 bu while Minneapolis was off 784,000 bu decrease. There were reported at these points stocks compared with last year as follows:

	1904.	1903.
Chicago, etc.	1,000	70,855
Duluth, bu	8,001,529	4,035,925
Minneapolis, bu	784,908	965 3 6
Total	8,810,638	4,980,098

Receipts during the week were 18 cars, compared with 20 cars a week ago. Output was 12,000 bu, the previous week 8,313 bu No. 1 cash was nominally $1 01. An occasional sale of No. 1 Northwestern at $1 00@1 01 was made. Rejected was nominally 98@$1 00, while for choice Northwestern May sold sparing-ly early at $1 01, and afterward was nominal at that. July was nominal at $1 01. September started at $1 08 asked, and later was offered at $1 08.

Clover—All that appeared in the way of offerings was a few small lots. These ranged from fair quality to low grade; there was nothing in way of better grades on sale. The movement was fair, about on a par with with a week ago—a little larger. The season is late. It has advanced a stage when sales of seed are not to be discontinued, however, a moderate business in filling orders. No change in prices noted during the week. There was a quotable range as follows: Contract spot Seed at $10 75. Country lots, common to choice, $7 75@10 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $7 00@8 25; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@5 00. Such lots as usually come to market, when ordinary to good, quotable at $8 50@9 50.

There were receipts and shipments the past week with comparisons as follows:

Receipts the past week, lbs.	102,856
The previous week	109,983
Two weeks ago	415,278
Same time last year	3,300
Shipments the past week, lbs.	32,940
The previous week	110,976
Two weeks ago	142,100
Corresponding week last year	15,456

Other Seeds—Very little business was done, not enough so that there could be said to have been a regular trade. According to railroad reports there was a very fair movement larger than a year ago. Nothing new could be learned about the market. Prices were said to be 40@45c for choice clean, as quoted during the week over a range as below: Hungarian, common and light color to choice; dark, at $1 10@1 65. Common Millet, $1 00@1 40 for best to fancy. German, $1 60@1 40. Siberian, 85c@1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@90c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat easy; good quality, $1 10. Movement for the week with comparisons, was as follows:

Receipts—The past week, lbs.	608,420
A week ago	1,202,115
Two weeks ago	368,500
Shipments—The past week, lbs.	837,000
A week ago	747,160
Two weeks ago	1,023,700
Same time last year	1,117,800

HAY—The receipts for the week were 3,512 tons, against 4,238 tons for the previous week Shipments for the week were 248 tons, against 161 tons for the previous week. The receipts of Timothy Hay were a little larger and the demand was only moderate during the past week. A steady feeling prevailed and prices were on particular changes. Prairie Hay ruled firm. The demand shows some improvement and the offerings were rather small. Prices advanced about 50c per ton. Quotations at the close ranged as follows: No. 1 Timothy, $14 00@14 50; No. 1 Timothy, $12 50@13 00; No. 2 Timothy, $10 50@11 00; No. 3 Timothy, $8 50@10 50. Choice Prairie, $10 00@11 00; No. 1 Prairie, $9 00@10 00; No. 2 Prairie, $8 00@8 50; No. 3 Prairie, $7 00@7 50; No. 4 Prairie, $6 50@7 30. Inside prices on Prairie Hay for State and outside for Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa Hay. Sales ranged at $9 00@14 00 for fair to choice Timothy, $8 00 for Wisconsin, and $7 50@11 00 for Kansas and Arkansas Prairie Hay. Straw was in good demand and scarce. Rye Straw advanced $2 50@4 00 per ton and sold at $10 00@11 00. Oat Straw sold at $6 50@7 00.

COOPERAGE—A little interest was manifested in the market for Cooperage during the past week and the market in a general way exhibited a little more steadiness. Since the harsh prices a few weeks ago there has been considerable property offered for sale, and buyers were inclined to hold off. This surplus has been worked off, and now there is less pressure to sell. Local purchases purchased sparingly and outside orders were light. Ash Pork Barrels were in good request and offerings were fair. Prices ruled higher and closed steady at 92½@95c. Oak Pork Barrels in limited request and dull. Prices nominal at 92½@ 95c. Lard Tierces were in fair demand and steadier at $1 27½@1 30, and closed steady at the range. Iron-bound Lard Tierces were quiet and prices nominal at $1 10@1 12½ for six-hoop and $1 20@ 1 22½ for eight-hoop.

HOGS—The receipts of Hogs during the past week were fairly liberal, and the quality rather good. Receipts were mainly from the West and Southwest. Market in a general way was rather active, and the undertone was rather firm. Packers purchased with considerable freedom, and shippers to the Eastern markets provided for fair orders Early in the week the market was not very strong, and prices ruled 10@15c lower. Later, a stronger feeling was developed, and the decline was quickly recovered. Sales during the week were made at $4 90@4 85 for light, $4 90@5 10 for rough packing, $4 95@5 10 for mixed, and $4 95@5 05 for heavy packing and shipping lots, with the bulk of the sales at $4 95@4 85 for fair to good averages. At the close about 2,500 Hogs remained in the pens unsold. Pigs were in rather good supply, and in fair demand, and changed hands at $3 75@4 45, according to weight. Receipts of Hogs in the leading Western packing points were fairly liberal for the season, and the quality was slightly improved.

PACKING—A fair supply of Hogs was marketed during the past week, and packers were fairly busy. Interest in Singeing and Scalding Hogs was limited. Other cuts of Pork made fairly steady progress, and prices were fully up to the average yield is quite good. Very small deliveries in tanks. Domestic cuts of Hams made in fair quantities, and only a small proportion delivered from the block. Shldrms ran fairly moderately, and chiefly packed by manufacturers. Foreign cuts of Hams neglected. Shoulders cut in only moderate quantities, and a fair proportion delivered from the block to the retail trade. Picnic Hams made in fair quantities, and chiefly cured by manufacturers Long Clear Sides and Extra Long Clear Sides made to very limited quantities. Short Clear Sides cut sparingly. Extra Sh rt Clear Sides made moderately, and stocks are fair. Short Rib Sides cut in only fair quantities by the larger houses. Extra Short Rib Sides made more freely, and the supply is gradually enlarging. Rough Sides met with some favor, and the production was fair. Bellies made in moderate quantities, and sold moderately. Backs were rather made in small quantities. Loins made rather freely to meet current requirements. Foreign fancy and special cuts of Meats were neglected.

PROVISIONS—The volume of business in trade was transacted in Hog Products during the past week. Outside orders were fair, and local trading was moderately active. The general undertone was fairly unsettled and fluctuations in prices were frequent. The stocks reported on hand exhibited a decrease of about 8,000,000 lbs during April, but in the aggregate are reported on hand over one year ago. The deliveries on May contracts were moderately free of all kinds, but were readily accepted. Hogs were in rather good supply during the week in 1903, and inhibited an increase of 115,000 Hogs. Farmers appear to be willing to accept current prices. Foreign Provision markets were dull and irregular, and prices were quoted lower on the principal articles. Exports for the week were fairly large, but mainly of lots consigned direct from the packing houses to the seaboard. Markets were in a state of quietness, with little change in prices. Receipts from the interior were somewhat larger, as packers were delivering on contracts. Shipments were fairly liberal and widely distributed. Manufacture of Products only moderate. The undertone to the speculative market was rather easy early in the week, due mainly to the liberal quantities on hand in store and in quantities. The easy feeling in Grain, especially in Corn, with prospects of an increased area being planted, had some influence on the market, while a moderate decline in the prices of Hogs had a little effect. Prices declined considerably on all the leading speculative articles. At the decline, there was a falling off in the offerings, while the demand was somewhat enlarged, especially from "shorts". Prices rallied again, particularly after the deliveries were made on May contracts, assisted somewhat by a firmer feeling in the Hog market. Prices rallied again all from that of one month ago, but is largely in excess of that of one year ago. World's supply was enlarged about 4,000 tcs. Deliveries on May contracts about 7,000 tcs. Production fair. Trade fairly active until September. Early in the week, there was a little pressure to sell, while the demand was moderate, and a weak feeling was developed. Prices declined. Higher on the whole during the week. At the decline, there was a fairly good inquiry, especially from "shorts," and a stronger feeling was manifested. Prices rallied 12½@15c. Toward the close, there was a fairly good inquiry, and prices settled back 15@17½c, and the market closed comparatively steady. Inquiry on shipping account was moderate, was offerings were fair. Sales were made at about 10@12c Discount on July figures—closing at $6 47½@$6 50 Refined Lard was in moderate demand, and a few sales were made at prices not made public. Lots were in fair demand and several transactions were reported at $6 60. Neutral was in only moderate request, and offerings were fair. Market was rather steady and prices quotable at $7 12½@7 25 for No. 1, and $7 00@7 12½ for No. 2.

Short Rib Sides—A fairly good business was reported in the market for Short Rib Sides, and the feeling was unsettled and prices irregular. Offerings were moderately free, and the demand in a general way was rather active. The deliveries on May contracts were about 2,500,000 lbs, and readily accepted. Stock on hand decreased about 6,000,000 lbs during April, and largely of those held on hand previous to October 1. Manufacture of Sides was rather moderate. Bulk of the trading was in July contracts, with September gradually gaining in favor. Early in the week, the feeling was comparatively easy, with some pressure to sell, and prices irregularly receded 10@20c, more particularly for May. At the reduction, there was a fairgeneral demand, especially from "shorts," while there was less pressure to sell, and the market was stronger in a few instances. Prices were 2½@5c higher on the whole range. Toward the close, the feeling was not so strong, and prices settled back 12½@15c, and the market closed comparatively steady. Inquiry on shipping account was rather light, and offerings were moderate. At the close, cash lots were quoted at $6 12½@6 20, according to grade.

Green Meats—Only a limited business was transacted in Green Meats during the past week and those were no particular changes to note. Offerings were in about a moderate scale and the demand was somewhat limited. Local curers were backward about purchasing and outside orders were light. Packers were indifferent buyers. Prices were in limited request and prices ruled comparatively steady Skinned Hams were in small demand and prices were well maintained. Skinned Shoulders were in limited request and prices favored sellers. Picnic Hams in moderate demand and in rather light supply, and prices ruled slightly higher. Bellies were in small demand and prices ruled steady.

Pickled Meats—There was moderate in the market for Pickled Meats during the past week, and the feeling was comparatively steady. Supplies on hand are fairly liberal of all kinds—about 80,000,000 lbs. compared with 82,000,000 lbs one month ago, and 67,000,000 lbs one year ago. The decrease during April was only 2,000,000 lbs, compared with a reduction of 10,000,000 lbs during April, 1903. Offerings were moderate, and the demand was fair, and for special description was quite active. Trade in a jobbing way was quite moderate. Hams were in only moderate request, and prices ruled steady. Skinned Hams were called for moderately, and prices were well maintained. Shoulders were in light request, and prices ruled steady. Picnic Hams were in rather good demand, especially the heavier averages, and prices ruled firmer. Bellies in the market closed rather steady. Bellies were in moderate request and prices were unchanged.

Dry Salted Meats—Only a moderate trade was reported in Dry Salted Meats during the past week, and there were no marked changes to note. Offerings were fair, and the demand was only moderate and for small quantities. Exporters were not inclined to purchase to any extent, as foreign markets are quiet and dull, and prices quoted lower on the leading articles. Domestic trade rather light. Orders from the Southern markets were moderate. Local packers not pressing much property for sale, but interior packers disposed to sell fair quantities. Supplies of all kinds are quite large—considerably in excess of those of one year ago. Shipments to foreign markets were fair. Foreign cuts of Hams were in small request and prices comparatively steady. Shoulders were in small request at about former figures. Long Clear Sides and Extra Long Clear Sides were inactive and prices nominally unchanged. Short Clear Sides were quiet and prices favored buyers. Extra Short Clear Sides were in light demand, with moderate offerings, and prices ruled comparatively steady—closed at 6@6¼c. Extra Short Rib Sides called for sparingly, with fairly good offerings, and prices were without material change—closed steady at 6@6¼c. Rough Sides were in fair request, with moderate offerings, and prices exhibited little change—closed steady at 5⅞@6¼c according to weight. Plates were in moderate request and prices steady. Butts were quiet and prices unchanged. Bellies were in fair demand in a quiet way, and prices ruled comparatively steady. Backs were in moderate request and prices ruled rather steady. Foreign fancy and special cuts of Meats were quiet and prices nominally unchanged.

Smoked Meats—Only a moderate trade was reported in Smoked Meats during the past week, and there were only slight changes to note. Offerings were not very large and the demand was somewhat limited, especially for car lots. Hams were in moderate request and prices ruled steady. Skinned Hams were in fair demand and prices were well maintained. Shoulders were quiet, and prices ruled slightly higher. Picnic Hams were in fair request and prices ruled ⅛@¼c higher. Sides of all kinds were in only moderate request, and prices without material change. Breakfast Bacon in fair demand and prices ruled steady.

Beef Products—Trade was rather quiet in the market for Beef Products, and there were only slight changes to note. Demand was moderate and offerings only fair. Foreign advices not very favorable to holders. Domestic markets quiet. Supply of Cattle fair and prices well maintained. Manufacture of Products moderate. Shipments of Dressed Beef quite liberal. Beef Hams quiet and steady at former figures. Extra Mess Beef quiet and steady. Plate Beef in light demand and prices unchanged. Extra Plate Beef in small request at former figures. Tallow dull and slow sale at ⅛c decline. Oleo Stearine quiet and prices favored buyers—closing at 6a6¼c.

Greases—Trade limited and feeling rather easy. Offerings were not very large, and the demand was limited. Prices ruled about ⅛c lower on all grades.

MAKING POSITIVE CROP ESTIMATES.

(From the Duluth Commercial Record.)

It strikes the conservative Grain man who is seeking facts and not theories about crop conditions that an estimate of what this year's total Wheat crop will amount to is taking a long step toward pipe dreams.

With the Winter Wheat crop barely heading and 25 per cent of the Spring Wheat crop still unseeded, we fail to see the usefulness of such estimates (beyond a possible stimulation of the unwary to pay commissions). Leaving aside the Winter Wheat crop, which admits of possible measurement, the Spring Wheat crop, in the Northwest alone bears possibilities covering a range of 60,000,000 bu to 75,000,000 bu, even more.

It is our opinion that this year's Northwestern Wheat crop can reach 250,000,000 bu, while it may not exceed 175,000,000 bu. It seems to have been hard enough for this particular authority to measure the Wheat crop in August, judging by last year's estimate, to say nothing of estimating it before seeding.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows rains in Minnesota and light rain in Dakotas. Rains in Eastern Iowa and Missouri. Temperatures not much different, although it is only 32 at Williston. Temperatures West and Southwest higher. It is a typical spring map. Possibly too much rain in some directions, but fine wherever spring work is finished.

Indications are for continued unsettled and showery weather. Temperatures some lower over Lower Mississippi Valley.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The Werner furniture warehouse, Chicago, was destroyed by fire, Thursday. Loss, $340,000.

A Cairo, Ill., miller says Texas will raise 10,000,000 bu of Wheat, against 20,000,000 bu last year.

Union Pacific Road in March increased its net earnings $77,953. Southern Pacific's deficit after charges were $848,150.

The A. C. Norquist furniture factory at Jamestown, N. Y., was burned Friday. The loss is estimated at $125,000, insurance, $75,000.

A St. Louis house estimates the Winter Wheat crop will be less than 390,000,000 bu. This is 20,000,000 bu under their estimate a year ago.

The icehouse and adjoining buildings at Toronto, Ont., belonging to the G. H. Hammond Company of Chicago, were destroyed by fire, Friday.

Business failures in the United States and Canada for the past week were 233, against 218 the previous week and 196 for the corresponding week last year.

The Comptroller of the Currency has approved of the Continental National Bank of Chicago as the reserve agent for the Northward National Bank of Newark, N. J.

Bank Clearings of the leading financial centers of the United States for the past week aggregated $2,053,213,123, a decrease of 11.4 per cent compared with the corresponding week last year.

The National Steel and Wire Company, with recent absorptions, will have $4,000,000 of preferred and $4,000,000 of common stock and a gross business estimated at $8,000,000 per annum.

Average weight of Hogs at three markets for the periods mentioned were:

Omaha	236	235	247	228	232

A Buffalo party says: "New York raised 9,500,000 bu Wheat last year, with an acreage of 541,000. From reports within 100 miles of here the present indications are for not more than a third of last year's crop. Farmers in all directions are plowing up their Wheat—a very rare occurrence in this section."

The convention of Western Cattlemen at Denver, Wednesday, completed the organization of the Cattle Growers' Inter-State Executive Committee and outlined the purpose of the organization to secure the prosecution of the Meat Trust, and to secure favorable legislation and freight rates for Cattle interests.

President O. C. Barber of the United Box Board and Paper Company, in a written statement given out Friday, announced that a reorganization of the United Box Board Company was necessary and will be undertaken in a short time. Mr. Barber's statement was in reply to the many recent attacks made on the company, and gave fully the condition of the company.

J. P. Morgan & Co., as managers of the United States Steel Corporation preferred stock conversion syndicate, announce that they are prepared to close the syndicate May 17. Letters have been sent to members of the syndicate announcing the amount of money required from them in payment in full for their subscriptions. Apparently the call is for about 2 per cent.

A Portland, Ore., dispatch says: "Owing to the war in the Orient having almost paralyzed the Flour trade between this coast and Japan and China, the China Commercial Steamship Company will withdraw its steamship line now running between this city and Hong Kong. The China Commercial Steamship Company placed its steamers on this line just before the outbreak of the war."

The Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad Company is understood to have obtained a loan from a Chicago bank recently, amounting to about $400,000, at 4½ per cent. The borrowings of the road since the first of the year are stated to aggregate about $750,000. The loans have been made in anticipation of the sale of bonds in the treasury, and the money has been used for improvements.

The United States Steel Corporation is making more pig iron now than the combined output of the furnaces in the United States last December. It is practically certain that the available capacity of all its furnaces, including the furnaces acquired through the purchase of the Clairton Steel Company, will not be too large to meet its demands through the second quarter, and probably for the first month of the second half year.

The New York Central has placed orders this week for 20,000 tons of Steel rails. The Lackawanna Steel Company secured an order for 10,000 tons and the Carnegie Steel Company an order for 10,000 tons. The first of the rails will be delivered in June. Through its subsidiary company, the Illinois Steel Company, the United States Steel Corporation has secured this week orders for 12,000 tons of Steel rails, 1904 delivery. Of the total 6,500 tons are for a Southwestern road. The price for all is $28.00 per ton. With the New York Central-Carnegie contract for 10,000 tons, the corporation's rail orders this week are 22,000 tons.

The Moffly reorganization committee of stockholders of the Consolidated Lake Superior Company met at Philadelphia, Thursday, and declared operative the plan of reorganization, dated Oct. 20, 1903. Stockholders who have not paid their assessment under the plan have until May 17 to do so, and 50 per cent of the underwriting is called for on the same date. The Canadian Improvement Company, which is underwriting the new company, guarantees that the new company to be formed shall have a clear working capital of $10,000,000 in cash. It is expected that operations at the "Soo" will be resumed about June 1.

Stories have been current in New York for some time of a coming readjustment of the capitalization of the American Tobacco Company. It was said, Friday, that the charges of the Consolidated Tobacco Company, including the payment of interest on $157,000,000 4 per cent bonds and dividends on American Tobacco preferred and Continental Tobacco preferred, amounting to over $11,000,000, have become burdensome in view of continued and growing opposition, and that a proposition is practically adopted to return American Tobacco stock for the Consolidated Tobacco bonds at the same proportion reversed that the exchange was first made, and to then pay 6 per cent per annum on American Tobacco stock.

"Straws show which way the financial wind is blowing," says a New York banker. "A leading officer in the manufacturing end of the Standard Oil Company tells me that the orders for lubricating Oil show a decline. This is only a straw, but it is an important one. Manufacturers who were ordering lubricating Oil in car load lots are now cutting their orders in two, and smaller manufacturers are combining their orders with each other. The decline in the use of lubricating Oil means that fewer wheels of industry are running, and this means, of course, that the general business of the country is suffering a reaction. I suppose that no single group of manufacturers have better facilities for keeping in touch with the general business situation throughout the country than the Standard Oil people. You will see their little carts selling kerosene Oil at retail in the smallest country hamlets, and their products are sold throughout the length and breadth of the land."

Traffic on the Chicago and Oak Park Elevated (formerly the Lake Street) for the month of April was a disappointment, since it showed a decrease of 0.79 per cent over that of April last year. This was largely due to the unfavorable weather, which kept the other elevated lines from showing the usual gains.

Chicago Bank Clearings to-day, $29,438,291

Deliveries on May contracts to-day were 180,000 bu Corn and 45,000 bu Oats.

Consols in London closed at 89¾ for money and 89⅞ for account—a decline of 1-16.

Reported that 96,000 bu Wheat and 36,000 bu Corn were taken at the seaboard to-day for export.

Ten packers purchased 22,800 Hogs to-day; shippers, 9,500; left over, 3,500 Market closed steady.

The firm of Floyd, Crawford & Co. ordered their trades in Grain and Provisions closed out to-day.

The output of the St. Louis Flour mills for the past week was 30,300 brls, against 29,550 brls for the previous week.

The packing at Milwaukee since March 1 is estimated at 98,825 Hogs, against 87,757 for the corresponding time in 1903.

Local Stocks were slow and easy, with the exception of South Side Elevated, which gained ½, and Box Board preferred with ⅛ advance.

The quantity of Flour and Wheat on passage to Europe during the past week increased 3,016,000 bu, and the quantity of Corn increased 1,762,000 bu.

Exports of Flax Seed from India the past week were 272,000 bu, compared with 400,000 bu for the week previous, and 552,000 bu for the corresponding week in 1903.

English visible supply of Wheat increased 1,098,000 bu, compared with a decrease of 86,000 bu last week, and a decrease of 97,000 bu for the corresponding week last year.

The average weight of the Hogs received at Chicago last week was 212 lbs, the heaviest of the year, against 211 lbs the previous week, 222 lbs the corresponding week in 1903, and 217 lbs in 1902.

On the reverse page will be found the detailed report of the visible supply of Grain. Compared with the previous week there were decreases of 664,000 bu Wheat, 933,000 bu Corn, 1,117,000 bu Oats, 41,000 bu Rye, and 215,000 bu Barley.

Stocks of Wheat in public warehouses in Liverpool reported at 3,088,000 bu, against 3,272,000 bu one week ago and 1,472,000 bu one year ago. Stocks of Corn reported at 1,156,000 bu, against 1,156,000 bu one week ago and 395,000 bu last year.

In the New York Cotton market there was steadiness in the old crop deliveries, and rather an easy tone in the new crop months. Weather was not especially favorable and receipts under last year's. Closing prices were 2@4 points higher.

Stocks in New York, although extremely slow, were mostly higher. Gains, however, were small, except in a few instances. Louisville and Nashville advanced 1¼. Corn Products were a factor and broke 3 to 5½ points. Money 1¼ per cent.

During March the net import of Wheat into Holland was 776,000 bu. Flour 126,000 sacks. The net import of the two articles in the eight months ending March was 11,523,000 bu, compared with 11,504,000 bu in the corresponding period of last season

Hog prices at Chicago were the lowest of the year during the past week, the average price for the week being $4 75, against $4 90 the previous week, $6 83 a year ago, $7 04 two years ago, $5 78 three years ago, $5 30 four years ago, and $3 80 the corresponding week in 1899.

	Flour, brls.	Grain, bu.	Prov tons.
Past week	75,727	1,728,000	27,459
Previous week	86,022	1,408,000	24,906
Last year	73,557	810,000	20,134

A Minneapolis party wired, Saturday. "Just returned from South Dakota. Wheat three inches high and in excellent condition. Northern part of State just concluded seeding. Conditions good; Southern Minnesota likewise. Red River Valley now having third day's rain. Not over 10 per cent seeded. Manitoba 35 per cent seeded."

The Colonial Sugars Company is planning to construct a new crusher in Cuba. The plant will have capacity of about 5,000 tons a day. This, however, will not bring the Colonial company into strong competition with the American Sugar Refining Company, as has been reported. The output of the Colonial Sugars Company is insignificant as compared with the American Sugar Refining Company production. The new plant to be erected in Cuba by the Colonial company will crush the product of the Cuban plantations owned by the company and the raw sugar will be shipped to its refinery at Gramercy, La. The company has an authorized capital stock of $3,000,000 and a bond issue of $3 000,000. It was organized in 1902 and owns about 50 000 acres of Cuban Sugar land. The report that it is about to begin an aggressive campaign against the American Sugar Refining Company, however, is ridiculed both by representatives of the Colonial Sugars Company, as well as by interests connected with the American Sugar Refining Company.

WORLD'S SUPPLY OF BREADSTUFFS.

The following table shows the supplies of Breadstuffs afloat for Europe and in store in Europe and Argentina on the dates named:

	May 1, '04 Bu.	Apr. 1, '04. Bu.	May 1, '03. Bu
Afloat for Europe	50,840,000	44,870,000	33,640,000
In store in Europe	34,470,000	36,460,000	22,590,000
In store-Argentina	4,448,000	4,784,000	4,008,000
In store-America	64,770,000	71,339,000	74,888,000
Total	154,537,000	157,453,000	135,126,000

The decrease during April equalled 2,916,000 bu, compared with a decrease of 5,902,000 bu during March, and a decrease of 20,436,000 bu during April, 1903.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS

FLOUR—Demand slow and market dull and unchanged.

WINTER WHEAT—Was steady. A fair demand existed for choice with the offerings light, while poor Wheat was slow. No 2 Red in store quotably $1 03@1 04, and fresh arrivals free on board at $1 04@1 08, with sale of a car load at $1 08. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals free on board ranged at $1 00@$1 05 No 2 Hard fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 90@95c. No. 3 Hard fresh receipts free on board sold at 86@88½c, and ranged at 83@92c for common to choice.

SPRING WHEAT—There was some milling demand and 65,000 bu of No 3 Spring were taken by a local miller besides several cars by other parties Feeling firm. No 1 Northern in store ranged at 96½@97½c, and fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 93@96c No 2 Northern fresh arrivals nominally 90@9 c No. 3 Spring fresh receipts sold at 80@84½c for good to 93c for choice No. 4 Spring sold at 70@81c for fair to good.

REGULAR WHEAT—Just a fair trade, with the feeling somewhat unsettled, but the close showed May ⅛c higher, while July gained ½@⅝c, and September ⅛c Foreign statistics were "bearish." the map a fairly favorable one, and generally clear weather indicated for all sections. Cables, too, were easy. There was selling by pit "longs" and floor traders, and the situation for a time was weak World's shipment was larger than expected, at 12,680,000 bu (Russia contributed 8,944,000 bu), as against 10,480,000 bu previous week and 12,584,000 bu one year ago. The quantity on ocean passage increased 3,016,000 bu, and is now 53,904,000 bu, or 18,744,000 bu larger than last year at this time. According to the monthly statement of the Daily Trade Bulletin the world's supply of Breadstuffs decreased 2,916,000 bu during April, compared with 20,436,000 bu decrease for the same month in 1903. The visible supply decreased 664,000 bu, against 1,010,000 bu decrease for the same week in 1903 Total is now reported 29,693,000 bu, compared with 32,416,000 bu in 1903, and 35,302,000 bu in 1902. Local public and afloat stocks decreased 108,000 bu, and now include 1,943,000 bu, as against 6,014,000 bu the corresponding date in 1903. Liverpool quoted spot steady and futures ¼d lower. Stocks there 3,088,000 bu, decrease 184,000 bu. Liverpool market was affected some by the heavy Russian shipments and fine weather in England. London came unchanged to ⅛d higher. Paris was steady to ¼c lower. Berlin and Antwerp unchanged and Buda Pesth ¼c lower. The fear of a "bullish" showing in the Government report to-morrow had a tendency to check "short" selling, the statement being expected to show a condition between 73 and 74 per cent, against 76 5 one month ago. "Shorts" covered quite freely the closing hour. Primary receipts were 210,000 bu less than a year ago. St. Louis and Kansas City received 57,000 bu, last year 103,000 bu, and shipments were 112,000 bu. Receipts in the Northwest were 68 cars smaller. Exports moderate and 12 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Minneapolis stocks decreased 90,000 bu in two days. Private advices from Indiana were very "bullish." Elreno, Ok., claimed Canadian County would not raise over one-fourth to one-third of a crop; Kingfisher, Wasketa, and Custer Counties not 10 per cent of a crop Navigation at Fort William opened Saturday, two boats clearing. St. Louis quoted No. 2 Red at $1 07. Cash sales here were 65,000 bu Receipts at Duluth 24 cars and at Minneapolis 111 cars, a total of 135 cars, against 100 cars Saturday, 151 cars a week ago, and 203 cars last year. Local receipts included 10 cars Winter, 1 car Spring, 9 cars mixed, a total of 23 cars, against 47 cars last year. Included in the above was 1 car of contract grade There was also 8 cars and no bu from unlicensed elevators The estimated receipts for to-morrow not reported Withdrawals to-day were 42,800 bu. Receipts at Western points were 198,774 bu, against 408,759 bu last year; at Eastern points 85,000 bu, against 499,532 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 222,757 bu, against 608,198 bu last year, and from Eastern points 53,040 bu, against 216,475 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 25,963 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 169,793 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Pretty fair trade and market closed firm.

MAY—Sold at 90½@91¼c. Opened at 91c; sold to 90½c, to 91¼c, to 91⅛c, and closed at 91⅛c.

JULY—Old Style—Sold at 86½@87¾c. Opened with sales at 86⅞c to 86¾c; sold to 86⅞c, to 86½c, to 86⅞c, to 86¾c, to 87⅛c, to 87c, to 87⅜c, to 87c, to 87⅛@87¼c, to 87⅛c, to 87⅝c, to 87½c, to 87¾c, to 87⅝c, and closed at 87⅝c bid.

JULY—New Style—Sold at 85⅜c and at 86½@86⅝c Opened with sales at 85¾c to 85⅝@85¾c; sold to 85⅝c, to 85¾c, to 85⅜c, to 85¾c, to 85⅝c, to 85¾c, to 85½@85⅝c, to 86⅛@86¼c, to 86c, to 86½@86⅝c to 86½c, and closed at 86½c.

SEPTEMBER—Old Style—Sold at 81⅝@82¼c. Opened at 82c; sold to 81⅝c, to 82¼c, to 82⅛c, to 82¼c, and closed at 82½c

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 80¼@80⅝c and at 81c. Opened with sales at 80⅝c to 80½@80⅝c; sold to 80⅝c, to 80½c, to 80⅝@80¾c to 80¼@80⅜c, to 80¾@80⅞c, to 80⅝c, to 81c, to 80⅞@81c, and closed at 80⅞@81c

DECEMBER—Quotably about ⅝c under new September Sales at 80@80½c.

CORN—A moderate trade, largely local and professional in character, with the undertone fairly firm. Closing prices showed May ½c higher, July ⅜c better and September ½@⅝c Market at times was inclined to sympathize with that of Wheat, and gained some strength early, owing to the heavy rains which may delay seeding operations There was some covering by local "shorts," and selling by floor traders. Liverpool quoted spot steady and futures unchanged to ¼d lower. Stocks there 1,156,000 bu, or same as last week. RYE—Ruled firm and prices 2@3c higher. There was some demand for both cash and futures, and the offerings were light. Only two cars were received There were no withdrawals from store and no export clearances from the seaboard. The visible supply decreased 41,000 bu, and local stock increased 1,000 bu No 2 in store round lots nominally 70c early and 73@73c later, with sales of two cars fresh receipts free on board at 71c. No. 3 fresh receipts sold at 70@71c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Firm. May sold at 73c July nominally 68c.

BARLEY—There was a small quantity of good to choice Barley on sale. It was disposed of without difficulty and brought fully as high prices as have lately been quoted, a circumstance reflecting the market as steady and firm for such grades. What little there was of the lower grades also was salable The only dullness to note was perhaps for poor, seedy Screenings or for very poor, musty mixing Barley. Inspected in only 5 cars. Visible supply and local stocks both show decreases. Market for Screenings quotable at 27@37c for poor to choice. Barley—low grade feed or mixing at 32@37c. outside good weight. Malting, low grade, 40@42c; fair to good, sound, 45@48c; good color, 50@56c, and fancy 68c.

SEEDS—It was only in Flax Seed that anything new developed and that market was slightly improved, and it was only in Timothy that any business to speak of was done, it being the only line of which there were any offerings aside from a few very small lots of Clover.

Timothy—A number of consignments were offered. They comprised small lots, little over 100 bags in all, and quality ranged from fairly good to common, no high grade lots. Demand moderate and market quotably steady. Futures inactive and nominal. September against the late nominal quotation of $3 15 was to-day held at $3 22½ with no regular bids. Contract spot or May was nominally $2 90. The cash sales were over a range of $1 60@2 65 and market for country lots of fair to good Seed quotable at $2 50@2 60, choice nominally $2 75@2 80, fancy $2 90, rough Seed $2 35@2 45 and country lots on the whole range $2 25@3 00 for poor to fancy—outside fine, unhulled

Flax—There was ½c advance in prices compared with final figures of last week. Prices, however, were nominal in the absence of business Nothing could be done for there were no offerings. Six cars or 5,100 bu were inspected in, none out. No change last week in local regular stock, 24,201 bu remaining Minneapolis got 11 cars and Duluth 15 cars. Quotations were at $1 09 for No. 1 Northwestern, $1 01½ for No. 1 and 97c@$1 01 for Rejected, outside for choice Northwestern. May delivery was nominally $1 01½ bid July quotable at $1 01½ nominal and September held at $1 07½.

Clover—Some small lots were offered; not enough to cut any figure or have any influence on the market; it remained steady, with contract spot Seed nominally $10 75. Country lots common to choice, $7 75@10 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $7 00@8 25, poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 50

Other Seeds—There were no offerings. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark, $1 15@1 65 Common Millet $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 40. Siberian, 85c@$1 05 Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05 Buckwheat easy good quality $1 30

HOG PRODUCTS—Only a moderate trade was reported in the market for Hog Products The receipts of Hogs were not as large as generally expected and prices were well maintained, and this feature encouraged little buying in a general way. Offerings were moderate Outside orders were only fair and local trading was moderate July contracts met with most favor. Prices ruled slightly higher on all the leading articles and the market closed rather steady Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 62,100, compared with 66,200 one year ago Foreign advices indicated that Meats were neglected at former prices, while Lard was dull at 6d decline Domestic markets quiet and prices steady. Receipts of Products were good—of Lard and Meats about 24 cars. Shipments were fair—of Lard and Meats about 109 cars Very little doing on shipping account, and there were no particular changes to note. Offerings were moderate, and the demand was limited from all sources Exports for the week compared with the corresponding week in 1903, exhibited a decrease of 720 brls Pork, and increases of 5,384,000 lbs Lard, and 8,206 boxes Meats

Mess Pork—Trade was only fair in the market for Mess Pork, and the feeling was stronger in a general way. Offerings were rather light, and the demand was only fair Market opened rather steady around the closing prices of Saturday and a further improvement of 12½@15c was gained Later, the feeling was easier and prices settled back 5@7½c, and the market closed comparatively steady Demand on shipping account was light, and offerings were moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $11 45@11 50.

CROPS IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

[From Broomhall's Corn Trade News, April 26.]

United Kingdom—The weather in the United Kingdom has generally continued seasonable, the few showers of rain of last week and this having been quite welcome. The season so far has been exceptionally favorable for spring seeding, the bulk of which is finished, and the early sowings, which are now above ground, show a satisfactory plant. The Winter Wheat crop, however, continues to receive very faint praise, although it is acknowledged that the condition has certainly improved and is still mending. British farmers' deliveries of Wheat last week showed a fair increase, and the price keeps well over last year's, although we are afraid growers will not get much encouragement from an average of 27s 6d per quarter.

Russia—Some reports still speak of unfavorable weather for spring sowing, and unsatisfactory crop conditions; others, however, say that with seasonable weather spring seeding is going on actively in all directions, and the condition of the winter crops, although uncertain, can be regarded as fairly satisfactory on the whole. Our own latest reports from the South have been fairly good. Interior holders are said to be disinclined to sell at present, owing to the uncertain outlook for the new crops. The shipping movement is fair.

Roumania—The weather lately has been cold with some frost. Crop news, on the whole, continues favorable, but around Braila a good fall of rain is needed, with warmer weather to bring on the crops. Arrivals at the ports keep small, and the export movement is likewise light.

Bulgaria—The German consul at Varna reports that during March the weather was favorable, and the fields look well everywhere. Owing to the advanced period of the season arrivals have fallen off considerably.

India—Our correspondents confirm the news that the Wheat harvest is a good one. Sellers of Kurrachee for May-June shipment have been pressing their Wheat on the market at low prices. Shipments are liberal, but not more so than at this time last year.

Australasia—Further rains have fallen in Victoria and New South Wales, which will help the seeding of the new crops, which should now be in progress. Shipments keep liberal, and our latest advices show that good quantities have still to come forward.

Argentina—Weather conditions continue favorable. Good quantities have been arriving at the ports and last week's shipment was heavy, but smaller quantities are predicted in the near future although there may be one more big shipment.

France—The weather is fairly seasonable, and the agricultural situation is very satisfactory. There is some mention of fear that the Wheat plant is not very strong, but, generally speaking, crop news could hardly be better, and growers are hoping for a good harvest if normal conditions prevail from now onward. Native Wheat is more freely offered, but trading is not active, because millers still hold back in the hope of buying on better terms later.

Spain—Our Barcelona correspondent writes that some rains have fallen, and with seasonable weather, the new crops looks well almost everywhere.

Germany—The crops are making good progress, being favored by spring weather; in the south seeding is finished. The mid-April official report for Prussia gave the condition of Winter Wheat and Rye as 80 per cent, fully 10 points over last year's at same date. Berlin advices continue to say that native Wheat is now sparingly offered, and the quantities exported to Scandinavia are much smaller.

North Africa—Our own correspondent at Bona writes that the crops look very well, the recent heavy rains having done nothing but good. Imports of Tunisian Wheat into France have been so large this season that the quantity authorized to enter free of duty has already arrived, and the Government has been asked to issue an authorization for 500,000 bu to 1,600,000 bu additional.

NORTHWEST SEEDING.

[From the Minneapolis Market Record, May 6.]

Rains were quite general yesterday throughout the Dakotas and Minnesota chiefly in the way of intermittent showers. In some sections they were quite heavy and in others light. While rains generally were not greatly needed, they will do little harm excepting in the Red River Valley and some small portions of other flat country. The Wheat and other small Grains seeded were doing well on most of the land without more moisture. So far the rain was not enough to put back the flat land seeding many days, unless it be that more falls in the same locality to-day. The early seeded Grain is sprouting well, and considerable is above ground, showing very well, with a full acreage planted and to be planted in Southern Minnesota and South Dakota.

North Dakota's intention was to put in a much larger area than last year, but the rain interference will probably lessen the increase below what was at one time intended. The seeding of Oats has gone along quite well, following Wheat where the ground dried off early, and prospect is good. The Barley seeding in South Dakota and in parts of Minnesota is fairly well along.

In Northern Minnesota and in North Dakota the higher lands are getting along with Wheat planting quite well, and there the acreage promises to be considerably larger, but in the low and flat lands the delay is such that it is not possible now to speak with any degree of accuracy as to what may be the result. It is reasonable to suppose the prospective yield has been reduced by late water-covered land.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows a shower or two in the Northwest to-day, and light rains in Minnesota on the Sunday map. Temperatures some lower. Frosts at Williston, Bismarck, Rapid, and North Platte. Heavy rains in Iowa, Missouri, Illinois and Ohio Valley. There were heavy rains on the Sunday map in Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa and Illinois. The weather map is a wet one, and has been for the past forty-eight hours. Not much rain, however, in the Northwest.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

Blanchard, N. D., says no seeding has been done there.

A fire, Sunday, at Utica, N. Y., destroyed property to the extent of $150,000; insurance small.

The Chicago Telephone Company installed 1,381 new Telephones during April, and now has 107,-828 subscribers in Chicago and country.

Columbus, Ind., has awarded $75,000 4 per cent semi-annual 3-10 year optional school district high school building bonds for a premium of $1,065.

Charles M. Schwab has purchased seventeen acres of land at McKeesport, Pa., on the Ohio River, to erect a plant for the manufacture of Steel specialties or castings.

During the first half of April Germany imported 1,968,000 bu Wheat and exported 114,000 bu. The net import from Aug. 1 last to April 15 was 43,600,-000 bu compared with 44,610,000 bu in the corresponding period of last season.

A dispatch from Upper Sandusky, Ohio, says: "Prosecutor Goodrich has brought ouster proceedings against the International Harvester Company of Chicago. It is alleged that the company is violating the Valentine anti-trust law."

The receivers of Sutter Brothers, tobacco manufacturers, Chicago, who failed Nov. 8, 1903, with $3,200,000 liabilities, have been ordered to turn over the assets to the firm, and the firm will resume business. Its creditors will receive about 25c on the dollar.

A receiver was appointed, Friday, at Cincinnati, for the Cumberland Valley Coal and Coke Company in the United States Court, on motion of creditors who recently forced the company into bankruptcy. The mines and plant are in Southeastern Kentucky.

The Boston News Bureau says: "A careful canvass reveals the fact that there is no truth whatever in the reports from Chicago that negotiations looking toward the absorption of the American Can Company by the United States Steel Corporation had been resumed."

At a special meeting of the directors of the New York, Ontario and Western Railway Company in New York, Friday, the petition of certain stockholders to have the voting trust dissolved was referred to a committee, which is to report to the board at some future date.

Chicago, Kansas City and St. Louis, the first four months of 1904 received 5,256 car loads of Texas Cattle, against 8,756 the same period a year ago. St. Louis had 4,849, against 5,733 a year ago; Kansas City, 1,270, against 2,290 a year ago, and Chicago, 137, against 733 a year ago.

Application has been made to the New York Stock Exchange to list the following securities: Cincinnati, Findlay and Fort Wayne Railway Company, $1,000,000 first mortgage 4 per cent bonds, due 1923. Louisiana and Arkansas Railway Company, $2,724,000 first mortgage 5 per cent bonds, due 1927.

The Corn Trade News, of April 25, says: "The aspect of the Winter Wheat crop in France is very satisfactory, and growers are hoping for good results, if nothing untoward occur between now and harvest. Wheat is more freely offered on provincial markets, but business remains dull, for buyers hold back in the hope of lower prices later."

The Chicago and Northern Indiana Railroad Company, composed of Indianapolis capitalists, which proposes to build an electric line from Indianapolis to Chicago to compete with the steam roads, has filed articles of incorporation. The line will pass through the counties of Lake, Porter, Jasper, Pulaski, White, Cass, Howard, Clinton, Tipton, Hamilton and Marion.

It was announced in Montreal that a company promoted by Omaha, Chicago, and St. Paul capitalists will establish a chain of private banks throughout Western Canada to do a general private banking business on the same system of exchange as is now in vogue in the United States. Banks will be opened at Regina and other points, which are being rapidly settled by Americans.

A New York banking firm has purchased $1,000,-000 New York, Ontario and Western 4 per cent bonds, part of the total authorized issue of $20,000,-000 first mortgage 4 per cent Gold bonds of which about $17,000,000 was outstanding previous to this issue. It is understood that the proceeds of the bonds will be used largely for reimbursing the treasury of the company for payments made on account of extraordinary expenditures.

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Monday, was $4 80, against $4 80 Saturday, $4 70 a week ago, and $6 66 a year ago

Local Securities were slow, and prices moved within narrow limits, the sales being in small lots. Can preferred broke ½ point.

The Duluth Commercial Record reports the stock of Wheat at Fort William on April 30 at 6,417,000 bu, while the official visible supply gave 4,198,000 bu

Michigan State report makes the condition of Wheat 54, compared with 79 in April and 87 last July. Reported that 23 per cent of area plowed up.

The stock of Flax Seed at Duluth on May 7 was 8,065,000 bu, compared with 8,001,000 bu the previous week—an increase of 64,000 bu Stock last year, 3,323,000 bu.

Directors of the Daly West Mining Company have reduced the dividend rate from 65c to 40c per month, payable May 19. Books close May 10 and and re-open May 17.

The directors of the Massachusetts Gas Companies have declared a semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent on the preferred stock, payable June 1 to stockholders of record May 14.

The receipts of Wheat at Liverpool during the past three days were 416,000 bu, of which 8,000 were American. Receipts of Corn, 232,000 bu, of which 101,000 bu were American.

A Booth & Co. have declared the regular dividends of 8 per cent for the year on the preferred, and 3 per cent on the common, the latter being payable half June 1 and half December 1.

Cotton in New York advanced in the morning as Liverpool came higher, but as it broke prices reacted. Crop reports were not "bearish," but the market sold off and closed 5@11 points lower.

Stocks in New York were traded in sparingly and averaged lower. Crop reports were more favorable, but the buying was indifferent. Western Railways lost ⅛ to ⅝. New York Central declined ¼. Industrials were ⅛ to ½ lower, and Consolidated Gas 1¾ lower. Money 1¼ per cent.

Bradstreet's report of the available supply for the past week shows the following changes:

	1904. bu	1903 bu.
Wheat east of Rockies	Dec. 2,280,000	Dec. 2,727,000
Europe and afloat	Inc. 1,100,000	Dec. 3,600,000
Total	Dec. 1,180,000	Dec 6,327,000
Corn	Dec. 1,551,000	Dec 756,000
Oats	Dec. 1,015,000	Dec. 294,000

The Illinois crop report says: "While Wheat in some places is not doing well, the average condition has greatly improved during the week—a majority of fields ranging from fair to excellent. Much ground has been prepared for Corn and some planting done. Under favorable weather conditions a large acreage will be planted during the ensuing week. The outlook for Oats is uniformly encouraging. The crop is practically all in the ground and in many localities the plant is showing."

Broomhall says of foreign crop conditions: "United Kingdom, Italy and Spain—Weather past week has been very favorable and crops have made satisfactory progress. France—Wheat has made good progress under continuance of most favorable weather conditions; supplies of native Wheat are plentiful and are constantly becoming cheaper, as demand is not good, owing to millers exhibiting a tendency to wait for still lower prices Germany—Seasonable weather has prevailed the past week and crops are growing satisfactorily; native Wheat rather scarce and offerings are light Russia—Conditions diverse in different portions of the empire, but taking them as a whole moderate results are expected; good reserves in the interior, but holders are apparently not anxious to sell, owing to uncertainty regarding final crop outcome. Roumania—Recent showers have been insufficient to relieve the drouth conditions and crops are suffering for want of rain North Africa—Wheat crop in excellent shape; harvesting will commence about the 25th of this month. Australia—Conditions continue favorable for seeding."

The River Plate Review of April 2 says: "The climate is very fickle in this country—it either rains so heavily as to destroy the crops when they are growing or else there is a drouth, or if the weather is perfect during the maturing of the harvest, as this year, when the gathering in commences the country is inundated with rain. This latter has been the fate of the farmers this year. As soon as the Grain was cut the rain commenced, and threshing operations have been carried on with great difficulty. During the last week very heavy rains have fallen in the Province of Cordoba, and the rivers having overflowed their banks, considerable damage has been done to property. In the south of the Province of Buenos Ayres the rainfall has also been heavy. Unless we now have a spell of fine weather the Corn crop will be in danger."

WEATHER BUREAU REPORT.

WASHINGTON, May 10—Weather Bureau weekly summary, issued at noon, says:

Spring Wheat seeding is largely finished except on wet lands in northern portion of North Dakota and Minnesota. The early sown over the southern portion of Spring Wheat region is making good growth On the North Pacific Coast the week was too cool for rapid advancement.

Winter Wheat—A general improvement in condition of the Winter Wheat is indicated, especially over western parts of belt, and in the Middle Atlantic States Outlook in Ohio Valley States continues very poor

Corn—Planting is now in operation under favorable conditions throughout the northern part of belt. But in Nebraska, Kansas and in Iowa this work has made good progress, and it is likely the bulk of the crop in those States will be planted earlier than in recent years. Over the southern part of the Middle Atlantic States planting is well advanced, and has begun in Pennsylvania and New Jersey

Oats—Early sown are generally improved and in promising condition throughout the central valleys and Middle Atlantic States, but in the South Atlantic and East Gulf States, the outlook is poor where Oats are heading.

The Cotton belt has experienced a week of favorable temperatures, with abundant rainfall, except in the eastern districts. Reports of poor stand of early planted Cotton continues from central and eastern portions, but better stands of the late planted are indicated The recent rains have improved the situation in Western Texas, but have interfered with cultivation in the eastern portion of that State. Planting is nearly finished in the northern districts.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS

FLOUR—There is little or no change to note in the situation, the market being dull with prices barely steady.

WINTER WHEAT—Was firm for soft Wheat and easier for Hard Winter. Demand moderate No. 2 Red in store quotably $1 03@1 04 and fresh arrivals free on board at $1 03@1 05, with sale of a car load at $1 03 No 2 Red choice Wheat sold at $1 07 and ranged at $1 00@1 07 for fair to choice No 2 Hard fresh receipts free on board quotably 91@94c No. 3 Hard fresh receipts free on board sold at 86@88c and No. 4 Hard at 81c

SPRING WHEAT—Was steady. Demand moderate and choice Wheat sold all right and wanted. Late prices well maintained No 1 Northern in store quotable at 91¾@92½c, and fresh arrivals free on board at 94@96c No 2 Northern fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 90@95c No 3 Spring fresh receipts sold at 91@91½c and ranged at 87@94c for ordinary to choice hard variety No 4 sold at 78c and ranged at 82@84c for poor to good.

REGULAR WHEAT—Only a moderate trade, the market being a waiting one, with the feeling decidedly nervous. Final figures show the May up ⅝c, while July lost ⅜@½c, and September ¼@⅜c. The decreasing stocks and firm cables were sustaining factors early, but later on the crop news from Oklahoma, Kansas and the Southwest came in quite "bearish," which, with the attitude of certain local influential interests, who sold fair quantities, caused the reaction. Liverpool quoted spot ½d higher and 1d lower, and futures ¼d better. Receipts there were 416,000 bu, and only 8 000 bu from America. London came ¼@½d higher, Paris steady to ¼c lower. Antwerp unchanged. Berlin declined ⅜c, while Buda Pesth lost ⅜c. Stocks here in all positions were reduced 328,000 bu, and are now 4,311 006 bu compared with 7,343,000 bu same day in 1903. Contract stocks decreased 249,064 bu, and now include 659 868 bu, against 2,799,713 bu one year ago Bradstreet's decreased 1,180,000 bu, against 6 327,000 bu decrease same week in 1903 Map showed favorable conditions in most all sections. Clear West, Northwest and Southwest, with temperatures a little lower in certain districts. Generally fair weather indicated in the Northwest, outside of showers for Minnesota. Minneapolis claimed the crop would be as far advanced by June 1 as it was last year owing to soil conditions being better, but the Red River Valley is two weeks later than in 1903 and the acreage perhaps a little less. Primary receipts were 84,000 bu smaller than a year ago Kansas City and St. Louis received 70,000 bu; last year, 112,000 bu; shipments, 173,000 bu. Exports were limited and only 16 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Minneapolis stocks reported reduced 150,000 bu so far this week Illinois weekly crop bulletin reported the Winter Wheat outlook better and private advices from Kansas quite the reverse of those at hand two weeks ago The secretary of the Kansas Grain Dealers Association was credited with estimating a record crop for that State. Duluth wired: "We have orders from one port alone on the Continent for 13 loads. United Kingdom is also advancing steadily on old-crop Manitobas and only 1c out of line for quite a block in spite of recent advance at Winnipeg." Milwaukee Flour situation reported "bearish." Michigan report made condition 54; last month, 79; last year, 90. Receipts at Duluth 32 cars and at Minneapolis 57 cars, a total of 89 cars, against 135 cars yesterday, 61 cars a week ago, and 84 cars last year Local receipts included 27 cars Winter, 13 cars Spring, 8 cars mixed, a total of 48 cars, against 83 cars last year. Included in the above was 1 car of contract grade. There was also 7 cars and no bu from unlicensed elevators The estimated receipts for to-morrow not reported. Withdrawals to-day were 46,400 bu. Receipts at Western points were 170 877 bu, against 276,131 bu last year; at Eastern points 4,702 bu, against 467,937 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 603,582 bu against 507,010 bu last year, and from Eastern points 67 923 bu, against 655,268 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 3 733 brls Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 84,726 bu.

NORTHWESTERN WHEAT NOTES.

[From the Duluth Commercial Record.]

From May 1 to Aug. 1 last year the receipts of Wheat at Duluth were 1,810,000 bu and at Minneapolis 14,000,000 bu a total of 15,810,000 bu. The total stocks in store on May 1 were 15,135,000 bu and on Aug 1 3,160,000 bu. Assuming that present stocks at Duluth, which are about the same as last year, will be needed East, and rearing the Minneapolis situation on the basis of probable consumption and supplies, we find that during the thirteen weeks ending Aug 1 Minneapolis must receive a weekly output of about 585,000 brls Flour, or a total of 3,700,000 brls, representing 16,691,000 bu of Wheat.

To supply this Wheat and the shipments of 3,600,000 bu to interior mills, all the receipts were required and 8,100,000 bu were taken out of store, reducing elevator stocks to 7,000,000 bu. Of the Flour produced 618,000 brls or about 2,300,000 bu of Wheat went for direct export. It is quite certain that this item will be considerably less in the three months to come.

In view of the fact that Minneapolis mills have been idle so much of the time during April, it is only reasonable to suppose they will run heavier between now and Aug. 1 than they have been averaging, about 150,000 brls weekly, but it is not probable that they will equal last year's average Assume, however, that they will average 225,000 brls weekly or 1,000,000 bu of Wheat, and this is liberal and that country mills will draw just as much as last year, 3,000 bu, we have a total requirement there of 16,691,000 bu. If elevator stocks be reduced to the same extent as last year it will supply 8,000,000 bu of the 16,000,000 bu, leaving requirements of 8,000,000 bu from the country, against 11,664,000 bu supplied by country last year.

The Commercial Record has believed for weeks past that the large reserves of Wheat were larger than last year, and we still hold to that belief. The marketing of these reserves is simply a question of weather.

If growing crop prospects are promising the Wheat will come out, and in any event we believe as much Wheat will come to market as during same period in 1903.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows not much moisture on the map anywhere. A few light rains in Eastern Iowa, Eastern Missouri and Ohio Valley—all light. Temperatures a little higher than yesterday, as though there is light frost at Moorehead and St. Paul. Conditions in Northwest favorable—no rain

Indications are for mostly fair weather. Not much precipitation likely. Temperatures will rise Wednesday.

STATE OF CROPS IN PRUSSIA.

According to official information to the middle of April the winter has been mostly damp and mild, only the months of December and January, and a few days in the beginning of March, registering any dry and cold weather. Snow fell principally in the mountains, the fields being only covered for a short time about the end of February and beginning of March. With April a spell of rough weather and night frosts set in nearly everywhere. The damage by frost has been small in spite of the sudden reduction by the absolutely snow covering and the Wheat crop, with few exceptions, came well through the winter. Rye has suffered slightly from vermin and insects. Clover and Lucerne damaged not only by frosts but also by field mice.

Spring sowing has been hindered in consequence of the wet weather during the last few weeks, and in East and West Prussia it has not yet nearly begun. The percentage of area replowed owing to damage by frosts, vermin and insects amounted to: Winter Wheat 41 against 11.20 last year and 5.15 in 1902, Winter Spelt .03 and Winter Rye .80 (against 2.15 and .07 respectively); Clover 1.88 (against 1.07 and .73 respectively); Lucernes .59 (against 1.02 and .35 respectively).

LONDON FLOUR MARKET.

[From Bradstreet's, April 22.]

The past week's imports of Flour were 127,400 sacks, against 141,000 sacks the previous week, and 149,430 sacks last year, making the total since Aug 1st, 6,521,040 sacks, against 3,497,760 sacks same time last year. The Flour trade this week has been extremely dull. Last week there was a feeling in many quarters that the duty would be reimposed, and this led to a certain amount of activity in buying American Flour on that account, sorts being in most cases willing to sell and take the risk of the duty On Wednesday in London 28s 6d was generally asked for the best Spring American Patents, but there was little or no demand. For shipment 28s to 28s 6d c. i. f. is asked. Kansas Patents ex-store were quoted at 28s to 28s 6d. Town-made Flour has dropped 3d, viz., to 25s exclusive of bags, and 25s 6d for whites. Country Flour is also generally quoted rather lower, and meets a very poor trade in London just now. French Flour is also slow to sell, although the best Paents can be had at 28s ex-store. Liverpool on Tuesday reported an inactive market at nominally unaltered prices, while Glasgow on Wednesday was quiet and prices were rather lower to sell.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

A Columbus, Ohio, party wired, Monday, that Wheat in the country was all in sight, and found that city had improved 20 per cent since May 1.

The Pittsburg Stock Exchange has listed Pig Iron Warrants and dealings in them will begin as soon as rules to govern trading are drawn up.

A St. Louis cash grocery house has large consignments of Wheat from millers in Missouri who are sending it their surplus Wheat on account of poor Flour demand and good prospects for growing crop

Reports from the Hop growing sections of Oregon indicate an excellent prospect for the new season. It is estimated that the yield will be, under continued favorable conditions, 110,000 bales, against 85,000 last season

It was announced, Monday, at the office of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company that the Colorado Coal Operators' Coal strike would be settled by June 1, concessions being made by both the operators and strikers

A Chicago commission man in Minneapolis investigating crop conditions, He reports excellent prospects for Wheat, and says that if nothing prevents there will be an increase of 20 per cent in the Corn acreage of that state

It is estimated by the company that with the completion of the Chicago and St. Louis plants of the American Pneumatic Service Company, that company will be able to show net earnings of 2 per cent upon its $35,000,000 capitalization.

The world's visible supply of Coffee decreased during April 138,733 bags, against a decrease during April last year of 132,949 bags, which made the total visible supply on May 1 this year 2,558,617 bags, against 12,918,105 bags on April 1 this year and 12,243,378 bags May 1 last year.

The Department of Commerce and Labor has just published a report from United States Consul Hill at Amsterdam, Netherlands, on American Flour in the Netherlands. Mr. Hill states that Russian Wheat is responsible for quite a loss to the American miller, and that the crop was very large in Russia, and, owing to the fear of war, it was rushed quickly to market.

The last dividend of 3 per cent was paid on the stock of the Lake Superior Corporation during last December. According to an authority, a similar disbursement will be ordered some time this month, payable in June. The company is said to be making plenty of money to meet all of dividend requirements, although business has shown a considerable falling off in the last few months.

The New York trust companies under supervision of the Clearing House Association have given their decision to abandon clearing-house privileges rather than submit to the 10 per cent reserve requirements now in force, commencing June 1 next. After these withdrawals only three companies will nine trust companies doing business in Manhattan will have clearing-house privileges, and one of these is about to discontinue its relations with the clearing house.

The San Francisco Weekly Commercial News of May 5 says: "Reports from the Sacramento Valley indicate that the Barley crop will be considerable for all Grain crops, and that Wheat is making an excellent stand and has been greatly benefited by the heavy rainfall; a full yield is expected in nearly all parts of the State. San Joaquin Valley has made good growth and is generally reported in fine condition In Southern California the crop will be generally light. Along the coast a full average yield is looked for."

For March, Louisville and Nashville Railroad reported an increase of 5 per cent in gross and 10 per cent in net. For the nine months the same road reports an increase of 7.2 per cent in gross and 4 4 per cent in net. Earnings of this and other Southern railroads were uniformly good throughout the winter, although the severest loss was experienced at points where Northern lines turn over traffic to the Southern trunk lines. This loss is now being made good season by season. The only recent change in trade conditions has been the withdrawal of Hartford as a buyer. The insurance corporations in that city had their reserves depleted by the Baltimore, Rochester and Syracuse fires, and are now going through a period of recuperation."

The report that an assessment will probably soon be levied upon the stock of the Paper Products Company, the selling agency for the United Box Board and Paper Company, is based on the fact that only a small amount has been paid in on the stock of the Paper Products Company—some thing between 10 and 20 per cent. It is required that 50 per cent of the par value be paid in within a year after the company's organization, and the full amount paid within two years. The capital of the company is only $20,000. The portion of it already paid in is understood to be sufficient to carry on the business of the company. A further call upon the stock is, therefore, naturally to be expected.

The Chicago Inter Ocean says: "It is significant that, while the American Car and Foundry Company's profit and loss surplus is nearly $12,000,000, its working capital is about $14,000,000, showing that not quite the total amount, $12,000,000, divides is in the form of liquid assets. The company's working capital is equivalent to nearly $50 per share on the preferred stock, not taking into consideration any of the numerous plants and properties owned by the company to which the preferred stock has prior claim. With a great many of the industrial companies a large proportion of the profit and loss surplus has been spent on plants or improvements, but the Car and Foundry Company is a noteworthy exception in this respect."

An executive officer of the Erie Railroad Company said, Thursday: 'Having already applied $3,500,000 of the first issue of $10,000,000 of our convertible bonds, we have a balance of $6,500,000 that source to meet the general improvement work throughout our system now in contemplation. This work includes realignments, regrading and terminal improvements, all of which are demanded by the gradual increase in our traffic power. In addition to this balance, we have available from our Pennsylvania and first consolidated mortgage bonds some $3,500,000 more, or a total of $10,000,000 all. The new work on our Jersey City terminal will cost between $4,500,000 and $6,000,000. It is problematical at this time whether this work can continue to pay the dividend on the first preferred stock at the present rate."

The London Agricultural Gazette of April 25 says: "The showers with which last week ended were entirely welcome, as they have given a thorough start up or coming through the soil, and facilitated tillage where the sowing of Barley and Oats is not completed, as it is in many parts of the country. As a rule, the young spring Grain that is up is thick enough in plant, and in excellent condition, the exceptions being in fields of cold and heavy land in which the Seed was sown under unfavorable tillage. Reports on the Wheat crop continue to be generally unfavorable, in spite of some improvement caused by the seasonable weather. A good stand of the Winter Wheat is the rule, but the average condition has seldom been lower. It will be interesting to notice how the exceptionally large area of Spring Wheat turns out."

It is to Nebraska anti-rebate railroad laws are to be enforced against the Burlington and the Kansas City and Omaha Railroads, the object being to annul the absorption of the latter by the Burlington. The case will be conducted by the Attorney General of Nebraska under the State law, and if successful the effect will be far-reaching. The Kansas City and Omaha extends from Alma, Neb to Sioux City, with a branch to Fairbury, Neb., going through the most productive territory in the State Throughout its entire length it parallels the Burlington, which road, three years ago, purchased a controlling interest in the smaller one. Two years ago the Burlington completely absorbed the Kansas City line, and the patrons of the road assert the line is operated without regard to the cities through which it passes. They have petitioned the Attorney General to, bring suit under the anti-merger laws of the State, and the case will be started immediately.

A director of the United States Steel Corporation says: "Our books show that to date we have spent $11,000,000 on improvements of plants since the organization, and our work on that line is not still going on. Now we are preparing to dismantle six bridge plants at Pittsburg and replace them with a single plant, which will effect a saving of $250,000 per annum. Our rail mills alone produce 800,000 tons per annum, and we have not yet had time to put in the modern electric cranes for the handling of large sections of bridge work, but we have thirty or forty cranes in the mills which used to handle a piece of Iron, a great electric crane will pick it up with the assistance of one or two men and quickly put it in position. We figure a saving of $1 per ton on handling expenses, or $2,000,000 per annum If the railroads will not buy our Steel goods this year because they cannot sell bonds to pay for them, it is only a question of time when they will buy them in double amounts, and I believe that within three years after the United States shall have returned to its normal Steel Corporation basis, the year's output of the United States Steel Corporation will not only be greater than ever before, but will reach 20,000,000 per annum."

New York is a shrine to have differential rates and Boston is still scattered to parts wiped out. The assistant secretary of the New York Produce Exchange has been in Chicago nearly a week, doing effective work among the big shippers. The latter have agreed to appear before the Interstate Commerce Commission, who are to act as arbiters in the rate settlement, and give their views on rate differentials. New York people hope to do away with differentials to get the larger share of the Grain export business.

FLAX SEED IN CANADA.

[From the Oil, Paint and Drug Reporter.]

Canada is likely to become an important factor in the Flax growing of this continent during the coming year. The new breakings there are to be very extensive, which means a large Flax area in spite of low prices Heretofore Canada has not cut much figure in our own Flax Seed situation, owing to her relatively small production and the duty of 20c per bu, which has made exports of Seed decidedly unattractive to the Canadian grower. The Flax yield of the Northwest Territories in 1903 was 302,082 bu, averaging 9 31 bu per acre as against 163,170 bu in 1902, with 9 56 bu to the acre In Manitoba the complaint of late spring is general. Snow covers much of the ground, and frost is not out sufficiently to allow farmers to touch the soil at all. Last year at this time the seed was well in. Canada is not relatively of importance in considering the Flax crop prospect, but the seeding there is against Wheat and favorable to Flax

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS

FLOUR—The market is dull and featureless. Prices are unchanged

WINTER WHEAT—Ruled rather firm for choice Wheat. There was a fair demand on milling account, and the offerings were small Poor Wheat is dull. No. 2 Red in store quotably $1 04@1 06, and fresh arrivals free on board nominally $1 04@1 08. No 3 Red fresh receipts free on board quotably $1 00@1 03. No 2 Hard fresh receipts free on board quotably 93@94c, with a sale of 5,000 bu from store placed free on board at 2½c over May. No. 3 Hard fresh receipts free on board sold at 87@89c. No. 4 Hard fresh receipts free on board sold at 68@70c for poor, and at 80@81c for good.

SPRING WHEAT There was a good milling and shipping demand and the market was steady. Besides the car lots there were sales of 100,000 bu of No. 1 Northern at ¼@½c over May price No 1 Northern in store ranged at 91@92⅜c, and fresh arrivals free on board at 94@96c No 2 Northern fresh arrivals free on board quotably 90@9 c No 3 Spring fresh receipts free on board sold at 92@93c and ranged down to 87c for common No 4 Spring sold at 77@82c and ranged at 61@81c for poor to choice

REGULAR WHEAT—Only a moderate trade, chiefly local and professional, with the feeling rather nervous. Closing prices showed the May off ¼c, while the July lost ½c and the September ⅛@½c. The Government report while "bullish" was indifferently received by the trade as it generally confirmed the private advices as published last week. The condition was reported 76 5 per cent, against 92.6 per cent in 1903. Area abandoned 15.4 per cent, leaving 27,083,000 acres which indicates a yield of 353,245,000 bu, against 401,685,000 bu last year. "Long" property came out at the start, the fair weather here and abroad and showing of the foreign markets being among the principal factors. At the decline pit professionals bought freely and old July was taken on a large scale by commission houses causing a much stronger tone, but the market later on again became weak. Duluth advices indicated a better export demand, heavy rains were reported in the Red River Valley and receipts were small in all directions Minneapolis stocks were reported decreased 350,000 bu the past four days Primary receipts were 40,000 bu less than a year ago. Kansas City and St Louis received 31,000 bu, against 55,000 bu same date in 1903, and shipments were 97,000 bu. Showers were indicated for Illinois, Indiana and Minnesota; showers, fair Thursday, for Missouri, North and South Dakota; fair for Kansas and Nebraska. A Minneapolis message claimed seeding would be completed this week with exception of five counties in Red River Valley Liverpool quoted spot unchanged and futures steady to ⅛d lower. London was quoted ⅛@¼d higher, and cargoes on passage firmer with fewer offerings. Paris declined ¼@½c, while Antwerp was unchanged Berlin closed unchanged; Buda Pesth ½ higher. Kansas City advices rather ridiculed the report of 12½ per cent of the area in Kansas being abandoned, claiming 2 per cent was nearer correct. Exports very meagre, and only 5 boat loads accepted at the seaboard One of the "bear" arguments presented was the fact of September Wheat at Kansas City selling 10c under Chicago and no export business being closed for forward shipment purchases of old July would appear dangerous. A sale of 100,000 bu No. 1 Northern was reported here at ¼@½c over May. Montreal advices stated that railroad officials predict the Wheat crop in Manitoba will be the largest on record, that province and the Northwest Territories being expected to raise 80,000,000 bu. Nebraska Grain Dealers' Association estimated the May Wheat prospect in that State at ninety-three per cent of last year. Receipts at Duluth 12 cars and at Minneapolis 50 cars, a total of 62 cars, against 89 cars yesterday, 82 cars a week ago, and 64 cars last year Local receipts included 13 cars Winter, 4 cars Spring, 2 cars mixed, a total of 19 cars, against 29 cars last year Included in the above was none of contract grade. There was also 2 cars and no bu from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 15 cars. Withdrawals to-day were 35,114 bu. Receipts at Western points were 175,213 bu, against 215,489 bu last year; at Eastern points 5,475 bu, against 319,409 bu last year Shipments from Western points were 197,411 bu, against 471,717 bu last year, and from Eastern points 4 790 bu, against 142,202 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 10,792 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 53,354 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Closed weaker.

MAY—Sold at 90⅞@91⅝c. Opened with sales 91¾c to 91½c; sold to 91⅞c, to 90⅞c to 91½c. and closed at 91½c.

JULY—Old Style—Sold at 86⅛@87⅝c. Opened unsettled with sales at 87⅝c to 86⅞c; sold to 87c, to 86⅞c, to 87¼c, to 87c, to 87⅜@87½c, to 87¼c, to 87⅜c, to 87⅛c, to 86½c, to 86⅝c, to 86⅛c, to 86½c, to 86⅜c, to 86⅞c, to 86⅝c, and closed at 86¾c.

JULY—New Style Sold at 84⅞@85c and at 86¼@86⅛c. Opened with sales at 86@86⅛c to 85⅝c, sold to 85⅞c, to 85¾c, to 86c, to 85⅞c, to 86¼@86⅛c, to 86c, to 86¼c, to 84⅞@85c, to 85 ¼@85⅜c, to 85¼c, to 85½c, and closed at 85⅜@85½c bid.

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 79⅞@81c. Opened with sales at 81c to 80⅝; sold to 80¾@80⅞c, to 81c, to 80⅝c to 81c, to 79⅞c to 80¼@80⅜c, and closed at 80¼@80⅜c.

DECEMBER Quotably ⅜@½c under new September and sold at 79¾@80⅛c.

CORN—This market closed with May ⅜c higher, the July gaining ⅜@½c and the September ⅜@½c. Early undertone was easy, the fine weather, favorable advices regarding planting, reported decline of ⅜d at Liverpool, together with the action of Wheat all combined to create a "bearish" sentiment and floor traders and Provision interests were inclined to favor the "short" or selling side As the session advanced, however, the demand improved and situation turned stronger, many of the early sellers turning buyers. The large local shipments, 580,000 bu, against receipts of 134,000 bu, small arrivals, prediction of showers for the Missouri and Mississippi Valleys and correction in the quotations at Liverpool, showing ⅛d advance instead of ⅜d decline was mainly responsible for the reversal in sentiment Receipts only 37 cars, with one car contract, compared with 178 cars last year, when 11 cars graded Transfers from private to public elevators were 44 cars. Iowa State bulletin reported satisfactory advancement in plowing and preparing ground for Corn and that reports from all districts indicated that the bulk of the crop would be planted earlier than in recent seasons. London quoted cargoes on passage firmer with better demand for La Plata Southwestern markets were firm. Western receipts 290,000 bu against 510,000 bu in 1903 and shipments 724,000 bu and 5,6,000 bu respectively Exports 4,000 bu, against 157,000 bu last year, and 3 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Cash sales here were 50,000 bu. Car lots were in good demand and prices strong No 2 closed about 49c, and No. 2 Yellow at 52c No 3 closed at 48½c No. 3 Yellow sold at 51¾c, and closed at 51½c No Grade sold at 43c for yellow.

Corn by sample—Offerings were small and demand fair. Prices were unchanged to ½c higher. Sales on track and free on board No Grade sold at 32@43c. No. 4 at 47@48c. No 3 at 48½@48¾c No. 3 Yellow at 52c. No 2 Yellow at 52½@53c No. 3 White at 49¾@50c No. 2 White at 51½c Ears at 52c Billed through: No Grade at 34½@44c. No 4 at 48½@49½c. No 3 at 48¾@50c. No 3 Yellow at 50½@51c No. 3 White at 48@48¾c

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Moderately active and a little unsettled, closing with ⅛c to ⅜@½c advance

MAY—Sold at 46⅞@47⅜c Opened at 47c, sold at 46⅞c, to 47⅛c, to 46⅞c, to 47⅜c; closed at 47⅜c bid

JULY—Sold at 48⅛c and 48¾@48⅞c. Opened at 48⅜c to 48½c, and sold at 48¼c to 48¾c, to 48½c, to 48¼@48⅜c, to 48¾c, to 48¼c, to 48¼@48⅞c, to 48¾c, and closed at 48¾c asked

SEPTEMBER Sold at 47⅞@48c and 48⅜@48½c. Opened at 48c to 48@48⅛c, and sold at 47⅞@48c. to 48c, to 48¼c, to 47⅞@48c, to 48⅜@48½c, and closed at 48⅜@48½c

DECEMBER—Sold at 43¾c and 43⅞c, and closed at 43⅞c bid.

OATS Developed independent strength and advanced ⅜@⅞c, and closed at almost the top for July and September, and ⅜c higher for May. There was good buying of May by shipping houses and of July and September by "shorts" and for investment. Trading was broader. Weather and crop reports were favorable, but their effect was outweighed by small receipts—36 cars, and 70 cars are expected to-morrow. Withdrawals were 87 500 bu. Deliveries on May sales were 15,000 bu. Cash sales 75,000 bu. Seaboard clearances 10,000 bu. Standard in store closed about 41¼@41⅜c as to location

Oats by sample were steady to ½c higher, with offerings small and a good demand Sales on track and free on board No Grade at 38c No. 4 at 34@35c. No. 4 White at 36@41c. No. 4 at 39¼@39½c. No. 3 White at 40½@41c Standard at 44c No 2 at 40½c Billed through No 4 at 41c. No. 4 White at 41½@41¾c. No. 3 at 43c. No. 3 White at 43@43¼c No. 2 at 39¾c. At the river: No. 4 White at 35½@41c No. 3 White at 41@42c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were active and higher.

JULY—Active. Sold at 38⅛@39c. Opened at 38⅝c, sold to 38¾c, to 39c, to 38⅞c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Active and stronger. Sold at 30⅝@31¼c. Opened at 30⅝c, sold to 31¼c, to 31c, to 31@31⅛c at close.

DECEMBER Offered at ½c over September. No trades.

RYE—Very quiet and feeling easy. Nothing doing either in cash or futures and prices entirely nominal Demand light and buyers indifferent and holders not forcing sales. There were no receipts and three cars were withdrawn from private warehouse. No export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 round lots in store nominally 71@73c, and car lots fresh arrivals free on board quotably about the same. No. 3 fresh receipts nominally 62@69c

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye Quiet and easier. May 71c bid and 73c asked. July 65c bid and 66½c asked No trading

BARLEY There were a couple of cars of Screenings on sale, but of spot Barley there was very little offered. Malting grades were salable. Good Barley of this class brought perhaps a little better prices than were obtained last week for the same goods. There is still some malting demand. At former prices Barley would sell well. Inquiry at the same time is tame, and buyers feel that after seeding is over more Barley will come forward—enough to meet requirements Some to-arrive lots were sold, but at what prices could not in all cases be learned Low grades, if not too poor, were salable to mixers and steady Only 3 cars were inspected in, 630 bu out Sales of Screenings were made at 34@37c and market quotable at 27@37c for poor to choice Barley—low grade feed or mixing nominally 35@38c, outside good weight Malting, low grade, 40@42c, fair to good, sound, 45@48c; good color, 50@56c, and fancy 58c.

SEEDS—Spot Timothy was quotably firm, by some it was called higher. The nominal quotation for Northwestern cash Flax also was slightly improved The entire market, however, failed to present any important changes. All lines again very quiet. Offerings as a rule very limited.

Timothy—Was again very quiet. A couple of cars of cash Seed that were offered were sold, but at what figures could not be learned Aside from this the offerings comprised a few small lots ranging from fairly good to poor Seed and selling at $2 00@2 65. The market for cash Timothy, especially the better grades, was called firm and a shade higher. Some called it 5@10c higher, but on the basis of sales reported there was nothing to change quotations materially. Country lots were given a range of $2 00@3 00 for low-grade to fancy choice about $2 80@2 90, fair to good Seed $2 60@2 75, and rough at $2 00@2 50. Contract grade, spot or May delivery, nominally $2 90, the late quotation September was offered at $3 22½, and at one time $3 15 was said to have been bid

Flax—No. 1 Northwestern was quoted as nominally ½c better and that was the only change noted. Nothing in the way of transactions occurred, the market continuing entirely lifeless, being devoid of offerings. Little Flax now moving. Only 1 car or 850 bu received here and none taken out Minneapolis got 1 car and Duluth reported 5 cars No. 1 Northwestern was quoted at $1 09½. No. 1 quotable at $1 01½, and Rejected at 97c@$1 01, outside for choice Northwestern. May delivery quoted at $1 01½. July at $1 01½ sellers and for September at $1 07 was asked

Clover—To-day there were no offerings The market in consequence was inactive. No change could be learned of. Contract spot Seed was nominally $10 75. CONDITION OF WINTER WHEAT AND RYE.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Returns to the chief of the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Agriculture made up to May 1 show the area of Winter Wheat in cultivation on that date to have been about 27,083,500 acres.

This is 4,942,100 acres less than the area sown last fall and 5,477,000 acres less than the area harvested. Winter Wheat harvested last year. Of this abandonment, Indiana reports 904,000 acres; Kansas, 718,000 acres; Ohio, 475,000 acres; California (mainly Sacramento Valley), 400,000 acres; Missouri, Oklahoma, 353,000 acres; Texas, 290,000 acres; Illinois, 220,000 acres; Michigan, 350,000 acres; Nebraska, 218,000 acres, and Pennsylvania, Kentucky and Missouri each between 200,000 and 300,000 acres. It is a noteworthy fact that the whole of the thirty-one States having more or less Winter Wheat under cultivation report some abandonment of acreage.

For the 27,083,500 acres remaining under cultivation the average condition on May 1 was 78.8, which is identical with that reported on April 1 for the entire acreage sown. The general condition averages reported on May 1, 1903, and May 1, 1902, were respectively 92.6 and 76.4, the mean of the May averages of the last seven years being 85.2.

The following table shows for the principal Winter Wheat States the percentage of the acreage sown last fall that is reported as remaining unabandoned and also the averages of condition on May 1, 1904 as follows:

States	Abandonment.	Condition.	States	Abandonment.	Condition.
Kansas	12.5	82.0	Pennsylvania	7.5	72.0
Missouri	11.0	81.0	Oklahoma	15.0	65.0
California	16.2	89.0	Tex	20.4	68.0
Indiana	39.9	87.0	Tennessee	9.8	81.0
Nebraska	15.2	82.0	Virginia	8.0	87.0
Ohio	24.5	83.0	Kentucky	23.0	69.0
Illinois	14.7	78.0	U S	16.5	78.8

The average condition of Winter Rye on May 1 was 81.2, as compared with 82.3 on April 1, 1904, 92.3 on May 1, 1903, 83.4 at the corresponding date in 1902, and 89.5 the mean of the May averages of the last ten years.

The average condition of mowing lands on May 1 was 85, against 92.8 on May 1, 1903, 86.6 at the corresponding date in 1902, and 90.7 the mean of the May averages of the last ten years.

Of the total acreage of spring plowing contemplated, 57.3 per cent is reported as actually done up to May 1, as compared with 57.9 per cent at the corresponding date last year and a ten-year average on May 1 of 70.3

GRAIN SAMPLING AND SEED INSPECTION.

[From the Chicago Inter Ocean.]

By unanimous vote, Tuesday, the Chicago Board of Trade directors decided to establish the Department of Grain Sampling and Seed Inspection. It has been under consideration for about two months. It will bring the sampling of grain under one official head, controlled by the Board of Trade, and managed by the Grain Committee, composed of five members. The Flax Seed inspection and registration department will be retained as at present, but provision is made for the use of employees of the Flax Seed department for Grain sampling and Seed Inspection in connection with their present duties. The Secretary of the Board is authorized to notify the present official samplers not to issue certificates as board of trade samplers after May 31, but no other official samplers will be appointed.

Five members, who are to direct the sampling, are to be appointed by the Board of Trade. The chief of the sampling department will also be appointed by the directors and will be required to furnish a bond for the faithful fulfillment of duties. He can employ samplers as assistants as needed, who are to be approved by the committee. The latter has to fix standards for approval of the Board of Trade Directors. Reports of all receipts and expenses are to be made monthly, and subject to approval by the committee. Charges as to uniform to all members of the Board, and shall not be changed without official notice being posted on the Board. Provision, however, is made for longer rates in special cases.

Nothing in the regulations shall prevent a buyer or seller or his representative from personally examining any car or cargo of Grain bought or sold under the rules of the Board, but under no circumstances can a Board of Trade certificate be given by the party making the examination. Any un official report or his employer inspecting a car or cargo of Grain shall have the equal right of appeal to the Grain Committee, unless the Grain has been loaded under supervision of the official sampler. Fees are to be charged for Wheat, Corn and Oats will be 3½c a car load and 25c per 1,000 bu loaded into vessels.

THE HOP SITUATION.

[New York Produeers' Price Current, May 7.]

There has not been a particle of improvement in the demand for Hops, neither dealers nor brewers showing any interest and the market remains in the same dull, inactive condition that has been reported for months past. Occasional lots have cropped up on the Pacific Coast and sold at comparatively full prices, principally for export. Holders of fine grades of Hops fully retain their confidence and are simply patiently awaiting warm weather, when they claim the increased consumption of Beer will compel brewers to replenish their stock of Hops, as many have run down very low. In the absence of important business prices are little more than nominal, but nothing to warrant any actual change. In this State weather conditions are favorable. Growers report some roots having wintered poorly, more especially the old yards, but the new yards are showing nicely. On the Pacific Coast all conditions are favorable.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

There is a light rain at Williston and a light rain at Bismarck and rains in the extreme Northwest of Manitoba. With these exceptions there is no rain except around the lakes. It is clear Southwest over the Corn Belt. Temperatures higher West and Southwest. About the same in Northwest

Indications are for showers in Missouri and Mississippi Valley.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The North Pennsylvania Railroad Company has declared a dividend of 2 per cent.

It is said that the Postal Telegraph will succeed Western Union on Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg May 1 and on Erie lines Dec 1

The Deutsche Bank of Berlin Monday, decided to issue 150,000,000 new capital and absorb Berliner Bank, whose capital is $10,000,000 After the increase the Deutsche Bank's capital will be $45,000,000

The $1,000,000 of 3½ per cent bonds which the Michigan Central has listed on the New York Stock Exchange will be used for making improvements on the main line of the Michigan Central and Canada Southern

Odessa reports under date of April 23: "The weather the last week has been on the whole rather favorable to crops. As a matter of fact in the district immediately round Odessa the outlook is very fair, but of course the district itself is not an important one, and in other districts much more important the outlook is poor."

The Kansas City Star says: "So independent of America is Europe that Wheat in Liverpool is actually worth less than it is in Kansas City, and the little quota of Wheat and Flour now going out is of no consequence whatever to the foreigner. Wheat in Liverpool, Tuesday, was the same as a year ago, when Kansas was producing 100,000,000 bu."

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the General Electric Company held in Schenectady, N Y., Tuesday, the old board of directors was re-elected. Following the annual meeting a special session was held and the proposition to increase the capital stock by the amount of $3,325,500 was adopted The present capital stock is $45,000,001. The $3,325,500 increase will be issued to J P Morgan & Co for the underwriters $5 8-0,000 in commissions for converting $150,000.00 of bonds and $20,000,000 of bonds taken as par, having its early receipt by conversion $13 3-0,000. It thus paid out to Morgan & Co., as managers, over 58c for every dollar of cash received.

The Department of Land Records and Agriculture, Bengal estimates the condition of rabi crops of summer Rice, Barley, Gram, Pulse, Buckwheat, etc., for that province at 90 per cent of the normal outturn, and the area at 9,241,000 acres, against 9,241,600 acres last year, and an approximate normal area of 10,0 0,000 acres. The crops are harvested from February to April.

The Government report says: "The reports respecting Fruit are somewhat more encouraging, and indicate that in many sections injury from frost has been less serious than was anticipated during the period immediately succeeding the Ohio Valley and Middle Atlantic States. In the Eastern Gulf States the outlook for Peaches is very promising, especially in Georgia."

Arrangements are said to have been perfected by the officials of Crucible Steel for issuing to creditors of Crucible Steel notes aggregating $6,000,000 for debts contracted prior to the receivership. It is said that the notes will be for six and twelve months and that they will bear no interest. It is believed that the plan will be ratified and accepted to the creditors. It is also reported that some obligations contracted during the receivership of the Clarion company will be assumed by the Crucible, but the amounts involved are small.

A Boston dispatch says: "Unusual quietness prevails in the Wool market. Some dealers say that the situation is not only unreasonable, but has from the manufacturers' standpoint always not been so bad for years. Not only have the mills not had the usual volume of orders, but much dissatisfaction is reported with the quality of the goods turned out by the mills during the recitation. Territory Wools are dull and weak Pulled Wools are steady, with medium grades scarce. There is a firm tone to foreign Wools"

An Ottawa, Canada, dispatch says: "Canadian capitalists waited on Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Tuesday, and asked that the Government guarantee bonds to the extent of $6,000,000 on a railway from Gaspe Basin, on the south shore of the lower St Lawrence Bay, to connect the Great Lakes and the Atlantic. They also asked the Government to guarantee the bonds for a bridge over the St. Lawrence at Montreal to the extent of $2,000,000. The new enterprise is to be called the Central Trunk Railway and will take the place of the old Atlantic and Lake Superior should it be incorporated."

The following were the transactions in Stocks on the New York Stock Exchange for April, 1903, and since Jan. 1, 1904, as compared with same periods for the past five years, and 1895:

Year—	For April.	For 4 months.
1904	8,018,733	30,910,929
1903	12,113,200	45,307,430
1902	35,57,,410	66,248,644
1901	41,484,893	120,779,565
1900	14,648,111	44,96,,779
1899	5,004,753	16,380,957

Pennsylvania leads the entire list in activity. 2,332,664 shares having been traded in since Jan. 1, 1901

An official announcement has been made that the Pennsylvania Coal and Coke Company has purchased all the coal properties of the Pittsburg and the Beech Creek Coal and Coke Company. Through this acquisition the Pennsylvania company now controls more than 117,000 acres of Coal and surface lands, chiefly in Indiana Co., Pa., and Jefferson and Indiana counties, containing, it is estimated, more than 1 000 00,000 tons of Coal Upon these lands are located forty-four operating collieries, with a daily shipping capacity of 25,000 tons. The company owns also about 2 000 coke ovens, with a daily capacity of 2,000 tons

Dornbusch's Iron Trade Peath correspondent writing under date of April 23says of Flour: "The railway strike this week seriously affected the business in the Flour market, which has been brought to a standstill. Scores of mills have been brought in, ers have been compelled to restrict their output by reducing the working time two days during the week Whether this partial stoppage will continue, or not, depends on the steps to be taken by millers, will depend upon the outcome of the now threatened strike of laborers. In the meantime the situation can only be described as stagnant, with practically no business passing."

A New York dispatch says, "Bankers who sent application, Monday, to Kuhn, Loeb & Co. for a participation in the Japanese bonds were told that there were none left. Only $2,000,000 remained to come too late The bonds were reported as selling at a premium of 3 per cent in London over the issue price of 90. Applications were received that 2½ per cent was bid in this market. As the subscription price is at the rate of a return of 7 per cent per annum, it would not be a surprise to see the subscription books closed within a few days, as at the same time there were indications that much of the apparent organic demand was the result of bankers' manipulation."

The president of the American Ship Building Company says that when the new steamer Missouri is completed at South Chicago the plant at that yard will be closed for the next pair work. Other plants on the lakes will follow in rotation as they complete the contracts on hand. No more new work of importance is expected until after the Presidential election. He does not take a pessimistic view of the situation in shipbuilding on the lakes. He says the present conditions were discounted and that the company is well prepared to meet them There will be no reduction of work later. He declares that he firmly believes that the era of big ship construction has just commenced.

Through the disruption of the Bessemer Lake Ore Association and the consequent curtailment of Iron ore production," a prominent iron man said recently, "the United States may lose temporarily its position as the largest ore producer in the world. Should the lake output be limited to 35,000,000 tons or less, as now seems likely, the Southern output to 3,500 000 tons, making a total of 38,500,000 tons Germany will undoubtedly pass the United States and take first place among ore producers. A short ore season and a small production of lake ores are certainties in this country, regardless of the demand The lake season this year will be less than five months, under the most favorable circumstances."

The Committee on Securities of the New York Stock Exchange, having been officially advised that the transfer books of the West Chicago Street Railroad Company will close May 6 and reopen May 17, to determine what stockholders are entitled on May 16 to distribute on on shares of rental for the current quarter, if any may have been earned, under the lease to the Chicago Union Traction Company, has ruled that all transactions made in the stock of the West Chicago Street Railroad Company on May 6 to 16, inclusive, will be "dividend on" All certificates delivered on the sale made on May 6 to be accompanied by a due bill for such dividend as may be paid on May 16, except those delivered on May 6, for "cash."

An official of the Diamond Match Company says that a 10 per cent increase in gross sales for the first quarter of the fiscal year ended March 31 does not appear consistent with reports to the effect that competition has materially affected the company's business. It is said that the Union Match Company of Duluth, which recently defeated the trust in the infringement litigation, while the chief competitor of the Diamond company, is getting no more than its share of the business, and that the number of competitors outside that concern has been reduced very materially during the past fifteen months. It is humiliating more than anything else is said to be responsible for discouraging capital to enter the Match manufacturing field

Junius Beebe of L. Beebe & Sons of Boston says of the report that his bus ness will be absorbed by the American Hide and Leather Company and that he will assume the management: "The management of the American Hide and Leather Company has never been offered to me. The probable basis for the report is that one or two of the directors of that company have been in Boston in relation with us, with a view of my becoming interested and possibly turning over a portion of our business to their company. No decision has been reached in the matter, however. It is revised, the business of Lucius Beebe & Sons would not be merged with the American Hide and Leather Company, as the greater part of our business is in a field of leather which the American company does not handle."

The managers of the railroads in all sections are now frankly admitting that the traffic of the country has received a setback not merely temporary in its nature, but which will depend very largely for its end upon the condition of the crops a month or six weeks from now. The trunk lines, perhaps, feel the depression more than any other group of railroads, as they are nearer the great producing sections of manufactured goods in the Middle West and in central territory the steel line is very much affected. Missouri Pacific and Wabash show perhaps the most needless decrease in current business and there is very little sign of a quick revival in the country as far as the roads know. The central roads, a little further north. Alton, for instance, are keeping up their business better than the roads south of the Missouri.

The surplus in the United States Treasury, which was $84,000,000 at the beginning of this fiscal year, disappeared, Saturday, and from now until the end of the fiscal year, a deficit will be growing in the place. A year ago such a condition of the surplus of the Treasury calculated that there would be a surplus of about $14,000,000 by the end of next month. When making that estimate, however, he had no knowledge of the appropriation for the loan of about $5,000,000 to the St Louis Exposition, $3,000,000 of which has already been paid out. Nor could he tell that the Panama Canal payments would occur at this time. Besides these items for expenditures, the payments on civil and miscellaneous acc unts have this year exceeded those of last year by over $10,000,000, for the navy $12,000,000, and for pensions by $10,000,000. The receipts and interest payments have been less this year than last. The receipts from customs have fallen off this year by $7,000,000 and the receipts internal revenue have increased only $4,000,000, and from miscellaneous sources the increase has been about $4,000,000.

Orders have gone out from the headquarters of each of the big railroad systems to curtail expenses. The gradual falling off in freight traffic since April 1 has prompted railroad directors in every part of the country to begin a rigorous economy in maintenance and operating departments. Traffic managers expected a moderate shrinkage in the volume of freight shipments during this spring but the falling off has already been very much heavier than was looked for, and reductions in dividends are threatened unless expenses of railway operation can be reduced in proportion to the loss of traffic. Wanderlust, which have taken the lead in cutting down expenses. President Newman has ordered a thorough "weeding out" in the mechanical and clerical departments Between 1,000 and 1,500 employes are to be discharged next month by the New York Central, and there will be 750 on the Lake Shore lines The economies on the Pennsylvania lines both east and west of Pittsburg will result in the dismissal of not less than 5,000 men. "Conditions are growing worse instead of better," said a railroad official, "and it is now up to us to reduce our force expenses by considerably more than $10,000,000 if they expect to avoid trouble when the next dividend quarter comes around."

The Consolidated Lake Superior Mollly reorganization committee, in a circular, has declared the reorganization plan of October 10, 1903, operative by three modifications: The Canadian Improvement Company reposes its underwriters under the old plan, representing the unassented stock of the Consolidated Lake Superior Company. The Improvement Company proposes to underwriters to sell, on or before May 17 The chairer of the Lake Superior Company, providing the Consolidated Lake Superior Company provides for a capitalization of $40,000,000 in stock of one class only, par value $10. This stock will be disposed of as follows: $14,000,000 to be issuable for the $ 50,000 of preferred stock of the old company at the rate of two shares for one; $18,000,000, exchangeable for the $72,000,000 of the common stock of the old company at the rate of two shares for one of the new, $4,142,000 as a bonus with the first mortgage bonds and $4,857,100 to the underwriters who have undertaken the reorganization. The assets of the new company will consist of all the property of the old company and its subsidiary companies, a cash working capital of $1,000,000, and a large quantity of raw material and partially worked material on hand.

It has been an open secret for some time that larger negotiations were in progress between officers of the National Lead Company and officers of the United Lead Company, the latter being controlled by the American Smelting Company. At times the differences of opinion as to the method of bringing such consolidation about have been very wide, and the prospects that such a merger would ever be carried out have been at times rather discouraging. During the past few weeks, however, developments in connection with this matter have taken such a turn as to give more encouragement that such a consolidation will be effected, although it is admitted that there are many details to be worked out which will require an indefinite time. An official of the United Lead Company says: "The outlook for consolidating the two companies is much brighter than it has been at any time. Of course, it is possible for obstacles to arise in trying to bring about a merger of this kind, but both sides seem to be more disposed to yield on certain points than they have been before. There is too soon to say anything definite as to the plan by which such a merger might be effected. Officials of the American Smelting Company and the National Lead Company admit that the United Lead concerns would benefit the National, the United Lead, and the American Smelting Company. The National Lead and the United Lead are engaged in manufacturing almost identical products, the former doing about 60 per cent of the white Lead business, while the latter does the bulk of the business in Lead pipe and sheets. The American Smelting Company is the largest raw material in the form of pig Lead to both companies. Such a consolidation would result in assuring the National Lead and the United Lead Company their raw materials, while it would also give the American Smelting Company a constant outlet for its pig Lead production The National Lead Company has a capital of $25,000,000, half preferred and half common. The United Lead Company has a capital of $27 000,000, of which $12,000 00 is bonds and $15,000,000 stock. American Smelting and Refining has a capital of $45,000,000, half preferred and half common. The three companies have a capitalization of $127,0 0,000.

AVAILABLE STOCKS OF BREADSTUFFS.

On the reverse page of this issue of the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN will be found an interesting statement of the Breadstuffs supply in Europe, America and Argentina on May 1. It is very complete. It includes the European and Argentina stocks as collected by Broomhall's Corn Trade News, Liverpool, a portion of the visible supply as compiled by the Secretary of the Chicago Board of Trade, the stocks in the Northwest collected by the Minneapolis Daily Market Record, returns from about forty points (including Denver and Pittsburg) estimated, with the balance of the report collected and compiled by the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN.

THE FLOUR PRODUCTION.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

New York Exchange 25c premium.

Documentary Sterling steady at 484⅜.

Chicago Bank Clearings to day, $28,994,565.

A New York Stock Exchange seat sold at $80,500.

Estimated receipts of Hogs for to-morrow 16,000.

Elevator B at Fort William burned last night. It contained about 750,000 bu Wheat.

Deliveries on May contracts to day were 5,000 bu Wheat, 5,000 bu Corn and 35,000 bu Oats.

Erie Road's net earnings for quarter ending March 31 were $1,244,121; decrease, $2,179,009.

Reported that 40,000 bu Wheat and 16,000 bu Corn were taken at the seaboard to-day for export.

Ten packers purchased 12,000 Hogs to-day; shippers, 4,000, left over, 3,000. Market closed strong.

Stocks of Hog Products at Chicago estimated at 51,500 brls Mess Pork, 79,750 tcs Lard, and 21,000,000 lbs Short Rib Sides.

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Wednesday, was $4 75, against $4 82 Tuesday, $4 72 a week ago, $5 09 a month ago and $6 54 a year ago.

Cotton in New York was weakened by a break in Liverpool and by light speculation. Prices receded and closed at a loss of 9@16 points.

A London cable says the Japanese loan has already been very largely oversubscribed there. The banks handling it were crowded this morning.

Minneapolis wired: "Wheat seeding stopped by rain in North Dakota. There has been about 75 per cent seeded and 30 per cent seeded in the Red River Valley."

Advices from Manitoba indicate that seeding of Wheat has been delayed by rains. Area seeded about 70 per cent of last year's. Total area will probably not exceed that of 1903.

Minneapolis wired, Wednesday: "Wheat seeding, if the weather continues favorable, will be practically completed this week, except about five counties in the Red River Valley."

The visible supply of Wheat in South Australia and Victoria on May 1 amounted to 4,832,000 bu, compared with 6,181,000 bu a month ago, 2,132,000 bu at this time in 1902, and 4,776,000 bu in 1901.

Local Securities remain slow, with a stronger tone. Biscuit, Box Board and Quaker Oats preferred all showed advances. The weakness was in Radiator preferred and in Pneumatic Tool.

Only about forty car loads of Lambs remain on feed in Northern Colorado. The bulk of them will be marketed this week, which will close the Colorado Lamb season fully a month earlier than usual.

Gold exports from New York to Europe to-day broke all records, $9,000,000. It is cheaper to ship the Gold than handle the Exchange. It is expected that $3,500,000 will be shipped by Saturday's steamers.

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool: "Wheat declines were reflected at Liverpool to extent of ¼d, following which all months steadied under development of delayed seeding and talk of smaller area in the Northwest. Corn gained 1d, induced by strength of spot."

The Northwestern Miller says: "Latest news from Kansas and Missouri is of seasonable weather and good prospects for abundant Wheat crops. Conditions seem to be improved in the Ohio Valley, though reports from there continue to be pessimistic in tone."

Reserve of the Bank of England decreased $1,445,000 and Bullion decreased $2,223,170. Proportion of the bank reserve to liability is now 48.72 per cent, against 47.65 per cent last week and compares with a decline from 52 13-16 per cent to 37⅝ per cent for the same week one year ago.

Kansas City wired, Wednesday: "Elevator people and shippers here ridicule the Government figures showing 12½ per cent of the Kansas Wheat being plowed up. Reports from elevator traveling men show not more than 2 per cent, and this largely in extreme western portion."

The Cincinnati Price Current in its weekly crop summary says: "Winter Wheat growth is showing improving tendencies, but abnormal loss in the Ohio Valley by early injuries continues to be reflected. Oats growing favorably. Good progress in plowing and Corn planting. Unusually large acreage likely."

The Cincinnati Price Current reports the packing of the West for the week at 435,000 Hogs, compared with 465,000 for the week previous and 420,000 for the corresponding week in 1903. Aggregate packing since March 1 reported at 3,950,000 Hogs, compared with 3,610,000 for the corresponding time last year—an increase of 340,000 Hogs.

Stocks in New York averaged lower under "bear" pressure. A good deal of Steel Stock was forced out, and common broke ¼ and preferred 1¾. It is said that poor business will force a reduction in the dividend on preferred. Western Railway shares declined ⅝ to 1⅜ points. Consolidated Gas advanced 6. Money 1¾ to 2 per cent.

All the railroads from the East to Chicago will grant stop-over privileges at Chicago on tickets sold to St. Louis during the fair. An agreement to this effect was made, Wednesday, at the monthly meeting of the Central Passenger Association. Commissioner Donald was made chairman of a special committee to confer with a committee of the Western Passenger Association and make the necessary arrangements for stop-overs at Chicago on St. Louis fair tickets.

An Odessa letter says: "Wheat market, notwithstanding dullness of consuming countries, is firm owing to scarcity of stocks up country at ports and in view of discouraging crop reports. The great enemy of South Russia is drouth in the spring, with strong winds, and frosts at night. A good rain now and the crop might still be saved, but with delay a crop failure will be nearly certain. By continued drouth, Spring Wheat and Barley would be affected. Corn planting has not started yet; ground hard as a stone."

Minnesota State crop bulletin said for week ending May 9: "In Red River Valley the past week soil dried rapidly and Wheat seeding went on well till the 5th, but there is more seeding done on higher lands east of Valley than in Valley itself. South of the Red River Valley all the Wheat and Oats are seeded, and Barley and Flax seeding well advanced. Early seeded Wheat and Oats are up and in general they look to be in good condition. Warm showers of the 5th and 6th stimulated germination and started a rapid growth of vegetation."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—This market continues in a dull, listless state and sales show no increase. Prices steady.

WINTER WHEAT—Met with a fair milling demand and market steady. No demand for large quantities—only small parcels inquired for. Sales of 15,000 bu of No. 2 Hard besides car lots, were made. No. 2 Red in store was quotably $1 04@1 06, and fresh arrivals entirely nominal at $1 05@1 08. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals entirely nominal and quotably $1 00@1 06. No. 2 Hard free on board taken from store sold ½c over May, and fresh arrivals at 92c. No. 3 Hard fresh arrivals free on board quotably 81c for poor, to 89@91½c for good to choice.

SPRING WHEAT—The market was steady. A fair milling demand existed, but only for small quantities. No. 1 Northern in store quotably May price to ½c over and ranged at 91@91½c, and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 94@96c. No. 2 Northern fresh receipts free on board quotably 90@95c. No. 3 Spring fresh arrivals quotably 85@94c for poor to choice. No. 4 Spring sold at 68@85c for ordinary to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—The trade was again comparatively moderate and while the early tone was firm, a weaker feeling developed later, the close showing May unchanged, while July off ¾c, and September ⅝c. The fire at Fort William, rains in the Canadian Northwest, small receipts, and bulge in Corn, were among the "bull" factors early in the session. "Shorts" were about the best buyers there being only moderate commission house purchases. Liverpool quoted spot steady and futures ⅛d lower. London came ⅛@⅜d lower, and quoted cargoes on passage firm. Map showed general rains in the Canadian Northwest, also in North Dakota, light showers in Oklahoma with temperatures a little lower everywhere. Showers were generally predicted, but fair weather for the Dakotas. Minneapolis reported liberal Flour sales with 273 cars being loaded out. Another message read: "Seeding stopped by rain in North Dakota, there has been 75 per cent seeded and 30 per cent seeded in the Red River Valley." Minnesota State report was construed as "bearish." Duluth reported seeding practically all done except in the low lands of the Red River Valley. Late advices stated there was only 250,000 bu Wheat destroyed in Fort William elevator fire. Price Current stated that Winter Wheat growth was showing improvement, but abnormal loss in Ohio Valley by early injuries continues to be reflected. Odessa advices were "bullish" on the outlook for Spring Wheat in Russia. Another letter claimed the exportable surplus was still large. Favorable crop news from the Southwest was one of the "bear" influences, as also the lack of outside trade. Primary receipts were 182,000 bu under last year, those in the Northwest being just half. Kansas City and St. Louis received 31,000 bu; last year, 64,000 bu: shipments, 112,000 bu. Exports small and only 5 loads at seaboard. Minneapolis stocks reported decreased 500,000 bu so far this week. Stop loss selling a feature on late decline. Receipts at Duluth 23 cars and at Minneapolis 33 cars, a total of 56 cars, against 62 cars yesterday, 86 cars a week ago, and 112 cars last year. Local receipts included 10 cars Winter, 4 cars Spring, none mixed, a total of 14 cars, against 35 cars last year. Included in the above was none of contract grade. There was also 5 cars and no bu from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow were not reported. Withdrawals were 15,250 bu. Receipts at Western points were 131,279 bu, against 315,903 bu last year; at Eastern points 75,323 bu, against 355,707 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 198,108 bu, against 200,263 bu last year, and from Eastern points 6,289 bu, against 216,418 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 14,040 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 69,469 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Moderate trade and feeling weaker.

MAY—Sold at 91@92c. Opened at 91⅞c; sold to 92c, to 91¾c, to 92c, to 91c, to 91½c, and closed at 91½c.

JULY—New Style—Sold at 84½@84⅝c and at 85¾@85⅞c. Opened with sales at 85⅝@85½c to 85½@85⅝c, sold to 85¾@85⅞c, to 85¼c, to 85⅝c, to 85⅝c, to 85¼c, to 85⅜c, to 85½c, to 84¾c, to 85c, to 84½@84⅝c, to 84⅞c and closed at 84¾@84⅞c.

SEPTEMBER—Old Style—Sold at 80⅞@81⅝c. Opened with sales at 81⅝c to 81½c; sold to 81⅝c, to 81c, to 81⅛c, to 80⅞c, and closed at 80⅞c bid.

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 79⅝@80½c. Opened with sales at 80⅜c to 80¼@80⅜; sold to 80½c, to 80⅛c, to 80½c, to 79⅝c, to 79¾c, to 79⅝c, and closed at 79⅝c bid.

DECEMBER—Sold at 79¼@80c; ruled ½c under May.

CORN—There was a good trade early and continuance of the "bullish" sentiment developed yesterday, but a reaction followed. The close showed May ½c higher, while July gained ⅛@¼c and September steady. The feature the first half of the session was the general covering by "shorts," led by Provision interests, and the advance was helped along by the purchases by brokers supposed to be acting for a prominent elevator concern. Receipts were small, only 71 cars with 2 cars contract, and showers were quite generally predicted over the greater part of the Corn belt. Cables, too, were firm, Liverpool quoting spot steady to ½d higher and futures ¼d better. London reported cargoes on ocean passage firm and held 1½d higher. St. Louis and Kansas City were quite strong. On the advance there was scattered realizing by local "longs," causing the reaction. The Price Current, however, reported good progress in plowing and Corn planting and an unusually large acreage likely. The vote of the masters and pilots yesterday will probably result in a tie-up of navigation on the great lakes for some time and was one of the "bear" features. Western receipts were only 219,000 bu, against 344,000 bu a year ago. Shipments 308,000 bu and 275,000 bu respectively. There was withdrawn from store 118,175 bu, but exports were only 4,000 bu, against 210,000 bu same date in 1903. Switched private to public elevators 31 cars contract. Local arrivals 95,000 bu and shipments 147,000 bu. Cash sales were 15,000 bu and 2 boat loads taken at the seaboard. Charters were made to-day for 180,000 bu at 2¼c to Buffalo. Car lots were in good demand and rather scarce. Prices were about ½c higher. Sales entirely by sample. No. 2 closed at 49¾@50c and No. 2 Yellow at 52½@53c. No. 3 closed about 49½c and No. 3 Yellow at 52c. No Grade that was yellow sold at 45c.

Corn by sample—Was in good demand and offerings light. Feeling stronger and prices ½@1c higher. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 34@40c. No. 4 at 42@49c. No. 3 at 49@50½c. No. 3 Yellow at 52½@53c. No. 2 Yellow at 55c. No. 3 White at 50½c. Billed through: No Grade at 35@43c. No. 4 at 45@50c. No. 3 at 49c. No. 3 Yellow at 51½c. No. 2 White at 51c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Fairly active and stronger and closed unchanged to ¼c higher.

MAY—Sold at 47⅝@48¼c. Opened at 47⅝c, sold to 48¼c, to 47⅞c, and closed at 47⅞c asked.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 48⅜@49c. Opened at 48⅜@48½c to 48½c; sold to 48⅝c, to 48⅝c, to 49c, to 48⅝c, to 48½c, to 48⅜@48½c, and closed at 48⅜@48½c.

DECEMBER—Sold at 44@44¼c. Opened at 44⅛c, sold to 44¼c to 44⅛c, to 44¼c, to 44c; closed at 44c.

OATS—Were actively traded in and advanced ¼@⅜c, May leading. At the close prices were ¼@½c higher on near futures and steady on September. The advance in Corn, small receipts, 62 cars, and lack of important selling had strengthening influence. Cash sales were 55,000 bu. Withdrawals 48,050 bu and 16 cars. Seaboard clearances were 8,400 bu. Car lots to go to store were stronger and ½c higher. Standard in store closed about 41⅞@42⅛c.

Oats by sample were in better request, with the offerings small. Sales were at the same prices as yesterday's close to ½c higher. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 at 35@38c. No. 4 White at 38½@43¾c. No. 3 at 39¾c. No. 3 White at 42@44½c. Standard at 43¾@44½c. No. 2 at 40½c. Billed through: No. 4 at 41c. No. 4 White at 40½@42c. No. 3 White at 43¼@43½c. Standard at 43½c. No. 2 at 40c. At the river: No. 4 White at 36@41½c. No. 3 White at 41¼@41¾c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were active and higher.

MAY—Stronger. Sold at 41¼@41¾c. Opened at 41½c, sold to 41¼c, to 41⅝c, to 41⅝c at close.

JULY—Active. Sold at 38¾c and at 39⅛@39¼c. Opened at 38⅞c to 39c, sold to 39⅛@39¼c, to 38¾c to 39c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 30⅞@31c and 31¼c. Opened at 31c to 31⅛c, sold to 31¼c, to 30⅞@31c, to 31c at close.

RYE—The market was quiet and entirely nominal. Not a trade either in cash or futures reported. Only one car received. No withdrawals from store here and no export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store entirely nominal at about 72c and some demand for fresh arrivals, but none offered and no reliable quotation can be obtained. No. 3 fresh receipts nominally 62@70c for poor to choice.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet. May 72c bid and July 67c bid. August 65c sellers.

BARLEY—There was a little more business done, but on the whole the market was very quiet. Demand was good for to arrive lots but there was none offered. Values ruled unchanged and the feeling was firm. To-day's postings showed 8 cars inspected in. Screenings were quotable at 27@47c for poor to choice. Barley—low grade feed or mixing nominally 35@38c outside good weight. Malting, low grade, 40@42c, fair to good sound, 45@48c; good color, 50@53c and fancy 55c.

SEEDS—Contract Timothy was nominally 10c higher. Flax was unchanged and dull. Clover and Other Seeds were nominally unchanged.

Timothy—The market was very quiet. There was some cash Seed on the market which was not sold up to the close. The market for cash was called firm, especially for the better grades. Contract or May delivery was called nominally $3 00 which was 10c higher than yesterday's close. September closed at $3 25 sellers. Country lots were given a range of $2 00@3 00 for low-grade to fancy, choice about $2 80@2 90, fair to good Seed $2 60@2 75, and rough at $2 40@2 50.

Flax—There were no sales of either cash or future deliveries, and the market was nominally unchanged. The movement was light. Receipts were 4 cars or 3,400 bu here and none taken out. Minneapolis got 3 cars and Duluth 8 cars. No. 1 Northwestern was quoted at $1 09½. No. 1 quotable at $1 01½, and Rejected at 97c@$1 01, outside for choice Northwestern. May delivery quoted at $1 01½, July at $1 03½ sellers and $1 02 was bid. September was offered at $1 07.

Clover—Again there were no offerings. The tone of the market was steady and values were nominally unchanged. Contract spot Seed was nominally $10 75. Country lots common to choice, $7 75@10 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $6 00@8 00; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 50.

Other Seeds—There were 48 bags of fancy German Millet offered which sold at $1 55, and that constituted the business of the day. There was no change in values, and the feeling generally was firm. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark, $1 15@1 65. Common Millet $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 55. Siberian, 90c@$1 10. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 85c@$1 00. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat firm; good quality quotable at $1 35@1 40.

HOG PRODUCTS—A little more life was manifested in the market for Hog Products, and the feeling was somewhat unsettled. Outside orders were moderate, and local trading was fair. Local packers and speculators favored the selling side of the market. "Shorts" accepted moderate quantities. At the opening the feeling was rather firm, and prices ruled higher on all the leading articles. Later, there was some pressure to sell and prices gradually settled back to inside figures, and the market closed rather steady all around. July met with considerable favor, and September is attracting more attention. Hogs were in fair supply and prices steady. Receipts at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 59,400, compared with 71,700 same time one year ago. Packing of the West for the week compared with the corresponding week in 1903, exhibited an increase of 15,000 Hogs. Foreign markets were steadier and prices were unchanged. Domestic markets were steady. Receipts of Products were only moderate—of Lard and Meats about 12 cars. Shipments were only fair—of Lard and Meats about 98 cars. Demand on shipping account was light, and offerings were moderate. Sales were limited at about former prices.

Mess Pork—A fairly good trade was reported in the market for Mess Pork and the feeling was somewhat unsettled. Offerings were moderately free, and the demand was fair. Prices ruled irregular. Market opened rather steady at the closing figures of Wednesday, and the filling of a few orders caused an advance of 7½@10c. At the improvement, there was a little pressure to sell and the market weakened. Prices settled back 15@17½c, but rallied again 2½@5c, and the market closed rather steady. Shipping demand was light and offerings were small. Cash lots were quotable at $11 10@11 12½.

MAY—Quiet and sold early at $11 22½. Closed nominally at $11 10.

JULY—Offerings were rather free, and the demand was moderately active. Sales were made at $11 20@11 37½. Opened at $11 30, sold to $11 22½, to $11 37½, to $11 35, to $11 37½, to $11 35, to $11 37½, to $11 25, to $11 30, to $11 20, to $11 25, to $11 22½, to $11 25, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Demand was moderate and offerings were only fair. Sales were made at $11 42½@11 57½. Opened at $11 50, sold to $11 57½, to $11 55, to $11 57½, to $11 42½, to $11 47½, and closed steady.

Lard—Trade was only fair in the Lard market, and the feeling was rather easy. Foreign advices were unchanged. Offerings were not very large, and the demand was fair. Early, the feeling was rather firm, and prices ruled 2½@5c higher. Later, there was a little pressure to sell and the market weakened. Prices settled again 7½@10c, and the market closed rather steady around inside figures. Stock on hand was reported gradually enlarging. Inquiry on shipping account was limited and offerings were only moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 32½@6 35. Loose lots in fair request, with moderate offerings. Prices steady at about 55c discount on July figures. Leaf Lard in moderate request and offerings were fair. Prices were quotably steady at $5 87½. Neutral was in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $6 87½@7 00 for No. 1, and $6 62½@6 75 for No. 2.

MAY—Quiet and quotable at the close at $6 32½.

JULY—In fair request and offerings were not very large. Sales were made at $6 42½@6 52½. Opened at $6 50, sold to $6 47½, to $6 50, to $6 42½@6 45, to $6 45, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Offerings were moderate, and the demand was only fair. Sales were made at $6 57½@6 67½. Opened at $6 65, sold to $6 67½, to $6 57½@6 60, and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—Rather a good business was transacted in Short Rib Sides, and the feeling was comparatively steady. Offerings were moderately free, especially on local account, and the demand was fair. Market opened steady, but a stronger feeling was developed, and prices were advanced 5@7½c. Later, there was some pressure to sell, and prices settled back again 5@7½c, and the market closed rather steady. Shipping demand was light and offerings were moderate. Cash lots quotable at $6 10@6 20, according to weight.

MAY—Quiet and quotable at the close at $6 20.

JULY—Offerings were moderately free, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $6 37½@6 45. Opened at $6 40, sold to $6 37½@6 40, to $6 45, to $6 37½, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Demand rather light, and offerings were moderate. Sales were made at $6 52½@6 60. Opened at $6 57½, sold to $6 60, to $6 52½, and closed quiet.

Other Meats—Trade was limited, and the feeling rather steady. Offerings were not very large, and the inquiry was only moderate. Exporters bought sparingly, and the home trade was rather light. Green Meats in limited supply with moderate inquiry and prices unchanged. Pickled Meats in moderate demand and prices ruled steady. Dry Salted Meats were in rather light demand with moderate offerings, and prices were unchanged. Smoked Meats called for in limited quantities, and prices ruled steady. Closing prices ranged as follows:

SUPPLY of BREADSTUFFS

Stocks in Europe and America.

According to the special cablegram from Broomhall's Corn Trade News, Liverpool, to the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN, the supplies of Breadstuffs—Flour and Wheat—in second hands in store in the principal countries of Europe, in Argentina, and afloat for Europe on May 1, 1904, exhibited an increase equal to 3,594,000 bu during April, compared with an increase of 1,756,000 bu during March, and a decrease of 2,106,000 bu during April, 1903. The aggregate quantity of Breadstuffs afloat for Europe on May 1, 1904, exhibited an increase of 1,030,000 bu during April, compared with an increase of 6,480,000 bu during March, and an increase of 3,960,000 bu during April, 1903. Shipments en route to the United Kingdom were enlarged 940,000 bu, those for the Continent increased 2,540,000 bu, and those "for orders" increased 2,250,000 bu. The aggregate supplies afloat for Europe on May 1, 1904, were 17,250,000 bu more than reported one year previous, and 3,340,000 bu more than reported two years previous. During April, 1904, the aggregate supplies in store in the principal countries of Europe were decreased 1,980,000 bu, compared with a decrease of 2,160,000 bu during March, and a decrease of 6,042,000 bu during April, 1903. Stocks in the United Kingdom were reduced 630,000 bu, those in France increased 730,000 bu, those in Germany, Belgium and Holland increased 1,430,000 bu, those in Russia decreased 2,940,000 bu, and those in other portions of Europe decreased 940,000 bu. Stocks in Russia were reduced 10,000,000 bu during March and were decreased 5,890,000 bu during April, 1904. Supplies in store in Russia are about 1,320,0.0 bu more than reported one year ago and 3,850,000 bu more than reported two years ago. The aggregate supplies in store in Europe on May 1, 1904, were 11,880,000 bu more than reported one year previous, and 11,450,000 bu more than two years previous. Compared with the returns of one year ago, the supplies of Breadstuffs in store and afloat for the United Kingdom on May 1, 1904, were 8,930,000 bu more, those for the Continent 4,160,000 bu more, and those "for orders" 16,140,000 bu more. The aggregate supplies of Breadstuffs credited to Europe in all positions on May 1, 1904 were 33,140,000 bu more than reported on May 1, 1903 and 4,880,000 bu more than on May 1, 1.02. Advices from Europe indicate that the outlook for Wheat is fairly good in the United Kingdom, France, Germany, Spain and Italy and that average crops are expected except in the former. Crop in Russia is somewhat irregular and uncertain, and in Roumania backward, owing to lack of moisture. Hungary and Austria will probably raise fair crops. Russia and Roumania are shipping Wheat freely. Movement of Wheat from Argentina, Australia and India very good for the season of the year. Crop reports from Australia indicate that the weather is favorable for preparing the ground for seeding.

DOMESTIC SUPPLIES OF BREADSTUFFS.

The aggregate supplies of Breadstuffs—Flour and Wheat in the United States and Canada on May 1, 1904, as compiled by the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN and the Minneapolis Market Record exhibited a decrease during April equal to 6,616,000 bu, compared with a reduction of 10,676,000 bu during March and a decrease of 18,436 000 bu during April, 1903. The reduction was well distributed throughout the United States—a fair increase being reported being in Canada. Farmers selling only moderate quantities. The aggregate supplies of Flour in the United States and Canada were increased 342,000 brls during April, compared with an increase of 81,000 brls during March, and a decrease of 2,000 brls during April 1903. The increase was mainly at the Atlantic seaboard markets and the Northwest, owing to rather free deliveries by the Millers relative to the terminal markets. The following table exhibits the stocks of Flour in the principal cities of the United States on the dates named:

Cities.	May 1, 1904. Brls.	April 1, 1904. Brls.	May 1, 1903. Brls.
New York	1,000,000	950,000	1,127,000
Chicago	29,250	41,000	39,500
St. Louis	53,200	46,600	36,575
Toledo	7,000	7,000	1,000
Baltimore	44,000	43,000	47,000
Detroit	8,000	8,000	9,000
Boston	90,782	87,787	70,570
Milwaukee	18,250	17,800	97,100
Duluth	300,000	140,000	347,000
Total	1,012,402	730,652	827,745

Stocks of Flour at these points were increased 292,350 brls during April, compared with an increase of 81,787 brls during March, and an increase of 25,469 brls during April, 1903. The aggregate supplies of Flour at these markets on May 1 were 184,488 brls more than reported one year previous. Stocks of Flour at the Atlantic seaboard markets on May 1, 1904, were 536,782 brls, compared with 348,787 brls on April 1, and 585,570 brls on May 1, 1903. The aggregate supplies of Flour in the United States and Canada on May 1, 1904, were 189,000 brls more than reported on May 1, 1903.

During the month of April the supplies of Wheat in the United States and Canada were decreased 8,440,000 bu, compared with a reduction of 11,947,000 bu during March, and a decrease of 18,451,000 bu during April, 1903. The decrease was rather evenly distributed throughout the United States, while in Canada there was a small increase. Stocks in the Northwest decreased 1,669,000 bu, compared with a reduction of 2,310,000 bu during March and a decrease of 6,261,000 bu in April, 1903. Supplies in the interior elevators of the Northwest were reduced 1,197,0 0 bu during April, compared with a reduction of 2,47 0 0 bu during March, and a decrease of 953,000 bu during April 1903. Supplies are now estimated at 1,2 2,000 bu, compared with 2,581,000 bu on April 1, and 3,886,000 bu on May 1, 1903. The aggregate supplies of Wheat in second hands in the United States and Canada on May 1, 19.4, were 11,000 bu less than one year ago, and 2,250,000 bu le-s than two years ago

SUPPLIES AT HOME AND ABROAD.

The aggregate supplies of Breadstuffs afloat for Europe, in store in Europe and Argentina, and in store in the United States and Canada on May 1, 1904—including a larger number of points than in any other compilation—were equal to 154,7.000 bu, against 137,450,000 bu on April 1, and 133,1.,000 bu on May 1, 1903. The decrease during April was equal to 2,106,000 bu, compared with a decrease of 20,270 0 0 bu during April, 1903. The aggregate supplies in all positions in America, Europe and Argentina on May 1, 1904, were 15,411,000 bu more than reported one year previous, and 4,195,0 0 bu more than reported two years ago.

POSITION OF WHEAT IN THE UNITED STATES.

The movement of Wheat in the United States at the primary markets from July 1 to May 1 was about 208,000 0 0 bu, compared with 234,000,000 bu for the corresponding period in 1903. The exports of Flour and Wheat during the same period were about 112,000 0 0 bu, compared with 176,000,000 bu for the same time last year—a decrease of 50,000,000 bu, or 33.3 per cent. The official visible supply is about 31,0 0 0 0 bu smaller than one year ago. Estimating the Wheat crop of the United States at 675,000,000 bu—which is the most conservative figure that could be placed on the advices of the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN—and allowing 78,000,000 bu for supplies in all positions on July 1, 1903, the aggregate supplies for the twelve months would be approximately 753,0.0,0 0 bu. Allowing 410,000,000 bu for domestic consumption, 112,000,000 bu for during purposes and 117,000,000 bu for exports to date, makes an aggregate accounted for of 801,000,000 bu, and would leave for export during the remaining two months and for stocks on hand July 1, 1904, 151,000,000 bu.

FLOUR TRADE DURING APRIL

The Flour trade in the United States and Canada was quite dull during April 1904, owing to the crop. Export business was on a limited scale, and the demand from the home trade was confined to providing for present requirements. The manufacture of Flour was on a small scale—some of the larger mills throughout the country running only a part of the time—and the stocks in the aggregate exhibit a gain of large proportions. Millers at present prices of Wheat cannot manufacture Flour in quantities at a profit, and in most cases sales of Wheat are to parties who have limited quantities of Flour on hand and who have similarly established trade in small lots. Exporters are not disposed to purchase, as prices are more satisfactory elsewhere. Millstuffs, as a rule, command good prices which have ruled steady owing to the smaller production. In New England, the demand for Flour was light, and chiefly for small lots for the home trade. In New York, a few export orders were filled, and the home trade was only fair. In Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia, the demand for Flour was comparatively light and confined to small lots for the home trade. In Kentucky, a few lots were accepted, and in Tennessee trade was moderate. In Ohio, millers managed to dispose of their production, while in Michigan trade was comparatively dull. In Indiana, trade dragged considerably, and millers carried over fair quantities. In Illinois trade was light, and production comparatively limited. In Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas, trade was on a moderate scale for home wants, and supplies were enlarged. In Wisconsin trade was fair in small quantities. In the Northwest, trade was only moderate, and somewhat spasmodic. Mills reduced their production considerably. Export sales were limited, and the domestic trade was moderate. In the Rocky Mountains district trade was light for home wants. On the Pacific Coast, trade was only fair, and a few export orders were accepted. Trade in Canada was only moderate. Movement of the trade only fair, and export orders were not very large

WHEAT MOVEMENT DURING APRIL.

The movement of Wheat from the farms of the United States during April was on a moderate scale—about 33,000,0 0 bu in April, 1903. Apr.l is generally regarded as the month of the lightest movement of the year. Farmers were busy with their usual spring work, and as the season is backward they gave more attention to seeding. Prices were not regarded as very satisfactory, and supplies in first hands are not very large. Millers were slow to purchase, as the Flour trade was unsatisfactory. In New England, the receipts were small and exports very light. In New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee, the offerings were light—farmers in section- where the crop looks fair, sold small quantities. In Ohio, Michigan and Indiana the movement was small—farmers holding in view of the very unfavorable outlook for the growing crop. In Illinois, Missouri and Kansas, the offerings were moderate. Farmers are well on the crops are backward. In Oklahoma and Texas, the offerings were very small. In Iowa and Nebraska, the movement was only moderate, and in small quantities. In Wisconsin the offerings were comparatively light. In the Northwest, the movement was fair early in the month, but fell off considerably toward the close. In the Rocky Mountains district, the offerings were small. On the Pacific Coast, the offerings were moderate. Farmers in some sections sold their holdings where the crop outlook was poor. In Canada, the movement was fair, and supplies enlarged.

SPRING WHEAT SEEDING.

Spring Wheat seeding is progressing favorably in all portions of the Northwest except in the Red River Valley. The season is backward and farm work delayed by rains. Advices indicate that the area will probably be equal that of last year or ten per cent increase—depending on the weather.

CONDITION OF WINTER WHEAT—GOVERNMENT REPORT.

The following table exhibits the acreage of Winter Wheat, the estimated yield based on the percentage report of condition by the Department of Agriculture on May 1, compared with the condition April 1, 1904, and on July 1, 1903:

CONDITION OF WINTER WHEAT

The following table exhibits the condition of Winter Wheat on May 1 in the States named, as estimated by the correspondents of the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN, compared with the reports on April 1, 1904, and the Department of Agriculture reports on July 1, 1903:

	May 1, 1904.	April 1, 1904.	July 1, 1903.
New York	82.0	90.0	88 0
Pennsylvania	78.0	84.0	90.0
Maryland	70.0	78.0	79.0
Virginia	61.5	67.5	77.0
West Virginia	64.0	66.0	84.0
Kentucky	81.4	64.6	75.0
Tennessee	72.4	62.0	88.0
Ohio	56.8	71.1	82.0
Michigan	55.3	67.5	87.0
Indiana	71.8	69.0	92.0
Illinois	83.0	91.0	97.0
Missouri	90.0	90.8	93.0
Kansas	88.8	88.3	95.0
Oklahoma	58.3	68.7	90.0
Texas	78.0	83.4	90.0
Iowa	88.0	92.0	90.0
Wisconsin	78.3	85.0	92.0

The condition in the remaining Southern States is rather good, while in California it is very favorable, and in Washington and Oregon the outlook is generally fair. States a full crop on a moderately increased acreage.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows general rains in Manitoba. Light rains in North Dakota—Williston .18 and Bismarck .06—and in Minnesota, and light rains in Iowa. Some cooler in the Northwest. Warmer West and Southwest. Some indications of general rains

Kentucky has rain for cloudy weather. Temperatures will fall to-night.

The London Statist of April 30, in its Wheat article, says: "From that America and Canada combined now occupy the first place in the list of sources of supply, instead of the first position, has evidently no effect upon the markets in the face of the liberal movement from Argentina and Russia and the expected abundance from India and Australasia. It estimates the surplus for export of South Australia at 16,000,000 bu and from India 48,000,000 bu. Its summary of crop conditions is generally favorable, except as to Russia and America. It may be noted that since the publication of these advices as to the Russian crop are more favorable."

Cotton in New York started strong, although Liverpool came lower. There was good buying of July by local interests, and commission houses bought on the cool weather. Closing prices were 1@6 points lower.

Local Securities were slow and steady for the Industrials, most of them making small gains. The weak feature was in Cables. City Railway broke 2 points on selling of 300 shares. North Chicago Railway lost ½.

It is reported that shippers have ordered some of the boats holding Grain here to be unloaded. There is not more than 1,300,000 bu of Grain of all kinds loaded in vessels here and at South Chicago which are detained by the strike.

Shipments of Wheat from Argentina this week were 3,664,000 bu, against 3,232,000 bu the previous week, and 2,104,000 bu for corresponding week last year. Shipments since Jan. 1 reported at 54,216,000 bu, against 31,560,000 bu same time in 1903.

Shipments of Corn from Argentina this week were 864,000 bu, against 350,000 bu the previous week and 672,000 bu for corresponding week last year. Shipments since Jan. 1 reported at 12,252,000 bu, against 4,065,000 bu for same time last year.

The shipments of Flax Seed from Argentina this week were reported at 1,080,000 bu, compared with 976,000 bu last week, and 680,000 bu for the corresponding week in 1903. Shipments since Jan. 1 reported at 25,676,000 bu, compared with 16,093,000 bu for the corresponding time last year.

Exports from July 1 reported at 49,585,000 bu, compared with 61,346,000 bu for corresponding time last year.

Bradstreet's reports the exports of Wheat and Flour from the United States and Canada for the past week at 735,000 bu, against 1,192,000 bu for the previous week, and 4,097,000 bu for the corresponding week last year. Exports from July 1 reported at 123,641,000 bu, compared with 193,989,000 bu for the corresponding time in 1902-3.

Various trade authorities say further hesitancy is observed in the placing of new orders for Iron and Steel, and there is a slight tinge of weakness in prices quoted for delivering during the summer. A feature is that Chicago at the moment is consuming more structural Iron and Steel than any other city in the United States.

Stocks in New York made several small rallies, but closed irregular with moderate changes. Coppers were a feature and advanced 1⅜. Standard Oil interests absorbing Amalgamated. General Electric advanced 3 points after a break of that size. Steel was sold by houses with Pittsburg connections and lost ⅜ to ⅝. Grangers were steady to to ½ lower. Money 2 per cent.

The Modern Miller says: "The Winter Wheat crop has been favored by excellent weather conditions so far during the month of May and improved prospects are reported from all sections where the crop could be benefitted. This improvement extends even to the States and Territories where the crop suffered most damage and loss in acreage. The outlook continues best in Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, south of the Ohio River and on the Pacific Coast."

A report on the progress of the Beet Sugar industry in 1903, prepared by the Department of Agriculture, shows there has been an increase in the number of Beet Sugar factories in the United States from forty-three at the close of 1902 to fifty-six at the beginning of 1904. According to the report the Sugar Beet crop of 1903 amounted to a little more than 2,000,000 tons, harvested from 242,570 acres, the average yield being about eight and one-half tons to the acre. The prices received for Beets ranged from $4 50 to $5 60 per ton, the average being nearly $5 00. The average gross returns were $42 50 per acre. The estimated cost of growing Beets by irrigation is $40 00 per acre, and in sections where irrigation is not necessary, $30 00. In some of the Sugar Beet areas the returns were very much higher than this general average. Many farmers have cleared from $25 00 to $50 00 per acre. The amount of Sugar made from the Beet crop of 1903 was 240,604 tons, as compared with 218,405 tons from the crop of 1902, and 184,605 tons from that of 1901.

SEEDING IN THE NORTHWEST.

[From the Northwestern Miller.]

Another favorable week has passed for the Wheat crop in the Northwest. While there have been showers, delaying seeding to some extent where not finished, especially in the Red River Valley, work has progressed favorably. Outside of the Red River Valley, the seeding is in the main finished. With fair weather, the work in the valley will be practically finished this week. At many points in Southern Minnesota and South Dakota, and also in some parts of North Dakota, Wheat is above the ground and making good progress. A feature of the weather has been a low temperature and limited sunshine, and while Wheat might have grown faster with warm, bright weather, it is thought that under existing conditions the plant will get better root and become more hardy.

Summed up, the crop conditions are regarded as quite favorable. Many in the trade feel that with good weather the plant by June 1 may be as far advanced in growth as if seeding had been done earlier.

Most favorable reports come from Northwestern Canada. Though the season is a little late, seeding is progressing under the best of conditions, and the prospects are for a large increase in the acreage of Wheat.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Demand light, though prices are more favorable to buyers.

WINTER WHEAT—A light milling demand existed, but only for choice Wheat, and prices quotably about 1c lower, although No. 3 Hard sold within the same range of prices as yesterday. No. 2 Red in store was quotably $1 03@1 05, and fresh arrivals entirely nominal at $1 03@1 07. No. 2 Red fresh arrivals entirely nominal and quotably $1 00@1 06. No. 2 Hard free on board fresh arrivals quotably 91@93c. No. 3 Hard fresh arrivals free on board sold at 81c for poor, to 86@91½c for good to choice.

SPRING WHEAT—The market was weaker and prices 1c lower. A light milling demand existed, and only for small quantities. No. 1 Northern in store quotably May price to ¼c over and ranged at 90@91¼c, and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 94@96c. No. 2 Northern fresh receipts free on board quotably 94@94c. No. 3 Spring fresh arrivals quotably 85@94c for poor to choice. No. 4 Spring quotably 65@85c for ordinary to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—Just a fair trade, with the feeling weaker closing prices showing May 1½c lower, the July losing 1@1⅛c, and the September ¾c. Liquidation of "long" property was the chief feature, foreign and domestic news being against holders. Part of the September selling was credited to the Northwest. The Orange Judd Farmer and Modern Miller reports were both construed as "bearish." Among the other "bear" influences were the large Argentine shipments, increase in the visible there, lower English and Continental cables, lack of outside trade, and declines at other speculative centers. Argentina shipped 3,664,000 bu, making 54,218,000 bu since Jan. 1, against 34,506,000 bu same period in 1903. Visible there is now 5,440,000 bu; previous week, 4,784,000 bu, last year, 4,008,000 bu. Exports from this country light—total for the day 47,000 bu, and total for the week 735,000 bu, against 4,097,000 bu same week in 1903. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ⅛d lower and futures ⅜@⅝d lower. Receipts there the past days 352,000 bu, of which 80,000 bu came from America. London came ⅛@⅜d lower, and Paris declined ¼@2c. Berlin lost ⅝c, while Buda Pesth gained ⅝c. London cargoes on passage were 1½d lower. May showed unseasonable temperature North—frosts at Rapid City, Williston, Valentine and North Platte. Generally fair in Manitoba; light scattered rains in Minnesota, the Dakotas and Kansas and heavy in Missouri and Oklahoma. Fair predicted for the Northwest with frost; fair and warmer for Nebraska and Kansas. Minneapolis wired: "More rain through Red River Valley. This means some very late Wheat and a considerable decrease in area there." Another message stated that it looked as though eight large counties in the Red River Valley would plant very little to Wheat. Duluth claimed the cash Wheat situation was healthier than it looked, sales of Manitobas and Kansas being made yesterday. Primary receipts were 30,000 bu under last year. Kansas City and St. Louis received 19,000 bu and shipped out 150,000 bu. Northwest cars were 51 cars less than in 1903 and Manitoba 173 cars less. Minneapolis stocks are expected to decrease 700,000 bu this week. Seaboard reported 15 boat loads. Receipts at Duluth 11 cars and Minneapolis 46 cars, a total of 57 cars, against 56 cars yesterday, 51 cars a week ago, and 108 cars last year. Local receipts included 16 cars Winter, 3 cars Spring, none mixed, a total of 19 cars, against 28 cars last year. Included in the above was none of contract grade. There was also 44 cars and no bu from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow were not reported. Withdrawals were 16,950 bu. Receipts at Western points were 169,360 bu, against 109,540 bu last year; at Eastern points 21,852 bu, against 486,088 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 311,120 bu, against 375,280 bu last year, and from Eastern points 2,981 bu, against 361,885 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 9,935 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 47,600 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Moderate trade and prices lower.

DECEMBER—Sold at 78¾@79¼c. Opened with sales at 79c to 78¾c; sold to 78⅞c, to 79⅛c, to 79c, to 79¼c, to 78¾c, and closed at 78¾c.

CORN—A very fair trade, mainly local, and undertone considerably weaker, the close showing May off 1c, while the July lost 1¼@1⅜c and September 1⅛@1¼c. The indefinite tie-up on the lakes, decline in Wheat and the fact that "shorts" covered pretty thoroughly yesterday was chiefly responsible for the action of the market. It was rumored that boats had started to unload their cargoes back into elevators. The small receipts 60 cars with only 3 cars contract, and heavy rains in parts of the West and Southwest were among the sustaining influences. Argentine shipments 864,000 bu, and since Jan. 1, 4,929,000 bu, against 11,388,000 bu same time in 1903. Visible there 1,576,000 bu; previous week, 788,000 bu; year ago, 1,484,000 bu. Liverpool quoted spot unchanged and futures steady to ⅛d lower. Receipts there the past three days 144,000 bu, of which 104,000 bu came from America. Western receipts were 246,000 bu, against 435,000 bu one year ago, and shipments 349,000 bu and 739,000 bu, respectively. Local arrivals 131,000 bu and shipments 223,000 bu. Exports 33,000 bu and total for week only 120,000 bu, against 1,431,000 bu same week in 1903. Cash sales here 375,000 bu and 5 boat loads at the seaboard. New York exporters were reported as bidding for No. 2 Corn here. Orange Judd Farmer report was "bearish." Loaded out of store 43,100 bu and 34 cars contract transferred from private to public elevators. Car lots were in good demand and small supply. Feeling steady and prices little changed. No. 2 closed at 49c. No. 2 Yellow closed about 53c. No. 3 closed about 49½c and No. 3 Yellow at 52½c. No Grade sold at 38@46c, outside for yellow.

Corn by sample—Demand continues good, with the offerings small. Sales showed no material change in price, but the close was weak. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 30@40c. No. 4 at 42@51c. No. 3 at 46½c. No. 3 Yellow at 52¾@54c. No. 2 at 51½c. No. 2 Yellow at 55c. No. 3 White at 50c. Billed through: No Grade at 40c. No. 4 at 50c. No. 3 at 49c. No. 3 Yellow at 51½@51¾c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Fairly active and weak and closed ⅞c to 1¼@1⅜c lower.

MAY—Sold at 46⅞@48c. Opened at 48c, sold to 46⅞c, to 47⅛c, to 46⅞c, and closed at 46⅞c asked.

JULY—Sold at 47⅝@49c. Opened at 48⅞c, sold at 49c, to 48¾c, to 48⅞c, to 47⅞c, to 48c, to 47⅝c, and closed at 47⅝c sellers.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 47¼@48½c. Opened at 48⅜c to 48⅜@48½c, sold at 48⅜@48½c, to 48⅜c, to 48¼c, to 48¼c, to 48⅜c, to 47⅜@47½c, to 47½c, to 47¼c, and closed at 47¼c.

DECEMBER—Sold at 43⅛@43¾c. Opened at 43¾c, sold to 43⅜c, to 43¼c, to 43⅛c, and closed at 43⅛c.

OATS—Were freely traded in and May was strong on a good cash demand and small offerings. Cereal interests took 170,000 bu Standard at ¼@½c over May in store. Withdrawals were 96,060 bu and cancellations 166,753 bu. There was no pressure to sell May and it advanced ⅜c. July and September weakened in sympathy with the break in Wheat and Corn and on favorable crop reports and closed ½c lower. Arrivals were 95 cars. Seaboard clearances 10,000 bu. Car lots to go to store were steady. Standard in store closed at 42⅛@42½c.

Oats by sample were in good request and prices steady. Supplies were small. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 at 37½@38½c. No. 4 White at 38@44c. No. 3 at 40½c. No. 3 White at 42@45c. Standard at 44½c. Billed through: No. 3 White at 43½c. Standard at 43¾@44c. No. 2 at 40c. At the river: No. 4 White at 37@41¾c. No. 3 White at 41½@42c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were irregular. May advancing and other months declining.

MAY—Strong. Sold at 41⅝@42c. Opened at 41⅝c, sold to 42c, to 41⅞c at close.

JULY—Offered more freely. Sold at 38⅝@39c. Opened at 39c, sold to 38⅝c, to 38⅝@38½c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Active. Sold at 30⅜@31⅛c. Opened at 31c to 31⅛c, sold to 30⅝c, to 30½c at close.

RYE—Was quiet and steady. Trading light and no special change in prices. There were no receipts and eight cars were withdrawn from private warehouse. No export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store nominally 73c and fresh arrivals entirely nominal. No. 3 nominally 62@69c. A part car of No. 4 sold at 60c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet and unchanged in price. May sold at 73c and closed at 74c asked. July 65¼c bid and 66c asked. August 65c asked.

BARLEY—The market was quiet and steady, especially for choice malting Barley. Offering were small and consisted mostly of Screenings and feed Barley. To-day's postings showed 7 cars inspected in. Screenings were quotable at 27@37c for poor to choice. Barley—low grade feed or mixing nominally 35@37c, outside good weight. Malting, low grade, 40@42c; fair to good, sound, 45@48c; good color, 50@55c, and fancy 58c.

SEEDS—Flax was easy and a little more active. Timothy, Clover and Other Seed were quiet and nominally unchanged.

Timothy—The market for cash Seed was quiet, entirely nominal. Future deliveries were inactive and steady. There was one car of cash Seed sold, but the price could not be ascertained. The tone of the market was firm. Contract or May delivery was called nominally $3 10. September was offered at $3 30 and $3 20 was the best bid. Country lots were quotable at $2 00@3 00 for low-grade to fancy, choice about $2 80@2 90, fair to good Seed $2 60@2 75, and rough at $2 40@2 50.

Flax—Was a little more active, yet only a very small business was done. The tone of the market was easy and in most cases values ruled a shade lower. Movement was very small. Chicago received 1 car at $1 50 and there was none taken out. Minneapolis got 4 cars and Duluth 3 cars. No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest was nominally $1 09½. No. 1 was quotable at $1 01 and Rejected at 97c@$1 01, outside for choice Northwestern. May delivery was quotable at $1 01. July sold at $1 02 and September was offered at $1 05.

Clover—Market was quiet and steady. Some small lots offered which sold at former prices. Contract spot Seed was nominally $10 75. Country lots common to choice, $7 75@10 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $6 00@8 60, poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 50.

Other Seeds—There were no offerings of any kind, and the market was nominally unchanged. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark, $1 15@1 65. Common Millet $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 55. Siberian, 90c@$1 10. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 85c@$1 00. Mustard 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat firm; good quality quotable at $1 35@1 40.

HOG PRODUCTS—Speculative trading was fair in the market for Hog Products. Outside orders were moderate, and local trading was fair. Market was rather easy early in the session, with a little liquidation by holders of small quantities, and prices ruled lower on all the leading articles. At the decline there was fair general buying, mainly credited to "shorts" and the market ruled steady, with slight advances in prices. Market closed steady. Trading chiefly in July contracts. Hogs were in moderate supply and prices ruled slightly higher. Receipts at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 59,300, compared with 65,300 one year ago. Foreign markets indicated a steady feeling in Meats at unchanged prices, while Lard was quiet and 3d lower. Domestic markets rather steady. Receipts of Products were good—of Lard and Meats about 28 cars. Shipments were fair—of Lard and Meats about 110 cars. Demand on shipping account was light and offerings were moderate. Sales were not very large, and prices inclined in favor of buyers.

Mess Pork—A fairly good business was transacted in Mess Pork, and the feeling was easier. Offerings were moderately free and the demand was only fair. Market opened rather steady and prices were fairly well maintained on the filling of a few miscellaneous buying orders. Later a weaker feeling was developed, and prices irregularly declined 15@17½c, but rallied again 5@7½c, and the market closed rather steady. Shipping demand was moderate and offerings were rather light. Cash lots were quotable at $11 05@11 12½.

MAY—Quiet. Sold early at $11 07½, but closed nominally at $11 02½.

JULY—Offerings were moderately free, and the demand was fairly active. Sales were made at $11 10@11 27½. Opened at $11 25 to $11 27½, sold to $11 25, to $11 27½, to $11 17½, to $11 22½, to $11 15 to $11 17½, to $11 10, to $11 15@11 17½, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—In fair request, and offerings were not very large. Sales were made at $11 30@11 45. Opened at $11 45, sold to $11 37½, to $11 42½, to $11 30, to $11 35, and closed steady.

Lard—Only a moderate trade was reported in the Lard market and the feeling was easier. Offerings were fair and the demand was moderately active. Foreign advices unfavorable to holders. "Shorts" bought moderately. Prices on the whole range ruled 7½@10c lower, and the market closed steady around inside figures. Inquiry on shipping account limited and offerings only moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 25@6 27½. Loose lots in fair request, with moderate offerings. Prices steady at about 55c discount on July figures. Leaf Lard in limited request and offerings were fair. Prices were quotably steady at $5 87½. Neutral was in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $6 87½@7 00 for No. 1, and $6 62½@6 75 for No. 2.

MAY—Quiet, with small sales at $6 25@6 27½, and closed at $6 27½.

JULY—Offerings were not very large, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $6 35@6 45. Opened at $6 45, sold to $6 37½, to $6 40, to $6 35, to $6 37½ and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Called for moderately, and offerings were only fair. Sales were made at $6 50@6 60. Opened at $6 60, sold to $6 50, to $6 52½, and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—A fair trade was reported in Short Rib Sides, and the feeling was not quite so strong. Offerings were fair, and the demand was rather active. Local packers and speculators were credited with fair purchases. Market opened rather steady, and in a few instances an advance of 2½c was paid. Later, the feeling was easier, and the market closed rather steady around medium figures. Shipping demand was light and offerings were small. Cash lots were quotable at $6 12½@6 25 according to weight.

MAY—Quiet and quotable at $6 25.

JULY—In rather good demand, and the offerings were fair. Sales were made at $6 35@6 40. Opened at $6 40, sold to $6 35@6 37½, to $6 37½, to $6 35, to $6 37½, to $6 35@6 37½, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Trade was fair, and offerings were not very large. Sales were made at $6 50@6 57½. Opened at $6 55 to $6 57½, sold to $6 50, to $6 52½, and closed steady.

Other Meats—Trade was moderate, and the feeling rather easy. Offerings were not very large, and the inquiry was comparatively light. Exporters bought sparingly, and the home trade was rather small. Green Meats in limited supply, with moderate inquiry, and prices unchanged. Pickled Meats in moderate demand, and prices ruled steady. Dry Salted Meats were in rather light demand with moderate offerings, and prices favored buyers. Smoked Meats called for in limited quantities, and prices ruled steady. Closing prices ranged as follows:

PORK PACKING AND PROVISIONS.

There is a less liberal movement of Hogs than for the preceding week, but the supply is fairly good in numbers. Total Western packing 435,000, compared with 485,000 the preceding week, and 417,000 two weeks ago. For corresponding date last year the number was 42,000, and two years ago 38,000. Prices March 1 the total is 4 955,000, against 5,640,000 last year, an increase of 340,000. The quality is fairly good as a rule. Prices at the close at prominent markets average about $4.71 per 100 lbs, compared with $4.70 a week ago, $4.90 two weeks ago, a year ago, $4.10 two years ago, and $5.70 three years ago

The speculative Provision market was rather quiet the past week and there was an easy tone prevailing. Trading was mainly in cash parcels. Foreign markets were dull and the domestic markets ruled quiet. Prices for leading articles are lower than at the close week ago at Chicago. The export clearances of Provisions from that port show an increase over the preceding week and a decided gain over the corresponding week last year.

The week's export clearances of Hog Products compared with corresponding time last year:

	Past week.	Last year.

THE FLOUR SITUATION.

[From the Northwestern Miller, May 11.]

With the mills running only about one-quarter capacity, the Flour output last week decreased 74,000 bbls. This week, the production promises to show a material increase. While only 124 mills were in operation to-day, the list embraced the largest ones, and they are likely to run through the week. Making at the rate of about 40,000 bbls per 24 hours, this week's production promises to approximate 240,000 bbls. This would be something over 50 per cent of full capacity. For the same week in 1903, the output was 339,770 bbls.

Minneapolis millers could see no particular change in the Flour business for the week. Though in some instances an increasing inquiry was reported, especially from large Eastern bakers, as a rule not that much could be observed. Sales with almost everybody were light, and any expectations did not materialize as fast as they might.

The old story was repeated as to export. While early in the week better inquiry was noted, the advance in Wheat quickly dispelled any hope for doing business. However, one mill manager expressed a belief that the mills would yet do some foreign business on this count, and that the only real change in the foreign situation was an improved demand for clears from Holland, a limited quantity now being worked. Clears, however, remain dull and were the mill running heavy, it would be a problem what to do with these grades.

Minneapolis and outside mills have during the week advanced prices of patent 10 cents per barrel. The range of quotations now is $4 75@5 00 per 196 lbs in wood f. o. b. Minneapolis.

The range of Eastern prices, May 10, asked by Minneapolis mills for Patent in wood was: B seaboard points, $5 45@5 60; New York rate points, $5 40 @5 60; Pittsburg rate points, $5 30@5 40; Baltimore rate points $5 3 @5 50; Philadelphia rate points, $5 35@5 50. Asbury rate points, $5 05@5 20; Rochester and Syracuse rate points, $5 35@5 50; Buffalo rate points, $5 20@5 40. Michigan, $4 90@5 15 in sacks; Iowa, Illinois and Wisconsin, $4 90@5 15 in sacks; Missouri points, $4 75@5 05 in sacks.

GRAIN TRADE AND CROPS.

A moderately improving tendency in the condition of the growing Winter Wheat is observed from the reports received the past week. Temperature was warm over a zone and moisture sufficient for present needs, the kind of weather that is promotive of growth of all vegetation. In Ohio and Indiana and the immediately adjacent regions, notwithstanding some improvement lately in growth, the abnormally low condition of the prospects from previous injuries is reflected in late reports. Outside of these areas in Eastern Texas and Oklahoma, the indications are for good crops. There is a notable absence of complaint of injury by insects in practically all sections. The Wheat which remains standing in the shocks also appears to be healthy, as a rule, and the fields which remain growing, although generally thin, for the very reason, give a better chance than usual for the development of the plant which is standing.

Latest advices from the Spring Wheat States indicate that unimportant interruptions by wet weather delayed Wheat seeding in some sections, but on the whole fairly satisfactory progress in seeding has been made, and with some increase in acreage, the Spring Wheat crop is starting under fairly favorable conditions.

Under favorable weather conditions the Oats crop is now making good progress, and complaints from early sowings are less than usual for this season of the year. Taken as a whole, the acreage is much above the average, and will likely be not far from 100 to 0,000 acres and rather favorable prospects is being reported for late plantings, although in some localities the work is a little backward.

THE WHEAT CROP.

The report of the Department of Agriculture in regard to the Winter Wheat crop discloses a startling loss in the condition during April. The estimated area seeded, the indication being a reduction of 15.4 per cent of the entire area, representing a loss of 4,325,000 acres, which is 9 per cent more than the area harvested last year in the two States of Ohio and Indiana. That a large extent of Wheat lands would prove to be abandoned in the Ohio Valley was foreshadowed in very positive reports during the past month or more, but that 40 per cent of all of the Indiana crop and nearly 25 per cent of all the Ohio crop has disappeared from the reckoning appears an event of the possibility of an overestimate of the extent of such losses, under the tendency generally existing to overstate conditions which are of adverse nature. Equally difficult to understand is the fact that, after 95 per cent for Kansas and 104 per cent for Nebraska.

The question arises, incident to a comparison between the reports this month and the report a month ago, how such figures have a change of over 15 per cent in the basis to be recognized. In other words, if the condition as now reported be accepted, indicating a condition of 85.6 per cent, as a crop now in sight, could the condition a month ago have been 75.6 on the entire area seeded, as was implied. It is no easy matter to make the two estimates consistent with the facts.

Taking 27,000,0.0 acres for the Winter Wheat crop basis, as now reported, the situation is one which points to about 350,000,000 bu as the limits of consistent conclusions as to the outlook. Fortunately the indications in regard to the Spring Wheat crop are favorable and encouraging, and if the season progresses without special drawbacks to this portion of the crop, the most exciting possibilities might result in about 350,000,000 bu—so that if the present position of the crop basis is to be considered as the minimum, the crop could not reasonably be recognized as much. If any, in excess of 650,000,0.0 bu.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows light rains in Minnesota and Dakotas, heavy rains in Missouri, Iowa and Oklahoma, light rains in Kansas and Illinois. Temperatures rather low. Frost at Rapid City, North Platte and Valentine. Map rather unseasonable North, favorable West and Southwest.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

A Wabash, Ind., dispatch says: "Winter Wheat is improving daily."

A telegram from Lewiston, Neb., says: "Our Wheat is looking much better than it did a week ago."

The Baldwin Locomotive Works, Philadelphia, Pa., Monday laid off 10,000 men and reduced the hours of 15,000 others.

Officials of the leading Chicago savings banks say deposits increased well in April, and are making good gains in May.

The Homestake Mining Company has declared the regular semi-annual dividend of $2.50 a share for April, payable May 25. Books close May 20.

A seat on the New York Stock Exchange sold, Wednesday, for $90,500. This is about $5,500 under the last price obtained for a Stock Exchange membership.

The Bessemer Steel plant of the Republic Iron and Steel Company at Youngstown, Ohio, has closed down for an indefinite period on account of lack of orders.

From Russia and the Danube the exports of Flax Seed from Aug. 1 to April 23 have amounted to 1,407,000 qrs, against 1,600,000 bu in the previous year, and 2,228,000 bu in 1901-2

The Adams Express Company has declared the regular semi-annual dividend of $2.50 a share out of revenue from the quarter payable June 1. Books close May 13 and reopen June 1.

A Chicago commission man is sending very favorable reports on Wheat and Corn prospects from Mississippi. He says: "The crop could not look better. Corn planting is under way."

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western reports for the quarter ended March 31 a decrease of $377,600 in net earnings. The Colorado Fuel and the Nickel Plate decreased its net earnings $37,500.

The American Express Company has declared the regular semi-annual dividend of $3.00 a share and an extra dividend of $1.0 a share, payable July 1. Books close May 31 and reopen July 1.

Newton, Kan., wired, Wednesday: "Another big rain Tuesday night. Very little Corn planted yet. In this locality fields will not be ready enough for Corn planting for another week; all low ground is under water."

The shipments of Flax Seed from India from April 1 to date amounted to 1,540,000 qrs, against 812,000 bu and Bombay 168,000 bu, against 2,101,000 bu last season (Calcutta 1,256,000 bu and Bombay 868,000 bu), and from April 1 in 1902 (Calcutta 1,844,000 bu and Bombay 992,000 bu).

"Have been all through Southern Kansas and Northern Oklahoma," said a Chicago commission man, Thursday, "and it looks good everywhere, particularly in Oklahoma. I expect to get a crop of a crop in Great Bend territory, as compared with last year, which was the largest on record."

A movement is on foot among leading members of the New York Stock Exchange and prominent bankers to have $1,000,0.0 short-time notes, recently financed by various roads, listed on the New York Stock Exchange. Large transactions are reported in these notes at an advanced price.

The Denver, Woodward and Southwestern Railway Company, with a capital stock of $20,000,000, was chartered in Guthrie, Ok., to construct lines of railroad extending from Denver, Colo., in a southeasterly direction, through Oklahoma and the Indian Territory, to Texarkana, Ark., a distance of 1,000 miles.

Directors of the National Biscuit Company have declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on the preferred stock and 1 per cent on the common. The preferred dividend is payable May 31, and preferred books will close May 16 and reopen June 1. The common dividend is payable July 15. Common books close June 28 and reopen July 16.

The receipts of the Chicago postoffice for April, just received, amount to $680,000, or 6 per cent. This increase of 7.53 per cent was to the fact of the New York postoffice, which increased from $1,106,39 in April, 1903, to $1,197,215 in April, 1904, or 8.2 per cent. Among the cities of population in the country there were only eight which showed a decrease in receipts from April, 1903. These were New Orleans, St. Paul, Rochester, Jersey City, New Haven, Peoria and Troy.

Not in recent years have the Stock brokerage houses in Chicago met as hard times as the present summer promises to bring. The volume of Chicago trading on the Chicago Stock Exchanges is smaller than in any year since 1895, and many of the houses have to look farther back than that to find as small income figures as now. The exchange business has lasted now about nine months, and the outlook is for an entire summer of exceptionally poor business.

"The Government report indicates a Winter Wheat crop of 350,000,0.0 bu," says a Chicago commission man. "The average for the past eight years has been 340,000,000 bu. It is evident that in making the present report full allowance has been made for abandoned acreage, and there has been a general improvement in condition since April 1 succeeding reports are likely to show no further loss in acreage. The Wheat crop will probably be larger than last year."

"Very satisfactory advancement has been made in plowing and preparing ground for Corn, and reports from all districts indicate that a considerable acreage has been planted in very good conditions of soil," says J. R. Sage of the Iowa crop bureau. "The bulk of the Corn area is likely to be planted earlier than the past season, and the acreage will be increased. Oats and other spring Grain crops are making a fairly good stand. Pastures and meadows are doing well."

According to the records of the Financial Chronicle, the aggregate of municipal bonds issued in April was $12,161,444, as against $14,748,624 in March and $7,995,321 in February. In April, 1903, the total was $27,638,320. Temporary loans in April consisted of $20,056,316, $3,600,000 Philippine loans, $6,000,0.0 Mexican loans and $497,178 Canadian loans were also put out in April, 1904, but are not included in the above total. The sale of $20,000,000 to New City bonds May 3 will probably make a record-breaking total for the month.

Messages received by a Chicago stock house, Wednesday, from one of the Steel corporation directors were to the effect that it already had been practically decided to reduce the dividend on United States Steel preferred stock at the next quarterly meeting. One of the directors of the corporation was quoted in the message as saying that the earnings for the quarter would show up better than they were expected to show, but that the prospective decline in business was sufficient for the purpose of discounting the reduction in the dividend rate. Chicago representatives of the corporation say the business is dull and shows no signs of improvement. The railroads are now asking any rails, and the Carnegie mills, which handle a large part of the rail orders, have very little to do.

A member of the Steel bond conversion syndicate, which expires on May 17, understands that a tacit agreement has been reached between the Steel corporation and the bond conversion syndicate, whereby the former will not insist upon the conversion of the preferred stock before May, 1905. This will give the members of the syndicate a chance to dispose of the second mortgages 5 per cent bonds which they will be asked to take over May 17, without coming in market competition with the bonds now held by the Steel corporation, which, it is said, are to be put in getting preferred stock. As it is estimated that the profits of the syndicate will have distributed pro rata among them about $80,0.0,000 of the second mortgage 5 per cent bonds out of the possession of the syndicate, the importance of this agreement with the Steel corporation is apparent.

The Chicago Inter Ocean says: "By almost unanimous vote the members of the lake lodges of the American Association of Masters and Mates have turned down the proposition made by the executive committee of the Lake Carriers' Association in regard to wages, and one of the biggest struggles for years on the inland waters is believed to be inevitable. It will rival the great railroad strike in 1894, when in the neighborhood of 100,000 employes of the various railroads involved were directly affected. The tie-up includes fully 75 per cent of the largest vessel tonnage on the great lakes, or that which is enrolled in the Lake Carriers' Association. The officials of the organization contend that fully 250,000 wage earners are directly and indirectly affected, to say nothing of the vast amount of tonnage in Ore, Coal, merchandise, and Grain that will be held for which the usual transportation facilities offered by the lake routes. There appears to be not the slightest chance for any further conference being held. All negotiations are said to have been broken off."

The controversy between the New York banks and trust companies was accentuated, Monday, when three of the five Wall Street trust companies under supervision of the State announced their decision to abandon clearing house privileges rather than submit to the 10 per cent reserve requirement which becomes effective July 1 next. These companies are the Title Guarantee and Trust, with deposits of nearly $31,000,000; the Colonial, with some $10,000,0.0, and the Washington, with nearly $11,000,0.0. It was also announced that the Real Estate Trust Company, with nearly $7,000,000 deposits, had already ceased operations through the clearing house. This leaves only three Wall Street trust companies in the Knickerbocker, with $13,000,0.0 deposits; the City, with $13,000,000, and the Manhattan, with $10,000,000, now enjoying clearing house privileges. In other words, out of thirty-nine trust companies doing business in Manhattan, only one in thirteen now clears with the associated banks. Of these three, the Knickerbocker is expected to drop out, and the deposits of the Manhattan and the City, have not as yet determined what courses they will pursue. Besides these the Manhattan Company and the Bowery and ten others—nine in Brooklyn and one in Jamaica, N. J.—that are under clearing house control. The resignations reduce from $125,000,0.0 to 66,000,000 the volume of trust company deposits under supervision of the clearing house, and gives the associated banks supervision of only $110 000,000 out of $741,0.0,000 deposits reported by the forty nine companies doing business in New York and Brooklyn.

An important step in the merger of the Rock Island and Frisco railway systems has been taken by the Rock Island directors, whereby all the capital stock of the St Louis and Gulf road is to be acquired by the St. Louis, Memphis and Southeastern road, which will itself be owned by the 'Frisco. By the acquisition of the St. Louis and Gulf Railroad the St. Louis, Memphis and Southeastern will have 674 miles of track, and will form the main extension of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois road to Memphis, both by way of St. Louis and Thebes. It will connect at Memphis with the Birmingham line of the 'Frisco system The new road, which will be formally opened June 15, will be the main line of the 'Frisco system to New Orleans. It will also be the 'Frisco's direct line for the Choctaw line of the Rock Island system, thus becoming that system's principal connection with the 'Frisco system. The advance to control the St. Louis and Gulf road and unifying the 'Frisco system involves the retirement of securities aggregating $12,693,000 and the issuance of new securities aggregating $15,000,0.0. A new mortgage of $16,000,000 will be authorized to refund St. Louis, Memphis and Southeastern bonds amounting to $8,330,000. The bonds to be issued will be a first mortgage 5 per cent gold bond, so that to make them more attractive to investors, it is announced that a traffic agreement has been made by which the 'Frisco system and the Chicago and Eastern Illinois road shall pay in lieu of mileage basis, with the local business of the Southeastern, shall give it net earnings annually of not less than $970,000. The 'Frisco system will issue 4 per cent bonds to retire the $4,000,000 collateral trust notes issued for the purpose of acquiring the capital stock of the Southeastern and in part to reimburse the 'Frisco system for advances to cover the cost of construction of the Southeastern, the capital of which will be increased from $12,500,0.0 to $18,000,000.

Judge Colt of the United States Circuit Court in Boston has entered a decree for the foreclosure of a mortgage for $748,000 on the property of the New England Brick Company. The mortgage is held by the Old Colony Trust Company of Boston, trustee of the bondholders, whose claim aggregates $815,381, including principal, interest and charges The court directs the receiver of the brick company to sell the property at auction. The New England Brick Company, which went into the hands of a receiver Feb. 17, after it had defaulted the interest on its bonds, owns extensive yards in Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Maine and New York States. The assets and liabilities were each nominally placed at $4,140,751. It is understood that the foreclosure proceedings are a part of a reorganization plan.

Closed shop agreements with labor unions were given a body blow by the Appellate Court at Chicago, Thursday In an opinion handed down by Judge Adams the court said: "The agreements in question would, if executed, tend to create a monopoly in favor of members of the unions to the exclusion of workmen not members of such unions, and are in this respect unlawful. Contracts tending to create a monopoly are void" The appeal grew out of the strike at the plant of the Kellogg Switchboard and Supply Company last summer, when Judge Holdom fined a number of union officers for conspiracy to injure the business of the company and for picketing the plant. As a result of the decision twenty-three members of the Brass Workers' and Machinists' unions must pay fines of from $50 00 to $100 00 each, while two of the men must serve thirty days in jail

A Philadelphia holder of a large block of United States Steel preferred stock says: "My information is that the United States Steel directors propose to continue the present preferred dividend undiminished. I look for no reduction, unless times should become much worse than they are now. The strike in the building trades is at the bottom of the difficulties that the Steel corporation has encountered. We have tasted in Philadelphia the losses resulting from building strikes, which have been widespread over the country. The facts that the Bellevue-Stratford will cost $1,000 000 more than its owners estimated, and the land title annex $300,000 more, on account of strikes, speak for themselves. In many departments the corporation has done and is doing satisfactorily. I hear that it has received orders for export business that will aggregate about 1,000,000 tons."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS

FLOUR—Market is dull and neglected. Prices easy as quoted on the second page.

WINTER WHEAT—A light milling demand existed, but only for choice Wheat, and prices quotably firm and shade better in some instances. No. 2 Red in store was quotably $1 03@1 05, and fresh arrivals entirely nominal at $1 03@1 07. No 3 Red fresh arrivals sold at $1 06 and quotably $1 00@1 06. No. 2 Hard free on board fresh arrivals quotably 90@94c. No. 3 Hard fresh arrivals free on board sold at 85c for fair to 92½c for choice.

SPRING WHEAT—The market was weaker and prices a shade better. A light milling demand existed, and only for small quantities No. 1 Northern in store quotably May price to ¼c over and ranged at 90@90⅞c, and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 94@96c. No. 2 Northern fresh receipts free on board quotably 93@94c. No. 3 Spring fresh arrivals quotably 85@93c for poor to choice, with a sale at 92½c. No. 4 Spring quotably 62½@85c for ordinary to choice, with sales at 62½@80c.

REGULAR WHEAT—A moderate trade and higher prices ruled early, but values receded later, the close being ⅛c better for May, with July unchanged, and September off ⅛@¼c. Local "shorts" and the Southwest bought with moderate freedom at the start, the comparatively firm cables and falling off in the Australian shipments being the "bull" helps The Northwest was credited with selling on the advance, and on efforts on the part of the early buyers to realize, prices gradually receded, the market acting much the same as on yesterday. Quite a few stop loss orders were uncovered on the decline, which was checked by commission house buying. Australia shipments fell off at 384,000 bu, while those from India are estimated at 1,101,000 bu. Broomhall estimated world's shipment at 10,400,000 bu, and predicted a moderate change in the quantity on ocean passage. Arrivals in the United Kingdom this week 4 400 000 bu, against 4,400,000 bu last week, and 3,600,000 bu one year ago. Liverpool quoted spot steady, and futures only ⅛@¼d lower, in face of the decline on this side yesterday. Paris was ¼c lower to 1c higher and Antwerp unchanged. Berlin ⅜c lower and Buda Pesth 1c higher. The English visible supply increased 576,000 bu, compared with 615,000 bu increase for the same week in 1903. English farmers' deliveries were 424,000 bu at 82c, against 384,000 bu last week at 82¾c and 511 000 bu last year at 84c. Receipts here this week were 121,000 bu and shipments 256,000 bu. Primary receipts this week 1,038,000 bu, against 1,138,000 bu last week and 1 653,000 bu one year ago. Receipts in the Northwest for the week 466 cars, against 531 cars last week and 671 cars one year ago. Map showed no rain in Manitoba and only light showers in Minnesota and the Dakotas. Fair weather followed by showers Sunday predicted for Minnesota and North Dakota; fair for South Dakota Drouth was reported in the Danubian districts of Europe. St. Louis reported all the No 2 Red sold there but 127,600 bu. Minneapolis stocks decreased 650,000 bu this week. Clearings were limited and 8 boat loads accepted at the seaboard Cash situation was one of the late factors, about 150,000 bu No. 1 Northern just missing working late yesterday owing to one shipper getting the boats first. Receipts at Duluth 18 cars and at Minneapolis 49 cars, a total of 67 cars, against 57 cars yesterday, 100 cars a week ago, and 101 cars last year. Local receipts included 22 cars Winter, 1 car Spring, 1 car mixed, a total of 24 cars, against 63 cars last year. Included in the above was 12 cars of contract grade. There was also 28 cars and no bu from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for Monday were 15 cars. The withdrawals were 38,900 bu. Receipts at Western points were 155,233 bu, against 215,714 bu last year; at Eastern points 29,026 bu, against 261,334 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 177,710 bu, against 509,333 bu last year, and from Eastern points 3,500 bu, against 413,262 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 9,944 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 48,048 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Moderate trade and market steady.

DECEMBER—Sold at 78½@78¾c and closed at 78½c.

CORN—Was moderately active, with quite a firm undertone early in the session, values later receding sharply, however, with Wheat, the close being ⅛c lower for May, while the July lost ¼@⅜c and the September ½c. Shipments for the week were twice the receipts—1,625,000 bu, against 833,000 bu—which, with the cash business closed yesterday, tended to impart a better undertone to the market. Early buying of better character than the selling, with floor traders and Provision interests leading. A severe drouth was reported in Roumania Advices from the West indicated a freer movement from the farms, and was a factor. The map was a fine one for field work, clear West and Southwest, and fair and warmer conditions generally predicted Primary receipts this week were 1,852,000 bu, against 2,289,000 bu last week and 2,957,000 bu one year ago. WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW

MONEY AND STOCKS.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY EVENING May 13, 1904.

There is dullness in all the money markets and an easy tone to rates, but there is no lowering of the latter below the 4 per cent mark. Rates depend upon how long a time the loan is for and the amount desired, also on the kind of collateral the borrower has to offer. Most of the banks make a rate of 4½ per cent for call and time 4½ to 5 per cent. Commercial paper is being bought as a means of keeping money employed, and there is a larger demand for it than supply. It pays 4 to 5 per cent. Most of it runs into November and December, the desire of the makers being to provide funds over the Presidential election. In New York rates are low and there is very little call for time money, while on the Stock Exchange loans were at 1¼ to 2 per cent. Sixty day loans were at 2 per cent, ninety days 2½ per cent, and six months over the election 3 to 3½ per cent. Gold continues to be exported in liberal quantities, but is not creating any uneasiness. The flotation of the Japanese and Russian loans shows the vast amounts of idle capital in European centers.

New York exchange was steady with moderate offerings at 20@30c premium per $1,000, and closed at 25c.

Foreign exchange was steady with offerings of bills light, owing to the small exports. Shippers' sixty day documentary sterling bills on London ranged at 484⅜@484½, and closed steady.

Cotton in New York was sold mainly by the "shorts" and bought largely by New Orleans interests. The latter appear to be accumulating a line and bought during the greater part of the week. A scarcity of sellers in Liverpool had a good deal to do with forcing an advance there. Weather and crop reports were mainly better. Receipts continue light and exports fair. At the close prices were 14 to 30 points lower than the previous week.

Local Securities were extremely slow, speculators being indifferent about taking either side. Biscuit shares were offered sparingly, and prices held steadily within a narrow range. Comparatively little Can stock was offered. The Diamond Match Company report heavy sales of pine logs, but it is always in the market as a seller at this time of the year, disposing of that portion of its cut of logs that it cannot use in the Match business. Elevated and cable shares were easy. The bond market presented good activity, money rates being low and more idle funds are finding their way into investment bonds than heretofore this year.

In the New York Stock market there was little relief from the recent dullness that has pervaded Wall Street and the daily record of business was about as light as at any time this year. Most of the large operators and the public are waiting for developments. There are no "bullish" conditions in the business situation, and for the time being traders are holding off for the outcome of presidential conventions and for further progress in the crop situation. On the latter will depend a large part of the rail earnings and the general business of the country. Gold continues to be exported in payment of Panama Canal property and is almost at an end, possibly $2,000,000 more than has already been shipped. The only incident of the week was the flotation of the $50,000,000 new Japanese loan being taken in New York, London, Berlin and Paris. Bonds bear 6 per cent and run for seven years, but are redeemable at the option of the Japanese Government after 1907 at par. The issue price is said to be 90½. Prices averaged lower and closing sales were at liberal losses for the week. Total sales on the New York Stock Exchange for the week were 1,401,000 shares, against 1,154,000 shares the previous week, and 2,321,000 shares for the same time last year.

The principal Stocks traded in on the New York Stock Exchange and the number of shares disposed of during the week was as follows:

There was quietness in the mercantile trade, with the disposition to go slow and take small lots. Improved weather over the greater part of the country increased buying of dry goods and other lines where retailers in the interior had a chance to dispose of their spring stocks, and sales of this character were enlarged. There was a fair business in shoes and leather. New buying of Iron and Steel is not increasing and there is a more unsatisfactory condition of affairs than has prevailed in this line of late. The mills are getting specifications on old orders and are turning out a great deal of material which is passing into consumption at good prices. Railroads are buying Steel rails to a fair extent at $28.00 for standard sections, but would buy many more were the price to be materially lowered. Good quantities of structural material are being bought. Pig Iron is moving in smaller lots to consumers and there is an easy tone, with some furnace men more disposed to take all orders offered at anywhere near current figures. Production is heavy and it will require a large increase in consumption to keep up with the output for any length of time. Wire and nails are not selling as fast as two months ago, but in other lines of light and heavy hardware there was an increased trade. Lumber and building material went to out of town buyers in larger quantities and prices were well held. Local business was somewhat curtailed by the strike of lime and cement teamsters which threatens to reduce building operations for a time. Yellow pine of the South is competing more sharply with Norway and hemlock in Northern markets and in some instances underselling them. White pine is in lighter stock than usual and firmly held. In groceries and drugs business was moderate.

COMMERCIAL.

Business in commercial circles on the Chicago Board of Trade the past week was only of moderate volume, the bulk of the speculative trade being confined almost exclusively to local professional and floor operators. Outside orders as a rule were for moderate amounts, and mainly from speculative centers, the smaller operators in the interior not being in the market to any marked extent. Values were governed to a great degree by natural conditions, the weather being a potent influence in all the leading markets. The movement of Grain, domestic and foreign crop news, exports and cash demand, too, were dominant factors in shaping the course of values. The Government report on Wheat proved something of a surprise in the showing on acreage, the area abandoned or plowed up being greatly in excess of general expectations. Commission merchants are looking forward to an improved business with spring work out of the way, and the coming month no doubt will witness greater opportunities for speculative ventures in Grain as well as Hog Products. Shippers are still handicaped by the lake situation, the outlook for a settlement of the strike being far from bright. The Board of Trade directors have adopted a plan for an official department of Grain sampling and Seed inspection. The plan provides for the notification to the present official samplers that their tenure of office expires May 31, and that after that date they shall issue no official certificates. A committee of five members of the Exchange is to be selected to exercise control of the new bureau. A chief sampler is to be selected and is to employe his assistants. A report is to be made by the bureau of its receipts and expenditures. Nothing in the arrangement is to prevent buyers or sellers making personal inspection, but no one but the official samplers shall issue official certificates. The charges are to be 3c a car and 25c per 10,000 bu for cargoes.

Crop conditions abroad were reported as generally satisfactory the past week. Advices from the United Kingdom, Spain and Italy noted favorable development, and in France crops are said to be making good progress, with supplies of native Wheat plentiful. Seasonable weather has prevailed in Germany and the outlook is promising. Reports from Russia were somewhat conflicting, but taking the advices as a whole but moderate results are indicated. Recent showers in Roumania were beneficial to the growing crops. Crops are reported in excellent shape in Northern Africa and harvesting will be under way the last of May. In Australia conditions continue favorable for seeding operations.

Weather conditions in the United States and Canada the past week were favorable for farm work and crop development. Spring Wheat seeding is practically finished except in the wet sections of North Dakota and Minnesota. The early sown is said to be making good growth in the Northwestern States. A general improvement in condition of the Winter Wheat is indicated, especially over western parts of belt, and in the Middle Atlantic States. Outlook in Ohio Valley States continues very poor. The Government report made the condition 76.5 May 1, against 76.5 last month and 92.6 one year ago. On an area of 27,083,000 acres this would indicate a crop of 353,-245,000 bu, as against a final report last year of 401,685,000 bu. Corn planting is now in full operation throughout the greater part of the belt and a large area is assured. Early sown Oats are generally improved and in promising condition throughout the Central Valleys and Middle Atlantic States, but in the South Atlantic and East Gulf States, the outlook is poor where Oats are heading.

The movement of Grain from the farms and interior elevators the past week was again rather small. Bright weather and seasonable temperatures found farmers in the fields, busily engaged with spring work and until the same is completed little or no enlargement in the receipts at terminal points may be expected. In the Northwest arrivals at the principal points of accumulation were light and this was pretty much the case through the West and Southwest. Shipments from these same points, on the contrary, were moderately free, particularly so of Wheat. The movement of Grain Eastward is still restricted owing to the strike on the lakes, the expected settlement of the difficulty this week failing to be realized. All things considered, however, there was a fair business closed, the same to go out all rail. Exports continue small and insignificant at the seaboard and the new business booked was most limited. According to the monthly statement of the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN the world's supply of Breadstuffs decreased 2,916,000 bu during April, against 5,908,000 bu decrease in March and 20,436,000 bu decrease in April, 1903. The total on May 1 was 154,537,000 bu, compared with 155,126,000 bu on the corresponding date one year ago. According to the official weekly supply of Grain in the United States and Canada, compiled by the Secretary of the Chicago Board of Trade, there were decreases in the supplies of Wheat, Corn, Oats Rye, and Barley. Bradstreet's exhibited a fair decrease in the stocks of Wheat, compared with a heavy reduction for the corresponding week in 1903. Corn and Oats showed liberal decreases, compared with moderate reductions for the corresponding period one year ago.

A fair speculative business was witnessed in the leading markets on 'Change the past week. Transactions, however, are chiefly local and confined in the main to professionals. While no marked or sensational changes were recorded, fluctuations were quite frequent within the limits established. Sentiment in Wheat was very much mixed, the effect of the "bullish" government report being in a measure offset by the fine weather and generally "bearish" statistics as presented the closing days. The apathy of foreign markets to the upward tendency on this side, too, acted as a depressing influence. The Corn trade was much mixed, the favorable weather and lake situation on the one side, and small receipts on the other. All things considered, the tone was weak. Oats, too, closed lower; the weather and the crop reports were satisfactory, but their effect was offset by the small receipts and the reduced available supply. Rye was quiet and easy. Seeds were dull and Barley neglected. Hog Products attracted only moderate attention, with the undertone somewhat easier. Outside orders were not very numerous, and local speculators and packers not inclined to trade to any extent. Hogs were easier and in fair supply. Speculative offerings liberal and demand only fair. Packing of the West for the week exhibited an increase of 15,000 Hogs compared with the returns for the corresponding week in 1903. The aggregate for the season to date is now reported at 3,951,000 Hogs, compared with 3,610,000 for the corresponding week last year.

The trade in cash Grain is still restricted owing to the fact that lake navigation has failed to open. Shippers are, in consequence, handicapped and business is as yet confined to moderate quantities, which go East all rail. Car lots of all descriptions, however, sold well and commanded satisfactory prices. Wheat was scarce and the choice grades wanted by speculators and millers. Corn, too, was in smaller supply and sold more readily, with the yellow still commanding liberal premiums. Oats likewise were in good request and offerings small. Demand for round lots was improved and prices stronger. Rye was quiet and the trade in Seeds limited. Hay was in fair demand with the receipts moderate. Hog Products were in limited request, but at the same time there was no particular pressure to sell. Sales were small with no essential change in values. Hogs were in fair supply and prices favored buyers. Cattle were marketed in fair numbers and prices were comparatively steady. Receipts of Sheep were moderate and prices without important change.

FREIGHTS—Grain is going Eastward more freely by rail as the lake tie-up continues, and there is no prospect of a settlement in sight. Rates from the West advance June 1, and will be 12c on Wheat and 11c on Corn from Missouri River to Chicago. The new tariff is as follow:

To—	From Chicago. Domestic.	From Chicago. Export.	From Miss. River Domestic.	From Miss. River Export.
Boston..........	19½	13½	2[illegible]½	16
New York........	17½	13½	19½	16
Philadelphia . ..	15½	12½	17½	15
Baltimore	14½	11	16½	14½
Newport News...	14½	11	16½	14½

Flour rates are to be 17½c domestic and 15c for export. Provisions are 30c per 100 lbs, Chicago to New York.

Rail rates at and east of Buffalo to New York are 4c per bu on Wheat, 3¾c on Corn, 3½c on Barley and 3c on Oats.

Ocean rates on Grain are easy and the engagements light. Rates on Grain are ½@¾d per bu from New York and ½d from Boston. Through rate on Wheat from Chicago to Liverpool is 10¼c per bu and Corn 10¼c. Flour 19c per 100 lbs and Provisions 35½c per 100 lbs.

For boats able to load and get away at once 2¼c was paid for Corn to Buffalo. Only the Lumber and Canadian boats are able to operate under the present conditions.

FLOUR—There is no demand to speak of from any source. The exporter is taking a little Flour now and then to fill in with, but in a general way his bids are too low to be considered by the millers or exporters. His supplies from this country are purchased mainly for blending purposes. Outside of this the foreign trade is dull. The demand which Chicago enjoyed a few weeks ago from points this side of Pittsburg, is now missing, and there is no demand from the New England trade. People at the seaboard want very little Flour and stocks there are ample at present. The local trade is dull. There is no reselling going on at present as jobbers' stocks are not as large as they were a few weeks ago. The mills are running only on part time, not caring to pile up Flour for which there is no demand. The Southwestern and Northwestern interior mills are offering very little Flour here. Stocks in the United States and Canada on May 1 as reported by the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN were 2,190,000 brls, as against 1,818,000 brls on April 1, and 2,001,000 brls May 1, 1903. Dornbusch's Buda Pesth correspondent writing under date of April 23 said: "The railway strike this week seriously affected the business in the Flour market, which has been brought to a standstill. Stocks are increasing, although millers have been compelled to restrict their output by reducing the working time two days during the week. Whether this partial stoppage will continue, or what further steps will be taken by millers, will depend upon the outcome of the now threatened strike of laborers. In the meantime the situation can only be described as stagnant, with practically no transactions to record." We quote the following prices which are entirely nominal:

MILLSTUFFS—A good demand has existed during the past week and prices were advanced 50c per ton. The offerings have been light. Bran in bulk quotable at $18 00@18 50 per ton and sales in 100-lb sacks, sacks included, at $19 00@19 50 per ton.

WINTER WHAET—A firm feeling existed during the past week for choice Wheat, either soft or hard winter, and in some instances higher prices were realized, notably choice soft No. 2 and No. 3 Red, while poor Wheat ruled dull, and in the case of No. 4 Hard 1@2c lower prices had to be accepted. There has been a good demand on milling account and besides the car lots of fresh arrivals received from day to day, there were occasinal round lots sold. But the in store lots of No. 2 Red were held so much above the prices for May delivery as to almost prohibit trading. Only a few cars of fresh arrivals were received, and these taken up quite readily, excepting the poor Wheat, for which there was no special inquiry. The No. 2 Red in store was quotably from 12 to 15c over May prices while No. 2 Hard in store ruled from May price in store to 2½c over May free on board. Of No. 2 Red there was only 257,100 bu in store, against 1,297,000 bu one year ago. Of No. 2 Hard in store there was only 43,515 bu in store, against none the corresponding week last year. The Government crop report made condition of the growing winter Wheat 76.5—the same as last month, with a reduction in the area of about 4,900,000 acres, indicating a yield of 353,000,000 bu, against 415,000,000 bu last month. The receipts for the week aggregated 100 cars, against 99 cars the previous week. There were withdrawn from public elevators 244,470 bu, and from private warehouses 86 cars and 52,700 bu. No. 2 Red in store quotably $1 02@1 06 and fresh arrivals free on board sold at $1 03@1 08—outside for choice soft. No. 3 fresh receipts free on board ranged at 98@$1 07 depending on quality—outside price for choice soft. No. 2 Hard fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 95@95c and 5,000 bu taken from store and placed free on board bought ½c premium over May and one lot sold at ½c over May price. No. 3 Hard fresh arrivals free on board sold at 86@91½c and ranged at 83@92c for poor to choice. No. 4 Hard fresh receipts sold at 68@70c for poor to 79@81c for good.

SPRING WHEAT—The market has ruled steady for Spring Wheat, and for choice, prices were slightly higher early in the week, but closed weaker and shade lower. A fair demand existed and some round lots besides the car lots of fresh arrivals were sold. Millers bought quite freely; some lots were taken for shipment. The high prices asked for Winter Wheat no doubt turned millers to using more Spring Wheat. The receipts have been small and scarcely enough Wheat arriving to make a market for fresh arrivals. The receipts for the week aggregated 48 cars against 33 cars the previous week. There were withdrawn from public elevators 92,050 bu and 68 cars from private warehouses. No. 1 Northern in store ruled the same as May to ½c over and ranged at 90@92½c, and fresh arrivals free on board at 93@96c. No. 2 Northern fresh receipts quotable at 88@95c. No. 3 Spring fresh receipts sold at 84@89c. No. 4 Spring sold at 77@83c and ranged at 62@86c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—There was a fair trade in this market the past week, but chiefly local and a good deal on the professional order. Fluctuations were frequent within the limits established with closing prices 1⅜c lower for the May, the old July losing 2½@2⅝c, and new September 2@2⅛c. Sentiment was decidedly mixed and the market quite nervous at times, particularly on Monday and Tuesday, prior to the appearance of the government report. The report proved more "bullish" than expected, particularly as regards the area abandoned. The condition of Winter Wheat was placed at 76.5 per cent, or the same as on April 1, against 92.6 May 1, 1903, and 78.8 July 1, 1903. The area abandoned was reported as 15.4 per cent, leaving 27,083,500 acres. This would indicate a crop of 353,245,000 bu, against 401,685,000 bu raised last year. The following table shows the area abandoned in the principal States:

	Acres		Acres.
Indiana............	904,000	Illinois...........	269,000
Kansas	713,000	Michigan	259,000
Ohio.	475,000	Nebraska..........	216,000
California..........	391,000	Pennsylvania	100,000
Oklahoma	374,000	Kentucky	100,000
Texas	289,000	Missouri	100,000

The statement was rather indifferently received by the speculative element, owing, no doubt, to the fact that the private reports published last week were much of the same character. The fine weather most of the week, "bearish" foreign statistics as well as crop advices were against the price, and in a measure tended to offset the effect of the statement noted above. There was, however, considerable covering by "shorts" the opening days, under which May touched 92½c, old July 88c and old September 82½@82⅝. The visible supply decreased 664,000 bu, against 1,019,000 bu decrease for the same week in 1903. The stocks at Fort William, Port Arthur, Montreal, and Toronto, Canadian points, increased 818,000 bu, compared with a decrease of 16,000 bu last year. American stocks decreased 1,472,000 bu, compared with a decrease of 994,000 bu the corresponding date last year. Total is now reported 29,691,000 bu, compared with 32,446,000 bu in 1903, and 35,301,000 bu in 1902. Local public and afloat stocks decreased 108,-000 bu, and now include 1,943,000 bu, as against 5,011,000 bu the corresponding date one year ago. Stocks here in all positions were reduced 3,8,000 bu, and are now 4,311,000 bu, compared with 7,343,-000 bu same day in 1903. Contract stocks decreased 249,051 bu, and now include 659,868 bu, against 2,799,-713 bu one year ago. Bradstreet's decreased 1,180,000 bu, against 6,317,000 bu decrease same week in 1903. The world's shipments were larger than was expected, at 12,680,000 bu (Russia contributing 3,944,-000 bu) as against 10,180,000 bu previous week and 12,584,000 bu one year ago. The quantity on ocean passage increased 3,010,000 bu, and is now 53,901,000 bu, or 18,781,000 bu larger than last year at this time. According to the monthly statement of the Daily Trade Bulletin the world's supply of Breadstuffs decreased 2,916,000 bu during April, compared with 20,433,000 bu decrease for the same month in 1903. The following table shows the supplies of Breadstuffs afloat for Europe and in store in Europe and Argentina on the dates named:

	May 1,'04. Bu	Apr. 1,'04. Bu.	May 1, '03. Bu.
Afloat for Europe...	50,890,000	44,870,000	33,640,000
In store in Europe .	34,470,000	36,460,000	22,590,000
In store-Argentina..	4,448,000	4,784,000	4,008,000
In store-America....	64,729,000	71,339,000	74,888,000

The secretary of the Grain Dealers' Association of Manitoba and the territories estimates the farmers still have in hand for marketing about 1,500,000 bu to 2,000,000 bu of Wheat. This would make in the neighborhood of 7,000,000 bu Wheat to be forwarded and inspected during the remainder of the season. He estimates the crop at 50,200,000 bu; there have been inspected so far 30,250,000 bu. There is in store, country points, 5,680,000 bu, making the total marketed 36,180,000 bu. He allows 7,590,000 bu for seed and 6,500,000 bu for country mills. The Government weekly crop bulletin reported Spring Wheat seeding practically finished and the early sown coming up nicely. A general improvement was also reported in the condition of Winter Wheat, outside sections of the Ohio Valley, and Kansas reports indicated record yield, with favorable weather between now and harvest, and likewise tended to create a weaker tone. Conservative authorities in that State claimed the area plowed up was nearer 2 per cent than 12½ per cent as reported in the Government report. Advices from the Northwest were most favorable regarding seeding operations and Montreal authorities predicted Manitoba and the Northwest Territories would raise 86,000,000 bu Wheat this season. The San Francisco Weekly Commercial News of May 6 said: "Reports from the Sacramento Valley indicate that weather conditions are favorable for all Grain crops, and that Wheat is making an excellent stand and has been greatly benefited by the heavy rainfall; a full yield is expected in nearly all places. In the San Joaquin Wheat has made good growth and is generally reported in fine condition. In Southern California the crop will be light. Along the coast a full yield is looked for." One of the larger houses in the Northwest claimed the Northwest would have 10 per cent more Wheat area than in 1903 and sized up conditions there as follows: "We'll be through our seeding by May 15. There has been an abudance of moisture and the frost was deep. That is a very favorable factor. There will be some low land in the Red River Valley which will not be seeded because of excessive moisture, but it is always the case when it is dry enough to seed the whole of the Red River Valley, it is too dry for some of the Wheat land in the West. Minneapolis will have enough Wheat to carry it through the crop, and the talk of exhaustion is over, but the Northwest will not carry over much Wheat." The foreign situation was summed up by Broomhall, who cabled the following Tuesday: "United Kingdom, Italy and Spain—Weather past week has been very favorable and crops have made satisfactory progress. France—Wheat has made good progress under continuance of most favorable weather conditions; supplies of native Wheat are plentiful and are constantly becoming cheaper as demand is not good, owing to millers exhibiting a tendency to wait for still lower prices. Germany. Seasonable weather has prevailed the past week and crops are growing satisfactorily; native Wheat rather scarce and offerings are light. Russia. Conditions diverse in different portions of the empire, but taking them as a whole moderate results are expected; good reserves in the interior but holders are apparently not anxious to sell owing to uncertainty regarding final crop outcome. Roumania—Recent showers have been insufficient to relieve the drouth conditions and crops are suffering for want of rain. North Africa—Wheat crop in excellent shape; harvesting will commence about the 25th of this month. Australia—Conditions continue favorable for seeding." "Long" property came out as the week advanced and May declined to 90c, while July reacted to 84⅞c and September to 80⅛c. One of the "bear" arguments presented was the fact of September Wheat at Kansas City selling 10c under Chicago and no export business being closed for forward shipment purchases of old July would appear dangerous. The meager exports from day to day, unsatisfactory Flour situation and limited foreign demand also worked against the price. Primary receipts, however, fell short of last year and the total between July 1 and May 9 aggregates 209,243,000 bu, against 230,300,000 bu in 1902-3 and 229,470,000 bu in 1901-2. Exports this week were only 735,000 bu and since July 1 foot up 123,6[illegible] bu as compared with 193,989,000 bu in 1902-3. Argentine shipped 3,661,000 bu, making 34,216,0[illegible] since Jan 1, compared with 34,508,000 bu in 1903. The visible there is now 5,410,000 bu, against 4,784,000 last week and 4,008,000 bu one year ago.

CORN—The Corn market was moderately active the past week, and the feeling manifested was rather unsettled. All things considered, however, the market displayed a weaker tone, and the close shows the May ¼c lower, while July lost ⅜c and the September ⅜c. The small receipts, more liberal outward movement and decreasing supplies tended to impart a stronger tone the opening days, as also did the prospect of the strike on the lakes being settled. The cash situation too, was more encouraging to "bull" interests and was likewise a help. There was a liberal reduction in the visible supply as well as local stocks and indications are for further large decreases. July "shorts" were a little disturbed at times by the attitude of certain local "bull" traders credited with controlling a July line well up in millions and covered freely on the declines. July advanced on miscellaneous buying to 49⅜@49½c, while September sold to 49c and December to 44¼c. The visible supply decreased 933,000 bu, compared with 249,000 bu decrease same week in 1903. Total is now 6,897,000 bu, against 6,210,000 bu in 1903 and 5,0[illegible]7,000 bu in 1902. Local public and afloat stocks decreased 348,000 bu and now include 5,010,000 bu, against 1,774,000 bu same date one year ago. Stocks here in all positions were reduced 611,000 bu and are now 8,314,000 bu, compared with 3,110,000 bu the corresponding date in 1903. Contract stocks decreased 708,093 bu and are now 3,913,811 bu, compared with 1,413,127 bu one year ago. Bradstreet's decreased 1,551,000 bu, compared with 756,000 bu decrease the corresponding period one year ago. World's shipments were 1,748,000 bu, against 2,76[illegible]000 bu the previous week and 3,581,000 bu last year. The quantity on ocean passage increased 1,762,000 bu and is now 8,182,000 bu, or 969,000 bu smaller than a year ago. Among the "bear" influences as the week advanced was the adjournment of the conference at Cleveland between the Masters and Lake Carriers' Association without coming to any settled agreement. This left the freight situation as uncertain as ever. Agents here were completely at sea, and advised shippers not to expect any speedy settlement of the difficulty. This brought shipping business to a standstill and was used as a "bear" argument. Another factor was the weather. Climatic conditions most of the week were very favorable for plowing and planting and advices from several of the surplus States indicated that Corn would have an earlier start than usual. The weekly weather crop bulletin stated that Corn planting was in operation under favorable conditions throughout the northern part of belt. But in Nebraska, Kansas and in Iowa this work has made good progress, and it is likely the bulk of the crop in those States will be planted earlier than in recent years. Over the southern part of the Middle Atlantic States planting is well advanced, and has begun in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. The Illinois crop report said much ground has been prepared for Corn and some planting done. Under favorable weather conditions a large acreage will be planted during the ensuing week. The Iowa bulletin was likewise very favorable. The reaction in Wheat also induced "short" selling. Provision interests in some cases entertaining "bear" views and the July reacted, touching 47⅝c while September sold to 47¼c. Receipts this week were small, only 695 cars being inspected, against 1,162 cars last week. Receipts through the West were considerably smaller than for the same week last year, but exports were likewise less. Clearances from day to day were meagre, and the total for the week aggregates but 120,000 bu. Total from July 1 to date 49,185,000 bu, as compared with 61,346,000 bu for the same period in 1902-3. Bookings at the seaboard for forward shipment were also insignificant. Argentine shipments this week were larger at 861,000 bu, making the total since January 1, 4,929,000 bu, against 11,368,000 bu same period in 1903. The visible supply there is 1,5[illegible] 000 bu, against 1,481,000 bu the same date last year. The following table exhibits the exports of Corn from the following countries from November 1, 1903, to April 23, 1904, compared with the corresponding time in 1902-3:

America.........................	29,392,000	51,87[illegible],000
Russia..	7,381,000	4,31[illegible]
Danube and neighborhood..	16,6[illegible]6,000	11,2[illegible]
Argentina	23,204,000	5,821,000
Other Countries..............	296,000	1,568,000
Total	76,992,000	71,9[illegible]4,000

Car lots were in good demand all the week and the offerings small. Yellow Corn still holds its premium over mixed, and prices for all grades commanded satisfactory prices.

OATS—The market for Oats during the past week was active with a stronger undertone, being independent of Wheat, as it advanced, while Wheat declined. There was heavy covering of "shorts" in July and September and fair investment buying, with no great pressure to sell. May was affected by small receipts and reduced stocks and was easily bid up, while at times there was no particular buying support and prices receded on comparatively small offerings. May ranged between 40½@42c, and closed at 41⅞c, gaining ⅞c. The best trading was in July and September. July selling between 38⅝@39¼c and closing at 38⅝@38⅞c, a loss of ⅛c for the week. September sold at 30½c and 31¼c and closed at 30½c. Weather and the crop reports were more favorable for the growing crop. The Government crop bulletin said: "Early sown Oats are generally improved and in promising condition throughout the central valleys and Middle Atlantic States, but in the South Atlantic and East Gulf States the outlook is poor where Oats are heading." Cash offerings were smaller, and prices in the sample market declined 1c early, and later recovered it. Shipping business was fair, the East and South taking hold moderately for rail shipments. Receipts were small and holdings in this State are said to be unusually light. Arrivals for the week were 417 cars, against 478 cars the previous week and 331 cars for the same time last year. Local stock in public bouses decreased 535,000 bu for the week all being contract and in two weeks they decreased 1,070,000 bu. Stocks at the close in private store were 1,607,000 bu Standard and in all positions are 3,493,000 bu, a net loss of 644,000 bu. Seaboard clearances were 62,000 bu, entered with 156,333 bu the previous week and 69,0 0 bu last year.

RYE—The market has ruled very quiet all the week. Trading has been light, and, as far as business was concerned, the market was unsatisfactory, as only an occasional transaction occurred, either in cash or futures Occasionally there was some demand for May or July and then there were no sellers and prices were bid up 2@3c and then when there was a disposition to sell there were no buyers, hence trading unsatisfactory. For fresh receipts there was a fair demand, millers and other dealers wanting a few cars for manufacturing purposes, but the light offerings prevented trading. The receipts for the week aggregated 9 cars, against 15 cars the previous week. There were 3 000 bu withdrawn from public elevators and 16 car loads were taken from private warehouses. Export clearances from the seaboard and Toledo aggregated 93,000 bu and was reported at 993,000 bu, against 1,036 000 bu the previous week and 1,102,000 bu one year ago. The local stock in store was 345,000 bu and a year ago was 342,000 bu. No. 2 in store was quotable at about 70c early in the week and 72@73c later; fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 71@73c, with sales of 2 cars at 71c. No 3 fresh receipts free on board sold at 69@71c. No future deliveries of No 2 Rye the market was quiet. May was 70c bid early in the week and later sold at 73c and closed with 73c asked. July opened at 65c bid, the was 69c asked and closed at 64½c bid and 66½c asked.

BARLEY—Transactions were of small volume the past week They could not be otherwise in view of the offerings On the spot the market was a few cases appeared daily. It looks very much as if the country had become well cleaned up. The light daily arrivals and the few to arrive lots offered were inferior in the main. The poor and screenings, and badly damaged musty Barley were kinds for which there was no special demand. All goods above such qualities at the same time were wanted. Both Prairie and Feeding sorts were present as buyers. Steadiness for medium grades prevailed and firmness for the better qualities was a feature of the market. As to values, in comparing with closing figures of a week ago there could not be said to have been any essential change. Inspected in during the week 84 cars compared with 76 cars the week before and 140 cars two weeks ago. There were taken out 14,700 bu; withdrawals a week ago were 65,125 bu and two weeks ago 43,830 bu. No exports from New York reported, the past week; a week ago 4,672 bu cleared from that port. Visible supply decreased 316,000 bu, and last report gave 2,399,000 bu, against 1,281,000 bu, the same time last year. Local stock decreased 4,300 bu and it was 137,700 bu; a year ago it was 180,949 bu. There was the usual slight difference in prices, there being covered a range as follows: Screenings 27@38c for poor to choice Barley —low grade feed or mixing at 33@35c, outside good weighs. Malting low grade, 38@42c; fair to good sound, 45@48c; good color, 50@53c, and fancy possibly above

SEEDS—Nothing like animation was present in any department of the market the past week. There was a little interest in some lines and in others none. The changes in values also were very modest and furnished little comment for Cash Timothy was favored with a fair demand but aside from that there was no especial inquiry. As a rule the Flax market was without offerings and only occasionally was any one offered and then Clover on sale comprised small lots. The entire trade was of a quiet order as detailed below.

Timothy—Contract spot and future delivery quotations did not vary materially from those current at the close of last week. The market was devoid of transactions. In fact Cash or May buy no interest was shown. In the few instances where there were buyers for or sellers of September delivery there was a difference in views on values and they prevented trading. Offerings on the regular market there were only meagre offerings, though posted arrivals were up to those of the past two weeks and in excess of the corresponding week last year. It is getting late for trade. There must have been something doing on outside account, for a moderate demand existed on the open market. Where Seed was of good quality and also fairly free from dockage to such an extent that there was about 10c advance. The output, however, fell short of a year ago. Aggregate movement as indicated by the daily reports, with comparisons, was as follows:

Receipts the past week, lbs.	601,072
The previous week	659,293
Two weeks ago	561,851
Same time last year	572,560
Shipments the past week, lbs.	337,000
The previous week	337,000
Two weeks ago	401,200
Same time last year	349,000

Contract spot or May delivery stood at a nominal quotation of $2 90 to $3 00 during the week. September was usually salable at around $2 15 to $2 20, and when there was a demand it was at 5c to 10c above that figure. After the small changes noted there was for country lots a quotable range of $1 00 @ 3 00 for low grade to fancy, choice about $2 85@2 90, fair to good, $2 50@2 80, and rough at $2 00@2 40.

Flax—There was a nominally steady market. Price changes were confined to a 4@5c range. The market was almost without business and was practically nominal. The only semblance of life was the sale of an occasional stray car load. Arrivals were small here, also in the Northwest. The idea was natural around selling values. Seeding time the Flax remaining will be likely to come to market if the crop starts out at all well. The little change which occurred was due to conditions in the Northwest as mentioned in expected. Shipments showed only 25 cars received during the week; the previous week arrivals were 18 cars and two weeks ago 20 cars. No output during the week; the week ago 20,000 bu were made and two weeks ago 8,333 bu. Northwestern stocks exhibit 116,000 bu net decrease. There was no change at Chicago 31,000 bu reported. Duluth had 77,742 bu a year ago. Duluth had 64,000 bu increase, reporting 8 065,000 bu, and Minneapolis, with 180,068 bu decrease, had 604,900 bu. No. 1 Northwestern covered a range of 98@98¾c; closed at 98¾c. No. 1 was nominally $1 01@1 01½ and Rejected 95c@$1 01, outside for choice from the Northwest May delivery was quoted at $1 01@1 01½; closed at $1 01, and July was $1 02@1 04½, closing at $1 02. Quotations for September delivery varied from $1 05 to $1 07½, closing at $1 05 sellers.

Clover—Movement of Clover has been failing off steadily of late, until it has become small, quite in conformity with the lateness of the season. Regular market offerings were comprised of a number of lots. These ranged from fair to good, down to poor. Some small lots were badly mixed with Plantain and Buckhorn, and had to be sold low. Nothing of a high grade came in. Futures received no attention whatever. The market ruled so quiet that it could be called otherwise than dull. There did at the same time prevail a steady feeling. No essential change in prices occurred. Movement for the week was as follows:

Receipts the past week, lbs.	162,915
The previous week	108,555
Two weeks ago	149,983
Same time last year	1,920
Shipments the past week, lbs.	370,000
The previous week	32,040
Two weeks ago	110,970

Corresponding week last year.....None.

The market for contract spot Seed was nominal during the week at $10 25. Country lots common to choice, $7 75@10 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $5 00@8 00; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@5 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $5 50@8 50.

Other Seeds—Little or nothing was done. Inaction due to absence of offerings. No change in prices quoted. The different kinds were quoted as salable, and good qualities quotably steady. Prices quoted from day to day are shown in the table elsewhere given. Receipts and shipments with comparisons were as follows:

Receipts—The past week, lbs.	207,916
A week ago	808,430
Two weeks ago	930,200
Same time last year	1,041,000
Shipments—The past week, lbs.	941,760
A week ago	877,010
Two weeks ago	1,166,100
Same time last year	344,224

Buckwheat was nominally firmer. None offered and no special demand as yet, but anticipating a demand will soon arise a firmer feeling prevailed.

HAY—The receipts for the week were 3,553 tons, against 3,512 tons for the previous week. Shipments for the week were 107 tons, against 241 tons for the previous week. Only a moderate business was transacted in this market during the past week. The receipts were fair and demand just about sufficient to absorb the offerings. Prices ruled steady and unchanged. Arrivals of Prairie Hay were rather small and a firm feeling prevailed. A moderate demand existed and consignments were kept well cleaned out. No change to note in prices. A feature of the trade was the scarcity of Straw and the high prices prevailing. Rye Straw is selling for more than the best Timothy Hay. Quotations at the close ranged as follows: Choice Timothy, $14 00@14 50; No. 1 Timothy, $12 50@13 00; No. 2 Timothy, $10 50@11 00; No. 3 Timothy, $8 50@9 00. Choice Prairie, $9 00@9 50; No. 1 Prairie, $8 00@8 50; No. 2 Prairie, $6 00@7 50; No. 3 Prairie, $5 50@7 00. Inside prices on Prairie Hay for State and outside for Eastern, Nebraska and Iowa. Marketsales ranged at $9 00@14 00 for poor to choice Timothy. Clover Mixed, $10 00, and $9 00@11 00 for Kansas Prairie Hay. Rye Straw sold $15 00@15 50. Wheat Straw at $9 00, and Oat Straw at $6 50.

COOPERAGE—Very little business was transacted in the market for Cooperage during the past week, but the undertone was somewhat steadier. Offerings were not very large and the demand was moderate. Local buyers were rather backward and outside orders were rather light. Ash Pork Barrels were quiet and steady and prices quotable at 90@98c. Oak Pork Barrels were dull and neglected, and prices nearly nominal at 97½@$1 00 Lard Tierces were in only moderate demand and offerings were not very large. Prices were quotably steady at $1 02½@1 05. Iron-bound Lard Tierces were quiet and prices nominal at $1 10@1 12½ for six-hoop and $1 20@1 22½ for eight-hoop.

HOGS—The receipts of Hogs during the past week were only fair—not as large as generally anticipated—and the quality was fair. Market in a general way was fairly active, and the changes were slight. Packers accepted a good proportion of the offerings, and buyer for the local markets provided for fair orders. The market was rather steady early in the week, but ruled somewhat easy later, and a decline of 5@10c was consequently to. The week to close, the feeling was steady, and prices favored sellers. Sales during the week were made at $4 35@4 37½ for light, $4 40@4 70 for rough packing, $4 45@4 85 for mixed, and $4 70@4 95 for heavy packing and shipping lots, with the bulk of the trading within the range of $4 70@4 87½ for fair to good averages. At the close about 3,000 Hogs remained in the pens unsold. Quality here is fair supply, and sold at 73 85@4 45, according to size and condition. Receipts of Hogs at the other large Western packing points were fair, and the quality was rather good.

PACKING—Only a fair business was transacted in packing circles during the past week. Supply of Hogs was fair, but packers were not very anxious to purchase. Meeting of Hogs on sale was moderate and chiefly of articles most in request. Mess Pork neglected. Other cuts of Pork made sparingly. Lard produced in fair quantities, and the average yield was very good. Very small proportion placed in tanks. Domestic cuts of Hams made moderately, and only a small proportion delivered from the packing. Stocks in curing on fair quantities, and chiefly cured by manufacturers. Long Clear Sides and Extra Long Clear Sides made sparingly. Short Clear Sides made with a little more freedom. Short Rib Sides made moderately. Extra Short Rib Sides made in fair quantities. Rough Sides cut moderately, and chiefly of medium averages. Bellies made in limited quantities. Backs made sparingly. Shoulders and Butts made sparingly. Loins cut rather freely. Foreign fancy and special cuts of Meats made in very small quantities PROVISIONS—Less interest was manifes ed in the market for Hog Products during the past week, and the feeling was unsettled and weak during the greater portion of the time. Packers appeared to be no particular feature on which to advance prices, or even to hold the market steady, outside of a moderate demand from the "shorts" interested. In fact, the whole feature was dependent to depended to influence the market were favorable to a lower range Outside orders were on a moderate scale, and local speculators and packers were quiet inclined to be sellers. There was also a considerable liquidation among holders of small quantities, and packers disposed of fair quantities on the slight rallies in prices. Hogs were in fair supply at all the large packing points of the West, and prices averaged lower. Returns of the packing of the West for the week exhibited an increase of 145,000 Hogs, compared with the returns for the corresponding week in 1903. Foreign markets were dull and dragging, and prices ruled lower on all the leading articles. Domestic markets were quiet and weak, closed at a decline. The considerable liquidation among holders of small quantities, and packers disposed of fair quantities on the slight rallies in prices. Hogs were in fair supply at all the large packing points of the West, and prices averaged lower. Returns of the packing of the West for the week exhibited an increase of 145,000 Hogs, compared with the returns for the corresponding week in 1903. Foreign markets were dull and dragging, and prices ruled lower on all the leading articles. Domestic markets were quiet and weak, closed at a decline. The large". Manufacture of Products was moderate. Stocks of all kinds are quite liberal for the season of the year. Exports for the week were fairly large, and understood to be mainly of Products consigned by manufacturers. The market opened rather firm, with fair miscellaneous buying, and prices ruled slightly higher on the leading articles. There was considerable property for sale, however, and a weaker feeling was developed. Prices declined materially on all the leading articles, somewhat irregularly, and the market closed rather steady. Inside figures were bid for the outside.

steady around inside figures. Bulk of the business was in January contracts, with September contracts attracting more attention. Nothing of consequence doing in January delivery. Operations were fairly trading, owing to the conflicting opinions about the area and seeding of Corn, and the prospective Hog supply for the fall and winter months. In the shipping branch of the trade there was very little business transacted. Exporters were not inclined to purchase in view of the depression in foreign markets, and merchants in the domestic trade were accepting only small quantities, with the most current wants. Offerings by local packers were only moderate, while interior packers were disposed to fill a few orders. As to the latter, holders were unwilling to grant concessions, and buyers were slow to pay former prices. Sales were limited, and mainly at slight concessions.

Pork—A fairly good business in a speculative way was transacted in Mess Pork, and the market was considerably unsettled. Offerings at times were quite free, especially by packers and holders of small quantities, while the general demand was only moderate. Stock on hand is rather liberal for the season of the year, and this is regarded as a weak feature. Trading chiefly in July contracts, though a fair trade was reported in September at 15@20c premium. January sold sparingly at $11 00. At the opening of the week, the demand was fair, with moderate offerings, and sales were made at 5@7½c advance. This improvement brought considerable property on the market, while the demand slackened somewhat, and prices irregularly declined 5@20c on the whole range. Near the close a little more steadiness was manifested and prices rallied 5@7½c, and the market closed rather steady. Very little doing in May, as contracts are well settled up. Demand on shipping account was moderate, and there was no particular pressure to sell. Cash lots were quotable at the close at $11 05@11 25c. Other cuts of Pork were in light demand and offerings were moderate. Prices ruled slightly lower on most descriptions.

Lard—Only a fair business was transacted in the Lard market during the past week, and the feeling was comparatively easy. Outside parties were not inclined to trade to any extent, and local operators appeared to be less interested in Lard than in the other speculative articles. Production is fairly large, and the supply of prime Lard is gradually enl arging. Foreign advices were unfavorable to holders, and prices ruled lower. Early in the week, the undertone to the market was steadier, and prices ruled firm, with a fair trade. At the advance, there was some inclination to realize, while the demand fell off. A weak feeling was developed, and prices declined 10@12½c on the whole range, and the market closed steady at nearly inside figures. September was in fair request and sold at 15@17½c premium over July Offerings in this account were limited, and offerings were light A few trades made at about 10@12½c discount on July figures—closing at $5 42½@5 47½. Refined Lard was in moderate demand, and a few sales were made at prices not made public. Loose lots were in only fair request, but the offerings were limited. Quotable at 55c discount on July figures. Leaf Lard was in fairly good demand and a few trades were made at $5 87½@6 00, and closed steady at $5 87½. Neutral was in only moderate request, and offerings were fair. Trading was light, and prices quotable at $5 87½@7 00 for No. 1, and $6 00@6 25 for No. 2.

Short Rib Sides—Speculative trading was fair in the early part of the week, but during the past week, and the feeling was not quite so strong. Comparatively, prices were better sustained than for most of the other speculative articles. Supply on hand reported to be decreasing. Manufacture moderate. Offerings were fair, and the demand in a general way was moderately active. Trading chiefly in July contracts, though a fair trade was reported in September at 15@20c premium. Early in the week, the feeling was rather firm, with moderate buying, and prices ruled 5@10c higher At the advance, the offerings were enlarged, while the demand slackened, and prices irregularly receded 10@15c on the whole range. This reduction encouraged a little more buying, and prices rallied 5@7½c, but the decline was gradually receded again 10@12½c, and the market closed rather steady. Demand on shipping account was limited and offerings were moderate. Prices ruled lower, and cash lots at the close were quotable at 36 12½@6 25 according to weight.

Green Meats—Green Meats was comparatively light during the past week and there were no particular changes to note. Offerings were not very large, and the demand was somewhat limited and for small quantities. Local curers were not inclined to purchase and outside orders were small. Prices exhibited little change. Hams were in only moderate request and prices comparatively steady. Skinned Hams were quiet and prices were quotably about the higher Shoulders were in small request with light offerings and prices ruled 40@50c lower. Picnic Hams were in small request and prices were about 4c higher. Bellies were called for in limited quantities and prices without material change.

Pickled Meats—Only a limited business was transacted in the market for Pickled Meats during the past week, and there were no particular changes to note. Export demand was limited, and the domestic inquiry was chiefly for small lots to meet current wants. Supplies on hand are fairly liberal. Foreign advices were unfavorable to holders, and prices ruled lower. Hams were in small request and prices ruled steady Skinned Hams were in small demand and prices were unchanged. Shoulders were quiet and in only limited quantities, and prices favored buyers. Picnic Hams were in moderate demand and prices were well maintained. Bellies were in light request and prices were unchanged.

Dry Salted Meats—Trade in Dry Salted Meats was on a limited scale during the past week. Offerings were fair in a quiet way, and the demand from exporters was comparatively small. Exporters were not inclined to purchase, and merchants in the domestic trade accepted only small quantities. Foreign markets were dull and weak, and quotations were reduced on all the principal articles. Domestic markets were slow and inactive. Supplies on hand are limited. Local packers sold sparingly, and outside packers offered moderately. Supplies of all kinds are rather liberal for the season of the year. Shipments to foreign markets were fair. Foreign cuts of Hams were dull and neglected, and prices nominally unchanged. Shoulders were in light request and prices favored buyers. Long Clear Sides and Extra Long Clear Sides were inactive and prices entirely nominal. Short Clear Sides were quiet and prices without quotable change. Extra Short Clear Sides were in small request, with fair offerings, and prices ruled slightly lower closing at 5¾@5¾c. Extra Short Rib Sides were in only moderate request, with fair offerings, and prices ruled about 5c lower—closing at 5¾@5¾c. Short Ribs were called for moderately, and sales were limited. Prices declined about 5c, and closed at 5¾@5¾c according to weight. Plates in moderate demand, and prices favored buyers. Pickled Bellies in small request, and prices were slightly lower. Backs were in small demand and prices ruled comparatively steady. Backs were in small demand and prices favored buyers. Pork in barrels and special cuts of Meats were quiet and prices nominally unchanged.

Smoked Meats Trade was on a moderate scale in Smoked Meats during the past week, and there were no particular changes to note. Demand was light, and offerings of all kinds were moderate. Car lots in small request. Hams in rather light demand and prices comparatively steady. Skinned Hams were called for moderately, and prices were unchanged. Shoulders were in fairly moderate demand and prices favored buyers. Picnic Hams were in moderate demand at about former figures. Sides of all kinds were in rather light demand, and prices favored buyers. Breakfast Bacon in moderate request, and price ruled steady.

Beef Products Only a moderate trade was reported in Beef Products and there were no particular changes to note. Offerings were fairly large and the demand was moderate, and chiefly for small lots. Packers' prices almost material change. Domestic markets ruled quiet. Cattle in fair supply, and prices well maintained. Manufacture of Products only moderate. Shipments of Dressed Beef rather liberal. Beef Hams in moderate request and prices steady. Extra Mess Beef rather quiet and prices inclined in favor of buyers. Plate Beef in small demand and prices ruled steady. Extra Plate Beef in small request and prices unchanged. Tallow dull and nominal. Prices about 5c lower. Oleo Stearine quiet and dull. Prices easier at 5¾@6c.

Greases—Very little business was transacted in Greases during the past week. Offerings were small and the demand was light. Prices ruled about 5c lower on all grades.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Clear and somewhat cooler weather in Manitoba. Temperatures in Minnesota and Dakotas a little lower, with occasional frost, and with showers—at Moorehead .10 and St. Paul .20. Clear in Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri and Illinois. Rains general in Ohio Valley and Tennessee. Slight Frosts at Valentine, Sioux City and Wichita. Man flue for Oats and Corn country. Cool in the Northwest, but very little moisture and generally favorable.

Indications for fair, possibly showers in Rocky Mountains. Temperatures will moderate.

New York Exchange 40c premium.

Documentary Sterling steady at 484⅝.

Chicago Bank Clearings to-day, $28,995,626.

Deliveries on May contracts to-day were 80,000 bu Oats and 5,0 0 bu Rye.

Gold engagements at New York for Europe by to-morrow's steamer are for $10,500,000.

Reported that 40,000 bu Wheat and 15,000 bu Corn were taken at the seaboard to-day for export.

Estimated receipts for to-morrow: Wheat, 12 cars; Corn, 67 cars; Oats, 110 cars; Hogs, 19,000.

The output of the St. Louis Flour mills for the past week was 32,700 brls, against 30,300 brls for the previous week.

Nine packers purchased 28,900 Hogs to-day; shippers, 8 000; left over, 5,000. Market closed strong. Top price on Hogs $4 87½.

The packing at Milwaukee since March 1 is estimated at 110,031 Hogs, against 97,822 for the corresponding time in 1903.

Refined Sugars to-day were advanced 5 points by all refiners in New York. The net price is now 4.75 less 1 per cent cash for fine granulated.

The quantity of Flour and Wheat on passage to Europe during the past week decreased 720,000 bu, and the quantity of Corn decreased 1,430,000 bu.

Stocks in Paris, May 1, include 784,000 bu Wheat and 49,0 0 sacks Flour, equaling 1,112,000 bu, compared with 920,000 bu a month ago and 301,000 bu a year ago.

Rates equal to the lake and rail tariff have been made by East-bound all rail lines on Grain and Merchandise now in hand. But cartage is not to be allowed.

Exports of Flax Seed from India the past week were 576,000 bu, compared with 272,000 bu for the week previous, and 568,000 bu for the corresponding week in 1903.

A Broomhall cable says: "A few hours' rain fell in the southern half of Roumania on Friday and Saturday. Unsatisfactory reports continue to come from the northern half."

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool: "Wheat market opened unchanged, but large world's shipments, fine weather in England and dullness resulted in declines of ⅛@¼d. Corn dull and neglected."

Local Securities were rather sparingly traded in within an irregular range. Diamond Match advanced 1 point. North Chicago Railway gained 1½ Title and Trust lost ½, and others were little changed.

After the visible supply of Wheat was made up, dispatches were received reducing the stocks at Fort William 781,000 bu, and Port Arthur 435,000 bu, or an aggregate of 1,216,000 bu. This loss will be shown in the report next week.

On the reverse page will be found the detailed report of the visible supply of Grain. Compared with the previous week there were decreases of 1,655,000 bu Wheat, 702,000 bu Corn, 907,000 bu Oats, 16,000 bu Rye, and 102,000 bu Barley.

Cotton in New York was surprisingly strong and advanced in sympathy with the cables. There was heavy selling of July around 13.50 by "bear" interests, but all was taken and prices moved up. Gains at the close were 10@33 points.

Stocks of Wheat in public warehouses in Liverpool reported at 3,072,000 bu, against 3,088,000 bu one week ago and 1,440,000 bu one year ago. Stocks of Corn reported at 1,166,000 bu, against 1,150,000 bu one week ago and 540,000 bu last year.

East bound shipments of the past week are as shown in the following table:

	Flour, brls.	Grain, bu.	Prov. tons
Past week	98,678	2,333,000	26,023
Previous week	75,727	1,728,000	27,459
Last year	59,194	908,000	21,813

The semi-official Russian crop report states condition of Winter Wheat crop at the end of April were unsatisfactory or bad in region of lower portion of the Volga and in parts of Central and Southwestern Russia. In the North and Northeast crops are backward, but elsewhere unsatisfactory.

Stocks in New York were heavy, Gold engagements and stronger money rates having an effect. Western Railway shares were off ¾ to 2, but reacted slightly. General Electric advanced 2⅝, but reacted and closed lower. Steel preferred advanced 1 point and Rubber gained 2 points Money 2 to 2¼ per cent.

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Saturday, was $4 79, against $4 78 Friday, and $6 51 a year ago. Average for the past week, $4 78, against $4 75 the previous week, which was low week for the year. Average the corresponding week a year ago, $6 56; two years ago, $7 15; three years ago, $5 73; four years ago, $5 25, and five years ago, $3 85.

Fulton, Kentucky, writes May 14th: "I have just returned from quite a little trip through West Tennessee and West Kentucky, and I find the Wheat fine. The farmers are all of the opinion that they will make more than double the amount of Wheat they made last year all through Ballard, Carlisle Hickman and Fulton Counties in Kentucky, and Obion, Gibson, Crocket and Dyer Counties in Tennessee; the crop of Wheat is certainly fine. Corn mostly planted and up to good stand; Oats only fair."

The Corn Trade News of May 3 says: "The apathy in the Flour market, which for last two months, more or less, has been the salient feature of our weekly report, is unfortunately still the ruling condition of the trade. It is monotonous to be compelled to ring the changes on the same theme week after week The situation has evolved from the over-confident, extensive purchases for forward delivery contracted for on the outbreak of hostilities in the Far East, and the subsequent disappointing course of the market. Prices which were expected to appreciate very materially after a spasmodic advance have as the apprehension of complications subsided, gradually declined and discouraged all further operations until outstanding engagements were liquidated."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS

FLOUR—The market is still quiet, with no improvement in general demand. Prices steady as recently quoted.

WINTER WHEAT—A fair milling demand existed, but only for choice Wheat, and prices quotably firm and shade better in some instances. No. 2 Red in store was quotably $1 03@1 06, and fresh arrivals $1 07@1 09 with sales at $1 08@1 09. No 3 Red fresh arrivals sold at $1 08 and quotably $1 00@1 08; some offered for which $1 00 was the best bid. No. 2 Hard free on board fresh arrivals quotably 90@95c. No. 3 Hard fresh arrivals free on board sold at 88@89c. and ranged at 82@93c for poor to choice. No 4 White sold at $1 02.

SPRING WHEAT—The market was stronger and prices 1@2c higher. Demand good on milling and shipping account and sales of 60,000 bu were reported. No. 1 Northern in store was quotable at 91½@94⅜c, and fresh arrivals free on board at 93@98c. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals nominally 92@96c. No. 3 Spring fresh receipts sold at 92½c and ranged at 83@95c for common to choice. No. 4 Spring sold at 80c and ranged at 62½@86c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—Just a fair trade, largely local, and in the way of "short" covering, there being something of a stampede May and July led the advance, the market acting oversold [?] decreasing contract stocks being the most potent "bull" factor. The close showed the May 3[?]c higher, while July gained 1⅞c and September ⅞@1c. Southwestern markets were strong and speculative offerings were small from the start Receipts were light, the primary movement being 113,000 bu under last year. Kansas City and St Louis received 74,000 bu and shipped out 90,000 bu. Stocks at the two points were reduced 604,000 bu last week. Receipts in the Northwest were 86 cars smaller than a year ago. World's shipments were about as expected, 10 656,000 bu against 12,481,000 bu the previous week, and 11,560,000 bu one year ago. Quantity on ocean passage decreased 720,000 bu to 53,184,000 bu, against 3[?],9[?]0,000 bu same date in 1903. Liverpool stocks, 3,072,000 bu decreased 16,000 bu last week. Stock a year ago, 1,440,000 bu. Map showed clear conditions with higher temperature in the Northwest, with some rain in extreme northwest of Manitoba. Heavy rains were reported in Oklahoma and Kansas. Showers predicted for North Dakota and Minnesota; fair preceded by showers for South Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas. A semi-official Russian crop report stated the condition of Winter Wheat at the end of April was unsatisfactory, or bad in region of lower Volga and in parts of Central and Southwestern Russia. In the North and Northeast the crops are backward, but elsewhere satisfactory to good Rosario cabled that Argentine shipments would continue on the present scale for next three weeks. Crop reports from Western Tennessee and Kentucky were considered more favorable. The visible supply decreased 1,655,000 bu, against 1,791,000 bu decrease same week in 1903. Total is now reported at 23,038,000 bu, against 30,655,000 bu in 1903 and 33 577,000 bu in 1902 Besides the above decrease there was a reduction of 781,000 bu at Fort William and 435,000 bu at Port Arthur, but a good share of this decrease is supposed to be on the lakes. Local public and afloat stocks decreased 44,000 bu and now include 1,890,000 bu, against 5,131,000 bu one year ago. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ½d lower, and futures ¼d better. London was steady to ¼d lower and Paris down ¼c. Berlin declined ¼c and Buda Pesth lost 1⅛c Antwerp unchanged. Minneapolis stocks decreased 350,000 bu past two days. Reports from the Red River Valley were less favorable. Clearings moderate and no boat loads accepted at seaboard St. Louis reported sale of 88,000 bu No 2 Red Cash sales here reported for about 60,000 No. 1 Northern. Receipts at Duluth 4 cars and at Minneapolis 113 cars, a total of 117 cars, against 67 cars Saturday, 135 cars a week ago, and 203 cars last year. Local receipts included 9 cars Winter, 3 cars Spring, none mixed, a total of 12 cars, against 17 cars last year. Included in the above was 1 car of contract grade. There was also 36 cars and no bu from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 12 cars. The withdrawals were 41,500 bu. Receipts at Western points were 218,291 bu, against 530,313 bu last year; at Eastern points 89,989 bu, against 516,016 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 211,897 bu, against 414,478 bu last year, and from Eastern points 7,004 bu, against 271,296 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 45,0 5 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 209,731 bu.

DECEMBER—Sold at 79@79½c and closed at about 79⅜c

CORN—Only a moderate speculative trade was reported in Corn, but the market at the same time displayed quite a strong undertone, particularly the first half of the session. While extreme figures were not maintained, the close showed gains of ⅛c to ¾@⅞c. The heavy rains through the Corn belt, bulge in Wheat, large local shipments and strength in the Southwest were among the "bull" helps and several fair-sized "short" lines were covered Local shipments were 487,000 bu, against receipts of 106,000 bu Liverpool quoted spot unchanged and futures ⅛d higher. World's shipments were larger at 2,488,000 bu, against 1,748,000 bu previous week and 3,1 9,000 bu one year ago Quantity on ocean passage decreased 1,430,000 bu to 8,752,000 bu, against 9,552,000 bu the same date in 1903. Liverpool stocks, 1,116,000 bu, showed 10,000 bu increase Stock there a year ago, 540,000 bu. The map showed heavy rains in Kansas, Oklahoma, Missouri Iowa and part of Nebraska. Showers were generally predicted Western receipts 302,000 bu, against 552,000 bu last year and shipments 593,000 bu and 685,000 respectively. Receipts 63 cars, last year 137 cars and 67 cars estimated for to-morrow. There were 45 cars contract from private to public elevators. The visible supply decreased 702,000 bu, against 998,000 bu decrease last year. Total is now 6,195,000 bu, against 5,212,000 in 1903 and 4 870,000 bu in 1902. JULY—Fair trading. Sold at 38¼c and at 38¾@38⅞c. Opened at 38¼c, sold to 38⅝c, to 38¾@38⅞c, to 38⅝c at the close.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 30⅜@30⅞c Opened at 30⅜c to 30½c; sold to 30⅞c, to 30½c, to 30½@30⅝c at the close.

RYE Ruled firm, with only light trading. Demand fair and offerings limited, with sellers asking above buyers views. There were six cars received. No withdrawals from store here and no export clearances from the seaboard The visible supply decreased 16,000 bu and local stock decreased 12,000 bu. No. 2 in store nominally 73c and fresh arrivals sold free on board at 74½c. No. 3 fresh arrivals free on board quotably 61@70c for ordinary to choice.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye Quiet and firm. May 73c bid and 75c asked. July 66c bid and 68c sellers. August 68c sellers. September 63c sellers.

BARLEY—The week started with small offerings. The little Barley on the market was salable. Demand at the same time was tame. Because so little was offered values held steady Posted 8 cars inspected in Local regular stock last week decreased 12,000 bu, and there was 215,000 bu decrease in the visible. No change in prices was quotable. Market for Screenings quotable at 27@37c for poor to choice. Barley—low grade feed or mixing nominally 35@38c outside good weight. Malting, low grade, 40@42c; fair to good, sound, 45@48c; good color, 50@56c, and fancy 58c.

SEEDS There was so little done that it was really a lifeless market, and there was an entire absence of price changes.

Timothy For new crop Timothy buyers and sellers remained 10c apart; that prevented trading. Of old Seed there was none on sale aside from a few bags. The market was simply inactive and prices were nominally the same as at the close of last week Contract or May delivery was called nominally $3 00. September remained offered at $3 30 and $3 .0 bid. Country lots were quotable at $2 00@3 10 for low grade to fancy, choice about $2 80@2 90, fair to good Seed $2 60@2 75, and rough at $2 40@2 70.

Flax—There was a nominally unchanged market. Nothing was done aside from the sale of a car of Northwestern. There were meagre offerings and little evidence of demand Local receipts 6 cars or 5,362 bu, and output 1 car or 1,072 bu. Minneapolis got 6 cars, Duluth none. No change in local stock; it remains at 24,201 bu; a year ago it was 73,616 bu. Values quotable as follows: No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest nominally $1 09 No 1 quotable at $1 01 and Rejected at 97c@$1 01, outside for choice Northwestern May delivery was quotable at $1 01. July at $1 02, and September at $1 05.

Clover—A few bags, mostly of common to low grade Seed, offered and sold. Such sales not important enough to indicate anything. The market in practically a nominal way was quotably steady and unchanged. Contract spot Seed was nominally $10 75. Country lots common to choice, $7 75@10 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds $8 00@8 00; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 50.

Other Seeds There were no offerings. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark, $1 15@1 65. Common Millet $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 55. Siberian, 90c@$1 10. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 85c@$1 05. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat firm and quoted a shade better; good quality quotable at $1 40@1 45.

HOG PRODUCTS—Only a fair business was reported in Hog Products, and the undertone to the market was stronger. Very little property was offered, while the demand was fair, and the Grain markets were stronger in a general way "Shorts" bought moderately Prices ruled higher on all the leading articles, and the advance was fairly well supported to the close. Outside orders were moderate, and local trading was fair. Hogs were in liberal supply, and prices ruled lower, but this feature appeared to have very little influence on the market. Receipts at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 70,500, compared with 63,900 one year ago Foreign markets were quiet, and prices unchanged. Domestic markets steady. Receipts of Products were good—of Lard and Meats about 22 cars. Shipments were light—of Lard and Meats about 97 cars Demand on shipping account was moderate, and offerings were only fair. Sales were rather light and chiefly for the domestic trade. Prices without material change. Exports for the week, compared with the corresponding week in 1903, exhibited increases of 1,460 brls Pork, 152,000 lbs Lard, and 1,508 boxes Meats.

Mess Pork—Trade was only fair in the market for Mess Pork, and the feeling was stronger in a general way. Offerings were moderate, and a fairly good inquiry prevailed. At the opening, the feeling was rather easy, and sales were made at 5c decline. Offerings, however, were readily absorbed, and prices rallied 12½@15c, and the market closed rather steady around outside figures. Rather more doing in September contracts. Demand on shipping account was light and offerings were moderate. Cash lots quotable at $11 12½@11 20.

MAY—Quiet and quotable at $11 12½.

JULY—In rather good demand and offerings were moderate. Sales were made at $11 12½@11 30. Opened at $11 12½, sold to $11 25, to $11 22½, to $11 27½, to $11 30, to $11 25, to $11 30, to $11 27½, and closed steady

SEPTEMBER—Offerings were moderate, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $11 32½@11 47½ Opened at $11 32½, sold to $11 45, to $11 42½, to $11 47½, to $11 42½, to $11 47½, to $11 45, to $11 47½, and closed steady

Lard Rather a small business was transacted in the Lard market, and the feeling was rather firm. Offerings were somewhat limited, and the demand was moderate. Foreign advices were unchanged. Opening trades were made at 2½@5c decline, but prices quickly rallied 5@7½c and the market closed rather steady. Inquiry on shipping account limited and offerings only moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 32½@6 35 Loose lots in small request, with moderate offerings Prices steady at about 55c discount on July figures. Leaf Lard in limited request and offerings were small Prices were quotably steady at $5 75. Neutral was in only limited demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $6 75@6 87½ for No. 1, and $6 50@6 62½ for No 2

MAY—Demand light and offerings were moderate Sales were made at $6 32½@6 35, and closed quiet at $6 32½.

JULY Demand was fair, and offerings were moderate. Sales were made at $6 40@6 47½. Opened at $6 40, sold to $6 47½, to $6 45, to $6 47½, to $6 45, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Offerings were not very large, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $6 55@6 62½. Opened at $6 55, sold to $6 62½, to $6 60, to $6 60@6 62½, to $6 60, and closed steady

Short Rib Sides—Trade was only fair in the market for Short Rib Sides, and the feeling was stronger. Offerings were moderate, and the demand was fair. Prices on the whole range ruled 5@7½c higher, and the market closed comparatively steady around outside figures. Demand on shipping account was moderate and offerings were comparatively small. Cash lots quotable at $6 20@6 30 according to weight

MAY—Quiet and quoted at $6 30

JULY—In rather good request with moderate offerings. Sales were made at $6 37½@6 45 Opened at $6 37½ to $6 40, sold to $6 45, to $6 40@6 42½, to $6 45, and closed steady

CROPS IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

[From Broomhall's Corn Trade News, May 3.]

United Kingdom—The season continues favorable for the crops in this country, good rains having fallen in many districts, just when complaints of too much dry weather were beginning to be heard. The Wheat crop continues to improve but complaints are still heard of defective plant and no doubts are entertained with regard to the smallness of the acreage, spring sowings not having been large enough to make any material reduction of the deficit, which was the result of the wet weather of last autumn. The spring seedings are coming on nicely, and, except for Wheat, the condition of all crops can be considered a full average.

Russia—Generally speaking, crop reports are varied and contradictory. Some say that the weather is much too dry, while others claim that, although the situation is still uncertain, weather recently has been favorable on the whole, and spring seeding has been done under favorable conditions. There are complaints from interior markets of scanty supplies owing to bad roads, but the ports appear to have no difficulty in procuring sufficient material for a very fair export trade.

Roumania—The want of rain is being felt more acutely and around Braila the crops are suffering from drouth. Exports last week were larger, and increased supplies are expected at the shipping ports in the near future.

Bulgaria—Crop conditions are quite satisfactory, but rain is now wanted.

Austria-Hungary—The weather recently has favored the autumn-sown crops, of which the condition is very satisfactory. For the spring crops rain is now needed. The planting of Corn is in full swing. The Wheat market is quiet and millers complain of the bad sale of Flour.

India—We expect the shipment this week will total some 200,000 qrs. but after that we are informed the movement is likely to slacken, for not much buying is now being done in spite of very low prices.

Australasia—We have no fresh crop news. Shipments keep liberal, but the movement may slacken somewhat in the near future; there is no doubt, however, but that there are fair quantities still available for export, and, provided crop prospects are satisfactory, the shipping movement may hold out right through the year.

Argentina—Weather conditions are unfavorable, which is bad for the new Corn crop. Arrivals of Wheat at the ports last week were smaller, and there was likewise a falling off in the quantities shipped. Shipping men claim, however, that judging by the tonnage engaged and other indications, the movement is likely to continue on a fair scale for a long time yet.

France—The weather continues quite favorable and crop prospects are excellent. On interior markets supplies of native Wheat have been larger and prices lower—6d to 9d.

Italy—According to the latest official bulletin, the Wheat crop continues to make good progress, having been favored with seasonable weather.

Spain—Our Barcelona correspondent reports that the agricultural situation now leaves nothing to be desired. Some districts have had light rains.

Germany—The weather last week was again quite favorable for the crops, some nice rains falling in the last day or two. The condition, both of autumn and spring seedings, is satisfactory. The scarcity of native Wheat continues to be mentioned and good purchases of foreign are being made.

North Africa—Crop news from Algeria and Tunis continues very favorable and high hopes are entertained regarding the coming harvest, which commences this month.

EUROPEAN GRAIN CROPS.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—The foreign crop report of the Department of Agriculture, issued to-day, gives the following resume of conditions in various parts of the world:

Russia—The crop situation in Russia has been decidedly unfavorable, but more hopeful views are held in some commercial quarters. The military demands on the railroads undoubtedly have contributed largely to holding back the crop supplies.

Germany—The three principal cereals are all rated materially higher than a year ago.

Austria—The fall-sown crops in most provinces wintered well and with rare exceptions their condition affords ground for the best hopes.

Hungary—The official reports are generally favorable.

Roumania—Crop reports are generally favorable.

Bulgaria—The latest reports are favorable as to spring crops, and winter crops generally are doing well.

Turkey—The latest available report indicates that the Grain crops in Eastern Turkey were not injured by the cold wave there, and in the Smyrna portion of Asiatic Turkey crops are in good condition.

Italy—Crop reports are favorable and crops are growing rapidly.

Spain—Crops generally satisfactory.

France—Cereal crops are said to be progressing as well as could be desired. The situation appears highly satisfactory. Fruit prospects are good.

Belgium—Fall sown crops generally satisfactory.

Great Britain—Winter Wheat has improved, but is still far from satisfactory. Spring Wheat already up is generally good. Arable crops are generally backward.

AUSTRIAN CROP REPORT.

[From Dornbusch, April 30.]

According to latest returns of the Minister of Agriculture, the condition of the autumn-sown crops was as follows. The spring sowings began in mid-March, but owing to the recrudescence of cold and frosty weather the work was temporarily interrupted. Early in April much milder conditions obtained, the fields generally speaking were sufficiently moist except at Galica, where prospects were very unfavorable through cold and drouth and the ravages of field mice. In Silesia and Bohemia appearances were not so promising, and also in the Alpine region, where the plants suffered more or less from frost. Nevertheless, the present aspect of the autumn cereals may be regarded as satisfactory. The spring sowings are now completed in the lower and upper provinces, but in the South they are much in arrear through the sodden state of the ground, while in the Alpine districts they have not yet commenced.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Indications are the Western storm will continue its movement East and cause showers over the Upper Mississippi and Ohio Valleys and Western lake region during the next forty-eight hours. No indication of any marked change in temperatures.

The available cash balance in the United States Treasury has been reduced from $229,374,895 to $175,714,879 since the first of the year through the payments on account of the Panama Canal, the advance to the St. Louis Exposition and deficiency appropriations made by Congress.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The entire capital of the Erie Railway has been listed on the New York Stock Exchange as a result of the dissolution of the voting trust.

A heavy rain fell over Nebraska and Western Iowa, Sunday and Sunday night, the precipitation being two and one-half inches for twelve hours.

The average weight of the Hogs received at Chicago last week was 211 lbs, against 212 lbs the previous week, 225 lbs the corresponding week in 1903, and 216 lbs in 1902.

"Corn preparations are well advanced in the territory between Peoria and Springfield," wired a Peoria party Saturday. "Oats are growing finely. There seems to be a good deal of Corn in the cribs."

Directors of the Chicago Savings Bank have recommended to the stockholders an increase in the capital of the institution from $250,000 to $500,000. A meeting of the stockholders has been called for June 7 to vote on the proposition.

Articles of incorporation of the Pittsburg, Carnegie and Western, the Pittsburg, Toledo and Western and the Cross Creek Railroads, as the Wabash, Pittsburg Terminal Railway, have been filed at Harrisburg, Columbus and Charlestown. The capital of the new company is $4,000,000, but it is said to be the intention to increase this to $10,000,000 soon and eventually to $20,000,000.

According to the figures of the United States Investor bond sales for the month of April amounted to $14,716,608, not including temporary loans. Of the above amount $13,144,701 was issued by cities and towns (included in this is the $3,000,000 bond issue of the Philippine Islands) and $1,572,382 by counties. This amount shows an increase of $1,504,630 reported for the month of April and a decrease of $11,025,835 reported for the month of April, 1903.

The highest estimate of the Northwest seeding was made, Saturday, by Winnipeg people, who claimed that outside of the Red River Valley 90 per cent of the Spring Wheat area has been seeded, and in the Red River Valley 60 per cent. They figure that with the North Dakota acreage combined with the Manitoba and the Northwest Territory the increase in acreage is about 10 per cent. The Dalrymples, who have 30,000 acres, mostly in the Red River Valley, say only 10 to 25 per cent has been seeded.

The New York Times quotes an "authority" as saying that the directors of the New York Glucose Company have not declared a 1 per cent monthly dividend, and would not think of doing so just at the present time, when the margin of profits does not warrant it, adding that the business is suffering from overproduction. In spite of this it may be accepted as a fact that the New York company is paying regular dividends of which the Corn Product Company is getting its share.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

New York Exchange 30c premium.

Documentary Sterling steady at 484⅝.

Chicago Bank Clearings to-day, $27,324,762.

Continental Wheat stocks on the reverse page.

Deliveries on May contracts to-day were 10,000 bu Corn and 15,000 bu Oats.

Net sales of the United States Rubber Company for the year ending March 31, were $33,398,916, increase $5,120,298.

Estimated receipts for to-morrow: Wheat, 4 cars; Corn, 39 cars; Oats, 37 cars; Rye, 2 cars; Barley, 5 cars; Hogs, 27,000.

Local Securities were slow and mostly easy. The feature was the break of 3½ on Chicago Edison on moderate sales.

The [illegible] Exchange at Liverpool will be closed May [illegible] and the Provisions Exchange on May [illegible] in observance of the Whitsuntide holidays.

The stock of Flax Seed at Duluth on May 14 was 8,1[illegible] bu, compared with 8,055,000 bu the previous [illegible] an increase of 44,000 bu. Stock last [illegible]

[illegible] of Wheat at Liverpool during the past [illegible] were 480,000 bu, of which 32,000 were American. Receipts of Corn, 104,000 bu, of which 64,000 bu were American.

Reported that 320,000 bu Hard Winter Wheat for August and September shipment were sold at the seaboard to-day for export. There was also 144,000 bu Corn and 100,000 bu Oats sold for export.

Cotton in New York acted contrary to expectations of the "bulls." Liverpool was strong and higher, but the traders were well supplied with selling orders and the support was poor. The crop bulletin was unfavorable, but had little effect. Closing sales were at losses of 16@27 points.

In the New York Stock market a much better tone prevailed. The buying of Steel issues, Coalers and Grangers increased and they made good advances, but failed to hold extreme figures. The diminution and possible cessation of Gold exports was the chief cause for the improved buying. Money 2 to 2¼ per cent.

The Kansas City Commercial Men's Club, composed largely of Grain men, has just returned from an extended trip through Kansas, Oklahoma and Indian Territory. They are unanimous in saying Kansas will raise a bumper Wheat crop, fully up to last year. Northern Oklahoma fine; balance not so good, but should raise as much as a year ago.

The Nashville correspondent of the Modern Miller says, "Growing Wheat continues to steadily improve in this territory and the outlook is the brightest for three years. The past week has been the most favorable of the Spring. A couple of refreshing rains and warmer weather have given Wheat, as well as Oats and young Corn, a remarkable advance."

Bradstreet's report of the available supply for the past week shows the following changes:

	1904, bu.	1903 bu.
Wheat east of Rockies	Dec. 4,237,000	Dec. 5,094,000
Europe and afloat	Inc. 400,000	Inc. 700,000
Total	Dec. 3,837,000	Dec. 4,394,000
Corn	Dec. 1,442,000	Dec. 1,342,000
Oats	Dec. 1,128,000	Dec. 1,079,000

In the case of Lane vs. Logan Grain Company, the Kansas City Court of Appeals decided: "Where plaintiff purchased from defendants certain 'puts,' or an option to sell to defendants a certain quantity of Grain at a fixed price within a limited time, and the evidence established that such contracts were merely speculative, and that the parties did not intend that any Grain should be delivered or received, but that settlement should be made by payment of differences in the market price, such contract was in violation of revised statutes of 1899, section 2,337, prohibiting all contracts for the sale of Grain for future delivery, where the intention was to settle by payment of differences, and section 2,342, declaring that such contracts shall be considered gambling."

Broomhall's weekly foreign crop review says: "United Kingdom—Everything promises well except Wheat. It is now definitely known that the loss in the Winter Wheat acreage was not made up by a corresponding increase in the Spring Wheat area. France, Germany, Italy, Spain and North America—Weather continues seasonable and crop reports very favorable. Hungary—Beneficial rains have fallen which were needed for the crop. Roumania-Bulgaria—Good soaking rains are urgently needed. Russia—Further bad crop reports are received from the Southwest. Good rains have occurred in the Crimea. Australia—We confirm our previous surmise of there being good farmers' reserves. An increased Wheat acreage is expected this year. The size of future shipments will depend somewhat on crop prospects."

WEATHER BUREAU REPORT.

WASHINGTON, May 17. Weather Bureau weekly summary, issued at noon, says:

Winter Wheat—In Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri the advancement of Winter Wheat has been favorable and improvement is generally reported elsewhere east of the Rockies, but the condition of the crop in the States of the Ohio Valley continues very poor. Wheat is now heading as far north as the southern portions of Kansas and Missouri, and harvest has begun in Southern Texas. On the North Pacific Coast, the bulk of the crop is in promising condition, and while a fair crop is indicated in California, the outlook in that State is not as good as earlier in the season.

Spring Wheat—Heavy rains prevented the completion of Spring Wheat seeding in portions of North Dakota and Northern Minnesota, but seeding is practically completed elsewhere. The early sown is coming up and growing nicely in the Dakotas and Southern Minnesota, but variable conditions are reported from Iowa. In Washington the crop has suffered from cold, but the outlook in Oregon is more favorable.

Corn—While Corn planting has been delayed in portions of Nebraska, Iowa and Missouri, this work as a whole has made favorable progress in the States of the Missouri and Upper Mississippi Valleys and has proceeded uninterruptedly in the Ohio Valley. Planting is in progress in the Dakotas, Minnesota, Michigan and New England, but has not begun in Wisconsin and New York. In Texas the crop is in fine condition and well cultivated, and is excelling in the southern part of that State. In the South Atlantic and Central and Gulf States Corn is generally backward and making slow growth, the stands being unsatisfactory.

Oats—With the exception of variable conditions in Iowa and unpromising in Missouri, the general outlook for Oats in the principal Oats producing States is promising. In the South Atlantic and East Gulf States the crop is generally poor. Harvesting has begun in the Southern States, while seeding is unfinished in the northern portion of the Middle Atlantic States and the Red River of the Northwest valley.

Cotton—Cool weather has been unfavorable for Cotton throughout the belt, and drouth in portions of the Eastern districts has proved detrimental. Complaints of poor stands continue from nearly all sections in the Central and Eastern districts, but good stands are the rule in Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas. In the last-named State the crop is well advanced, and cultivation in the Southern districts is general. Boll weevils have appeared and are increasing in a number of southwest and south central counties of Texas.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS

FLOUR—Dullness continues to prevail in this market, the domestic as well as the foreign demand being slow. Prices steady.

WINTER WHEAT—A light milling demand existed, but only for choice Wheat, and prices steady. Sales of 15,000 bu No. 2 Red, but terms kept private. No. 2 Red in store was quotably $1 03@1 06 and fresh arrivals $1 05@1 08½, with sales at $1 06@1 08½. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals sold at $1 04 and quotably $1 00@1 08. No. 2 Hard free on board fresh arrivals quotably 92@98c. No. 3 Hard fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 82@93c for poor to choice, with a sale at 88c. No. 4 Hard sold at 85c.

SPRING WHEAT—The market was stronger and prices 1@2c higher for No. 1 Northern in store and unchanged for car lots of fresh arrivals free on board. Demand good on milling and shipping account and sales of 140,000 bu were reported. No. 1 Northern in store was quotable at 93¾@96½c and fresh arrivals free on board at 91@98c. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals nominally 92@96c. No. 3 Spring fresh receipts ranged at 83@96c for common to choice. No. 4 Spring ranged at 62½@86c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—There was a better trade with the undertone stronger, closing prices showing May up 1¾c, the July gaining ⅞c and September ½c. The light speculative offerings was one of the principal features at the start, and while the demand was nothing urgent the same was sufficient to cause a further advance in values. Receipts were again light in all directions and the markets in the Northwest displayed a decidedly strong tone. Locals led in the buying, but on the advance there were efforts to realize by many of yesterday's buyers and prices settled back. Cables did not respond fully to yesterday's rise. Liverpool quoted spot unchanged to ½d lower and futures ⅜d higher. Receipts there the past three days 480,000 bu, of which only 32,000 bu came from America. London was ½@⅞d higher and Paris ¼@½c better. The report that Buda Pesth was up 1¼c and the showing of Bradstreet's available—3,837,000 bu decrease, against 4,394,000 bu decrease last year—started renewed buying and market again turned strong. New York reported some buying of December there for foreign account and was considered a "bull" feature. Map showed some rain in South Dakota, but elsewhere clear in Northwest and Manitoba. General rains reported in Ohio Valley and some in Illinois and Missouri. Government report favorable outside Ohio Valley. Signal service predicted fair and warmer weather for the Dakotas, Minnesota, Kansas and Nebraska, showers for Illinois and Indiana and cloudy, warmer for Missouri. Stocks here in all positions decreased 173,000 bu to 4,138,000 bu, compared with 6,886,000 bu same date in 1903. Contract stocks contrary to general expectations increased 21,448 bu to 781,314 bu, compared with 3,007,087 bu corresponding date in 1903. Continental Wheat stocks May 1 were reported 17,776,000 bu, against 19,088,000 bu April 1 and 11,600,000 bu May 1, 1903. Primary receipts were 40,000 bu smaller than last year. Kansas City and St. Louis received 100,000 bu, last year 96,000 bu; shipments 141,000 bu. Minneapolis reported stocks had decreased 550,000 bu past three days. Exports were small and 40 boat loads accepted at the seaboard for forward shipment. Crop news from Russia, according to Broomhall, was again rather unfavorable. Last sales here were 140,000 bu No. 1 Northern at ½c over May price. Receipts at Duluth 10 cars and at Minneapolis 41 cars, a total of 51 cars, against 117 cars yesterday, 89 cars a week ago, and 109 cars last year. Local receipts included 8 cars Winter, 2 cars Spring, 1 car mixed, a total of 11 cars, against 49 cars last year. Included in the above was none of contract grade. There was also 42 cars and no bu from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 4 cars. The withdrawals were 22,350 bu. Receipts at Western points were 195,501 bu, against 255,386 bu last year; at Eastern points 5,614 bu, against 152,010 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 281,391 bu, against 284,731 bu last year, and from Eastern points 2,401 bu, against 295,602 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 25,997 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 119,487 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Good trade at higher prices.

MAY—Sold at 93¾@96⅛c. Opened with sales at 94½c to 94¼c; sold to 94c, to 94¼c, to 93¾c, to 95⅞c, to 95¼c, to 96⅛c, to 95½c, to 95¾c, to 95⅝c, and closed at 95⅝c.

JULY—Old Style—Sold at 86¾@86⅞c and at 88¼c. Opened with sales at 87c to 87⅜c; sold to 87@87⅛c, to 87⅜c, to 86¾@86⅞c, to 87½c, to 87⅜c, to 87⅞c, to 87⅝c, to 88¼c, to 87⅝c, to 87¾c, and closed at 87⅝@87¾c bid.

JULY—New Style—Sold at 85⅝c and at 87@87⅛c. Opened with sales at 85⅞c to 86¼c, sold to 86c, to 86½c, to 85⅞c, to 86⅛c, to 85⅝c, to 86¼c, to 86⅛c, to 86¾c, to 86½c, to 87@87⅛c, to 86½c, to 86⅝c, to 86⅜@86½c, to 86½c, and closed at 86½c bid.

SEPTEMBER—Old Style—Sold at 80⅞@81c and at 82c. Opened with sales at 81⅛c; sold to 81¼c, to 80⅞@81c, to 81¾@81⅞c, to 81¾c, to 82c, to 81½c, and closed at 81½c.

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 79⅝@80¾c. Opened with sales at 79¾c to 80c; sold to 79¾c, to 80c, to 79⅝c, to 80¾c, to 80⅛c, to 80¼c, to 80⅛c, and closed at 80⅛c.

DECEMBER—Sold at 79⅝@80c and closed at about 79¾c.

CORN—Only a moderate speculative trade, largely local, with fluctuations covering ¾@⅞c range. Feeling manifested was unsettled, with the early tone strong. Later on the situation became weaker, with the close ⅝c lower for May, while July lost ½c and September ½@⅝c. The advance in Wheat and heavy decrease in the contract stock as well as all other grades last week was responsible for the early strength, and floor traders favored the buying side, while the demand was supplied by commission houses. The fine weather, present and prospective, and indifferent cables were among the "bear" influences. Stocks here in all positions were reduced 1,351,000 bu, to 6,763,000 bu, compared with 2,541,000 bu one year ago. Contract stocks were reduced 545,831 bu, and now include 3,367,989 bu, against 1,095,054 bu same date in 1903. Bradstreet's available supply decreased 1,312,000 bu, as against 1,442,000 bu decrease in 1903. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ¼d lower, and futures ⅛d higher. Receipts there the past three days 104,000 bu, of which 64,000 bu came from America. Receipts were only 71 cars, with 4 cars contract, and 37 cars estimated for to-morrow. Exports small 92,000 bu, last year 537,000 bu, and 12 boat loads accepted at seaboard. Cash sales here 250,000 bu. There were 40 cars contract switched from private to public elevators. Withdrawn from regular elevators 214,900 bu. Local arrivals were 105,000 bu, while the shipments were 481,000 bu. Western receipts 298,000 bu, last year 305,000 bu. Shipments 646,000 bu and 426,000 bu respectively. Charters to-day for 120,000 bu at 3⅛c to Buffalo. Car lots were in limited supply and fair demand. Prices were steady. No. 2 closed about 49c and No. 2 Yellow at 53c. No. 3 sold at 48½c and closed at 48@48½c. No. 3 Yellow closed about 52c. No Grade sold at 51c for yellow.

Corn by sample—Best grades were steady while off grades sold lower. Offerings small and demand just fair. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 35@46c. No. 4 at 44½@53c. No. 3 at 49½@51c. No. 3 Yellow at 52@53½c. No. 3 White at 50½@51c. Billed through: No Grade at 41c. No. 4 at 46@51¼c. No. 3 at 49c. No. 3 Yellow at 51½@52c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Moderately active and quite unsettled, closing ½@¾c lower.

MAY—Ranged at 46½@47¼c. Opened at 47c, and sold at 46½c, up to 47¼c bid, off to 46¾c nominally, and closed at 46¾c.

JULY—Sold at 47⅞c and 48½@48¼c. Opened at 48⅛@48¼c to 48c; sold at 48⅛c, to 47⅞@48c, to 48@48⅛c, to 47⅞c, to 48c, to 47⅞c, to 48⅛c, to 47½c, and closed at 47½c bid.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 46⅞@47c and 47¾c. Opened at 47¾c to 47⅝c, and sold at 46⅞@47c, to 47½c, to 47¼@47⅜c, to 47⅜@47½c, to 46⅞@47c, to 47c, and closed at 47c bid.

DECEMBER—Sold at 42¼@43⅛c. Opened at 42⅞c to 43⅛c; sold at 42½c, to 42⅝c, to 42¼c, and closed at 42½c asked.

OATS—Were heavy despite the advance in Wheat and closed at almost the bottom, with a net loss of ⅛@½c, the latter on July. There was heavy selling of July by the interest that has been the largest holder. This started the break. The support was poor, and at the last floor traders turned free sellers. Weather and crop reports were favorable and had a depressing effect. Statistics were "bullish." Stocks in all positions last week decreased 501,000 bu, and are 2,602,000 bu. Contract stocks are 1,156,723 bu, a decrease of 450,000 bu last week. Withdrawals were 66,640 bu Standard from public and 15 cars from private houses. Cash business was slow. Arrivals were 124 cars with 37 cars estimated for to-morrow. Seaboard clearances were 66,000 bu. At the close New York reported 100,000 bu sold for export. Car lots to go to store were steady. Standard closed about 41⅞@42¼c.

Oats by sample were steady with a fair demand and small offerings. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 at 32@41¾c. No. 4 White at 38@43¾c. No. 3 White at 41@44½c. Standard at 43¼c. Billed through: No Grade at 38c. No. 4 White at 38@42c. No. 3 White at 43@43¼c. At the river: No Grade at 37c. No. 4 at 36c. No. 4 White at 36@41c. No. 3 White at 41@42c. Standard at 42½c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were weak and lower.

MAY—Moderately traded in. Sold at 41½@41¾c. Opened at 41¾c, sold to 41½c, to 41¾c at close.

JULY—Active. Sold at 38@38⅝c. Opened at 38½c to 38⅝c, sold to 38c, to 38⅛c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 30¼@30⅜c and at 30⅝c. Opened at 30½c to 30⅝c, sold to 30¼@30⅜c, to 30⅜c at close.

RYE—The market was quiet and without any special change. Some demand for May and June delivery and offerings light. Fresh arrivals also in some demand and scarce. There were no receipts to-day. Two cars were withdrawn from private warehouse. There were no export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store, round lots, nominally 73c, and fresh arrivals free on board nominally 73@74½c. No. 3 to go to store sold at 70½c and ranged down to 64c for common. Not Graded sold at 72c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet. No trading and prices about the same as yesterday. May 73c bid and July 66c bid. August 65c asked and September 63c asked.

BARLEY—The market was steady and all grades were salable. There were small offerings; to-day's postings showed 10 cars inspected in. Some of the usual buyers were not on the market yet the demand was equal to the supply. Market for Screenings quotable at 27@37c for poor to choice. Barley—low grade feed or mixing nominally 35@38c, outside good weight. Malting, low grade, 40@42c; fair to good, sound, 45@48c; good color, 50@56c, and fancy 58c.

SEEDS—There was little or nothing done and values ruled unchanged except Flax which was nominally lower.

Timothy—There was nothing done in new crop Timothy, as buyers and sellers remain 10c apart. Two cars of cash Seed were sold, but the price could not be ascertained. Contract or May delivery was called nominally $3 10. September remained offered at $3 30 and $3 20 bid. Country lots were quotable at $2 00@3 60 for low grade to fancy choice about $2 80@2 90, fair to good Seed $2 60@2 75 and rough at $2 40@2 50.

Flax—Both cash and futures were quoted lower, but no business was done. The movement was very light; Minneapolis received 1 car and Duluth got 12 cars. There were no receipts or shipments at Chicago. No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest nominally $1 08. No. 1 quotable at 99½c and Rejected at 96c@$1 00, outside for choice Northwestern. May delivery was offered at $1 01 and $1 00 was bid. July was called $1 02 nominally, and September was offered $1 05 and $1 03 was bid.

Clover—It is just between seasons and very little Seed is coming on the market. The market in practically a nominal way was quotably steady and unchanged. Contract spot Seed was nominally $10 75. Country lots common to choice, $7 75@10 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 00@8 00; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 50.

Other Seeds—The market was without offerings. Prices were called nominally unchanged. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark $1 15@1 65. Common Millet, $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 55. Siberian, $1 00@$1 10. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 85c@$1 05. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat firm and quoted a shade better; good quality quotable at $1 40@1 45.

HOG PRODUCTS—A fair business in a speculative way was transacted in Hog Products and the market in a general way exhibited considerable strength. Offerings were fair, but the demand was sufficient to readily absorb them. Outside orders were slightly larger and local trading was fair. Prices ruled higher on all the leading articles, and the advances were fairly well supported to the close. Hogs were in fair supply and higher and the Grain markets were stronger, and these features encouraged fair buying. Operators traded cautiously and almost exclusively in July and September contracts. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 65,000, compared with 70,000 one year ago. Foreign markets were steadier and Bricks were quoted 6d higher. Domestic markets were quiet and unchanged. Receipts of Products were quite liberal—of Lard and Meats about 44 cars. Shipments were fair—of Lard and Meats about 110 cars. Demand on shipping account was moderate and the offerings were only fair. Inquiry chiefly for the domestic trade. Exporters virtually out of the market. Sales were larger, and prices were unchanged.

Mess Pork—Only a fair trade was reported in the market for Mess Pork, and the feeling was stronger in a general way. Offerings were not very free, and the demand was fairly active. Market opened rather strong, and prices were 5c higher, and a further improvement of 5c was gained. Later, there was some pressure to sell, and prices receded 7½c. Toward the close, the feeling was stronger, and prices rallied 5@7½c, and the market closed steady. Shipping demand was light, and offerings were moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $11 25@11 30.

MAY—Quiet and steady at $11 25.

JULY—In rather good demand and offerings were only fair. Sales were made at $11 30@11 37½. Opened at $11 32½, sold to $11 37½, to $11 30, to $11 37½, to $11 35, to $11 37½, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Offerings were not very large, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $11 50@11 60. Opened at $11 52½, sold to $11 57½, to $11 50, to $11 57½, to $11 55, to $11 60, to $11 55@11 57½, to $11 57½, and closed steady.

Lard—Trade was fairly active in the Lard market, and the feeling was stronger. Offerings were fair and the demand was moderately active. Foreign advices were unchanged. Prices ruled somewhat irregular. Opening trades were made at 2½c advance, and a further improvement of 2½c was gained. Later, the feeling was not so strong, and prices settled back 2½@5c, but rallied again 2½c and closed steady. Inquiry on shipping account limited and offerings only moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 35@6 37½. Loose lots in small request, with moderate offerings. Prices steady at about 55c discount on July figures. Leaf Lard in limited request and offerings were small. Prices were quotably steady at $5 81¼. Neutral was in only limited demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $6 75@6 87½ for No. 1, and $6 50@6 62½ for No. 2.

MAY—Quiet and quotable at $6 35.

JULY—In rather good request with fair offerings. Sales were made at $6 45@6 50. Opened at $6 47½, sold to $6 50, to $6 45, to $6 47½@6 50, to $6 47½, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Offerings were not very large, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $6 62½@6 65. Opened at $6 62½, sold to $6 65, to $6 62½, and closed quiet.

Short Rib Sides—Rather a good business was transacted in Short Rib [illegible] was stronger. BREADSTUFFS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

[From the Portland Commercial Review, May 12.]

Wheat—Inactivity prevails in the Wheat markets here and there is hardly any business passing. Buyers and sellers are apart as to their ideas of values, consequently no sales are being made Exporters who have vessels chartered for this season's loading are not in the market for any Wheat, having secured ample stocks beforehand, and the same is ready to go on board ship, when vessels are ready to load. The same can be said on Puget Sound One vessel finished loading during the week, having received prompt dispatch. Millers are not in the market for any Wheat, as their trade is very dull at present. Some time ago we predicted a large carry over on July 1, and it looks as if our prediction were coming true. Farmers' ideas are too exalted as to prices, and the possibility is many of them will regret that they did not sell earlier Quotations are without change, and club Wheat is quoted at 73c, bluestem 83c and valley 85c per bu. Crop advices for the week under review are without change The weather has been too cool for any rapid growth. The soil is in excellent condition for plowing, and this work has proceeded rapidly. Fall Wheat and Grain of all kinds continue to make good advancement, and spring Grain is coming up to good stands. In the State of Washington Winter Wheat has made good progress. It is of good color and never looked better at this time of the year. Early spring Grain is growing finely.

Flour—The Flour market is very dull, and very few mills are in operation. There is a complete stagnation at the present time. The present listness of the Flour trade is somewhat remarkable. Foreign trade is lifeless, and no inquiry has been made for some time Stocks abroad are being worked off very slowly, and the approach of the warm season has caused holders to sacrifice the large stocks in China, and some very heavy parcels have been shipped to Japan. The indications at present do not give the miller very much encouragement as to a revival of business in the near future Complaints are heard from every section of the interior. A few of the leading export mills are at work on some old orders, but 90 per cent of the mills have closed down for an indefinite period. Not only is the demand slow in the Orient, but little Flour is going at present to Central and South America. California is not buying as freely, and shipments there are also light. We quote export brands from $3 40 to $3 60 per barrel; Patents from $4 25 to $4 50 per barrel, according to quality and brand

CROP CONDITIONS IN GREAT BRITAIN.

[From the Mark Lane Express, May 2.]

The month of April has improved the agricultural outlook and has been favorable to farm work in all the three kingdoms. The weather has been fine, but not forcing, and there has been a welcome abundance of sunshine, which, however, has not brought vegetation on too rapidly, as the prevailing winds have been from the North, and temperature at night has often fallen 35 degrees or 36 degrees. The spring Grain of March and even early April sowing is making a show; so, too, is nursery Wheat, which has come up of a satisfactory color and level growth, such as was not noticeable in the ordinary October and November sown Wheat The sowings of Barley and Oats are not yet completed, but labors are drawing very near a close. A reduced area under Barley is likely to be nearly balanced by an increase in Oats, but the sowings of Beans and Peas retrograde and the nursery Wheat put in during March will in no material respect efface the loss on the Wheat area which was so very noticeable when 1904 came in. There is some fear, indeed, that both the Wheat and Barley areas of 1904 will prove to be the lowest on record, that is to say, since we began to have trustworthy returns. Comber gives the Wheat area of England at 3,160,000 acres in 1812; earlier estimates are not now held in much esteem.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows there is a rain in Southern Dakota -.64 at Huron. With this exception there is clear weather in Manitoba and the Northwest There are rains in Iowa, Missouri, Illinois, and general rains in Ohio Valley. Temperatures about as they have been—a little higher in the extreme North There is no unfavorable feature.

Indications are the cool weather will continue in this district. Showers for the central valleys, but it is doubtful if they will reach the lake region.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

It is claimed that 7,000 bales of Hops still remain unsold in Oregon.

A Minneapolis, Kan., miller recently purchased $9,000 worth of binder twine at Kansas City.

Gloucester, Mass., has awarded the $90,000 4 per cent semi-annual 1 to 30-year serial water bonds at 105 451.

The Lancaster mills have declared a $3 00 dividend per share, payable June 1 to stockholders of record May 14

The Missouri, Kansas and Texas has applied to the New York Stock Exchange to list $7,200,0 0 additional common stock

Cables from Rosario, Tuesday, said: "Argentine Wheat exports will probably continue on the present scale during the next three weeks."

The Erie Railroad balance sheet shows total assets $376,757,797, an increase of $6,137,725 and a profit and loss surplus of $9,668,615, a decrease of $1,418,733.

The General Electric Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of $2 00 per share, payable July 15 to stockholders of record June 15. Books do not close.

America is 73,000,000 bu short of last year in exports of Wheat and Flour from July 1, 1903, to May 14, 1904. Russia shows an increase of 14,800,000 bu and Argentina of 34,000,000 bu.

The Manhattan Railway balance sheet as of March 31 shows a total of $104,609,788 assets, a decrease of $1,176,123, and a profit and loss surplus of $7,106,601, and increase of $3,729.

The Brooklyn Union Gas Company has declared a quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent, payable May 12, an increase of ½ per cent per quarter, making the rate 10 per cent per annum.

Reports from many points in Ohio show that more or less damage to Vegetables and Fruits was caused by frost Sunday night. In some instances ice formed and the temperature fell to 301 egrees or lower.

The Monon reports for the first week in May $102,500 gross earnings, an increase of $3,900; the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, $229,300 gross, a decrease of $40,900; the Chicago Terminal, $29,000, a decrease of $4,500.

In two cases for damages against the Texas and Pacific Railroad Company for Cotton destroyed by fire during shipment the United States Supreme Court, Monday, affirmed the opinions of the lower courts in favor of the railroad company.

The dividend on United States Steel declared in April will not be paid until Monday and the dividend for the current quarter will not be acted on until the last Tuesday in July, so that it is too far in the future to look for any information in regard to the intentions of the directors.

The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey has declared a dividend of $8 00 per share, payable June 15 to stockholders of record May 20 This compares with $7 00 for the same period last year. The company has declared thus far this year, including this dividend, $21 00 a share.

"Reports from Woyming ranges are to the effect that the recent heavy rains caused Sheep men a considerable loss in Lambs," says the Denver Record-Stockman "The heavy rains came when lambing was in full swing and Lambs were chilled to death. The loss is much heavier than the total loss of Sheep last winter."

The Vera Cruz and Pacific Railway, as also the Tehauntepec Railroad, will not enter into the already-formed merger controlled by the Mexican Government, but these roads will be operated under the community of interests. There will be entire harmony in the conduct of the lines from Laredo to Salina Cruz, as all are under government control.

The Board of Directors of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange has authorized the President to appoint one delegate to represent the Exchange at the annual meeting of the Millers' National Federation at Niagara Falls, June 8, 9 and 10, and two delegates to the convention of the Grain Dealers' National Association at Milwaukee, June 22, 23 and 24.

The Colorado Fuel and Iron Company will pay the February coupons on all of its outstanding 5 per cent debenture bonds. The total issue is $14,068,000, and February coupons have already been paid by the bondholders' protective committee on about $13,000,000 of bonds filed with it in favor of the reorganization plan. This leaves comparatively a small sum for the company to pay. It is expected that payment of the interest will be immediately followed by announcement that the reorganization plan is effective.

It has been noteworthy that, while in general security values have been declining, the securities of the American Writing Paper Company have been steadily advancing. As there is nothing in business affairs to warrant this improvement, it is queried if the long-contemplated capital readjustment is in process of accomplishment The Gould party in the directorate is believed to be planning a capital readjustment, but how far the matter has progressed is apparently not known in Springfield, the headquarters of the company.

The rumors in regard to Republic Iron and Steel so far lack official confirmation. It is said the company has some important obligations falling due shortly which it is having difficulty in making provision for. There is an impression in some quarters that these obligations are in the nature of bank loans incurred in connection with purchasing Ore and Coal land. It is pointed out that if the company sees fit it could allow these properties to revert to the parties from whom they were purchased rather than involve the company in any unnecessary financial difficulties.

According to the Bureau of Statistics, Washington, exports of Cattle from the principal customhouse districts for the ten months ended with April amounted to 408,544 head, against 247,518 for the same period last year Sheep exported amount to 246,190 head, against 143,865 for a corresponding period last year. Packing-house products for the past ten months show good gains over the same period last year with the exception of Hams and imitation Butter. Both of these have fallen off, though Hams have suffered the worst, the shrinkage being some 13,109,961 lbs.

The reports in Cleveland to the effect that the control of the National Carbon Company is still in the hands of the original interests have been verified by Director John P. Wilson of Chicago. Mr. Wilson is quoted as follows: "The men who put the company in the field still own it They are very friendly to the General Electric interests, and the latter, no doubt, are the largest outside holders of stock. The company is making a very satisfactory showing, and that insiders are satisfied is evidenced by the fact that the stock never goes begging for a purchaser. The common shares are being steadily absorbed by those who believe in their future."

A New York dispatch says: "A large holder of Steel common said, Friday: 'I learn from undisputed authority that it will be at least three years before they can expect a condition of affairs that will justify discussion of resumption of dividends. It will require the rest of the year for the Steel corporation to drift with the depressed trade and safely round the turn into prosperity. It will then take at least one year for the corporation to recover from its losses of last year and this year, and another year, under prosperous conditions, to properly build up a surplus. This, according to my view, means that it will be 1908 at least, and probably longer, before we who own common stock can expect any return on it.' "

"Stockmen who have patiently fed their Cattle to a good weight are meeting with much disappointment because at the present time big steers are unpopular," remarks the Drovers' Journal. "Buyers prefer the light Cattle, for the demand calls for smaller cuts. It was ever thus. Many feeders have been holding back in the hope of securing better prices and in the meantime the steers were getting heavier and consuming 50c Corn. At last, being obliged to market them, the owners find that they would have brought as much per 100 lbs several months before and possibly more. If one were able to read the future these pitfalls might have been avoided, but there seems no way out of it for the man who has to take chances with unknown conditions."

Important changes in the relations of the Vanderbilt lines between New York and Chicago are planned for the near future. To perfect these plans, it is said, was the real object of the record-breaking trip made with a special train over the Michigan Central Railroad by President Newman of the New York Central and Lake Shore Railroads; President Truesdale of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad, and President Ledyard of the Michigan Central. From the standpoint of the traveling public, the most important changes to be made in the Vanderbilt lines will be the formation of a new passenger route between Chicago and New York by linking the Michigan Central and Lackawanna Railroads. Now passenger trains of the Michigan Central and and Lake Shore roads run over the New York Central from Buffalo to New York, while the Nickel Plate and Lackawanna Railroads form another through passenger route The Michigan Central-New York Central route from Chicago to New York is 975 miles long. The proposed Michigan Central-Lackawanna route will be shorter by exactly thirty miles. The Lackawanna is the shortest line between Buffalo and New York, and is double-tracked the entire distance. When combining the Michigan Central and Lackawanna roads for through passenger service it is planned by the Vanderbilt authorities to link the Nickel Plate and West Shore Railroads. The first step toward the unification of the Michigan Central and Lackawanna roads has just been taken, in the formation of a fast freight line via that route.

There will be $2,000,000 in Gold shipped from New York to Europe to-morrow. There has also been $2,000,000 taken for shipment on Saturday.

A strike of Grain shovelers at Buffalo has prevented boats that have gone there with Grain from unloading This has crippled chartering at Chicago for Buffalo

A Minneapolis party says the Spring Wheat acreage in Minnesota is increased 2½ per cent; South Dakota, 1½ per cent, and North Dakota is about the same as last year.

Estimated receipts for to-morrow: Wheat, 3 cars; Corn, 16 cars; Oats, 108 cars; Rye, 2 cars; Barley, 25 cars; Hogs, 26 000.

The Minneapolis Market Record estimates 11.4 per cent of Wheat in farmers' hands in the Northwest, and based on the report of yield by the Department of Agriculture, would be 20,394,000 bu

At the annual meeting of the National Hay Dealers' Association in St. Louis, June 14 to 16, the Chicago Board of Trade will be represented by H. O. Randall, G. S. Blakeslee, and W. J. Doyle.

Local Securities were traded in moderately, and prices moved irregularly. Diamond Match, Edison and Title and Trust declined fairly, and Biscuit common, Metropolitan Elevated common and Pneumatic Tool advanced.

Broomhall cabled. "Our agent at Braila wires that good rains have fallen in most of Wallachia (the southern half of Roumania), but in the region surrounding Braila the precipitation was rather light and not sufficient to relieve the drouth. More rain, however, is probable."

An effort is being made by the Chicago Board of Trade Transportation Committee and Grain shippers to have the East-bound roads take through billed Grain at whatever the going rate is. This will give it an advantage of any decline in the tariff The railroads mostly favor granting the concession, but no official action has been taken.

Stocks in New York were mostly strong and averaged higher. London bought and brokers representing strong interests were more liberally supplied with buying orders. Western Railway shares gained ⅜ to ⅝ but reacted. Coalers started higher, but became irregular. Realty gained ⅜ to 1¾. Steel preferred advanced ½ and lost it Money 2 per cent

The Transportation Committee of the Chicago Board of Trade, after hearing arguments for and against the removal of freight differentials to Eastern Atlantic ports, has recommended to the Board of Directors that they believe it for the best interests of the Board to take no action in the Eastern fight. New York wants the differentials removed, and other ports protest.

Waxahachie, Texas, wired Tuesday: "We commenced harvesting Wheat in this country last Saturday. Wheat is in fine condition. Will make from 18 to 20 bu per acre. Fall Oats fine. Will commence harvesting next week. Will make from 40 to 60 bu per acre. Have a very big acreage of Wheat, Corn and Oats in this section of State on account of boll weevil eating up Cotton "

The Grain Committee of the Chicago Board of Trade has been reappointed under the new regulations establishing the Grain Sampling and Seed Inspection Department The committee is the same that has done excellent work in the inspection of Grain for months past. H. N Sager is chairman, the other members being C. B. Pierce, James Templeton, B. A. Eckhart and W. N Eckhardt.

The directors of the Motzorongo Company have declared an initial dividend of 10 per cent, payable out of the earnings from last year's crop. The Motzorongo Company is one of the larger of the Mexican plantation companies, and was organized about two years ago by Chicago people. Its capital is $1,250,000. It has 165,000 acres of land in Motzorongo and Josephinas Counties, in the State of Vera Cruz, Mexico.

It is said that on June 1 the New York Central, Lake Shore, and Michigan Central, and Jersey Central lines will establish a new fast freight service between Chicago and the East, to be called the Jersey Central dispatch. The Jersey Central controls the Reading. The new fast freight line is to be established for the purpose of connecting the Reading and the Jersey Central with the West over the New York Central line.

Broomhall cabled: "The advance in American Wheat markets yesterday was offset to a large extent by ideal weather throughout England, opening prices being unchanged to ⅛d higher. During the morning July lost ⅜d and September ¼d on general realizing, induced by a private message from Chicago anticipating a reaction in American prices. The Corn market opened and remained unchanged, trading being neglected, although the undertone was steady."

Dornbusch's Buda Pesth correspondent, writing under date of May 2, says: "Business in the Flour market has been very quiet, and the strike of carters greatly hampers trade. Export business has been paralyzed, owing to the greatly reduced output of the mills, and stocks show practically no increase over the previous week. The tone closed dull, being uninfluenced by the comparative firmness in Wheat. Mill feedingstuffs, on the other hand, continue firm, as stocks are low."

A Chicago commission man who spent the past two weeks in the Southwest says "I made a thorough examination into conditions all over Kansas and part of Oklahoma and Indian Territory. Crop prospects there at present are good. There is plenty of moisture, and the Wheat has a good stand. I understand that in Southern and Western Oklahoma conditions are not so favorable as in the parts around Guthrie. In Southern Nebraska about 80 per cent of the Corn has been planted."

FREIGHTS AT SAN FRANCISCO.

[From the Weekly Commercial News, May 12.]

The local Grain freight market remains steady, only one fixture having been reported during the week, the British bark Marathon. For new crop loading vessels are asking 22s 6d, but shippers show little disposition to do business. In the North a fair amount of business has been done, two French vessels being taken at Portland for 15s and 15s 3d, the latter rate including Flour; for future loading in the North 26s 3d has been done, but it is possible to get a vessel at 25s.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS

FLOUR—The market is still dull and dormant with no new interesting features.

WINTER WHEAT—A light milling demand existed, and under small offerings a firm feeling prevailed. No 2 Red in store was quotably $1 03@1 06, and fresh arrivals $1 05@1 08, with a sale at $1 08. No 3 Red fresh arrivals quotably $1 00@1 06. No. 2 Hard free on board fresh arrivals quotably 92@96c. No. 3 Hard fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 82@93c for poor to choice.

SPRING WHEAT—The market was stronger and prices 1c higher for No. 1 Northern in store and unchanged for car lots of fresh arrivals free on board Demand good on milling and shipping account and sales of 100,000 bu were reported No. 1 Northern in store was quotable at 95½@97¼c, and fresh arrivals free on board at 95@98c. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals nominally 93@96c No 3 Spring fresh receipts ranged at 83@96c for common to choice No 4 Spring ranged at 62½@86c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—The market displayed no marked activity, in fact, was a little slow at times, with the trade chiefly local Sentiment, however, was quite divided, with resting prices showing May 1⅜c higher, July trifle easier and September unchanged. The early tone was strong and market for a time displayed an advancing tendency notwithstanding the fine weather and action of the foreign markets. Locals and professionals were moderate buyers and part of the same was on the strength at Minneapolis Rumors were in circulation at the opening that an authority there would come out to-day with a report showing 30 per cent reduction in the Spring Wheat area, but this was denied later in the day and caused some unloading by "longs," prices reacting The irresponsive English cables were among the "bear" influences, Broomhall reporting that the ideal weather throughout England offset to a great extent the advance on this side yesterday. Liverpool quoted spot unchanged to ½d lower and futures ¼@⅜d lower. London steady to ⅛d lower. Paris advanced 1½c, while Buda Pesth declined 1½c. Antwerp unchanged. An Antwerp cable stated that Russian and Roumanian crop prospects were so far uncertain, but indications were for average crops. Weather brilliant in other parts of the Continent. Beneficial rains were reported by Broomhall in Roumania and more moisture probable. The map showed clear weather in the Northwest and warmer everywhere. Heavy general rains fell in the Ohio Valley. Showers were predicted for Minnesota, Indiana and Nebraska and fair and warmer weather for the Dakotas. An elevator system in Nebraska estimated the Spring Wheat area in that State increased 24 per cent. New York again reported foreigners good buyers of December. Primary receipts were 36 000 bu smaller than last year. Kansas City and St. Louis received 41,000 bu; last year 43,000 bu; shipments 33,000 bu. Northwest cars were 33 smaller than in 1903. Minneapolis stocks were estimated to have decreased 700,000 bu past four days and 1 000,000 bu decrease expected this week. Minneapolis reported 259 cars of Wheat out of elevators there since yesterday morning. Exports were again most meagre and 11 boat loads were accepted at the seaboard. Cash sales here were 100,000 bu. Receipts at Duluth 3 cars and at Minneapolis 75 cars, a total of 78 cars, against 61 cars yesterday, 62 cars a week ago, and 111 cars last year. Local receipts included 4 cars Winter, no cars Spring, no cars mixed, a total of 4 cars, against 11 cars last year. Included in the above was 1 car of contract grade. There was also 12 cars and no bu from unlicensed elevators The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 3 cars. The withdrawals were 59,300 bu. Receipts at Western points were 183 881 bu, against 256 363 bu last year; at Eastern points 3 984 bu, against 217,814 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 196 510 bu, against 333,863 bu last year, and from Eastern points 3 107 bu, against 178,868 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 29,415 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 1 4 574 bu.

CORN—Market was fairly active, with closing prices showing May ½c higher, while the July gained ½c and the September ⅜c. The trade was practically all local with professionals among the leading buyers, floor traders and commission houses supplying the demand. Receipts were small, only 38 cars, with 1 car contract, against 99 cars one year ago, when 13 cars graded, and 46 cars are estimated for to-morrow. Acceptances in the interior, however, were said to be enlarging and weather conditions were favorable, though temperatures are a little too low. Nebraska advices stated the Corn area would be enlarged 21 per cent. The Iowa crop bulletin stated that reports indicated very good progress with planting, the soil being dry enough for field work and that 70 to 75 per cent of the area was now in. Showers were predicted for Indiana, Iowa and Nebraska. London quoted cargoes on passage firm with less offering. Liverpool spot was steady and futures ⅛d lower Shippers reported less demand with sales limited. THE HOP SITUATION.

[New York Producers' Report, May 14.]

Advices from Oregon report sales in the neighborhood of 1,500 bales during the week at prices ranging from 26@28c. It is said that some of these Hops are going to London. It is now estimated that stocks left on the Coast in growers' and dealers' hands will not exceed 7,500 bales, against 38,000 bales this time last year. The growing crop on the Coast is reported in splendid condition in all the States and weather conditions could be desired. In New York State the growing crop shows very great strength; in fact, the late spring seems to have been very beneficial to the vines. The increased demand for roots indicates great interest on part of farmers either for new acreage or to replace any old vines which may have given out. Farmers seem to be much encouraged, owing to last year's price and are talking and talk about plowing up. Reports from England and Germany are good. Bohemia is complaining that the vines in some localities have been killed back strong as they would like to see them, but this can be helped out considerably by right kind of weather. No transactions of importance on this market. Holders are firm and purchases would have to be paid for at quotations. Nevertheless any strong pressure to sell would tend to reduce prices.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

It is clear and much warmer in the extreme North. There are light general rains in Iowa and in Missouri, and heavy general rains in the Ohio Valley. There are higher temperatures everywhere 5 to 10 degrees above normal, except the North. Conditions could not be any better—clear and warm for the man who is finishing up his spring Wheat seeding and fine growing weather for the Winter and the Corn.

Weather forecast for 36 hours is: Dakotas fair, warmer, showers probable Thursday. Minnesota and Indiana cloudy, showers Thursday. Illinois and Missouri cloudy, warmer. Michigan and Wisconsin, fair, frost. Iowa and Nebraska, showers Thursday.

The United States Supreme Court, Monday, laid down the rule that a telegraph operator for a railroad company and a fireman on a railroad engine are "fellow servants," and that the negligence of the former causing the death of the latter in the course of their work was a risk the fireman assumed, and was not a ground for damages against the railroad company.

Officials of the American Steel and Wire Company say the demand for the company's goods is now in strictly for the actual necessities of the country. There are no stocks to speak of in merchants' hands and the competitive requirements may be said to be very fair, everything considered. Unfilled business is said to be much better than was anticipated a month or six weeks ago.

Directors of the Altoona Mining Company have levied an assessment of $5 00, payable $1 50 on May 25 and $1 50 on Sept. 25. The May installment is due from stockholders of record May 25 and the September installment from stockholders of record Sept 24. The assessment is levied for the sinking of No. 1 Kearsage shaft, and for the further development of No. 2 shaft.

The members of the United States Steel bond conversion syndicate sent checks, Monday, to J. P. Morgan & Co., managers, so that the syndicate's affairs may be wound up. The syndicate had received from the corporation a cash commission of $80,000 for conversion, and will pay it $2,000,000 cash and receive in return $12,000,000 in bonds. The members are expected to receive pro rata nearly $2,000,000 in stock.

The Missouri Supreme Court, Wednesday, handed down a decision refusing to annul the franchise of the Terminal Railroad Association of St Louis along with the right of way business in Missouri The court sustains a demurrer to the petition alleging that the association does not operate any competitive belt line and made agreements, and that as a terminal railroad it does not come under the law regulating trunk line roads

Another plan to organize that attracts respectful attention in New York is the alleged acquisition by Mr. Huntman and his friends of the Toledo, St. Louis and Western (Cover Leaf) Railroad for the benefit of the Erie The fact is recalled that F. D. Underwood practically got the Erie system, made a trip of inspection over the Cover Leaf just before he went to Europe. The Clover Leaf would, it is said give the Erie an advantageous outlet to St. Louis and other Western points.

Judge Barker of the Supreme Court at Boston, Tuesday, announced a decision adverse to the receiver of the Bay State Gas Company of Delaware in his action for the appointment of a receiver for Boston Gas companies in connection with a plan to merge them into a new combination. The decision of importance in the affairs of Illinois gas is alleged that the sale was accomplished by fraud and conspiracy. It is understood that it will be said give the Erie an advantageous outlet to St. Louis and other Western points.

Definite arrangements are reported to have been made with a syndicate headed by J P. Morgan & Co for the flotation of a loan by the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company It is said that the syndicate intends to place a three-mo del for terminal improvements at New York and improvements at Syracuse and Buffalo, as well as to provide for the floating indebtedness, the sum of which is said to be $10,000,000. The loan as at present arranged for, it is said, will be somewhat less—probably about $3,000 000

The Philadelphia News Bureau says: "Having been a prime factor in the organization of a third car shop ever before, the Iron business has turned pauper. Statistics to date show that the continuance for the rest of the year of the present rate of production is out of the question. It is not necessary far from entirely fixing the trade, while the idea of returning to a production like that of 1892, 11,740,000 tons, which reached 9,500,000 in 1893, 8,000 000 tons, is simply appalling, and regarded as impossible by which it probably is."

A dispatch from Macon, Ga., says: "The I C. Plant Sons' Bank failed to open its doors Monday. The First National Bank opened at 9 o'clock, but later closed, posting notice that it would not open, Tuesday, pending the arrival of a bank examiner, who is expected during the day. According to a statement issued by the Comptroller of the Currency depositors $683 00 : Its capital is $200,000 Robert R Plant, president of the First National Bank, is also the head of the I. C. Plant Sons', which has a capital of $30,000."

A member of the Steel rail pool said. Monday, at New York: "On every order for Steel rails this year's delivery there is an absolute guarantee against any reduction in prices during 1894." This explains why we cannot now grant the demands of the railroads for a reduction in the prices of rails without breaking contracts and losing our guaranteed rail contracts Not only would we be forced to pay rebates to the roads with orders on our books at considerable loss, but we would also have to readjust all existing schedules from pig Iron up."

The president of the Wabash Railroad Company says the crops in most sections have been in backward, and that the anticipated slight will be a decrease in the Wabash earnings for the first week of May was due, he says, to a falling off in the freight receipts There was substantial increase, he adds, in the passenger business. He expects the traffic on the Wabash system in connection with the St Louis exposition has been very satisfactory thus far. He declares that there will be better returns as soon as crop conditions improve and the crop outlook becomes more promising

The San Francisco Commercial News of May 12 says: "While a better crop of Wheat than was harvested last year is generally expected, the yield will be by no means heavy, probably not amounting to more than 600,000 tons. In the North the late rains delayed sowing and much of the acreage which was intended for Wheat was sown to Oats or Barley; reports from several sections of the North indicate that the late spring is not looking so well as it might, but this is not true of the Sacramento Valley. The crop market remains dull, with no change in prices The steamer Jeanie brought down 55 tons of Bluestem from Puget Sound "

The Chicago Record-Herald says: "Almost over the remarkable falling off in traffic, the railroads centering in Chicago are discharging thousands of employes, cutting down the hours of labor and curtailing expenses in every conceivable direction It is estimated that since Jan. 1, 1894, more than 15,000 railroad employes have been discharged in the United States and the pruning process is still going on Traffic officials say that in all their years traffic has not been so light as it is now and they believe that they are entering a period of trade depression like that of 1873, which lasted for 5 years Rigid economy has, therefore, been ordered in all departments, and forces are being reduced to a minimum"

H. W. Poor & Co., Boston, are offering for sale a block of the first mortgage 5 per cent Gold bonds of the Michigan State Telephone Company, dated Feb 1, 1894, and due Feb 1, 1924, without option of call for payment of principal or interest. The bonds are issued at offices of N. W Harris & Co., Boston and New York; denominations, $1,000 and $500; Old Colony Trust Company, Boston, trustee. The total authorized bonds issued are $10,000,000; reserved for underlying Michigan Telephone Company 6s, $258,000; present issue, $4,181,000; remainder reserved for not over 75 per cent of cost of future extensions, additions and improvements since existing previsions.

St. Petersburg advices of May 2 say: "The condition of the growing crops generally is favorable, does not excite any apprehension, as appearances continue satisfactory in almost all directions—the cold spell at the end of March and commencement of April had a rather detrimental effect upon the cereals in the Southern provinces, but the recent mild and damp weather has repaired any injury to the plants. On the banks of the Volga and Ural the spring sowings have commenced, but the weather keeps very dry and rain is now most essential. In the Southern governments the autumn and spring-sown Grain has a promising aspect, and in the Northwest provinces the out look in places is even good."

The North British Agriculturist of May 4 says: "The merry month of May" was this year ushered in with a snowstorm on mostly all the higher grounds of Scotland The blizzard, for such it was, proved very severe on the lambing stocks in the high ground, and a considerable loss of Lambs has resulted from this most unseasonable storm, which continued for a couple of days, and, although the storm then abated, the weather still remains bleak and barren, and more like that of blustering March than 'merry May.' On the lower grounds the storm has not been so much felt, and the showers which fell on Sunday and Monday were welcome, as the land was getting very dry and unfit for work. The seeding for the several crops is now pretty well completed, and the break for the Potato crop is about all planted also."

Pine rains which have fallen over the Texas Panhandle and the western portion of the State of late at a time when the necessity for moisture was never greater, and when the situation up to that time had been about as dark as it ever was in the history of the Cattle Industry. The grass crop of Texas range country this spring have been really more serious than appeared on the surface, for the greater part of that section was practically eaten off by winter grass or weeds, and large portions of the range country Cattle were being fed just like they are in the midst of winter, and supplies of feed had been purchased in order to keep stock going until the 1st of June. A portion of this feed will not be necessary now, for it is a few days the grass will begin to come and will soon afford the necessary grazing to put the thin stuff in good shape.

The St Louis Sirup and Preserving Company of St. Louis, Mo., has filed a certificate of increase of capital stock from $250,000 to $1,000,000. The total authorized stock issue is limited to $1,500,000, all of one class; par of shares, $100. There are also $200,000 of 6 per cent twenty-year first mortgage bonds of this issue. The gross earnings in 1893 is stated as $1 253 000; net earnings $12,000. The company has its plant at Granite City, Ill., was expected to be ready for operation about May 1, and has a capacity fifteen hundred barrels daily; all of mill construction and equipped with automatic fire extinguishers and electric power transmission system Its capacity is 1,500 barrels daily but of Corn a day, its product being Glucose and Sirups, with the by-products—Starch, Corn Oil, Gluten Feed, Oil Cake, etc. For several years the company has had a plant and salesroom in St. Louis.

A member of the United States Steel preferred stock conversion syndicate says: "Some simple people have figured that the syndicate would sell or some of the members thereof, have really made a profit on the operation, because the preferred stock that they put in cost them about $70 per share. I propose to say that none of the stock deposited stood the depositor in at less than $99 per share, for if my memory serves me, all the stock was deposited when the syndicate was ready to close up. It seems to me that I heard something at that time of 3 0,000 shares of preferred stock having been purchased in the market at about 98 by three or four Wall men and voted in by for conversion. I certainly do not think that the stock deposited by the syndicate could possibly be figured out as having cost anything under 99. If it cost only 98, the loss represented in the 25 would be over 6 per cent on the whole operation."

One of the bankers who took the New York City bonds is quoted as saying: "Investors are beginning to get over their scare of selling big blocks, and they are purchasing high grade bonds. When we bid for the city bonds we did so with the knowledge that we would have eight months in which to sell them, but at the rate we are going we would sell them all in thirty days. I confidently expect to see them selling up to 104½ by next tax day. Last year we saw investors taking a short turn out of saving a bank to buy Stocks that had declined greatly on the Exchange. They were hurt, and they haven't got over it, but confidence in values is returning fast. I do not see the uncertainty of the election to disturb investors, but I think they are beginning to feel that the result of the election is not going to be harm ful. The buying of good bonds is going on to-day on steadily, and while the day-to-day sales do not look large they foot-up to handsome figures at the end of the month."

Information comes from a most reliable source that there will be a movement of Cattle from Texas to Cuba this spring and summer that will far outrank the movement of last summer," says the Port Tampa Record. "The indications are that the movement will begin on a large scale within a few weeks and that already men are rounding up 18 000 head for exportation through the port of Galveston. The number will not exceed that, but it is learned that many more will be shipped to Cuba via Galveston before next winter. Recent consultations with the Department of Cuban Agriculture Lab r ers something of the attempt which has been and is being made in Cuba to restock their farms and make the Stock-raising industry one of the leading industries of the island. Cuba has a climate and country are adapted to the Stock-raising business, and many large ranches are being established. Many of these farms and ranches have been partially stocked with Texas Cattle, but Texas has also furnished many thousand head. and according to the information already referred to, will continue to do so."

The head of an Eastern railroad says: "The present price of $28 00 per ton for Steel rails to domestic consumers is an artificial one. I have no doubt, however, that the present pool will continue to hold prices at $28 00 for the rest of this year It has guaranteed prices on the booked orders and must pay rebates if it cuts. The result of this arbitrary maintenance of prices artificially has been stagnation in the rail trade. My road is using just as few rails as possible It will continue this policy while prices are $28 00. If the rail pool would cut prices to $25 00 per ton, I think it would result in an immediate change in the situation At least 1,200,000 tons of rails would be required for this year's delivery, which otherwise will not be placed. Occasional orders must be given by the railroads no matter what the price may be, but it is a mistaken policy for the railroads to hold up work by refusing to place orders their gross business in a generally lean year."

The addition of 1,200,000 tons to the year's rail booking would add $31,200,000 gross business to the rail makers whereas the net profits on the added tons are not far in excess of $12,200,000 gross, compared with over $80,000,000 gross last year.

Large holders of the debenture B bonds of the Wabash Railroad have addressed a communication to the Mercantile Trust Company, New York, trustee of the mortgage securing these bonds, asking that the trust company commence action against the Wabash Railroad to foreclose the mortgage as to the gross and net earnings of the railroad covered by the mortgage, to determine if earnings applicable to the payment of interest on these bonds have been properly credited. The communication says in part: "No interest has ever been paid on these debenture B bonds, nor, as the undersigned are informed, has any proceeding ever been taken by the trustee against the Wabash Railroad Company for an accounting as to the net earnings applicable for the payment of interest under article 3 of the mortgage to the payment of interest on debenture B bonds. The statements of expert accountants, who have examined the reports of the Wabash Railroad Company, show that net earnings of the Wabash Company computed in the manner provided in article 3 of the mortgage, and applicable to the payment of interest on debenture B bonds, exceed $1,000,000."

The Wall Street Journal says of the Corn Products report: "It is clear that to issue to the stockholders of the Corn Products Company an annual report, consisting of a statement of the profits of the individual companies and of the holding company is to issue a very imperfect report The balance sheet of the holding company, without the balance sheets of the subsidiary companies is of very little importance. Inasmuch as the direct business of the holding company consists mainly in the collection of dividends on securities owned by it. The holding company's balance sheet does not show, for example, the the position of the subsidiary companies with respect to current assets and liabilities arising from their business, which is the important matter. It would be entirely consistent for a holding company to make a satisfactory showing of assets and liabilities while in point of fact, the entire enterprise might be bankrupt. For the true liabilities of an enterprise regarded as a whole are those which represent the dealings of each one of the companies with the public. As regards the dealings the annual report is silent. There is no way of telling from it how much the subsidiary companies owe to the public or what assets they have with which to meet their obligations. In the case of an industrial company the amount of wo king capital on hand is always of vital importance to stockholders. There is no means of telling from the report submitted to stockholders how much working capital the subsidiary companies have, or in what financial condition they are."

Deliveries on May contracts to-day were 30,000 bu Corn and 40,000 bu Oats.

Minimum rate of discount of the Bank of England is unchanged at 3 per cent.

The Missouri Pacific Railway Company reports for March a net decrease in earnings of $110,763

Ten packers purchased 18,0 0 Hogs to-day; shippers 6,500; left over, 5,000. Market closed weak.

Reserve of the Bank of England decreased $1 785,000 and Bullion decreased $2,022,960 the past week.

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Wednesday, was $4 81, against $4 79 Tuesday and $6 43 a year ago.

The Canadian Northern Railway crop report says Wheat seeding is finished in the Canadian Northwest.

Estimated receipts for to-morrow: Wheat, 3 cars; Corn, 85 cars; Oats, 91 cars; Rye, 3 cars; Hogs, 18,000.

New York Central reports for quarter ended March 31 a surplus after fixed charges of $682,297; decrease, $826,983

Stocks of Hog Products at Chicago estimated at 51,000 brls Mess Pork, 82,500 tcs Lard, and 21,000,000 lbs Short Rib Sides.

On the reverse page will be found an interesting article from the Minneapolis Market Record on the Spring Wheat crop of the Northwest.

Application has been made to the New York Stock Exchange by the Utah Fuel Company to list $700,000 additional 5 per cent sinking fund first mortgage bonds of 1931.

A Paris cable, Wednesday, said: "Wheat crop prospects are excellent, and cannot be desired better. If things will continue so until harvest we shall have a bumper crop."

New York wired, Wednesday: "There has been a good Flour business done here since Monday. Some jobbers tell us their sales for two days amount to more than all the business they did the past month."

Local Securities were slow and irregular, with an advance of 1 points in North Chicago Railway, ½ in West Chicago and ⅜ in Biscuit preferred. The only important decline was 1 point in Quaker Oats preferred.

Cotton in New York averaged lower. Weather over the belt was too cool and receipts were small. Liverpool came lower and there appeared to be enough sold to satisfy all demands. Closing prices were 2@8 points lower.

The Gould interests, it was reported in Pittsburg, Wednesday, have given up the attempt to secure a share of the railroad tonnage of that city, and the new Wabash-Pittsburg Terminal Company is to be controlled by Pennsylvania interests.

Stocks in New York weakened under pressure from the "bears" and averaged lower, although losses were mostly fractional. The selling was on reports of heavy losses in cash by the banks. Poor railroad earnings was also a factor. Money 1¼ to 2 per cent.

The Cincinnati Price Current reports the packing of the West for the week at 410,000 Hogs, compared with 435,000 for the week previous and 480,000 for the corresponding week in 1903. Aggregate packing since March 1 reported at 4,350,000 Hogs, compared with 4,090,000 for the corresponding time last year—an increase of 270,000 Hogs.

The Cincinnati Price Current, in its weekly crop summary, says: "Wheat crop progressing favorably. There is no important new development. Oats have a good average condition. It is unseasonably cool for Corn, retarding growth and planting. There is ample time for full acreage. Grass crops good. Interior Grain movement light."

No allotment of the Japanese 6s has been made yet by New York bankers, but firms participating in underwriting the bonds have been informed that subscribers up to £1,000 will be allotted the full amount of their subscriptions, and that the larger subscribers will receive proportionate allotments of the bonds remaining after the small subscriptions have been filled.

The president of the American Pig Iron Storage Warrant Company announces that the movement to establish in New York a market for daily exchange dealings in Pig Iron Warrants is progressing satisfactorily. Warrants have been listed by the Pittsburg Stock Exchange, and daily trading is now going on. In New York the Warrants are to be dealt in on the Produce Exchange.

The New York Commercial says: "It is understood that Charles M. Schwab, who is expected to shortly retire from the board of directors of the United States Steel Corporation, is behind the Pacific Steel Company, which was recently organized for the purpose of building large Steel plants in California and Mexico. It is said that Mr. Schwab and his friends will invest nearly $50,000,000 in these plants."

Negotiations have been almost completed for a consolidation of the North American Trust Company and the Trust Company of America, New York. It is understood that the president of the North American Trust Company will be the executive head of the consolidated institutions, which will have only a nominal capital, but a very large surplus. The directory of the new company will be very much increased.

It is generally believed that the short-time note period of corporate financing is over for the present. The success of the Japanese war loan and the New York City bond sale, the winding up of the Louisville syndicate, and the appearance of the New York Central debentures are all taken as signs of a fairly good investment demand. The lowering of trust company interest rates will tend to force investors to take funds out of banks and put them into bonds or short-time notes.

The Minnesota crop bulletin says: "In Red River Valley Wheat and Oats were seeded in early part of week. The season is now so late that it is probable that much land intended for Wheat will be seeded to other crops. A large area is being prepared for Corn. In central counties some farmers have not yet begun because of cold weather, while further south a good deal of the crop is planted. Early seeded Wheat, Oats and Barley are coming up evenly, and, though not growing rapidly, conditions are favorable for stooling."

The Northwestern Miller says: "The week has been a favorable one for the Spring Wheat crop, except in certain points in the North. Thursday and Friday, there was rain and snow in North Dakota points in the Red River Valley being particularly affected. Since there had previously been too much moisture in this part of the North, seeding was interrupted, and further delayed in that fertile territory. While some in the trade contend that it is folly to seed Wheat after May 15, with fine weather for three days past, seeding has been resumed. As to whether or not there will be any increase in acreage in North Dakota and Northern Minnesota, at present seems to be a debatable point. Though the weather has been very cool, growing Wheat in South Dakota and Southern Minnesota appears to have made good progress, and in many places where above ground, looks most promising."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Continues dull and neglected, with no improvement in the situation.

WINTER WHEAT—A light milling demand existed, and under small offerings a firm feeling prevailed. No. 2 Red in store was quotably $1 04@1 06, and fresh arrivals $1 05@1 05. No. 2 Red fresh arrivals quotably $1 02@1 06. No. 2 Hard free on board fresh arrivals quotably 94@97c. No. 3 Hard fresh arrivals free on board sold at 85@90c for poor to good.

SPRING WHEAT—The market was stronger and prices 2¼c higher for No. 1 Northern in store and unchanged for car lots of fresh arrivals free on board. Demand light on milling and shipping account and sales of only 15,000 bu were reported. No. 1 Northern in store was quotable at 98¾c@$1 00 with sales at ½c over May prices, and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 78c@$1 00. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals nominally 92@98c. No. 3 Spring fresh receipts ranged at 83@96c for common to choice, with sales at 90@96c. No. 4 Spring ranged at 62½@86c for poor to choice, with sales at 73@78c and very choice car at 92c.

REGULAR WHEAT—A fair trade, better than of late, with the interest centering in the nearby deliveries. The feeling developed was stronger and further advances were scored, May selling to $1 00 and July to 89½c. The close showed May 2¼c higher while the July gained 1⅛c and September but ⅜@1⅛c. There was further talk of the probable scarcity of contract and "shorts" became uneasy and many covered, causing the sharp upturn. The small receipts were again a factor; also the stronger tone of foreign advices. Primary receipts were 114,000 bu less than last year, while Kansas City and St. Louis received 28,000 bu, against 60,000 bu last year and the shipments were 189,000 bu. Arrivals in the Northwest were 74 cars smaller than on the corresponding day last year. A "bullish" showing is expected in the visible on Monday, possibly 3,000,000 bu decrease, compared with 3,453,100 bu decrease same week in 1903. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ⅛d lower, while futures were ⅛@⅝d higher. English country markets were firm and 3d higher. London ⅜@⅝d higher. Paris declined ½@1c; Antwerp unchanged. The Liverpool strength was due partially to the prospect of smaller Argentine shipments. Flour output for the week was only 242,475 brls, compared with 490,260 brls same week last year. Minneapolis stocks past five days are estimated to have decreased 885,000 bu. Map showed favorable conditions clear and warmer weather, with very little moisture anywhere, a few showers in Oklahoma, Missouri and Illinois. Showers generally predicted for the Northwest. Winnipeg wired: "Seeding finished; conditions perfect." The Price Current stated the Wheat crop was progressing favorably, with no new important developments. Argentine shipments this week were estimated at 2,600,000 bu. Exports were again small and only 5 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. The cash situation was considered one of the strengthening influences, sales here being restricted owing to the tie-up on the lakes. About 15,000 bu was sold. Receipts at Duluth 8 cars and at Minneapolis 46 cars, a total of 54 cars, against 78 cars yesterday, 56 cars a week ago, and 126 cars last year. Local receipts included no cars Winter, 2 cars Spring, no cars mixed, a total of 2 cars, against 11 cars last year. Included in the above was none of contract grade. There was also 12 cars and no bu from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 3 cars. The withdrawals were 67,335 bu. Receipts at Western points were 112,855 bu, against 226 516 bu last year; at Eastern points 5,600 bu, against 262,854 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 304,694 bu, against 203,146 bu last year, and from Eastern points 28,210 bu, against 659 239 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 1,154 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 33,403 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Good trade and prices higher.

MAY—Sold at 96¾@$1 00. Opened at 97c; sold to 96¾c, to 98½c, to 99¾c, to 99½c, to $1 00, to 99½c, to 99½c, to 98¾c, to 99c and closed at 99c.

JULY—Old Style—Sold at 87¾@89½c—only one trade at the top figure. Opened with sales at 87¾c to 87⅞@88c; sold to 88⅛c, to 87⅞c, to 88½c, to 88⅜c, to 89¼c, to 89c, to 89½c, to 89c, to 89¼c, to 88⅞c, to 89¼c, to 88¾c, and closed at 88¾c bid.

JULY—New Style—Sold at 86½@88¼c. Opened with sales at 86½c to 86¾c; sold to 86⅞c, to 86⅝c, to 87¼@87⅜c, to 87⅛c, to 87⅞c, to 87⅝c, to 88¼c, to 87⅝c, to 88c, to 87½c, to 87⅝c, and closed at 87⅝c sellers.

SEPTEMBER—Old Style—Sold at 81⅝@82⅝c. Opened with sales at 81⅝c to 82c; sold to 81¾c, to 82⅜c, to 81⅞c, to 82c, to 81⅞@82c, and closed at 81⅞@82c.

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 80⅛@81c. Opened with sales at 80⅛c to 80⅝c; sold to 80⅜c, to 80⅜@80½c, to 81c, to 80⅝c, to 80¼c, to 80½@80⅝c, and closed at 80½@80⅝c.

DECEMBER—Sold at 80⅛@80⅞c and closed at 80⅜c bid.

CORN—Just a fair local trade was witnessed in Corn, with the feeling manifested rather firm. Closing prices showed the May ¾c higher, while July gained ⅛@¼c and the September unchanged. Market was inclined to sympathize with Wheat to a considerable extent, though early the buying by "bull" leaders was quite conspicuous and helped sustain values. Moderate realizing sales followed causing some reaction. The small receipts were a factor—only 40 cars, with 6 cars contract, against 161 cars last year, when 10 cars were up to the speculative standard, and 94 cars are estimated for to-morrow. Well posted interests claimed Western offerings were smaller than last week. The Price Current stated it was too cool for Corn, retarding the growth and planting, but to-day's map was favorable. Showers generally predicted. Liverpool quoted spot firm but unchanged and futures ⅛d lower. New York was strong and Kansas City firm. Western receipts only 200,000 bu, against 470,000 bu last year, and shipments 385,000 bu and 161,000 bu respectively. Local arrivals 85,000 bu, while the shipments were 253,000 bu. Exports limited to 2,100 bu, last year 159,000 bu, and 2 boat loads were accepted at the seaboard. Withdrawals from regular elevators 130,300 bu and 42,400 bu and 33 cars of contract switched from public warehouses. Shippers are still handicapped by the lake situation and sales were 50,000. Argentine shipments this week were estimated at 800,000 bu. Car lots were again in meager supply and fair demand. Sales entirely by sample and prices were firm. No. 2 closed about 49½c. No. 2 Yellow at 52½@53c. No. 3 at 49c, and No. 3 Yellow at 52@52½c. No. 4 sold at 48½@49½c, outside for yellow.

Corn by sample—Offerings a trifle larger and demand fairly good. Low grades were a little easier, while choice Corn was a shade higher. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 40@43c. No. 4 at 47@51c. No. 3 at 51½c. No. 3 Yellow at 52½@53½c. No. 2 at 51c. No. 2 Yellow at 53¼@54c. No. 3 White at 51@52½c. Billed through: No Grade at 40@42c. No. 4 at 48@49c. No. 3 Yellow at 52@52½c. No. 2 at 51c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Moderately active and firmer, closing unchanged to ¾c higher.

MAY—Sold at 47⅜@48c. Opened at 47½c and sold at 47⅜c, to 47¾c, to 47½c, to 48c, and closed at 48c asked.

JULY—Sold at 47⅞@48½c. Opened at 48⅛c to 48c; and sold at 47⅞c, to 48⅛@48¼c, to 48⅛c, to 48½c, to 48¼c, to 48⅜c, to 48¼c, to 48⅛@48¼c, and closed at 48⅛@48¼c bid.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 47¼@47⅝c and 47¾c. Opened at 47⅜@47½c and 47½c, sold to 47⅝c, to 47¼@47⅜c, to 47⅝c, to 47½c, to 47¾c, to 47⅝c, to 47½c, to 47⅝c, and closed at 47⅝c bid.

DECEMBER—Sold at 42⅝@43⅜c. Opened at 42⅞c sold at 42⅝c to 43⅜c, to 42¾c, and closed at 42¾.

MAY—1905—Ranged at 42⅝@42¾c. Opened at 42¾c, and sold at 42⅜c, to 42½c bid, to 42⅜c, and closed at 42⅜c asked.

OATS—Were active and somewhat excited at times, with an advance of 1¼c in May over yesterday's close, and the finish at a net gain of 1c. July jumped ⅞c and closed at ⅝c gain. September gained ⅛c. The advance in Wheat, small offerings and urgent bidding by "shorts" caused the jump, as stocks are decreasing. On the bulge offerings enlarged slightly and prices yielded ⅜c, but the close was strong. Weather and crop reports were favorable. Cash demand improved, with sales of 50,000 bu here and 100,000 bu in the Northwest. Arrivals were 88 cars, with 91 cars expected to-morrow. Withdrawals were 101,700 bu. Seaboard clearances were 10,000 bu. Car lots to go to store were steady to ½c higher. Standard in store closed at 42¾@43c. No. 4 White sold at 42½c. No. 3 White at 43½@44c. Standard at 44¾c.

Oats by sample met with more demand. The supply was moderate and prices steady to ½c higher. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 at 39@40½c. No. 4 White at 40@43¾c. No. 3 at 41c. No. 3 White at 42@44½c. Standard at 44¾c. No. 2 41½c. Billed through: No. 4 White at 42@43½c. No. 3 White at 43@43½c. Standard at 44¼c. At the river: No. 4 at 39c. No. 4 White at 36@41c. No. 3 White at 40@42c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were active and higher.

MAY—Hard to buy. Sold at 42@43c. Opened at 42c, sold to 43c, to 42½c, to 42¾c at close.

JULY—Active. Sold at 38¼c and at 38⅞@39c. Opened at 38¼c to 38⅜c, sold at 38¼c to 38⅞@39c, to 38⅝c, closed at 38⅝@38¾c.

SEPTEMBER—Good buying. Sold at 30⅝@30⅞c. Opened at 30¾c, sold at 30⅝c, to 30⅞c, to 30¾c at close.

RYE—Ruled firm with light trading. Demand fair and offerings limited. Prices about 1c higher. There were three cars received and 13 cars withdrawn from private warehouses. No export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 to go to store sold at 75c and round lots quotably about the same. No. 3 nominally 68@73c for ordinary to choice. No. 4 sold at 68c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Firm and 1c higher. Demand fair and offerings small. May sold at 75c and that the closing. July 67c bid and 68c asked, with a sale of 1,000 bu at 69c. August quotably about same as July. September nominally 60c.

BARLEY—A fair business was done in Screenings at former prices. There were good buyers of Screenings, and for malting Barley there was also a very good demand. Offerings were small, consequently the volume of business transacted was moderate. To-day's postings show 11 cars inspected in. A firm market existed for all grades. Market for Screenings quotable at 27@38c for poor to choice. Barley—low grade feed or mixing nominally 35@38c, outside good weight. Malting, low grade, 40@42c; fair to good, sound, 45@48c; good color, 50@56c, and fancy 58c.

SEEDS—There were no offerings of cash Seed of any kind. Future deliveries of both Flax and Timothy were higher and more active.

Timothy—The cash market was inactive, but very firm. There was no cash Seed noticed on the market, and there were no sales reported. Futures were higher and active. Contract or May delivery sold at $3 05, which was 5c higher, and September sold at $3 30 and closed at $3 27½ sellers. Country lots were quotable at $2 00@3 00 for low grade to fancy, choice about $2 80@2 90, fair to good Seed $2 60@2 75 and rough at $2 40@2 50.

Flax—Bids were higher except for No. 1 Northwestern which was steady. Receipts were more liberal here, but there were no sales reported of either cash or future deliveries. The tone of the market was firm. Local movement was 11 cars or 11,900 bu received and none taken out. In the Northwest receipts were 4 cars at Minneapolis and 3 cars at Duluth. For No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest $1 00 was bid. No. 1, $1 01 was bid, and Rejected was nominally 97c@$1 01, outside for choice Northwestern. For May delivery $1 02 was bid. July was offered at $1 04½ and September was salable at $1 03½.

Clover—The market was firm and very quiet. There were no offerings, consequently there was no business transacted. Contract spot Seed was nominally $10 75. Country lots common to choice, $7 75@10 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $6 00@8 00; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 50.

Other Seeds—All kinds were firm at former prices. There were no offerings on the open market. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark $1 15@1 65. Common Millet, $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 55. Siberian, 90c@$1 10. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 85c@$1 05. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat firm and quoted a shade better; good quality quotable at $1 40@1 45.

HOG PRODUCTS—A fairly good trade in a speculative way was transacted in Hog Products, and the market was somewhat unsettled. Offerings were more liberal than for several days past, and credited to some extent to local operators and packers, while the demand from all sources was moderate. Hogs were in rather good supply, and prices lower and this feature had a little influence in weakening the market. Outside orders were moderate. At the opening, the market was rather steady and the filling of a few miscellaneous orders maintained prices temporarily. Later a weak feeling was developed, with some pressure to sell, and prices declined materially all around. During the middle of the session, the feeling was steady, but weakened again with further declines in prices, and the market closed comparatively easy. Receipts at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 79,500, compared with 66,000 one year ago. Returns of the packing of the West for the week exhibited a decrease of 70,000 Hogs, compared with the returns for the corresponding week in 1903. Foreign markets were stronger and Liverpool quotations were advanced 6d on Backs and Cumberland Sides. Domestic markets were quiet and steady. Receipts of Products were moderate—of Lard and Meats about 13 cars. Shipments were unusually light—of Lard and Meats about 58 cars. Shipping demand was moderate, and offerings were somewhat limited. Sales were small and without material change in prices.

Mess Pork—Trade was fair in the market for Mess Pork and the feeling was easier. Offerings were free and the demand was only moderate. Trading mainly in July contracts. Market opened rather steady, with fair miscellaneous trading, but after the early orders were provided for, a weaker feeling was developed, and prices receded 15@17½c. At the decline, there was a moderate inquiry, and the market ruled steadier. Prices rallied 5@7½c. Toward the close, the market again weakened, and prices declined 12½@15c, and the market closed rather steady. Demand on shipping account was light, and offerings were small. Cash lots were quotable at $11 05@11 10.

MAY—Quiet and quotable at the close at $11 05.

JULY—Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderate. Sales were made at $11 10@11 37½. Opened at $11 35, sold to $11 32½, to $11 37½, to $11 20, to $11 22½, to $11 20, to $11 27½, to $11 25, to $11 27½, to $11 10, to $11 15, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—In only moderate request, and the offerings were fair. Sales were made at $11 32½@11 47½. Opened at $11 42½, sold to $11 40, to $11 47½, to $11 32½, to $11 35, and closed steady.

Lard—The market for Lard attracted fair speculative attention, but the feeling was rather weak. Foreign markets were steady. Local supply reported gradually increasing. Offerings were fair and the demand was moderate. Early, the feeling was rather steady with a fair inquiry, but a little pressure to sell developed an easier feeling, and prices declined 12½@15c, and the market closed rather easy. Inquiry on shipping account limited and offerings only moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 20@6 25. Loose lots in small request, with moderate offerings. Prices steady at about 55c discount on July figures. Leaf Lard in limited request and offerings were small. Prices were quotably steady at $5 81¼. Neutral was in only limited demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $6 75@6 87½ for No. 1 and $6 50@6 62½ for No. 2.

MAY—Quiet and quotable at the close at $6 20.

JULY—In moderate request with fair offerings. Sales were made at $6 35@6 50. Opened at $6 47½, sold to $6 47½@6 50, to $6 42½, to $6 45, to $6 35, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderate. Sales were made at $6 52½@6 65. Opened at $6 62½, sold to $6 62½@6 65 to $6 62½, to $6 65, to $6 52½, and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—Trade was fair in the market for Short Rib Sides, but the feeling was easier. Trading was largely local. Offerings were moderately free, and the demand was fair. Market opened rather steady, with moderate trading, but a weaker feeling was developed, and prices receded 10@12½c. Toward the close, ruled steadier, and rallied 2½@5c, and the market closed rather steady. Demand on shipping account was light, and offerings were moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 25@6 37½ according to weight.

MAY—Quiet and quotable at the close at $6 30.

JULY—Inquiry moderate and offerings were fair. Sales were made at $6 37½@6 50. Opened at $6 50, sold to $6 40, to $6 42½, to $6 37½, to $6 40@6 42½, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Offerings were moderately free and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $6 52½@6 65. Opened at $6 65, sold to $6 62½, to $6 65, to $6 52½, to $6 57½, and closed steady.

Other Meats—Trade only moderate and feeling rather steady. Offerings were not very large and the inquiry was comparatively small. Exporters were backward and the home trade was rather light. Green Meats in limited supply, with moderate inquiry, and prices unchanged. Pickled Meats in moderate demand and prices ruled steady. Dry Salted Meats were in only fair demand, with moderate offerings, and prices favored buyers. Smoked Meats called for in limited quantities, and prices ruled steady. Closing prices ranged as follows:

NORTHWEST WHEAT ACREAGE.

[From the Minneapolis Market Record.]

The Market Record has received reports from nearly every miller and Grain dealer in the Northwest, giving their views in regard to seeding, acreage as compared with last year, and amount of old Wheat in farmers' hands, which are published in detail.

In Minnesota and South Dakota seeding of Wheat is practically finished, except in portions of the Red River Valley in Minnesota. In North Dakota only about 56 per cent had been finished up to last week. Seeding was conducted more or less during the week and it is now generally understood that the amount of the land seeded is about three-fourths of the area intended to be put into Wheat. The land not now seeded is low, or flat lands, where work has been delayed, owing to too much moisture, where in some places ponds of water yet cover it. How much of this unseeded ground, intended for Wheat, will finally be put in to other Grain is quite problematical.

The land remaining unseeded in Minnesota lies chiefly along the Red River, although there are some sections of flat lands where the lower portions are yet unseeded. There is but little Wheat yet to go in the ground in South Dakota, although there are a few places where the land is yet too wet to cultivate. It is not likely that much of the acreage intended to be put into Wheat in South Dakota or Southern and Middle Minnesota will not be put into Wheat this season.

The principal difficulty likely to ensue from seeding Wheat after this time in the season comes from early frost in the fall. Another difficulty to be considered is that ground covered with water until this time of year is liable to be so packed and lumpy that Grain is not liable to do well on it for that reason.

Farmers in North Dakota are not generally favorable to Flax, due largely to the poor crop and low price of last year. The same situation exists in Northern Minnesota. In Middle and Southern Minnesota and in South Dakota, where the land has been longer cultivated, farmers largely went out of Flax two or three years ago and do not seem inclined to take it up again, excepting on necessity of the late season.

According to the estimates of acreage in Minnesota that has been sown to Wheat, or is yet to be planted, there would be an increase of the total acreage of the State of about 2½ per cent above that of last year, but if farmers in the northern counties, where considerable land is not seeded, decide finally to put that into Barley, as many of them are talking about doing, the acreage for the State might not be greater than last year.

In South Dakota there is a reported decrease of 1.5 per cent below the acreage of a year ago. South Dakota being nearly all in, it is not likely that the acreage there will be changed much from the conditions of last week. There is still an intention in North Dakota to sow considerable Wheat yet. The reports show that if this intention is carried out through the influence of favorable weather there would be an increase of 9 per cent in acreage more than in 1903.

The reports show 11.4 per cent of last year's crop still in farmers' hands in Minnesota and the Dakotas. This calculation, based upon the crop of last year, as estimated by the Department of Agriculture, would amount to 20,354,100 bu yet to come out of farmers' hands. Of that amount the estimates show 9,891,373 bu in Minnesota, 4,925,000 bu in South Dakota, and 5,568,400 bu in North Dakota. If the estimates be anywhere near correct as to the amount yet left on the farms the mills may be taxed severely to get enough Wheat to grind between this time and another harvest.

If frost holds off in 1904 as it held off in each of the last two or three previous years Grain put in about any time in May would come out all right in the fall, but it is realized that the early frosts of previous years may be again experienced this year, and for that reason many will hesitate about putting Wheat into the ground after this week.

It follows that the acreage is not certain yet, much depending upon the next few days.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Clear and warmer everywhere. No Northwest rains; warmer up there. There are a few showers in Illinois, Missouri and Ohio Valley. Heavy rains in Oklahoma.

The unsettled weather will pass to-day. There will be rain Friday in Missouri Valley and Upper Mississippi. Temperatures will rise. Very fine weather in prospect.

Maxwell Brothers Company, box manufacturers, Chicago, sustained a loss of $75,000, Tuesday, in the destruction of their plant by fire.

Directors of the Boston and Albany Railroad have declared a dividend of 2½ per cent, payable June 30 to stockholders of record June 4.

NORTHWESTERN WHEAT CONSUMPTION.

[From the Northwestern Miller, May 18.]

The attached table shows the output of Flour and approximate consumption of Wheat at Minneapolis and Duluth together with that of 39 "outside mills" with a daily capacity of 30,300 brls, from Sept. 1, 1903, to May 7, 1904:

	1903-04 Flour, brls.	1903-04 Wheat, bu.	1902-03 Flour, brls.	1902-03 Wheat, bu.
Minneapolis	10,416,540	46,874,500	11,900,425	53,552,000
Duluth	775,105	3,488,000	1,159,510	5,217,500
39 outside mills	5,095,575	22,930,000	4,660,520	20,972,500
Totals	16,287,220	73,292,500	17,720,455	79,742,000

These figures represent the approximate consumption of 6,449,500 bu less Wheat this year than in 1902-03. This has occurred from the mills of Minneapolis and Duluth turning out 1,868,290 brls less Flour, equal to 8,407,000 bu of Wheat, than last year. In contrast, the outside mills have increased their output to the extent of 435,055 brls, or equal to 1,957,500 bu of Wheat.

THE FLOUR PRODUCTION.

MINNEAPOLIS, May 18.—The Northwestern Miller reports the weekly Flour output at milling centers for two weeks, with comparisons, as follows:

‡Operative millers on strike.

With a larger capacity in motion, Minneapolis last week increased their output 114,000 brls. The respective mills ran lightly, or the figures would have been considerably larger. This week two less mills are in operation, but most of those idle are of the smaller class. Should these eleven mills run at a rate approaching full capacity all the week, the week's production would approximate 260,000 brls. This is about 65 per cent of a full output. For the corresponding week a year ago the output was 328,715 brls. It is notable that the production for some time past has averaged much smaller than in 1903.

Little occurred last week to break the monotony of a dull Flour market. Most Minneapolis mills reported light sales, domestic buyers quite generally having plenty of Flour on hand and regarding prices from a "bearish" standpoint. Though one company reported shipping directions coming in more freely, usually the experience was the reverse.

Export trade was hardly thought of. The few bids received were far too low to permit business. Clears continued very quiet. Holland bid more freely, and while no sales resulted, hope was entertained of soon putting through some business. For first Clear, millers are asking 10¼@10½ guilders, while Holland importers bid somewhat under those prices on these grades. Of course, with the mills running lightly, the quantity of Clear on the market is not large.

Minneapolis and outside mills have during the week held prices of Patent about stationary. The range of quotations now is $4 75@5 00 per 196 lbs in wood f. o. b. Minneapolis.

The range of Eastern prices, May 17, asked by Minneapolis mills for Patent in wood was: Boston rate points $5 45@5 60; New York rate points, $5 40@5 65; Pittsburg rate points, $5 20@5 40; Baltimore rate points, $5 30@5 50; Philadelphia rate points, $5 35@5 50; Albany rate points, $5 40@5 60; Rochester and Syracuse rate points, $5 35@5 50; Buffalo rate points, $5 20@5 40; Michigan, $4 90@5 15 in sacks; Iowa, Illinois and Wisconsin, $4 90@5 15 in sacks; Missouri points, $4 75@5 00 in sacks.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

A St. Louis party says the Wheat crop in that vicinity, and especially in Southern Illinois, shows a material improvement.

The $700,000 Pittsburg, Pa., 4 per cent 20 to 30-year optional road and highway bonds were awarded to a Chicago banking firm for $719,660.

The Empire Sugar Refining Company has been incorporated in New Jersey with an authorized capital of $2,500,000. It will operate principally in Cuba.

The General Asphalt Company had its annual meeting, Tuesday. The treasurer's report shows the profits for the last thirteen months to have been $850,435.

The Buffalo and Susquehanna Railroad has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1 per cent on its preferred stock, payable June 1 to stockholders of record May 18.

The American Locomotive Company has received orders for 144 locomotives from different railroads, as follows: The Southern, 30; Southern Pacific, 60; Copper Range line, 1; Lake Shore, 60; Chicago, Lake Shore and Eastern, 4; Illinois Central, 30.

Eighty-nine railroads reporting for March show a decrease of $31,350 in gross earnings and a decrease of $3,445,000, or 10 per cent in net earnings. In the nine months from July 1 to March 31 the same roads increased their gross 6.6 per cent and their net 2.1 per cent.

At the annual meeting of the Columbus and Hocking Coal and Iron Company, Wednesday, the opposition faction headed by Lathrop and Smith elected its candidates for directors, voting over 80 per cent of the stock. The management made no effort to retain control.

New York bankers announce that the $5,992,000 Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Illinois division 4 per cent bonds, which were offered to investors, Wednesday, at 102½ and accrued interest, have all been sold and the applications were largely in excess of the amount offered.

A Western elevator concern, in a report, Wednesday, said: "Following condensed crop report from our stations in Nebraska and Kansas on the Burlington System: Winter Wheat acreage, 1904, compared with 1903, 88¾ per cent; condition, 92 per cent; Oats, acreage, 102½ per cent; condition, 101½ per cent; Corn, acreage, 121 per cent; Corn planted, 59 per cent.

The comptroller of the City of Chicago will receive bids till 2 o'clock Friday, May 27, for an issue of $5,300,000 judgment funding bonds, recently approved by the Supreme Court of the State. The rate is to be determined by the bidder, the bonds to be dated Jan. 1, 1904, and to run twenty years, or, if a favorable proposal is received, 5 per cent of the issue is to mature and be paid annually. Bids must be accompanied by a certified check to the order of the City of Chicago for $100,000, and bids for the whole or part of issue will be received.

A judgment for $305,280 has been rendered in the District Court at Colorado Springs, Colo., against the Colorado Electric Company of Colorado Springs and Canon City in favor of Eastern bondholders represented by the Union Trust Company of Pittsburg, Pa. The court has ordered a public sale of the plant at Canon City and all other holdings of the company unless payment is made within five days. The judgment was rendered on a mortgage for $250,000, part of which has been paid. No defense was entered, the case going by default.

A Boston dispatch says: "Old Wools are quiet in this week's market. Manufacturers are watching the course of affairs closely, though they are not prepared to take hold of the new Wools at buyers' prices. A conservative estimate places values at least 5 per cent above last year. There is an air of confidence in the future of the market, which is held not only by the trade, but by mills which have buyers in the field. Territory and pulled Wools are quiet. The market for foreign Wools is held firm by conditions abroad. Prices on Wools in this market are substantially unchanged."

The Inter-State Commerce Commission, Wednesday, at New York, began an investigation of the differential freight rates to the seaboard from the West on merchandise intended for export. Grain rates are chiefly at issue. Representatives of trade bodies and railroads from all parts of the country east of the Mississippi were present. George W. Pettit, representing the Philadelphia commercial bodies, said the differential was established as a treaty of peace to stop destructive warfare in which the railroads and the public both suffered. In 1881, he said, the railroads lost $20,000,000 and the public $100,000,000 in rate wars. Several others spoke in similar vein.

Net earnings of the United States Rubber Company and its constituent concerns in the fiscal year ended March 31 were $2,612,000, an increase of $111,000 over the net of the preceding year. Adding the other income and deducting interest charges, bad debts and a reserve of $500,000 for depreciation of securities, left a balance of $1,075,641 earned on the stock. The amount figures about 4.56 per cent on the preferred stock outstanding. The showing is the best the company has made since the fiscal year 1899-1900. The improvement in the condition was indicated recently by the resumption of dividends on the preferred stock, which were suspended in January, 1901.

The Eastern railroads are quarreling among themselves and with their Western connections over Flour traffic from Minneapolis to New York. On account of the tie-up of the lake steamer lines the Eastern railroads owning them agreed to carry Flour all rail at the lake and rail rate, which is 2c less per 100 lbs. The Western roads claim that as the traffic is carried all rail from Chicago to the East, they are entitled to receive their regular proportion of the through rate from Minneapolis on all rail traffic. It is charged that some of the Eastern lines have been carrying Flour traffic at even less than the authorized lake and rail rate. An investigation of these charges was commenced, Wednesday, by the Central Freight Association.

"Reports indicate very good progress in Corn planting wherever the soil has been dry enough for field work," says J. R. Sage of the Iowa crop bureau. "The bulk of the crop has been planted in extensive portions of the northern and central sections, and in other dryer lands of the southern section. For the whole State 70 to 75 per cent of the entire Corn area is planted under fairly good conditions of soil and tilth. Warm and dry weather is needed to complete planting and insure normal growth. Thus far the germination has been good as could be expected. Generally grass and small Grain are doing well. Reports as to the more important Fruits are quite favorable. Though the season is late, the general outlook is encouraging."

Through the construction work on the Panama Canal, which will necessarily extend over a period of years, the implement companies and Iron and Steel makers of this country will have their business increased. The construction of the waterway under American control will open up a new field for Iron and Steel products, which, while small when compared with the total trade, is expected to prove an item of some importance. The first important action of the Panama Canal Commission in the reconstruction way will be the letting of contracts for the sanitation of the present unwholesome coast ports and the introduction of a pure water supply. This alone will be an important contract for the pipe manufacturers of this country. It is through the supply of machinery, implements, shovels, drills, etc., that the greatest business for the Iron and Steel men will come. The volume of this is expected to be large enough to prove worth competing for.

An inquiry into the volume and character of the negotiable securities of the country has been determined upon by Mr. North, director of the census. Such an inquiry was recommended to all the leading governments of the world by the International Institute of Statistics some nine years ago. Thus far the work has not been taken up in an exhaustive manner by any of the European governments, but the statistics of incorporations and the issues of securities are more readily accessible in the chief European countries than in the United States. Mr. North has become convinced that an inquiry which would show the vast amount of wealth in this form in the United States, with the fluctuations in market values and the rise or fall of the rate of interest, would have much scientific value and is a necessary part of the pending census report on wealth, debt and taxation. The inquiry will cover the security issues of the federal, state and municipal governments, railways, banks, street railways and industrial enterprises.

The Decatur, Springfield and St. Louis Railway Company was organized by the McKinley syndicate in the spring of 1903, with the idea of building 250 miles of interurban railway, using Springfield, Ill., as a center from which to diverge in various directions, and under that plan active construction was commenced last year upon 150 miles of the line extending from Decatur, Ill., west to Springfield, and south from Springfield to East St. Louis. For convenience in financing, it was found better to divide the scheme into small railroad corporations. The name of the Decatur, Springfield and St. Louis Railway Company was dropped, and the St. Louis and Springfield Railway Company is now building a road from Springfield south, and the Illinois Central Traction Company is constructing a line from Springfield east. All material is on the ground for eighty miles of the track, extending east and south from Springfield, and this portion of the road will be in operation practically by Aug. 1. The managers expect to start operating about twenty-five miles of the road this week, covering from Riverton on the east of Springfield to Auburn on the south. A $100,000 power house is now under construction at Riverton, a town on the Sangamon River about eight miles east of Springfield. Nearly all the machinery for this power house is on the ground.

Western freight agents have agreed that the new schedule of rates on Grain shall go into effect on June 10 The basis is 12c per 100 lbs on Wheat and 11c on coarse Grains from Missouri River points to Chicago, with rates 3c less per 100 lbs from Mississippi River to Chicago.

The Barney & Smith Car Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent on its preferred stock payable June 1 Stockholders of the company will hold their annual meeting on June 7. Books for both the common and preferred stocks will close May 17 and reopen June 8.

The shipments of Flax Seed from Argentina this week were reported at 1,080,000 bu, compared with 1,681,000 bu last week, and 312,000 bu for the corresponding week in 1903. Shipments since Jan. 1 reported at 23,756 000 bu, compared with 16,105,000 bu for the corresponding time last year.

Cotton in New York weakened under more favorable crop news and the fact that May notices at New Orleans were not promptly stopped. This created a "bearish" sentiment. Selling was also induced by private crop reports of a largely increased acreage Trading was active at a lower range. Closing prices were 28@39 points lower.

A dispatch from Kansas City says: "Just returned from a convention of Kansas bankers. Attendance about 300—from all parts of State Without exception the bankers say conditions for an immense Wheat crop are excellent. They say nothing now can prevent Kansas from raising an enormous crop, if not the largest crop she has ever raised. Corn is also planted and coming up nicely."

Western lines, Thursday, settled the matter of Gulf rates on Grain. According to the agreement the rates on Wheat from the Missouri River points to the Gulf will be 18c, which is an advance of 1c, while the rate to the South Atlantic ports will be 3c over the Gulf rate, or 21c. The rates on Grain from points on the Union Pacific and from points north of that line to the Gulf, by the way of Kansas City, will be the sum of the local rate into Kansas City and the rate from that point to the Gulf.

The St. Louis correspondent of the Northwestern Miller says: "The weather was exceedingly favorable for the growing Winter Wheat crop, and nothing but favorable reports were received. From sections where the Wheat was in poor condition, reports are that it has shown great improvement during the past two weeks. It is generally conceded that Illinois and Missouri will have a good average crop of soft Wheat, and there is no question that the crop conditions in these two States are the most favorable that prevail over any section of the soft Winter Wheat territory."

The Modern Miller says: "A further improvement in condition of Winter Wheat crop is reported, and there is no deterioration even in the sections where the plant suffered most damage through winter-killing and lack of moisture. Crop will be short in Ohio Valley States, and in Michigan, Texas and the Territories, but the yield promises to be better than the early estimates indicated Prospects are for large yields in Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri, and for good crops in Illinois and on Pacific Coast. Harvesting has begun in Texas with better results than expected."

The San Francisco correspondent of the Northwestern Miller says: "Crop reports from the various sections of California lead to the conclusion that both the Wheat and Barley yields will exceed those of last year. Throughout the great central Grain belt the outlook is excellent; in the south the rain has been insufficient, however, which will cause considerable loss to the Barley crop, but the deficiency will probably be made up in the north where the late rains caused farmers to plant to Barley a good deal of the acreage that had been intended for Wheat. Dealers here now count on 600,000 to 650,000 tons of Wheat and something over 500,000 tons of Barley, as compared with 475,000 tons of Wheat and a little less than 550,000 tons of Barley last year."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS

FLOUR—Demand slow and sales small and insignificant Prices steady.

WINTER WHEAT—Was very quiet and not enough doing to establish a market. Prices for Red Wheat were not quotably higher, but Hard was quotably 2@3c higher. No. 2 Red in store nominally $1 05@1 06, and fresh arrivals quotably $1 05@1 08. No 3 Red fresh arrivals quotably $1 03 @1 07. No. 4 Red sold at 71c—a poor car. No. 2 Hard was quotably 97c@$1 00, and there was a sale of a choice car, mostly soft Wheat, at $1 03½. No. 3 Hard fresh arrivals quotably 85@95c and a choice car, mostly soft Wheat, sold at $1 03.

SPRING WHEAT—The market was firm and prices 1@1½c higher, but the advance did not hold, the closing being same as yesterday. Demand light and market influenced by the speculative market. No. 1 Northern in store quotably 99c@$1 01½, and fresh arrivals free on board quotably $1 00@1 02. No 2 Northern fresh arrivals nominally 94c@$1 00 No 3 Spring fresh arrivals quotably 86@97c and No. 4 Spring at 64@87c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—There was a good trade, with more doing in the new crop deliveries, and the feeling manifested early was firm The late break was due to the report that 250,000 bu No 1 Northern had been bought at Duluth to come to Chicago all-rail. Liquidation followed and prices broke badly At the close of the session prices showed the May unchanged, with July off ¾@⅞c, and the September ⅛c The smaller Argentine shipments, stronger cables, light movement and continued talk of small contract supplies were the early "bull" helps. There was further scattered buying by "shorts" in May and July, and buying of the forward deliveries was more general On the advance there was general selling by outside holders and prices settled back sharply. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ½d higher and futures unchanged to ¼d higher. Receipts there the past three days only 80,000 bu and none from America. London advanced ½@1d. Paris steady to ⅛c higher Berlin was up 1¼c Antwerp unchanged Argentina shipped 2 584,000 bu, and since Jan 1, 56,800,000 bu, against 36,882,000 bu same time in 1903. The visible there is now reported 5,224 000 bu, against 5,440,000 bu previous week and 4,120,000 bu last year The map was most favorable, temperatures being higher in all directions, with only one rainfall shown in all the Spring Wheat belt. Showers predicted for the Dakotas, Kansas and Nebraska. Broomhall cabled good rains had fallen in Roumania following the light showers of Wednesday. Crop reports from Hungary referred to drouth and rust, but early rains would remedy damage to a great extent Kansas City reported freer acceptances and predicted larger receipts within the next ten days. Minneapolis wired: "Seeding operations in Red River Valley back ward—only 50 per cent of last year's crop area up to last Saturday. Outside Red River Valley seeding practically completed and plant making a good start, but is late. Primary receipts were 36-000 bu smaller than last year. Kansas City and St. Louis received 39,000 bu, last year 64,000 bu, and shipments 97,000 bu Northwest cars 28 cars smaller Exports were again light, and the total for the week 1,228 000 bu, against 5,203,000 bu same week in 1903. The president of one of the largest railroads in the Northwest was quoted as saying the yield of Winter Wheat would be only two-thirds of a crop The Modern Miller was "bearish" and affected values late in the day Minneapolis stocks are expected to show a decrease this week of 1,025,000 bu. Banking interests in Kansas predicted record Wheat crop in that State this year. Receipts at Duluth 8 cars and at Minneapolis 78 cars, a total of 86 cars, against 54 cars yesterday, 57 cars a week ago, and 114 cars last year. Local receipts included no cars Winter, 5 cars Spring, no cars mixed, a total of 5 cars, against 37 cars last year. Included in the above was none of contract grade. There was also 1 car and no bu from unlicensed elevators The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 15 cars. The withdrawals were 47,600 bu. Receipts at Western points were 147,731 bu, against 184,3-7 bu last year; at Eastern points 26 946 bu against 94,939 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 185,197 bu, against 652,-540 bu last year, and from Eastern points 5,773 bu, against 170,229 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 14,588 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 71,421 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Active trade and prices irregularly lower.

DECEMBER Sold at 80¾@81c; closed at 80⅝c bid.

CORN—Was stronger with a very fair trade, chiefly in the way of "shorts" covering. Speculative offerings the first half of the session being small. Later offerings increased and prices receded sharply, closing prices showing May shade lower, while July gained ⅛@¼c and the September ⅛c Some of the best authorities in the West reported country offerings as falling off and local receipts were only 70 cars, with 8 cars contract and but 107 cars estimated for to-morrow Western receipts were only 217,000 bu, against 471,000 bu last year, and shipments 292,000 bu and 341,000 bu, respectively. Local arrivals were 51 000 bu, while the shipments were 189,000 bu. The small movement was one of the chief "bull" helps; also early action of Wheat, while the ideal weather conditions and favorable crop advices had the opposite tendency Argentine shipments were 1,695,000 bu, making the total since January 1 13,348,000 bu, against 4 928,000 bu last year. The visible there is 1,654 000 bu, against last week 1,576,000 bu and 1,814 000 bu one year ago. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ¼d higher and futures unchanged Receipts there the past three days 120,000 bu with only 8,000 bu from America. Exports were only 36 000 bu and total for the week 118,000 bu, against 1,814 000 bu same week in 1903. Seaboard reported no boat loads accepted and cash sales here were 90,000 bu There were 51 cars contract switched from private elevators. Withdrawals from regular elevators 264,225 bu. Car lots were in good demand and small supply. Feeling easy and prices ½@1c lower. No. 2 closed about 49@49½c and No. 2 Yellow at 52@52½c. No 3 closed at 48½@49c and No 3 Yellow sold at 52c and closed at 51½@52c. No. 4 sold at 48@48½c.

Corn by sample—Demand only fair and the offerings somewhat larger. Feeling weaker, with prices unchanged to 1½c higher. Decline was on the high grades. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 38c. No. 4 at 48@50½c No 3 at 49@50c No. 3 Yellow at 51@53½c. No 2 at 49½@50½c. No. 2 Yellow at 52½c. No 3 White at 49@51c. No 2 White at 51c. Billed through: No 4 at 46@48c. No. 3 Yellow at 51@52½c. No. 2 Yellow at 52c. No. 3 White at 49c. No 2 White at 51½c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Fairly active and unsettled, closing ⅛c lower to ⅛@¼c higher.

MAY—Sold at 47¾@48¼c. Opened at 48c and sold at 48¼c, to 47¾c, to 47⅞c, and closed at 47⅞c

JULY—Sold at 48@49⅛c. Opened at 48c to 48⅛c, and sold at 49c, to 48¾c, to 49c, to 48⅝@48¾c, to 49⅛c, to 48⅞c, to 49@49⅛c, to 48⅞c, to 48⅜c, to 48¼c, to 48⅜c, and closed at 48⅜c asked

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 47⅝@48¼c Opened at 47½c, and sold at 48⅛c, to 47⅞c, to 48⅛c, to 48c, to 48¼c, to 47⅝c, to 47⅝c, to 47½c, and closed at 47½c bid.

DECEMBER—Sold at 42¾@43½c. Opened at 42¾c and sold at 43½c, to 43¼c, to 43¼c, to 42⅝c, and closed at 42¾c

OATS—Were influenced by the action of other markets. They started strong, but weakened under heavy selling by houses who have been leading on the "long" side. Prices declined ⅝@1⅜c, and closed with net declines of ⅛@¾c, the latter on May. September was affected less by other months. Weather was fine. Receipts were 79 cars with 121 cars estimated for to-morrow. Withdrawals were 73,725 bu, and cancellations 23,603 bu. Seaboard clearances 13,428 bu. Cash sales were 60,000 bu. Car lots to go to store closed ½c lower. Standard in store closed at 42@42¼c.

Oats by sample started strong, with a good demand, and prices made a small advance, but buyers were soon filled up and the break in futures caused weakness and ½c decline. Offerings were ample for requirements, and the market did not clean up. Sales on track and free on board No 4 at 40c. No 4 White at 39@43¼c No. 3 at 40@41c. No. 3 White at 42½@44c Standard at 44c No. 2 at 41c. Billed through No. 4 at 38@41c No. 4 White at 42@41c. No 3 White at 42¾@43½c Standard at 43½@44c No 2 at 40½c. No. 2 White at 44½c At the river: No 4 at 40c No. 4 White at 38@41c No. 3 White at 39@43c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were stronger early, but broke and closed lower

MAY Offered freely Sold at 41⅝@44c Opened at 43c, sold to 44⅝c, to 42c at close

JULY Active Sold at 38⅜@38½c and at 39c. Opened at 38½c to 38⅝c, sold to 39c to 38⅜@38½, to 38½c at close

SEPTEMBER Sold at 30½@30⅝c and at 30⅞@31c. Opened at 30⅝c, sold to 30⅞@31c to 30½@30⅝c, and closed at 30⅝c.

RYE—Ruled firm for cash and May delivery and prices 1@2c higher, while the more deferred deliveries were unchanged. Demand fair and offerings light. The receipts were 21 cars, but the offerings on the market did not show the reported increased receipts and possibly came out of private warehouses for delivery on contracts There were 17 cars taken out of private warehouses No export clearances from the seaboard No 2 round lots in store quotably 77c and car lots fresh arrivals sold at 78c free on board No. 3 fresh arrivals free on board quotably 68@71c and No 4 sold at 65c

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—May in good demand and 2c higher, with sales at 77c July 67c bid and 68c sellers. August 68c sellers September nominally 60c

BARLEY—Steadiness was maintained. Good Barley of all classes, malting, feed or Screenings, salable Offerings were again very small. Low grade, feed, or Screenings on the market were slow; no one looking for such goods particularly There were 21 cars inspected in, and 2,600 bu taken out Screenings had a quotable range of 28@39c for poor to choice Barley low grade feed or milling nominally 35@38c, outside good weight. Malting, low grade, 40@42c; fair to good, sound, 45@48c, good color, 54@56c, and fancy 58c.

SEEDS—There was little change in the market. It remains very quiet for all lines. Offerings in every case small. As a general thing prices were quotably steady.

Timothy—So far as noticeable only one car of cash Seed was offered; that was sold. Speculative market entirely neglected and nominal. Market was so very quiet as to be dull. No change was apparent in prices. Contract spot or May delivery remains nominally $3 15. September was quotable at $3 27½. Country lots quotable at $2 00@3 10 for low grade to fancy, choice about $2 80@3 00, fair to good Seed $2 60@2 75 and rough at $2 00@2 50

Flax—Was just about steady compared with yesterday's quotation, the only change being that July was offered at a lower figure A sale of No 1 Northwestern spot at $1 09 was the only transaction No 1 was nominally $1 00 bid. Rejected quotable at 97c@$1 00. May delivery was called nominally $1 02 July offered at $1 03 and $1 02½ bid. September was on sale at $1 06½ and $1 03½ was bid Local receipts were 9 cars or 7,831 bu, and output none Minneapolis got 1 car and Duluth 2 cars.

Clover—Nothing done that could be learned of; there was no Clover on sale Nominal as follows: Contract spot Seed was nominally $10 75. Country lots common to choice, $7 75@10 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $6 00@8 00; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 50

Other Seeds—No trading. There were no offerings. It is not quite time for a demand for late sowing Seeds. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark, $1 15@1 65 Common Millet $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 55. Siberian, 90c@$1 10. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 85c@$1 05 Mustard, 85c@$1 15 Buckwheat nominally firm; quotable at $1 40@1 45 for good.

HOG PRODUCTS—Trade was moderate in the market for Hog Products, and the undertone to the market was rather easy. Outside orders were small, and local trading moderate Hogs were in rather good supply and lower, but this feature had little effect as the Grain markets were stronger. Offerings were not very large, and the demand was only fair Prices ruled slightly higher early, but after the early orders were provided for an easier feeling prevailed generally, and prices declined to inside figures on all the leading articles. Market in a general way closed quiet Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 64,900, compared with 81,000 one year ago. Foreign markets indicated a steady feeling in Meats and prices were advanced 1s on Cumberland Sides and 6d on Backs. Lard was easy and 6d lower. Domestic markets were quiet and steady Receipts of Products were liberal—of Lard and Meats about 30 cars. Shipments were rather good —of Lard and Meats about 142 cars Shipping demand was moderate and offerings were not very large Sales were a trifle larger and prices were unchanged.

Mess Pork—Only a moderate trade was reported in Mess Pork, and the feeling was rather easy in a general way. Offerings were not very large, and the inquiry was only fair. Market opened rather steady, and prices were 2½@5c higher Later, a weaker feeling was manifested and prices receded 17½@20c, and the market closed quiet around inside figures Demand on shipping account was light, and offerings were small. Cash lots quotable at $10 90@11 00

MAY—Quiet and quotable at the close at $10 90.

JULY—In moderate demand and offerings were fair. Sales were at $11 00 11 20. Opened at $11 20, sold to $11 12½, to $11 15, to $11 02½, to $11 05, to $11 00, to $11 02½, and closed steady

SEPTEMBER Offerings were not very large, and the demand was somewhat limited. Sales were made at $11 22½@11 40. Opened at $11 35, sold to $11 40, to $11 25, to $11 27½, to $11 22½, and closed steady

Lard—Trade was only moderate in the market for Lard, and the feeling was comparatively easy. Offerings were rather light, and there was no particular demand from any source. Prices were about 2½@5c higher early, but receded again 7½@10c and the market closed rather quiet. Foreign advices were somewhat unfavorable to holders. Inquiry on shipping account limited and offerings only moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 20@6 22½. Loose lots in small request, with moderate offerings Prices steady at about 55c discount on July figures. Leaf Lard in moderate request and offerings were fair. Prices were quotably lower at $5 75. Neutral was in only limited demand, with fair offerings Prices quotably steady at $6 75@6 87½ for No 1 and $6 50@6 62½ for No. 2.

MAY Quiet and quotable at the close at $6 20

JULY—In moderate request, and offerings were fair. Sales were made at $6 30@6 40 Opened at $6 35 to $6 40, sold to $6 35, to $6 37½, to $6 30, to $6 32½, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Offerings were very large, and the demand was moderate. Sales were made at $6 47½ @6 55. Opened at $6 52½, sold to $6 55, to $6 47½, to $6 50, and closed quiet.

Short Rib Sides—A fairly good trade was reported in the market for Short Rib Sides, and the feeling was comparatively steady. No particular pressure to sell, and the demand was moderate. Prices were about 2½c lower early, but rallied again 2½@5c on fair miscellaneous buying. Later, the feeling was not quite so strong, and prices receded 5@7½c, and the market closed steady Shipping demand was light, and offerings were moderate. Cash lots quotable at $6 25@6 37½ according to weight.

MAY—Quiet and quotable at the close at $6 25.

JULY—In rather good request and offerings were not very large. Sales were made at $6 35@6 42½. Opened at $6 37½ to $6 40, sold to $6 42½, to $6 35, to $6 37½, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER Offerings were moderate and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $6 52½@6 57½. Opened at $6 57½, sold to $6 52½, and closed steady.

Other Meats—Trade was moderate and feeling rather steady. Offerings were not very large and the inquiry was comparatively small. Exporters were backward and the home trade was rather light. Green Meats in limited supply with moderate inquiry, and prices unchanged Pickled Meats in moderate demand, and prices ruled steady. Dry Salted Meats were in only fair demand, with moderate offerings, and prices favored buyers. Smoked Meats called for in limited quantities, and prices ruled steady Closing prices ranged as follows

PORK PACKING AND PROVISIONS.

The marketing of Hogs has been moderately lessened, while there was an enlargement for the corresponding time last year Total Western packing 410,000, compared with 435,000 preceding week, and 485,000 two weeks ago For corresponding time last year the number was 480,000, and two years ago 410.000. From March 1 the total is 4,360,000, against 4,090,000 a year ago—an increase of 270,000 The quality is without notable change, being fairly good as a rule. Prices at the close are a little higher than a week ago, prominent markets average about $4 75 per 100 lbs, compared with $4 70 a week ago, $4 70 two weeks ago, $6 30 a year ago, $7 00 two years ago, and $5 70 three years ago Quite likely the movement of Hogs just now is being more or less restricted by the active attentions being given to seasonable farming affairs

The speculative Provision market was steadier the past week and there was a slight gain in values. The Grain markets were higher and Hog prices made some advance, which were the main influences encouraging buying Domestic markets remain quiet and exporters are taking but little interest and at Chicago are reported as practically out of the market. The export clearances of Product were smaller than for the preceding week, but show a gain over the small exports for the corresponding week last year.

The week's export clearances of Hog Products compared with corresponding time last year:

	Past week.	Last year.
Pork, pounds	654,000	368,000
Bacon, pounds	9,739,000	7,485,000
Total, Meats	10,399,000	7,853,000
Lard, pounds	8 761,000	7,919,000
Total, Product	19,070,000	15,772,000

Special reports to the Cincinnati Price Current show the number of Hogs packed since March 1, at undermentioned places, compared with last year, as follows.

GRAIN TRADE AND CROPS.

[From the Cincinnati Price Current, May 19.]

The growing Winter Wheat crop made favorable progress during the past week, without any new development of importance arising. Practically the entire Winter Wheat area has sufficient moisture for present or near future needs, and the recent cool weather is not regarded as harmful. In many localities where there are both good and bad Wheat fields, the recent advancement of growth has made the contrast greater, the fair ones improving in appearance and the poor ones becoming more pronounced. The crop as a whole has had an improving tendency rather than otherwise, during the past three weeks In most places where the prospect is for a light crop, it is due to thin fields

Spring Wheat seeding has been hindered some by rains in the more northern portion of the Spring Wheat region and in Eastern South Dakota but there were several days when fair progress was made. The weather has been favorable for the Grain already sown, and it is generally coming up nicely.

With few exceptions the Oats crop is reported with good stand and looking well, probably fully up to the average condition at this time The temperature lately has been too cool for rapid growth, but it is not expected to affect the crop adversely.

The Corn crop was about half planted at the beginning of this week in the most important part of the Corn belt. The weather lately has been too cool for Corn and growth is backward. In Western Missouri and Iowa and Eastern Kansas and Nebraska, Corn planting was much interrupted last week by excessive moisture. But taking the situation as a whole, while the season for vegetation is between one and two weeks later than usual, farm work is very little behind, and with favorable weather conditions a full Corn crop will be planted in satisfactory time. But warm, dry weather is generally wanted by Corn growers just now.

The interior movement of all Grains is very light, and is expected to continue so until after Corn planting is done. Reports indicate that but little Winter Wheat remains in farmers' hands, but what there is is held back firmly. In most places Corn is scarce and high, especially in Iowa, where interior points that are usually shippers of Corn quote 55c to 60c per bushel.

There is almost general uniformity in the reports that grasses and meadows are doing well In the Northern States the Fruit crops, with the exception of Peaches, are very promising. Correspondence received the past few days does not reflect much apprehension by reason of the recent cool to frosty weather

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Weather conditions are every day improving. Temperatures everywhere very much higher; only one rainfall in all the Spring Wheat territory. A fall of .36 at Rapid. No moisture in the North Light fall of rain in Kansas and Texas and general rains in Ohio Valley But the feature is the rise everywhere in temperatures. It is as high as 62 in extreme North at 7 A M, and there will be summer temperatures everywhere by noon to-day

Indications are for scattered showers in the trans Mississippi region during Saturday The weather will be fair in the Western lake region. Temperature changes will not be marked

SOUTHERN CATTLE MOVEMENT.

[From the Denver Stockman]

This is the time of the year when the movement of Southern Cattle north usually starts in earnest. Thus far there has been but one train up, and while there will be quite a number of Cattle sent north as usual, the number will fall far below what is usually expected. The recent rains in the Panhandle will help business to some extent, especially if the rains continue, as Cattle were getting in bad shape to ship, and all need grass. The drouth will have the effect of making the movement later than usual in any event Those best posted expect to see the heaviest movement in June and July.

The preliminary statement of the total value of imports and exports of the United States for April 1904, and for the ten months ending April 30, shows a decline in imports, both for the month and for the ten months as compared with the previous year, and a very slight increase in exports for the month with a substantial increase in exports for the ten months.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

Prices on refined Sugars advanced 5 points Thursday.

Detroit has sold $200,000 3½ per cent thirty-year water bonds at a premium of $1,740 for the issue.

The Southern Illinois Electric Traction Company has voted an increase in capital stock from $50,000 to $2,000,000. An extensive system of electric railroads is to be built in the vicinity of Mt. Vernon, Ill.

The Canadian Pacific Railway estimates that the increase in Wheat acreage in territory tributary to its lines is about 12½ per cent This may be taken as representative of the whole Province of Manitoba. At many of the older points there has been no increase

The directors of the Consolidated Gas Company at their meeting, Tuesday, issued a call for a meeting of the stockholders to be held June 2 They will recommend to the stockholders an issue of $20,000,000 of debenture 6 per cent bonds, convertible after three years

The American Light and Traction Company reports for the quarter ended March 31, 1904. Gross, $259,008; expenses, $9,000; net, $250,008, preferred dividend $140,653; surplus, $109,354; total dividends paid to date, $1,486,213; total surplus, March 31, 1904, $1,217,594; capital stock outstanding, preferred, $9,393 900; common, $1,680,800.

It has been determined to declare a dividend of $1 50 per share upon the 300,000 shares of stock of the Utah Consolidated Company in June, payable in July. It is the expectation of the management that as a result of a six months' run of the enlarged smelter they will be able to declare a dividend of $2 00 per share in December.

A majority of the Portsmouth, N. H, unsecured creditors of the White Mountain Paper Company have accepted an offer of a settlement of 22½ per cent and have signed off. The reorganization committee has raised $225,000 to pay off the unsecured creditors and the Portsmouth creditors as well as others in New England have agreed to the terms of settlement

Baltimore fire losses are now estimated at $15,000,000. The first estimates were from $50,000,000 to $120,000,000, and for several weeks it was supposed that the insurance companies had suffered to the extent of $80,000,000. The accounts have been as fully made up as they ever will be. In some cases neither the insured nor the insurer has any record, but it is believed that $15,000,000 will cover all the losses.

Members of the Savings Bank Association of the State of New York have publicly expressed their disapproval of the effort of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Company to have the $163,000,000 of its bonds made a legal investment for savings banks of New York State. A resolution was adopted stating that it would be unwise for a savings bank of New York State to purchase the bonds, and it was suggested that a test case be presented to the courts.

It is said that within three months there will be formed in the East, backed by Standard Oil capital, an independent long-distance telephone line company, whose projected lines will cross the continent from the Atlantic Coast to Kansas and which will later be extended to the Pacific Coast and to the Gulf. The company will be the only rival of the American Bell Telephone Company and its constituent lines in long-distance telephone service

The Kinloch Long Distance Telephone Company of Missouri will file a first mortgage deed of trust to the Mississippi Valley Trust Company of St. Louis, trustee, for an issue of $5,000,000 25-year 5 per cent Gold bonds, of which $1,000,000 are to be placed immediately The mortgage covers all the lines of the company, being properties in Missouri, Kansas, Illinois and Indiana. It is one of the largest links in the prospective general independent telephone system combination throughout the country.

The Duluth Commercial Record says: "As is well known, little attention has during past years been paid by the farmers of South Dakota to the raising of Winter Wheat. As an experiment, a number of farmers residing in the vicinity of Bath, Brown County, last fall shipped in a large quantity of Wheat seed from Nebraska and sowed it on their farms They now report that the Wheat has made a fine growth, and at this time looks strong, healthy and promising for a fully developed crop."

"A little seeding of Wheat is still going on in the Red River Valley," says a Minneapolis party, "and if conditions continue favorable it will be kept up into next week. As far as can be now estimated, the Wheat area will be fully equal to last year's, and if work can be carried on ten days longer there may be a small increase Grain already in is coming along well, and while the weather is cool for any rapid growth, it is helping to make good root, and with warm sunshine Grain will grow very fast."

"Everything pertaining to the machinists strike has worked out favorably," said an officer of the Santa Fe. "We are getting all the men we want and the old employes who did not accept the offer of their former positions will be the sufferers. The union has made several unsuccessful attempts at calling out men from other departments of the shops We consider the company has at last achieved a victory in one of the longest and most stubborn fights since the big strike of 1894 -that of keeping open shop."

The underwriting syndicate for the $30,000,000 5-20 Louisville and Nashville collateral trust 4s has been wound up, as all the bonds are sold. The underwriting syndicate is understood to have taken the bonds at 92½, and was able to sell a portion, possibly about 30 per cent of them, on a basis of 96¼. The remainder have averaged 95½. The syndicate has been in existence for thirteen months, and after allowing for all expenses should make a profit of about 2½ per cent. Bond houses are very well satisfied and consider that a better investment demand is clearly indicated.

Receivers were appointed by Judge Morse in the United States Circuit Court at Baltimore, Tuesday, for the Mexico Commercial Company. The bond is fixed at $50,000, and the defendant is enjoined from disposing of any of its property. The Mexico Commercial Company is a Delaware corporation, with a branch office in Baltimore. It control a Sugar plantation in Vera Cruz and its charter enables it to engage in the real estate and lumber business and to dispose of the products of land. The failure of the company is alleged to have been due to mismanagement. It is claimed the property will pay its full indebtedness.

The payment of $40,000,00 to the Panama Canal Company, the largest single payment ever made by the Government, has made notable changes in the character of the Treasury statement. The expenditures for the current fiscal year to date now amount to $513,333,599, against receipts amounting to only $472,345,928, making the current deficit for the year to date $40,987,671. On the corresponding date last year the statement showed total receipts of $486,546,841 and total expenditures of $452,309,856, making the current surplus for that year, on May 14, $34,236,985. For the month of May to date the receipts compare favorably with the same period last year.

An American Railways Company director says: "The board, when it declared the quarterly dividend, had the earnings for nine months of the year before it, and the net earnings and net income showed increases, though they are not large The past three months have covered a period of rather quiet general business conditions, but the prospects are for a good three months' earnings for the balance of the fiscal year. The net earnings for the year ending June 30, 1904, ought to be rather larger than for 1903. I am pleased with the outlook for the property." The company reported net income earned last year as $274,691, which is 7 per cent on $3,903,000 stock then outstanding. The dividend paid is 8 per cent.

There is a general belief among the officers of the various companies that manufacture railroad equipment that there will be no material change in the volume of business until after something definite is known in regard to this year's crops. It was hoped that the railroad companies would see their way clear to purchase additional locomotives and cars during the summer in anticipation of the fall's requirements, but so far these hopes have not been realized. The crops will be an unknown quantity until August at the earliest, and should there be no failure, it is fully expected by officials of the equipment companies that the railroad managers will then be disposed to place liberal orders for new rolling stock.

It is reported that the negotiations for merging the Southern Iron and Steel companies have been dropped for the present and that nothing further will be done till the general conditions having an influence on a transaction of that character have changed The Steel and Iron business North and South is dull and growing more so, and the financial situation is not such as to make any house that is capable of handling such a deal desirous to undertake it at the present time. It is understood that the plan, so far as the Republic Iron and Steel Company is concerned, has to do only with its Southern properties and does not include its Northern mills and ore properties The merger is to include only the Tennessee Coal and Iron and the Sloss-Sheffield companies and the Southern properties of the Republic

The United States Steel Corporation, by its contracts with the nail manufacturers of Canada, will retain the rod market of the Dominion, notwithstanding the opening of a big rod mill by the Dominion Iron and Steel Company at Sydney. By the contract with the United States Steel Corporation the Canadian nail manufacturers agree to get all their rod supplies from them, and in return the United States Steel Corporation agrees not to enter the Canadian nail market. The nail manufacturers say that they had to agree to such a contract because, even if they could get their rods at just as low a price from the Dominion Iron and Steel Company, the United States Steel could come into the Canadian nail market and undersell them. The only part of the Canadian rod market that the Dominion company is sure of securing is that of the maritime provinces.

Stockholders of the New York, Ontario and Western Railroad Company at a meeting held in New York, Thursday, adopted resolutions protesting against the continuation of the stock voting trust and appointed a committee to take steps to have the trust, which has been in existence twenty-four years, declared void. The resolutions set forth that it is unjust that because a few shares of preferred stock are still outstanding the stockholders should not be allowed to cast their votes annually in the election of a full board of directors. The resolutions also say that the company's officers admit there is little likelihood that the holders of the balance of the outstanding shares can be induced to surrender their certificates under the terms of the legislative act of 1885, which authorized the company to issue $2,000,000 of its mortgage bonds to retire an equal amount of outstanding preferred stock.

A crop expert wires from Oklahoma City: "The bulk of Wheat in this county will be ripe June 15. Further North it will be a few days later, say about the 20th. I talked with many of the millers last evening, who are at the millers' convention here, and I got a good deal of information which I think will help to give an idea of the various sections. None of the millers think there is any sort of a chance for any of the Wheat to go to Chicago in July, even in case of a squeeze, as there will not be enough raised hardly to keep their own mills running, and the price here will be high for the first delivery, as nearly all of them are out of Wheat and will have to have the first of the run. All seem to agree that the counties of Wood, Noble, Garfield and Kay are the only ones in the Territory which will have a semblance of what they raised last year. The Wheat in this county will go on an average of about 8 bu per acre."

A Philadelphia dispatch to the Chicago Inter Ocean says: "A Pittsburg man, whose affiliations are with Iron and Steel manufacturers, expresses the following pessimistic view of the United States Steel Corporation: "The Steel corporation is down to terra firma and turns out to be only an unwieldy aggregation of manufacturing plants, with a few incumbrances in the way of mortgages, purchase money obligations, special deposits, loans payable, debenture script, subsidiary bonds, first mortgage bonds, second mortgage bonds, and guarantees on various other bonds, etc P. S. –Also some preferred and common stock, if my memory serves me rightly. Ever since the last quarterly report, or since April 7, I have been offering to sell my friends the preferred dividends for the next twelve months for $3 00 and can't find anybody to take my offer. I suppose I shall have to offer a discount for cash, next dividend cut; following one, perhaps something; next one, nothing I ought to have known it a couple of years ago, but I am glad I know it now.' "

An official of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company says: "We are as busy to-day as ever before in our history, the increased activity in our street railway department making up for any falling off in other departments. Since we put our single-phase motor on the market, less than a year ago, our orders have greatly increased, and it is this department that we are pushing and which is pushing us. Interurban roads are substituting this system for others because of its economy and speed in operation. We are employing to-day 10,800 workmen in our East Pittsburg plant alone, and we have not laid off any men on account of a lack of business. Among so large a force, sickness and a score of other causes are responsible for a daily or weekly number of men being idle temporarily. It may happen occasionally that two or three who are more or less essential to the operation of a particular department are unable to report for duty, and that may necessitate the laying off of 50 men in that department for the day, or possibly the week, but we have full employment for our normal force, and from the present outlook we will be able to keep that force busy for the remainder of the year."

"Wheat in Northern Texas is good," said a wire from Dallas, Texas, Friday. "Southern Kansas is fair, Oklahoma spotted; the Western part almost a failure. Total yield in Oklahoma and Indian Territory will be a good half crop Corn in North Texas almost waist high; looking fine, with plenty of moisture."

The Iowa Grain Dealers met at Des Moines, Wednesday. There were representatives from all over the State. A Chicago man, who returned from there, Friday, said the concensus of reports from all over the State is that Iowa's crop prospect for all Grains has not been as favorable at this time in several years.

Imports of Specie at New York last week were $213,832 Gold and $45,456 Silver. Total, $259 288, against $53,352 the previous week. Heavy buying of July and August Cotton by a Wall Street interest was the early feature in the New York market, presumably a movement to cover "shorts." The demand was productive of less advance than might have been expected, chiefly because of the heaviness of New Orleans. The close was 3@1 points higher on near futures, and steady on distant deliveries.

Export clearances for the past week from Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Newport News, New Orleans, and Galveston included 164,000 brls of Flour and 59,000 bu Wheat, against 73,000 brls of Flour and 138,000 bu of Wheat the preceding week, an increase of 81,000 brls of Flour and a decrease of 79,000 bu of Wheat. For the corresponding week last year the exports were 172,000 brls of Flour and 1,838,000 bu of Wheat.

Broomhall cabled: "Our Barcelona correspondent telegraphs that excessive heat and drouth have seriously compromised the cereal crops in the Kingdom of Eastvemandura and other regions. (Drouth conditions at this time last year also reduced the yield) India - Final official estimate of Wheat crop of United Province of Agra and Oudh places it at 98,320,000 bu, against 111,744,000 bu last year (these provinces raise about one-third of India's total Wheat crop)."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS

FLOUR—Market is quiet and steady as quoted on the second page.

WINTER WHEAT—Was very quiet and not enough doing to establish a market Prices were quotably unchanged No. 2 Red in store nominally $1 05@1 06, and fresh arrivals quotably $1 06@1 08. No 2 Red fresh arrivals quotably $1 03@1 07. No. 2 Hard was quotably 97c@$1 00, and there were sales of a choice car, mostly soft Wheat, at $1 04 and a good car at 98c. No. 3 Hard fresh arrivals quotably 85@95c and a fair car sold at 90c.

SPRING WHEAT Was in only light demand and the market was quiet and steady. Sales of 15,000 bu of No 1 Northern were reported ¼c over May, and this grade in store ranged at 98¾c@$1 00 and fresh arrivals free on board quotably about $1 00. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals nominally 95@99c. No 3 Spring sold at 97c and ranged at 84@97c for poor to choice. No. 4 Spring quotable at 64@87c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—The trade was very moderate in volume compared with yesterday, being rather narrow and slow at times. Feeling manifested at the same time, however, was quite firm, and closing prices showed May ¾c better, while July gained 1@1⅛c and September ⅝@¾c. Operators inclined to work for a reaction early in the session, but the offerings were very moderate, and later in the day several of yesterday's best sellers turned buyers, taking the new July and the situation turned stronger. The report that 1,000,000 bu cash Wheat was taken by millers at Minneapolis yesterday was one of the "bull" helps, as also the expectation of a "bullish" set of statistics on Monday. The visible is expected to show about 3 500,000 bu decrease. The advance in May Wheat at Duluth and Minneapolis was looked upon as significant and removed the fears to some extent of any further business being worked with Chicago. Broomhall estimated the world's shipments this week at 8,800,000 bu, or about 2,000,000 bu less than last week, and predicted a fair decrease in the amount on ocean passage. Arrivals in the United Kingdom this week were 4,300,000 bu, against 4,400,000 bu last week and 4,900,000 bu one year ago. Cables reported excessive heat in Spain and drouth as seriously compromised cereal crops in certain districts Wheat yield in United Province of Agra and Oudh placed at 98,320,000 bu, against 111,744,000 bu last year. These two Provinces produce about one-third of India's total Wheat crop. Weather map showed favorable conditions, clear and warmer Northwest, and the signal service predicted continued fair weather conditions, with possible showers for Missouri, Minnesota, Nebraska and Kansas. Duluth wired: "Have been looking into cash Wheat situation. Cash sales yesterday were heavy, to millers about 1,000,000 bu." Primary receipts this week were 997,000 bu, against 1,048,000 bu last week and 1,503,000 bu one year ago. Local weekly receipts were 76,000 bu and shipments 448,000 bu. Exports were moderate and nine boat loads were accepted for export at the seaboard. Receipts in the Northwest this week were 471 cars, against 466 cars last week and 810 cars one year ago. Minneapolis stocks reported decreased 275,000 bu in one day Australia shipments this week were 695,000 bu. Minneapolis wired the following: that the cash business there yesterday was simply transfers from elevator interests to millers, which is quite usual at this season of the year. Other authorities there, however, claimed millers were buying the Wheat, fearing Eastern competitors would soon be in the Minneapolis market for it. Receipts at Duluth 5 cars and at Minneapolis 80 cars, a total of 85 cars, against 86 cars yesterday, 67 cars a week ago, and 153 cars last year. Local receipts included 5 cars Winter, 2 cars Spring, no cars mixed, a total of 7 cars, against 35 cars last year. Included in the above was none of contract grade. There was also 7 cars and 6,700 bu from unlicensed elevators The estimated receipts for Monday are 4 cars The withdrawals to-day were 77,600 bu. Receipts at Western points were 145,813 bu, against 347,308 bu last year; at Eastern points 28 183 bu, against 288 605 bu last year Shipments from Western points were 58,700 bu, against 412,618 bu last year, and from Eastern points 532,163 bu, against 22 341 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 259,461 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 191,881 bu.

DECEMBER—Sold at 80⅛@80⅜c, and closed at 80⅜c bid.

CORN—The trade was again about all local and the undertone comparatively firm, with closing prices showing May shade higher, July off 1-16c, and September little changed Market had fair support from yesterday's largest buyers, while the selling came chiefly from floor traders. There was no important "bull" news at hand on the contrary the weather was ideal for field work and the newly planted crop and favorable conditions were predicted by the signal service. Showers were predicted for Missouri Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska. Receipts, however, were small at 117 cars, with 7 cars contract, and 119 cars are estimated for Monday. Shipments for the week, too, showed up large, 1,943,000 bu, compared with receipts of 541,000 bu, and stocks on Monday will probably make a "bullish" showing. Primary receipts this week were 1,526 000 bu, against 1,852,000 bu last week and 2,829,000 bu for the corresponding week in 1903. Kansas City was easier, while St. Louis was firm There were no cables received. Exports were moderate at 35,000 bu, compared with 104,000 bu one year ago, and 3 boat loads accepted at the seaboard Shipping operations here are still curtailed, owing to the lake situation, and sales chiefly for domestic account. Elevator interests through the West reported offerings of Corn much freer the past few days. There were 52 cars contract transferred the from private to public elevators. Withdrawals from regular warehouses 62,500 bu. Receipts 131 000 bu, and shipments 323,000 bu. Car lots were in fair demand and offerings moderate. Prices 1@2c lower No. 3 closed about 49c and No. 2 Yellow closed at 51½@52c. No 3 closed at 48@48½c. No 3 White sold at 50c No. 3 Yellow sold at 50½@51c and closed about 51c. No. 4 sold at 48@48½c—outside for yellow.

RYE The market was quiet and unchanged. Everything practically same as yesterday Demand light and offerings limited Only one car was received. There were no withdrawals from store here and no export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store nominally 77c, and a car fresh receipts free on board sold at 78c No. 3 fresh receipts were quotably 65@75c free on board.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye Quiet and steady. May sold at 77c, and that the closing. July 67c bid and 68c asked August nominally same as July. September nominally 60c.

BARLEY Little attention was given the market, because it was Saturday perhaps. Supply also was too small to attract any particular attention. Good to fancy malting quotably firm Some sold to arrive above late outside quotation. Some cars of common and low grade Screenings and feed Barley around and they were both slow and easy. Posted to-day 7 cars inspected in and 1 250 bu out. For Screenings there remains a quotable range of 28@50c for poor to choice. Barley—low grade feed or mixing nominally 35@38c, outside good weight Malting, low grade, 40@42c; fair to good, sound, 45@48c; good color, 50@55c, and fancy 58@60c; a lot to arrive at 60c was sold to day.

SEEDS — Quietness and dulness prevailed. Offerings exceedingly small, in fact nothing but a few lots of Timothy on sale. Buyers were very scarce. There were no price changes to speak of.

Timothy—A dull, easy market was apparent. New crop September delivery was offered at a slightly reduced price. There were a few cash lots offered and the usual buyers manifested no particular interest in them. Contract spot or May delivery was nominally $3 05, July about $1 10 and September was offered at $3 25. Country lots remain quotable at $2 00@3 10 for low grade to fancy choice about $2 80@2 90, fair to good Seed $2 60@2 75 and rough at $2 00@2.50.

Flax—Entirely nominal and unchanged There were neither arrivals or withdrawals shown in the movement, and the market was devoid both of demand and offerings. At Minneapolis there were 5 cars received and at Duluth the receipts were 4 cars. No. 1 Northwestern was nominally $1 04 No 1 about $1 00 Rejected quotable at 97c@$1 00 May delivery nominally $1 02 July at $1 03½@1 03. September obtainable at $1 06½.

WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW

CHICAGO, FRIDAY EVENING, May 20, 1904.

The money market had a better tone and less to heard about the low rates and more money is being put out at 4½ per cent than for several weeks past. Calls for loans were increased somewhat and there was less disposition on the part of lenders to make concessions as in recent weeks. Some money is bringing 5 per cent on time, but only small amounts are taken at that figure. In New York heavy exports of Gold have brought about a better feeling, and the claim is made that the exports is likely to reach considerable proportions before it is finished. It has strengthened the general tone of the money market and created a better demand and rates averaged higher. On the Stock Exchange loans were at 1¾ to 2½ per cent. Time loans ranged at 3¾ to 4½ per cent, the latter for six and eight months bills.

New York exchange was firmer at 30@35c premium per $1,000, and closed at 40c.

Foreign exchange was in better supply, bankers offering more bills. Shipping rates and documentary sterling bills on London ranged at 484¾ to 484½.

Cotton in New York was controlled by speculative conditions. The visible supplies of cotton were unfavorable, but speculators appeared to consider the price sufficiently high to induce them to sell liberally on all advances, or whenever the market was especially weak, and on this account prices were moved up sharply in the early trading they went off as rapidly later. A good increase in the "short" interest has been made and the spot situation continues strong. Prices have declined to a point where spinners and exporters are taking Cotton more freely and "longs" were good sellers. The movement is small as yet, but will increase as from the cash article. Closing prices were at net losses of 4@9 points for the week.

Local Securities moved irregularly with a strong undertone to Biscuits shares, while others were in moderate volume. There was little interest taken in Cash or Box Board issues, and they were handled within narrow limits. Diamond Match and Chicago Edison, and Tivis and Trust sold off sharply. In Cable and Elevated shares developments were not such as to cause material changes. The bond market was active and strong.

Stocks in New York were characterized by moderate dealings and increased irregularity in price. The movement of Gold abroad was a "bearish" influence which led to considerable selling and "bear" interest at times. Steel shares had a good reaction from the recent break, although reports from the Iron and Steel business were by no means encouraging. The initial statement issued by the United States Rubber Company showed an increase of $12,000,000 in gross earnings, and of $772,000 in surplus. A feature of the report was the announcement of a profit-sharing plan to be established for the employes. It is similar to that brought out by the Steel Corporation a year and a half ago which has not proved a success. The Steel corporation syndicate has closed its operations and the members have received about $50,000,000 in bonds. Railroad earnings are running inclined last year's and the statements for the May returns will show little if any increase over April. The close, compared with a week ago, showed about as many gains as losses, few being important. Total sales on the New York Stock Exchange for the week were 1,393,000 shares, combined with 1,401,000 shares the previous week, and 8,653,600 shares last year.

The principal Stocks traded in on the New York Stock Exchange and the number of shares disposed of during the week was as follows:

There are features to the jobbing trade which make the outlook somewhat better, particularly in dry goods, clothing and shoes. Reordering sales were of larger volume, and there was more used up a good part of their early purchases and are reassuring. Sales of heavy dry goods for forward delivery are more encouraging, crop prospects being considered sufficiently satisfactory to warrant the placing of liberal orders as supplies were closely sold out last winter owing to the extremely cold weather. Prices on Cotton continue steady. In the Iron and Steel situation conditions are not as rosy as they appeared a few months ago. The production of Pig Iron is heavy. Consumers are not taking it as fast as heretofore and some foundrymen are asking to have shipments on previous purchases delayed. The market is easy and sellers more numerous. Southern selling at 50c decline. Purchases of finished material were mainly of structural Iron bars and Steel plates, better being taken in small lots. Sales of Iron bars were at $1.00 a ton reduction. Chicago is furnishing most of the business in structural Iron for the time being. Buying of Rails has fallen off. Jobbers of light and heavy hardware are getting a better business as consumers prefer to take small lots for the time being. Lumber and Timber materials was moved more freely to local and outside districts. Consumption of groceries is going on at a good rate, and the refining interests are buying Sugar freely. Oils and drugs have fallen off. Collections are reported as fair.

COMMERCIAL

Just a fair business was reported in commercial circles on the Chicago Board of Trade the past week. Shipping interests are still handicapped by the strike on the lakes and the grain blockade of the trade was curtailed, owing to the meager offerings. Speculation business was quiet on all the markets, and local in character, outside orders not being in any way numerous. The leading markets displayed rather a stronger undertone at times, but without any material change on side the nearby deliveries were of such narrow proportions they evidently did not prove attractive to the outside speculator. The light and decreasing interest was largely due to the lack of the generally favorable weather, and "shorts" at times were rather uneasy, fearing some congestion in contracts for May and July. The statistical position of the leading commodities was closely watched closely between now and another harvest and more activity is certain to follow.

Weather conditions abroad were on the whole bearish as favorable crops were noted. Reports from Roumania and Bulgaria stated good soaking rains were urgently needed, and from Russia further advices of a similar nature were received from the Southwest Provinces. Ample moisture, however, is reported in the Crimea. The weather continues favorable in France, Germany, Italy and Spain, and broad crop conditions are favorable to liberal. Reports from the United Kingdom show definitely that the increase in the Spring Wheat area will not make up for the loss in the Winter Wheat acreage, which is estimated at 20 per cent. Higher temperatures and rain reserves are said to be liberal.

Weather conditions in the United States and Canada the past week were most favorable. Rather too much moisture occurred in parts of the Northwest, but elsewhere the crop outlook was maintained at a high standard. Seeding is nearly practically completed outside certain sections of the Red River Valley and the area is fully as large as last year. The early sown is said to be coming up unevenly in parts of the Dakotas and Southern Minnesota. On the Pacific Coast the outlook is favorable. Improvement is generally reported in the condition of Winter Wheat, more particularly in the Northwest and Pacific Coast. The crop is now heading in Southern Kansas and Missouri and harvest is under way in Southern Texas. The outlook in the Ohio Valley, however, is for crop conditions to improve, as there has been good progress, having been delayed in parts of the West. Planting is now in progress in the more northerly districts, and in Texas the plant is reported to be doing well. There is little room for doubt but that a record acreage will be planted. The general outlook for Oats in the principal States is favorable, although there is some complaint in Missouri and harvesting is now on in some of the Southern States.

The movement of Grain from the farms and interior elevators continues comparatively light for the week and no material increase can be expected until spring work is out of the way. In the Northwest the arrivals of Grain at terminal points were not sufficient to relieve the congestion, the interesting centers show a considerable shrinkage. Through the West there was a little disposition to market Grain owing possibly to the advance in the rates from certain points, but in the Southwest the receipts of Grain were small and shipments quite liberal. The movement to the seaboard is reported as unsatisfactory owing to many of the smaller boats of the Grain fleet are in service. The tie-up at Buffalo, due to new strike complications arising owing to the troubles with the Grain Shovelers' Union, is a serious matter to shippers. Exports of Flour and Wheat as well as Corn continue limited and the new business booked with the other side was small. There was, however, a good clearance of Wheat and Corn for shipment. According to the official weekly supply of Grain in the United States and Canada, compiled by the Secretary of the Chicago Board of Trade, the total visible supply of Wheat, Corn, Oats, Rye, and Barley. Bradstreet's showed a good-sized decrease in Wheat, but not as large a shrinkage as a year ago. The decreases in Corn and Oats were fair and about in line with the reductions for the same week in 1903.

A fair speculative business was reported in the leading Grain and Provision markets on Change the past week. Operations are still confined chiefly to local speculators, outside orders not being in any way numerous, owing to the season of the year. This may possibly be explained by the fact that farm work is later than usual and the interior operators are not engaged to give the speculative markets their attention. Fluctuations in the forward deliveries were confined within moderate limits and traders as a rule were quick to realize on the slightest favorable changes within the limits established. "Shorts" in Wheat were somewhat disturbed at the small contract supplies and covering was a feature, particularly the early days of the week. They were affected by the small receipts and decreasing stocks, but these features were partially offset by unsatisfactory foreign and Southwestern advices regarding planting. Oats were easy as the result of selling by the largest holder of July. Weather and crop reports were favorable and had a depressing influence. Provisions were at times quite steady, steadier lone Ryes was firmer and Barley quiet and steady. Hog Products exhibited a steadier undertone. Offerings in a general way were not very large and the trade was mainly in the hands of moderate purchasers. Hogs were in fair supply and prices rather firm. Trading chiefly in July and September. Receipts of Hogs at the principal points the week exhibited a decrease of 70,000 Hogs compared with the returns for the corresponding week in 1903. The aggregate for the season to date is now reported at 4,900,000 Hogs, compared with 4,600,000 for the corresponding week last year.

The trade in cash Grain was in no way extensive the past week, the volume of business reflected on the one hand by the strike on the lakes and on the other by the limited receipts. Wheat was wanted and if boats were available a good business would have been closed. Current receipts sold well at satisfactory prices. Corn was in fair request, but business retarded owing to the scarcity of lake tonnage. Oats were a little slow the opening days, but demand improved as the week advanced. Rye was dull and Seeds quiet. Hay was quiet, but firm. Demand and offerings only fair. Hog Products were in limited demand and the offerings moderate. Sales were for small quantities and prices were without essential change. Cattle were in moderate supply and prices were well supported and this was also the case with Sheep.

FREIGHTS—Western Grain rates are to be advanced June 10 to 12c on Wheat and 11c on coarse Grains from Missouri River points to Chicago. Eastbound and Gulf rates have also been adjusted. The rate on Wheat from Missouri River to the Gulf will be 18c, an advance of 1c, and to South Atlantic ports will be 19c, or 2c over the old rate. Eastbound all-rail lin e rates on Grain and merchandise contracted for by lines and rail lines prior to May 7 at the lake and rail rate. The Eastbound all-rail tariff is as follows:

To—	Domestic. Export.		Missouri River. Domestic.	Export.
Boston	19½	18½	23½	16
New York	18½	17½	19½	16
Philadelphia	15½	13½	17½	15
Baltimore	15½	14	17½	14½
Newport News	14½	11	16½	14½

Flour rates are to be 17½c domestic and 15c for export. Provisions are 30c per 100 lbs. Chicago to New York.

Rail rates at and east of Buffalo to New York are 4c per bu on Wheat, 3½c on Corn, 3½c on Barley and 3c on Oats.

Ocean rates on Grain are slow and the engagements light. Rates on Grain are 1½@2¼d per bu from New York and 1½d from Boston. Through rates on Wheat from Chicago to Liverpool are 9½d per bu and Corn 10¼c. Flour 10c per 100 lbs and Provisions 35½c per 100 lbs.

With 55 per cent of the lake carriers tied up by a strike that has only 25 per cent to be moved by lake as in lumber boats of small capacity and in Canadian bottoms. Unloading at Buffalo is restricted by a strike of Grain shovelers. No rates are made at that port, but for Corn to Georgian Bay 2c was paid.

FLOUR—In the face of the advance in Wheat, Flour continues in the same rut and the demand from the seaboard and the fact that the trade between Chicago and New York is well filled up, restricts the demand from any section. Chicago sacks of Flour the past week were 2,000 bbls less than equal to the demand. Minneapolis agents are asking $5.50 for the best hard Spring Wheat Patent Flour, while the local jobbers are selling the same grades for $5.60@5.70 per bbl. Most of the market seems to have no confidence in any future advance in prices. There is no demand at all from the local grocery trade, and the big department stores claim that stocks enough to last them for some time to come. As for the export trade, the bids are from 1s 6d to 2d below the actual cost of manufacture. Millers in the Southwestern interiors are not offering any Flour to Chicago and the trade is not reaching out to secure consignments owing to dullness of the general business. Local millers are not pressing sales and are not caring to pile up Flour for which there is no demand. The Corn Trade News of May 5 says: "The apathy in the Flour market, which for last two months, owing to the backwardness of the season of our weekly report, is unfortunately still the ruling condition of the trade. It is monotonous to be compelled to ring the change on the same theme week after week. Buyers are holding aloof from the over-confident, extensive purchases for forward delivery contracted for on the outbreak of hostilities in the Far East, and the subsequent disappointing course of prices, and those who are expected to appreciate very materially after a spasmodic advance have, as the apprehension of complications subsided, grudgingly and reluctantly arranged all further operations until outstanding engagements were liquidated." Closing prices were as follows:

MILLSTUFFS—The offerings have been small. Receipts from the outside light, and home millers supplying most of the local requirements. Demand good. Sales on track mostly at $13.50@14 per ton, and in 100-lb sacks, sacks included, at $13.50@13.50 per ton.

WINTER WHEAT—Ruled decidedly firm during the past week, and higher prices were realized in some instances for choice Wheat, both of the soft and hard variety, while poor Wheat was not much in favor and difficult to sell. There has been a good demand on milling account and besides the car lots of fresh arrivals received from day to day, there were occasional round lots sold. Bids for store lots were 1c higher, but there is much above the prices for May delivery as to almost prohibit trading. Only a few cars of fresh arrivals were received, and these taken up quite promptly. Receipts of Winter Wheat the past week there was no special inquiry. Of No. 2 Red there was only 236,000 bu in store, against 1,257,000 bu one year ago. Of No. 3 Red there was only 21,000 bu in store, against none the corresponding week last year. The receipts for the week aggregated 43 cars, against 93 cars the previous week, and 72 cars one year ago. Sales were reported as follows: 5,000 bu, and from private warehouses 73 cars No. 2 Red in store quotably 81 @82½c and fresh arrivals free on board or delivered at 82½@83c for fair to very choice, and sales at 84@85c. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals free on board sold at 81 @82c for poor to very choice. No. 4 Red sold at 77c. No. 2 Hard fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 82@84½c. No. 3 Hard fresh arrivals free on board sold at 80@82½c, and was quotable at 82@ 85c for poor to choice. No. 4 Hard sold at 80c. No. 2 White sold at 81½c.

SPRING WHEAT—There has been a firm feeling in the market, and prices for No. 1 Northern in store were advanced 2@3c in sympathy with the primary markets. Receipts of fresh arrivals of the various grades were advanced 4@6c. A good demand existed and some round lots besides the car lots of fresh arrivals were sold. Millers bought quite freely; some lots were taken for shipment. The high prices asked for Winter Wheat no doubt turned millers to using more Spring Wheat. The receipts the past week were 30 cars, as shown. Wheat arriving to make a market for fresh arrivals. The stock of No. 1 Northern in store was reported at only 141,000 bu, against 1,740,000 bu the corresponding time last year. The receipts for the week aggregated 15 cars, against 18 cars the previous week. There were withdrawn from public elevators 198,825 bu and 124 cars and 56,700 bu from private warehouses. No. 1 Northern in store ruled the same as May to 9c over and ranged at 90@ 93c early, up to 97½@98½ on late, with fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 94c@98½. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 90@98c. No. 3 Spring fresh receipts sold at 92@93c, and ranged 85c@93c early and closing 90@93c. Rejected and No. 4 Spring sold at 86@88c for poor to good and ranged up to 88c for choice, with a fancy car selling at 90c.

KINDS OF WHEAT—Higher prices were established this week, the close showing May up 9c, while old July gained 3@3½c and old September 2½@3c. The trade was only of a volume to be fairly active, but decidedly "bullish," "shorts" covering freely. Late in the week the market was easier, but the close steady, as noted above. Speculators were inclined to discredit the crop reports and small experts suddenly remembered that contract stocks in this market are very small and that the "short" seller of July may have to rely on arriving stocks of new Wheat to cover, as but little contracts. There was a regular stampede among "shorts," and advance was not checked until May touched $1.04½, July 89½c, and old September 87½@88c. So many people who have been overlooking these extremely potent facts for several weeks remembered them all at once and started in to cover their "shorts" or restore their "long" interests, which was the short interest. The official report of contract stocks of Wheat in store here for the week shows there was no new occasion for alarm. Receipts were moderate, 6 cars, a small increase of 21,000 bu, the total now 681,000 bu. Stocks of No. 2 Red decreased 24 000 bu, but the stocks of No 1 Northern increased 43,000 bu, while No. 2 Northern increased 18,000 bu and No. 3 Spring 4,000 bu, the total of contract Wheat of this grade in private elevators more than offset the withdrawals by millers and shippers. Domestic statistics, however, were generally encouraging, and the difference in favor of the exports to the advance on this side rather discouraged "longs." The visible supply decreased 1,655,000 bu, against 1,491,000 bu decrease in 1903 and 1,000,000 bu increase in 1902. Total now reported at 28 078,000 bu, against 30,655 000 bu in 1903 and 33 577,000 bu in 1902. Besides the above decrease there was a reduction of 761,000 bu at Fort William and 643,000 bu at Duluth, but a good share of this decrease is supposed to be on the lakes. The joint decrease of 1,216,000 bu would have made the total decrease in the visible supply 2,871,000 bu, and the early trade in Wheat was based on figures from those points. It is probable, however, that much of the Wheat leaving Ft. William and Port Arthur will reappear as clearances, as the fact that exports of clearances are so much smaller than last year and that little if any Wheat has been put afloat in this country, the comparison was considered a very bullish one. Primary and domestic consumption and large drafts on the supplies at terminal markets. Local public and afloat stocks decreased 44 000 bu and now include 1,896,000 bu, against 3,539,000 bu one year ago. Stocks here in all positions decreased 173,000 bu to 4,138,000 bu, compared with 6,888,000 bu same date in 1903. Continental Wheat stocks May 1 were reported 17,776,000 bu, against 20,000,000 bu May 1, 1903, and 20,040,000 May 1, 1902. Bradstreet's decreased 3,837,0.0 bu, against 4,394,000 bu decrease same week in 1903. World's shipments were above as expected, 10,856,000 bu, against 9,000,000 bu per last week, and 11,560,000 bu one year ago. Quantity on ocean passage decreased 7,0.0,000 bu to 63,184,000 bu, as against 3,0.0,000 bu same date in 1903. Amount in 21,000,000 bu ships decreased 1,000,000 bu. Of Wheat and Flour afloat from July 1, 1903, to May 14, 1904. Russia shows an increase of 14,800,000 bu and Argentina of 34,000,000 bu. Australia decreased 14,000,000 bu and India 10,000 bu last week. Stock a year ago, 1,440,000 bu. Discussing the problem of the possible effect of the large arrivals of Wheat now afloat on the foreign markets and the effect on prices in this country, Broomhall's "Corn Trade News" writes: 'A good deal of attention is now centered on the quantity of Wheat afloat, which is now about 16,000,000 bu above the corresponding period of last year. The excess is largely due to the unusual liberal quantities of Australian, with the long usitant voyage, and some anxious inquiries are being made as to what would be the probable effect on the trade if the bulk of these cargoes arrived off the coast, more especially if this took place in midsummer and European crop prospects looked bright. A large trade continues to be done in Indian Wheat, and shippers appear to admittedly one of the largest gathered, the ready manner in which exporters are able to make sales of parcels as low as 1,000 qrs, and any time to suit as a heavy weight on the market. The use of Indian Wheat consumption is spreading, and Germany is taking a larger quantity probably than ever before. Russian shipments are disappointing Americans, and a good demand can always be relied upon in this country, especially among our North country millers, with whom good Indian Wheats are always in favor." The Liverpool crop situation was thus summed up by Broomhall's "United Kingdom—Everything promises well except Wheat. It is now definitely known that the loss in the Winter Wheat area will not be made up by a corresponding increase in the Spring Wheat area. France, Germany, Italy, Spain and North America—Weather continues seasonable and crop prospects generally favorable. Beneficial rains have fallen which were needed for the crop. Roumania-Bulgaria—Good soaking rains are urgently needed. Unfavorable winter crop reports are received from the Southwest. Good rains have occurred in the Crimea. Australia—We confirm our previous surmise of there being good harvest weather, and the yield of Wheat and Barley is now practically completed elsewhere. The early sown is coming up and growing nicely in the Dakotas and Southern Minnesota, but variable conditions exist in Northern Minnesota. In Manitoba the crop has suffered from cold, but the outlook in Oregon is more favorable. The Kansas City Commercial Review Club, composed largely of Grain men, who just returned from a special trip through Kansas, Oklahoma and Indian Territory, "They were unanimous in saying Kansas will raise a bumper crop, provided it is favored with good weather. Northern Oklahoma fine; balance not so good, but should raise as much as a year ago. The San Francisco Commercial News of May 12 said "While a better crop of Wheat than was harvested last year is expected this year, the yield will on by no means heavy, probably not amounting to more than 60,000 tons. In the North the late rains delayed sowing and much of the acreage which was intended for Wheat was put under Barley; reports from several sections of the North indicate that the late sown is not looking so well as it might, but that the early sown is in fine condition." Minneapolis on Tuesday wired as follows: "The Minnesota Wheat acreage will be 3% per cent larger than last year and the Wheat acreage of South Dakota 19 per cent less. The North Dakotas acreage, which promised 5 per cent increase, will have about the same acreage as last year. The seeding in South Dakota and Minnesota will be finished this week. In North Dakota 10 per cent of the acreage has been seeded up to date. On realizing sales May reacted to 97½c, while July touched 87¾c and September 84¼c. The report that 250,000 bu No. 1 Northern would leave Duluth for Chicago was not realized the movement in this primary markets are still smaller than a year ago, and the total July 1 to May 18 four up 210,280,000 bu, against 237,910,000 bu in 1902-03 and 221,220,000 bu in 1901-02. Receipts here the week were 308,000 at 1,220,000 bu, and the total since July 1 aggregate 124,887 000 bu, compared with 100,282,000 bu same period in 1902-03. Bookings on the coast for forward shipments continue comparatively light. Argentina shipped 2,584,000 bu this week, making a total of 56,80.,000 bu since Jan. 1, as against 38,830,000 bu for the same period in 1903. The visible there is now reported 5,344,00 bu, compared with 5,410,000 bu one week ago and 4,120,000 bu one year ago. Indications are for a heavy reduction in the visible on Monday. Stocks in the Northwest are expected to show a large shrinkage.

CORN—The Corn market was only moderately active the past week, transactions still being chiefly for local account. Sentiment was very much mixed and the close is fully 1c lower than a week ago, while the July gained 8c and the September 4c. Values were affected on the one hand by the small receipts, the unfavorable weather for seeding and the upward tendency of Wheat, and on the other the lake situation, indifferent foreign demand, favorable weather and satisfactory advices regarding Corn planting. Frequent sensational local interests were arrayed on the "bull" side the closing days, and "shorts" covered on the advance which was not checked until July touched 49½c. May closed at 48½c, a net decline of 1c. There was too much rain through the West over Sunday, and Monday, statistics were construed as "bullish". Receipts were small and the early trade was better than expected, but prices bu worked on Monday and Tuesday. The visible supply decreased 702,000 bu, against 998,000 bu decrease last year. Total is now 6,195,000 bu, against 8,897,000 bu in 1903 and 4,193,000 bu in 1902. Local public and afloat stocks decreased 971,000 bu and are now 4,039,000 bu, against 1,448,000 bu same date in 1903. Stocks here in all positions were reduced 1,534,000 bu, to 2,763,000 bu, against 5,211,000 bu one year ago. Contract stocks were reduced 545,831 bu, and now include 1,866,000 bu, against 1,000,000 bu same date in 1903. Since here available supply decreased 1,312,000 bu, as against 1,412,000 bu decrease in 1903. Receipts here the week were 327 cars against 696 cars last week. The outward movement was fairly liberal, shipments of which went out all rail and stocks next week will probably make another "bullish" showing. There was more urgency in the demand. Shippers are paying 1½c per bu over the lake rate to Buffalo. Only boats of small tonnage were in shape to accept this rate, as the larger boats within the Lake Carriers' Association have not yet made terms with the strikers. Cash and futures markets were all stronger, notwithstanding the talk of free acceptances in the interior. Freight rates from the West will advance June 1 to a basis of 11c on Corn per 100 lbs from Missouri River to Chicago, and this may result in freer shipments of Corn from Nebraska and Iowa during the remaining days of this month. Around 49@49½c for July there was a freer speculative demand and the price receded to 48¾c. The weather conditions were considered ideal for field work and there was renewed activity in the movement of Corn. Iowa claimed 702,000 bu per cent of the acreage in this week, and soil conditions most favorable for germinating. The Illinois bulletin was likewise favorable and the Ohio weekly crop report bulletin stated that while Corn planting has been delayed in portions of Nebraska, Iowa and Missouri, this work as a whole has made favorable progress in the States of the Upper Mississippi and Missouri Valleys and has proceeded uninterruptedly in the Ohio Valley. Planting is in progress in the Dakotas, Minnesota, Michigan and New England. It has been nearly as in Wisconsin and Illinois. In Texas the crop is in fine condition and well cultivated, and is excelling in the southern part of that State. In the South Atlantic and Central and Gulf States work is generally backward owing to the rainy slow growth, the stands being unsatisfactory. The reported tie-up at Buffalo owing to the strike of Grain handlers indirectly working against the price, and closed "longs" to unload in many instances. Grain trimmers in this port also gave notice to vessel owners that in the future they will refuse to work on any cargoes not under the union terms to do the work. The union men insist on being employed direct by the owners. The movement through the West was considerably smaller than last year. Exports were light the past week at 178 600 bu and the total since July 1 aggregate 18,053,000 bu, against 30,000,000 bu for the same period in 1903. Acceptances at the seaboard were meager and foreign markets were dull and inclined to weakness. Argentine shipments were large at 1,096,000 bu, making since the first of the year 13,348,0.0 bu, as against 4,928,000 bu for the same period in 1903. The visible there is now 7,207,000 bu, against 7,907,000 bu one week ago and 1,814,000 bu one year ago. The call for car lots was very fair most of the week and the offerings limited. Prices were quite irregular, as will be noted in the sales to arrive and to grade.

OATS—The market for Oats was strong part of the time, but acted independently of Wheat and for a day or two weakened while Wheat rallied. The high figures for the season were reached early July, was not as good as at late, and it weakened under moderate selling pressure and closed steady at 39½c after a range of 37¾@39c. May was fairly strong and sold between 38½@39c and closed easy at 42c, a gain of 1c. The September had good support early, but dragged later and closed unchanged at 30½@30¾c. May sales gaining 9c. Crop reports were mostly favorable, although the weather was not warm enough in some sections for rapid growth. The general crop bulletin says of the crop conditions: "With the exception of variable conditions in Iowa and unpromising in Missouri, the general outlook for Oats in the principal States of the Central States is promising. In the South Atlantic and East Gulf States the crop is generally poor. Harvesting has begun in the Southern States, while seeding is finished in the northern portions of the Middle Atlantic States and the Red River of the Northwest valley." Cash business was moderate in the early part of the week and was only possible to do business in small lots at full prices. Receipts from the country were light, being 540 cars for the week, compared with 477 cars the previous week and 841 cars last year. In the sample market there was fair activity and, despite the small offerings, prices reacted 1c after an advance of 2c to 3c. Export clearances were 138,0.0 bu, against 89,000 bu the previous week and 151,0.0 bu last year. Local stocks in all positions decreased 501,000 bu last week and were 6,892,000 bu. Stocks of contract decreased 450,000 bu and are 1,157,000 bu, a reduction of 1,520,000 bu in three weeks. The visible supply decreased 907,000 bu and was 7,076,000 bu, compared with 6,674,000 bu last year.

RYE—An all round quiet market has existed during the past week, and the feeling has been firm, with car lots of fresh arrivals and May delivery selling 3@4c higher and other futures. July and August delivery, about 2c higher. Trading has been light, unusually light for that matter, both in cash and futures. There has been some demand, but nothing urgent, and buyers did not seem to care enough to purchase to meet sellers' views, which were somewhat above those of buyers. Hence only an occasional speculative trade was made. For fresh receipts there was a fair demand, millers and other dealers wanting a few cars for manufacturing purposes, but the light offerings prevented trading. The receipts for the week aggregated 34 cars, against 9 cars the previous week. There were no withdrawals from public elevators and 38 car loads were taken from private warehouses. Export clearances from the seaboard none. Visible supply decreased 16,000 bu and was reported at 970,000 bu, against 995,000 bu the previous week and 1,073,000 bu one year ago. The local stock in store was 387,000 bu and a year ago was 401,000 bu. No. 2 in store was quotable at 73c to 77c for round lots and fresh receipts free on board sold at 74½@78c. No 3 to go to store sold at 70½c and fresh arrivals free on board at 71@73c. No. 4 sold at 65@68c. A car not graded sold at 72c. For future deliveries of No 2 Rye the trading was light. May sold at 73c and later at 77c. July sold at 65c and later 67c bid August early 65c asked and later 68c asked September 63c asked and later was nominally 60c.

BARLEY—A moderate volume of business was transacted in this market during the past week. Offerings on the cash market were small and generally of common to fair quality. Demand for to-arrive lots was good, but there were only a very few sales, and it was said that the supply is about exhausted. There was a good demand for all grades of Barley, both mixers and maltsters being present. For good to choice Barley there was a good demand and the lower grades were at all times salable. The tone of the market was firm and prices exhibited little or no change. Inspected in during the week 65 cars, compared with 51 cars the week before and 76 cars two weeks ago. There was taken out 21,275 bu; withdrawals a week ago were 14,700 bu and two weeks ago 65,125 bu. No exports from New York reported the past week. The visible supply decreased 102,000 bu, and last report gave 2,297,000 bu, against 1,126,000 bu for the same time last year. Local stock decreased 14,434 bu and it was 294,000 bu, against none a year ago. Prices for the week covered a range as follows: Screenings—27@39c for poor to choice. Barley—low grade feed or mixing nominally 35@38c; outside good weight. Malting, low grade, 40@42c; fair to good, sound, 45@48c; good color, 50@55c, and fancy 58c.

SEEDS—There has been but little business transacted during the past week and the changes in values were very modest. Receipts were small as it is just between seasons and last year's crop apparently cleaned up. Shipments were also very moderate.

Timothy—Values for either cash or future did not vary materially during the past week. There was no interest taken in the market for spot or may delivery. For September there were both buyers and sellers, but their views on values were generally about 10c apart and this prevented trading. There were only meagre offering of cash Seed and what small lots did come upon the market were of low to fair grade. At all times during the week there was a very firm feeling in the market but there was no change in values. Both receipts and shipments were larger than a year ago. Aggregate movement as indicated by the daily reports, with comparisons was as follows:

Receipts the past week, lbs.	419,080
The previous week	601,072
Two weeks ago	659,290
Same time last year	284,870
Shipments the past week, lbs.	456,580
The previous week	337,050
Two weeks ago	417,140
Same time last year	258,738

Contract spot or May delievery stood at a nominal quotation of $3 00@3 05; closed at $3 05. September was usually salable at around $3 20 and when there were sellers it was at 10c above that figure. There was for country lots a quotable range of $2 00@3 00 for low grade to fancy, choice about $2 80@2 95, fair to good Seed $2 60@2 75, and rough at $2 40@2 50.

Flax—During the week there were losses of 1@1½c for both cash and futures, but at the close there was a steady market and the losses of the early part of the week were entirely recovered. The market was practically nominal, the only signs of life were the sales of stray car loads now and then. Receipts were small here, also in the Northwest, but this is expected around this season. Speculative market was entirely neglected during the week. Postings showed 42 cars received during the week; the previous week arrivals were 25 cars and two weeks ago 18 cars. The output during the week was 9,907 bu: the week before there was none taken out, and two weeks ago 39,267 bu. There was no change in Chicago stock; 24,201 bu reported, against 73,616 bu a year ago. Duluth had 44,000 bu increase, reporting 8,109,000 bu, and Minneapolis, with 41,373 bu decrease, had 563,527 bu. No. 1 Northwestern covered a range of $1 08@1 09; closed at $1 09. No. 1 was nominally 99½@$1 01; closed at $1 00 Rejected 96c@$1 01, outside for choice from the Northwest. May delivery was quoted at $100@1 01; closed at $1 10, and July was $1 01½@1 02, closing at $1 02. Quotations for September delivery varred from $1 03 to $1 05½, closing at $1 06½ sellers.

Clover—During the past week the market has been very quiet and without any important change. Receipts were small and the quality was generally low grade, as the receipts have been comprised mostly of tail ends of last year's crop. There was no interest taken in futures as there were no offerings and no one seemed disposed to make any bids. The movement for the week was as follows:

Receipts the past week, lbs.	147,980
The previous week	182 8 5
Two weeks ago	109 856
Same time last year	31 700
Shipments the past week, lbs	155,3.0
The previous week	36,0.0
Two weeks ago	32,980
Corresponding week last year	4,-00

The market for contract spot Seed was nominal during the week at $10 75. Country lots common to choice, $7 75@10 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $6 00@8 00; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 50.

Other Seeds—There has been practically a nominal market all the week, which was due to lack of offerings. There was no change in prices and the feeling was steady. Prices quoted from day to day are shown in the table elsewhere given. Receipts and shipments, with comparisons, were as follows:

Receipts—The past week, lbs.	534 570
A week ago	707,910
Two weeks ago	608,4.0
Same time last year	419.615
Shipments—The past week, lbs.	663,110
A week ago	921,760
Two weeks ago	877,013
Same time last year	256,382

Buckwheat remained nominally steady at $1 40@1 45. Sowing demand has not yet started.

HAY—The receipts for the week were 3,602 tons, against 3,533 tons for the previous week. Shipments for the week were 295 tons, against 167 tons for the previous week. A good demand existed for both Timothy and Prairie Hay during the past week. The arrivals were small and trade was as active as the offerings would permit. All descriptions sold readily and a firm feeling prevailed, with prices 50c per ton higher for the best grades. The demand for Straw continues urgent and prices ruled firm. Quotations at the close ranged as follows: Choice Timothy, $14 00@14 50; No. 1 Timothy, $12 50@13 00; No. 2 Timothy, $10 50@11 00; No 3 Timothy, $8 50@10 50 Choice Prairie, $11 00@11 50; No. 1 Prairie, $9 50@10 50; No. 2 Prairie, $8 00@8 50; No 3 Prairie, $7 00@7 50; No. 4 Prairie, $6 50@7 50. Inside prices on Prairie Hay for State and outside for Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa Hay. Sales ranged at $6 50@14 50 for poor to choice Timothy, $6 70@8 00 for State, and $10 00@11 50 for Iowa and Kansas Prairie Hay. Rye Straw sold at $13 50@15 00. Wheat Straw at $9 00, and Oat Straw at $6 00@9 50 for poor to choice.

COOPERAGE Trade was comparatively light in the market for Cooperage, and the feeling was fairly steady. Local buyers were rather backward and outside orders were light. Offerings were not very large, and holders rather firm in their views. Ash Pork Barrels were quiet and steady at 92½@95c. Oak Pork Barrels were in light demand and steady at 97½c@$1 00. Lard Tierces were called for moderately, and prices were steady at $1 32½@1 35. Iron bound Lard Tierces were quiet and quotable at $1 10@1 12½ for six hoop and $1 20@1 22 for eight hoop.

HOGS—Only a moderate supply of Hogs was marketed during the past week—less than generally anticipated. Quality rather good. Market was fairly active througout the week. Packers purchased a good proportion of the offerings, and shippers provided for a fair number of orders from the Eastern markets. Early in the week, the feeling was rather steady, and prices were slightly advanced. Later, the feeling was not so strong, and buyers were backward. Prices declined 5@10c on all grades, and the the market closed rather steady at the reduction. Sales during the week were made at $4 35@4 85 for light, $4 35@4 85 for rough packing, $4 45@4 90 for mixed, and $4 60@4 95 for heavy packing and shipping lots. with the bulk of the sales at $4 6 @4 85 for fair to good averages. At the close about 4,000 Hogs remained in the pens unsold. Pigs were in fair supply, and changed hands at $3 80@4 60, according to weight and condition. Receipts of Hogs at the other large Western packing points were fair, and the quality was rather good.

PACKING—With a moderate supply of Hogs and rather a firm market, business at the packing houses was not very large during the past week. Manufacture of Products was moderate, and confined as much as possible to descriptions most in request. Mess Pork neglected. Other cuts of Pork made sparingly. Lard produced rather freely, and the average yield was quite good. Only a small proportion placed in tanks. Domestic cuts of Hams made in fair quantities, and only a small proportion delivered from the block. Skinned Hams met with a little more favor, and the bulk cured by manufacturers. Foreign cuts of Hams neglected. Shoulders made in small quantities and a fair proportion delivered from the block. Picnic Hams cut in fair quantities, and the bulk cured by manufacturers. Long Clear Sides and Extra Long Clear Sides made very sparingly. Short Clear Sides cut in limited quantities. Short Rib Sides made moderately. Extra Short Rib Sides cut in limited quantities. Rough Sides made in fair quantities by the larger houses, and chiefly of medium averages. Bellies and Backs made sparingly. Plates and Butts cut in limited quantities. Loins cut rather freely for current requirements. Foreign fancy and special cuts of Meats made in limited quantities.

PROVISIONS—Only a fair trade in the aggregate was reported in the market for Hog Products, and the feeling was somewhat unsettled, and prices irregular. Outside operators apparently were not particularly interested in the market, and local operators and packers traded in only fair quantities. There were no new features developed to influence the course of the market and prices in either direction, and operators generally were indifferent about trading in liberal quantities. "Longs" realized moderately when prices were satisfactory, and "shorts" accepted a few lots when prices were favorable to their side. The supply of Hogs was not very large, and prices were fairly well supported—showing only a slight reduction for the week. Returns of the packing of the West for the week, compared with the corresponding week in 1903, exhibited a decrease of 70,000 Hogs, but this feature had no particular effect on the speculative market. The Grain markets were stronger in a general way, and this may have been a factor in checking the decline in prices. Supplies of the speculative articles are quite liberal for the season of the year, and in the aggregate are enlarging. The fact that the prospective Corn area will be large—possibly considerably in excess of that of 1903—and indicating a liberal yield, is viewed by the trade as a weak factor—regarding it as furnishing a liberal supply of Hogs for the packers during the winter and spring months. Operators, so far, have been cautious in trading in the deliveries for the new year, and the season may be late before any marked activity is manifested. Foreign markets were quiet and dull early in the week, but exhibited rather more strength toward the close. Domestic markets were quiet—distributors accepting only small quantities to meet current wants. Receipts of Products from the interior were fairly liberal, while the shipments in the aggregate were not very large. Exports for the week were moderately large. The speculative markets opened rather firm, and during the early part of the week manifested considerable strength. Prices were advanced somewhat on all the leading articles. At the extreme figures reached, there was some inclination to realize, and a weaker feeling was developed. Buyers were a little backward, and prices receded again to about inside figures, and the market closed rather easy. Considerable business in the way of transferring contracts from July to September at the current differences. The shipping branch of the trade was quiet. Exporters were not disposed to purchase, and the inquiry from the home trade was light. Holders, as a rule, were not pressing much property for sale, though supplies of all kinds are fairly large. Interior packers disposed of moderate quantities. Sales were only on a moderate scale, and there were no marked changes in prices.

Pork—Rather a good business was transacted in the market for Mess Pork, and the feeling was somewhat unsettled. Outside orders were moderate, and local trading was fair. Offerings were fairly liberal, especially toward the close, while the demand was moderately active. Stock on hand is quite liberal, and decreasing very slowly. Transfers of contracts from July to September were made at 2 @22½c difference. Early in the week, there was a fairly good demand, especially from "shorts," while the offerings were moderate. Prices on the whole range were advanced 25@30c. This improvement tended to enlarge the offerings, while the demand fell off, and the market weakened. Prices gradually receded 35@40c, and the market closed comparatively steady around inside figures. Demand on shipping account was somewhat limited, and offerings were moderate. Cash lots at the close were quotable at $10 90@11 00 Other cuts of Pork were in light request, and offerings were small. Trading was light, and there was no material change to note in prices.

Lard—Only a moderate business was reported in the Lard market during the past week. Outside operators were not inclined to trade to any extent, while local speculators were interested only moderately. Offerings in a general way were not very free, especially early in the week, while the demand was only fair and mainly from "shorts." Foreign advices were more favorable to holders. Stocks on hand are gradually enlarging, and the manufacture is only fair. Early in the week, the feeling was rather firm, with fair miscellaneous buying, and the market was rather firm. Prices gradually advanced 10@12½c on the whole range. At the advance, there was considerable realizing, especially by holders of small quantities, and a weaker feeling developed. Prices gradually settled back 15@17½c, and the market closed steady around inside figures. Transfers of contracts from July to September were made at 15c difference. A little inquiry prevailed for January delivery, but no trades were made public. Inquiry on shipping account was limited, and offerings were light. A few trades made at about 10@12½c discount on July figures—closing at $6 20@6 22½. Refined Lard was in moderate demand, and a few sales were made at prices not made public. Loose lots were in only fair request, and the offerings were moderate. Quotable at 55c discount on July figures. Leaf Lard was in rather good demand and a few trades were made at $5 75@5 87½, and closed steady at $5 72. Neutral was in only limited request, and offerings were fair. Market was rather easy and prices quotably steady at $5 75@6 87½ for No. 1, and $6 50@6 62½ for No. 2.

Short Rib Sides—The market for Short Rib Sides attracted considerable attention during the past week, and the volume of trading was fair. Outside orders were moderate, but there was considerable local interest manifested in the market. Packers were credited with fair purchases early in the week, while they sold the longer deliveries near the close. Supply on hand rather liberal. Manufacture only moderate. Early in the week, the feeling was rather firm, with fair miscellaneous buying, and prices gradually advanced 15@17½c on the whole range. At the improvement, there was some liquidation in a general way, while the demand slackened. A weak feeling was developed, and prices irregularly declined 17½@20c, and the market closed rather steady. Transfers of contracts from July to September were made at 15c difference. Inquiry on shipping account was rather light, and offerings were moderate. Holders rather firm in their views At the close, cash lots were quotable at $6 25@6 37½ according to weight.

Green Meats—Only a moderate trade was reported in Green Meats during the past week, and the market was comparatively steady. Local packers were not inclined to sell to any extent, while interior packers sold moderately. Local curers were slow to purchase, and outside orders were rather light. Prices were without material change. Hams were called for moderately, and prices ruled steady. Skinned Hams were quiet at about former prices. Shoulders were in small demand, and prices favored buyers. Picnic Hams were in moderate request, and prices unchanged. Bellies were in small demand, and prices steady.

Pickled Meats—Trade in Pickled Meats was on a moderate scale during the week just closed. Offerings were not very large, and the demand was only fair, and chiefly for small lots. Export demand limited, and domestic demand only fair. Stocks of all kind are fairly liberal. Foreign advices a little more favorable to holders. Hams were in moderate demand and a few trades were made at former figures. Skinned Hams were in fairly good request and prices were fairly well maintained on all averages. Shoulders were in light demand and prices favored buyers. Picnic Hams were called for in fair quantities, and prices were well maintained. Bellies were in small request and prices were unchanged.

Dry Salted Meats—Only a limited business was transacted in Dry Salted Meats during the past week. Exporters were not inclined to purchase, and the demand from the export trade was comparatively light. Foreign markets were quiet early in the week, but exhibited some strength toward the close, with moderate advances in prices of the leading descriptions. Domestic markets were dull and dragging. Demand from the South was limited. Local packers sold sparingly and outside packers offered moderate quantities. Supplies of all kinds are quite liberal. Shipments to foreign markets were fairly liberal. Foreign cuts of Hams were called for sparingly and prices ruled steady. Long Clear Sides were called for sparingly on export account, and prices ruled steady. Extra Long Clear Sides neglected and prices nominally unchanged. Short Clear Sides were quiet and prices rather steady. Extra Short Clear Sides were called for moderately and a few small lots changed hands. Prices ruled steadier and slightly higher—closing at 6@6¼c. Extra Short Rib Sides were in rather light demand and sold sparingly at a small advance—closing at 6@6⅛c. Rough Sides were called for moderately and offerings were only fair. Prices ruled about ⅛c higher, and closed at 6@6¼c according to weight. Plates in moderate request and prices ruled steady. Butts in light demand and prices unchanged. Bellies were called for moderately, and prices ruled steady. Backs were in small request and prices without material change. Foreign fancy and special cuts of Meats were quiet and prices nominally unchanged.

Smoked Meats—A moderate business was reported in Smoked Meats during the week just closed. Offerings and demand were only fair. Car lots were slow sale and there was very little improvement in the jobbing trade. Supplies of all kinds are fairly liberal. Hams were in moderate request and prices ruled steady. Skinned Hams were in fair demand at former figures. Shoulders were quiet and slow sale at ⅛c decline. Picnic Hams were in moderate demand with fair offerings and prices were unchanged. Sides of all kinds were in moderate demand and prices ruled about ⅛c lower. Breakfast Bacon called for moderately and prices were unchanged.

Beef Products—Trade was moderate in Beef Products in a general way during the past week.

Offerings were not very large and the demand was only fair. Domestic trade was comparatively light and the export demand was small. Some rumors prevailed of Government contracts, but nothing definite was made public. Foreign markets were quiet and home trade rather light. Cattle were in fairly good supply and prices well maintained on the better qualities. Manufactured of Prime was only moderate. Shipping steers. Dressed Beef were moderately free. Beef Hams were in rather light request and prices were comparatively steady. Extra Mess Beef quoted and prices favored buyers. Plate Beef was in rather light request and prices were about 25c lower. Extra Plate Beef in moderate demand and prices ruled about 25c lower. Tallow was quiet and slow sale, with prices favoring buyers. Oleo Stearine was in small request and rather easy at about former figures.

Greases.—Very little doing in Greases, and the feeling was dull. Offerings were comparatively small, and the demand was somewhat limited. Prices inclined in favor of buyers.

Chicago Bank Clearings to-day, $25,150,843.

Deliveries on May contracts to-day were 10,000 bu Wheat and 20,000 bu Oats.

Ten packers purchased 31,600 Hogs to-day; shippers 10,000; left over, 5,000. Market closed steady.

The output of the St. Louis Flour mills for the past week was 11,200 brls, against 32,700 brls for the previous week.

The Newark Savings Bank at Newark, Ohio, has closed its doors, and the court has appointed W. G. Taefel receiver.

The packing at Milwaukee since March 1 is estimated at 124,241 Hogs, against 110,120 for the corresponding time in 1903.

Estimated receipts for to-morrow: Wheat, 15 cars; Corn, 312 cars; Oats, 210 cars; Rye, 2 cars; Barley, 36 cars. Hogs, 18,000.

Orange Judd Farmer claims Winter Wheat has gained 2 to 3 points since May 1. This would indicate an increase of about 10,000,000 bu.

The quantity of Flour and Wheat on passage to Europe during the past week increased 328,000 bu, and the quantity of Corn increased 1,194,000 bu.

Condition of Prussian crop reported as follows: Wheat, 82; Rye, 80; Oats, 80; Potatoes, 74. Last year—Wheat, 73, Rye, 78; Oats, 78; Potatoes, 71.

Pittsburg says: "Shipments of soft Coal to the South during the last few days amounted to 8,500,000 bu, one of the largest shipments in recent years."

Exports of Flax Seed from India the past week were 760,000 bu, compared with 570,000 bu for the week previous, and 852,000 bu for the corresponding week in 1903.

Local Securities were slow but strong and prices averaged higher. Metropolitan Elevated preferred advanced 1½. Edison jumped 5 points. Carbon common lost 1½.

The average weight of the Hogs received at Chicago last week was 216 lbs, against 211 lbs the previous week, 230 lbs the corresponding week in 1903, and 219 lbs in 1902.

Members of the New York Stock Exchange have voted to recommend to the Governing Committee that the Exchange be closed on the Saturday before Decoration Day.

English visible supply of Wheat increased 687,000 bu, compared with an increase of 576,000 bu last week and an increase of 1,819,000 bu the corresponding week last year.

On the reverse page will be found the detailed report of the visible supply of Grain. Compared with the previous week there were decreases of 3,027,000 bu Wheat, 1,031,000 bu Corn, 834,000 bu Oats, 53,000 bu Rye, and 12,000 bu Barley.

Cotton in New York was weak and lower early, but reacted. Private estimates on acreage are for an increase of 7½ per cent over 1903. "Bears" were good sellers in the first hour, but had to cover later, making an advance. Closing sales were at gains of 7@17 points on near futures and losses of 2@5 points on deferred deliveries.

The Nashville correspondent of the Modern Miller says: "Good rains this week would have been of great benefit to growing crops but for the unseasonably cool weather. Wheat has made only ordinary progress, but the outlook is still for the best crop Tennessee has raised in three years."

East bound shipments of the past week are as shown in the following table:

	Flour, brls.	Grain, bu	Prov. tons
Past week	108,583	2,703,000	26,663
Previous week	98,678	2,338,000	26,023
Last year	40,342	934,000	2,159

In the New York Stock market an undercurrent of strength prevailed and a higher range of prices was secured. Strong interests were good buyers, and "shorts" absorbed a good deal of Stock, helping the upward movement. Western Railway shares gained ½ to 7/8, and Industrials ¼ to 1⅜.

The United States will head the list of nations as an exporter of domestic products in the fiscal year which ends with the coming month. The contest for supremacy as an exporter of domestic products has been for several years between the United Kingdom and the United States. The figures of domestic exports of the United Kingdom for the nine months ended with March 1904 were $1,073,736,266, and of the United States, $1,110,13[illegible], the total domestic exportation of the United States for the nine months in question being thus $36,[illegible] in excess of that of the United Kingdom. These figures, it will be observed, end with March. For the month of April the figures of the United States, as announced by the Department of Commerce and Labor, through its Bureau of Statistics, are $107,735,655, against $107,602,[illegible] of domestic exports in April, 1903. While the figures of the United Kingdom have not yet been received it is apparent that no sufficient change could possibly occur in the two months to reduce the certainty that the total exportation of domestic products from the United States in the fiscal year ending June 30 next will exceed that of the United Kingdom or any other country.

WORLD'S EXPORTS OF BREADSTUFFS.

The following table exhibits the exports of Breadstuffs from the following countries from July 1, 1903, to May 21, 1904, compared with the corresponding period in 1902-3:

Countries—	1903-4, bu.	1902-3, bu
America	111,688,000	218,067,000
Russia	127,354,000	111,898,000
Danubian	53,384,000	51,480,000
India	44,048,000	16,352,000
Argentina	73,400,000	39,608,000
Australasia	23,504,000	....
Austria-Hungary	5,214,000	2,661,000
Chili, North Africa	9,628,000	15,268,000

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS

FLOUR—The market was dull and the feeling easy all around.

WINTER WHEAT—Was quiet and steady. There was a light demand and some 25,000 bu mixed lots of Hard Winter were sold to millers. Offerings light. No. 2 Red in store nominally $1.05@1.06 and fresh arrivals free on board quotably $1.06@1.19. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals sold free on board at $1.00@1.05. No. 2 Hard Winter fresh receipts quotably 9[illegible]@$1.00. No. 3 Hard sold at 85@92c.

SPRING WHEAT—Was in only light demand and the market was quiet and steady. No. 1 Northern in store was quotable at 97½c@$1.00 and fresh arrivals free on board quotably about 99c@$1.00. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals nominally 90@96c. No. 3 Spring ranged at 85@97c for poor to choice. No. 4 Spring quotable at 64@87c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—Following an irregular session this market closed with losses of 1¾c for May and ½@1½c for the more deferred months. As the day wore away the offerings seemed to increase and the May was under pressure. Cash sales here were 25,000 bu low grade Hard Winter. The mood in Wheat was "bearish," but there was no great pressure on the market. Those who believe in lower prices doubtless recall the light supplies of Wheat in all the leading centers of this country outside of Minneapolis, while those who favor higher prices have only to cast their eyes upon the crop reports from nearly every section of the world where Wheat is grown. These conflicting conditions continue to restrict trade. Eastern millers are said to be looking around in San Francisco for Walla Walla Wheat, but are not likely to get any owing to light stocks there. The fact that Minneapolis received 231 cars Wheat to-day and Duluth got only 1 car attracted a great deal of attention as well as comment. One message from Minneapolis said that the big receipts there were occasioned by withdrawals from private houses and that the Wheat had not come in from the country. Another concern volunteered the opinion that the Wheat was made up largely of cars that had been detained or held on track. All the markets of the old world were closed owing to Whitsuntide holidays. The weather map showed favorable weather for Wheat and the same conditions are promised for the next 36 hours. World's shipments were 10,298,000 bu, compared with 1[illegible],000 bu a week ago and 12,432,000 bu a year ago. There was an increase in the amount on ocean passage of 328,000 bu, making the total amount destined for the importing countries of the world 53,512,000 bu. The visible supply decreased 3,027,000 bu, compared with a decrease of 3,4[illegible]3,000 bu a year ago. The total amount of Wheat in the visible supply is now 24,111,000 bu, compared with 28,038,000 bu a week ago and 27,[illegible]000 bu a year ago. The Prussian report was favorable for both Wheat and Rye. The Orange Judd Farmer says that the improved condition of Winter Wheat is marked in some of the States and slight in others, Michigan being the only State to show deterioration. Kansas reports favorable. Receipts at Duluth 1 car and at Minneapolis 231 cars, a total of 232 cars, against [illegible] cars Saturday, 117 cars a week ago, and 2[illegible] cars last year. Local receipts included 1 car Winter, 1 car Spring, no cars mixed, a total of 2 cars, against [illegible] cars last year. Included in the above was none of contract grade. There was also 54 cars and [illegible] bu from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 15 cars. Withdrawals to-day were 63,400 bu. Receipts at Western points were 337,[illegible]7 bu, against 435,624 bu last year; at Eastern points 32,240 bu against 475,2[illegible]3 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 314,945 bu, against 363,928 bu last year and from Eastern points 28,130 bu, against 116,830 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 22,[illegible]7[illegible] brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 137,455 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Moderate trade and prices lower.

MAY—Sold at 97⅝@99½c. Opened at 99½c, sold to 98⅞c, to 99c, to 97⅝c, to 98c, and closed at 98c.

JULY—Old Style—Sold at 88¼@89½c. Opened with sales at 89¼c to 89½c; sold to 88¾c, to 89⅛c, to 88¾c, to 89¼c, to 88¾c, to 88⅝c, to 88¼c, to 88⅞c, to 88¾c to 88½c, and closed at 88⅝c sellers.

JULY—New Style—Sold at 87¼@87¾c and at 88¼c. Opened with sales at 87⅞c to 88¼c; sold to 88⅛c, to 87½c, to 88c, to 87½c, to 87¾c, to 87⅛@87¼c, to 87⅜c, to 87¼c, to 87⅜c and closed at 87⅜c bid.

SEPTEMBER—Old Style—Sold at 82@82¾c. Opened with sales at 82¾c to 82⅞c, sold to 82¼c, to 82½c, to 82⅛c, to 82¼c, to 82c, to 82¼c; closed at 82¼c bid.

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 80⅜@81⅜c. Opened with sales at 81¼c to 81⅜c, sold to 80¾c, to 81⅛c, to 80⅝c, to 80¾c, and closed at 80½c sellers.

DECEMBER—Sold at 80⅛@81c. Opened at 81c and closed at 80¼c.

CORN—Unsettled at the close, with prices ⅛@⅜c lower to unchanged. Irregular, with changes at no time violent. Cash sales here were 75,000 bu. The mood in Corn was "bearish" early. The factor was the increased amount of Corn for sale by farmers in Illinois and Nebraska, coupled with a lack of demand for the cash that was said to be so urgent a week ago. Business was again of a room-trading character. Along toward the close some of the early sellers turned buyers. The world's Corn shipments were 2,9[illegible],000 bu for last week, against 2,488,000 bu a week ago and 3,057,000 bu a year ago. The amount of Corn on ocean passage is 7,946,000 bu, showing an increase of 1,194,000 bu for the week. The visible supply decreased 1,031,000 bu for the week, making the total 5,161,000 bu, against 6,195,000 bu a week ago and 4,3[illegible]6,000 bu a year ago. Local receipts were 175 cars, with 11 contract; there were 125 cars and 85,000 bu taken from private houses and 81,000 bu from store. No cables were received owing to holidays on the other side. Western receipts 419,[illegible] bu, against 69[illegible],110 bu a year ago. Clearances small at 11,000 bu. Car lots were in liberal supply and prices ½@2c lower. Demand fair. No. 2 closed about 49c. No. 2 Yellow sold at 50c and closed at 50@50½c. No. 3 sold at 48¼@49c—outside yellow—and closed at 48¼@48½c. No. 3 Yellow sold at 49¼c, and closed at 49½@[illegible]c. No. 3 White sold at 49½c. No. 4 sold at 46½@47c. No Grade sold at 38@39c.

Corn by sample—Was in large supply and demand fair. Feeling weak, and prices declined 1@2c. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 35½@38c. No. 4 at 44@45c. No. 3 at 47½@48½c. No. 3 Yellow at 48¼@50½c. No. 2 at 49½@50c. No. 2 Yellow at 50@51¼c. No. 3 White at 48[illegible]@49c. No. 2 White at 50½c. Billed through: No Grade at 38@41c. No. 4 at 42@46½c. No. 3 at 47@47½c. No. 3 Yellow at 48½@49½c. No. 2 at 49¼c. No. 2 Yellow at 49½c. No. 3 White at 47@48½c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—This market was unsettled and irregular, closing unchanged to ⅛@⅜c lower.

MAY—Sold at 47½@47⅞c. Opened at 47¾c, sold to 47½c to 47⅞c and closed at latter asked.

JULY—Sold at 47¾c to 48½@48⅝c. Opened at 48⅛c, to 48½@48¾c, sold to 48¼@48⅜c, to 47¾c, to 48½@48⅜c, to 48⅛c to 48¼c. Closed at 48¼@48⅜c bid.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 47@47⅝c. Opened at 47⅜c to 47½c, sold to 47c, to 47⅜c to 47¼@47⅜c, to 47⅜c, closing at 47⅜@47½c asked.

DECEMBER—Sold at 41¾c to 42½@42⅝c. Opened at 42[illegible], sold to 41¾c, to 42¼c, to 42½@42⅝c, closing at 42⅜c asked.

MAY—1905—Sold at 41¾@41⅞c; closed at latter.

OATS—There was good trading, with the feature the liquidation in May. It declined ⅛c from Saturday's close and finished at a net loss of ¾c. July was sold to a liberal extent and broke ⅜c, but finished ⅛c lower. September developed steadiness and closed a shade better. Good weather and predictions of liberal receipts for to-morrow, 210 cars, had a depressing affect. Arrivals to-day were 95 cars, with 7 cars Standard from private elevators. Withdrawals were 41,000 bu and cancellations 20,000 bu Standard. Local stocks in public houses decreased 38,000 bu. The visible decreased 834,000 bu. Export clearances 111,000 bu. Cash sales were 75,000 bu. Car lots to go to store were ½@1½c lower. No. 4 White at 40@40½c. No. 3 White at 41½@42¾c. Standard at 42¾c. Standard in store closed at 40⅝@41¼c as to location.

Oats by sample were taken fairly and under increased offerings prices receded ½@1c. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 White at 38@42c. No. 3 at 38¼@39c. No. 3 White at 41@43c. Standard at 42@43c. Billed through: No. 4 at 37@39c. No. 4 White at 39@42c. No. 3 White at 41½@42c. Standard at 42@42½c. No. 2 at 40½c. No. 2 White at 43c. At the river: No. 4 at 37½c. No. 4 White at 39@40c. No. 3 White at 40@40½c. Standard at 41¼c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were weak and lower.

MAY—Sold freely by "longs." Sold at 40½@41½c. Opened at 41c, sold to 41¼c, to 40½c, to 40¾c at close.

JULY—Moderate trading. Sold at 38c and at 38¼@38⅜c. Opened at 38⅛c, sold to 38c, to 38¼@38⅜c, to 38⅛@38¼c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Steadier. Sold 30½@30¾c. Opened at 30½c to 30⅝c, sold to 30¾c, to 30⅝@30¾c at close.

RYE—The market was quiet and steady. There was a light demand and limited offerings. The receipts were eight cars and there were four cars withdrawn from private warehouses. No export clearances from the seaboard. The visible supply decreased 53,000 bu and local stock in public elevators increased 35,000 bu. No. 2 in store nominally 77c, and two cars fresh receipts sold at 77½c. No. 3 fresh arrivals sold at 74@77c for choice, and quotably as low as 70c for common.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet. May was 77c sellers. July 67c bid and 68c asked. August nominally same as July. September nominally 60c.

BARLEY—There was some increase in offerings of malting Barley. The increase was not important, yet enough, on account of few buyers appearing to cause a weaker feeling. Sellers experienced the necessity of shading prices. There was quoted ½@1c decline. Mixing Barley and Screenings at the same time remained in small supply and steady. Only 8 cars posted in and 500 bu taken out. Visible supply showed a fair decrease, but for all that it remains larger than a year ago. A few cars of Screenings were sold at 34@38c, and there was a quotable range of 28@39c for poor to choice. Barley—low grade feed or mixing nominally 35@43c; outside good weight Malting, low grade, 40@42c; fair to good sound, 45@48c, good color, 49@58c, and fancy 58c; extra fancy held above.

SEEDS—A few cash sales of Timothy was the limit of the business done. As a rule the market was bare of offerings. Steadiness of prices prevailed; in no instance was there any change to note.

Timothy—Nothing new in any way developed. Little cash Seed on sale and futures neglected. Values could not be called changed. Some cash sales of common to fair quality were made at $2.[illegible]@2.40 and on the range country lots were quotable at $2.00@3.10 for low-grade to fancy choice at about $2.80@2.90 fair to good Seed $2.[illegible]@2.75 and rough at $1.[illegible]@2.50. Contract spot or May delivery nominally about $3.05. July quoted at $3.10. September was offered at $1.30 and $3.[illegible] was bid.

Flax—Was nominal, there being a market generally devoid of sellers, and while no demand especially was indicated, yet about former prices could be obtained. Values were quoted as last the same as last week. No. 1 Northwestern was nominally $1.09. No. 1 at $1.0[illegible]. [illegible] quotable at 97c@$1.00. May delivery quotable $1.02. July at $1.03, bid and $1.03½ asked. September nominally about $1.06½. Local receipts 9 cars or 7,000 bu, and none taken out. Minneapolis got 14 cars and Duluth 3 cars. No change in Chicago stock, it was 24,200 bu against 76,300 bu a year ago.

Clover—Was inactive and nominal. Order trade is well over. Local stock said to be small and hardly any Clover coming in. Market in a nominally unchanged state. Contract spot Seed was nominally $10.75. Country lots common to choice, $7.7[illegible]@10.00; fancy above, mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds $6.00@8.00; poor or cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3.00@6.00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $5.50@9.50.

Other Seeds—It is the season for increased orders for late-sowing Seeds and a very fair business was reported. Tone of the market firm. There were no open-market offerings. Sales as follows: Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark, at $1.15@1.65. Common Millet, $1.00@1.40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1.00@1.5[illegible]. Siberian, 90c@$1.10. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 85c@$1.05. Mustard [illegible]@$1.[illegible]. Buckwheat nominally firm; quotable at $1.10@1.45 for good.

HOG PRODUCTS—A fairly good speculative business was reported in Hog Products, and the undertone to the market was rather firm. Offerings were not very free, and there was a fairly good demand on outside and local account. The general surroundings of the trade were not very favorable for the "long" interest, but appeared to have little effect. Hogs were in liberal supply, with prices lower, and a slow market. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western markets were estimated at 78,100, compared with 77,000 one year ago. Foreign Provision markets were closed, and the domestic markets were quiet and steady. Receipts of Products were rather liberal—of Lard and Meats about 27 cars. Shipments were fair—of Lard and Meats about 1[illegible] cars. The speculative market opened rather easy, owing to the large receipts of Hogs, and prices ruled slightly lower for some descriptions. The demand, however, was quite active all around, and offerings were readily absorbed, resulting in a fair advance in prices. Market closed rather steady at nearly outside prices. Packers were credited with fair purchases. Shipping demand was moderate and offerings were only fair. Sales were somewhat limited and prices were without material change. Exports for the week compared with the corresponding week in 1903 exhibit a decrease of [illegible] lbs Pork and [illegible] lbs Lard, and an increase of [illegible] lbs Meats.

Mess Pork—Trade was fair in the market for Mess Pork and the feeling in a general way was stronger. Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderately active. At the opening the feeling was easy, and prices ruled about 5c lower, which was followed by a further reduction of 5c. Later, a stronger feeling was developed with a fair good miscellaneous buying and prices rallied 2[illegible]@5c. Toward the close the feeling was not so strong and prices settled back 2½@5c, and the market closed steady. Shipping demand was light and offerings were small. Cash lots quotable at $11.00@11.05.

MAY—Quiet and quotable at $11.00.

JULY—In rather good demand with fair offerings. Sales were made at $10.85@11.10. Opened at $10.9[illegible], sold to $10.92½, to $10.85, to $10.97½, to $11.0[illegible], to $11.10, to $11.05, to $11.07½, to $11.02½, to $11.07½, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Offerings were not very large, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $11.10@11.32½. Opened at $11.12½, sold to $11.15, to $11.10, to $11.15, to $11.12½, to $11.20, to $11.17½, to $11.2[illegible]½, to $11.27½, to $11.3[illegible], to $11.25, to $11.27½, to $11.25, to $11.30 and closed steady.

Lard—A fair business was reported in the Lard market, and the feeling was not very strong. Offerings were moderate and the demand was only fair. Early the feeling was easy with a little pressure to sell and prices were about 2½c lower, which was followed by a further reduction of 2½c. Later, the feeling was stronger, with moderate trading, and prices rallied 5@12½c and the appreciation was fairly well supported to the close. Inquiry on shipping account limited and offerings only moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6.2[illegible]@6.27½. Loose lots in small request, with moderate offerings. Prices steady at about 55c discount on July figures. Leaf Lard in moderate request and offerings were fair. Prices were quotably lower at $5.[illegible]@5.[illegible]. Neutral was in only limited demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $6.62½@6.75 for No. 1 and $6.37½@6.50 for No. 2.

MAY—Quiet and quotable at $6.15@6.17½.

JULY—In fair request and offerings were moderate. Sales were made at $6.22½@6.35. Opened at $6.25 to $6.27½, sold to $6.22½, to $6.35, to $6.32½, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Offerings were not very large and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $6.40@6.50. Opened at $6.42½, sold to $6.40, to $6.50 and closed quiet.

Short Rib Sides—Considerable interest was manifested in the market for Short Rib Sides, and the feeling was rather firm. Offerings were not very large, and the demand was moderately active. Trading largely local. Opening trades were made at 2½c decline, and a further reduction of 5c was submitted to. Later, there was quite a good general demand, and prices rallied 5@12½c on the whole range. Toward the close the feeling was not quite so strong, and prices receded 2½@5c, and the market closed steady. Shipping demand was light and offerings were small. Cash lots quotable at $6.25@6.37½, according to weight.

MAY—Quiet and quotable at $6.30.

JULY—In rather good demand, with fair offerings. Sales were made at $6.30@6.42½. Opened at $6.35, sold to $6.30, to $6.42½, to $6.37½@6.40, to $6.40, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderately active. Sales were made at $6.47½@6.60. Opened at $6.50@6.52½, to $6.57½, sold to $6.47½, to $6.50, to $6.55@6.57½, to $6.57½, and closed steady.

Other Meats—Trade was only moderate and feeling rather steady. Offerings were not very large and the inquiry was not very large. Exporters bought sparingly and the home trade was moderate. Green Meats in limited supply, with moderate inquiry, and prices unchanged. Pickled Meats in moderate demand, and prices ruled steady. Dry Salted Meats were in only fair demand, with moderate offerings and prices favored sellers. Smoked Meats called for in limited quantities, and prices ruled steady. Closing prices ranged as follows:

GREEN Hams, av 10@12 lbs, 9½@9¾c; 12@14 lbs, 9⅝@9¾c; 14@16 lbs, 8⅞@9c; 16@20 lbs, 9⅛@9½c. Skinned Hams 10@10½c. Shoulders, 6@6¼c; Picnic Hams 5¾@7½c. Bellies 8¼@9c. CROPS IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

United Kingdom—Favorable crop weather continues to prevail in this country, and, indeed, throughout Western Europe. A fair quantity of rain has already fallen during May, which is bound to be of much benefit to grass lands and spring crops: Winter Wheat would doubtless do better with sunshine than rain, but the acreage being so small this season, it will be much to the advantage of growers if the weather favor the spring seedings. What growers want now are higher temperatures to induce quicker growth and avert damage from May frosts; so far this season there have been but few spring frosts, although the wind has been mostly in a cold quarter and the prevailing temperature rather low. Relatively fair quantities of British Wheat continue to come forward, but prices have receded—the average of 27s 4d reported last Saturday was below last year's in same week.

Russia Crop reports continued of a varied character. There appears to be no doubt, however, that in some important parts of the Southwest the outlook is far from favorable, although the drouth there has now been relieved to some extent. There are also some complaints from Azoff districts, but the Crimea and Southeast send favorable reports. Port stocks are quite moderate, but exports are large. It is to be presumed, therefore, that the stuff is sent away as fast as it comes forward.

Roumania—Only light showers have fallen, and the crop situation in the Braila district is becoming serious. Prayers for rain are being offered. In the higher districts the crops are reported to look well and field work is making good progress. Shipments keep small, but larger supplies are now arriving at the ports.

India—Mail advices continue to report satisfactorily of the harvest.

Australasia—Mail advices just to hand say that in some districts of Victoria Wheat sowing was finished by April 2. and the land was in good condition to make a satisfactory seed-bed. Shipments last week were large, viz., 250,000 qrs. making 2,750,000 qrs shipped so far this season Although we do not expect to see such another large weekly total this season, yet we quite think the movement will be well maintained, for ships are still being chartered and our advices say that farmers have been holding their Wheat tenaciously.

Argentina—Weather conditions have improved, and this has been reflected in the condition of the new Corn. Wheat shipments last week were well maintained, but less was sent to Europe; arrivals at the ports were liberal.

France—The standing crops continue to give full satisfaction to growers, who are thus encouraged to offer their old Wheat freely and at lower prices; millers, however, are still inclined to hold back.

Italy—The Wheat crop has continued to make satisfactory progress, although there are still complaints of fields infested with weeds. Corn planting has been finished under favorable conditions.

Spain—We have further reports that crop conditions generally in the Peninsula are good; rains are still wanted in some districts

Holland and Belgium—The weather generally is seasonable.

Germany—Reports from various parts of the German Empire describe crop prospects as fair to good. The weather, on the whole, is seasonable, but rather cold. In some districts growers are delivering native Wheat more freely, but generally supplies are meager.

North Africa—Algeria reports favorable weather and excellent harvest prospects. In a normal year harvest should have commenced at this date, but this season cutting is not expected to begin before May 25. Tunis has promise of an abundant harvest, fully equalling last year's, which was the best since 1891 and gave nearly 4,000,000 bu Wheat for export, and quite as much Barley. It is expected that shipments of Barley will be made to the United Kingdom in the coming season.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Indications are for somewhat cooler weather in Western Lake Region and central valleys. Scattered showers probable.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The Union Railway Company of New York reports for the quarter ended March 31 a deficit after charges of $41,570, an increase of $33,609.

Speyer & Co, bankers, New York, and their European houses will offer for public subscription this week $35,000,000 Cuban 5 per cent Gold bonds.

Stockholders of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, at a special meeting, Thursday, ratified the proposed issue of $9,000,000 of additional preferred stock

The Columbus Gas Light and Heating Company has declared a dividend of 8 per cent on the preferred stock, payable June 15 to stockholders of record June 1.

A Coke oven, to cost $1,000,000—the first of its kind ever established outside the Anthracite regions of Pennsylvania—is to be erected in South Chicago. Ground was broken, Thursday, for the great plant, which will cover six blocks.

An official Italian bulletin covering the last ten days of April says that Wheat continues to promise well, although the recent damp weather has favored the growth of weeds. The planting of Corn is about finished and the weather has favored germination.

The receiver has rendered his preliminary report on the bankrupt estate of R. H. Plant and the I. C. Plant's Sons Bank, Macon, Ga., as follows: Liabilities, $2,243,228; assets, $1,399,177; making a net deficiency of $844,051. The general opinion is that the bank will not pay more than 10c on the dollar.

It is said that H. H. Rogers has turned over to B. F. Thayer the entire management of the Amalgamated Copper Company. Mr. Thayer is to be supreme in all that concerns the company, and will dictate its policy, both as regards its actual business management and its policy with respect to the Montana situation.

The average price of good Beef Cattle at Chicago for the past week was $4 90, the highest since the week ending Sept. 26 last, when the average was $5 10. The week's average stood 15c higher than the previous week, 45c above the week of Feb. 13 (the low week of the year to date), 20c higher than a year ago, but $2 05 lower than the high period two years ago.

In reference to the proposed reorganization plan of the United States Realty and Construction Company, the president states that the details have not yet been completed, and that he could not say when the plan would be in shape to be made public. He says: "As the situation now stands, it is too indefinite to say anything concerning the proposed plan."

The Corn Trade News, May 9, says of the French crops: "The weather continues to favor the crops and no complaints are heard of want of rain, although what fell last week was very light. The Wheat crop looks well everywhere, and the good prospects have induced holders to make further concessions, which, however, were not sufficient to induce millers to come in and buy freely."

There are rumors current to the effect that the Amalgamated Copper Company is to take over the Montana Coal and Coke Company. The president of the latter company says that a deal for the sale of the property is under way, and that an announcement will be made as soon as the examination of the property, which is now in progress, is completed, which will be in the immediate future.

The financial statement of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company shows that the assets of the company for the fiscal year ending Dec. 31, 1903, shows the gross earnings from operation to have been $34,758,081; operating expenses and taxes (79.70 per cent), $27,711,155; net earnings from operation, $7,056,926; income from other sources, $2,336,869; gross income, $9,393,795, or a decrease of $734,996 from the previous year; total net income, $4,471,031, or a decrease of $2,261,491 from the previous year. The surplus is $761,043. The operating expenses included $6,534,505 spent for equipment and betterments.

Broomhall's weekly foreign crop summary says: "United Kingdom, France, Germany, Italy—Crop conditions continue favorable, but growth of plant rather slow Roumania—It is thought recent rains reported in the region around Braila came too late to save crop Elsewhere conditions are fair to good Russia—Taking the country as a whole, there has been some improvement in crop prospects, but reports from different sections are varied. Complaints chiefly refer to Rye. North Africa—Crop outlook continues most favorable. Sweden—Season is late."

WEATHER BUREAU REPORT.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—Weather Bureau weekly summary, issued at noon, says:

Wheat—Seeding is practically finished except in North Dakota, where its well advanced, and the early sown is coming up and stooling well. Rain is needed in Southern Minnesota, Montana, and North Pacific Coast. The rain is needed to germinate the late sown. The crop was advanced favorably in Nebraska and Kansas, and generally in Missouri, but in portions of last named State the outlook somewhat less promising. Improvement reported from Illinois, Michigan and Ohio, where, however, the condition of the crop is very poor In Middle Atlantic States the crop has made satisfactory progress, and a general improvement is noted on the Pacific Coast. The crop sustained slight damage from dry winds in California but the crop continues to do well in Oregon and Washington.

Corn—Planting has advanced favorably, except in parts of Central Mississippi and Ohio Valleys, where it has been prevented by wet soil. In Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas planting is nearly completed, but in Missouri it is only about half finished and much remains to be planted where this work has been greatly delayed In the Central and Gulf States the plant is generally small and backward, but has made good growth in Texas Cut worms have proved very destructive in Kentucky.

Oats—General outlook in the principal Oats producing States is promising. Seeding is finished except in the extreme Northern districts, and harvest is in progress in the Southern States In the East Gulf States light yields are generally reported, and in Missouri a crop below the average is indicated.

Cotton—Continues backward and has made slow progress during the past week throughout the Cotton belt. Low night temperatures being generally reported as detrimental. Improved stands reported in portions of the Central and Eastern districts, but irregular stands are the rule. Chopping continues, and the fields are mostly cultivated. Lice are very extensively reported in the Central and Eastern districts, and the boll weevil continues to increase in Southwestern and Central Cotton counties in Texas

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS

FLOUR No demand to speak of, and feeling one of weakness. The little Flour that is changing hands is on domestic account usually. Export bids out of line.

WINTER WHEAT—Was quiet and weak. Demand light. No. 2 Red in store nominally $1 04@1 06 and fresh arrivals free on board quotably $1 05@1 09. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals free on board quotable at $1 04@1 07 No. 2 Hard Winter fresh receipts quotably 91@98c. No. 3 Hard sold at 90c and quotably 81@92c.

SPRING WHEAT—Was in only light demand and the market was quiet and 1@3c lower. No. 1 Northern in store was quotable at 93¾@94½c and fresh arrivals free on board quotably about 98c@$1 00. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals nominally 92@98c No 3 Spring ranged at 84@95c for poor to choice No. 4 Spring quotable at 64@88c for poor to choice

REGULAR WHEAT—May was off 2¾c for the day, while the more deferred months declined from 1c to ¼c, the far-away losing the least. After the receipt of the weather crop bulletin, the selling was on in earnest, but there was some reaction and recovery late in the session Cash sales were 15 loads at seaboard, 20,000 bu here at ¼c over May. The feature in an otherwise dull and dragging market was the sharp break in the May price, which was under pressure during the morning The "shorts" were inclined to back away from it rather than to take it on and even up their accounts. There was considerable in the news and circumstances surrounding the markets that favored the "bears," but they refused to make a great deal of it The world's available supply of Breadstuffs as compiled by Bradstreet's, showed a decrease of 645,000 bu for the week against a decrease of 3,831,000 bu for the corresponding period a year ago Of the above there was a decrease of 2,345,000 bu east of the Rockies, while there was an increase of 1,700,000 bu in the amount in Europe and afloat therefor. Crop news from abroad still favored the "bear" side of the market While the growth of Wheat was pronounced as rather slow in Italy, Germany, France and the United Kingdom, crop conditions were said to be favorable. In Roumania the conditions are fair to good save in the immediate vicinity of Braila where the rain is believed to have come too late to do much good in the matter of offsetting the long-drawn-out drouth that they have had in that section Russian Wheat conditions are better while Rye is not good, many complaints being heard of a later cereal. The season is late in Sweden, while in North Africa the outlook could not be improved on Contract stocks in Chicago public houses show a decrease of 95,802 bu for the week, and are now 585,712 bu, compared with 681,314 bu the previous week and 2,095 5 8 bu a year ago Total stocks of all kinds Wheat in all positions at Chicago are now 3,7.3 000 bu, compared with 5,0 2 6 0 bu a year ago Receipts at all points were considerably smaller than a year ago save at St Louis and Kansas City, where they were 13,000 bu, against 99,8 0 bu a year ago, shipments 131,000 bu. Receipts at Duluth 14 cars and Minneapolis 85 cars, a total of 99 cars, against 2 3 cars yesterday, 61 cars a week ago, and 119 cars last year. Local receipts included 8 cars Winter, no cars Spring, 2 cars mixed, a total of 10 cars, against 84 cars last year Included in the above was none of contract grade. There was also 20 cars and no bu from unlicensed elevators The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 4 cars. Withdrawals today were 77,700 bu. Receipts at Western points were 201,574 bu, against 319 632 bu last year; at Eastern points 21,900 bu, against 340 011 bu last year Shipments from Western points were 210,624 bu, against 366-869 bu last year, and from Eastern points 5,841 bu, against 248,177 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 14,519 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 72,311 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Only a moderate trade and prices lower.

MAY—Sold at 94¾@98c. Opened at 98c; sold to 96c, to 96½c, to 94¾c, to 95¼c, and closed at 95¼c.

JULY—Old Style—Sold at 87¼@87⅝c and at 88⅝c. Opened with sales at 88⅝c to 88½c; sold to 87½c, to 88¼c, to 88½c, to 87⅞c, to 88¼c to 87⅝c, to 87¾c, to 88¼@88⅛c, to 87⅞c, to 87¼@87⅜c, to 87⅝@87¾c, to 87½c, to 87⅝c, and closed at 87⅝c sellers

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 80¼@80¾c—only sparingly at 80¼c. Opened with sales at 80¾c to 80½@80⅝c; sold to 80½c, to 80⅜@80¾c, to 80⅜c, to 80½c, to 80¼c, to 80⅜c, to 80⅜@80½c, and closed at 80½c bid

DECEMBER—Sold at 79⅞@80¼c, and closed at 80¼c sellers

CORN—Lower all around, final prices showing losses of ¼@¾c for the day. May was the weakest spot in the list. The weather crop bulletin came upon a market that was already weak and declining, and as it was "bearish" a further recession resulted Cash sales were 130,000 bu here; 5 loads at the seaboard A feature as well as a factor in the Corn market was the selling by some of the people who led the buying yesterday. As these concerns are in close touch with the interior the selling was considered more or less influential and it was followed by the room trading element Reports from many sections of the Corn country are that the shipments are to increase, and loading reports along the Illinois Central bear out this assertion. Local contract stocks decreased 80,730 bu for the week, and are now 2,6 -60 bu, against 3 3 7 970 bu the week before and 1,045 862 bu a year ago Stocks of Corn in all positions in Chicago are now 5 203,000 bu, compared with 2 386,000 bu a year ago The world's available supply decreased 1,731 000 bu for the week, compared with a decrease of 874 000 bu a year ago No report from Liverpool, that market being closed to business The weekly weather crop bulletin was construed by the trade as "bearish" planting being finished in Missouri, Kansas and Iowa, and prospects are flattering in all sections. Primary receipts were 592,530 bu, compared with 801,770 bu a year ago. Clearances for the day were 36,297 bu Car lots were in fair request and offerings smaller. Prices ruled steady to ½c lower. No 2 closed at about 48¼c No 2 Yellow sold at 50c and closed at 49½c No. 2 White sold at 50c. No 3 sold at 48¼@48½c and closed at 47¾c No 3 Yellow sold at 49@50c, and closed at 49c. No 3 White sold at 49½c No 4 sold at 46@47c.

Corn by sample—Offerings not so large and demand moderate Prices steady to ½c lower except for white Corn which was ½c higher. Sales on track and free on board. No Grade sold at 37@42c. No 4 at 40@46c No 3 at 48@49c No. 3 Yellow at 49@50c No 2 at 48⅝c. No. 2 Yellow at 50@51c. No 3 White at 48@48¾c. No 2 White at 50@50¾c Billed through: No Grade at 38@42c No 4 at 44@48½c No. 3 at 48c No 3 Yellow at 48¾@49½c No 2 Yellow at 50c. No. 3 White at 48@48¾c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn Lower, many of the "longs" selling, and in addition to this, "short" lines were put out The close showed prices unchanged to ¾c lower, May being the weakest spot in the list

MAY—1905 Sold at 41¾@41⅞c.

OATS Were weak and declined ¼@¾c, but reacted and closed ¼@½c off. May and July leading There was unloading of May and July by leading "longs" and only moderate buying. Commission houses bought September, giving it fair support The crop bulletin was "bearish" and the weakness in other markets led to considerable local selling. Statistics were "bullish." Contract stocks decreased 389,000 bu last week and are 467,000 bu, and exceed last year Stocks in all positions decreased 571 000 bu for the week and are 2 308 500 bu Bradstreet's decreased 1,395 005 bu, against 363 000 bu in 1903 Predictions are for increased receipts in the near future. Arrivals were 224 cars, with 97 cars estimated for to morrow. Withdrawals were 47,200 bu and cancellations of Standard 118,000 bu. Seaboard clearances 6 900 bu Cash sales were 75,000 bu. Car lots to go to store were steady to ½c lower No. 4 White sold at 39c. Standard in store closed about 40½@40⅝c as to location.

JULY—Active Sold at 37⅝@38⅛c Opened at 38⅛c sold to 37⅝c, to 37¾c at close

SEPTEMBER Was fairly supported, selling at 30½c and at 30⅝@30¾c Opened at 30⅝c sold to 30¾c, to 30½c, to 30⅝@30¾c at close

RYE The feeling was easier and prices 1@2c lower Trade light There was no particular demand and there was no pressure to sell It was a featureless market No 2 in store was quotably about 75c, and fresh arrivals free on board quotably about 76@77c No 3 fresh arrivals quotably 68@75c, with a sale at 7 c There were only 4 cars received and there were nine cars withdrawn from private warehouse. No export clearances from the seaboard.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye Quiet and easy May 73c bid and 75c asked July sold at 66¼c and closed at 66c bid

BARLEY Business in this line fell off to almost nothing to day There was hardly any malting Barley on the spot market just a few cars Some demand existed and steady was quotable. Some bids were put out on low grade lots, but no transactions were learned of There were some cars of Screenings around usually dirty and seedy they were dull but buyers of this kind said to be salable only Twenty-two cars posted, they were ... Prices were not quotably changed for ... There were small sales of Screenings ... market had quotable range of ... choice, outside feed ... nominally ... good weight. Malting low grade 40@42c, fair to good ..., choice 49@55c, and fair to extra fancy above

SEEDS—Little was done, sales limited to a few lots of cash Timothy Prices changes were slight as noted below

Timothy Trade dull Little interest was shown Spot Seed sparingly offered There was some inquiry, enough so that consignments coming in were salable Futures inactive Buyers and sellers apart in the case of September and deliveries this side were not mentioned Country lots were quotable at $2 00@3 00 for low-grade to fancy choice about $2 80@2 90, fair to good Seed $2 50@2 75 and rough at $2 00@2 50 Spot or May delivery, contract Seed, nominally about $3 05 July quotable at $3 10 September again offered at $1 50 and $3 20 remained bid

Flax—There was le reduction in bids for Northwestern Seed No other changes to note No Flax was offered either for present or future delivery. Three cars or 1,500 bu posted received—none taken out. At Minneapolis receipts were 4 cars, at Duluth 35 cars For No 1 Northwestern the quotation was reduced to $1 18, No 1 remained nominally $1 00, and Rejected quotable at 97c@$1 00—outside for cash Northwestern May delivery was nominally $1 02. July held at $1 03; no sales. September nominally about $1 06

Clover This Seed remained inactive for lack of offerings and there was no particular demand. The season for Clover is practically over and former nominal prices prevail. Contract spot Seed was nominally $9 75. Country lots common to choice, $7 75@10 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds $8 00@8 00, poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00 Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 50

Other Seeds—Were inactive There were no consignments on sale German Millet prices were quoted a shade higher. There were no other changes. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark, at $1 15@1 65 Common Millet $1 00@1 46 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 15@1 65 Siberian 90c@$1 10 Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 85c@$1 05 Mustard, 8c@$1 5 Buckwheat nominally firm; quotable at $1 40@1 45 for good.

HOG PRODUCTS The market for Hog Products attracted only fair speculative attention, and the undertone to the market was rather easy. Hogs were in fair supply, and prices rather steady, but the Grain markets were weak and this feature encouraged a little selling of the leading articles in a general way. Offerings were moderately free and the demand was only fair, and chiefly from parties who were willing to accept limited profits At the opening, prices ruled slightly higher, but after the early orders were provided for, the market weakened, and prices declined a trifle all around and closed rather steady at near yesterday's figures. Outside orders were light, and ... was moderate Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 58,500, compared with 78 700 one year ago Foreign markets were quiet and steady. Cumberland Sides quoted 1s higher Domestic markets were quiet Receipts of Products were quite liberal—of Lard and Meats about 41 cars. Shipments were fair of Lard and Meats about 118 cars Inquiry on shipping account was moderate, and offerings were only fair. Sales rather light, and prices unchanged.

Mess Pork Only a fair trade was reported in Mess Pork, and the feeling in a general way was comparatively easy Offerings were fair, and the demand was only moderate. Trading mainly local and chiefly in July contracts Market opened rather steady at 2½@5c advance, and a further improvement of 2½c was gained Later, a weaker feeling was developed, with some pressure to sell, and prices settled back 12½@20c, but rallied 2½@5c, and the market closed rather steady Shipping demand was light, and offerings were moderate. Cash lots quotable at $10 87½@10 90

MAY—Quiet and steady, with small sales at $10 85@10 87½ and closed at $10 87½

JULY Offerings were moderately free, and the demand was only fair. Sales were made at $11 05@11 15. Opened at $11 10 sold to $11 15 to $11 10 to $11 12½, to $11 00, to $11 02½, to $10 95, to $11 00, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—In moderate request and offerings were only fair. Sales were made at $11 17½@11 35. Opened at $11 35, sold to $11 17½, to $11 22½, to $11 30, to $11 22½, and closed steady.

Lard—Trade was only fair in the Lard market and the feeling was unsettled. Offerings were fair and the demand was moderate Foreign advices indicated a quiet feeling in that quarter. Stocks gradually increasing Market was rather steady at the opening at 2½c advance, and a further advance of 2½@5c was gained. Later, a weaker feeling was developed with a little pressure to sell and prices settled back 7½@10c and the market closed steady Inquiry on shipping account limited and offerings only moderate Cash lots were quotable at $6 25@6 27½ Loose lots in small request with moderate offerings Prices steady at about 55c discount on July figures Leaf Lard in moderate request and offerings were fair Prices were quotably steady at $5 62½ Neutral was in only limited demand with fair offerings Prices quotably steady at $6 62½@6 75 for No. 1 and $6 37½@6 50 for No. 2

MAY Quiet and quotable at $6 25.

OUTLOOK FOR FLAX SEEDING.

[From the Oil, Paint and Drug Reporter, May 23.]

As to the Flax seeding, the general opinion is that it is much smaller than last year and considerably below the average of previous years. In the older Flax-growing districts of North Dakota there is a disposition to sow anything but Flax. The reports that come from counties heretofore regarded as Flax counties indicate that the acreage there will be reduced to 20, 30, 50 and in some instances 90 per cent less than last year. This means that in those districts preparations are in progress for only the smallest crop of the crop of 1903. As to actual prospects of growth, we shall know better later in the season. From what is already known it is safe to say that farmers are not inclined to Flax this year, and that they will not sow if a better Grain is available. The farmers of the Northwest have a choice of Wheat, Oats, Barley and Flax, and the issue lies mainly between Barley or Flax. In North Dakota it is not safe to sow Wheat later than May 15. The Wheat seeding season there is over for this year. Oats also is a comparatively early Grain, but there yet remains for farmers who have been unable to put in Wheat or Oats a choice between Barley and Flax. It is believed that Barley will have the preference, as being more profitable. But Flax can be put into the ground at the last moment, and for that reason it will be impossible to report the acreage before late June.

Farmers whose Wheat seeding or other Grains prove to be disappointing will put in Flax as a last resort. This applies particularly to the Red River Valley of North Dakota and Minnesota, which is a Flax-producing district of importance in years when conditions are favorable, and this section is now being visited anxiously by the farmers. In Seed and Oil which will be more or less seriously affected by a large crop of Seed. Weather conditions in the Red River Valley have been favorable able of late to the sowing of Wheat. The cold and wet weather has retarded the work, and the crop reports intimate that there will not only be no increase in the Wheat acreage but that it will be considerably reduced in some parts of the valley, particularly within ten miles of the river on both sides. A large part of this great area must now be sown to other Grains, the most available crops being Flax and Barley. The reports from the Red River Valley to the close of the seeding season promise to be of great interest. All things considered, the prospects for a large Wheat crop in this country over is excellent. High prices for Wheat and low prices for Flax have worked in favor of the former and against the latter, and farmers throughout the Flax-growing country will naturally neglect Flax and turn to Wheat. But other conditions may arise to change this tendency materially during the next few weeks. We notice that recent crop reports from Eastern Kansas, in the Southwestern Flax-growing district, state that, while the ground is too wet to work, Flax is doing well. This is particularly true of Greenwood and adjoining counties, where it was so wet that Corn planting had not been finished. The fact that Flax is a hardy plant gives it an advantage over other Grains and Seeds in the matter of planting and harvesting.

BREADSTUFFS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

Wheat—A change in the Wheat situation has taken place during the past week. Heretofore it has come down from their exalted ideas and have been offering Wheat stocks they have on hand freely. Exporters are very anxious to buy, but cannot get wants to look after, and prices are too high to do any export business even if tonnage could be secured. The cause of the unbending of sellers is principally attributed to the large crop that this year in sight, and there is no doubt that we will harvest the largest crop in the history of the Northwest, considering the acreage sown to Wheat. A number of fair-to-good parcels are offered at 52c, at prices lower than we quoted last week. It is doubtful whether any one in the trade would buy any Wheat to-day for sale, and as we have previously said, there are not many buyers, but there are plenty to talk business. Millers are not in need of Wheat at present, as most of them have closed down and the large export mills have plenty of Wheat on hand to last them after they have resumed. We quote club Wheat 52c, bluestem 55c and valley 52c per bu. The past week was unusually cold for the season and light frosts were frequent in the colder localities. The weather was not generally favorable for growth, but Winter Wheat made satisfactory progress. Early springsown Wheat presents a rather unfavorable color. Seeding of Spring Wheat is about completed.

Flour—The flour market remains exceedingly quiet, there being no features of any kind to awaken the millers from the state of dormancy they now enjoying. Most millers have quit cabling offers for export, as they have given up the idea of doing any trade in the Orient until the reduction of the rates on the canal. It seems impossible for the demand for Flour to become lighter. Some think that the movement of Flour will increase shortly on what they have been called relief rates say. More conservative millers do not anticipate any new business for the next sixty days, and this will great depend on the troubles now going on in Japan. There is no doubt if the ports of Siberia were able to obtain Flour we would readily ship 200 000 brls of Flour, but the Japanese have the key to the situation for the present and we cannot expect any business in that country for some time to come. Shipments coastwise are fairly good and some fair-sized parcels left Puget Sound for China and South America during the week. We quote export brands from $3 40 to $3 60 per barrel; Patent from $4 25 to $4 50 per barrel.

RENEWAL OF THE GERMAN BOURSE LAW.

[From the Liverpool Corn Trade News.]

The proposal to renew this law has been referred to a committee. The Grain market however, will be unaffected by the changes proposed, for the general sentiment against time bargains in Grain is still too strong for the prohibition to be rescinded. It is, of course, well known that "future trading" takes place on the Berlin market, which is described on the basis of so-called "legal commercial delivery." The difference between this trading and "time" trading is so small that some people claim that the prohibition of the latter is nearly useless. The fundamental differences are the following: "Legal commercial delivery" trading can only be done by traders entered on a register, while a seller unable to deliver goods at the stipulated time can claim a prolongation. This latter clause, however, has so far remained a dead letter.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET.

BOSTON, May 20.—The Commercial Bulletin says: "Western Wool markets are excited. Heavy operations are reported in Idaho and Wyoming at extreme high prices. In the former seven-eighths of the clip was contracted for on the Sheep's backs largely at 18½c. In some instances up to 19c has been paid in both Idaho and Wyoming. The range is down to 13c. One large Wyoming clip of heavy shrinkage sold at 18½c, making the landed account cost in Boston 30c per lb. Very little Wool has been bought in any of the territorial sections at under a landed cost of 50c. In the Middle States from 28c to 35c has been paid in Michigan and Ohio. Farmers in the latter State are asking 35c for best clip. The St. Louis market is up 1c on bright Wools. New Missouri one-quarter blood sold at 25½c to come here. The Boston market is quiet and steady, with a little more doing and rather more inquiry. Reports from the goods market are more encouraging.

"The shipments of Wool from Boston to date from Dec. 31, 1903, are 84,813,876 lbs, against 90,138,-887 lbs at the same time last year. The receipts to date are 76,496,763 lbs, against 81,240,237 lbs for the same period last year."

THE HOP SITUATION.

[New York Producers' Price Current, May 21.]

On the local Hop market business has amounted to practically nothing the past week and the position of affairs remains about the same as for months past. Holders of fine Hops ask former prices and show no disposition to hurry matters and prices therefore are nominally unchanged though if there were any attempt to force sales concessions would be necessary. Brewers are still complaining of bad beer business. On the Pacific Coast there has been some business done and a sale reported in Oregon of 500 bales to a Western dealer at 25c, and in California the last lot in growers' hands, some 170 bales, has been sold during the week at 25c. Crop advices from the Coast continue exceedingly satisfactory. In New York State farmers are busily tying the vines, which are growing so fast they can hardly keep up. Foreign crop advices continue favorable.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows temperatures in extreme Northwest again slightly lower—30 to 40, and partly cloudy. It is cloudy in the Northwest to 50 to 70. Light rains fall in Dakota and Southern Minnesota St. Paul, 01. West has rains, generally light, and is cloudy throughout Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, and Southern Michigan, Northern Missouri and Eastern Kansas. Temperatures, 54 to 68. Precipitation, trace to .42 inch. Southwest partly cloudy to clear. Temperatures, 62 to 74.

Following is the forecast for unsettled weather over this entire forecast district. Rain and snow will continue in Northern Rocky Mountain region and thunderstorms are probable in Middle States. Temperatures will probably rise again in this section Wednesday.

The Quincy, Ill., Gas and Electric Company, Monday, announced a reduction in the price of gas from $1 50 to $1 per thousand. The price of fuel and illuminating gas is now the same.

The West India and Panama Telegraph Company has declared 6s per share on the first preference shares on account of the year's dividends Dec. 31, 1903, as against 8s per share last year.

The American Steel and Wire Company of New Jersey has filed a statement of condition as of March 31, 1904, with the Secretary of Massachusetts, showing total assets and liabilities $131,910,922, and profit and loss surplus $33,687,305.

As a result of its withdrawal from the pooling business it is estimated that the annual loss of income to the Western Union Company will be $2 000,000. The net revenue of the company for the year ended June 30, 1903, was $6,214,472.

The directors of the Illinois Brick Company held a meeting, Monday. No action was taken on the dividend for last year, which is still unpaid. The earnings stated at the close of the meeting that the output of the plant was 30,000,000 brick.

The Consolidated Gas Company of Baltimore has decided to issue $15,000,000 4½ per cent 50-year general mortgage bonds. The issue will be used to retire the outstanding bonds and other forms of indebtedness to the aggregate amount of $8,500,000.

Proposals will be received at Cincinnati until June 20 by the secretary of the board of trustees of the Cincinnati Southern Railway, for $1,000,000 3½ per cent terminal bonds. The securities are part of an issue of $7,500,0 0, of which $800,000 were sold in 1902 and $600,000 in 1903.

An order of the Michigan Straw Board Company says the loss of the United Box Board and Paper Company's plant at Whippany, N. J., by fire, Saturday, is covered by insurance. The building and machinery were valued at about $200,000. The plant had a daily capacity of fifty tons of finished product. The plant will very likely be rebuilt.

Writing under date of May 5, Broomhall's Odessa correspondent says: "The early Spring prospects are still very fine and dry, but in parts of the Dnieper districts and Bessarabia good rains had fallen. He has since received the following report of state of short duration. Crimean reports continue favorable although also here rain is wanted in places; from the Southeast we have also had favorable crop news.

It is reported that the Pennsylvania Company has decided to reduce the number of its employes by about 20,000, on account of the decrease in traffic and the expected effect of the new rate law. The Pennsylvania now has about 200 000 employes. It is estimated that a reduction of 10 per cent would save the company in wages alone nearly $7,000,000 a year. The company claims that it does not propose to reduce the wages of men retained in the service.

One of the final steps to complete the reorganization of the Consolidated Lake Superior Company was taken, Thursday, by attorneys filing at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., the preliminary certificates of incorporation for the new company, called the Lake Superior Corporation, with a nominal capital of $50,000,000. It will be increased to $60,000 000 this week, as soon as the permanent board is elected. The new corporation is formed under the laws of New Jersey.

The Eastern bar Iron pool held a meeting at New York, Friday, and decided to reaffirm the present price schedule of $1 35 base f. o. b. Pittsburg and 1 /4@ base New York. This action was taken in spite of the existence of competition with the Iron and Steel market. It had been expected that some reduction would be made. It is stated that the action was unanimous. A member of the pool said that there will be no reduction in the price of bar Iron for some time.

Reports from Texas points, Monday, said: Waco—Wheat not yet being harvested. Oats harvest commenced. Condition of Corn and Oats fine." Fort Worth—"Harvesting just commenced; will be in full blast in ten days; yield about 12 to 15 bu to acre. Corn and Oats reports generally fine good." Dallas—"Harvesting just commenced. Corn and Oat crop promises fair; condition good." Hanson—"Wheat harvest commenced in Central Texas last week. Corn and Oat crop in excellent condition."

The American Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago has been made the trustee for the new issue of $5,000,000 bonds of the Illinois Independent Telephone Company. The company is principally owned in St. Louis by the people identified with the Kinloch Telephone Company of that city. Its field of operation is in Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Missouri, and Kansas The service is being rapidly extended in these States, and many new connections added. It is the ultimate intention to make a transcontinental long distance system.

Owing to the prevailing ease in the Chicago money market, the principal State banks of Chicago have reduced the rate of interest paid on certificates of deposits. For many years the rate has been 3 per cent for three months and longer, and 2 per cent for demand certificates. The best that is now paid for certificates running from three to six months is 2½ per cent, while 2 per cent is paid for more 3 per cent is still paid. Some of the banks refuse to take certificates of deposit for under six months owing to the lack of profit in them.

Stockholders of the Hibernian Banking Association, Chicago, have voted to increase the share capital from $500,000 to $1,000,000, the increase to take effect July 1. Stockholders are given until June 15 to subscribe to the new shares. They will be issued at 200. By selling the stock at 200 the bank will get an increase of $1,000,000 in cash. Of this $500,000 will go to the capital account and $500,000 to undivided profits. As the undivided profits are now $508,158, the capital and surplus after July 1 will be substantially $1,000,000 each.

The smelting plant of the Colorado Mesia Mining Company at Black Rock, Buffalo, has been closed temporarily because of the exhaustion of the supply of mineral. The Buffalo plans will not resume operations until a new mineral deposit has been received from Lake Linden, where thousands of tons are in storage awaiting shipment. The Lake Linden smelter is running to its full capacity seven days a week with a night force, but the production will show a falling off, owing to the idleness at Buffalo Calumet and Hecla officials are making their regular spring inspection of the property.

A New York firm says: "With the heavy exports of Gold being made it is interesting to note the following figures: Total imports to date since July 1, 1903, amount to $67,350,000; total exports to date, including exports to Argentina, are about $71,972,350, which leaves a balance of about $12,526,-800 in favor. The greater part of the above exports is a payment of the interest on the huge supply of commercial bills has ceased and the demand for exchange must either be supplied by bankers having finance bills or by shipments of Gold. The nearer we approach the fall months the more long bill our bankers are liable to draw, anticipating heavy exports of Cotton this fall."

The Wabash official, discussing the report from Pittsburg that the Wabash-Pittsburg Terminal Company is to be owned by the Pennsylvania Railroad interests, said: "It seems absurd on the face of it that the Pennsylvania should buy the Goulds. The plan with respect to the Pittsburg Terminal company provides that the Wabash shall issue $10,000,000 of its stock in exchange for the stock of the Terminal company. The Wabash Railroad has already subscribed for more than $6 000,000 of the bonds of the Terminal company and has issued its notes against these bonds. There would seem no way in which the Pennsylvania interests to control the Terminal company except by controlling the Wabash itself. There is nothing to indicate that such a change of ownership is about to take place."

"The disappointing feature of the Steel situation," said a Steel trust director, Thursday, "is not that there has been a retrograde movement during the past two months, but rather that there has been no improvement of a permanent kind and no advance that might be deemed sufficient of impending general betterment. Steel officials of the company are keenly disappointed at this The individual companies generally report that they are holding their own, but the tone of the second opinion is not really hopeful. The present state of affairs will probably continue during the summer, but a material betterment may be expected in the fall. Mills now seem to be running to the extent of receiving such gains in operation is less than it was a month ago, but the decrease is generally small. One satisfactory thing about the situation is that stocks are being well maintained and there is no likelihood of a reduction."

A New York dispatch says: "It was learned this morning that two directors of the Rock Island are considering making an important change in the company's affairs. One of the revolutionary changes proposed is to give the common stock voting power. As is well known, the company is at present controlled by the preferred stock, that issue electing a majority of the directors. The result will be to place the control of the entire Rock Island system in the hands of the common shareholders. This would, of course, make the common stock more valuable."

There is due Sully & Co in open accounts $68,334.

The crop report of the Ontario Department of Agriculture on conditions in the Province up to May 16 says: "Although the season proved one of most disastrous for Winter Wheat in its history, the latest reports indicate that many of the fields are showing improvement, and a good tone pervades the reports regarding Spring Wheat operations. The greatest damage to fall Wheat is in the Lake Erie country."

CONSUMPTION OF IRON.

The production, imports and exports of Iron, reduced to a pig Iron basis, as well as our consumption for the first quarter of 1904, and for the six months ending April 1, 1904, compared with a year before, were as follows (in long tons):

	1904	1903	Increase
January-March—
Furnace Product	3,714,618	4,553,636	*840,018
Furnace stock	*,24,294	61,8 8	198,152
Imports total	102,668	509,019	*407,351
Total supply	4,844, 10	4,993,757	*1,049,747
Exports	443,078	274,470	169,108
Consumption, 3 months	3,50 0,934	4,719,287	*1,218,353
Consumption, 3 months October-Dec., 1903	3,045,496	4,765,398	*1,719,902

*Decrease

The above comparison shows that the approximate consumption of Iron for the six months ending April 1 last was at the rate of only 13,000,000 tons per annum, compared with 19,000,000 tons for the corresponding six months of 1902 3.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS

FLOUR—The local and outside domestic trade is better and the feeling is somewhat stronger without any change in prices. Foreign trade is still nil

WINTER WHEAT—Was quiet and weaker. Demand light and poor Wheat not wanted and hard sale. No. 2 Red in store nominally $1 05@1 06 and fresh arrivals free on board sold at $1 07½. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals free on board quotable at $1 00@1 07. A very choice car of No 4 Red sold at $1 05. No. 2 Hard Winter fresh receipts quotably 91@.8c No 3 Hard sold at 85@90c for poor to good

SPRING WHEAT—Was in only light demand and the market was quiet and rather weaker. Poor Wheat not wanted and choice Wheat lost part of its premium No 1 Northern in store was quotable at 91½@98c and fresh arrivals free on board quotably about 90@99c. No 2 Northern fresh arrivals nominally 92@98c No 3 Spring ranged at 85@9 c for poor to choice, with a sale at 88c No. 4 Spring quotable at 64@84c for poor to choice, with sales at 80c

REGULAR WHEAT—There were net losses of ¼@¼c for the day, with some reactions from the bottom figures late "Shorts" bought toward the close on a message from California placing the crop of that State at only 14,850,000 bu, which is hardly enough to meet home requirements. Cash was dull, with the premium off, 5,000 bu selling at the May price, and it was offered late at ¾c above May f.o.b. The seaboard reported 11 loads taken there for export. There was an unsettled feeling in this market, and prices were irregular. While the changes were at no time startling they were continuous and kept the room trading element on the move to keep up with them. The leading factors of the morning on the "bull" side were the unloading of some of the Grain boats at Buffalo and the lowering of British consols. The latter was believed to have been a reflection of the cable news this morning saying that France would come into the far Eastern trouble in case of further manifestation of active participation by China in behalf of Japan. There was really not much more definite news on this point to-day than when the trouble started. There was an early decline followed by a bulge. On the latter, there was "long" Wheat to come out in goodly quantities not only on "longs" selling, but on the putting out of "short" lines as well. The Southwest sent in a lot of messages telling of the fine outlook and there were some from the Northwest of the same tenor. The traders in Wheat switched from one side to the other in remarkably fast time whenever they were of the opinion that a change was warranted. Minneapolis Wheat stocks have decreased 575,000 bushels so far this week. Cables were all lower. London unchanged to ⅜d off. Liverpool ⅛@⅜d off, and a cable from there said that the receipts were too large to admit of any advance. The decline at Paris was equal to ¾@1¼c. Antwerp was unchanged in price. Berlin ⅝c lower. Buda Pesth was the one exception, advancing ¼c. Rainfall was reported as quite general over the Northwest but seeding is believed to be so far advanced that it will not be an influence. Primary receipts were 56,000 bu smaller than a year ago, while the Northwestern receipts were 1 car larger. Nearly every telegram or letter received from the Northwest told of expected larger receipts, and of the less urgent demand by all parties for cash Wheat in that section. Receipts at Duluth 5 cars and at Minneapolis 104 cars, a total of 109 cars, against 89 cars yesterday, 78 cars a week ago, and 108 cars last year. Local receipts included 2 cars Winter, 14 cars Spring, 4 cars mixed, a total of 3 cars, against 28 cars last year. Included in the above was none of contract grade. There was also 4 cars and no bu from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 8 cars. Withdrawals to-day were 59,700 bu. Receipts at Western points were 195,100 bu, against 254,854 bu last year, at Eastern points 95,550 bu, against 348,314 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 230,416 bu, against 2 5-173 bu last year, and from Eastern points 134,072 bu, against 610,389 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 1 569 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 141,132 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Moderate trade and prices lower

DECEMBER—Sold at 79¼@80⅜c, and closed at 79⅞c.

CORN—Strong, closing with the May unchanged and the more deferred months ¼@⅜c better. The cash business was dull and included 50 000 bu at Chicago and 5 boat loads reported at the seaboard. Corn was inclined to follow Wheat, yet there were times when it was an individual market. The report from New York that the man who was believed to be "long" a large line of July had sold out caused something of a ripple in the trade, doubtless influenced values more or less. It was expected by some that with a promise of more rain in the Corn belt, the "shorts" would cover freely. Some of them were buyers at odd times, but the demand was not general. The ending of the Buffalo Grain tie up was a help. The Liverpool market was ⅛d lower. A cable from there said that the supply of prime mixed had been exhausted and that a decline was impossible. Local receipts were 250 cars, with 23 cars contract; 125 switched from private to public houses and 171 100 bu from store. Western receipts were 173 000 bu, compared with 572,000 bu last year. Clearances 70,4 6 bu, against 19,538 bu a year ago. Spot Corn at Liverpool was unchanged to ½d higher. It is expected that Chicago will have 302 cars Corn to-morrow. Car lots were steady. Demand and offerings fair. No 2 closed at about 48½c. No 2 Yellow sold at 50c and closed at 49½c. No 3 sold at 48½c, and closed at 48c. No. 3 Yellow sold at 49¼@49¾c, and closed at 49¾c. No. 3 White sold at 49@49½c. No 4 sold at 46@46¾c

Corn by sample—Was in fair request and prices about steady. Supply moderate. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 39@40c. No 4 at 40@46¾c. No 3 at 48¾@50c. No. 3 Yellow at 49@50c. No. 2 Yellow at 50½c. No 3 White at 49@50c. No 2 White at 50@50½c. Billed through: No 4 at 43@43c. No 3 at 47¾@48¾c. No 3 Yellow at 48¾@49¼c. No 2 at 48c. No 2 Yellow at 49½c. No 3 White at 48¾@49¼c. No 2 White at 49¾c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Unsettled, with the close showing prices ¼@⅜c higher for the day.

MAY—Sold at 47@47⅛c to 47⅛c. Opened at 47⅛c to 47⅛c, sold to 47¼c, to 47⅛c, to 47⅛c, to 47⅛c, closing with better bid

JULY—Sold at 47½@48c. Opened at 47½@47⅝c, to 47½c sold to 48, to 47¾c, to 48c, to 47⅝@47¾c, to 47⅞c, closing with latter bid

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 47@47½c. Opened at 47⅛c to 47c, sold to 47⅛c, to 47¼@47⅜c, to 47⅛c, to 47⅜c, closing at 47⅜@47½c.

DECEMBER—Sold at 42⅛@42¾c to 42⅝c. Opened at 42⅛@42¼c, sold to 42¾c, to 42½c, closing at latter.

MAY—1905—Sold at 43c.

OATS—Weakened ⅛c at the start, owing to speculative quietness, but became stronger and advanced ⅜@⅝c, due to covering by "shorts" and to buying by the leading sellers of late and closed with net gains of ¼@⅜c at about the top prices. Weather was somewhat unsettled. Receipts 201 cars, with 128 cars estimated to-morrow. Withdrawals were 21 800 bu and cancellations 76 000 bu Standard. Seaboard clearances 15,491 bu. Cash demand was slow, with sales of 40 000 bu. Car lots to go to store were steady. No. 3 White sold at 41½@42c. Standard in store closed at 40¾@41c, as to location.

Oats by sample were in fair request and steady. Offerings were moderate. Sales on track and free on board. No Grade at 35c. No 4 White at 38@40c. No. 3 at 38@38½c. No. 3 White at 41@42c. Standard at 42@42½c. No. 2 at 39@39¾c. Billed through. No. 4 at 37½c. No. 4 White at 39@41c. No 3 White at 41@42c. Standard at 41¾@42½c. No. 2 White at 43½c. At the river: No 4 White at 38@40c. No. 3 at 37c. No. 3 White at 38½@41c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were easy early, but closed higher.

MAY—Sold at 40¼@40¾c. Opened at 40½c. sold to 40¼c to 40¾c, to 40⅝c at close.

JULY—Active. Sold at 37⅝@38⅛c. Opened at 37⅝c sold to 38⅛c at close

SEPTEMBER—In good request and sold at 30½@30⅝c and at 31c. Opened at 30½@30⅝c to 30⅝c sold to 30⅞@31c, to 30¾c, to 31c, to 30⅞c at close

RYE—Was easier and prices 1@2c lower for May delivery with July nominally ½c lower. Trading light and in fact there was so little doing that it was difficult to establish a market. Very little interest shown in the market. There were 30 000 bu delivered on May contracts. There were 4 cars received and 10 cars withdrawn from private warehouses. No export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store quotably 73c and fresh arrivals free on board nominally about 75c. No 3 fresh receipts nominally 70@73c

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet. May sold at 73c, and that the closing. July 65½c bid and 66½c asked.

BARLEY—A little more business was done. There were a few more fresh cars in and some cars held over were sold which added to to-day's business. There seemed to be buyers present for what Barley there was offered. Number of buyers at the same time was small and there was no competition. Usually the market was viewed as steady and unchanged. Some sales of best grades were at about full late prices. Only 2 cars inspected in and 5,000 bu out. Screenings were quotable at 28@39c for poor to choice, outside recleaned. Barley—low grade feed or mixing nominal 35@38c, outside good weight. Some of a better grade also taken for mixing at 42c. Malting, low grade, 40@43c; fair to good, sound, 45@48c, good color, 49@52c, and fancy, 53@ 6c, extra fancy above. To-arrive sales made at [illegible]

SEEDS—There was a steady Timothy market, no special change. In fact, none of the Grass Seeds were changed materially. Flax ruled dull and there were evidences of weakness.

Timothy—The cash market appeared to be firm for good quality. There were at the same time few buyers. Offerings remain small. Futures remain inactive and nominal. They, too, were unchanged. Spot or May delivery contract Seed, quotably about $3 05. July about $3 10. September again offered at $3 and $3 20 remained bid. Country lots were quotable at $2 00@3 00 for low-grade to fancy choice about $2 80@2 90, fair to good Seed $2 60@2 75 and rough at $2 1 @2 50

Flax—A few cars of Northwestern cash Flax came on sale. Demand very slow. To sell a lower price had to be accepted, there was 1½c decline. The rest of the market was without change excepting July delivery. This was offered at ½c decline. Entire market dull. Advices indicate dull condition in the Northwest also. Seven cars or 5,650 bu came in; none was taken out. No 1 Northwestern sold at $1 08½. No. 1 remained nominally $1 06, and Rejected quotable at 97c@$1 00. Outside for cash Northwestern. May delivery was nominally $1 02. July held at $1 02½, no sales. September offered at $1 8

Clover—Nothing new can be quoted. The market remains devoid of offerings. Season being practically over there was no demand especially. Good quality at the same time could be quoted as salable. Contract spot Seed was nominally $10 75. Country lots common to choice, $7 75@10 00, fancy above, mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $6 00@8 00; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 00@9 50.

Other Seeds—For Hungarian, German and common Millets a shade higher prices were again quoted. Order trade is starting up. No pressure to sell; few lots coming in. All Seeds under this head firm. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark, at $1 30@1 80. Common Millet $1 15@1 50 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 25@1 70. Siberian, 90c@$1 10. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 85c@$1 05. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat a shade higher; quotable at $1 45@1 50 for good.

HOG PRODUCTS—A fair speculative business was reported in Hog Products, and the undertone to the market was stronger. Offerings were not large, and the demand was fairly active, credited to some extent to the packing interest. Outside orders were limited, and local speculators traded moderately. Hogs were in good supply and prices ruled lower. Receipts at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 83,000 compared with 85,100 one year ago. Foreign markets were quiet and steady at unchanged prices. Domestic markets were without material change. Receipts of Products were good—of Lard and Meats about 28 cars. Shipments were fairly liberal—of Lard and Meats about 158 cars. Speculative market opened rather steady, but the demand was somewhat in excess of the offerings, and a stronger feeling was developed. Prices were advanced on all the leading articles, and fairly well supported to the close. Inquiry on shipping account was moderate, and there was no particular pressure to sell. Trading was somewhat limited, and prices were without particular change.

Mess Pork—Trade was fair in the market for Mess Pork, and the feeling was rather firm in a general way. Offerings were moderate and a fairly good miscellaneous demand prevailed. Market opened rather easy, and a few trades were made at 2½@5c decline. Later, a stronger feeling was developed, and prices rallied 15@17½c on the whole range. Toward the close, the market was not quite so strong, and prices receded 2½c, but rallied again, and market closed strong. Demand on shipping account was rather light and offerings were moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $11 05@11 10.

MAY—Quiet and quotable at $11 05

JULY—In rather good request with moderate offerings. Sales were made at $10 95@11 15. Opened at $10 95, sold to $11 12½, to $11 05 to $11 15, to $11 07½, to $11 15, and closed steady

SEPTEMBER—Offerings were not very large, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $11 32½@11 37½. Opened at $11 3, sold to $11 3½, to $11 37½, to $11 32½, to $11 37½, and closed steady.

Lard—Trade was fair in the Lard market and the feeling was stronger in a general way. Demand was fairly active, and offerings were moderate. Foreign advices were unchanged. Market opened rather steady at slight reductions but a firmer feeling was developed, and prices rallied 7½@10c on the whole range. Toward the close, the feeling was not so strong, and prices receded 2½c, and closed steady. Inquiry on shipping account limited and offerings only moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 30@6 32½. Loose lots in small request with moderate offerings. Prices steady at about 55c discount on July figures. Leaf Lard in moderate request and offerings were fair. Prices were quotably steady at $5 88¾. Neutral was in only limited demand with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $6 62½@6 75 for No. 1 and $6 37½@6 50 for No. 2

MAY—Quiet and quotable at $6 30

JULY—In rather good demand and offerings were fair. Sales were made at $6 30@6 40. Opened at $6 30@6 32½, sold to $6 40, to $6 37½, to $6 40, to $6 37½ and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Offerings were moderate, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $6 47½@6 57½. Opened at $6 47½, sold to $6 57½, to $6 55, and closed steady

Short Rib Sides—Considerable interest was manifested in the market for Short Rib Sides, and trading was fairly active. Offerings were not very free and the demand was rather active. Packers bought fair quantities. Opening trades were made at 2½c decline, but a stronger feeling was manifested later, and prices were advanced 10c. Toward the close the feeling was not so strong, and prices receded 2½c, and the market closed rather steady. Shipping demand was light, and offerings were small. Cash lots quotable at $6 25@6 37½ according to weight.

MAY—Quiet and quotable at $6 37½

JULY—Demand was rather active, and offerings were fair. Sales were made at $6 37½@6 47½. Opened at $6 37½, sold to $6 47½, to $6 45 to $6 47½, and closed steady

SEPTEMBER—Offerings were not very large, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $6 55@6 65. Opened at $6 55, sold to $6 65, to $6 62½, to $6 62½@6 65 and closed steady

Other Meats—Trade was only moderate and feeling rather steady. Offerings were not very large and the inquiry was only moderate. Exporters bought sparingly and the home trade was moderate. Green Meats in limited supply, with moderate inquiry, and prices unchanged. Pickled Meats in moderate demand and prices ruled steady. Dry Salted Meats were in only fair demand, with moderate offerings and prices were unchanged. Smoked Meats called for in limited quantities, and prices ruled steady. Closing prices ranged as follows

GREEN—Hams av 10@12 lbs. 9⅛@9¼c, 12@14 lbs. 9@9⅛c, 14@16 lbs. 8⅞@9c; 18@20 lbs 9⅛@9¼c. Skinned Hams 10½@10⅝c. Shoulders, 6@6¼c; Picnic Hams 6⅝@6⅞c. Bellies, 8¾@10c. AMERICAN FARMERS GROW BIG SURPLUS.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—A report on "the nation's farm surplus" has been prepared by George H. Holmes, chief of the division of foreign markets, and issued by the Department of Agriculture. It gives $1,500,000,000 as a conservative estimate of the value of the farm products of this country not fed to live stock in 1903 on the basis of the census valuation. The value of the exported farm products of this character in 1903, $678,470,454, and the highest value reached during the last seven years was $651,628,311, in 1901, due chiefly to cotton.

The value of the exported farm products of this country is concentrated mostly in a few principal products. Of it in 1903 cotton constituted 56 per cent, grain and grain products 24 per cent, tobacco and manufactures of live animals 24 per cent, these products equaling over 85 per cent of the exports of farm products last year.

While the exports reduced in 1903, the cotton exports have been between 3 000,000 and 4,000,000 bales and the exported fraction of the crop has been between 63 and 71 per cent for a long series of years. The fraction of the Wheat crop exported in the last dozen years has been about 31 to 41 per cent and the exported wheat and wheat flour have yearly averaged about 10,000,000 bushels more than a five months' supply at the present rate of consumption.

"Some merchant furnaces in the Central West are preparing to blow out in the next few weeks, so that Ore consumption will be reduced to that extent. The United States Steel Corporation, while free to sell or exchange Ore, is closely allied and all Ore shipments have become a seller on such a level as this year's.

"Pig Iron centers report lower prices and little inclination by consumers to buy beyond requirements for the third quarter. The statistical showing for May 1 shows an increase in production for April of 106 00, tons over March, accompanied by a decrease in stocks on hand. May 1 the production of Coke and anthracite Iron was at the rate of 19,000,000 tons a year, and all apparently going into consumption. Southern Iron is freely offered at $9 50 for No. 2 foundry, but sellers are silent on analysis have been at the equivalent of 92.5.""

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Indications are for continued showers over greater portion of the district Thunderstorms indicated for Middle States. Cool weather will probably gradually advance across this district, but it will probably continue warm in Eastern portion until Thursday night.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The American Smelting and Refining Company has reduced the price of pig lead 5c per 100 lbs, to $4.35.

Buffalo, N Y., has awarded $60,000 of 4 per cent annual fourteen months' emergency bonds to the Commercial Exchange Bank of Buffalo.

The New York Stock Exchange announces the receipt of information of an increase of $8 000,000 in preferred stock of Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company.

The United States Leather Company has declared the customary quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent on its preferred stock, payable July 1 to stock of record June 11.

The Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company has applied to the New York Stock Exchange for the listing of $1,359,200 additional guaranteed special stock.

The Boston Belting Duck and Rubber Company has declared the regular semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent on preferred stock, payable June 15 to stockholders of record June 3.

The Associated Merchants' Company of New York has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on common stock, payable June 1. Books close May 31, reopen June 2.

A considerable curtailment of pig Iron output of the United States is expected by or before July 1. The general estimate of this reduction is from 20 to 40 per cent of the present output.

The Calumet and Hecla Mining Company has declared a dividend of $10 00 a share, payable June 24 to stock of record May 25. This rate is unchanged from the February declaration.

The finance committee of the International Paper Company has announced that the board of directors the payment of the regular quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent on the preferred stock

A number of Kansas municipalities in the Oil field have appealed to Attorney General Jennings to attempts to enjoin the Standard Oil Company from carrying Oil in a pipe line out of the State.

The American Smelting and Refining Company has decided to call in the $5,000,000 Smelting and Refining Company 6 per cent b nds of 1913. The company has the money on hand and is now loaning it at 2 per cent.

The force now employed in the Pennsylvania Railroad shops at Altoona Pa., was further reduced, Monday, by the suspension of 500 employes, making the total of more than 2,000 laid off to date. Work at the shops generally is stopped.

A sale of 8 000 tons of Bar Iron at $24 00 a ton was reported in trade circles, Tuesday, as having been made by the Republic Iron and Steel Company. If this is true it is a cut of $1 00 from the pool price of $28 00, and argues that the market is in bad condition.

It is said that some reports are coming in from Kansas and other States that are quite at error on the part of the crop reporters for the Department of Agriculture in their estimates of abandoned area last month. Some of this abandoned area gives promise of making a fair yield of Wheat. It is possible that the department in its final report at the end of the year may revise its area, as the latest may develop better than was apparent May 1.

It was reported in vessel circles at Chicago, Tuesday, that an appeal has been made to the advisory board of the Canal Commission by shippers of Grain at Chicago and at Milwaukee asking that the boat- now holding cargoes be released and permitted to proceed to their destination. What action will be taken by the advisory board could not be learned, although it is known that officials of the union at Chicago do not favor the plan

It appears that the orders received from Buffalo by managers of the railroad line boats at other ports, particularly Duluth, instructing them to cease forwarding freight by rail, have not been issued to managers of the companies at Chicago. Freight houses, and all but a few of the boats, at Chicago have been entirely cleared of freight, and as the lake shipping season is now at its height, have expired, the Chicago lake lines are now practically out of business.

The reorganization plan of the United States Realty and Improvement Company is now said to be ready and will be issued in a short time. It is said that this plan contemplates the formation of an entire new company." The principal security will be an issue of $15,500,000 of first mortgage 5 per cent bonds secured by $25,000,000 of the realty holdings of the old company. Besides the bonds, there will be issued $10,000,000 of stock. Estimates figure that these new bonds at a conservative valuation are worth 82.

A Boston dispatch says: "The demand for old Wools in the market has been unusually quiet the past week. There have been no transactions of any size, almost all of the business being in the nature of cleaning the market of the odd stock. From the present outlook for wools the dealers see no more favorable than at any time during the spring, but conditions do not warrant paying high prices in the West. Pulled Wools are very firm, with trading quiet. Quotations on Territory Wools are dull, with sales chiefly in small lots In foreign Wools little is being done."

The president of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company is quoted as follows: "As the present October Ore contract is nearly full, as we have not entirely recovered from the Coal strike. We were entirely closed during November and December. Our output for January, 1904, will be small, and we expect soon to reach that total. The immediate outlook for more prosperous business is not encouraging. Naturally the Presidential election is looming back ominously, but the railroads are not showing a tendency to place orders. This affects the Steel industry."

A Pittsburg dispatch says: "Reports to the effect that J. E. Schwab is behind the scheme of C. M Schwab, is to erect a 500,000 Steel casting plant in Chicago are doubted in well informed local trade circles. It is believed that neither of these has any serious intention of entering the industry. A friend of J. E. Schwab said: 'As a great railroad center Chicago might possess some attractive features for an investment in the casting line under normal conditions, but the railroad trade is so badly cut up by competition and labor conditions are so bad at that point that the city could hardly be considered.'"

The amended plan of reorganization of the Denver and Southwestern Railway states that the entire bonded issue of the company, after deducting the bonds heretofore pledged with the bond pool, is $4,856,000. The bond deposits under the reorganization plan of Oct 20 last aggregate $4,432,600, leaving $424,000 that did not assent to the plan. The circular specifically declares that under no circumstances will the committee purchase these unassenting bonds, nor will it accept any one of them under the amended plan of reorganization except upon the payment of the penalty to be appiled to the expenses of reorganization

A message was received at St. Louis, Monday, from Western Kansas saying that the Wheat crop there was a failure. Advices were strongly to the fact th it the letter came from Colby, Kan. It is in the northwestern portion of the State on the Union Pacific, where two years ago during the sagebrush, cobble stones and sand prevailed. It is the one spot in Kansas that has had little or no rain this year. A Kansas City message said: "The rain did not come to Colby until very late, and no one expects more than one-half or two-thirds of a crop there It looks now as though Kansas would raise 85,000,000 bu, but the crop will be late"

A New York dispatch says: "Local Western houses are working for higher values in Stocks, as is evident from the following interview obtained from a representative of a Chicago house: 'Railroad earnings are enormous, and the outlook poorer before the close of the year. The Steel business is in bad shape, and the same statement applies to other branches of business. The recent advance in Stocks has been made to the detriment of orders than anything else. The rise has not been legitimate. You may see Stocks go up two points more and then decline four or five points. It is a very unsafe market, and I advise operating on small margins should keep out of it.'"

A prominent Cleveland manufacturer of finished Steel is quoted as saying: "Conditions in the Steel industry to-day are worse than they have been at any time in four years. Consumers are ordering only what is needed for immediate wants, and the great majority of them are expecting lower prices all around as the mills get busier and the tube mills are doing a fair volume of business, but orders for rails and building material continue to fall off. Bessemer Pig Iron is being traded openly, and Steel manufacturers can buy from have announced a cut of 50c per ton. It certainly looks as if there would be a general shutting down of Steel mills in about two weeks. It is my opinion that certain mills will be reduced this year, but I believe that in other lines we shall see reductions in the near future."

Bradstreet Mills to-day announces to its stockholders that inasmuch as many inquiries have been received from stockholders as to the company's business and financial status, and as the interim condition of the business has changed materially since the report publi hed last September, it has been thought proper to submit to the stockholders a statement of its condition as of Feb. 29, showing the results of the first six months of the current fiscal year. The report presents the following income account: Income of Standard Milling Company from Aug. 31, 1903 to Feb. 29, 1904, $82,093; earnings of the Northwestern Consolidated Milling Company from Aug. 30, 1903, to Feb. 29, 1904, $83,241; net earnings of the Hecker-Jones-Jewell Milling Company from Aug. 31, 1903 to Feb. 29, 1904, $393,293; total, $558,628; interest on bonds, $252,189; balance to credit of surplus account on Aug. 31, 1903, $496,674; net surplus balance Feb. 29 last, $1,346,863

At a special meeting of the stockholders of the Chicago Edison Company, to be held on June 14, it is understood that announcement will be made of the offer of an additional amount of new capital, which is expected to be $2,000,000. This will be offered to stockholders at par. The payments for the issue will probably be called at intervals, as in the case of the last issue, especially covering over the greater part of a year. The money thus realized by the company will furnish the funds for the extension of the plant and conform to the Chicago Municipal Code, recently wealth Electric Companies. The capital stock of the Edison Company now outstanding is a little less than $10,000,000 At the last annual meeting of the company the stockholders authorized an issue of six months, $852,189; balance to credit of surplus account on Aug. 31, 1903, $496,674; net surplus balance Feb. 29 last, $1,346,863

At a special meeting of the stockholders of the Chicago Edison Company, to be held on June 14, it is understood that announcement will be made of the offer of an additional amount of new capital, which is expected to be $2,000,000. This will be offered to stockholders at par. The payments for the issue will probably be called at intervals, as in the case of the last issue, especially covering over the greater part of a year. The money thus realized by the company will furnish the funds for the extension of the plant and conform to the Chicago Municipal Code, recently wealth Electric Companies. The capital stock of the Edison Company now outstanding is a little less than $10,000,000 At the last annual meeting of the company the stockholders authorized further increase of the company's capital to $15,000,000, the new stock to be put out at the discretion of the board of directors. Such increase of stock was made on Nov. 1, 1903, of $2,000,000 and further capital is now needed to keep up with the growth of the company's business. It is understood that the directors have practically decided to supply it by a further offering of capital stock

Some figures of more than ordinary interest have just been compiled at the New York Subtreasury, showing the exports of Gold to New York from the Pacific Coast. The figures cover the period from the beginning of the fiscal year to May 15. While there have been payments on account of the Panama bills during the period, the flow of Japanese Gold began actively in January, and the total received since has been $21,628,000. The monthly receipts were: January, $4,000; February, $5,548,000; March, $6,804,854; April, $9,481,987; and May 1 to May 15, $5,553,873. The telegraphic transfers from July to December footed up a total of $15,000,897. During November and the first part of December there was a reversal movement. A total of $2,450,000 was transferred to San Francisco during that period. The movement of Gold eastward begins about July and extends to November. The amount paid last year by the Subtreasury on checks drawn by the assayer in charge of the assay office at Seattle was $11,881,448. During the same period there was paid out on account of new domestic Gold and Australian Gold, on checks drawn by the superintendent of the San Francisco mint, $3,388 500.

A stockholder writes to the Chicago Inter Ocean regarding the proposed reorganization of the United Box Board and Paper Company as follows: "I note that recently there is considerable talk about reorganizing the United Box Board and Paper Company, and it seems to be the prevailing opinion that the company intends to refund the present bonds and also bond the floating indebtedness of the company. It seems to me that this will add more capitalization to an already overcapitalized company, and that the only way such a company on a proper working basis is not to add any more bonds, which will have to be asked at a sacrifice, but should be done through an assessment on the common and preferred stock. Possibly the same method could be followed as the Pope Manufacturing Company adopted, in which case there was a special preferred stock issued to the amount of the assessment, and on both the common and preferred stocks. The stockholders were given this special preferred stock which had preference over the common, and practically seven shares of their holdings of both common and preferred were scaled down to a reasonable amount, so that the excess capitalization was eliminated. It seems to me that the stockholders who are vitally interested should pay this assessment, and thus reduce the gross overcapitalization of the company. In case new bonds are issued they would have to be sold at a discount, and the principally seven interested parties could derive benefits, to the detriment of the the minority, or those not in a position to know what is going on on the inside."

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Wednesday, was $4 54, against $4 57 Tuesday, $4 81 a week ago and $5 99 a year ago.

J. W. KAUFFMAN, ESQ., the well-known operator in Grain, of St. Louis, died suddenly of heart disease yesterday afternoon.

Local Securities were slow, with Biscuit, Can and Box Board absorbing the attention. Prices were only slightly changed.

Estimated receipts for to-morrow: Wheat, 10 cars; Corn, 300 cars; Oats, 118 cars, Rye, 3 cars; Barley, 22 cars; Hogs, 20,000.

It is claimed that new Grain elevators equal to 5,000,000 bu capacity will be built at Kansas City and vicinity by the leading railroads.

Bullion in the Bank of England decreased $1,460,-680. Proportion of reserve to liability is 48 10 per cent, against 48 09 per cent last year.

The Governors of the New York Stock Exchange have decided to close the Exchange on next Saturday, as well as on the following Monday.

The Northwestern Miller says: "Crop conditions in Kansas continue excellent. Elsewhere in the Southwest the weather is favorable and most of the reports are optimistic in tone."

The subscription list for the $35,000,000 Republic of Cuba 5 per cent Gold bonds was closed in New York, to-day, as soon as opened, as the loan was several times over-subscribed for both there and in Europe.

The stockholders of the Eastern Steel Company will meet July 26 at Pottsville, Pa., to ratify a proposition to increase the capital stock from $3,700,000 to $9,400,000, the proceeds to be used for extensions.

A special meeting of the stockholders of the Universal Tobacco Company has been called for June 22 at Jersey City, to approve resolutions passed by the board of directors providing for the dissolution of the company.

Cotton in New York had a break and advance. There was moderate trading. Outside support was slow early, and stocks in Liverpool were said to be increasing. The rally was mainly on covering. Closing sales were 2 points lower to 2 points higher.

The Milwaukee Commercial Letter says: "As to the Flax seeding, the general opinion is that it is much smaller than last year and considerably below the average of previous years. In the older districts of North Dakota there is a disposition to sow anything but Flax."

Stocks in New York were slow, but fairly strong. Pool operations in a few stocks, Atchison and Steel preferred especially attracting attention. The gains were small. Realty, which is to be reorganized, advanced sharply, but lost the greater part. Money 1¼ to 1½ per cent.

Indications are the storm in this section will continue its movement Eastward, accompanied by rain and strong winds to-day, but the Southwestern storm will probably cause showers on the Rocky Mountain slope Friday. The warm wave in this section will break before to-night.

The Cincinnati Price Current reports the packing of the West for the week at 500,000 Hogs, compared with 410,000 for the week previous and 475,-000 for the corresponding week in 1903. Aggregate packing since March 1 reported at 4 850,000 Hogs, compared with 4,555,000 for the corresponding time last year—an increase of 295,000 Hogs.

The Cincinnati Price Current in its weekly crop summary says: "Fourth consecutive week favorable for Wheat. No adverse influences at present, but late in development. Corn planting progressing rapidly; much reseeding of early planted. Large acreage and late start, but good soil. Condition fair to poor in the South. Oats growing favorably."

The case of Russell Sage, assignee for the Hastings and Dakota Railway Company, vs Theodore A. Maxwell, was docketed in the Supreme Court of the United States, Tuesday. The case grows out of a dispute over title to the land within the indemnity limits of the Hastings and Dakota Railroad in Minnesota, of which it is claimed that there should have been originally 922 182 acres.

The German Imperial crop report for the middle of May shows an improvement of 1 point in Winter Wheat, which is 6 points better than at the same period in 1903. Winter Rye is unchanged since April 15 and is 4 points better than in 1903. Summer Wheat and Rye are rated at the same as in 1903. Other crops have improved since April 15. There has been some delay in sowing the summer Grains, owing to the unfavorable weather, but their condition is reported to be satisfactory.

As the New York Stock Exchange will be closed Saturday the bank statement of the current week will have no influence on values. In their operations with the sub-treasury since the close of business last Friday, the banks report a gain of something like $7,500,000 cash. However, the apparent cash gain will be more than offset by the call of the Government in connection with the Panama Canal payment. Apparently about one-half the cash loss resulting from the call will be reflected in the current week's bank statement and consequently the averages will not be regarded as a true barometer of the actual standing of the local banks.

The Northwestern Miller says: "The weather for the week has been highly favorable for the Northwestern Wheat crop. In the North, and especially in the Red River Valley where Wheat seeding had not been completed, the weather for the most part was bright and pleasant, and seeding progressed rapidly. Therefore, the first of the current week saw seeding practically finished. In the Red River Valley, it is estimated that the Wheat acreage is 10 to 15 per cent smaller than in 1903. In Western and Northern North Dakota the area is believed to have been increased sufficiently to offset this, if not to do even more than that. With South Dakota and Southern Minnesota possessing an area fully up to last year, if not an area a little in excess, conservative men in the trade are estimating the Wheat acreage in the three States at slightly above the 1903 area—say 5 per cent."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Fair domestic demand and prices steady. Bids from abroad still too low to be considered.

WINTER WHEAT—Was quiet and steady. Demand light and poor Wheat not wanted and hard sale. No. 2 Red in store nominally $1 05@1 06 and fresh arrivals free on board at $1 05@1 08. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals free on board quotable at $1 03@1 07, with sale of a car at $1 03. No. 4 Red sold at 97c. No. 2 Hard Winter fresh receipts quotably 93@97c, with a sale at 95c. No. 3 Hard quotable at 80@93c, and sold at 83c.

SPRING WHEAT—Was in only light demand and the market was quiet and rather steadier. Poor Wheat not wanted and choice Wheat was a shade better. No. 1 Northern in store was quotable at 95½@97c and fresh arrivals free on board quotably about 96@99c. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals nominally 92@97c. No. 3 Spring ranged at 85@96c for poor to choice. No. 4 Spring quotable at 64@86c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—Higher, the May leading with a gain of 1⅜c, and the more deferred months from ¼c advance to unchanged. Cash trade was dull, only 7 loads being reported by the seaboard. Argentine shipments are estimated at 2 400,000 bu. There was a waiting market in Wheat most of the day. The death of a prominent St. Louis operator caused many in the trade to keep close to the speculative shore, fearing that a "short" line might be covered for his account and prices be advanced. This was the leading feature of the market, and turned it into a waiting affair. The buying was tame and the selling was of the same description. Some Wheat came out on the reports of further increased receipts in the Northwest and on the excellent crop reports from Manitoba and other sections of that country. A message was received from California that claimed a total yield of only 15,000,000 bu for that State, which is considerably below the yield of 1903. A cable from London said that the Wheat in Argentina is sprouting. There was nothing sensational, however, in the routine or special news and with only a local trade the market was easily influenced. The fact that the domestic Flour trade is somewhat better and that resellers are out of the market attracted a great deal of attention. The Flour output for the past week was 276,000 brls compared with 221,625 brls a week ago, and 351,555 brls a year ago. The Price Current for the fourth consecutive week reports crop conditions as favorable. Cables were unsettled and irregular. Berlin was ⅛c lower, Antwerp and London unchanged. Liverpool ⅛d lower, Paris off equal to 1⅛c, while Buda Pesth was up equal to 1½c. Primary receipts, in fact, all receipts, were less than reported last year. Receipts at Duluth 21 cars and at Minneapolis 99 cars, a total of 120 cars, against 99 cars yesterday, 54 cars a week ago, and 128 cars last year. Local receipts included 4 cars Winter, 6 cars Spring, 2 cars mixed, a total of 12 cars, against 38 cars last year. Included in the above was 1 car of contract grade. There was also 70 cars and no bu from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 10 cars. Withdrawals today were 8,800 bu. Receipts at Western points were 216,550 bu, against 267,816 bu last year, at Eastern points 9,644 bu, against 296,894 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 291,053 bu against 242,-942 bu last year, and from Eastern points none, against 209,043 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 23,562 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 106,029 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Rather light trade and closing higher.

DECEMBER—Sold at 79⅞@80⅛c, and closed at 80c bid.

CORN—There were advances of ⅛@¼c early, but the market was almost lifeless later. Cash sales were 4 loads at the seaboard, and 5,000 bu Corn at Chicago. Argentine shipments estimated 1,600,000 bu. The Corn market was a dull affair, not even a respectable volume of business on room trading account. There were spurts of activity, but they were short-lived. The "bears" seemed to have sold all that they cared to put out, and the "bulls" were standing firmly in their position. The unsettled weather and the conflicting claims as to the probable movement in the near future made trading rather hazardous. Reports received from the Corn belt as to the amount of Corn already in the ground showed conditions as favorable. The Price Current says there is much replanting of that which was seeded early. Local receipts were 30 cars with 31 cars contract. There were 88 cars switched from private to public houses and 83,000 bu from store. Liverpool was unchanged in price. Primary receipts were 514,816 bu, compared with 522,290 bu a year ago. Clearances for the day were 11,325 bu. Car lots were in fair demand and steady. Offerings smaller. No. 2 closed at about 48⅝c. No. 2 Yellow sold at 50c and closed there. No. 2 White sold at 50c. No. 3 sold at 48½c, and closed at 48¼c. No. 3 Yellow sold at 49½@50c and closed at 49½c. No. 3 White sold at 49½c. No. 4 sold at 46@48c.

Corn by sample—Was in fair supply and irregular. Poor No. 4 and No Grade was very dull and slow sale, with prices ½@1c lower. Good No. 4 and yellow Corn was steady. White Corn steady to 1c lower. Sales on track and free on board No Grade sold at 37@40c. No. 4 at 4⅜@45½c. No. 3 at 48½c. No. 3 Yellow at 49½@50½c. No. 2 Yellow at 50@50½c. No. 3 White at 49¾@50c. No. 2 White at 50@50½c. Billed through No Grade at 37@46½c. No. 4 at 43@48c. No. 3 at 47¾@48c. No. 3 Yellow at 49@49½c. No. 2 Yellow at 49¾@50c. No. 3 White at 47½@48c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Dull, but firmer, closing ⅛@¼c higher.

MAY—Sold at 47½c to 47⅝c; closing at 47½c.

JULY—Sold at 47⅞@48c to 48⅛@48¼c. Opened at 48c to 48⅛@48¼c, sold to 47⅞@48c, to 48⅛c, to 47⅞@48c, to 48⅛@48¼c, closing at 48⅛c asked.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 47⅜@47⅝c. Opened at 47½ @47⅝c to 47⅝c, sold to 47½c, to 47⅝c, to 47⅜c to 47⅝c, to 47½c closing with sellers at 47½@47⅝c asked.

DECEMBER—Sold at 42½@42⅝c. Opened at 42½c and closed at 42⅝c asked.

OATS—There was an active trade and a scare among the May and July "shorts" which advanced 1c and closed ¾@⅞c higher. There was also buying by leading "longs." Wet weather and small offerings were factors that stimulated the buying. September failed to follow the other months closely and closed only ⅛c higher. A fair cash demand existed, with sales here of 42,000 bu, 80,000 bu in the Northwest and 40,000 bu at New York. Receipts were 134 cars with 118 cars estimated for to-morrow. Withdrawals were 52,100 bu and cancellations 51,000 bu Standard. Seaboard clearances 0,000 bu. Car lots to go to store were steady to ¼c higher. No. 4 White sold at 39½c. No. 3 White at 41½@41¾c. Standard at 42½c.

Oats by sample were met a better demand, with offerings fair. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 White at 38@41c. No. 3 White at 39¾@42½c. Standard at 42½@43c. Billed through No. 4 White at 40¾@41c. No. 3 White at 41¾@41½c. Standard at 42@42½c. No. 2 at 38½c. No. 2 White at 42½c. At the river, No. 4 White at 34@40½c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were active and higher.

MAY—Sold at 40⅝@41⅛c. Opened at 40⅝c, sold to 40⅝c, to 41⅛c, to 41¼c at close.

JULY—Active. Sold at 38@39c. Opened at 38⅛@38¼c to 38¼c, sold at 38c, to 39c to 38⅞c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Fair trading. Sold at 30⅞@31c. Opened at 30⅞@31c, closed at 30⅞@31c.

RYE—The market was very quiet and trading limited to a few cars of fresh arrivals. There was no special interest in the market. There were light offerings and little demand. Feeling easy. There were five cars received. No withdrawals from store here and no export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store nominally 73c, and fresh arrivals free on board sold at 74c. No. 3 fresh arrivals free on board sold at 73c and quotably down to 68c for poor.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet. No trading and prices unchanged. May 73c asked. July 65½c bid and 66½c asked. September 61c sellers.

BARLEY—Was quotably steady. The feature of the market was a better demand for Screenings and mixing Barley. Market firmer, and some store lots were sold. The offerings were small of fresh arrivals. Demand for malting of a tame order, but at the same time enough so that Barley offered, of all grades, was salable. To-day's postings, which really represented yesterday's arrivals, were 25 cars. None taken out. Some very ordinary Screenings sold at 33c; there was for Screenings a quotable range of 26@39c for poor to choice outside recleaned. Barley, low-grade feed or mixing, quotable at 36@40c outside for good weight. Malting, low grade, 40@43c, fair to good, sound 45@48c, good color 49@55c, and fancy, 56@56c.

SEEDS—Hardly enough was done so that it could be said there was any business. The only trading was in late sowing Grass Seeds. The market was without change except that for new crop Timothy a shade better bids were made.

Timothy—Was entirely lifeless. To-day no cash Seed was offered. It was the first day in a long time that there was not some on sale. Cash market quotably steady with consignments salable. For September 2½c more was bid than has been offered of late. Otherwise futures were not mentioned. Contract spot or May delivery quotably at out $3 05. July about $3 10. September held at $3 30 and $3 32½ bid. Country lots were quotable at $1 00@3 00 for low-grade to fancy, choice about $2 85@2 90, fair to good Seed $2 60@2 75 and rough at $2 40@2 50.

Flax—There was an inactive and nominal market with prices all around just the same as last presented in the quotations. No cash Flax on sale. No. 1 Northwestern quotable at $1 08½, No. 1 nominally $1 00, and Rejected quotable at 97c@$1 10—outside for choice Northwestern. May delivery was nominally $1 02. July at $1 02½ and September obtainable probably at $1 06. Local receipts to-day 2 cars or 1 78- bu no output. Minneapolis got 5 cars and Duluth 15 cars.

Clover—There was, as there has been the previous days this week, an inactive, merely nominal market. No offerings. Good Seed would sell fairly. Contract spot Seed was quotably $10 75. Country lots common to choice, $7 75@10 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $5 00@8 00, poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 50.

Other Seeds—Were quotably firm. Order trade very fair. There also was an open market demand. Sales were made of Hungarian, German and Siberian Millets, but prices paid could not in all cases be obtained. Quotable Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark, at $1 30@1 80. Common Millet $1 20@1 50 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 20@1 70. Siberian, 90c@$1 10. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 85c@$1 05. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat firm, quotable at $1 45@1 50 for good.

HOG PRODUCTS—A fairly good speculative trade was reported in Hog Products, and the undertone of the market was quite firm. Outside orders were moderate and local trading was fair. Offerings of all kinds were moderate, while a fairly good miscellaneous demand prevailed. "Shorts" were credited with fair purchases, and local packers accepted a few lots. Hogs were in fair supply and prices were higher, which feature had a little influence on the market. Prices ruled higher on all the leading articles, and extreme figures were fairly well supported to the close. Trading mainly in contracts for July and September, with a fair business in transferring contracts ahead at the current differences. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 62,-200, compared with 50,800 one year ago. Returns of the packing of the West for the week, compared with the corresponding week in 1903, exhibited an increase of 25,000 Hogs. Foreign markets were reported firm for Meats, but Hams were quoted 1s lower, while Lard was steady at unchanged prices. Domestic markets were steady. Receipts of Products were liberal—of Lard and Meats about 12 cars—indicating that interior packers are willing to sell at current prices. Shipments were fair—of Lard and Meats about 111 cars. Demand on shipping account was only moderate and chiefly for small quantities. Offerings were moderate. Sales were somewhat limited, and prices unchanged.

Mess Pork—A fairly good trade was reported in Mess Pork, and the feeling was stronger. Offerings were not very large, and the demand was fairly active and mainly from "shorts." Market opened rather firm, and prices ruled 5@7½c higher, which was followed by a further improvement of 17½@20c. Toward the close the feeling was not quite so strong, and prices settled back 2½@5c, and the market closed comparatively steady. Shipping demand was limited, and offerings were moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $11 25@11 30.

MAY—Quiet and steady with small sales at $11 07½@11 27½, and closed at $11 27½.

JULY—Offerings were moderate and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $11 20@11 40. Opened at $11 20 to $11 22½, sold to $11 30, to $11 27½, to $11 22½, to $11 40, to $11 35 and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—In fair request and offerings were moderate. Sales ranged at $11 45@11 62½. Opened at $11 45@11 47½, sold to $11 47½, $11 50, to $11 45, to $11 50, to $11 47½, to $11 62½, to $11 60 and closed steady.

Lard—Rather more interest was manifested in the Lard market and the feeling was stronger in a general way. Foreign advices were unchanged. Offerings were not very large and the demand was fair. Market opened rather firm and prices were about 2½@5c higher, which was followed by a further improvement of 5@7½c on the whole range, and the market closed rather steady. Stock on hand gradually enlarging. Inquiry on shipping account limited and offerings only moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 40@6 42½. Loose lots in limited request with moderate offerings. Prices steady at about 55c discount on July figures. Leaf Lard in moderate request and offerings were fair. Prices were quotably steady at $5 75. Neutral was in only limited demand with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $6 62½@6 75 for No. 1 and $6 37½ @6 50 for No. 2.

MAY—Quiet and quotable at $6 42½.

JULY—In rather good demand and offerings were fair. Sales were made at $6 42½@6 50. Opened at $6 42½, sold to $6 45, to $6 42½, to $6 47½@6 50, to $6 47½, to $6 50, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Offerings were not very large, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $6 60@6 67½. Opened at $6 60, sold to $6 62½, to $6 65, to $6 67½, and closed steady.

JANUARY—Quiet with light trading at $6 52½@6 65, and closed at $6 65.

Short Rib Sides—Quite a good speculative business was reported in Short Rib Sides and the market was stronger in a general way. Offerings were not very large and the demand was rather active. Opening trades were made at 2½c advance, and a further improvement of 7½@10c was gained, with fair trading at the advancing scale. Toward the close, the feeling was not quite so strong, and prices settled back 2½c, and the market closed comparatively steady. Demand on shipping account was moderate and offerings were not very large. Cash lots were quotable at $6 35@6 50 according to weight.

MAY—Quiet and quotable at $6 47½.

JULY—Offerings were not very large, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $6 50@6 60. Opened at $6 50, sold to $6 55, to $6 50@6 52½, to $6 57½@6 60, to $6 57½ and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—In good request and offerings were moderate. Sales were made at $6 65@6 75. Opened at $6 65 to $6 67½, sold to $6 65@6 67½, to $6 70, to $6 67½, to $6 70, to $6 67½, to $6 72½, to $6 70, to $6 75, and closed steady.

OCTOBER—Light trading at $6 80.

Other Meats—Trade was only moderate and feeling rather steady. Offerings were not very large and the inquiry was only moderate. Exporters bought sparingly and the home trade was only fair. Green Meats in limited supply, with rather light inquiry, and prices unchanged. Pickled Meats in moderate demand, and prices ruled steady. Dry Salted Meats were in only fair demand, with moderate offerings and prices favored sellers. Smoked Meats called for in limited quantities, and prices ruled steady. Closing prices ranged as follows:

⁂ Minnesota, Dakota and Iowa mills outside of Minneapolis and Duluth.

†Flour made by mills outside of St. Louis, but controlled in that city.

The Minneapolis Flour output last week increased 30,000 brls. The mills running did not work at full capacity, as if they had the figures would have been larger. This week 33 mills are in operation, as they should run full time to get 400,000 brls of Flour. For the same week in 1903 the output was 328,420 brls.

Sales last week averaged better with Minneapolis mills. Some of them did a pretty good business Friday and Saturday on the advance in Wheat. Buyers were permitted to take Flour at the previous day's quotations, and the bookings in the two days were of fair volume. Outside of this trade was light and was made up of scattering orders. While higher Wheat seemed to bring in shipping directions on old orders somewhat more freely, it was a common complaint that they came too slowly.

The only business reported abroad consisted of limited sales by First Clear, one company noting more interest from both the United Kingdom and the Continent. Some mills could not report even that much.

Two or three mill managers thought that they could see a little more encouragement in the general situation as to Flour. Their chief reason for this view is a belief that Eastern stocks are not being reduced in a telling way, affording foundation for hope that within a few weeks, the domestic trade will be buying Flour again in fair quantities. There are those who contest this view, holding that stocks are still heavy.

Minneapolis and outside mills have during the week advanced prices of Patent 10c/lic per brl. The range of quotations now is $4.90@5.10 per 196 lbs in wood f. o. b. Minneapolis.

The range of Eastern prices, May 24, asked by Minneapolis mills for Patents and sales, was as follows: spot prices, $5.55@5.75; New York rate points, $5.70@5.75; Pittsburg rate points, $5.30@5.40; Baltimore rate points, $5.45@5.60; Philadelphia rate points, $5.45@5.60; Albany rate points, $5.50@5.70; Rochester and Syracuse rate points, $5.45@5.60; Buffalo rate points, $5.30@5.50; Michigan, $5.05@5.25 in sacks, Iowa, Illinois and Wisconsin, $5.00@5.25 in sacks; Missouri points, $5.05@5.20 in sacks.

CROPS IN THE NORTHWEST.

The following special crop report was compiled by a Minneapolis elevator firm from reports received by them from their correspondents throughout the Northwest:

Seeding of small Grain is now practically completed in Minnesota and the Dakotas, except in a portion of the Red River Valley, where good authorities estimate 10 per cent of the land intended for Wheat will of necessity be sown to Barley and Oats. Conditions are exceptionally favorable everywhere. There is sufficient moisture in the soil and there have been seasonable showers over the entire territory.

Corn planting is well advanced, and the acreage will be larger than ever before.

Owing to the lateness of the season and lack of time, considerable Oats and Barley seeding is being done on plowed land.

South Dakota soil and weather conditions appear to be entirely favorable. Twenty-one per cent of the reports show growing crops looking "fair," 79 per cent say "good" or "excellent." The lower third of the State reports the season as far advanced as the same date in 1903; the middle and Northern thirds report from ten days to two weeks later than 1903.

North Dakota reports show the season about two weeks later than 1903. Four per cent of the reports show the condition of the growing crop to be "fair," 96 per cent "good."

Eighty-five per cent of the Minnesota reports show the growing crop to be in "good" condition, 15 per cent say "fair."

MANITOBA WHEAT CROP SEEDED.

[From the Modern Miller.]

About 90 per cent of the Wheat seeding has already been done in Manitoba, and in the Territories it is finished. The railway and Government reports indicate that all the seed is in and that the crop is has already been put. What has been sown first is well up and in excellent condition. It is estimated that about 20 per cent more land is already under crop than the acreage of last year. The will mean a big increase in the crop. Owing to the late fall the weather was conducive to plowing, and the farmers had the ground in perfect condition for seeding as soon as the land was sufficiently dry.

None of the points reported on by the railways show a falling off, though in several of them the area will be the same as last year. The Prince Albert, the Calgary and Edmonton, and the Manitoba and Northwestern branches of the Canadian Pacific Railway, along which lines large influx of American settlers have located, show the highest per cent of increase in area. In all the districts named the weather throughout has been perfect for seeding and the Grain is well sprouted. What Wheat seeding has been completed the farmers are busily engaged in getting land in shape for other crops. There is every indication that the area devoted to coarse Grains will be greater than last year's considerable margin.

WHEAT IN THE NORTHWEST.

In the Red River Valley it is reported that there will be a slight decrease in the acreage, but it is likely that the late seeding will soon be done will bring it up to very nearly what it was a year ago. In the rest of North Dakota and Northern Minnesota there will be a large increase over last year's acreage, so that throughout the Spring Wheat belt the total ground seeded to Wheat will prove greater than in 1903. Conditions at present are said to be most ideal for the growing crop.

Wheat is reported coming up nicely, being well scattered and growing fast. The season was late in getting the seed into the ground, but with abundant moisture in the earth the Wheat sprouted quickly. In southern sections it is nearly as far advanced as is usual at this time. The lateness of the season has proved beneficial, as with plenty of moisture, the warm rays of the sun at this season makes the germination of the seed particular y rapid, and the Grain comes up much more evenly than is generally the case.

CROP AND CONSUMPTION OF COTTON.

The remarkable increase in the Cotton crop of this country the past fifty years and the increased percentage of the crop which we are manufacturing in our own mills, notably in the South, is shown in the following table. The comparison is for ten-year periods, except from 1900 to 1903. The amounts given are in bales:

Year.	U. S. Crop.	Nor mills Sou mills Cons.	South mills Cons.	Total Cons
1903	10,726,160	5,000,000	2,000,000	7,000,000
1903	9,400,000	2,000,000	1,600,000	3,600,000
1893	7,000,000	1,800,000	800,000	2,600,000
1883	5,700,000	1,500,000	300,000	1,800,000
1873	4,100,000	800,000	100,000	900,000
1863	4,800,000	400,000	100,000	500,000
1853	3,000,000	400,000	100 000	500,000

In 1850 we manufactured 25 per cent of the total crop raised, in 1860 only 20 per cent, but the next ten years increased to 30 per cent, and the figure continued unchanged while the crop declined. After 1870 there was a gradual increase in our proportion to 38 per cent in 1900, followed by a decline to 36.6 per cent in 1903. The table shows the increased activity that has been shown in the South of late, from 500,000 bales in 1900 to 2,000,000 bales last year, when it slightly surpassed the Northern mills in requirements.

NORTHWESTERN WHEAT CONSUMPTION.

[From the Northwestern Miller, May 25.]

The attached table shows the output of Flour and approximate consumption of Wheat at Minneapolis and Duluth, together with that of 39 "outside mills" with a daily capacity of 30,270 brls, from Sept. 1, 1903, to May 14, 1904:

	—1903-04— Flour, Brls.	Wheat, Bus.	—1902-03— Flour, Brls.	Wheat, Bus.
Duluth	783,805	3,527,000	1,190,580	5,357,500
Totals	19,660,390	74,837,040	18,160,065	81,720,500

These figures represent the approximate consumption of 6,883,0-0 bu less Wheat this year than in 1902-03. This is a large decrease for the mills of Minneapolis and Duluth turning out 1,940,460 brls less Flour, equal to 9,071,000 bu of Wheat, than last year. In contrast, the outside mills have increased their output to the extent of 463,960 brls, or equal to 2,088 0-0 bu of Wheat.

BRITISH AGRICULTURE.

[From the Agricultural Gazette, May 2.]

May came in with a mild and soft atmosphere after a murderously cold March, and has made the most notably growing day of the season up to that date. The young spring Grain was freshened nicely by the rain and is now making good growth. Clover Seed sown in the early part of the month is germinating quickly, if it has not done so before, and for Mangel seed the moisture in the soil is just what was wanted. Some districts had double the rainfall that occurred at the end of April would have been welcome, however, as the land had become very dry and in some cases cropped on the surface. The Wheat crop has improved in appearance and may yet become vigorous; but it is to be feared that nothing can render many of the fie ls of this cereal otherwise than thin and ragged in the spring, in spite of the satisfactory tillage which some of the early-sown crops received there seems reason now to hope for excellent results with respect to spring Grain, but not in relation to Wheat.

EXPORTS OF FLOUR AND WHEAT.

The exports of Wheat and Flour in Wheat (reckoning 4½ bu Wheat to a barrel of Flour) from all American ports compiled by the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics of the Treasury Department monthly for four years were as follows:

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows temperatures lower everywhere except extreme Northwest and Southeast. Rains general and extend from near North Dakota and Central Minnesota on the North to Oklahoma South, and from Colorado to the Atlantic. Heaviest in Missouri River district, 1.54 at Omaha, and 1.20 inches at Kansas City.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

Chicopee, Mass., has awarded $50,000 of 4 per cent semi-annual one to ten-year serial refunding bridge bonds at 102.-83.

Recent advices from Germany say that larger stocks of Clover Seed than anticipated will be held over this season, so that if any business results prices are sure to rule low.

The Railway Steel Spring Company has declared the quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on its preferred stock, payable June 20. Books close June 9 and reopen June 21.

The International Paper Company has declared its regular quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent on the preferred stock, payable July 1. Books close June 15 and reopen July 2.

The Massachusetts Electric Company has declared the regular semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent on the preferred stock, payable July 1 to stockholders of record June 4.

The Lake Superior Corporation has filed a certificate increasing its authorized capital to $40,000,000. The company is empowered to construct and operate canals and general construction work.

Address from along the Santa Fe Road, between Fort Maddison, Iowa, and Streator, Ill., say that farmers are holding their Corn. They have begun to shell it and find that it is in better condition than they expected.

A message from Peoria, Ill., Wednesday, said: "The Central Illinois Grain Dealers' Association re orts 30 to 40 per cent of the Corn back in farmers' hands and of Oats 50 per cent. Expect the movement will last ten days."

A Peoria, Ill., dispatch, Wednesday, said: "Receipts of Corn here to-day, 73 cars. With the exception of No Grade, the supply of other Corn can be sold in this market to-day. There is absolutely no demand. There are standing on track about 50 cars of Corn, held over for the past few days, that are unsalable."

Reports from Cleveland and other lake ports, Wednesday, intimated that the backbone of the masters and pilots' strike is about broken. A Cleveland message said of the strike: "Everything to see who would go to work first, and were willing to follow the leader. The Lake Carriers' Association has given employers the temporary privilege of making individual contracts with the masters.

The Wall Street Journal says: "It is learned on high authority that powerful interests, who maintain that they have a right to situations which are in control ever since August of last year, have planned to make a determined drive this week against the extensive short interest at present outstanding. It is learned that two wings of the Standard Oil party are at work for higher prices. It is also learned that about 50,000 shares of Steel common have been delivered last week in blocks which do an exclusively Morgan business. It is stated that the stocks which will be given special attention are Union Pacific, Atchison, Steel preferred, Amalgamated Copper, and Brooklyn Rapid Transit.

"Reports indicate that the bulk of the Corn area in Iowa has been planted in the greater part of the State," says J. R. Sage in the Des Moines Capital, "but in a few counties, mainly in the Southern districts, field work has been delayed by wet soil, and seeding and planting operations are likely to be continued for a week or more. In the aggregate the acreage is unusually large. There are numerous reports of replanting, necessitated by defective stands or by deep planting. Cutworms are also kind, however, have been heard quite frequently in all seasons. Cultivation of early planted fields is in progress. Small Grain and Grass are doing fairly well, but would be greatly benefited by showers and warmer weather. A large acreage of Potatoes has been planted. Reports as to the Fruit crop are mostly encouraging."

Following is a summary of the United Box Board and Paper Company's situation from the New York Journal of Commerce: "It is probable that a readjustment of the company's finances will be undertaken in the not distant future. The outstanding bonded indebtedness amounts to $1,650,0.0, and of this $350,000 must be paid off Jan. 1 next, leaving the entire mortgage, a very heavy annual redemption allows these bonds a comparatively short life, and the directors are of the opinion that the company should be allowed to accumulate a working capital for a period of years, in which case it could be made to earn a very satisfactory percentage on its stock. As the outstanding debt is $1,650,000 and the sum of the new issue of long-term bonds would not be for less than $3,000,000. It is intimated that the opportunity may be improved to effect a certain reduction in the volume of the capital stock."

It was figured by a Steel manufacturer, Monday, that the earnings of the Steel corporation for the first half of the current year would be in the neighborhood of $31,000,000. He added that the earnings in the second half of the year would be much larger, and that regular dividends on the preferred stock were assured for some time to come. However, there are many traders who still hold to the belief that the dividends will not be at the regular rate during 1904. It is well known that certain railroads are figuring on orders for delivery in the near future, but the total of these orders will be very small as compared with the maximum capacity of the corporation and members of the Steel rail pool. The pig iron capacity of the Steel corporation this year will be 800,000 tons greater than in 1903 as a result of additional furnace capacity. This means that the combine will soon be practically independent from the standpoint of pig iron supplies.

The following is a Cleveland opinion on the Aurora, Elgin and Chicago Railway: "Aurora, Elgin and Chicago 4 per cent bonds are being watched very closely now by many people because on June 1 it will finish the first year of its completion. The men who built the road and have since run it have always had a great faith in the property when it once becomes firmly established and has its business fairly developed. The business handled last summer was a good deal. The winter was unfavorable, causing less business and higher operating expenses, but it will make the first year's record in good shape despite the bad weather of the winter and spring. During the year the road will begin operating down town in Chicago, from which it is expected there will be considerable increase in earnings. Contracts that will materially increase the company's gross earnings have been and are being closed and will help the report of the coming year."

The New York Sub-Treasury operations for the week have resulted in a gain by the banks of $645,000. This will be increased by the receipts from the interior, so that the statement to-morrow should show a gain in cash Gold bars for export during the week amounted to $4,511,621 Customs receipts are $2,987 184, which is offset by pension payments of $1,143,000, transfers of $60 752 from San Francisco and payments of $971,721 on assay office.

The Modern Miller says: "Weather conditions have favored the Winter Wheat crop, except in California, where there has been some deterioration on account of dry winds. The crop promise is generally well maintained elsewhere being best in Missouri and the Central Mississippi Valley States In Indiana, Ohio and Michigan conditions are much better than a month ago, but indications are that hardly more than half an average crop can be secured "

The Orange Judd Farmer says: "Winter Wheat condition continues to improve, and present prospect for such fields as are standing for harvest is materially better than a month ago. Spring Wheat acreage is somewhat larger than a year ago, and condition very high. Local estimates of Oats acreage show a larger increase than was expected in the Mississippi and Missouri River Valleys. Total breadth probably largest on record. Crop a little late in growth, but coming forward rapidly and general average fully up to normal Increase in Corn acreage promises to be very heavy, especially in Ohio, Indiana Iowa and Nebraska A little planting yet to be done on low lands in Missouri Valley, but crop generally in and coming forward with a stand fully as good as usual."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS

FLOUR—Domestic demand fairly active and prices steady. No demand from abroad.

WINTER WHEAT—Was quiet and steady. Besides a few cars sold there were sales of 15,000 bu of Hard Winter reported No. 2 Red in store nominally $1 05@1 06 and fresh arrivals free on board at $1 05@1 08. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals free on board quotable at $1 03@1 07, with sale of a car at $1 04 No. 2 Hard Winter fresh receipts quotably 92@96c. No. 3 Hard quotable at 85@93c, with a sale at 90c

SPRING WHEAT—Was in only light demand and the market was quiet but rather steadier Poor Wheat not wanted and choice Wheat was a shade better, with sales of 40,000 bu of No. 1 Northern to millers and shippers at 1⅛@1½c over May. No 1 Northern in store was quotable at 99¼@98¾c and fresh arrivals free on board quotably about 97c@$1 00 No 2 Northern fresh arrivals nominally 92@97c No 3 Spring ranged at 85@97c for poor to choice No. 4 Spring quotable at 64@80c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—While May was up 1⅝c at the close, deferred futures were ⅝@½c better, on a few "shorts" covering The feeling was stronger late, with some reaction and advance from the bottom prices reached. Cash sales were 55,000 bu, different lots the No 1 Northern bringing 1⅛@1½c over the May price Clearances from both coasts for the week were only 1,13 000 bu, against 4 678 000 bu for the same time last year. There was the same old story in Wheat, with the market at the mercy of the "bears," but they were not inclined to make the most of it, fearing the covering of a "short" line and an accompanying advance in prices. The crop reports overshadowed all else in the way of news. The usual weekly crop reports published to-day by the Orange Judd Farmer and the Modern Miller were "bearish"—decidedly so, and the reports sent in from the Northwest and Southwest were again of one trend—"bearish" People who have been selling in ut favorable crop reports are at present in the background having doubtless tired of their calling for the time being, or they are possibly awaiting an actual change for the worse which they are hoping for The weather was ideal over the Southwest and the Northwest and the plant is growing rapidly to maturity. The harvesting reports from Texas show that the yield is coming up fully to expectations. Indian shipments keep up —1,840,000 bu for the week, compared with 1,126,000 bu the week before and 1,069,000 bu a year ago. The Southwestern receipts were large and primary and Northwestern receipts were in excess of last year Liverpool spot Wheat was unchanged to ½d lower, while the futures were ½d higher London futures unchanged to ½d higher. Paris was up equal to ¾c per bushel, and Antwerp was unchanged in price Argentine shipments were 2 192 000 bu, compared with 2,584,000 bu the week before and 1,840,000 bu same time one year ago Since Jan 1 the shipments were 58,992,000 bu against 38,722,000 bu a year ago Argentine visible is 4,448,000 bu, compared 5,224,000 bu a week ago and 4,008 000 bu a year ago Minneapolis stocks decreased 900,000 bu for the week and Duluth decreased about 185 000 bu for the same period. Receipts at Duluth 2 cars and at Minneapolis 112 cars, a total of 133 cars, against 120 cars yesterday, 86 cars a week ago, and 119 cars last year Local receipts included 3 cars Winter, 2 cars Spring, 7 cars mixed, a total of 12 cars, against 30 cars last year. Included in the above were 4 cars contract grade. There was also 24 cars and 10,000 bu from unlicensed elevators The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 10 cars Withdrawals today were 15,800 bu. Receipts at Western points were 160,636 bu, against 2 4 100 bu last year; at Eastern points 9,158 bu, against 29 741 bu last year Shipments from Western points were 262 708 bu, against 386,493 bu last year, and from Eastern points 35,843, against 59,410 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 23 8.6 brls Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 143,000 bu

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Moderate trade and lower early, but closed strong.

DECEMBER—Sold at 79⅞@80⅜c, and closed at 80⅜c

CORN—Lower, the closing prices showing losses for the day of ½@1⅛c. The May was the weakest spot on the list, the crowd backing away from it, fearing delivery on contracts. Clearances for the week were again small at 234 000 bu Cash sales were 50 000 bu here and 3 loads at the seaboard The market was dull early, with the "bulls" and "bears" refusing to budge an inch from their former positions. Along toward noon one of the big room traders put brokers into the pit with orders to do some selling This movement was followed by several large firms and an array of smaller traders, and had not "shorts" come to the rescue a bad break would have been the result. The fact that the arrivals were 368 cars to-day and the estimate was for 618 cars to-morrow, couple l with only a light demand for cash, helped the "bears" no little. There were 148 cars switched from private to public houses, showing that the drying machines and mixers are not idle; 50 000 bu were taken from store. Liverpool closed unchanged on spot and unchanged to ¼d higher for futures. Argentine shipments for the week were 1,465,000 bu, compared with 1,093,000 bu the previous week and 1,412,000 bu a year ago Shipments from that country since Jan. 1, 11,813,000 bu compared with 7,040,000 bu for the corresponding period a year ago. The Argentine visible supply is 2,400,000 bu, against 1,654 000 bu a week ago and 2 258,000 bu a year ago. Primary receipts were 522,130 bu, compared with 544,380 bu a year ago. Clearances for the day small at 12,893 bu Car lots were in large supply and demand only fair. Best grades opened steady and later declined ½c Low grades ½@1½c lower. No 2 closed at about 48c No 2 Yellow sold at 50c and closed at 49½c No. 3 sold at 47½@48½c, and closed at 47½c. No 3 Yellow sold at 49¼@49½c and closed at 49c. No 3 White sold at 49c No. 4 sold at 42@44c. No Grade sold at 40c

Corn by sample—Offerings large and demand only moderate. High grades opened steady and later declined ½c The lower grades opened about ½c lower and soon declined an additional 1c, with White Corn the weakest Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 31@43½c. No 4 at 40@49c. No. 3 at 48@48¼c. No 3 Yellow at 49¼@49¾c. No. 2 Yellow at 50@50½c. No 3 White at 48¼@49½c. No 2 White at 48½@50c. Billed through: No Grade at 35@40c. No. 4 at 41@47c. No 3 at 46@49c. No. 3 Yellow at 48¾@49¼c. No. 2 at 49½c. No 2 Yellow at 49½@49¾c. No 3 White at 47¼@48½c. No 2 White at 48@49c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn The trade was small on the whole, yet there was an improvement over that of yesterday The close was ¼@½c lower

MAY Sold at 47@47¾c Opened at 47¼c, sold to 47¾c, and closed at 47c

JULY—Sold at 47⅜@48c Opened at 48c to 47⅞c, sold to 48c, to 47½c, to 47⅜c, to 47⅝c, to 47¾c, to 47⅝c to 47¾c, closing at latter asked.

SEPTEMBER Sold at 46¾@47½c Opened at 47½ to 47⅜c sold to 47⅜@47½c, to 46¾c, to 47⅛c, closing at 47⅛ bid

MAY—1905—Sold at 41⅞c.

OATS—Were fairly traded in. "Shorts" in May were good buyers and they advanced prices ¾c over yesterday's close and the finish was at ½c better for the day. July and September had a small range and closed ⅛c lower. Weather was fine and led to selling of distant futures Arrivals were 77 cars, with 149 cars estimated to-morrow. Withdrawals were 88,800 bu, and the cancellations 25,000 bu Seaboard clearances 25,000 bu Cash business was slow—25,000 bu. Car lots to go to store were steady to ¼c higher No. 4 White sold at 41c No. 3 White at 42@42½c Standard 1 store closed about 41⅞@42¼c as to location.

Oats by sample were steady to ¼c higher Offerings were larger and the demand fair. Sales on track and free on board No. 4 White at 40@41½c No 3 at 38½@39¼c No. 3 White at 41@43½c Standard at 42½@43c. No 2 at 39½@41¾c Billed through No. 1 White at 40½@41½c No 3 White at 41½@41¾c Standard at 42½@41c No. 2 White at 43c At the river: No Grade at 33@35c. No. 4 White at 37¾@40½c. No 3 White at 40@41c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were higher for May and closed lower for other months.

MAY—Fair trading Sold at 41½@42c. Opened at 41⅜c sold to 42c, to 41⅝c at close.

JULY Moderate trading. Sold at 38⅝@38⅞c. Opened at 38¾c to 38⅞c; sold to 38⅝c, to 38⅞c, to 38¾@38⅞c at close.

SEPTEMBER Sold at 30⅞@30¾c and at 30⅞@31c. Opened at 30⅞c, sold to 30⅞@31c, to 30⅝@30¾c, to 30⅞c at close

RYE The market was again very quiet and there was no special change either in prices or the character of the trade. A car of fresh receipts was taken for local manufacturing purposes. A little inquiry existed for July delivery The receipts were three cars and there were three cars withdrawn from private warehouses No export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store nominally 77c and a car fresh receipts sold at 78c. No. 3 fresh receipts nominally 68@71c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet. May 73c sellers July 68¾ bid and 67c asked.

BARLEY It was because some stored lots were purchased that the market made any showing of business. Of fresh arrivals the offerings remain too small to admit of anything important being done The market remains favored with a fair demand for good mixing grades and for all grades of malting Barley. Steadiness of prices maintained Eleven cars came in. In some cases sellers report having disposed of mixing Barley for several cents more than could be obtained last week. Sales of Screenings were made at 36@39c, and for same there was a quotable range of 3 @ 40c for poor to choice outside recleaned Barley, low grade feed or mixing, quotable at 38@40c, outside for good weight. Malting, low grade, 42@43c, fair to good sound, 45@48c, good color, 49@58c, and fancy, 58@60c

SEEDS—All lines remain very dull and quiet The market was practically unchanged in all parts Offerings in every case extremely limited to nothing at all.

Timothy Not enough was done to reflect any change in the market Very little cash Seed coming on sale and no special interest in futures was shown Prices entirely unchanged and in the main nominal Market for contract spot or May delivery quotably $3 05 July about $3 10 September $3 20 bid Country lots quotable at $2 10@3 10 for low-grade to fancy, choice about $2 80@2 90, fair to good Seed $2 60@2 75 and rough at $2 40@2 50

Flax—There was but protracted the dullness and inaction noted recently Market without offerings, and equally devoid of demand Values nominal Little Flax moving Local receipts 1 car or 8.0 bu, none taken out Minneapolis got 6 cars and Duluth 11 cars No 1 Northwestern nominally $1 16½, No 1 about $1 00, and Rejected quotable at 97c@$1 10—outside for choice Northwestern. Other Seeds—Aside from some Siberian Millet being offered and sold at 85c there was nothing on sale All lines quotably salable and steady as follows: Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark, at $1 30@1 80 Common Millet $1 20@1 50 for poor to fancy. German Millet $1 2 @1 70 Siberian 85c@$1 10. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 85c@$1 00 Mustard 85c@$1 15 Buckwheat firm, quotable at $1 45@1 50 for good HOG PRODUCTS Rather a good speculative trade in the aggregate reported in Hog Products, but the feeling was somewhat unsettled Offerings were not very large, and the demand was fair. Outside orders were moderate, and local trading was fair. Hogs were in fair supply and prices higher, and this feature stimulated a little buying early in the day Prices were advanced slightly on all the leading articles, but at outside figures there was some inclination to realize and a weaker feeling was developed Prices declined moderately all around. At the reduction the demand improved, and there was slight rally in prices, and the market closed comparatively steady around medium figures for all articles. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 56,100, compared with 59,700 one year ago. Foreign advices indicated a stronger feeling in that quarter, and Liverpool quotations were advanced 6d on Lard, Backs and Cumberland Sides Domestic markets were steady Receipts of Products were fair—of Lard and Meats about 11 cars. Shipments were not very large—of Lard and Meats about 121 cars Inquiry on shipping account was fair, both on export and domestic account. Offerings were moderate. PORK PACKING AND PROVISIONS.

There were rather liberal marketings of Hogs during the past week, and in general not to be shown compared with the preceding several weeks and compared with a year ago. The total Western packing was 166,000 Hogs, compared with 205,000 the preceding week and 48 000 two weeks ago. For the corresponding time last year the number was 45,000 and two years ago 45,000. From March 1 the total is 850,000, against 1,000,000 last year, an increase of 50,000. The reports in regard to quality range from fair to good, and as a rule seem to be satisfactory. Weights are generally decidedly lower than a week ago, prominent markets averaging about 8450 per 100 lbs, compared with 84 15 a week ago, 81 70 two weeks ago, 81 80 a year ago, 84 90 two year- ago, and 85 70 three years ago.

The speculative Provision market was only moderately active the past week and the tone was easy in general, closing with a slight lower tending of prices as compared with a week ago. The decidedly tendency in the Grain markets, together with liberal receipts and lower prices for Hogs, were the controlling influences toward the selling side of the market. The prospect of a heavy Corn acreage was also an argument used in regard to the lower distant futures. The exports and clearances of Product were fair and show an increase over the preceding week and a gain over the corresponding week last year.

	1904	Last year.
Pork, pounds	5,000	684,000
Bacon pounds	13 ,2 ,800	8,160,000
Total, Meats	18 8,000	9,1 8,000
Lard, pounds	2 ,000,000	1,000,000
Total, Product	22,1 ,000	28,884,000

ABSORPTION OF SECURITIES.

As bearing on the question of what has become of the stocks, the Wall Street Journal prints the following:

"The extent to which railroad securities at one time active in the market have been absorbed through purchase by other roads may be gauged by the fact that in the past seven to ten years not less than five hundred million dollars have been purchased by other railroads and are permanently removed from the market. The table which follows gives a rough list of the principal purchases made since the reorganization period of 1893-1896, at par value:

Ann Arbor	$ 3,70 ,000
Baltimore and Ohio	51,73,000
Reading (about)	70,000,0 0
Burl., Cedar Rapids and Nor. (about)	5,000,000
Central Railroad of New Jersey	18,50 ,000
Chesapeake and Ohio	30,000,000
Chicago, Burlington and Quincy (about)	30,000,000
Chicago and Eastern Illinois	11,30,000
Chicago Ind. and Louisville (about)	13,000,000
Chicago Rock Island and Pacific (about)	70,000,000
Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul	19,87,500
Chic., Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis	11,25,000
Denver and Rio Grande	12,100,000
Evansville and Terre Haute	2,60 ,000
Hocking Valley (about)	10,000,000
Kansas City, Fort Scott and Memphis	28,500,000
Lake Erie and Western	11,87 ,000
Lake Shore (about)	45,000,000
Lehigh Valley	3,39 ,000
Long Island	6,597,500
Louisville and Nashville	39,60 ,000
Michigan Central	16,84 ,0 0
Mobile and Ohio	6,72 ,0 0
New York, Sus. and Western (about)	25,0 ,000
Norfolk and Western (about)	31,000,000
North Central (about)	6,2 ,000
Northern Securities (about)	82,500,0 0
St. Louis and San Francisco	27,98 ,90
Southern	0,0 ,000
Wabash	8,50 ,0 0
Wheeling and Lake Erie	19,00 ,000
Total	$80 ,77,450

"There has been, of course, a large issue of securities in place of the stocks purchased, many of which were bought at very high prices, as Burlington, Central Railroad of New Jersey Chicago and Eastern Illinois, Rock Island, Lake Shore, Louisville and Nashville, and so on. For example, we can total the last part of $80,0 0,000 of collateral trust bonds issued by the purchasing roads for some of these stocks, a portion of which increases, such as $75,600,000 of Pennsylvania and over $9 0 0,000 of Rock Island for the same purpose. The public is therefore interested to note the disappearance of these formerly active stocks from the market

GRAIN TRADE AND CROPS.

The past week is the fourth consecutive week which has been favorable to the maintenance or betterment of the growing Winter Wheat crop. There is no longer any room for doubt as to the whole of the Winter Wheat area, and there is at present nothing important of any kind working adversely on the plant. The plant is beginning to head out north of the Ohio River, but its development is fully a week later than usual

Spring Wheat seeding is nearly completed; the acreage will not be as large as originally intended, is larger than some expected a couple weeks ago, exceeding moderately the acreage of last year. The crop is starting with very promising conditions; moisture is generally ample, the ground in good condition and it is coming up with good stands.

Much interest in Corn planting was made in the past few days and a large acreage is being seeded Much of the Corn that was planted early, when the ground was too cool and wet, had to be replanted. In the south the crop is in fair to poor condition. In Eastern Kansas and portions of Missouri excessive moisture has been unfavorable for planting and for what was already planted. In the bulk of the Corn belt the ground is in good condition and reports generally indicate a late season but otherwise fairly favorable conditions for planting. Some planting favorable progress with a favorable conditions prevailing The Ohio Valley promises large yields, from large acreage; in Southern Illinois and Eastern Missouri it is this, with only relatively moderate acreage; in Iowa, Wisconsin and Northern Illinois prospects are favorable

Grass crops are late but are now making good growth and the quality of the growth of pasture is reported favorably.

MACARONI WHEAT GROWING PROFITABLE

In conversation with the correspondent of the Modern Miller on the general subject of Macaroni Wheats in the United States, Profe-sor Carleton expressed the opinion that the industry of growing these Wheats has now practically passed the experimental stage, as it has been demonstrated that they can be grown profitably throughout a large area of the country. He said that experiments that he carried on during the years 1900 and that the remainder, except that reserved for seed, has been e mined in the United States, the consumption of the crop being now complete and it is now possible to base our bead lin e. Referring to the enlarged use of th. Wheat in the United States, he called attention to the manufacture of a breakfast food from it, an opening up a new field.

Profe-sor Carleton does no think that the opposition m de by some of the millers of the country to the introduction of Macaroni Wheats will be of long continuance. He also called attention to the objection to these Wheats and that is that a slightly greater amount of power is necessary to grind a bushel of these excessively hard Wheats to flour than is required for the softer varieties. He does not however, believe that this is a sufficiently serious objection to materially interfere with the development of the Macaroni Wheat industry in those parts of the country best adapted to the growth of this Grain

WHEAT IN THE NORTHWEST.

[From the Northwestern Miller.]

Where Wheat was the ground the weather has been most favorable to its growth. Though the temperature was lower than normal, the plant has further been helped to get deep root and has made splendid growth. In the spring fields are reported to show the color, even stand and exceptional hardiness of growth.

As to the outlook for the crop, the dominating feeling is that it is a promising character. It is urged that all vegetation has this spring been slow to start because of the backward season, and that all nature is pretty much ready to provide for the maturity of plant life. Once there is bright, forcing weather, Wheat is expected to make exceptional development, as all conditions favor it. Of course, an early frost is to be guarded in the great acreage, as it might in most any year About 100 days are counted upon as necessary for the maturing of Wheat; this would bring the latest sown up to about Sept. 1.

Reports from Manitoba are that seeding is finished, and that the weather has been very favorable for its better growth

THE WEST ENLARGING.

[From the Chicago Drovers' Journal.]

As the country is better settled up and developed in agriculture and then in manufacture, commerce naturally increases and the railroads receive a steadier volume of business throughout the year. Therefore it is to the advantage of the railroads to develop the resources of the country as much as possible and make themselves more independent of the seasons and of crop years.

The increase of population in the Grain growing States has been remarkable in the past twenty years. Illinois has gained 48 per cent, Iowa, 37 per cent, Minnesota, 124 per cent, and the Dakotas 433 per cent. Figures taken from annual reports for the years 1890 and 1901 indicate not only increased diversity of crops but striking growth of miscellaneous traffic, especially manufactures and minerals. Thus, the Atchison's percentage of manufactures in 1890 was only 4 85 per cent, but in 01 figures had risen to 14 per cent. The percentage of Grain increasing during the same period from 17.97 to 25.31 per cent. In the case of the St. Paul the percentage of traffic from Coal alone increased from 10.81 per cent in 1890 to 15.60 in 1903, while the Grain percentage increased only from 21.73 to 28.06 per cent.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows temperatures Northwest about the same as yesterday rather low. Local rains West and Southwest, but the storm has passed to the Southeast. Temperatures ex- tremes for Northwest 32 to 50; West, 44 to 56; Southwest, 52 to 72

Heaviest rains shown in the Corn belt are .56 at Indianapolis, Chicago .16 inches. Other rainfalls West only trace to .07.

The New Century Zinc and Lead Mining Company of Galena, Kan., has declared its regular monthly dividend of 1 per cent, payable June 1.

The H. C. Price Paper Company, which furnishes the United States Steel Corporation with its Coke, is operating 82 per cent of its capacity Officials say it will continue to operate to that extent at least until July.

Briefs declaring the Chicago Car Service Association a combination in restraint of trade were filed by the United States District Attorney, acting on complaint of shippers over the twenty-six railroads involved.

The plan for readjusting the finances of the $66,600,000 United States Realty Company was announced Wednesday. A new company will be incorporated with $30,000,000 capital stock and $13,500,000 5 per cent bonds.

Consequently, N. Y., has awarded $75,000 4 per cent 11½-year sewer bonds at 101.383, $50 0 4 per cent semi-annual 11½-year average fire bonds at 104 291, and $80,000 4 per cent semi-annual 15½-year average Public Service bonds at 100.37.

The Bank of France, Thursday, reported the enormous increase in Gold of 143,800 00 francs, which raises the total Gold holdings to 2,733,0 0,000 francs, exceeding by 5 0,000,000 francs the new high record for the French bank, and it is also the largest single Gold hoard in the world.

New York interests closely identified with the Pacific Steel Company, the new organization with $100,000,00 capital stock, state that the company will soon acquire extensive holdings in the Ore and Coal fields of Utah. Negotiations to that end are said to be practically consummated

At a meeting of the board of directors of Street's Western Stable Car Line held, Thursday, a semi-annual dividend of $3 50 per share for the half year ending June 30, 1904, on the preferred stock of the company outstanding was declared, payable July 1. Transfer books will close on June 15 and reopen July 2

In his report, which was submitted at the stockholders' annual meeting, the president of the Indianapolis Water Company, Mr. Morris Ketcham, said the results from the past year's operations were poorer than those of the previous year. Briefly, the surplus for the year, after paying the fixed charges and the bonded debt, fell to $341,162, a decrease of about $218,0 0. It was pointed out that the exports were disappointing and that the company was dependent principally on the domestic trade.

The following securities have been listed by the New York Stock Exchange: Buffalo and Susquehanna Railroad, $1,0 8 0 additional first mortgage 4 per cent bonds, due 1957; Ontario and Western, $1,000,000 additional refunding mortgage 4 per cent 100-year bonds of 1997. Missouri, Kansas and Texas, $7,500 0 0 additional common stock. Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railway, May 20, 000 first and refunding mortgage guarantee 4s of 1953. Utah Fuel Company, $300 000 additional 6 per cent thirty-year sinking fund mortgage bonds of 1922.

Attorney General Simons for the Territory of Oklahoma, Wednesday, filed suit for $241 0 0 and interest since April 1 against the American Bonding Company of Baltimore, which was custodian of the territorial deposits in the defunct Capital National Bank The company had executed surety bonds with the Territory of Oklahoma for $250,000. The Capital National Bank failed April 1, 1903, and of territorial money on deposit, and the Territory alleges that the company has made no steps toward a settlement with the territory. Action is also to be brought against other companies

Officers of Chicago Terminal state positively that the July interest will be paid. They add that the company will not earn the interest for the current six months but say the shortage will not be more than $16,000 The securities were under pressure and were fairly well held by speculative interests that think the property, as representative of one these interests says: "Three years ago the property in and around Chicago was appraised at $25,000 00 0, and it has increased in value since then. The company's assets are worth about $1 60,0 0 0 of underlying issues, giving the stock a valuable equity."

A dispatch from Du Quoin, Ill., says: "The North American Mining and Milling Company, recently organized by Chicago capitalists, who refuse to let their names be used, has just opened negotiations for establishing a gigantic plant in this city for the mining and reduction of Illinois zinc ores. The company is capitalized at $1,000,0 0 and is incorporated in Illinois. The cost of the establishment of the first section is estimated at $ 00,000. The location of the property is in the mining center of world wide reputation. The men claim that they can profitably utilize the waste from the metal mines of the world and expect to do an immense business."

A New York dispatch says: "In view of improved conditions, the first preferred dividend of the New Railroad will not be reduced The statement for the current quarter is expected to show much better than that for the quarter ending March 31. By the time the quarterly statement makes its appearance, the dividend probably will have been declared In the matter of gross, the April statement will probably show up fairly well, but the full extent of the economies now being put into effect will not be fully realized. Already, however, there is improvement in net, and in this respect there is a strong feeling that the turning point has been passed."

A dispatch from New York says: "Wall Street is having such a period of business depression as it has not experienced in several years and one result of it is that hundreds of clerks have been dismissed in the last few weeks. Many more retrenchments have been made throughout the Wall Street district Among the big brokerage concerns and banking-houses the depression has been so pronounced that nearly all of them have found it necessary to reduce the working force. One of the largest operators on the Stock Exchange said to-day that a comparative estimate he believed that no less than 5 0 clerks and other employes had been dismissed by the brokerage and banking-houses in the last two weeks."

It is said that the American Sugar Refining Company is now turning from the Refining of Sugar per day from its Eastern refineries. and that the rush season this year started in about two weeks earlier than usual. The company has a supply of about 400,000 tons of low-grade raw Sugar on hand. which represents about 16 per cent of the country's entire raw Sugar requirements, the bulk of which, however, consists mostly of refined Sugar, shows handsome profits. There has never been a season when the big company was operating under better conditions; that is, with powerful Sugar stocks and a demand faced with a large consumptive demand. The growth in the Sugar trade is said to have assumed large proportions, the increase in the demand from confectioners alone being an important factor.

An official of the American Smelting and Refining Company says no definite statement can be made as to the amount of money to be disbursed by the company to the stockholders in connection with the profit-sharing plan until the April earnings were determined. It is expected that the distribution will involve about $4,000,0 0 Under the plan, as it was announced to the employes, the amount to be set aside for distribution will vary according to the total earnings of the company In the first plan following, dividends will be required: First, 7 per cent on the preferred stock, $3,5 0,0 0; 3 per cent on the common stock, $3,000,000; improvements, $1,0 0,000, making a total of $7,500,000. From the surplus earnings above $7,500,000, provided the total earnings do not exceed $8,000,0 0, 25¢ per cent will constitute the fund for distribution. Should the earnings exceed $8,000,0 0, and not exceed $8,500,0 0, 17½ per cent of the surplus will be distributed. Should the earnings exceed $8,500,000, and not exceed $9,000,0 0, 15¢ per cent of the surplus will be distributed and should the earnings exceed $9,000,000, 15 per cent of the entire earnings over and above the $7,500,0 0 will be the distribution.

Interests identified with the reorganization of the United States Ship Building Company believe now that the rehabilitated company will not be ready to engage actively in business before September. Reorganization is proceeding slowly and cannot be hurried. The legal formalities yet to be gone through may require until August, and after this there will remain much to do before the new company may take up ship building to the capacity of its subsidiary companies. In the selection of officials and the management of the new company more attention will be paid to the views and wishes of the ruling interest in the Bethlehem Steel Company than many have been led to suppose. As the greatest money maker in the combination, Bethlehem has come properly to be regarded as the mainstay of the new company. It is said that Charles M. Schwab and his associates, whose interests in Bethlehem are paramount, have under consideration plans for greatly extending the scope of the reorganized company through trade affiliations with other projects. These are understood to include at least one new company, which will fill an important extension of the company's field on the Pacific slope. It will be utilized in conjunction with the Union Iron Works of San Francisco, the new ship building plant owned by the company

The Wall Street Journal says: "There is one thing that the public apparently never has understood, and that is that the Standard Oil Co. has its eggs in one basket and the public's money. The manufacture and sale of securities to the public is, with the intermediate processes, the industry of finance in a nutshell. Without the public money the financiers can do nothing It is of no use to manufacture securities unless they can be sold. The ideal condition of the public mind, from the financier's point of view, is illustrated in good from the point of view of the 'high finance.' To use another metaphor, the public's money is grist to the financial mill, and the public is always as ready in its own hands for grievance it may have against any financier or group of financiers. It has simply to refuse to buy the securities manufactured by the offenders."

1902	1,609,000	1899	1,611,000

Included in the shipments of Meats from Chicago for the past week were about 218,000 pcs of Hams, 99,000 pcs of Shoulders and 155,000 pcs of Sides. For the corresponding week last year the shipments were about 173,000 pcs of Hams, 35,000 pcs of Shoulders and 106,000 pcs of Sides.

A New York dispatch says: "Edwin Hawley and some of his friends will, in 1905, take possession of the Des Moines and Fort Dodge and will provide the funds to pay off the bonds falling due in that year, $3,072 000. These bonds are guaranteed as to interest alone by Rock Island up to their maturity."

The receipts of Flour and Grain at Chicago for the past week were equal to 4,034,000 bu and the shipments were equal to 2,903,000 bu. For the corresponding week in 1903 the receipts were equal to 4,210,000 bu and the shipments to 3,503,000 bu. These figures are supposed to include the through shipments of Flour.

The weekly statement of the New York banks shows the following changes: Increases—Reserves on all deposits, $16,688,050; Reserves, less United States deposits, $16,197,150; Specie, $13,272,6 0; Legal Tenders, $3 012,300; Circulation, $521 2 0. A State organization of Trust companies was formed, Friday, at New York, at which were present fifty trust company officials, representing about $750,000,000 of the $1,000,000,000 assets of trust companies in New York State. Sixty of the eighty trust companies of the State have approved of the organization. The association is to be called "The Trust Companies Association of the State of New York."

Export clearances for the past week from Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Newport News, New Orleans, and Galveston included 91,000 brls of Flour and 207,000 bu Wheat, against 154,000 brls of Flour and 59,000 bu of Wheat the preceding week, a decrease of 63,000 brls of Flour and an increase of 148,000 bu of Wheat. For the corresponding week last year the exports were 244 000 brls of Flour and 1,253,000 bu of Wheat.

Owing to changes required in the building as a result of the municipal legislation following the Iroquois fire, the strikes of some of its employes and the fire in its own building, the net earnings of the Masonic Fraternity Temple Association, Chicago, in the year ended April 30, were about $6 000 less than in the preceding year. The amount left for the stock, after the payment of bond interest and running expenses, was $60,500, or about 3½ per cent on the capital outstanding.

A contract lasting fifty years for an interchange of traffic between the Wabash Railroad and the Wheeling and Lake Erie Terminal Railroad Company has been signed. This contract provides that of the earnings of all freight originating in the Pittsburg terminal and accruing to the Wabash and Wheeling and Pittsburg Railroads 25 per cent shall be set aside to guarantee the interest on the $25 000 000 first mortgage bonds of the Terminal road and the $20,000,000 second mortgage bonds. This provision was made because of the fact that for a year or two the Terminal will be in a constructive condition and heavy earnings will be impossible. No amount in excess of the $25,000,000 of the first mortgage bonds will be issued until the interest is paid on the second mortgage bonds.

A vice president of the New York Central system, speaking of the recent orders for cutting down the force of employes on the Vanderbilt lines, said: "The unexpected spurt in freight traffic last autumn and early in the winter compelled nearly all of the Eastern railroads to increase their clerical and working forces in the freight departments. About the middle of April it became apparent to the trunk line managers that no improvement of business conditions could be looked for this summer. The abnormal expenses of conducting transportation throughout the winter had reduced the earnings of the roads to such an alarming extent that directors began to issue instructions for economy. It was then that the orders went out to drop not only the temporary employes, but all others who could be spared from the various departments."

The United States Realty and Improvement Company, capital $30 000,000, has been incorporated under the New Jersey State laws. This is the new company provided for in the plan for the reorganization of the finances of the United States Realty and Construction Company. The securities of this company are expected to be exchanged for those of the old company under the reorganization plan by July 1. Arrangements have been made with the New York Security and Trust Company in the City of New York, and the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank in the City of Chicago, so that stockholders desiring to effect this exchange can, on or before July 1, 1904, deposit stock of the United States Realty and Construction Company with either of the trust companies, to be exchanged. Receipts will be issued by the trust companies, certifying that stock has been deposited to be exchanged.

THE HAY TRADE OF CANADA.

[From the Montreal Trade Bulletin.]

A good Hay crop is now assured for this province, the recent copious showers having produced a marvelous improvement in the meadows and pasturage. Advices from the North Shore district state that the prospects for a splendid yield were never better than they are at present; and it is expected that farmers will be more anxious to dispose of their stocks of old Hay, now that all doubts of a short crop are removed.

JAPANESE RICE CROP.

According to the Japan Weekly Mail, of the 27th of February, official investigation shows that the Japanese Rice crop of last year does not come up to the very high estimates made in the autumn. It was expected to exceed 233,000,000 bu, whereas it was under that amount. The following figures show the crop of each of the last five years:

Year—	Crop in bu.
1899	196,903,400
1900	205,675,000
1901	23[illegible] 695,[illegible]00
1902	183,257,600
1903	230,516,200

The average crop being 214,536,300 bu, it appears that last year's yield was 15,979,500 bu above the average, and also that it was 47,258,600 bu better than that for 1902. The reason assigned for the slight disappointment is that just as the Grain was approaching maturity unfavorable weather set in.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Fair domestic demand at steady prices.

WINTER WHEAT—Was quiet and steady. The few cars of fresh arrivals were taken by usual buyers. No. 2 Red in store nominally $1 05@1 06 and fresh arrivals free on board at $1 05@1 08. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals free on board quotable at $1 03 @1 07, with sale of a car at $1 05. No. 4 Red sold at 90c. No. 2 Hard Winter fresh receipts quotably 93 @98½c, with a sale of a car at 93½c. No. 3 Hard quotable at 81@93c, with a sale at 83½c. No. 3 White sold at $1 01.

SPRING WHEAT—Was in only light demand and the market was quiet and quotably steady. No. 1 Northern in store was quotable at 95½@97¼c and fresh arrivals free on board quotably about 97c@$1 00. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals nominally 92@97c. No. 3 Spring ranged at 85@97c for poor to choice. No. 4 Spring quotable at 64@83c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—The close showed the market as irregular. May lost 1⅛c on account of the large deliveries on contracts and the more deferred months ¼@½c lower. No cash business was reported, either here or at the seaboard. Trade in Wheat was small. The feature was the evening up over the two holidays by a lot of the room-trading element. Some of them were "short," while others were "long," and they either bought or sold in order to evade any sharp changes that might occur. There were further large deliveries on May contracts, showing beyond a doubt that the elevators are not idle. The outside business was again small. It is always small just prior to a holiday. The routine statistics cut no figure in price making. The English visible supply decreased 16,000 bu for the week, compared with an increase of 1,101 000 bu a year ago. English farmers' deliveries were 336,000 bu for the week at unchanged price. The previous week they were 392,000 bu at 81c, and a year ago 488,000 bu at 83¼c. The world's shipments are expected to be 10 000,-000 bu for week, of which Europe will take 9 800,-000 bu. Little change on ocean passage is looked for. Imports into the United Kingdom for the week were 4,000 000 bu Wheat, compared with 4,400,000 bu the week before and 4,200,000 bu a year ago. Drouth reports were still coming in from Hungary and Roumania. Australian shipments were 619 000 bu, against 648 000 bu a year ago. Northwestern receipts for the week 729 cars, compared with 471 cars for the week before and 769 cars a year ago. Cables were colorless, save those from Paris, where losses 1¼@1¾c were shown. Liverpool was unchanged to ⅛d lower, while London was unchanged to ⅛d higher. Minneapolis Wheat stocks decreased 60,000 bu for one day. Receipts at Duluth .. cars and Minneapolis 35 cars, a total of 35 cars, against 133 cars yesterday, 85 cars a week ago, and holiday last year. Local receipts included 2 cars Winter, 27 cars Spring, none mixed, a total of 29 cars, against holiday last year. Included in the above were no cars contract grade. There was also 29 cars and 31,801 bu from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for Monday are 14 cars. Withdrawals to-day were 12,700 bu. Receipts at Western points were 90,611 bu, against holiday last year; at Eastern points 1,139 bu, against holiday last year. Shipments from Western points were 10,335 bu, against holiday last year, and from Eastern points 3,400 bu, against holiday last year. Shipments of Flour were 1,785 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 8, 32 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Light trade and market rather steady at lower prices.

MAY—Sold at 95½@97¼c. Opened with sales at 96¼c to 96½c; sold to 95¾c, to 95½c, to 97¼c, to 96½c, to 97c, and closed at 96⅞c.

JULY—Old Style—Sold at 86⅞@87½c. Opened with sales at 87½c to 87⅛c; sold to 87@87⅛c, to 87⅛ @87¼c, to 87⅛c, to 87⅜c, to 87¼c, to 87½c, to 87⅛@87¼c, to 87⅜c, to 86⅞c and closed at 87c bid.

JULY—New Style—Sold at 85¾@85⅞c and at 86¼ @86⅜c. Opened with sales at 86¼c to 86c; sold to 85⅞@86c, to 86¼@86⅜c, to 86⅛c, to 86¼c, to 85¾@85⅞c, to 85⅞c, and closed at 85⅞c.

SEPTEMBER—Old Style—Sold at 82⅛@82½c. Opened with sales at 82¼c to 82⅜c; sold to 82¼c, to 82½c, to 82⅛c, to 82¼@82⅜c, to 82¼c, and closed at 82¼c.

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 80½@80⅝c and at 80⅞c. Opened with sales at 80¾c to 80⅝c; sold to 80⅞c, to 80½@80⅜c, to 80⅝c, and closed at 80⅝c.

DECEMBER—Sold at 80½@80¾c, and closed at 80⅛c.

CORN—Declines of ⅜@¾c were made, and the market closed tame. There was no cash business reported here, and as New York was closed, there was nothing in the way of news from that point. As in Wheat, the Corn market was a small affair, with price changes narrow. Houses looked upon as standing close to the country were the leading sellers while the buying was led by "shorts," some of whom had a profit. The unusually heavy receipts, 684 cars, with 32 cars contract, was a feature in the trade and was a help to the "bears." There were 111 cars switched from private houses, and 288,000 bu were taken from store. Primary receipts were 613 800 bu, and the clearances 3,400 bu. Liverpool was ⅛d off for futures. Good weather is promised and a free movement is anticipated. Car lots were in large supply and prices 1@½c lower. Demand only fair. No 2 closed at about 47½c. No. 2 Yellow sold at 48½c and closed there. No 2 White sold at 48c. No 3 Yellow sold at 47½ @48c, and closed at 48c. No. 4 sold at 43@46c. No Grade sold at 38@40c.

Corn by sample—Offerings large and demand only moderate. Prices declined 1@1c. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 32 @40c. No. 4 at 38@42c. No. 3 at 47@48c. No 3 Yellow at 48@49c. No 2 at 47½@48½c. No. 2 Yellow at 48½@49½c. No 3 White at 47¼@48c. No 2 White at 48@48½c. Billed through: No Grade at 38@41c. No 4 at 41@46½c. No. 3 at 45¾@47½c. No. 3 Yellow at 47¼@48c. No. 2 at 46½c. No 2 Yellow at 48c. No. 3 White at 46¼@46½c. No 2 White at 47c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Losses of ⅜@ @¾c were made and the market closed tame.

MAY—Sold at 46½@47⅛c. Opened at 47⅛c, sold to 46⅝c, to 46¾c, to 46½c, to 46¾c, closing at 46⅝c.

JULY—Sold at 46⅞@47⅝c. Opened at 47½c to 47⅝c, sold to 47¼c, to 47⅝c, to 46⅞c, to 47c, closing at 47c asked.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 46⅝c to 47@47⅛c. Opened at 47c to 47@47⅛c, sold to 46⅝@46⅝c, to 46¾c, to 46⅝c, to 46¾c closing at 46⅝@46¾c.

DECEMBER—Sold at 42@42⅜c, opening at 42⅜c and selling down to 42c, where it closed with 42c bid.

MAY-1905—Sold at 41⅞c, to 41½c and closed at 41⅝c.

OATS—Were weakened by good weather and liberal selling, and closed ¼@⅜c lower. There was plenty of May offered and it broke ⅝c from yesterday's close. July was bought by same houses who sold May. Cash business slow and prices ½c lower. Deliveries on May trades were 100,000 bu. Arrivals 17- cars with 128 cars estimated for Monday. Withdrawals were 60,400 bu, and cancellations 30,000 bu. Export clearances 4,860 bu. Car lots to go to store were lower. No. 3 sold at 39c. No. 3 White at 41⅝c. Standard in store closed at about 41¼@41⅝c as to location.

Oats by sample were steady to ½c lower. Offerings were liberal and the demand slow. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade at 35c. No. 4 at 36½@38c. No. 4 White at 37½@41c. No 3 at 39¾c. No. 3 White at 41@43c. Standard at 41¾@42¾c. No 2 at 39@39½c. No 2 White at 43c. Billed through: No 4 White at 40c. No 3 White at 41 @42c. Standard at 42½c. No. 2 at 39c. At the river: No. 4 White at 37@39¼c. No. 3 White at 40¼@40½c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were weak and lower.

MAY—Sold at 41@41⅝c. Opened at 41⅝c, sold to 41c, to 41¼c at close.

JULY—Active. Sold at 38⅜@38⅝c. Opened at 38¾c, sold to 38⅜c, to 38½c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 30⅝@30¾c. Opened at 30⅝c to 30¾c; closed at 30⅝c.

RYE—Very quiet and easier, with May 1c lower and July unchanged. Only a light demand existed and offerings also light. There were four cars received and 4 500 bu withdrawn from private warehouses. No export clearances from the seaboard. No 2 in store nominally 72c and fresh arrivals nominally 74@75c. No. 3 nominally 68@71c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet. May sold at 72c. July 66c bid.

BARLEY—The very little Barley of the different grades offered was taken. There was quotable a steady market. Mixing demand fair and some maltsters were present as buyers. Ten cars were inspected in. Values quotable over a range the same as has lately appeared. Screenings were quotable at 30@39c for poor to choice, outside recleaned. A few cars sold at 31@39c. Barley, low-grade feed or mixing, quotable at 38@40c outside for good weight. Malting, low grade, 42@43c; fair to good sound, 45@48c; good color, 49@56c, and fancy, 58@59c.

SEEDS—There were no transactions. The market was entirely devoid of offerings. For no line was there anything developed suggestive of any change in prices.

Timothy—There was no cash Seed on sale. It was a short session and with speculative interest absent hardly any attention was given the market. Prices were nominally unchanged. Contract spot or May delivery Seed quotable at $3 05. July about $3 10. September $1 20 bid. Country lots quotable at $1 40@3 10 for low-grade to fancy, choice about $2 80@2 90, fair to good Seed $2 60@2 75 and rough at $1 40@2 50.

Flax—Neither spot or future delivery Flax was offered, and no one made any inquiries for Seed. No change was quotable, the market being lifeless and nominal, with quotable values as follows: No. 1 Northwestern nominally $1 06½, No. 1 at $1 00, and Rejected quotable at 97c@$1 00 outside for choice Northwestern. May delivery was nominally $1 02. July at $1 02½ and September at $1 06. Local receipts 1 car and 112 bags, or 1,074 bu. Output 1 car or 1 0·6 bu. None received at Minneapolis and 8 cars at Duluth.

Clover—Inactive and unchanged. Contract spot Seed was quotably $10 75. Country lots common to choice, $7 75@10 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $5 00@8 00; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00 @ 6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 50.

Other Seeds—Late sowing Seeds salable and good qualities quotably firm, there were no offerings. Buckwheat quotably firm. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark, at $1 40@1 80. Common Millet $1 20@1 50 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 20@1 70. Siberian, 85c@$1 10. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 85c@$1 05. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat quotable at $1 45@1 60 for good.

HOG PRODUCTS—Only a moderate business was reported in Hog Products. Outside orders were small, and local operators not inclined to do much business. Feeling rather easy, and prices ruled slightly lower early, but the market in a general way closed steady. Hogs were in fair supply, with little change to note in prices. Good supply anticipated during the coming week. Receipts at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 41,900, against about 41, 00 one year ago. WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW

MONEY AND STOCKS.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY EVENING May 27, 1904.

Money in Chicago is about on a 4 per cent basis, although a majority of loans were at 4½ per cent. Some of the large banks are getting as high as 5 per cent on time money and claim to be mostly loaned up. The indications are that rates will remain low for some time unless the Grain movement becomes very heavy and the use of funds in that line is largely increased. The State banks of Chicago have reduced their rates on deposits from 3 to 2½ per cent. In New York money was easy at 2½ to 2¾ per cent on the Stock Exchange and 2½ to 4 per cent on time, with mercantile paper paying 3½ to 4½ per cent.

New York exchange was firm at 5c@10c premium per $1,000 closed at 15c.

Foreign exchange was somewhat unsettled. The supply of commercial bills has ceased and the demand for exchange has been fully as supplied by bankers, finance bills and further exports of Gold. As the fall months approach, the more long-time bills the bankers are liable to draw, anticipating liberal exports of Cotton and Grain. Shippers' sixty-day documentary sterling bills on London ranged at 484¼ @ 484½, and closed at 484½.

A moderate business transpired in the mercantile line. The buying of all lines of goods is of conservative quantities, the disposition being to keep close to shore and not anticipate requirements too far ahead. Reports from the jobbing trade all indicate a liberal run of orders for heavy dry goods for late fall and winter use which helps to relieve the present quietness among jobbers. Prices on Cotton and Woolens remain steady. Shoe manufacturers are getting a good run of orders for forward delivery and report a slight increase for immediate shipment, as improved weather has increased the demand. Clothiers prevailed it; pig iron and sales were slow. There is said to be a movement under way to curtail production 30 to 40 per cent, owing to the present condition of the trade it is necessary to take radical steps at once to prevent demoralization. There is no improvement in the buying of finished products, but, at the same time, orders have not fallen off any in the past few weeks. A good many light rails are being taken, particularly by electric railways. Some structural is being booked and prices are steadily holding. Jobbers in hardware and ironware are experiencing a liberal run of business. Increased sales of building materials and lumber are reported, both locally and to outside points. In grocery line features are the firmness of all points in granulated Sugars and a moderate distribution of all staples. The buying of paints and drugs has fallen off and turpentine shows a decline. Collections are fair.

Cotton in New York was influenced in the early trading by the steadiness in Liverpool and the rather unfavorable tone of the Government crop bulletin, the crop not making good progress in all sections. Speculators were nervous, as operations by New Orleans traders are cutting considerable figure. In Liverpool spinners took the lowest point since January and traders there were disposed to work for a reaction. Private reports on the acreage make the increase 7% to 10% per cent over last year. Despite the bearish features since larger and a fair quantity is being taken by spinners. Prices had a good range and closed 1 to 3 higher on near and 10 to 5 points lower on distant deliveries for the week.

Local Securities were extremely slow throughout the week, part of the time being nearly enough trading to establish prices. The feature was the strength and advance in Metropolitan Elevated preferred, it having fair support on reports of increased business and good prospects for the early completion of the new elevated line. Biscuit shares were held steadily, and reports of business are favorable. Diamond Match is doing a good business, and its shares are well held. With the other industrials there is a feeling of loss of business as compared with last year, there being very little doing in their shares but they are inclined to weaken if it. Considerable stress the meeting of the Chicago Edison stockholders of June 13, they will be asked to vote an increase to the capital stock of $2,000,000 Bonds were liberally traded in with a steadier tendency.

Stocks in New York were stronger during a good part of the week. The main supporting influence was the buying by Standard Oil interests. This has been taking place for some weeks past, and its holdings are now the largest of the year. It has been especially active in absorbing Steel shares and Wall Street says that the greater part of the Schwab holdings have been acquired by the Standard Oil party. The market at no time was a large one. The "bear" interest was aggressive at times, but part of the rallies from the breaks were due to covering by "shorts." Traffic returns are unfavorable, and earnings of all railroads are decreasing. Operating expenses are being cut, road forces curtailed, 100,000 men having been cut off in the past six months. Net earnings are showing heavy losses from last year and are not expected to increase during the month of May. Crop prospects are favorable throughout the West and on the outcome of the harvest depends the prosperity of the Western railroads for the next year. If poor harvest will prevail net earnings will be less above the average of the past six months and mean the enforcement of many economies. The Stock Exchange is to be closed Saturday, and the bank statement will not have any effect on the market this week. It is not expected that it will be especially unfavorable. There will be a gain in cash which is to be offset by the withdrawal of funds by the Government in connection with the Panama Canal payment. Gold exports continue liberal and since April 1 aggregate $6,000,000. Disbursements in Europe on account of Japan are expected to be about $150,000,000 in stocks and bonds, which will, to a considerable extent, be reinvested. At the close gains on most of the list were slightly higher than a week ago. Trading in bonds was larger and they averaged higher. Total sales on the New York Stock Exchange for the week were 1,189,900 shares, against 1,309,400 shares the previous week and 3,675,000 shares for the same time last year.

COMMERCIAL

In the aggregate there was a fairly good speculative trade reported in Grain and Provisions during the week just closed. Outside orders were not very large, as operators appear to be cautious in view of the apparent depression in transportation brought on by the gradual discharge of employes by the railroad companies, and the embargo on lake traffic owing to the strike of vessel employes and of freight handlers at the lower lake ports and the beboard of lakes. Notwithstanding this there was good investment buying, and the bulk of the trading may be credited to professional operators who are in the market for a "short turn." Trading in Wall Street was quiet, and with the approach of summer vacation season is approaching, there is little prospect of any material revival before the fall months. The movement of Grain from the country continues on a liberal scale, though it has little effect on general trade, as the financial affairs of the country are in good condition and the banks are reported to have abundant funds on hand. With the movement of the new crops, which are now regarded as more favorable for good yields, there will probably be a fair revival in trade, though many parties are suspicious of business during Presidential election year. With enlarged supplies of the leading cereals, there will be more interest manifested in speculation and the cash trade be more attractive. Reports from the leading markets during the week was rather easy, with some liquidation by parties who were willing to accept moderate profits, especially in the near deliveries, and a fair number deliveries more attractive toward the close.

Advices from abroad indicated a little improvement in the export demand for Wheat, but shippers are looking fairly well in the United Kingdom, Germany, Italy and Spain, and quite good in France. Rains have prevailed in Roumania and in Russia, and the crop outlook in the latter is slightly improved. In Northern Europe the season is a little backward, and the crops are late. Farmers are still free sellers of small Grain in the Southwest, but receipts are light. Primary countries are on a liberal scale, especially Russia, India, Argentina and Australia. Weather favorable for seeding in Australia.

Weather conditions in the United States during the past week were generally favorable for the growing crop, and a general improvement was noted. Reports from the Spring Wheat belt in the Northwest, and the early sown Grain is growing finely. Estimates vary considerably as to the area seeded. Outlook on the Pacific Coast is not quite so favorable for the small Grain in California, and rather good in Washington and Oregon. In the Southwest, the general prospects for small Grain are somewhat improved, and the prospects in the Central States are fair to good. The Outlook for Oats is rather good except in some sections of the Southwest. Corn, Oats and Rye will be in liberal supply, and the acreage of Spring planting is progressing rapidly in the West and Northwest.

The movement of Grain from the farms and interior elevators of the Northwest is reported as largest during the past week. Offerings of Wheat and Rye were moderate, while farmers were disposed to sell Corn, Oats and Barley with considerable freedom. Some work in the fields delivered farmers have more time to attend to marketing of Live Stock and Grain. The movement of Grain was delayed largely by rail routes. The tie-up of ve-sels checks shipments by lake, and the strike of freight handlers at Buffalo and at the seaboard cities checks business to a great extent. Reports from the Spring Wheat belt continue on a moderate scale. According to the official weekly visible supply of Grain, there were decreases in the stocks of Wheat, Corn, Oats, Rye and Barley. Some surprise was expressed at the decrease in the world's supply of Wheat—about one-sixth the latter reported one year ago—while the reductions in Corn and Oats were considerably larger.

Rather a good speculative business was reported in the Grain markets during the week just closed, the trading in Provisions was only fair. Trading was largely in a professional way, and to a great extent on local account. Outside orders were moderate and generally for small quantities. There was some realizing on the near deliveries especially in Wheat, which resulted in lower prices, while the improved outlook for the growing crop had a bearish influence in reducing prices. Fluctuations in prices were frequent in the leading markets, and at the close the net changes were slight compared with those of one week ago. Hog Products met with only fair speculative trading at times. Prices ruled irregular—somewhat lower at one time and fairly miscellaneous selling, but rallied again on buying of "shorts". Trading chiefly in July and September contracts. Local receipts of the articles are quite liberal Packing of the west for the week, compared with the corresponding week in 1903, exhibited an increase of 25,000 Hogs. The aggregate for the season to date show an increase of about 5½ per cent.

In cash Grain there was quite an active business during the past week, especially in Corn and Oats. Sales were larger than for some time past. The receipts were materially larger, and this was responsible for the increased trade. The undertone to the market was rather easy under the pressure to sell, but the decline in prices was moderate, especially on the better grades. Shippers by lake were not inclined to purchase to any extent, and shippers of car lots accepted only moderate quantities. Warehousemen purchased with considerable freedom. Wheat sold slowly and the premium for the better grades over May was lost. Rye was dull and draggish, and prices ruled lower. Barley was fairly active with little change to note in prices. Hay was in rather good demand with moderate offerings. Seeds were in moderate request with fair offerings, and prices were somewhat lower, especially for Flax. Hog Products were in small request, both on domestic and export account, and there was no particular pressure to sell. Prices exhibited little change. Hogs were in larger supply, and prices ruled lower early, but rallied again toward the close. Cattle were in moderate supply with active feeding of outside orders and here there, but the trade on the whole, was on room trading account. The market for Sheep and Lambs was featured the selling side and there were selling orders here from Liverpool. The "bulls" seemed to lose heart and refused to give the market support when supplies showed a material increase, and the smooth sailing nearly the whole week in consequence. Crop advices were better—decidedly so, and this fact not only drove considerable Wheat out of the hands of Speculators, but caused the export buyers to stand aloof unless at a much lower level. Many of those speculators who were on the "bull" side of the market a week or ten days ago have switched around and are now among the strong adherents of the "bear" cause. The death of a prominent St. Louis operator, Wednesday, caused many in the trade to close out the speculative trades here and to take no chances. The latter can be covered for his account and prices be advanced. Some Wheat came out on the reports of further increase in the visible supply, and on the excellent crop reports from Manitoba and other sections of that country. A message was received from California that claimed a total yield of only 45,000,000 bus. for the State, which is considerably below the yield of 1903. A cable from London said that the Wheat in Argentina is sprouting. There was nothing of a sensational nature in the routine of business reported and the trade in the market was really influenced. The fact that the domestic Flour trade is somewhat better and that resellers are out of the market attracted a great deal of attention. The receipts for the past week was 276,200 brls, compared with 224,052 brls a week ago, and 381,855 brls a year ago. The Price Current for the fourth consecutive week reported the prospects of the winter wheat crop. The Northwestern Miller said that the weather for the week has been highly favorable for the Northwestern Wheat crop. That in the North, and especially in the Red River Valley where Wheat seeding had not been completed, the weather for the most part was bright and pleasant and seeding progressed rapidly, and therefore the first of the current week was practically practically finished. In the Red River Valley, it is estimated that the Wheat acreage is 10 to 15 per cent smaller than in 1903. In Minnesota and North Dakota the area is believed to have been increased sufficiently to offset this, if not to do even more than that. With South Dakota and Southern Minnesota prospects are not quite so large as last year, if not an area a little in excess, conservative men in the trade are estimating the Wheat acreage in the three States at slightly above the 1903 area. The crop of 1903 was the largest ever harvested. Flour sales were reported as fair, but the "bears" construed by the trade as a "bearish" document. It said in part: "Wheat seeding is practically finished except in North Dakota, where it is well advanced, where the seeding is being pushed and is doing well. Rain is needed in Southern Minnesota, Montana and North Pacific Coast. The rain is needed to germinate the late sown. The crop was well advanced before any rain fell in Kansas, and generally in Missouri, but in portions of last named State the outlook somewhat less promising. Improvement reported from Illinois, Michigan and Ohio, where, however, the condition is low for the very poor. In Middle Atlantic States the crop has made satisfactory progress, and a general improvement is reported in the Pacific States. The crop sustained slight damage from dry winds in California, but the crop continues to do well in Oregon and Washington. The world's available supply of Wheat decreased 5,834,000 bus. last week, a decrease of 6,45,000 bu for the week, against a decrease of 3,834 000 bu for the corresponding period a year ago. Of the above there was a decrease of 2,429,000 bus. in the United States, and an increase of 1,760,000 bu in the amount in Europe and afloat therefor. Crop news from abroad still favored the "bear" side of the market. While the growth of Wheat is reported as rather slow in Italy, Germany, France and the United Kingdom, crop conditions were said to be favorable. In Roumania the conditions are fair to good, save in the immediate vicinity of Braila, where the rain is believed to have come too late to do much good in the matter of offsetting the long-drawn-out drought. Cables from Russia to 28 per cent, Russian Wheat conditions are better, while Rye is not good, many complaints being heard of latter cereal. The season is late in Sweden, while in North Europe it is reported to be backward. The German Imperial crop report for the middle of May shows an improvement of 1 point in Winter Wheat, which is 6 points better than at the same period in 1903. Only about 1½ per cent changed since April 15 and is 4 points better than in 1903. Summer Wheat and Rye are rated at the same as in 1903. Other crops have improved since April 15. There has been a general planting of the summer Grains, owing to the unfavorable weather, but their condition is reported to be satisfactory. The Italian Government crop report for May 15 returns are coming in to indicate that the Northwestern Wheat area shows a material increase over the 1903 area; that Minnesota and South Dakota will show a large increase, to 15 per cent; that the returns from the southwestern counties of North Dakota are showing large increases, while the Valley comes very close to being a stand-off. The crop report of the United States Department of Agriculture on conditions up to May 16 says that the season proved one of the most disastrous for Winter Wheat in the history of the United States, stating that many of the fields are showing signs of improvement, and a good tone pervades the reports regarding Spring Wheat operations. The greatest damage is reported in the Pacific Coast country. World's shipments were 10,296,600 bu, compared with 10,567,000 bu a week ago and 12,432,000 bu a year ago. There was an increase in the amount on ocean passage of 656,000 bu, and the total amount destined for the importing countries of the world 58,512,000 bu. The visible supply decreased 1,400 bu, against a decrease of 2,458,000 bu a year ago. The total amount of Wheat in the visible supply is now 24,111,000 bu, compared with 28,038,000 bu a week ago and 27,302,000 bu a year ago. The Orange Judd Farmer says that the improved condition of Winter Wheat is marked in some of the States and slight in others, Michigan being the only State to show deterioration. Contract stocks in Chicago public houses show a decrease of 95,502 bu for the week, and are now 985,712 bu, compared with 681,314 bu the previous week and 1,400 bu a year ago. Total amount of stocks of all kinds Wheat in all positions at Chicago are now 3,733,000 bu, compared with 5,402,000 bu a year ago. Stocks of Wheat in public warehouses in Liverpool reported at 3,606,000 bu, compared with 3,079,000 bu one week ago and 1,349,000 bu a year ago. English visible supply increased 597,000 bu, compared with an increase of 1,611,000 bu last week and an increase of 1,619,000 bu last year. Argentine shipments for the week 2,492,000 bu, compared with 2,584,000 bu the previous week, and 1,840,000 bu a year ago. Shipments since January 1, 58,992,000 bu, against 36,722,000 bu for the corresponding period last year. Argentine visible supply 4,400,000 bu, a decrease for the week of 92,000 bu, against 1,226,000 bu the week before and 4,677,000 bu a year ago.

CORN—More than one operator was puzzled owing to the continued strength in this cereal in the face of increased receipts and general favorable reports from the growing crop. It is said that one of the Wall Street parties who was "long" an enormous line of July Corn recently and who claims that he is out, was the cause of the strength to that effect. July sold between 47½c and 48⅝c and September between 40¾c and 47¾c. The situation in Corn was an unusual one, to say the least. There was more than the usual trade talk of a smooth crop, age of Corn planted, 90; increase in acreage, 7 per cent; amount of old Corn still in farm-ra' hands, 12 per cent. Forty-five of the replies said a fair to average crop was to be expected, while only two weeks, while 57 answers held the reverse view. The Cincinnati Price Current says that Corn planting is progressing rapidly with the corresponding early planting. The increase is large and the start early, and the outlook is good and the growth will be rapid. Condition in the South is poor to fair. In speaking of the general crop situation says the weather crop conditions were given as follows: "Planting has advanced favorably, except in parts of Central Mississippi and Ohio Valleys, where it has been prevented by wet soil. In Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas planting is nearly completed but in Missouri it is only about half finished and much remains to be planted where this work has been generally done. In the Central States the bulk of the plant is generally small and backward, but has made good growth in Texas. Cut worms have proved very destructive in Kentucky." The world's available supplies decreased 1,764,000 bu for the week, against 2,488,000 bu a week ago and 3,067,000 bu a year ago. The amount of Corn on ocean passage is 7,946,000 bu, showing an increase of 1,190,000 bu for the week. The total amount destined for importing countries is 9,960,000 bu, against 9,960,000 bu, against 6,195,000 bu a week ago and 4,360,000 bu one year ago. Local contract stocks decreased 58,800 bu for the week, and are now 2,967,000 bu, against 3,367 970 bu the week before and 1,045,812 bu a year ago. Stocks of Corn in all positions in Chicago are now 4,400,000 bu, compared with 5,386,000 bu a year ago. The world's available supply decreased 1,734,000 bu for the week, compared with a decrease of 874,000 bu a year ago The Argentine shipments for the week were 1,031,000 bu, compared with 1,096,000 bu the week before and 1,412,000 bu a year ago. Since January 1 these shipments have been 11,813,000 bu, as compared with 10,600 bu for the corresponding time last year. Visible supply in chief ports of Argentina 2,400,000 bu, compared with 1,645,000 bu the week before, and 2,238,000 bu a year ago. Clearances from the seaboard were taken up and stood against 118,000 bu the week before and 1,170 0 bu a year ago.

OATS—The market was erratic with moderate trading. The leading "bull" interest was a heavy seller in May and July in an effort to dislodge a large line held by a New York interest. May broke from 42c to 40c, and reacted to 43c, and closed at 42¾c. July broke from 37½c to 36c, sold back to 37⅝@39c, and closed at 38¼@38⅜c, a gain of ¼c. The "short" interest covered on the break and part of the time after the decline there was moderate general buying by commission houses, mostly for the account of September. May was bought by "shorts" and there were fair deliveries each day. The weekly Government crop bulletin says: "General outlook in the principal Oat growing area is favorable. Seeding is finished except in the extreme Northern districts and harvest is in progress in the Southern States. In the East Gulf States light yields are generally reported and in the Central States below the average is indicated. Receipts for the week showed a material increase and indications were for an enlargement. Arrivals were 853 cars, compared with 538 cars the week before and 937 cars for the same time last year. In the sample market there was a fair business with ample offerings and prices receded 1½@2c, and closed easy. Estimated receipts were 350,000 bu, compared with 138,000 bu the previous week, and 641,326 bu last year. Local stocks of contract decreased 109,000 bu, and are now 1,045,000 bu. Stocks in all elevators decreased 389,000 bu, and were 891,76 bu against 597,999 bu last year. Supplies in private elevators decreased 185,000 bu, and were 1,048,000 bu, and in public elevators 1,000 bu, and in no visible supply there was a reduction of 834,000 bu, and stocks were 6,422,000 bu, against 8,439,000 bu last year.

RYE—Only a light business was transacted and the advance of last week was not maintained. Prices declined about 4c for cash and May delivery, while the July delivery was steady. Trading was on very light lines both for cash and futures. A few cars of fresh receipts of choice Rye were wanted for local manufacturing purposes, and for export, and sold at full prices, but only a relatively full prices to supply their wants. Receivers found ready sale for all choice fresh arrivals. There has been but little disposition to trade in futures, and only on occasional sales were made. There really has been little interest shown in the market. The receipts for the week aggregated 2 cars, against 34 cars the previous week. There were no inspections from private warehouses and 2 car loads were taken from private warehouses. Export clearances from the seaboard none. Visible supply decreased 23,000 bu, and now stands at 926,000 bu, against 979,000 bu the previous week and 1,132,000 bu one year ago. The local stock in store was 403,000 bu and a year ago was 387,000 bu. Stocks in store were practically early at 72c for No 2 cash lots, and later down to 73c, and fresh receipts free on board sold at 74@76c. No 3 fresh receipts sold at 69@73c for good to choice, and quotably at 70@72c. No 4 fresh sold at 66@68c. Receipts of No 2 Rye the market was quiet. May sold at 72c and later at 73c. July sold at 66¼c and closed at 66c bid.

BARLEY—Trading on Monday there were offerings of mailtiny grades, and some blew cars among the consignments offered. The demand was tame and an easy feeling prevailed so that some concessions had to be made. 1@2c decline in prices being in some instances quoted. Following this the supply accumulated and on Tuesday there was a fair demand from outside points for a small order, which is customary for this season of the year. On Wednesday there was a sale in was steady, but any material increase in offerings was disposed to exert an easy feeling. Occasional small lots to arrive were offered and they were firmly held. Of low grade or feed Barley very little of fresh arrivals came on sale, but a number of stored lots were taken, and for mixing goods some advance in prices was quoted; some quoted 2c gain. Some Screenings were on the market all the time, and when recleaned they were firm with a fair demand. Such cars as were dirty, seedy, ruled dull and slow; general supply at close small. During the week 72 cars were inspected in, against 65 cars the previous week and 54 cars two weeks ago. There were withdrawals of 7 050 bu; the previous week 21,275 bu were taken out and two weeks ago 14,700 bu. No New York exports reported and there have been none for a couple of weeks. The visible supply, after 121,000 bu decrease, exhibited 2,176,000 bu in sight, against 1,060,100 bu the same time last year. Local stock decreased 19,078 bu, leaving 104,228 bu; last year at time there was none in regular houses here. The business done was within a range of prices as follows: Screenings had a quotable range of 30@39c for poor to choice, outside recleaned. Barley—low grade feed or mixing nominally 35@40c, outside good weight. Malting, low grade, 42@43c; fair to good, sound, 45@48c; good color, 49@56c, and fancy 58@59c.

SEEDS—Some kinds of late sowing Seeds were quoted at higher prices, for it is the season when they begin to be more called for. Timothy presented nothing new, ruling quiet and steady, with a fair cash demand. Clover has gone practically out season and was nominal. The Flax market ruled quiet, with Northwestern cash Seed easier and the rest unchanged.

Timothy—Steadiness prevailed during the week. Nothing of particular note occurred. The market was very quiet. Nothing in futures was done. In the case of new crop Seed buyers and sellers were apart. Cash offerings were small, though postings indicated fair arrivals. Output very moderate; it decreased from the last few weeks, and it also was smaller than a year ago. There was nothing large to the cash demand and yet there was some inquiry all the time, so that consignments were salable. As to prices no essential change took place. Spot or May delivery, contract Seed, was usually quoted at $3 05. July was nominal at $3 10, and September was offered at $3 30 with $3 20@3 22½ bid. Country lots were quotable at $2 00@3 00 for low-grade to fancy, choice about $2 80@2 90, fair to good Seed $2 60@2 75 and rough at $2 40@2 50. Aggregate movement as indicated by the daily reports with comparisons, was as follows:

Receipts the past week, lbs.	331,430
The previous week	419,080
Two weeks ago	601,072
Same time last year	173 300
Shipments the past week, lbs.	135,030
The previous week	458,580
Two weeks ago	837,050
Same time last year	183,810

Flax—Dullness continued to be the feature of this market. No. 1 Northwestern cash Flax declined 2½c. This was because there was very little demand, and advices from the Northwest indicated a very dull and weak market there. Aside from this decline there were no price changes, and there was no business done aside from the sale of a few spot cars. Nothing was done in a speculative way. Future deliveries were entirely neglected and nominal. Twenty-two cars came in, compared with 42 cars the previous week and 25 cars two weeks ago. There were no withdrawals from regular houses; a week ago 9,907 bu were taken out. Local stock did not change, remaining at 21,201 bu, against 76,390 bu the same time last year. Duluth increased 45,000 bu, and 8,154,000 bu were reported there. At Minneapolis 99,705 bu decrease appeared, leaving a stock of 463,822 bu. No. 1 cash was nominally $1 00 all the week. No. 1 Northwestern declined from $1 09 to $1 06½, and for Rejected there was a nominal range of 96c@$1 00, outside for choice Northwestern. May delivery was nominally $1 02 and July quoted usually at $1 02½@1 03, while September was quoted at $1 06@1 06½, with nothing done.

Clover—The season for Clover has practically closed. Orders have become very small, and in consequence no one cared especially about buying. The regular market, also, was devoid of offerings. Values were nominal and no changes could be learned of. Stocks of old Seed in most markets were said to be small. It is expected, also, that some will be carried over. It is desired that this should be so, since there always is some little early demand which comes before the new crop is ready. Prices during the week were quoted over a range as follows: Contract grade nominally $10 75. Country lots, common to choice, $7 50@10 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $6 00@8 00; poor, cleaned out of, Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 50. The movement for the week, with comparisons, was as follows:

Receipts the past week, lbs.	89,315
The previous week	147,980
Two weeks ago	162,815
Same time last year	....
Shipments the past week, lbs.	129,940
The previous week	155,310
Two weeks ago	36,000
Corresponding week last year	2,355

Other Seeds—There was reported a little better demand for late sowing Seeds. Arrivals were small, still some lots came on sale. The feeling was firm. Hungarian Millet and German Millet were quoted a shade higher. The prices daily quoted during the week are in the table which appears elsewhere. Receipts and shipments, with comparisons, were as follows:

Receipts—The past week, lbs.	118,000
A week ago	534,570
Two weeks ago	707,910
Same time last year	145,125
Shipments—The past week, lbs.	455,725
A week ago	663,110
Two weeks ago	621,760
Same time last year	107,810

Buckwheat has remained inactive, with none on sale. It is getting to be nearly time for a seeding demand to start up. It was quoted as nominally firm at $1 45@1 50 for good quality.

HAY—The receipts for the week were 3,295 tons, against 3,602 tons for the previous week. Shipments for the week were 106 tons, against 295 tons for the previous week. The market for all descriptions of Hay ruled firm during the past week. The demand was good on local account and the offerings were only moderate. Prices exhibit no particular change and the market closed well cleaned up. Crop prospects are reported excellent for a large yield, and stock of old pretty well exhausted. The demand continues good for Straw, more particularly for Rye Straw, and offerings small. Quotations at the close ranged as follows: Choice Timothy, $14 00@15 00; No. 1 Timothy, $12 50@13 00; No. 2 Timothy, $10 50@11 00; No. 3 Timothy, $8 50@10 50. Choice Prairie, $11 00@11 50; No. 1 Prairie, $9 50@10 50; No. 2 Prairie, $8 00@8 50; No. 3 Prairie, $7 00@7 50; No. 4 Prairie, $6 50@7 50. Inside prices on Prairie Hay for State and outside for Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa Hay. Sales ranged at $8 00@16 00 for poor to choice Timothy, $7 00 for State, and $9 00@12 50 for poor to choice Kansas Prairie Hay. Rye Straw sold at $12 00@14 00, Wheat Straw at $9 25, and Oat Straw at $8 50@9 00.

COOPERAGE—Only a moderate business was reported in Cooperage during the past week, and there were no particular changes to note. Local packers were not inclined to purchase, and outside orders were limited. Offerings were moderate, and holders were rather firm in their views. Ash Pork Barrels were quiet and steady at 92½@95c. Oak Pork Barrels were in small request and prices quotably steady at 97½c@$1 00. Lard Tierces were in fair demand, with moderate offerings, and prices ruled steady at $1 32½@1 35. Iron bound Lard Tierces were quiet and quotable at $1 10@1 12½ for six hoop, and $1 20@1 22½ for eight hoop.

HOGS—There was a fairly good increase in the receipts of Hogs during the past week, as farmers were inclined to ship with considerable freedom. Quality was rather good, showing the benefit of the delay in shipping while farmers were busy with their spring work. Market rather active in a general way. Packers accepted a good proportion of the arrivals, and shippers provided for fair orders from the Eastern markets. The feeling was not very strong, and prices declined 5@10c on the whole range early in the week, but rallied again 10@15c at the close. Sales during the week were made at $4 20@4 70 for light, $4 20@4 50 for rough packing, $4 30@4 77½ for mixed, and $4 45@4 80 for heavy packing and shipping lots, with the bulk of the trading at $4 50@4 75 for fair to good averages. At the close about 3,500 Hogs remained in the pens unsold. Pigs were in fair supply, and rather good demand and changed hands at $3 80@4 45, according to weight and condition. Receipts of Hogs at the other large Western packing points were considerably increased, and the quality was rather good.

PACKING—A little more business was transacted in packing circles during the week just closed. Hogs were in larger supply, and packers purchased rather freely, and manufactured fair quantities of Products. Mess Pork neglected. Other cuts of Pork made in moderate quantities. Lard produced quite freely, and the average yield was rather good. Only a small proportion delivered in tanks. Domestic cuts of Hams made in fair quantities, and the bulk cured by manufacturers. Skinned Hams made with a little more freedom and only a small proportion sold from the block. Foreign cuts of Hams made sparingly. Shoulders cut in moderate quantities, and a fair proportion sold from the block. Picnic Hams made in fair quantities, and chiefly cured by manufacturers. Long Clear Sides and Extra Long Clear Sides neglected. Short Clear Sides cut in very small quantities. Extra Short Clear Sides made in slightly larger quantities. Short Rib Sides made moderately. Extra Short Rib Sides cut in fair quantities. Rough Sides made moderately, and chiefly of medium averages. Backs and Bellies made in limited quantities. Plates and Butts cut sparingly. Loins made rather freely for immediate wants. Foreign fancy and special cuts of Meats made in limited quantities.

PROVISIONS—The speculative trade in Hog Products was on a moderate scale during the past week. Outside orders were somewhat limited, especially from abroad, where the markets were closed on account of the holidays, while the local trade was fair. "Longs" realized on moderate quantities during the early part of the week, which caused a moderate decline in prices. During the latter part of the week, "shorts" were rather anxious to provide for their outstanding contracts, and the competition for the offerings resulted in a substantial advance on all the leading articles. Trading was almost exclusively in July and September contracts, and there was considerable business in the way of transferring contracts ahead. Market closed rather steady. Hogs were in rather good supply at all the leading Western packing points, and the quality was somewhat improved. Prices rather inclined in favor of buyers, but this feature had little effect on the market for Products. Returns of the packing of the West for the week, compared with the corresponding week in 1903, exhibited an increase of 25,000 Hogs. Foreign markets were quiet, with light trading at very slight changes in prices. Domestic markets were quiet and without material change. Supplies of the speculative articles are quite liberal for the season of the year. Trading beyond September is very small, and for January delivery only occasional transfers are reported. Operators are somewhat at sea, as the outturn of the Corn crop and the supply of Hogs for winter and spring packing, and speculation in the deferred deliveries will drag somewhat until the situation can be more definitely diagnosed. Evidently interior packers are disposed to sell, as the receipts of Products during the week were quite liberal, while the shipments were fairly large of all kinds and widely distributed. Exports for the week were fairly large, but supposed to be largely of "consigned goods" to agencies. The demand on shipping account was on a moderate scale. Exporters were not disposed to purchase to any extent and merchants in the domestic trade were backward about taking hold, and accepted only small quantities to meet current wants. Offerings were not very large, and holders rather slow to grant concessions. Supplies of all kinds are quite large, and the production is fair. Sales during the week were not very large and prices were without material change.

Pork—A fairly a good business was reported in Mess Pork during the past week, but the feeling was somewhat unsettled. Supply on hand is decreasing very slowly. Outside orders were moderate, and local trading was not very large. Transfers of contracts from July to September were made at 20@22½c difference. Early in the week, there was a little pressure to sell and prices irregularly declined 15@17½c. At the reduction the demand improved, especially from "shorts" and packers, while there was less property for sale. A firmer feeling was developed, and prices on the whole range were advanced 55@60c. Toward the close the feeling was not quite so strong, and prices receded 5@7½c, and the market closed comparatively steady. Demand on shipping account was light and offerings were not very large. Cash lots at the close were quotable at $11 20@11 25. Other cuts of Pork were in small request and offerings were rather light. Trading was limited, and there were no material changes to note in prices.

Lard—A little more interest was manifested in the Lard market during the past week, and trading in a general way was slightly enlarged. Outside orders were moderate, and local trading was slightly improved. Foreign advices were without material change, and orders from that quarter were somewhat limited. "Longs" were a little anxious to realize early in the week, and prices receded 7½@10c. At the decline the demand was considerably improved, while there was less pressure to sell, and the market exhibited more strength in a general way. "Shorts" were quite anxious to provide for outstanding contracts. Prices on the whole range were advanced 30@32½c, and the appreciation was fairly well supported to the close. Trading was chiefly in July and September contracts, and transfers were made at 15@17½c difference. A little inquiry was made for January delivery and scattered sales were made at $6 52½@6 65. Inquiry on shipping account was limited, and the offerings were moderate. A few trades were made at about 7½@10c discount on July figures—closing at $6 40@6 42½. Refined Lard was in moderate demand, and a few sales were made at prices not made public. Loose lots were in only fair request, and the offerings were moderate. Quotable at 55c discount on July figures. Leaf Lard was in rather good demand and a few trades were made at $5 68¾@5 75, and closed steady at $5 75. Neutral was in only limited request, and offerings were fair. Market was rather easy and prices quotably lower at $6 62½@6 75 for No. 1, and $6 37½@6 50 for No. 2.

Short Rib Sides—Quite a good speculative business was reported in Short Rib Sides during the past week. Outside orders were not very large, while local trading was fairly active. "Shorts" accepted fair quantities, and packers were credited with favoring the buying side of the market. Supply on hand reported rather liberal, and slowly increasing. Trading chiefly in July and September contracts, and transfers were made at 15@17½c difference. Early in the week, there was a little pressure to sell, while the demand was moderate, and the feeling was comparatively easy. Prices declined 5@7½c. At the reduction, there was quite a good general demand, while the offerings were less free. As there was considerable competition for the offerings, the market exhibited considerable strength, and prices were advanced 30@32½c on the whole range. Toward the close, the feeling was not quite so strong, but the changes in prices were slight. Inquiry on shipping account was moderate, and for small quantities, while the offerings were only fair. Cash lots at the close were quotable at $6 37½@6 50 according to weight.

Green Meats—Trade was limited in the market for Green Meats during the past week, and there were no particular changes to note. Offerings were moderate, and the demand was comparatively light. Outside orders were small, and local curers were not inclined to purchase. Hams were called for sparingly, and prices ruled steady. Skinned Hams were in light request, and prices were slightly lower. Shoulders were in rather small request, and prices were without material change. Picnic Hams were in small demand, and prices ruled steady. Bellies were called for sparingly, and prices without material change.

Pickled Meats—Only a moderate business was reported in the market for Pickled Meats during the past week, and the feeling was comparatively steady. Offerings were not very large, and the demand was only fair, and for limited quantities. Exporters purchased sparingly, and inquiry for the domestic trade was on a moderate scale. Stocks of all kinds are rather free. Foreign advices were without material change. Trading light, owing to the holidays. Hams were called for moderately, and prices ruled comparatively steady. Skinned Hams were in fair request on domesetic account and prices were a little more favorable to buyers, especially on the medium averages. Shoulders were called for sparingly and prices were without material change. Picnic Hams were in fair request and prices ruled comparatively steady. Bellies were called for sparingly at former figures.

Dry Salted Meats—Only a moderate trade was reported in Dry Salted Meats during the past week, and the undertone to the market was not very strong. Offerings were not very free, and the demand was only fair. Foreign advices were a little more favorable to holders, and prices of some descriptions ruled slightly higher, but trading was limited owing to the closed markets on account of the holidays. Domestic trade was moderate, and inquiry chiefly for small quantities. Buyers rather backward owing to the easy feeling in the speculative markets. Shipment abroad rather liberal, but understood to be mainly direct from the packing houses. Supplies of all kinds are fairly large for the season of the year, and manufacture moderately free. Foreign cut of Hams were in limited request and prices without material change. Shoulders were called for sparingly, and prices inclined in favor of buyers. Long Clear Sides were quiet and prices nominally unchanged. Extra Long Clear Sides were inactive and prices entirely nominal. Short Clear Sides were quiet and comparatively steady. Extra Short Clear Sides were in light request and prices inclined in favor of buyers—closing at 6⅛@6¼c. Extra Short Rib Sides were in small demand and prices ruled rather steady—closing 6⅛@6¼c. Rough Sides were in fair request on orders from the Southern markets and offerings were not very large. Prices ruled rather steady—closing at 6¼@6¾c according to weight. Plates were in moderate demand and prices ruled steady. Butts in moderate request and prices were unchanged. Bellies were in small demand and prices without material change. Backs were called for moderately and prices ruled steady. Foreign fancy and special cuts of Meats were in light request and prices were unchanged.

Smoked Meats—Trade was moderate in the market for Smoked Meats during the past week, and the feeling was comparatively steady. Jobbing trade was only fair, and the demand for car lots was light. Stocks of all kinds ample, and offerings were fair. Hams were called for moderately and prices were unchanged. Skinned Hams were in fair request and prices were steady. Shoulders were quiet and prices inclined in favor of buyers. Picnic Hams were called for moderately, and prices ruled steady. Sides of all kinds were in small request and prices without material change. Breakfast Bacon in moderate request at former figures.

Beef Products—Only a moderate business was reported in Beef Products, and the market was comparatively steady. Offerings were not very large, and the demand was only fair. Foreign markets quiet and rather steady. Domestic markets without material change. Cattle in rather good supply and prices well maintained on the better grades. Manufacture of Products was moderate. Shipments of Dressed Beef rather free. Extra Mess Beef in light request at about former figures. Plate Beef was quiet and prices unchanged. Extra Plate Beef in moderate request and prices ruled steady. Tallow in moderate demand with small offerings. Prices steadier and about ⅛c higher on all grades. Oleo-Stearine quiet and steady at 5¾@6c.

Greases—Trade was comparatively light in the market for Greases during the past week. Offerings were moderate and the demand was rather light. Feeling rather steady and prices inclined in favor of sellers.

CLOSING QUOTATIONS

The following table exhibits the closing prices of Live Hogs and Provisions, as compared with the current quotations one year ago:

CROPS IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

United Kingdom—The weather continues to favor the crops, and Western Europe has experienced a more seasonable May than for many years. In the United Kingdom there has been an all round improvement, and whereas farmers at the end of last February were almost in the depths of despair, they are now feeling fairly cheerful. All our crops promise well with the exception of Winter Wheat, and that had such an unfortunate start that even an ideal spring has not been able to repair the early damage, and, of course, the loss of acreage from non-seeding has still to be reckoned with. Supplies of native Wheat are being well maintained, and the quality and condition continue to receive favorable notice

Russia—Crop news is still of a varied character, but speaking generally there is not much improvement. A semi-official bulletin gives the condition of the Winter crops as unsatisfactory, and even bad in places, in the Southwest, the Lower Volga regions and parts of the centre; backward in the North and Northeast; elsewhere fair to good. A telegram received to-day from Eupatoria reports some rains and magnificent prospects in the Crimea. It is stated that recent heavy shipments have been made from barges, and that lighter quantities may be expected from now onward; but it must be noted that if supplies per barge decrease, rail supplies may increase. The latter have been very light recently owing to bad roads, and possibly also in consequence of deficient rolling stock. The shipping movement keeps liberal, although there was some decrease last week.

Roumania—Rain has fallen in different parts of the country, but only in the shape of storms. What is wanted is good general rain to last for twenty-four hours. Anxiety concerning the crops is increasing. The interior movement is on a fair scale; shipments also are fair.

Bulgaria—Actual crop conditions are still satisfactory, but to insure a good harvest general rains must fall in the next fortnight or so.

Austria-Hungary—Complaints of dry weather have been made lately, but latest advices mention beneficial rains.

India—We have no fresh news regarding the crops. Shipments are on a liberal scale, and are likely so to continue, although Kurrachee is contributing very little, it being just between the seasons there.

Australasia—Our correspondent at Melbourne writes that seeding was being delayed by dry weather, but since the date of his report, April 11, cables have announced nice rains in the three chief agricultural States. An increased acreage was being expected. Our correspondent confirms the news that growers have held back large quantities of Wheat, which should make the shipping season last out well, like it did in 1901.

Argentina—The weather is favorable, and supplies and shipments are large. It is thought there may be a decrease in the near future when growers get busy on the land, but the quantities will increase again later.

France—The weather keeps quite favorable, although, perhaps, rather cold for May. Reports concerning the crops are very optimistic, present conditions giving complete satisfaction to growers. Supplies of Wheat on country markets have been rather smaller, but the tone has continued easy.

Spain—Our correspondent at Barcelona continues to report favorably of the crops.

Germany—The temperature has been rather low, but there have been no dangerous frosts. It is thought that the May official report will show some improvement on the April condition and that stood at quite a high figure.

North Africa—We continue to receive very favorable reports both from Algeria and Tunis.

There is no change reported in Chicago money market. Rates range 4 to 6 per cent according to the character of the loan. The best class of borrowers are getting the minimum rate.

Officers of the National Biscuit Company are quoted as saying that the sales for the first four months of the current fiscal year will be 15 per cent in excess of those of a year ago.

The Federal Mining and Smelting Company has declared a dividend of 1¾ per cent on its preferred stock and 1½ per cent on its common stock, both payable June 15 to stockholders of record June 3.

Among the new concerns incorporated at Dover, Del., Thursday, by the Delaware Trust Company was the San Miguel Company, with a capital of $500,000. The Saskatchewan Elbow Wheat Lands Company was also formed, with $50,000 capital.

Vice Chancellor Stevenson at Trenton, N. J., Wednesday, filed an opinion denying the application for the appointment of a receiver for the Old Dominion Copper Mining and Smelting Company and vacating the temporary restraining order made at the time the suit was instituted.

Reports that the City Trust Company, New York, will sever its relations with the Clearing-House Association are confirmed. This leaves only two trust companies in New York which continue to have direct business relations with the clearing house.

A press dispatch from Kansas City said: "Several hundred acres of lowlands in Vernon County, near Nevada, Mo., have been inundated by one of the heaviest rains in that part of the State in years. In Western Kansas much damage is reported to Wheat and Fruit by a heavy hailstorm."

The reports of the Ninth Internal Revenue District of Pennsylvania—Lancaster—for 1903, just made up, show that in 1903 there were made in that district 781,102,253 Cigars, the amount of Tobacco used being 14,683,262¾ lbs. The increase in the manufacture of Cigars over 1903 was about 49,000,000.

Stockholders of the Mexican Central Railway Company have formed a protective committee. The committee says that because of the large floating debt and the recent efforts to classify the board of directors without previous notice it seems necessary to organize a committee in the interests of the stockholders.

A tract of redwood timber land in Lower Humbolt County, Cal., has been transferred to the Metropolitan Lumber Company of Green Bay, Wis.; Donovan & O'Connor of Menominee, Mich., and Charles Culbertson of Boulder, Colo., for $600,000. The tract has in the neighborhood of 400,000,000 feet of timber standing.

An old trader and farmer from Central Indiana, who was well known in the trade for years, was in Chicago, Thursday. "We are going to have a small crop of Wheat in Indiana this year," he said. "I think the loss is due to the Hessian fly and the drouth of last fall, also to the severe freeze we had early in the winter."

The New York Journal of Commerce estimates the amount of industrial dividend disbursements for June at $15,600,000, against $18,800,000 in the same month last year and $20,000,000 two years ago. Some of the more important disbursements next month are: Standard Oil Company, $7,800,000, and Consolidated Gas Company, $1,500,000.

The New York Journal of Commerce in its May Cotton report with statements from Mississippi, Louisiana and Tennessee, says: "Too low temperatures are universal. Crop average two weeks late, and about 10 per cent has to be replanted. This condition, nevertheless, is called satisfactory and is considerable better than reports from Georgia and Florida."

The Continental Tobacco Company has declared the usual quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on its preferred stock and a dividend of 4 per cent on its common. The preferred dividend is payable July 1. Books close June 18 and reopen July 2. The common dividend is payable June 30 to stockholders of record the same date. The dividend on the common stock is the same as has been paid for several periods.

"Our plants are being operated full force," said the general manager of the Pullman Company, Friday, "and we have not reached that period where curtailment has been found necessary. There is enough work on hand to keep the shops busy for some time. In keeping with general business shrinkage, railroads of the country are buying very few cars, but small orders are coming in all the while from railroads all over the country."

The first international congress of master Cotton spinners, which assembled at Zurich, Switzerland, Monday, adopted a resolution, Thursday, to establish a permanent international organization to watch the interests of the Cotton trade, urging all the governments concerned to practically support the efforts being made to increase the supply. The Cotton Exchanges of New York, New Orleans, Liverpool and Alexandria are requested to co-operate in order to prevent "corners," which are classed as being detrimental to the whole Cotton industry.

An Appleton, Wis., dispatch says: "Notice has been served on all employes of paper mills now running under union schedule in the Fox River Valley that on June 4 there will be a return to the old schedule of long hours, and that Saturday nights off are abolished. The notice affects several thousand men, women and children. It is feared that long and serious trouble will ensue. The mill owners stated to-day that the reason for their action is that the short-hour schedule was granted with a proviso by which the union undertook to secure a similar schedule in all competing mills before May, 1903. Although this was not done, the employes were allowed to continue until now on short hours."

The First National Bank of Chicago, bidding in conjunction with the New York Life Insurance Company, was the successful bidder for the issue of $5,500,000 City of Chicago judgment bonds recently advertised. The joint bid of these two institutions was a premium of $56,500 and interest for a twenty year straight issue at 4 per cent, or a premium of $6,600 and interest for a three to twenty year serial issue at 4 per cent. The city finance committee, at its meeting, Friday, limited the issue to $5,256,000, and awarded it to the First National and the New York Life under the second plan, providing for a serial issue. Under it $306,000 of the bonds will mature on Jan. 1, 1907, and a like amount each year up to and including 1924. The bonds are dated Jan. 1, 1904.

STREET PRODUCE MARKETS.

BUTTER—The receipts at Chicago (not including through shipment) for the days mentioned, were as follows:

	This week. Tubs.	Last week. Tubs.	Last year. Tubs.
Monday............	*0,000	6,390	11,216

*Decoration Day.

The market is quotably steady. A fair demand exists for choice makes, which are being taken by dealers for home consumption, to fill occasional orders from interior local points and for speculative purposes by storage buyers, but trading is not particularly active as some of the larger buyers are are holding off in expectation of purchasing at lower prices. The buying for storage purposes is not general as yet, but a few lines are being taken when the goods are desireable. Full grass Butter is what buyers are taking. The medium goods, and cheap Butter ruling easy within the current quotations; there is only a light inquiry; no special call from any scource, and prices therefore favor buyers. The receipts are quite liberal. Quality improving and while all makes do not show full grass color and flavor, yet the greater part of the arrivals are of very good quality.

Extras in Creameries are meeting with moderate sale, but only strictly fancy makes wanted. The quotable price is 17½c.

Firsts in Creameries are quotably 15@16c, and meeting with little sale.

Seconds in Creameries are quiet and quotable at 13½@14½c.

Thirds in Creameries quotable at 12@13c.

Imitation Creameries in light supply and in light demand. Quotably about 15c.

Process Butter (renovated) is quotable at 15c per lb.

Ladles are quiet. Offerings moderate. Demand light. No. 1 offered at 12¾c and not selling.

Dairies are steady. The demand is fair and offerings are moderate. Fine makes quotably 16c. Firsts are quotable at 14c. Seconds or such goods as lack flavor and not of uniform color are quotably 12c—occasional lots sell in with packing stock.

Packing stock is in fair supply and moderate sale. For nice, fresh, sweet stock 10½@11c was the quotable market. Rancid and stale stock quotably 7@8c.

BEANS—Trade was just about as it has been for some time past. Arrivals remain moderate and the local stock is small. Prices ruled unchanged and the feeling was firm. Quotable:

Pea Beans—
- Hand-picked........................$1 78 @.....
- Off color .... 1 60 @1 75
- Screened and low grades........... 1 10 @1 50

Mediums—none offered; are nominally about 5c under Pea Beans.

- Under grades, irregular, down to.. 1 50 @......

Limas, California, per 100 lbs ... . 4 12½@4 20

CHEESE—There was no change in prices, but the tone of the market was easy. Arrivals of new Cheese have been liberal and there is now a good stock on hand. Trade has been slow and dealers look for a quiet, easy market.

DRESSED LAMBS—There were light offerings—not many Lambs on sale—and there was very little inquiry. Market very quiet.

Owing to late warm weather, occasional Lambs arrived heated, and although otherwise nice, had to be sold at less than top quotations on account of being off in condition.

EGGS—The receipts at Chicago (not including through shipments) for the days mentioned were as follows:

	This week Cases.	Last week. Cases.	Last year. Cases.
Monday............	*....	12,134	19,139

*Decoration Day.

A rather easy feeling prevails, without any important change in prices. The receipts continue quite large and the offerings are liberal. There are more Eggs coming than can be sold readily, but the accumulations are not large and holders are slow to make concessions. Local consumption holds up quite well, but the demand on outside account has slackened up some, and parties buying for storage purposes are quite indifferent and are taking hold to a moderate extent. The poorer lots, or Southern Eggs, are particularly dull, and it is these which are being pressed on sale and causing the weakness. As the weather gets warmer the quality naturally depreciates and some lots coming are quite poor.

Fresh Eggs at mark, as received, cases returned, are quotable at 14@15c per dozen. Arkansas, Kentucky and Tennessee quotably about 1c less.

Fresh Eggs at 'mark' general receipts, new cases included, quotably 15@15¼c, and shipping cases included at 14½@15c. Small miscellaneous lots do not sell for as much as large lots of straight packing. Kentucky, Arkansas and Tennessee stock is about 1@1½c discount.

"Firsts" are quotably about 15c. This classification means fresh-gathered Eggs packed in new white wood cases, unless otherwise specified, shall be reasonably clean, of good average size, and shall contain 45 per cent fresh, reasonably full, strong, sweet Eggs, from May 15 to Feb. 15. The balance other than the loss may be defective in strength and fullness, but must be sweet. There may be a total average loss of two dozen per case, but if the loss exceeds this amount by not over 50 per cent the Eggs shall be good delivery upon allowance of the excess.

"Prime Firsts" are quotably 15½c per doz. To meet this classification the Eggs must be fresh gathered, be packed in new white wood 30-dozen cases, unless otherwise specified, shall be reasonably clean, of good average size, and between May 15th and Oct. 31st shall contain 65 per cent of fresh, reasonably full, strong, sweet Eggs; the balance, other than the loss, may be defective in strength and fullness, but must be sweet. There may be a total average loss of one dozen per case, but if the loss exceeds this amount by not over 50 per cent the Eggs shall be good delivery upon allowance of the excess.

"Extras" are quotably 17c. This is a very high grade of Eggs, put up by some of the city merchants to meet the requirements of a particular high class of trade. It requires going through a good many cases to get one case up to this standard, as nothing but large, full, strictly fresh-laid Eggs are taken.

Dirties in good supply and demand light. Quotably about 13c, although for some lots 12½c was the best bid.

Seconds, including small, shrunken and dirty and cracked, not leakers, quotable at 9@11c per doz, depending on quality. Some lots coming musty which sell for less than quotations.

Storage Eggs present packing were offered at 16½c, and 16c was bid.

Duck Eggs—Very dull. No one cares to buy and 12c the best bid for them—some go in with Seconds.

FROG LEGS—The receipts are moderate; the demand fair. Nice, fresh, good-sized legs sell all right.

- Bull Frogs, extra large, per dozen. .....$ .. @1 50
- Medium..................................... 60@1 00
- Grassers, large............................ 10@ 12
- Medium.................................... ....@ 6

Very small not wanted and quotably less.

FRESH FISH—The receipts of inland lake and river Fish are small. Not much demand early in the week. Fish sell best about Thursday.

Medium size Bass are preferred to large. The very large ones are not as desirable as the medium size for the reason that restaurants want to serve a whole Fish, and the large ones are too large to serve—they do not care to serve half a Fish. For this reason the large ones, say 4-6 lbs weight, are hard to sell.

Fine Bass, and Pickeral will sell at all times. Carp, Buffalo and Suckers are always dull. Perch of good size will sell. Sun Fish are slow sale.

Black Bass smaller than 11 inches in length should not be sent to market; the State laws prohibt the marketing of Bass smaller than this. They are liable to confiscation.

The quotations given are for small lots received to be sold here on commission. The quotations do not represent the prices obtained by the regular Fish houses.

POULTRY—Live—The market was quiet to-day and steady.

The offerings were light and the demand also limited. There never is much call for Poultry so early in the week, and this being a holiday made trade all the slower.

The receipts of Spring Chickens are increasing and there is a disposition to trade by the pound instead of by the dozen.

Country shippers should not overcrowd their coops during hot weather. Load lightly. Among the receipts the last few days were a great many dead Chickens, supposed to have been smothered.

Live Turkeys very dull; not many offered and little demand for them. The Turkeys coming are rather poor.

Live Chickens in light demand and in moderate supply. Light-weight stock preferred. Some sales at 11½c, but may sell at 11c to close out.

Live Ducks are dull. Not many coming and they are slow sale.

Live Geese are very quiet. Very few are being received and season over.

Iced Poultry—Nothing doing. But little stock on sale and none wanted so early in the week. Buyers seldom take hold of Iced Poultry until Wednesday and later.

Country shippers should be sure and ice the stock thoroughly. When icing, dealers should be sure that the stock is thoroughly cooled off and the animal heat out of the body. Parties say the best way to cool off stock is to hard cool it, by which is meant to place the stock in ice and water as soon as picked and left there until the bird is sold and then pack and ice in barrels and it will be sure to come through all right. Shipments should be made in refrigerator cars.

POTATOES—Old—Arrivals by car loads compare as follows:

	This week.	Last week.	Last year.
Monday.	6	26	71

Market is cleaned up, only 6 cars in. A fair demand existed, and supply is so light that holders are able to dictate prices. There were sales of 1 car good Burbanks at $1 18, 1 car at $1 15, 1 car Mixed, Red and White, mostly White, at $1 15.

Potatoes—New—Arrivals by car loads compare as follows:

	This week.	Last week.	Last year.
Monday.........	50	48	15

Market weaker and lost Saturday's advance. Receipts were large and mostly on the Wabash. The bulk of the sales of Triumphs from Texas on that road were at $1 15 per bu, over ten cars selling at that figure. The range was $1 12@1 20. White stock in moderate supply and fair sale. Unloading was active up to about ten o'clock when the railroad scale houses closed.

STRAW—Rye Straw quotable at $12 00@14 00. Wheat Straw at $8 00@9 00. Oat Straw at $8 00@9 00.

TAME PIGEONS—There are fair receipts and the demand good for live Birds. Dead Birds are in moderate demand. Squabs are in fair supply and in good demand. Squabs just ready to leave the nest, full feathered, are the most desirable. They are fatter before they commence to fly. However they should not be taken too young, as they must be feathered to make a good appearance.

MELONS.

WATERMELONS—A car received from Florida. Very quiet on account of holiday and colder weather. They were of fair size. Quoted at 40@50c each in lots.

BERRIES.

STRAWBERRIES—To day being observed as a holiday, the trade was much smaller than otherwise it would have been.

Receipts were about 21 cars from Illinois, Kentucky and Tennessee, with about 500 cases from Indiana.

There were a good many tender and soft Berries in the arrivals.

On account of reduced or holiday demand an easier feeling prevailed, and a shade lower prices had to be accepted.

From indications it will not be possible to close out all consignments, and some that will stand it will probably be carried over. Fortunately the weather is cool and favorable for doing this. The tender and soft stock will have to be closed out.

Quotations range as follows:

HOW TO DRESS CALVES.

Calves from three to six weeks old, and weigh ing about one hundred pounds, or may from eighty to one hundred and twenty pounds, are the most desirable weights for shipment. The head should be cut out, so as to leave the hide of the head on the skin. The legs should be cut off at the knee joint. The entrails should all be removed, except the kidneys; the liver, lights and heart should be taken out. Cut the carcass open from the neck through the entire length—from head to bungut. If this is done they are not so apt to sour and spoil during hot weather. Many a fine carcass has spoiled in hot weather because of it not being cut open. Don't wash the carcass with water, but wipe out with a dry cloth. Don't skip until the animal heat is entirely out of the body, and never tie the carcass up in a bag, as this keeps the air from circulating, and makes the meat more liable to become tainted.

It is very essential that the directions for dressing Calves is followed, especially in regard to letting the Calves cool off properly before shipping in hot weather, as hundreds of Calves are received in bad order and sold for not much more than what charges some ice and keep freight. Numerous carcasses are also condemned by the health officers. They should hang up 6 to 8 hours or over night in an airy place to properly cool off before shipping.

Calves under fifty pounds should not be shipped, and are liable to be condemned by the health officers as being unfit for food. Merchants, too, are liable to be fined, if found selling these skunks, for violation of the law. Very heavy Calves, such as have been fed on buttermilk, never sell well in our market—they are neither Veal nor Beef.

Fasten the shipping tag with your name and address written plainly thereon to the hind leg.

The best selling days for Calves are Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday morning. The first and last days of the week there is not much demand, and after Friday morning—that is, Friday afternoon and Saturday—buyers generally have their wants supplied.

Of course there is some demand every day, but usually the best days to sell Calves are Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday morning.

TO SHIPPERS OF LIVE POULTRY.

Commission merchants would like to call attention of shippers to a few points. Shippers should see that the coops are in good condition before using, so that they are not liable to come apart while in transit, as they are roughly handled sometimes. The coops should also be high enough to allow whatever Poultry is being shipped room enough to stand up. Low coops should not be used, it not alone being cruel, but a great deal of Poultry is lost every year by suffocation. For Turkeys higher coops than for Chickens should be used.

Filling of Coops—Coops may be loaded heavier in cold than in hot weather. Do not overcrowd the coops. Putting too much stock in a coop at any time is wrong, but in hot weather especially do not crowd too much stock into a coop. This should be carefully attended to in order to prevent any more shrinkage than possible. Coops often arrive with a good deal of dead stock. Do not blame the commission merchant for heavy shrinkage or Poultry smothered in transit through carelessness in overcrowding coops.

In hot weather do not put more than 20 lbs of live old Hens in a regular coop; in cold weather about 30 lbs in regular size coops. Of Spring Chickens, when small about 50 to 60 lbs and large 70 to 90 lbs.

Keep different stock seperate as much as possible. If a shipper has sufficient stock to fill coops, it is best to ship the Hens, Spring Chickens, Roosters, Turkeys, Ducks and Geese seperately. Of course, if a party has not enough stock of each kind to fill a coop seperately, mixed coops can be sent.

Spring Chickens weighing less than one pound should not be shipped as they become a drug on the market. Pound and one-half to two pound Chickens sell best, and for the early spring, weights of weights are preferred. In the early Spring, when Chickens first come in, some small Chickens will sell, but as soon as Chickens begin to be plentiful, then the small ones are not wanted. Later in the summer, when Chickens are bought to place in freezer, one and a half pound Chickens are preferred, so take it the year round, two-pound stock, or as near to two pounds as possible, sells best.

Attention is also called to the fact that dark-feathered Ducks are not as desirable as the white feathered, chiefly for the reason that they do not dress out as white and clean as the white feathered stock.

Spring Chickens weighing less than one pound should not be shipped as they become a drug on the market. Pound and one-half to two pound Chickens sell best, and for the season over two pound Chickens are preferred. In the early spring, when Chickens first come in, some small Chickens will sell but as soon as Chickens begin to be plentiful then the small ones are not wanted. Later in the summer when Chickens are brought to place in freezer one and one-half to two pounds are preferred, so take it the year round two pound stock, or as near to two pounds as possible, sells best.

Attention is also called to the fact that dark-feathered Ducks are not as desirable as the white-feathered, chiefly for the reason that they do not dress out as white and clean as the white-feathered stock.

Poultry should be shipped so as to arrive on the market from Tuesday to Friday. Receipts generally increase toward the end of the week, and there is enough carried over stock on hand Saturday to supply the demand. Merchants, rather than have stock over Sunday, would sell at a sacrifice, as the stock, when in coops, loses considerable in weight by shrinkage, and does not appear fresh and bright. Besides Monday is usually a poor day to sell Poultry.

Tags with the name of the commission merchant to whom the shipper should be tacked on the end of the coops. Tack two tags, one on each end, so that if one gets destroyed the other is likely to remain all right.

Never tack the tag on the tops of the coops.

Be sure and write your name and address on the tag. Some are stolen at times, and unless this can be sufficient, as the commission merchant receiving your shipment could not tell to whom or where to send the pay for the stock.

ICED POULTRY.

During summer, or hot weather, more or less dressed Poultry is received in this market. The following directions should be followed in order to realize best prices, and have the stock come through in the best merchantable condition.

For dressing Turkeys, Chickens, and Ducks, Geese, the same directions should be followed as given elsewhere for dressing Poultry.

Before packing and shipping dealers should allow the stock to cool off thoroughly, so that all of the animal heat is out of the body. Parties say that the best way to cool off stock is to hard cool it. Put cracked ice in water and stock in ice water as soon as picked, and left there until the bird is cold and then pack and ice in barrels.

How to Ice dressed Poultry—Broken ice should be placed all through the barrels—that is a layer of Chickens and a layer of ice broken to the size of a fist; fill the barrel in this manner and then put the top of the Chickens place a large cake of ice, and if this is done stock will come through in good shape. The trouble is there is not enough ice used. Also use clean ice.

Shipments should be made in refrigerator cars.

Best days for iced Poultry to reach the Chicago market are Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday morning. Arrivals Friday afternoon are usually too late to meet the best demand, and Monday and Tuesday's receipts are too early in the week.

HOW TO MAKE COOPS.

If you do not wish to purchase coops, the following directions to shippers wishing to make their own coops will be of benefit:

Coops should be 48 inches long, 30 inches wide, 12 inches high for Chickens and Ducks, and 15 to 18 inches high for Turkeys and Geese. Use lumber as follows: Use 2x2 for corner posts, or 1x2 will answer. If you cannot get them, get 1x4 and rip them in two. Cut six pieces 30 inches long and nine pieces 12 or 15 inches long for each coop; nail the short pieces one at each end; one in the center of the long ones (use 10d wrought nails). Make three of these frames, one for each end and the center. For the bottom use half inch boards or lath; make the bottom tight, (use 6d nails); use 1x2 strips or lath for sides, ends and top; put them 1½ inches apart—the width of lath is about right. Leave two laths loose on top in center, or make a door of them to open, in order to put Poultry in and take it out; now nail a lath around the coops, each end and the center (outside the three frames made first). This will keep the lath from coming off, and make the coops stronger. For broilers the coops can be made 10 inches high and 24 inches wide. This will make you a good, strong, light coop.

ABSORPTION OF SECURITIES.

As bearing on the question of what has become of the stocks, the Wall Street Journal prints the following:

The extent to which railroad securities at one time active in the market have been absorbed through purchase by other roads may be gauged by the fact that in the past seven to ten years not less than $500,000,000 of such values have been purchased by other railroads, and are permanently removed from the market. The table which follows gives a rough list of the principal purchases during the reorganization period of 1893-1896, at par value:

Ann Arbor	$ 3,500,000
Baltimore and Ohio.....	5,773,300
Reading (about).....	70,000,000
Burl., Cedar Rapids and Nor. (about)....	7,000,000
Central Railroad of New Jersey.....	14,500,000

Chicago and Eastern Illinois.....	13,320,000
Chicago, Ind. and Louisville (about)....	13,000,000
Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific (about)	70,000,000
Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul.....	19,827,500
Clev., Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis	11,528,600
Delaware and Hudson.....	12,100,000
Evansville and Terre Haute.....	2,600,500
Hocking Valley (about).....	1,500,000
Louisville, New Orleans and Memphis..	28,340,000
Lake Erie and Western	11,870,000
Lake Shore (about).....	40,000,000

Mobile and Ohio.....	8,582,600
New York, Ont. and Western (about)..	25,000,000
Norfolk and Western (about).....	12,000,000
North Central.....	8,287,500
Northern Pacific securities (about).....	52,500,000
St. Louis and San Francisco.....	37,988,900
Southern Pacific	30,000,000
Wabash	8,000,000
Wheeling and Lake Erie.....	19,000,000
Total	$880,727,450

"There has been, of course, a large lease of securities in place of those purchased, since many roads have been bought at very high prices, as Burlington, Central Railroad of New Jersey, Chicago and Eastern Illinois, Rock Island, Lake Shore, Louisville and Nashville and so on; for example, we can total the best part of $650,000,000 of collateral trust bonds issued by the purchasing roads for some of these stocks, apart from stock issues—about $175,000,000 Pennsylvania and over $100,000,000 of Rock Island for the same purpose. Nevertheless, it is interesting to note the disappearance of these formerly active stocks from the market.

GRAIN TRADE AND CROPS.

[From the Cincinnati Price Current. May 26.]

The past week is the fourth consecutive week which has been favorable to the maintenance of bettermost hopes of the growing Winter Wheat crop. There is a sufficiency of moisture over nearly the whole of the Winter Wheat area, and there is at present no indication of any local crop shortening adversely on the plant. The plant is beginning to head out north of the Ohio River, but its development is fully a week later than usual.

Spring Wheat seeding is about completed; the acreage, though not as large as originally intended, is larger than some expected several weeks ago, exceeding moderately the acreage of last year. The crop is starting with good working conditions; moisture is generally ample, ground in good condition and it is coming up with good stands.

Delays and losses in Corn planting was made in the past few days and a large acreage is being seeded. Much of the Corn that was planted early, when the ground was too cold and wet, has to be replanted. In the South the crop is in fair to poor condition. In Eastern Kansas and portions of Missouri excessive moisture has been unfavorable for stands and the crop is unusually backward. In the bulk of the Corn belt the ground is in good condition and reports generally indicate a late season but otherwise fairly favorable conditions.

Oats are making slow progress with generally average conditions prevailing. The Ohio Valley promises large yields, from large acreage; in Southern Illinois and Eastern Missouri it is shiy, with only a relatively moderate acreage; in Iowa, Wisconsin and Northern Illinois prospects are favorable.

Grass crops are late but are now making good growth and the quality of the growth of pasture is reported favorably.

MACARONI WHEAT GROWING PROFITABLE.

In conversation with the correspondent of the Modern Miller about the general subject of Macaroni Wheats in the United States, Professor Carleton expressed the opinion that the industry of growing the Durum Wheats was especially passed the experimental stage, as it had been demonstrated that they can be grown profitably throughout a large area of the country. He said that experimentation in this line would be directed to the test of the many varieties of these Wheats were best adapted to different localities in the United States. He thought that the ultimate limit would be 100,000,000 bu of Macaroni Wheat were grown last year was too high. The best information he has been able so get is that the total crop did not exceed 60,000,000 bu. He does not, however, believe that there is a sufficiently serious objection to materially interfere with the development of the Macaroni Wheat industry in those parts of the country best adapted to the growth of this Grain.

In his report, which was submitted at the stockholders' annual meeting, the president of the International Nickel Company showed that the results from the past year's operations were poorer than those of the previous year. Briefly, the surplus for the year, after allowing for interest on the bonded debt, fell to $341,10?, a decrease of about $318,000. It was pointed out that the exports were disappointing and that the company was dependent principally on the domestic markets.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

Reported there is to be a movement of Wheat from the Northwest, as rates are to advance 2½c.

Rochester, N. Y., has awarded the $150,000 3½ per cent semi-annual five to ten-year market registered bonds at 100.62.

The Fort Wayne, Ind., Electric Light and Power Company's plant has been sold to Eastern capitalists for about $300,000.

Cincinnati reports that the Third National Bank and the National Lafayette Bank of that city are to be consolidated.

The New Century Zinc and Lead Mining Company of Joplin, Kan., has declared a regular monthly dividend of 1 per cent, payable June 1.

The H. C. Frick Coke Company, which furnishes the United States Steel Corporation with its Coke, is operating 82 per cent of its capacity. Officials say it will continue to operate to that extent at least until July.

Briefs declaring the Chicago Car Service Association a combination in restraint of trade were filed by the United States District Attorney, acting on complaint of shippers over the twenty-six railroads involved.

The plan for readjusting the finances of the $95,000,000 Central States Realty Company was announced Wednesday. A new company will be incorporated with $30,000,000 capital stock and $13,500,000 5 per cent bonds.

Rochester, N. Y., has awarded $75,000 4 per cent 15½-year sewer bonds at 104.383, $50,000 4 per cent semi-annual 11½-year average fire bonds at 104.293, and $50,000 4 per cent semi-annual 15½-year average delivery station bonds at 104.33 to Adams & Co.

The Bank of France, Thursday, reported the enormous increase in Gold of 143,800,625 francs, which raises the total Gold holdings to 2,733,000,000 francs, which is declared to be a new high record for the French bank, and it is also the largest single Gold hoard in the world.

At a meeting of the board of directors of Street's Western Stable Car Line Company, held in semi-annual dividend of $3 50 per share for the half year ending June 30, 1901, on the preferred stock of the company outstanding was declared, payable July 1. Transfer books will close on June 18 and reopen July 2.

The following securities have been listed by the New York Stock Exchange: Buffalo and Susquehanna Railroad, $1,000,000 general mortgage 4 per cent bonds, due 1961. New York, Ontario and Western, $1,000,000 additional refunding mortgage 4 per cent 100-year bonds of 1902. Missouri, Kansas and Texas, $2,000,000 additional general 4s of 1925. Utah Fuel Company, $300,000 additional 5 per cent thirty-year sinking fund mortgage bonds of 1931.

Attorney General Simons for the Territory of Oklahoma, Wednesday, filed suit for $234,000 and into receivership of the April suit against the Ameriican Company of Baltimore, which was security on the territorial deposits in the defunct Capital National Bank. The company had executed surety bonds on deposits of the Territory of $250,000. The Capital National failed April 4, with $244,000 of territorial money on deposit, and the Territory alleges that the company has made no steps toward a settlement of the fund. The Territory action is also to be brought against other companies.

A dispatch from New York says: "Wall Street is having such a period of business depression as it has not known since the panic of 1893, and as a result of it is that hundreds of clerks have been dismissed in the last ten days or two weeks. Retrenchments have been made throughout the Wall Street district. Many of the banking concerns and banking-houses the dispensation has been so pronounced that nearly all of them have found it necessary to reduce the working force. One of the largest concerns on the Stock Exchange said to-day that on a comparative estimate he believed that no less than 2,500 clerks and other employes had been dismissed in the retrenchment and economy movements of the last two weeks."

It is said that the American Sugar Refining Company is now turning out about 30,000 brls of Sugar per day from its Eastern refineries, and that the Trust is said to have about a month and one month earlier than usual. The company has a supply of about 400,000 tons of low-priced raw Sugar on hand, which represents about 13 per cent of the entire year's Sugar requirements, and the refining of which, upon the present basis of refined Sugar, shows handsome profits. There has never been a time when the Sugar situation was more favorable under these conditions; that is, low-priced raw Sugar and good prices for refined with a large consumptive demand. The profits in the Sugar refining is said to be very large proportions, the increase in the demand from confectioners alone being an important factor.

An official of the American Smelting and Refining Company states that no definite announcement can be made as to the amount of money to be disbursed by the company to the employes in connection with the profit-sharing plan until the April earnings were published. It is understood that the distribution will involve something like $100,000. Under the plan, as it was announced to the employes, the amount to be set aside for distribution will be equivalent to 10 per cent of the profits of the company. In the first place the following amounts will be required: First, 7 per cent on the preferred stock, $6,500,000; 3 per cent on common stock, $3,000,000, and improvements, $1,000,000, making a total of $7,500,000. From the earnings over and above $7,500,000, provided the total earnings do not exceed $8,000,000, 10 per cent will be added to the funds for distribution. Should the earnings exceed $8,000,000, and not exceed $8,500,000, 15½ per cent of the surplus will be distributed. Should the earnings exceed $8,500,000, and not exceed $9,000,000, 15½ per cent of the surplus will be distributed, and should the earnings exceed $9,000,000, 15 per cent of the entire earnings over and above the $7,500,000 will be thus distributed.

The Wall Street Journal says: "There is one thing that the public apparently never has understood with respect to finance, and that is, that the day cannot come when there is not the public's money. The whole art of finance consists in inducing the public to exchange its money for securities, commodities, services, or manufacture and sale of securities to the public is, with the intermediate processes, the industry of finance in a nutshell. Without the public's money the financier can do nothing. It is of no use to manufacture securities unless they can be sold. The ideal condition of the public mind, from the financier's point of view, is willingness to invest. That is why the 'court circular' journalism is always as optimistic as conditions will allow. That is why corporation reports are either 'very good,' or else 'better than ever before,' no matter how considering everything.' That is why managements are always 'conservative' and so on. Whatever tends to quiet the public's fears, or to sharpen the public's appetite for investment, is good from the point of view of the high financier. To use another metaphor, the public's money is grist to the financial mill. Therefore the public is always a neighbor in its own hands for its services it may have against any financier or group of financiers. It has simply to refuse to buy the securities manufactured by the offenders."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS

FLOUR—The market is very quiet, with sales small and confined exclusively to domestic account.

WINTER WHEAT—Was quiet and steady. The few cars of fresh arrivals were taken by usual buyers. No. 2 Red in store nominally $1 05@1 06 and fresh arrivals free on board at $1 05@1 08. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals free on board quotable at $1 03 @1 07. No. 2 Hard Winter fresh receipts quotably 93@97c, with a sale of a car at 96c. No. 3 Hard quotable at 81@93c, with sales at 90@91c. No. 4 Hard sold at 82c.

SPRING WHEAT—Was in only light demand and the market was quiet and quotably steady. No. 1 Northern in store was quotable at 93½@96½c and fresh arrivals free on board quotably about 97@99c. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals nominally 92@97c. No. 3 Spring ranged at 85@96c for poor to choice. No. 4 Spring quotable at 64@86c for poor to choice, with a sale at 80c.

REGULAR WHEAT—The trade was moderate, but at the same time somewhat larger than of late, with sentiment at the start rather "bearish." Later, however, the situation turned stronger, but near the end of the session sentiment again leaned to the "bear" side. Final figures showed the May ⅝c higher, while July lost ½c, and September ⅛c. Opinions were divided early as to the outcome of the operations in May, there being talk of private settlements. The early weakness was attributable chiefly to the lower cables and generally favorable weather. The selling, however, was in no way pronounced, and the demand improved later, influenced to some extent by the showing of the visible and action at St. Louis, there being buying here by the Southwest. St. Louis "shorts" bought there on reported deterioration of Winter Wheat, due to the recent heavy rains. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ½d lower and futures ⅜@½d lower. Stocks there 3,232,000 bu; increased 224,000 bu last week. The Liverpool decline was reported due to liquidation owing to the cheap India offerings and poor spot demand. London came ½@¾d lower. Paris declined ½@1½c. Berlin was off ⅝c and Buda Pesth ⅝c higher. Broomhall cabled that his agent at Buda Pesth cabled that the recent rains were insufficient to relieve the drouth and that rust was spreading and crop reports alarming. Map showed heavy rains in Ohio Valley and Canadian Northwest; general rains in South Dakota and Minnesota, and local rains in Nebraska, Illinois, Kansas and Missouri. Temperatures were somewhat lower. Showers are probable for the Northwest, Kansas and Missouri. World's shipments were less than expected at 9,400,000 bu, against 10,296,000 bu the previous week and 13,061,000 bu in 1903. The quantity on ocean passage decreased 1,032,000 bu, to 52,480,000 bu, compared with 37,112,000 bu the same date in 1903. The visible supply decreased 2,536,000 bu, against 2,674,000 bu decrease same week in 1903. The total is now 21,575,000 bu compared with 24,528,000 bu in 1903. Local public and afloat stocks increased 106,000 bu to 1,796,000 bu, against 4,373,000 bu same date last year. Minneapolis wired that reports from the Spring Wheat belt were favorable and that receipts at country stations were showing an increase. Minneapolis reporred the mills would start to-day and to-morrow, and that stocks had decreased 85,000 bu so far this week. Exports were very moderate and 12 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Many of the early buyers turned sellers toward the close of the day owing to the absence of activity in the May, all trades being settled. Receipts at Duluth 24 cars and at Minneapolis 516 cars, a total of 540 cars, against 35 cars Saturday, 99 cars a week ago, and 520 cars last year. Local receipts included 8 cars Winter, 20 cars Spring, 2 cars mixed, a total of 30 cars, against 55 cars last year. Included in the above were 19 cars contract grade. There was also 31 cars and 45,200 bu from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 28 cars. Withdrawals today were 58,550 bu. Receipts at Western points were 686,193 bu, against 790,646 bu last year; at Eastern points 178,668 bu, against 673,551 bu last year. JULY—Active. Sold at 38⅜@38⅞c. Opened at 38⅜c to 38½c, sold to 38⅞c, to 38⅝@38¾c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 30⅜@30⅞c. Opened at 30⅝c to 30¾c, sold at 30⅞c to 30⅝c at close.

RYE—Ruled firm and ½c higher for July, and 6c higher for May. There was a fair demand and light offerings. Some "short" covering and prices were bid up. Cash business very light. Only two cars received and no withdrawals from store. No export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store nominal; fresh arrivals quotably about 74@76c. No. 3 sold at 74c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet. There was some demand for May which was bid up to 78c at the close and sold at that figure. July sold at 66½c.

BARLEY—Market for Screenings and feed Barley firm to 1c higher and very good sale. Malting grade was quiet and steady. Offerings were more liberal, there being two days' receipts on the market. To-day's postings showed 21 cars received the past two days. Screenings were quotable at 30@40c for poor to choice, outside recleaned. There were sales at 35c to 41c. Barley, low-grade feed or mixing, quotable at 38@41c, outside for good weight. Malting, low grade, 42@43c, fair to good sound, 45@48c; good color, 49@53c, and fancy, 58@59c.

SEEDS—The markets were all inactive. Offerings of all kinds were small and the demand was also very tame. The markets were all steady.

Timothy—There were small offerings of cash Seed, most of which was not sold up to the close. For high grade Seed there was a fair demand yet it was not at all urgent. The tone of the market was easy and future deliveries were nominally lower. Contract spot or May delivery Seed quotable at $3 00. July about $3 05. September $3 20 bid. Country lots quotable at $2 10@3 10 for low-grade to fancy, choice about $2 80@2 90, fair to good Seed $2 60@2 75 and rough at $2 40@2 50.

Flax—Nothing done in either cash or future deliveries, and the market was nominally unchanged. Local movement was 1 car or 938 bu taken out and none received. In the Northwest the movement was also small. Minneapolis got 27 cars and Duluth none. Local stocks were unchanged and are now 24,201 bu. No. 1 Northwestern nominally $1 16½, No. 1 at $1 00, and Rejected quotable at 97c@$1 10—outside for choice Northwestern. May delivery was nominally $1 02. July at $1 02½ and September at $1 06.

Clover—Market was again inactive. Values called nominally unchanged. Contract spot Seed was quotably $10 75. Country lots common to choice, $7 75@10 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 00@8 60, poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 50.

Other Seeds—Market was devoid of offerings. Prices were nominal as follows: Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark, at $1 30@1 80. Common Millet $1 20@1 50 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 20@1 70. Siberian, 85c@$1 10. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 85c@$1 05. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat quotable at $1 45@1 50 for good.

HOG PRODUCTS—Rather a good business was reported in Hog Products, and the undertone to the market was decidedly stronger. Outside orders were larger, and local trading was fair. "Shorts" were inclined to purchase fair quantities and the offerings were not very large. Trading chiefly in July and September, with considerable business in the way of transferring contracts ahead. Prices ruled higher on all the leading articles, and the appreciation was fairly well supported to the close. The firmer feeling in Corn had a little influence on the market. Hogs were in fair supply, and prices steady. Receipts at the leading Western packing points for two days were 133,500 bu, compared with 136,300 one year ago. Foreign markets were quiet and steady. Domestic market unchanged. Receipts of Products were good—of Lard and Meats about 31 cars. Shipments were light—of Lard and Meats about 80 cars. Exports for the week, compared with the corresponding week in 1903 exhibited a decrease of 800 brls Mess Pork, and increases of 2,655,000 lbs Lard, and 12,079 boxes Meats. Inquiry on shipping account was moderate, and the offerings were only fair. Sales were only fair, and prices rather inclined in favor of sellers.

Mess Pork—Considerable interest was manifested in the market for Mess Pork, and the feeling was stronger. Offerings were moderate, and the demand was quite good. "Shorts" bought moderately. Market opened rather steady, with a few trades at the closing figures of Saturday. A firmer feeling was developed, with considerable competition for the offerings, and prices were advanced 45@47½c on the whole range. Toward the close, the feeling was not so firm, and prices settled back 2½@5c, and the market closed comparatively steady. Demand on shipping account was light, and offerings were small. Cash lots were quotable at $11 60@11 65.

MAY—Called for sparingly, and offerings were light. Trades were made at $11 22½@11 40, but closed nominally at $11 60.

JULY—Offerings were moderate, and the demand was quite active. Sales were made at $11 27½@11 75. Opened at $11 27½, sold to $11 40, to $11 37½, to $11 55, to $11 50, to $11 52½, to $11 47½, to $11 55, to $11 50@11 52½, to $11 75, to $11 70, to $11 75, to $11 72½@11 75, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—In fair request, and offering moderate. Sales were made at $11 55@11 97½. Opened at $11 55, sold to $11 77½, to $11 75, to $11 80, to $11 77½, to $11 80, to $11 75, to $11 97½, to $11 90, to $11 95, and closed steady.

Lard—Trade was moderate in the Lard market, and the market was stronger in a general way. Offerings were not very large, and the demand was fair. Foreign advices were unchanged. Prices were advanced 15@17½c on the whole range, but settled back again toward the close about 2½@5c, and closed comparatively steady. More doing in September contracts. Inquiry on shipping account limited and offerings were only moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 50@6 52½. Loose lots in limited request with moderate offerings. Prices steady at about 55c discount on July figures. Leaf Lard in moderate request and offerings were fair. Prices were quotably higher at $6 67½. Neutral in only limited demand with fair offerings. Prices quotably higher at $6 75@6 87½ for No. 1 and $6 50 @6 62½ for No. 2.

MAY—Quiet and quotable at the close at $6 52½.

JULY—In fair request and offerings were moderate. Sales were made at $6 50@6 65. Opened at $6 50, sold to $6 65, to $6 60, and closed quiet.

SEPTEMBER—Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderately active. Sales were made at $6 65@6 82½. Opened at $6 67½ to $6 70, sold to $6 65, to $6 72½, to $6 75, to $6 72½, to $6 80@6 82½, to $6 77½, and closed steady.

DECEMBER—Sold sparingly at $6 55.

Short Rib Sides—Quite a good speculative business was transacted in the market for Short Rib Sides, and the feeling was considerably stronger. Offerings were not very large, and the demand was quite active. Trading was chiefly in July and September contracts, with operators transferring contracts ahead. Prices were advanced 15@17½c on the whole range, and the appreciation was fairly well supported to the close. "Shorts" bought moderately. Inquiry on shipping account was light, and offerings were moderate. Cash lots quotable at $6 50@6 75 according to weight.

MAY—Quiet with small sales early at $6 62½; closed nominally at $6 75.

JULY—In rather good request with fair offerings. Sales were made at $6 57½@6 75. Opened at $6 57½ to $6 60, sold to $6 62½, to $6 65@6 67½, to $6 65, to $6 75, to $6 72½, to $6 75, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Offerings were fair, and the demand was quite active. Sales were made at $6 75@6 92½. Opened at $6 75 to $6 77½, sold to $6 75@6 77½, to $6 77½@6 80, to $6 77½, to $6 82½, to $6 80, to $6 82½@6 85, to $6 82½, to $6 92½, to $6 87½, to $6 92½, and closed steady.

Other Meats—Trade was only moderate and feeling rather steady. Offerings were not very large and the inquiry was only moderate. Exporters bought sparingly and the home trade was only fair. Green Meats in limited supply, with rather light inquiry, and prices steady. Pickled Meats in moderate demand, and prices unchanged. Dry Salted Meats were in only fair demand, with moderate offerings, and prices favored sellers. Smoked Meats called for in limited quantities, and prices ruled steady. BREADSTUFFS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

[From the Portland Commercial Review, May 26.]

Wheat—The foreign demand for cargoes is so small that it is difficult for local exporters to get a firm offer from the other side, and present indications certainly indicate that export busines- from the two Northern ports, Portland and Tacoma, will be light the remainder of the season. The majority of the shippers are out of the market, and what little is doing in Wheat is confined to the operations of one firm. Holders are not pressing sales, but are willing to meet the market at quoted prices. The majority of them realize that they have held too long, and should have disposed of their holdings sixty days ago. The nearness of the coming harvest is wearing out holders, and the disposition to clean up holdings is becoming more manifest from week to week, and while values are not at all satisfactory to many, in some cases entailing a loss to the seller, yet the situation is more clearly understood by country dealers, who are willing to close out what they have on hand and get ready to handle new business. Of course, a number of well-to-do farmers, who have been holding out for higher prices, have not given up all hope for the $1 00 per bu, and will carry over their stocks.

To the growing crops timely showers were welcome, being mostly needed to soften the soil. Throughout the Northwest weather conditions have been exceedingly favorable to all vegetation, and recent growth has been a little better than the week previous. Perhaps late spring sown Grain is in need of rain the coming month. The usual complaints of damage from various causes are received from a few localities, but there seems to be no reason to doubt that every county in Oregon, Washington and Idaho has at the moment unusually bright prospects for a heavy yield of all kinds of Grain. Quotations for Club Wheat are steady at 72c; Bluestem, 81c, and Valley, 83c per bushel.

Flour—The market is slow and without change, either as to demand or prices. The call seems to be of a local character. The export demand is very quiet, and only one firm in the trade has recently received a cable for Flour at very low prices, and this for a small lot only. A general idea is prevailing that there will be a revival of trade in the next thirty days, and that orders will come in quite rapidly. Stocks of Flour in the interior are very large, and orders coming in could be filled without trouble. Most of the larger mills have very large stocks on hand, and a great many small ones are not very far behind with the same, considering the size of their mill and output per day. One hundred and fifty thousand barrels held by millers would not be any too large to figure on. Shipments to other points outside of Oriental ports are also small. California receiving her usual monthly share. Prices on export brands are lower and range from $3 25 to $3 50 per barrel. As to Patents there is no change, and quotations range from $4 25 to $4 50 per barrel. The latter price is for A1 quality, and very few brands bring these prices.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Northwest rainy and cool. West showery and cool. Southwest showery, with rising temperatures. The Southwest had a good wetting down since Saturday morning, and the Northwest is having rains now. Rather cloudy everywhere.

Indications are for scattered showers over the greater portion of this forecast district, although weather in the lake district will be mostly fair. Temperature changes will not be decided.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

Five piers at Jersey City, N. J., were destroyed by fire, Sunday. Loss estimated at $1,000,000.

The steamer Sultana, Grain laden, belonging to the Tomlinson fleet, cleared from Superior, Wis., for Buffalo, Monday.

The Wabash Railroad reports a comparative decrease of $21,800 in its April net earnings and a decrease of $443,000 for ten months.

A general lock-out of employes in all the Fox River Valley in Wisconsin paper mills is believed certain as a result of the action of the brotherhoods of paper-makers, Saturday, in demanding recognition for their union before passing on the request of the manufacturers to reinstate the long-hour schedule.

An agreement has been reached by prominent New York bankers with regard to securing a uniform system of figuring interest. The following notice will be issued under date of June 1, next: "The undersigned bankers and dealers in State, county, and city bonds, desiring to have a uniform system of figuring interest, hereby agree that on and after this date they will pay for and receive said bonds with interest figured on the basis of 360 days to the year, months, and days, this being the basis on which interest is paid by all municipalities, and that they will maintain the system under any and all circumstances."

It is announced that already more than a majority of the stock of the United States Realty and Construction Company has been pledged to the success of the reorganization scheme. To correct some errors, the announcement is made that the total issue of new securities will be $30,000,000. This amount includes the $13,500,000 convertible bonds. The plan provides that an amount of stock equal to the issue of bonds will be kept in the treasury, so that if the occasion arrives when the stock becomes more valuable than the bonds, the holders of the latter will be able to convert them into stock.

The president of the Pacific Mail Company says in his report to the stockholders that the company had to meet severe competition during the last fiscal year and suffered some loss of revenue through the Government regulations regarding Chinese immigration. He continues: "The sum of $314,823 has as customary been charged to the year's expenses for general and extraordinary repairs of steamers. After charging this account with expenses payable therefrom there remained $1,027 855 to the credit of this fund at the close of the year. The money borrowed to meet payments on the new steamers was reduced by $501,245 during the year. With the exception of this indebtedness, amounting April 30, 1904, to $1,320,163, the company is free from floating debt other than current expenses. The cash on hand in New York, San Francisco and London, April 30, amounted to $18 638." The surplus for the year, as reported previously, was $246,89d.

A large stockholder of the United States Steel Corporation, who is thoroughly familiar with the industry, says: "I notice a reference every little while in the financial press as to a possible reorganization of the United States Steel Corporation. I will go on record as saying that there will never be a reorganization of the United States Steel Corporation so long as Andrew Carnegie and Henry Clay Frick live. The latter would never permit of a reorganization which might make possible the property reverting to Mr. Carnegie. The second mortgage bond issue was financed for the very purpose of preventing such a reorganization, and these are nicknamed in Pittsburg the 'Frick buffer bonds.' They cannot be foreclosed for two years after default, and if there should ever come a depression in the Steel trade which would endanger the fixed charges of the company, and I don't believe there ever will, H. C. Frick and his Standard Oil associates would put their hands in their pockets and make good the interest rather than permit the property to fall into Carnegie's lap. I know whereof I speak. Now, as a matter of fact, there has been an improvement in the Steel situation, and I understand that the total tonnage booked so far this quarter is slightly larger than that booked in the corresponding period of last year, strange as this may seem. Of course, prices are low, especially on export goods, but people should remember that Steel rails are not the only products of the big company."

Since the Pacific Steel Company was organized a few months ago there has been much surmise and speculation as to its scope and the principals back of it, but comparatively few facts have been officially given. This was because the company wanted to acquire ample supplies of raw materials so that it would be prepared for operating on a large scale. The company has been heretofore credited with acquiring: Coal lands in Alaska, so situated that water transportation could be the medium; ore lands in Mexico, extensive in area and deposits, and accessible for transportation by water after constructing railway spurs from the fields to the coast; ore and Coal lands in Texas, not readily accessible. It is now said that the company will soon acquire title to about 40,000 000 tons of Iron ore in Southern Utah and to valuable cokeing Coal and limestone deposits in the same State. The transfer may have actually been made by this time. With the title to Utah ore and Coal lands in its possession, the position of the Pacific Steel Company becomes pretty clearly defined. It is, in the first place, to become in several important respects a rival of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, owned by the Rockefeller-Gould combination. It will seek to divide the Western territory with it and is assured the support of the most powerful railroad system in that section. It is not definitely determined where the company's principal plants are to be located, but it is apparently settled that its chief ore port is to be San Pedro. From the ore fields of Utah the raw material can be quickly and economically carried to San Pedro, and from that point cheap water transportation to any part of the world is available. For the disposition of its finished products the company will look to the Pacific slope, the far Southwest and the over-Pacific trade with China, Japan, Corea, the Philippines and Australia. The Iron and Steel trade with these alone is far in excess of the capacity of the proposed plants. In the matter of location those financially interested in the company say that this alone will give them an advantage in freight rates which cannot be overcome by Eastern competitors. The Pacific Steel Company, it is said, is eventually to have the active co-operation of at least three of the leading Steel masters of the United States. Officially this statement will not yet be confirmed. It will come authoritatively later.
